PART A—PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

WAC 388-15-001 What is the child protective services program? (1) Child protective services (CPS) means those services provided by the department of social and health services designed to protect children from child abuse and neglect and safeguard such children from future abuse and neglect, and conduct investigations of child abuse and neglect reports (RCW 26.44.020 (12) and (16)).

(2) CPS may include the following:

(a) Investigation of reports of alleged child abuse or neglect.

(b) Assessment of risk of abuse or neglect to children.

(c) Provision of and/or referral to services to remedy conditions that endanger the health, safety, and welfare of children.

(d) Referral to law enforcement when there are allegations that a crime against a child (RCW 26.44.030(4) and 74.13.031(3)) might have been committed.

(e) Out of home placement and petitions to courts when necessary to ensure the safety of children.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-001, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-005 What definitions apply to these rules? The following definitions apply to this chapter.

"Abuse or neglect" means the injury, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, negligent treatment, or maltreatment of a child as defined in RCW 26.44.020 and this chapter.

"Administrative hearing" means a hearing held before an administrative law judge and conducted according to chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC.

"Administrative law judge (ALJ)" is an impartial decision-maker who presides at an administrative hearing. The office of administrative hearings, which is a state agency but not part of DSHS, employs the ALJs.

"Alleged perpetrator" means the person identified in a CPS referral as being responsible for the alleged child abuse or neglect.

"Alternative response system" means a contracted provider in a local community that responds to accepted CPS referrals that are rated low or moderately low risk at the time of intake.

"Appellant" means a person who requests an administrative hearing to appeal a CPS finding.

"Child protection team (CPT)" means a multidisciplinary group of persons with at least four persons from professions that provide services to abused or neglected children and/or parents of such children. The CPT provides confidential case staffing and consultation to children's administration.

"Child protective services (CPS)" means the section of the children's administration responsible for responding to allegations of child abuse or neglect.

"Children's administration (CA)" means the cluster of programs within DSHS that is responsible for the provision of child protective, child welfare, foster care licensing, group care licensing, and other services to children and their families.

"Department" or "DSHS" means the Washington state department of social and health services.

"Divisions of child care and early learning (DCCEL)" means the division of economic services responsible for licensing child care homes and child care facilities.

"Division of children and family services (DCFS)" means the division of children's administration that provides child protective, child welfare, and support services to children and their families.

"Division of licensed resources (DLR)" means the division of children's administration responsible for licensing group care and foster care facilities, and responding to allegations of abuse or neglect in such facilities.

"Finding" means the final decision made by a CPS social worker after an investigation regarding alleged child abuse or neglect.

"Founded" means the determination following an investigation by CPS that based on available information it is more likely than not that child abuse or neglect did occur.

"Inconclusive" means the determination following an investigation by CPS that based on available information a decision cannot be made that more likely than not, child abuse or neglect did or did not occur.

"Mandated reporter" means a person required to report alleged child abuse or neglect as defined in RCW 26.44.030.

"Preponderance of evidence" means the evidence presented in a hearing indicates more likely than not child abuse or neglect did occur.

"Unfounded" means the determination following an investigation by CPS that based on available information it is more likely than not that child abuse or neglect did not occur.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-005, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-009 What is child abuse or neglect?

Child abuse or neglect means the injury, sexual abuse, sexual exploitation, negligent treatment, or maltreatment of a child under circumstances which indicate that the child's health, welfare, and safety is harmed. An abused child is a child who has been subjected to child abuse or neglect as defined in this section.

(1) Physical abuse means the nonaccidental infliction of physical injury or physical mistreatment on a child. Physical abuse includes, but is not limited to, such actions as:

- (a) Throwing, kicking, burning, or cutting a child;
- (b) Striking a child with a closed fist;
- (c) Shaking a child under age three;
- (d) Interfering with a child's breathing;
- (e) Threatening a child with a deadly weapon;

(f) Doing any other act that is likely to cause and which does cause bodily harm greater than transient pain or minor temporary marks or which is injurious to the child's health, welfare and safety.

(2) Physical discipline of a child, including the reasonable use of corporal punishment, is not considered abuse when it is reasonable and moderate and is inflicted by a parent or guardian for the purposes of restraining or correcting the child. The age, size, and condition of the child, and the location of any inflicted injury shall be considered in determining whether the bodily harm is reasonable or moderate. Other factors may include the developmental level of the child and the nature of the child's misconduct. A parent's belief that it is necessary to punish a child does not justify or permit the use of excessive, immoderate or unreasonable force against the child.

(3) Sexual abuse means committing or allowing to be committed any sexual offense against a child as defined in the criminal code. The intentional touching, either directly or through the clothing, of the sexual or other intimate parts of a child or allowing, permitting, compelling, encouraging, aiding, or otherwise causing a child to engage in touching the sexual or other intimate parts of another for the purpose of gratifying the sexual desire of the person touching the child, the child, or a third party. A parent or guardian of a child, a person authorized by the parent or guardian to provide child-care for the child, or a person providing medically recognized services for the child, may touch a child in the sexual or other intimate parts for the purposes of providing hygiene, child care, and medical treatment or diagnosis.

(4) Sexual exploitation includes, but is not limited to, such actions as allowing, permitting, compelling, encouraging, aiding, or otherwise causing a child to engage in:

(a) Prostitution;

(b) Sexually explicit, obscene or pornographic activity to be photographed, filmed, or electronically reproduced or transmitted; or

(c) Sexually explicit, obscene or pornographic activity as part of a live performance, or for the benefit or sexual gratification of another person.

(5) Negligent treatment or maltreatment means an act or a failure to act on the part of a child's parent, legal custodian, guardian, or caregiver that shows a serious disregard of the consequences to the child of such magnitude that it creates a clear and present danger to the child's health, welfare, and safety. A child does not have to suffer actual damage or physical or emotional harm to be in circumstances which create a clear and present danger to the child's health, welfare, and safety. Negligent treatment or maltreatment includes, but is not limited, to:

(a) Failure to provide adequate food, shelter, clothing, supervision, or health care necessary for a child's health, welfare, and safety. Poverty and/or homelessness do not constitute negligent treatment or maltreatment in and of themselves;

(b) Actions, failures to act, or omissions that result in injury to or which create a substantial risk of injury to the physical, emotional, and/or cognitive development of a child; or

(c) The cumulative effects of consistent inaction or behavior by a parent or guardian in providing for the physical, emotional and developmental needs of a child's, or the effects of chronic failure on the part of a parent or guardian to perform basic parental functions, obligations, and duties, when the result is to cause injury or create a substantial risk of injury to the physical, emotional, and/or cognitive development of a child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-009, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-011 What is child abandonment? (1) A Parent or guardian abandons a child when the parent or guardian is responsible for the care, education, or support of a child and:

(a) Deserts the child in any manner whatever with the intent to abandon the child;

(b) Leaves a child without the means or ability to obtain one or more of the basic necessities of life such as food, water, shelter, clothing, hygiene, and medically necessary health care; or

(c) Forgoes for an extended period of time parental rights, functions, duties and obligations despite an ability to exercise such rights, duties, and obligations.

(2) Abandonment of a child by a parent may be established by conduct on the part of a parent or guardian that demonstrates a substantial lack of regard for the rights, duties, and obligations of the parent or guardian or for the health, welfare, and safety of the child. Criminal activity or incarceration of a parent or guardian does not constitute abandonment in and of themselves, but a pattern of criminal activity or repeated or long-term incarceration may constitute abandonment of a child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-011, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-013 Who may receive child protective services? Children and families may receive child protective services when there is an allegation that a child has been abused or neglected:

(1) By a parent, legal custodian, or guardian of the child; or

(2) In a DSHS licensed, certified, or state-operated facility; or

(3) By persons or agencies subject to licensing under chapter 74.15 RCW, including individuals employed by or volunteers of such facilities.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050 and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-013, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-017 What is the responsibility of CPS regarding reports of abuse or neglect? (1) CPS must record a report from any source alleging child abuse or neglect.

(2) CPS must determine whether alleged incidents or conditions meet the definitions of child abuse or neglect in this chapter or in chapter 26.44 RCW.

(3) CPS must assess or investigate all reports of alleged child abuse or neglect that meet the definitions of child abuse or neglect contained in this chapter or in chapter 26.44 RCW.

(4) CPS must investigate anonymous reports only as provided in RCW 26.44.030(15).

(5) CPS must maintain a record of reports received that are not investigated because they do not meet the definitions of child abuse or neglect as defined in RCW or this chapter.

(6) CPS must report to law enforcement per RCW 26.44.030(4) and 74.13.031.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-017, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-021 How does CPS respond to reports of alleged child abuse or neglect? (1) CPS must assess all reports that meet the definition of child abuse or neglect using a risk assessment process to determine level of risk and response time.

(2) CPS must provide an in-person response to alleged victims and must attempt an in-person response to the alleged perpetrator of child abuse and neglect in referrals assessed at moderate to high risk.

(3) CPS may refer reports assessed at low to moderately low risk to an alternative response system.

(4) CPS may interview a child, outside the presence of the parent, without prior parental notification or consent (RCW 26.44.030(10)).

(5) Unless the child objects, CPS must make reasonable efforts to have a third party present at the interview so long as the third party does not jeopardize the investigation (RCW 26.44.030).

(6) CPS may photograph the alleged child victim to document the physical condition of the child (RCW 26.44.050).

(7) CPS must establish in procedure, timelines for the completion of investigations and standards for written findings.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050 and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-021, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-025 What special requirements must CPS follow for Indian children? (1) These special requirements apply to children defined as Indians in WAC 388-70-091.

(2) The DCFS social worker shall document in case records efforts to keep Indian families together and to avoid separating the Indian child from his parents, relatives, tribe or cultural heritage as per RCW 26.44.010 and WAC 388-70-093.

(3) In alleged child abuse and neglect situations, the DCFS social worker shall document in case records, efforts to utilize staff and services particularly capable of meeting the special needs of Indian children and their families, in consultation with the child's tribe and/or local Indian child welfare advisory committee per WAC 388-70-600 through 388-70-640.

(4) The DCFS social worker shall promptly advise the tribal council and the local Indian child welfare advisory committee that a child affiliated with the tribe is the victim of substantiated child abuse or neglect. The provisions of RCW 26.44.070, WAC 377-70-640, limiting who has access to confidential information, shall be followed in all cases.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-025, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-029 What information may CPS share with mandated reporters? (1) CPS in the conduct of ongoing case planning and consultation with those persons or agencies required to report alleged child abuse or neglect under RCW 26.44.030 and with consultants designated by CPS, may share otherwise confidential information with such persons, agencies, and consultants if the confidential information is pertinent to cases currently receiving child protective services.

(2) When CPS receives a report of alleged child abuse or neglect, mandated reporters, as identified in RCW 26.44.030, and their employees must provide upon request by CPS, all relevant records in their possession related to the child (RCW 26.44.030).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-029, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-033 When will CPS involve local community resources? (1) CPS may use local community resources to respond to reports of abuse or neglect when the department's assessment of risk determines that a community response is in the best interest of the child and family.

(2) CPS may involve local community resources in the planning and provision of services to help remedy conditions that contribute to the abuse or neglect of children.

(3) CPS must have community based child protective teams (CPT) available for staffing and consultation regarding cases of child abuse or neglect. CPS must present cases for staffing with the CPT in accordance with executive order 95-04 and department procedures.

(4) There are special requirements for staffing Indian children cases with the local Indian child welfare advisory committee (WAC 388-70-600).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-033, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-037 Under what circumstances may CPS place a child in out-of-home care? (1) When CPS determines that a child is at risk of serious harm in the care of the parent, legal custodian, or guardian CPS may seek an out-of-home placement for the child. Before placing a child in out-of-home care one of the following must be in place:

(a) A court order directing that the child be placed in out-of-home care (RCW 13.34.050); or

(b) A law enforcement officer placing the child in protective custody (RCW 26.44.050); or

(c) A physician or hospital administrator detaining a child and CPS assuming custody until a court hearing is held (RCW 26.44.056); or

(d) A voluntary placement agreement signed by the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian. Voluntary placements of Indian children must comply with RCW 13.34.245.

(2) CPS must attempt to place the child with a relative willing and available to care for the child, unless there is reasonable cause to believe that the health, safety and welfare of the child would be jeopardized or that efforts to reunite the parent and child will be hindered (RCW 13.34.060). If a relative appears suitable and competent with good character to provide adequate care, the background check of a relative shall be completed as soon as possible after the child is placed (RCW 74.15.030).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-037, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-041 When will CPS involve the juvenile court? CPS may file a dependency petition with the juvenile court when CPS determines that court intervention is necessary for protection of the child.

(1) CPS must file a dependency petition with the juvenile court when a child is to remain in out of home care beyond seventy-two hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) unless the child's parent or legal custodian signs a voluntary placement agreement.

(2) CPS must make reasonable efforts to notify both parents, guardians, and any legal custodian(s) that a dependency petition has been filed. The notice must inform these parties of the date, time, and location of the initial shelter care hearing and of the parent(s) and any legal custodian's legal rights. If the court has entered an order for the out-of-home placement of the child, a hearing shall be held within seventy-two hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

(3) Whenever CPS assumes custody of a child from law enforcement, and places the child in out of home care, a court hearing must be held within seventy-two hours from the time the child is taken into protective custody, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

(4) Whenever CPS assumes custody from a physician or a hospital administrator and places the child in out-of-home care, a court hearing must be held within seventy-two hours from the time CPS assumes custody of the child, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-041, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-045 What are the department's responsibilities regarding notification of the parent or legal custodian in child protective services cases? CPS must notify the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of a child at the earliest possible point that will not jeopardize the investigation or the safety or protection of the child when:

(1) CPS is investigating a report alleging an act or acts of child abuse or neglect, and:

(a) The child is alleged to be the victim; and/or

(b) CPS interviews a child in relation to an alleged act of child abuse or neglect.

(2) CPS takes a child into custody pursuant to a court order issued under RCW 13.34.050.

(3) CPS receives custody of a child from law enforcement pursuant to RCW 26.44.050.

(4) CPS files a dependency petition.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-045, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-049 When must the department notify the alleged perpetrator of allegations of child abuse or neglect? CPS must attempt to notify the alleged perpetrator of the allegations of child abuse or neglect at the earliest point in the investigation that will not jeopardize the safety and protection of the child or the investigation process.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-049, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-053 What steps must the department take to provide an opportunity for the parent(s), guardian, or legal custodian(s) to review case information? To provide an opportunity for the parent(s), guardian, or legal custodian(s) to review case information, CPS must give such person the opportunity to read or obtain relevant parts of the case record, provided the person or persons have requested access to the information and the law does not otherwise prohibit such access (RCW 13.50.100).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-053, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-057 What limitations does the department have on the disclosure of case information? Information obtained by CPS is confidential pursuant to federal and state law. The department may only disclose case record information as permitted by applicable statutes and the provisions of chapter 388-01 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-057, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 280]

PART B—NOTIFICATION AND APPEAL OF FINDINGS

WAC 388-15-061 What is the purpose of these rules?

The purpose of these rules is to describe:

(1) The procedures for notifying the alleged perpetrator of any findings made by a CPS social worker in an investigation of suspected child abuse or neglect; and

(2) The process for challenging a founded CPS finding of child abuse or neglect (RCW 26.44.100 and 26.44.125).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-061, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-065 Does CPS have to notify the alleged perpetrator of the results of CPS investigation? CPS has the duty to notify the alleged perpetrator in writing of any finding made by CPS in any investigation of suspected child abuse and/or neglect.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-065, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-069 How does CPS notify the alleged perpetrator of the finding? (1) CPS notifies the alleged perpetrator of the finding by sending the CPS finding notice via certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address. CPS must make a reasonable, good faith effort to determine the last known address or location of the alleged perpetrator.

(2) In cases where certified mailing may not be either possible or advisable, the CPS social worker may personally deliver or have served the CPS finding notice to the alleged perpetrator.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-069, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-073 What information must be in the CPS finding notice? The CPS finding notice must inform the alleged perpetrator of the department's investigative finding, including the legal basis for the findings and sufficient factual information to apprise the alleged perpetrator of the date and nature of the founded reports. The notice must also contain the following:

(1) The alleged perpetrator may submit to CPS a written response regarding the CPS finding. If a response is submitted, CPS must file this response in the department's records.

(2) Information in the department's records may be considered in later investigations or proceedings relating to child protection or child custody.

(3) Founded CPS findings may be considered in determining:

(a) If an alleged perpetrator is qualified to be licensed to care for children or vulnerable adults;

(b) If an alleged perpetrator is qualified to be employed by a child care agency or facility;

(c) If an alleged perpetrator may be authorized or funded by the department to provide care or services to children or vulnerable adults.

(2007 Ed.)

(4) The alleged perpetrator's right to challenge a founded CPS finding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-073, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-077 What happens to unfounded CPS findings? (1) According to RCW 74.15.130 (2)(b), no unfounded, or inconclusive CPS finding of child abuse or neglect may be used to deny employment in a child care facility or to deny a license to care for children.

(2) According to RCW 26.44.020(19) no unfounded or inconclusive allegation of child abuse or neglect may be disclosed as part of a background check to a child placing agency, private adoption agency, or any other provider licensed under chapter 74.15 RCW.

(3) According to RCW 26.44.031, at the end of six years from the date of the report, the department must remove the unfounded finding from the department's records unless an additional child abuse and/or neglect report has been received regarding the same perpetrator during those six years.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-077, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-081 Can an alleged perpetrator challenge a CPS finding of child abuse or neglect? A person named as an alleged perpetrator in a founded CPS report made on or after October 1, 1998, may challenge that finding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-081, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-085 How does an alleged perpetrator challenge a founded CPS finding? (1) In order to challenge a founded CPS finding, the alleged perpetrator must make a written request for CPS to review the founded CPS finding of child abuse or neglect. The CPS finding notice must provide the information regarding all steps necessary to request a review.

(2) The request must be provided to the same CPS office that sent the CPS finding notice within twenty calendar days from the date the alleged perpetrator receives the CPS finding notice (RCW 26.44.125).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-085, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-089 What happens if the alleged perpetrator does not request CPS to review the founded CPS finding within twenty days? (1) If the alleged perpetrator does not submit a written request within twenty calendar days for CPS to review the founded CPS finding, no further review or challenge of the finding may occur.

(2) If the department has exercised reasonable, good faith efforts to provide notice of the CPS finding to the alleged perpetrator, the alleged perpetrator shall not have further opportunity to request a review of the finding beyond thirty days from the time the notice was sent.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-089, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-093 What happens after the alleged perpetrator requests CPS to review the founded CPS finding of child abuse or neglect? (1) CPS management level staff or their designees who were not involved in the decision making process will review the founded CPS finding of child abuse or neglect. The management staff will consider the following information:

- (a) CPS records;
- (b) CPS summary reports; and
- (c) Any written information the alleged perpetrator may have submitted regarding the founded CPS finding of abuse and/or neglect.

(2) Management staff may also meet with the CPS social worker and/or CPS supervisor to discuss the investigation/finding. After review of all this information, management staff decides if the founded CPS finding is correct or if it should be changed.

(3) Management staff must complete their review of the founded CPS finding within sixty calendar days from the date CPS received the written request for review.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-093, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-097 How does CPS notify the alleged perpetrator of the results of the CPS management review? CPS will notify the alleged perpetrator in writing of the results of the CPS management review. CPS will send this notice to the last known address of the alleged perpetrator by certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice of the CPS management review decision will also contain information regarding how to request a hearing.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-097, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-101 What happens if CPS management staff changes the founded CPS finding? If CPS management staff changes the founded CPS finding, CPS notifies the alleged perpetrator that the department has changed the finding to either inconclusive or unfounded. CPS management staff or their designee must correct the department's records to show the changed finding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-101, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-105 What happens if CPS management staff does not change the founded CPS finding? (1) If CPS management staff does not change the founded CPS finding, the alleged perpetrator has the right to further challenge that finding by requesting an administrative hearing.

(2) The request for a hearing must be in writing and sent to the Office of Administrative Hearings. WAC 388-02-0025 lists the current address.

(3) The office of administrative hearings must receive the written request for a hearing within thirty days from the date that the person requesting the hearing receives the CPS management review decision.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-105, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-109 What laws and rules will control the administrative hearings held regarding the founded CPS findings? Chapter 34.05 RCW, RCW 26.44.100 and 26.44.125, chapter 388-02 WAC, and the provisions of this chapter govern any administrative hearing regarding a founded CPS finding. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this chapter and chapter 388-02 WAC, the provisions of this chapter must prevail.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-109, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-113 What effect does a petition for dependency have on an administrative hearing? (1) If a dependency petition, based on chapter 13.34 RCW, regarding the alleged abuse or neglect has been filed, the administrative hearing must be stayed (postponed) until the superior court has entered an order and findings regarding the dependency petition.

(2) The ALJ must consider any superior court dependency findings and order relating to the alleged abuse or neglect.

(3) If the superior court has entered findings that the alleged perpetrator was the person responsible for the alleged child abuse or neglect, the ALJ must uphold the CPS finding. The ALJ must reiterate the court ruling and incorporate that ruling in the decision issued by the ALJ.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-113, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-117 What factors must the ALJ consider in order for the alleged abused and/or neglected child to testify at the administrative hearing? (1) The ALJ must give special consideration to any request by a party for the alleged abused or neglected child to testify in order to protect the physical and emotional well being of the child. For the protection of the child, the ALJ must determine:

(a) If compelling reasons exist to have the child testify. If compelling reasons do exist, the ALJ must consider alternative methods to in-person testimony by the child. Such methods may include, but are not limited to, having the child testify by telephone or videotape; or

(b) If the rights of a party (either the appellant or DSHS) would be prejudiced by not having the child testify in person. If a party's rights would be prejudiced, the ALJ must consider other methods to hear the child's testimony without having the child directly confront the alleged perpetrator.

(2) If the child does testify at the hearing, the ALJ must include a written finding in the administrative hearing decision regarding the compelling reasons for the child's testimony and what alternative methods to in-person testimony the ALJ considered.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 282]

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-117, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-121 Are there issues the ALJ may not rule upon during an administrative hearing regarding a founded CPS finding? In any administrative hearing regarding a founded CPS finding, an ALJ may not rule upon the department's decisions regarding the following:

- (1) Placement of the alleged abused or neglected child;
- (2) Risk assessments used in making placement decisions regarding the alleged abused and/or neglected child; or
- (3) Service plans for the alleged perpetrator and/or alleged abused or neglected child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-121, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-125 Are the administrative hearings open to the public? Based on RCW 26.44.125, any administrative hearing regarding founded CPS findings is confidential and must not be open to the public.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-125, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-129 How does the ALJ make a decision regarding the founded CPS finding? (1) The ALJ must decide if a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record supports a determination that the alleged perpetrator committed an act of abuse or neglect of a child.

(2) If the ALJ determines that a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record supports the founded CPS finding, the ALJ must uphold the finding.

(3) If the ALJ determines that the founded CPS finding is not supported by a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record, the ALJ must remand the matter to the department for a change of the finding consistent with the ruling of the ALJ.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-129, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-133 How will the appellant be notified of the ALJ's decision? After the administrative hearing, the ALJ will send a written decision to the appellant and the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-133, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-135 What if the appellant or the department disagrees with the decision? If the appellant or the department disagrees with the ALJ's decision, either party may challenge this decision according to the procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-135, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-141 What happens if the ALJ rules against the department? If the department challenges the

(2007 Ed.)

ALJ's decision, the department will not change the finding in the department's records and the finding will remain in effect pending the final decision from the department's challenge. If the department does not challenge the ALJ's decision, the department will correct the finding in the department's records consistent with the ALJ's decision.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 74.04.050, and chapter 26.44 RCW. 02-15-098 and 02-17-045, § 388-15-141, filed 7/16/02 and 8/14/02, effective 2/10/03.]

WAC 388-15-240 Family planning. (1) Family planning services are those services which enable individuals including minors and handicapped persons, to make choices regarding the number and spacing of children. These services include outreach, information, referral, support services (such as transportation and child care), counseling, education, medical care and follow-up. Family planning medical services include physical examinations, lab tests, diagnosis, treatment, surgical procedures as appropriate, drugs, supplies, devices furnished, prescribed by or under the supervision of a physician.

(2) Goals for family planning shall be limited to those specified in WAC 388-15-010 (1)(a) through (e). Also see WAC 388-15-010(2).

(3) Family planning is a federally mandated service offered to all appropriate persons in the aid to families of dependent children program and also to any appropriate individual who meets the state's financial eligibility requirements (including anyone who within three months has been an applicant for or a recipient of AFDC (see WAC 388-15-020 (1)(e)(i))). Services will be provided promptly to all of the foregoing individuals who voluntarily request such services.

[Order 1238, § 388-15-240, filed 8/31/77; Order 1204, § 388-15-240, filed 4/1/77; Order 1147, § 388-15-240, filed 8/26/76; Order 1088, § 388-15-240, filed 1/19/76.]

WAC 388-15-400 Services to individuals released from mental hospitals or in danger of requiring commitment to such institutions. (1) These services are those services necessary to enable eligible individuals age 65 or over to remain in the community in lieu of care in a mental hospital, or upon release from a mental hospital, to return to and live in the community. Services may also be provided to recipients of AFDC who are being released from mental institutions.

(2) Necessary adult services shall be provided to beneficiaries of SSI, recipients of Title XIX, and other individuals whose income does not exceed the standard in WAC 388-15-020 who:

- (a) Are released from a mental hospital, or
- (b) Need alternate care to continue to live in the community.

(3) Services provided to accomplish the objective to assist the recipient to maintain or be restored to the greatest possible degree of independent functioning and self help shall be any appropriate adult services described in WAC 388-15-100 through 388-15-400.

(4) Services to be provided to accomplish this objective for recipients of AFDC age 21 or under being released from mental institutions shall be any appropriate family or children's service described in WAC 388-15-100 through 388-15-400.

(5) See also chapter 388-95 WAC.

- 388-25-1020 When will my eligibility for CA/SSP be determined?
- 388-25-1030 How will I know if I am eligible to receive a CA/SSP payment?
- 388-25-1040 Can I apply for the CA/SSP program if I am not identified by CA as eligible for the CA/SSP program?
- 388-25-1050 What are my appeal rights if CA determines that I am not eligible for CA/SSP?

DISPOSITION OF SECTIONS FORMERLY CODIFIED IN THIS CHAPTER

- 388-25-0230 Are adoption support cases exempt from referral to the division of child support (DCS) for collection? [Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 01-08-047, § 388-25-0230, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.] Repealed by 05-06-091, filed 3/1/05, effective 4/1/05. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 2004 c 183, 74.20.040, and 74.13.020.

PART A: GENERAL

WAC 388-25-0005 What is the legal basis for the foster care program? RCW 74.13.020 authorizes the department to provide foster care placement services.

WAC 388-25-0010 What definitions apply to the foster care program? The following definitions are important:

"Alcohol affected infant" means a child age birth through twelve months who was exposed to alcohol in utero and may demonstrate physical, behavioral, or cognitive signs that may be attributed to alcohol exposure.

"Behavior rehabilitation services" (BRS) is a comprehensive program of positive behavioral support and environmental structure in a supervised group or family living setting. Resources are designed to modify a child's behavior or to appropriately care for a child's intensive medical condition. Services are tailored to each client's needs and offered in the least restrictive setting possible.

"Child placing agency" means a private licensed or certified agency that places a child or children for temporary care, continued care, or for adoption.

"Children's administration" (CA) means the cluster of programs within the department of social and health services responsible for the provision of child welfare, child protective, child care licensing, and other services to children and their families.

"Crisis residential center" (CRC) means a secure or semi-secure facility established under chapter 74.13 RCW.

"Department" means the department of social and health services (DSHS).

"Dependency guardian" means the person, nonprofit corporation, or Indian tribe appointed by the court pursuant to RCW 13.34.232 for the limited purpose of assisting the court in the supervision of the dependency.

"Division of children and family services" (DCFS) is the division of children's administration that provides child welfare, child protective, family reconciliation, and support services to children in need of protection and their families.

"Division of licensed resources" (DLR) is the division of children's administration responsible for licensing or certifying child care homes and facilities under the authority of chapter 74.15 RCW.

"Drug affected infant" means a child age birth through twelve months who was exposed to drugs or substances in utero and demonstrates physical, behavioral, or cognitive signs that can be attributed to exposure to drugs or substances.

"Early and periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment" (EPSDT), also known as "healthy kids," is a federal program for preventive health care for children and teens served by Medicaid. The physical/well child examination helps find health problems early and enables the child to receive treatment for concerns identified in the examination.

"Foster care" means twenty-four-hour per day temporary substitute care for the child placed away from the child's parents or guardians and for whom the department or a licensed or certified child placing agency has placement and care responsibility. This includes but is not limited to placements in foster family homes, foster homes of relatives, licensed group homes, emergency shelters, staffed residential facilities, and preadoptive homes, regardless of whether the department licenses the home or facility and/or makes payments for care of the child.

"Foster care services" for the department include:

- (1) The determination of needs of the child;
- (2) The determination of need for foster care;
- (3) The placement of the child in the type of foster care setting that best meets the child's needs;
- (4) The referral of a child to a private child placement agency or institution to meet the child's specific needs;
- (5) Medical services according to the rules of the department's medical program;
- (6) Reimbursement for the care of a child in a licensed family foster home;
- (7) The purchase of care from a licensed private child placing agency, behavioral rehabilitation services provider, or maternity home;
- (8) Supervision of the foster care placement by direct supervision through departmental social work services; or indirect supervision through evaluation of periodic reports from private child placing agencies, rehabilitation services providers, or maternity homes with which the department has contractual arrangements.

"Foster home or foster family home" means person(s) regularly providing care on a twenty-four-hour basis to one or more children in the person's home.

"Group care" means a twenty-four-hour facility licensed or certified under chapter 388-148 WAC for more than six children. The facility provides the basic needs for food, shelter, and supervision. The facility also provides therapeutic services required for the successful reunification of children with the children's family resource or the achievement of an alternate permanent living arrangement.

"Independent living services" means the program services and activities established and implemented by the department to assist youth sixteen years or older in preparing to live on their own after leaving foster care.

"Overpayment" means any money paid by the department for services or goods not rendered, delivered, or authorized or where the department paid too much for services or goods or services rendered, delivered, or authorized.

"Regional support network" is an administrative body which oversees the funding for provision of public mental health services.

"Relative" means a person who is related as defined in RCW 74.15.020 (2)(a).

"Responsible parent" means a birth parent, adoptive parent, or stepparent of a dependent child or a person who has signed an affidavit acknowledging paternity that has been filed with the state office of vital statistics.

"Responsible living skills program" means an agency licensed by the secretary that provides residential and transitional living services to persons ages sixteen to eighteen who are dependent under chapter 13.34 RCW and who have been unable to live in his or her legally authorized residence and, as a result, lives outdoors or in another unsafe location not intended for use as housing.

"Staffed residential home" means a licensed home providing twenty-four-hour care for six or fewer children or expectant mothers. The home may employ staff to care for children or expectant mothers.

"Shelter care" means the legal status of a child at entry in foster care prior to a disposition hearing before the court.

"Vendor" means an individual or corporation that provides goods or services to or for clients of the department and that controls operational decisions.

PART B: PLACEMENT AUTHORIZATION AND PAYMENT

WAC 388-25-0015 What are the department's placement priorities? Within the limits of available financial resources, the department provides placement services to children according to the following ordered priorities:

(1) The department must place children who urgently need protection from child abuse or neglect (CA/N) if the department has legal authority for placement consistent with WAC 388-25-0025.

(2) The department may place children whose mental, emotional, behavioral or physical needs present a risk to their safety and resources do not exist within the family to provide for those needs.

WAC 388-25-0018 What is the agency's goal as to the maximum number of children who remain in foster care in excess of twenty-four months? The placement goal for the foster care program is to limit the number of all children who remain in care in excess of twenty-four months to no more than thirty-five percent of the foster care population.

WAC 388-25-0020 What are the department's limitations on placement? Children's administration (CA) social workers must place only those children who meet the criteria for child protective services (CPS), family reconciliation services (FRS), or child welfare services as defined in RCW 74.13.020. Children in situations outlined below do not meet those criteria:

(1) Children whom the CA social worker determines, after assessment, will not be helped in out-of-home care.

(2) Youths ages twelve through seventeen years of age in conflict with their parents and who have not received family reconciliation services, except families receiving adoption support that have already received extensive counseling services.

(3) Youths ages twelve through seventeen years of age whose family has received family reconciliation services and parents are unwilling to have the youths at home solely due to misbehavior.

(4) Youths for whom the primary placement issue is community protection, including sexual predators covered by the sexually aggressive youth (SAY) statute, RCW 74.13.-075.

(5) Youths who are unwilling to live in the home of parents who are willing to have them at home, when this is the only presenting problem.

(6) Youths who have a mental illness and are a danger to themselves or others as defined by a mental health professional (see chapter 71.34 RCW).

WAC 388-25-0025 When may the department or a child placing agency authorize foster care placement? The department or a child placing agency may place a child in foster care only under the following circumstances:

(1) The child has been placed in temporary residential care after having been taken into custody under chapter 13.32A RCW, Family Reconciliation Act, to alleviate personal or family situations that present an imminent threat to the health or stability of the child or family.

(2) The child, the child's parent(s), or the department has filed a petition requesting out-of-home placement for the child pursuant to RCW 13.32A.120 or 13.32A.140:

(a) Placement has been approved after a fact finding hearing under RCW 13.32A.170; or

(b) A child has been admitted directly to placement in a crisis residential center (CRC), and the parents have been notified of the child's whereabouts, physical and emotional condition, and the circumstances surrounding the child's placement.

(3) A child has been placed in shelter care under one of the following circumstances:

(a) The child has been taken into custody by law enforcement or through a hospital administrative hold and placed in shelter care; or

(b) A petition has been filed with the juvenile court alleging that the child is dependent; that the child's health, safety, and welfare will be seriously endangered if not taken into custody; and the juvenile court enters an order placing the child in shelter care (see RCW 13.34.050 and 13.34.060).

(4) A juvenile court has made a determination of dependency for a child and has issued a disposition order under RCW 13.34.130 that removes the child from the child's home.

(5) A juvenile court has terminated the parent and child relationship as provided in chapter 13.34 RCW and has placed the custody of the child with the department or with a licensed or certified child placing agency.

(6) The child's parent(s) or persons legally responsible to sign a consent for voluntary placement that demonstrates agreement with an out-of-home placement as described in RCW 74.13.031.

WAC 388-25-0030 When may the department serve a child through a behavior rehabilitation services program? (1) The department may serve a child through the behavior rehabilitation services (BRS) program only when the CA social worker has assessed the child's and family's needs and determined that rehabilitative services are necessary and that this is the most appropriate placement for the child.

(2) The department may only provide financial support for a child's BRS placement when the CA social worker has determined this level of care is necessary, the placement is in a licensed or certified home or facility, the provider meets the department's qualifications, and the department has contracted with the provider for that service.

WAC 388-25-0035 What is the department's authority to remove a child from a behavior rehabilitation services placement? The department has the authority to remove the child after at least seventy-two hours notice to the child care provider. The department may waive notice in emergency situations or when a court has issued an order changing a child's placement.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0035, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0040 How long may a child served by the department remain in out-of-home placement before a court hearing is held? Within seventy-two hours after a child enters care, a shelter care hearing must be held. Saturdays, Sundays and holidays are excluded in the seventy-two-hour requirement. A court order must be obtained to keep a child in shelter care for longer than thirty days.

WAC 388-25-0045 Under what circumstances may a parent sign a consent for voluntary placement of a child in foster care with the department? (1) If alternative placement resources, including social supports in the family home, have been considered and eliminated; and

(2) The department agrees that the child needs to be placed; then

(3) A child's parent may sign a consent for voluntary placement of a child in foster care (if the child is Native American refer to the Indian Child Welfare Act):

(a) If the child and a parent cannot agree to the child's return home but do agree to the child's placement out of the home; or

(b) When a parent is unable to care for a child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0045, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0050 What must a parent do to place the child in foster care with the department? A child's parent may sign a Voluntary Placement Agreement (VPA), DSHS 09-004B(X), to voluntarily place a child in foster care. The consent for voluntary placement must agree with child welfare services as described under RCW 74.13.031. The consent becomes valid when signed by a representative of children's administration.

WAC 388-25-0055 How long may a voluntary placement last with the department? A voluntary placement must last no longer than one hundred eighty days. By the end of one hundred eighty days, the child must return to the child's parent or guardian unless the juvenile court has made a judicial determination that:

(1) Return to the parent or guardian is contrary to the welfare of the child; and

(2) Continued placement in foster care is in the best interest of the child.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 290]

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0055, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0060 May the department grant an exception to the length of stay in voluntary placement? (1) The DCFS regional administrator or the regional administrator's designee may grant exceptions to the one hundred eighty-day limit on voluntary placements only:

(a) If the department conducts an administrative review fulfilling the requirements of title 42, United States Code (USC), chapter 675, section 475, and the review chairperson recommends continuation of voluntary placement; and

(b) If a specific date within six months is scheduled for the child to return home; or

(c) The child is seventeen years of age or older.

(2) Exceptions which cause the child to remain in care for longer than twelve months require a court review hearing that meets the dispositional and permanency plan hearing requirements of 42 USC 675, section 475.

WAC 388-25-0065 What are the department's placement procedures for an infant residing in foster care with the infant's teen parent? (1) When a teen parent and infant reside in the same facility, the infant's "home" is considered to be the infant's parent's home. Maintenance payments for the teen parent must be increased to provide for the maintenance of the infant. A legal authorization-to-be-placed is not required in order to include an amount sufficient for the infant's maintenance or to issue medical coupons for the infant.

(2) For protection of the infant, a dependency order placing the child in temporary custody of the department may be appropriate. Even if dependency is established, a legal authorization-to-be placed must be obtained to keep the infant in out-of-home care should the teen parent placement setting change so as not to include the infant.

WAC 388-25-0070 When does the department authorize foster care payments? The CA social worker authorizes foster care payments when:

(1) The CA social worker documents the need for the type and level of foster care; and

(2) The social worker has documentation showing the department's authority for the placement of the child in foster care as required by WAC 388-25-0025.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0070, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0075 To whom does the department make payment for foster care? (1) The department makes foster care payments only to persons and agencies the department has appropriately licensed and approved, or, if not subject to licensing, the department has certified as meeting the department's licensing requirements, or:

(a) If in another state, persons or agencies meeting the requirements of that state; or

(2007 Ed.)

(b) If in a tribal program, persons or agencies meeting the requirements of that tribal program.

(2) The department makes payment for out-of-state foster care placements only after approval from the two state offices involved (see WAC 388-25-0440).

(3) The department may make foster care payments to licensed or certified foster parents and to persons granted dependency guardianship, if the dependency guardians are licensed or certified as foster parents (see RCW 13.34.234).

WAC 388-25-0080 Are dependency guardians who are licensed foster parents able to receive payment from more than one source? (1) When the child is eligible for foster care payments and Social Security Act, Title XVI, Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments, or Social Security Act, Title II, Survivor's Benefits, Veterans' Administration (VA) benefits, or other sources of income, the dependency guardian may choose one payment source or the other, but not more than one.

(2) If the dependency guardian chooses to receive foster care payments rather than SSI payments or another source in behalf of the child, the department places SSI benefits or the other cited benefit in an account the department may use to meet the cost of care or special needs of the child in accordance with RCW 74.13.060.

WAC 388-25-0085 What happens if the dependency guardian receives payments from more than one source? If the dependency guardian has received payment from SSI or another source as well as foster care, an overpayment has occurred. The department must recover the foster care payments made to the dependency guardian for those months for which the dependency guardian also received SSI or other benefits, as well as foster care payments, in behalf of the child.

WAC 388-25-0090 What are the department's expectations for foster care providers to whom the department makes reimbursement for services? (1) Foster care providers are responsible for:

(a) Protecting and nurturing children in a safe, healthy environment that provides positive support and supervision for the child in care;

(b) Taking the child to a physician or nurse practitioner to complete an EPSDT (early and periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment) examination. EPSDT exams must be scheduled within one month of initial placement and annually thereafter.

(c) Reporting to the social worker the fact that an EPSDT examination took place and if the examination showed that further treatment is needed.

(d) Observing and sharing information about the child's behavior, school and medical status, response to parental visits, and the child's growth and development with persons designed by the assigned CA social worker (see chapter 388-148 WAC).

(e) Meeting the developmental needs of the child by:

(i) Teaching age appropriate skills;

(ii) Supporting cultural identity;

(iii) Helping the child attach to caring adults;

(iv) Building self esteem;

(v) Encouraging and modeling positive social relationships and responsibilities;

(vi) Supporting intellectual and educational growth;

(f) Supporting the permanent plan for the child;

(g) Participating as a member of the child's treatment team by taking part in the development of the service plan for the child and providing relevant information about the child's progress for court hearings;

(h) Providing assistance to the social worker, when working with the biological parents is part of the service plan, by assisting in family visitation and modeling effective parenting behavior for the family.

(2) Therapeutic foster care and rehabilitative service providers are responsible for additional therapeutic services as defined in their service agreements or contracts with the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0090, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0095 What are the requirements for release of foster parents' care records? Foster parent care records may be disclosed upon request in accordance with RCW 42.17.260.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0095, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0100 What are the department's responsibilities regarding financial assistance to support children in the department's foster homes and child placing agency foster homes? (1) The department pays only for placements and plans the department has approved.

(2) The department has final responsibility for determining initial and ongoing eligibility for financial support.

(3) Payment for children served through the behavior rehabilitation services program is limited to those children who are ages six to eighteen.

(4) The department maintains control and oversight of placements and payments through written agreements with the child placing agencies, quarterly reports, and planning meetings with the agency or facility.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0100, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0105 What is the effective date for payment of foster care? (1) The department begins foster care payment for a child on the date the department or its authorized designee places the child in the licensed foster home.

(2) The department pays for each night a child resides in foster care.

WAC 388-25-0110 What is the effective date for termination of foster care payments? (1) The department ends payment on the day before the child actually leaves the foster home or facility. The department does not pay for the last day that a child is in a foster care home or facility.

(2) The department terminates family foster care payments for children in family foster care effective the date:

(a) The child no longer needs foster care; or

(b) The child no longer resides in foster care except as provided in WAC 388-25-0180; or

(c) The child reaches the age of eighteen. If the child continues to attend, but has not finished, high school or an equivalent educational program at the age of eighteen and has a need for continued family foster care services, the department may continue payments until the date the child completes the high school program or equivalent educational or vocational program. The department must not extend payments for a youth in care beyond age twenty.

(3) The department must terminate foster care payments for children in the behavior rehabilitative services program effective the date:

(a) The child no longer needs rehabilitative services; or

(b) The child is no longer served through contracted rehabilitative services program except as provided in WAC 388-25-0030; or

(c) The child reaches the age of eighteen and continues to attend, but has not finished, high school or an equivalent educational program and has a need for continued rehabilitative treatment services, the department may continue payments until the date the youth completes the high school program or equivalent educational or vocational program. The department must not extend payments for a youth in care beyond age twenty.

WAC 388-25-0115 What are the department's general standards for family foster care reimbursement? (1) The standards of payment explained in WAC 388-25-0120 through 388-25-0215 are the basis for the reimbursement rates the department provides for care of children placed in licensed foster care under the department's direct supervision and those children under the supervision of child placing agencies.

(2) The CA social worker must determine the payment plan for all types of family foster care through a review of the needs and resources of each child and the activities of the foster parent which meet those needs.

(3) The CA social worker must discuss any plan above the basic foster care rate with the foster parent so that the foster parent knows:

(a) The basis for payment;

(b) Any increased expectations of the foster parent for service delivery or participation in the case plan for the child; and

(c) The amount included for each item of the child's care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0115, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 292]

WAC 388-25-0120 What is the department's reimbursement schedule for regular family foster care? (1) The foster care basic rate reimburses the foster parent for costs incurred in the care of the child for room and board, clothing, and personal incidentals. The amount of reimbursement varies according to the age of the child.

(2) The department's children's administration may approve exceptions to the basic rates.

(3) To determine the payment rates, the department considers the child's birth date to be the first day of the month in which the child's birthday occurs.

(4) The standard reimbursement rate allowed is limited to the scheduled rate in existence for the time period(s) in which the child was placed in the foster home.

(5) The department's foster care reimbursement rates are as follows:

Effective Date*

July 2000

Age	0-5	6-11	12 & Older
Totals	$351.31	$426.81	$499.95

*Schedule will be updated to comply with mandated changes.

Totals include room and board, clothing allowance, and personal incidentals.

WAC 388-25-0125 When may the department authorize a clothing allowance for a child in out-of-home care?

When the department or a contracted child placing agency places a child in foster care or, at other times, the social worker may authorize a clothing allowance to supplement a child's clothing supply, when necessary. This allowance may not exceed two hundred dollars unless authorized by the DCFS regional administrator or the regional administrator's designee. The allowance must be based on the needs of the child and be provided within available funds. Clothing purchased becomes the property of the child and will be sent with the child if placement changes.

WAC 388-25-0130 What are the standards for use and reimbursement of receiving home care? The department or a child placing agency uses receiving homes to place a child in a licensed family foster home on a temporary, emergent, or interim basis to provide sufficient time for the development of a plan. This planning includes the involvement of the child, the child's parent(s), and the child's extended family whenever possible.

(1) A DCFS regional administrator must designate family foster homes which are to receive child placements twenty-four hours per day. These homes provide care for children on a temporary, emergent, or interim basis as regular or specialized receiving homes.

(2) If the regional administrator designates a receiving home to be available on a twenty-four-hour basis, the regional administrator must specify this designation in a written agreement with the foster parent. Regular foster homes may also agree to accept children on an emergent basis.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0130, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0135 What are the types of receiving homes and what children are served in them? There are two types of receiving homes: Regular and specialized. Each type of home provides the following services:

(1) Regular receiving homes for children age birth through age seventeen; and

(2) Specialized receiving homes for children who require more intensive supervision than normally provided to children in foster care. The child may require more intensive supervision due to behavioral problems, developmental disability, emotional disturbance, erratic and unpredictable behavior or medical condition (not on personal care or medically intensive DDD program).

WAC 388-25-0140 Who decides on the number of receiving homes needed in an area? Each DCFS regional administrator must decide on the number of receiving homes needed for the regional administrators' respective geographical areas.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0140, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0145 How long may a child stay in a receiving home? (1) The department limits a child's maximum length of stay in a receiving home:

(a) Maximum length of stay for regular receiving homes is thirty consecutive days per placement;

(b) Maximum length of stay for specialized receiving homes is fifteen-consecutive days per placement.

(2) The DCFS regional administrator or the administrator's designee may approve extensions of a child's stay in a licensed family foster home paid at a receiving care rate beyond the limits contained in subsection (1) of this section.

WAC 388-25-0150 What are the rates for reimbursement to receiving home providers? The current reimbursement rates, effective July 1, 2000, to receiving homes are:

Type of Home	Monthly Retention Fee - Per Bed	Daily Rate per Child in Care
Regular receiving (all ages)	$51.12	$19.06
Special receiving, ages 12-17	$102.99	$26.08

WAC 388-25-0155 How are rates authorized for reimbursement to receiving home providers? (1) The DCFS regional administrator or the administrator's designee may authorize payments in excess of the standard for individual child-specific situations. The department may, within available funds, purchase clothing and personal incidentals for the child in receiving home care as needed.

(2) The department does not pay the receiving home rate if the child is expected to stay in this placement for longer than thirty days.

(3) The department may make reimbursement for assessment and interim care through the behavior rehabilitative services program.

(4) The department may, at the direction of the DCFS regional administrator or designee, use qualified, contracted behavior rehabilitative services to provide assessment or interim care for children and youth requiring that level of care as determined by the CA social worker. Unless the department and the provider make an alternate agreement, the department must pay for contracted rehabilitative services at the facility's contracted daily rate for interim or assessment care.

WAC 388-25-0160 What are the reimbursement standards for payments above the basic foster care rate?

(1) In addition to the basic rate for regular family foster care specified in this chapter, the department may reimburse an additional amount for the specialized care of a child with special needs.

(2) For the child to be eligible for payment above the basic rate, the department's social worker must assess the child's behaviors, intellectual functioning, and/or physical disabilities and determine, with the child's foster parent or prospective foster parent, what services the foster parent will provide to meet the child's special needs.

WAC 388-25-0170 What other services and reimbursements may be provided for the support of children placed in foster care by the department? (1) The department may provide additional support services and reimbursements to meet specific needs of the child in care or of the family foster home provider. The department must approve all services and reimbursement amounts in advance of the service being provided. Services are subject to the availability of funds.

(2) Additional services may include the following:

(a) Receiving home contracted and noncontracted respite - This service for receiving homes includes child care, relief care, extra supervision for special activities, as well as basic respite care. Respite is subject to the availability of respite homes. Respite contracted but not available will be reimbursed to the regular foster parent.

(b) Receiving home transportation - This service reimburses receiving home parents for selected transportation costs, such as demands for training or special appointments for a child in care. The department makes direct payment to the receiving home parent.

(c) Receiving home contracted support services - These services are intended to enhance the capacity of regular and specialized receiving homes by increasing the skills of the provider to provide a stable emergency placement. The services include consultation for obtaining resources, training, case conferences, and visits to a child's parents' home by the receiving home provider.

(d) Receiving home ancillary support services - These services are reimbursements for activities or items enabling receiving homes to provide extra services to youth in care.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 293]

Examples of such supports include craft items, recreational materials, and tickets to events.

(e) Hourly or daily foster care respite - Respite care by the hour or day for receiving and regular foster homes. The department may reimburse foster parents for relief supervision or additional supervision for special activities. The department defines "day" as either an eight-hour period or a block of time, up to twenty-four hours, paid as an eight-hour day. "Light" is defined as care provision that is not significantly different from that required by a child in the general population. However, the child may require some additional attention or assistance. The appropriate rate is determined after assessing the child's care requirement as either "light" or "heavy." "Heavy" is defined as care that requires the caregiver to provide intensive attention or total assistance. Regular intervention is needed to meet the needs of the child. Children having areas of need that are "light" in one area and "heavy" in another are assessed as "moderate."

(f) Hourly or daily agency foster care respite - Respite care by the hour or day for receiving and ongoing foster homes. Care may be child specific or related to all the children in the foster home. The department reimburses agencies for purchase of relief supervision and additional supervision for special activities.

(g) Foster care clothing and personal incidentals - The monthly rate that the department may reimburse to defray the cost of clothing and personal items for children in selected circumstances when the department is not paying for the child's board and room. The department makes reimbursement to the foster home or facility.

(h) Foster care personal incidentals - An amount to reimburse foster parents for purchase of personal items needed by a child in receiving care.

(i) Foster care medical services - Reimbursement arranged and made for medical services not covered by the department's regular health insurance program (e.g., orthodontia or corrective surgery) for a child in foster care placement.

(j) Foster care physical examination/report - This medical service is used after the decision to place the child has been made and if the child is ineligible for an EPSDT examination or does not have private medical insurance. The service includes arranging and making payment for a physical examination and/or report necessary for a child in or needing foster care placement.

(k) Foster care psychological evaluation and report - The department may arrange for this service and make payment to a psychologist, psychiatrist, or other appropriate person for an evaluation of a child, parent, or foster parent. The department authorizes this service to assist in preventing a foster care placement or making an appropriate placement to implement a permanent plan.

(l) Foster care psychological treatment and report - The department arranges this service and makes payment to a psychologist, a psychiatrist, or other appropriate person for treatment of a child and/or parent(s) necessary to assist in preventing out-of-home placement, making an appropriate out-of-home placement, or implementing a permanent plan. This service includes a written report of the treatment goals, progress and outcomes.

(m) Foster care transportation - Reimbursement for the cost of transportation by car and associated expenses incurred by or on behalf of a child in foster care, receiving family reconciliation services (FRS), adoption services, or for return of a runaway. The department makes reimbursement directly to a vendor or to a foster parent.

(n) Foster care business account transportation - Reimbursement for the cost of air and rail transportation and associated expenses incurred by or on behalf of a child in foster care, receiving family reconciliation services (FRS), adoption services, or for return of a runaway. The department makes reimbursement directly to a vendor and charges expenses to the business transportation account (BTA).

(o) Parent-child visitation - Transportation and visitation services for children in out-of-home care. Services include:

- (i) Transportation to and from scheduled visits;
- (ii) Monitoring and supervision of family visits; and
- (iii) Reports regarding the nature and progress of visits and the parent/child interaction.

(3) The rates for the specialized services described in this section are contained in the following table. The rates are effective July 1, 2000.

WAC 388-25-0175 Under what circumstances may the department provide foster care for educational purposes? (1) The department may provide licensed foster care for a child with physical or mental disabilities when requested by a school district and in concurrence with the wishes of the parents, in accordance with WAC 388-25-0030.

(2) The department will not make the payment when the only need for foster care arises from the need for an education. The department will only pay the cost of foster care when one of the conditions of WAC 388-25-0030 applies.

WAC 388-25-0180 Under what circumstances may the department provide reimbursement for foster care if the child is temporarily absent from the foster home or facility? (1) When a child is temporarily absent from a foster home or a facility to which the department is paying the cost of placement, the department may pay for the actual number of days absent, if the number of consecutive days of absence does not go over fifteen days within a thirty-day period. The care provider must notify the DCFS social worker of the absence and whether the absence is planned or unplanned.

(2) The following requirements apply to planned absences:

(a) The care provider must notify the DCFS social worker at least three days in advance of any planned absence. The notification must include the following information:

- (i) Child's name;
- (ii) The address the child will visit;
- (iii) The reason for the visit;
- (iv) The planned beginning and ending dates of absence;

and

(v) A statement as to whether or not the foster care provider will hold the child's unoccupied bed for the child's return to the home or facility.

(b) A private agency must report the frequency, duration, and reasons for visits to the responsible DCFS social worker or local office in the child's quarterly progress report prepared by the private agency.

(c) When there is a planned temporary absence of a child from a foster family home supervised by DCFS, the assigned social worker will participate in the plan.

(3) The following requirements apply to unplanned absence of children from out-of-home care:

(a) The foster care provider must notify the supervising DCFS social worker by the next working day or within eight hours following the child's unplanned absence. Notification may be by a telephone call to the DCFS social worker or the worker's supervisor. The written notification must provide the following information:

- (i) Child's name, age, and home address;
- (ii) Date and time the child left the premises;
- (iii) A statement as to whether the foster care provider is willing to accept the child back into the home or facility; and
- (iv) A statement as to whether or not the foster care provider will hold the child's unoccupied bed for the child's return to the home or facility.

(b) If the foster care provider is willing to accept the child back and holds a vacant bed for the child, the department may continue payment for fifteen days from the date of the child's departure.

(c) The foster care provider must notify the DCFS social worker or local office of the date of the child's return.

(4) In addition to the preceding requirements, the department places the following limitations on the payments for temporary absences of children from foster care:

(a) A child's cumulative total of forty-five days of absence within a six-month period is the maximum allowable for payment unless the DCFS regional administrator or the administrator's designee approves an exception request.

(b) The social worker must provide adequate justification of unusual circumstances to support a request for extension of the consecutive fifteen-day and cumulative forty-five-day limitations.

WAC 388-25-0185 May the department consider foster care payments to the foster family in determining eligibility for public assistance? When the department or a child placing agency places a child in foster care with a family receiving public assistance under 42 U.S.C. 601, et seq., the department must not consider payment received by the family for the foster child in determining the family's eligibility for public assistance. The department makes payments, including special or exceptional payments, for the child's board, clothing and personal incidentals.

WAC 388-25-0190 What are the department's standards for making foster care payment to a relative providing care to the child served by department? (1) A relative caregiver, licensed or certified as a family foster home under chapter 74.15 RCW and eligible for temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) in behalf of the child, may select either foster care or TANF payments in behalf of the child, but not both.

(2) A relative caretaker who is not related to the specified degree defined in RCW 74.15.020 by blood, marriage, or legal adoption may receive foster care payments in behalf of the child if licensed as a foster family home under chapter 74.15 RCW.

(3) A relative caretaker who is not licensed or certified for foster care may apply for TANF.

WAC 388-25-0195 How does the department make reimbursement for foster care for a child served by the department who moves out-of-state with the foster family? (1) A child may join a foster family in a move out-of-state only if this move supports achieving a permanency goal as outlined in the child's case plan.

(2) The department and the foster parent must follow CA requirements when a foster child and the licensed foster family moves out-of-state. This may include obtaining permission of the court before the move.

(3) When the foster family moves to another state, the department must arrange with the other state or local social service agency to license and supervise the home and the placement (see chapter 26.34 RCW). The department does not need to make such arrangements for supervision when the family leaves this state during a vacation.

(a) Before the foster family moves from Washington to the new state, the social worker or the foster parent may request a foster home license application from the new state.

(b) If the department and the foster parent are unable to obtain an application for license before the foster family leaves Washington, the foster parent must, upon arrival in the new state of residence, contact the local foster home licensing agency in the new state to apply for a license in that state.

(4) When the foster family moves to another state with a child in the department's custody, the child's DCFS social worker must submit necessary interstate compact on the placement of children (ICPC) application forms to the department's ICPC program manager. The social worker must do this as soon as the foster family has a new residence or address in the new state. The ICPC request must ask that the new state license the family as a foster home and provide ongoing supervision of the child in care.

(5) The department continues payments at the department's current rates until the other state fully licenses the home. After receiving a copy of the foster family home license from the other state, the DCFS supervising social worker authorizes payment at the receiving state's rates (see WAC 388-25-0195).

WAC 388-25-0200 What payment procedures must the department follow for children placed across state borders? (1) When the department places a child into a new placement with a family residing and licensed in another state, the DCFS social worker must obtain the payment rates from that state. Following receipt of the other state's rates, the department will pay that state's rates in accordance with ICPC procedures when:

- (a) Those rates are higher than Washington's rates; and
- (b) The other state identifies its rates to the department.

(2) When the child welfare department in another state places a child, who is a resident of the state of Washington, in foster care the department makes foster care payments at the rate requested by that state.

(3) The CA ICPC program manager must approve out-of-state placement before the department makes payment for foster care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0200, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0205 How does the department treat the earnings of a child in foster care? The department does not include the earnings of a child in out-of-home care when considering if a child is eligible for a particular funding source nor when determining a child's possible participation in the cost of care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0205, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 296]

WAC 388-25-0210 How does the department treat resources and unearned income of a child in foster care?

(1) Unearned income includes Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Retirement, Survivors and Disability Insurance (RSDI), veteran's benefits, railroad retirement benefits, inheritances, or any other payments for which the child is eligible, unless specifically exempted by the terms and conditions of the receipt of the income. The department must use income not exempted to cover the child's cost of care, except for resources held in trust for an American Indian child.

(2) Any person, agency or court that receives payments on behalf of a child in out-of-home care must send the payments to the department's division of child support.

PART C: PARENTAL SUPPORT OBLIGATION

WAC 388-25-0215 What is the parents' obligation to support their child in foster care? Parents of children in foster care must provide financial support for their child in accordance with rules contained in chapter 388-14A WAC.

WAC 388-25-0220 Who has authority to recommend or negotiate amounts for parental participation in the cost of foster care? (1) The department's division of child support determines the amount of parental financial support, except when stated in a superior court order. Chapter 74.20A RCW and chapter 388-14A WAC provide the authority and procedures for the division of child support to collect financial support from the parent to pay for a child in foster care.

(2) Only the division of child support may recommend to the court, on behalf of the department, to establish, raise, lower, release, or forgive support payments for a child placed in foster care. No other agency or staff may make agreements with parent(s) or their representatives regarding this matter.

WAC 388-25-0225 What cases must be referred to the division of child support (DCS)? Each case where the department participates in the payment of foster care must be referred to the division of child support, except when:

- (1) Collection would not be cost effective, including placements of seventy-two hours or less;
- (2) Collection is exempt by law; or
- (3) A child with developmental disabilities is eligible for admission to or discharged from a residential habilitation center as defined by RCW 71A.10.020(8), unless the child is placed as a result of an action taken under chapter 13.34 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 2004 c 183, 74.20.040, and 74.13.020. 05-06-091, § 388-25-0225, filed 3/1/05, effective 4/1/05. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0225, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0226 Does children's administration refer foster care cases to the division of child support where good cause exists? The children's administration must refer to the division of child support foster care cases in which sufficient good cause exists to not pursue collection or establish support or paternity.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 2004 c 183, 74.20.040, and 74.13.020. 05-06-091, § 388-25-0226, filed 3/1/05, effective 4/1/05.]

WAC 388-25-0227 What constitutes good cause for not pursuing the collection or establishment of child support or paternity? Children's administration uses the following criteria to determine whether sufficient good cause exists for requesting that DCS not pursue collection or establish child support or paternity on foster care cases:

- (1) It is not in the child's best interest;
- (2) The parent or other legally obligated person, or the parent or other person's child, spouse, or spouse's child was the victim of the offense for which the child was committed to the custody of the juvenile rehabilitation administration (JRA) and the child is being placed directly into foster care from a JRA facility until this placement episode closes;
- (3) Adoption proceedings for the child are pending in court or the custodial parent is being helped by a private or public agency to decide if the child will be placed for adoption;
- (4) The child was conceived as a result of incest or rape and establishing paternity would not be in the child's best interest;
- (5) The juvenile or tribal court in the dependency proceeding finds that the parents will be unable to comply with an agreed reunification plan with the child due to the financial hardship caused by paying child support. The social worker also may determine that financial hardship caused by paying child support will delay or prevent family reunification; or
- (6) The custodial parent and/or the child may be placed in danger as a result of the presence of or potential for domestic abuse perpetrated by the person that the division of child support would be pursuing for collection action.

WAC 388-25-0228 Does the division of child support pursue collection or establish child support or paternity on cases in which good cause has been determined? If children's administration determines that there is good cause the division of child support does not pursue collection or establish support or paternity on a foster care case.

WAC 388-25-0229 Who may request a good cause determination? The department or a parent, including an adoptive parent or legal guardian, may initiate a request for good cause determination at any time.

WAC 388-25-0231 When may a good cause determination be requested? A request for determination of good cause may be made at any time.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 2004 c 183, 74.20.040, and 74.13.020. 05-06-091, § 388-25-0231, filed 3/1/05, effective 4/1/05.]

WAC 388-25-0235 To whom must parents' send child support payments for their child in foster care? The parents must make all payments for the benefit of the child and/or the costs for a child in out-of-home care to the division of child support, unless a court order directs payment through a clerk of the court. A clerk of the court must send payments, under a court order, to the division of child support.

WAC 388-25-0240 Under what circumstances must child care judgment and limited power of attorney for parental support payments be assigned to the department? (1) The department must advise any person or agency having custody of the child that court ordered child support payments are to be received by the department under RCW 74.20A.030 and 74.20A.250.

(2) The person or agency having custody must acknowledge this transferred right to the department by execution of an assignment of judgment and limited power of attorney, which must remain in effect as long as the child receives foster care assistance.

PART D: VETERANS' BENEFITS

WAC 388-25-0245 Who receives veterans' benefits for children in foster care? By agreement with the regional office of the veterans' administration, the department may receive benefits on behalf of children who have been placed by court order under the department's supervision or custody.

PART E: ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

WAC 388-25-0250 What limitations exist on administrative hearings regarding foster care payments? The foster care provider, the licensed or certified child placement or care agency, and the parents are not entitled to request an administrative hearing to dispute established rates. Chapters 34.05 and 43.20A RCW, chapters 388-01 and 388-148 WAC, and this chapter provide specific rights to administrative hearings.

WAC 388-25-0255 What standards must the department apply to contracted and noncontracted service providers and vendors when the department has identified an overpayment to the provider or vendor? (1) RCW 43.20B.675 provides that all vendors have the right to request a hearing if they have a bona fide overpayment dispute. The department must offer a prehearing conference to all clients and vendors that request an administrative hearing.

(2) Contracted and noncontracted service providers may seek dispute resolution through these rules, under the Administrative Procedure Act and RCW 43.20B.675, with respect to overpayments. However, the following limitations apply:

(a) The right of vendors to seek an administrative hearing to contest alleged overpayments applies only to overpayments for goods or services provided on or after July 1, 1998.

(b) These procedures do not create a right to a hearing where no dispute right previously existed except as provided in RCW 43.20B.675.

(c) These rules limit disputes for foster family and child day care providers to alleged overpayments. Homes and facilities licensed under chapter 74.15 RCW may appeal adverse licensing actions under the provisions of chapter 388-148 or 388-155 WAC, as applicable.

WAC 388-25-0260 Do vendor overpayment rules in this chapter also apply to adoptive parents? Adoptive parents who receive assistance through the adoption support program are not vendors within the meaning of the law and do not fall within the scope of this chapter.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0260, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0265 Are there time limitations on identifying and recovering an overpayment? There is no time limit on identifying and initiating recovery of overpayments.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0265, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0270 May overpayments be waived or forgiven? Children's administration employees do not have authority to forgive or waive overpayments nor to offset overpayments from future payments. All such authority rests with the department's office of financial recovery (OFR). Designated CA staff may mediate a disputed payment with the vendor, but final approval for any negotiated proposed settlement rests with OFR.

WAC 388-25-0275 Do other governmental organizations have the right to an adjudicative hearing? Governmental organizations, including Indian Tribes, with an inter-local agreement with the department do not have the right to an adjudicative hearing through the office of administrative hearings (OAH). The disputes process described in the agreement between the entity and the department governs the resolution process.

WAC 388-25-0280 What steps must a provider or vendor take when requesting an administrative hearing in regards to an overpayment? A provider or vendor must follow the procedure indicated on the department's Vendor Overpayment Notice, DSHS 18-398A(X), dated 07/1998.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 298]

WAC 388-25-0285 When is payment due on an over-payment? When a vendor files a timely and complete request for an administrative hearing, payment on the overpayment is not due on the amount contested until the office of administrative hearings or its designee makes a final decision about the vendor's liability and any amount due.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0285, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0290 Which is the deciding authority if another WAC rule or the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act conflict with the information in this chapter? The Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW, chapter 388-02 WAC, and this chapter govern the proceeding. The provisions in this chapter govern if a conflict exists in chapter 388-02 WAC. Chapter 34.05 RCW is the overall governing authority.

WAC 388-25-0295 Who establishes guidelines to identify overpayments and to mediate overpayment disputes? (1) Each DCFS regional administrator, division of licensed resources (DLR) regional manager, or CA division director, as applicable, must establish procedures to provide for consistency in the handling of provider or vendor disputes in accordance with the children's administration prehearing procedures and this chapter.

(2) Staff at the following organizational levels will handle disputes:

(a) The DCFS regional administrator is responsible for the dispute resolution process for:

(i) All payments authorized by local office social workers;

(ii) All payments authorized under regionally managed contracts and service agreements.

(b) Regional staff are responsible for the following activities to resolve disputes:

(i) Prehearing conferences;

(ii) Mediation activities;

(iii) Administrative hearings for payments authorized in local offices; and

(iv) Administrative hearings for regionally-managed contracts.

(c) For CA child care subsidy program payment disputes, DLR office of child care policy (OCCP) headquarters staff is responsible for:

(i) Prehearing conferences;

(ii) Mediation activities; and

(iii) Administrative hearings.

(d) Assigned CA division of program and policy development or office of foster care licensing (OFCL) headquarters staff, as applicable, will handle disputes arising from headquarters-managed contracts and service agreements. These staff will handle:

(i) Prehearing conferences;

(ii) mediation activities; and

(iii) Administrative hearings.

PART F: FOSTER PARENT LIABILITY FUND

WAC 388-25-0300 What is the foster parent liability fund? (1) The foster parent liability fund authorized under RCW 74.14B.080 allows for insurance coverage for foster parents licensed under chapter 74.15 RCW. The coverage includes personal injury and property damage caused by foster parents or foster children that occurred while the children were in foster care.

(2) Such insurance covers acts of ordinary negligence but does not cover illegal conduct or bad faith acts taken by foster parents in providing foster care. Monies paid from liability insurance for any claim are limited to the amount by which the claim exceeds the amount available to the claimant from any valid and collectible liability insurance.

WAC 388-25-0305 What is the period of coverage for foster parent liability fund? Coverage under the foster parent liability fund is for valid claims arising out of occurrences on or after July 1, 1991.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0305, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0310 Who is eligible for coverage under the foster parent liability fund? A person eligible for foster parent liability fund coverage must be licensed or certified by the department or a child placing agency under chapter 74.15 RCW to provide foster family care.

WAC 388-25-0315 What are the limits of coverage under the foster parent liability fund? The limits of coverage under the foster parent liability are:

(1) Up to twenty-five thousand dollars per occurrence. "Occurrence" means, for purposes of this chapter, the incident which led to the claim.

(2) The claim must be for a third party personal injury or property damage arising from a foster parent's act or omission in the good faith provision of family foster care and supervision of a foster child.

(3) The department must not make a payment of claims from this liability fund if the foster parent is not liable to the third party or the foster child's birth or adoptive parent or guardian because of any:

- (a) Immunities;
- (b) Limitations; or
- (c) Exclusions provided by law.

(4) The foster parent must, first, exhaust all monetary resources available from another valid and collectible liability insurance before seeking payment from this liability fund. Coverage under this foster parent liability fund must be in excess of any other available liability insurance.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0315, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0320 The department excludes what claims from coverage under the foster parent liability fund? The department excludes the following claims from coverage under the foster parent liability fund:

(1) Claims arising as a result of a foster parent's illegal conduct or bad faith acts in providing family foster care. Such conduct or act includes but is not limited to:

- (a) Loss arising out of a dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or intentional act or omission;
- (b) Loss arising out of licentious, immoral, or sexual behavior;

(c) Loss occurring because the foster parent provided a foster child with an alcoholic beverage or controlled substance, other than medication prescribed for the foster child in the amounts prescribed by a physician or other licensed or authorized medical practitioner;

(d) A judgment against the foster parent based on alienation of affection.

(2) Claims based on an occurrence not arising from the family foster care relationship. This includes a foster child's act occurring while the child was temporarily assigned outside the jurisdiction of the foster parent.

(3) Claims for a bodily injury or property damage arising out of the operation or use of any motor vehicle, aircraft, or water craft owned by, operated by, rented to, or loaned to any foster parent; or

(4) Claims for an injury or damage from an occurrence before July 1, 1991.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0320, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0325 What if there are multiple claims for one occurrence under the foster parent liability fund? The twenty-five thousand dollar limitation per occurrence must apply regardless of whether there are multiple claims arising from the same occurrence. The department will consider a claim by one or more foster parents occupying the same household a single claim.

WAC 388-25-0330 May another source be used to recover on the same claim paid by the liability fund? (1) If the liability fund pays for a claim, the foster parent must transfer to the department the foster parent's rights of recovery against any person or organization against whom the foster parent may have a legal claim.

(2) The foster parent must sign and deliver to the department any documents necessary to transfer such foster parent's rights to the state.

WAC 388-25-0335 What are the department's authority and the foster parent's responsibilities regarding investigation of claims? (1) The department may conduct an investigation of any foster parent liability fund claim.

(2) The foster parent must fully cooperate with the department for any liability fund claims filed against the foster parent.

PART G: FOSTER PARENTS PROPERTY DAMAGE REIMBURSEMENT

WAC 388-25-0340 What are the department's responsibilities and limitations for reimbursement for damage or loss caused by a child in family foster care? (1) Within available funds and subject to the conditions in this chapter, the department must reimburse family foster care providers who incur property damages, losses, and emergency medical treatment expenses that are caused by the foster child or respite care child during placement in the foster family's home.

(2) For occurrences on or after October 1, 1999, the department must reimburse the foster parent for the replacement value of any property covered under and subject to the limitations of this chapter (see RCW 74.13.335).

(3) For occurrences before October 1, 1999, the department will reimburse the depreciated value of any property covered under and subject to the limitations of the this chapter.

WAC 388-25-0345 What are the eligibility requirements for reimbursements to foster parents for damages? Foster parents are eligible for reimbursement if the foster parents are:

(1) Licensed by DSHS or certified by a child-placing agency and licensed by the department under chapter 74.15 RCW; and

(2) Providing approved DSHS-funded foster care to children in the care, custody, and supervision of DSHS or a licensed child placing agency; or

(3) Providing department-approved and funded respite care to children.

WAC 388-25-0350 What are the department's reimbursement limitations? The following reimbursement limitations apply for claims:

(1) The PER OCCURRENCE/TOTAL amount the department will pay as the result of any one occurrence must not exceed:

(a) Five thousand dollars for all property damages and losses; or

(b) One thousand dollars for all personal bodily injuries regardless of the number of foster parents or their household members who sustain property damages, losses, or personal bodily injuries.

(2) PROPERTY DAMAGE ITEMS are limited to the repair/cleaning cost or the replacement value. The department pays replacement value if the item cannot be repaired or cleaned as substantiated by a detailed retailer estimate or if the repair cost goes over the replacement value of the item. The department may request the final repair bill from foster parents for payment made from estimates provided for purposes of recovery.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 300]

(3) PROPERTY LOSS ITEMS are limited to the replacement value as substantiated by the original purchase receipt, if available, and two replacement estimates or replacement purchase receipt.

(4) PERSONAL BODILY INJURY claims are limited to the costs incurred for receiving emergency medical treatment services that is not payable or required to be provided under workmen's compensation, or disability benefits law, or under any similar law, or provided under a personal/business medical plan.

(5) For POLICY DEDUCTIBLES, foster parents must disclose if their property damages or losses were paid or will be paid under their homeowner, automobile, or other personal/business insurance policy. The department will then limit reimbursement to the policy deductible.

(6) DENTAL EXPENSES are limited to costs not payable under a dental plan. The department will pay comparable replacement of dental appliances up to the maximum per occurrence.

(7) VISION EXPENSES are limited to costs not payable under a medical plan.

(8) LABOR EXPENSES are limited to out-of-pocket costs (materials), incurred by foster parents and substantiated by a retailer. Items requiring installation are to be considered reimbursable expense.

(9) VETERINARY EXPENSES are limited to initial treatment expense incurred immediately following an occurrence up to five hundred dollars. Initial treatment expense is defined as emergent care and diagnosis. The department pays replacement value for a property loss sustained not to exceed the substantiated value of the animal or maximum per occurrence, whichever is less.

WAC 388-25-0355 What types of claims are specifically excluded from reimbursement? The department specifically excludes the following from reimbursement:

(1) Claims resulting from giving alcoholic beverage or other illegal substance, including tobacco products, to a foster child or respite care child for whatever reason.

(2) Claims resulting from violation of any statute, ordinance, or regulation by the foster child or respite care child.

(3) Claims resulting from failure of the foster parent to give directions, instructions, or to provide proper or adequate supervision to the foster child or respite care child.

(4) Claims resulting from the sexual abuse, or licentious, immoral, or other sexual behavior between foster children and/or respite care children or initiated by a foster parent.

(5) Follow-up medical treatment expenses incurred by foster parents or their household member for a personal bodily injury sustained as a result of an action of the foster/respite care child.

(6) Claims for items which belong to the foster child or respite care child.

(7) Claims resulting from acts of foster children that occur while the child is on a temporary planned, unplanned, or voluntary absence from the foster home.

(8) Claims for lost wages.

(9) Claims for property damages, losses, and emergency medical treatment costs arising out of an act of the foster/respite child, with or without the permission of the foster parent, related to the ownership, operation, or maintenance of any owned motor vehicle, including surface, air, or water.

(10) Claims filed by any person other than the foster parent or their household member.

(11) Claims for unsubstantiated property damages or losses alleged to have been caused by the foster child or respite care child.

(12) Claims not received by the department's office of risk management (ORM) within a year after the date of occurrence, regardless of the reason for the delay in filing the claim.

(13) Property damages or loss of items that do not depreciate, including but not limited to antiques, heirlooms, jewelry, figurines, and coin collections.

WAC 388-25-0360 What is the procedure for filing a claim? (1) Within thirty days of an occurrence of property damage, loss, or emergency medical treatment, the foster parent must:

(a) Request from the child's social worker a Foster Parent Reimbursement Plan Claim, DSHS 18-400(X) (Rev. 6/96) to file a claim;

(b) Submit the completed claim with all requested information plus any required substantiating documentation;

(2) The claimant must include a statement documenting the reasons for the delay in filing the claim on claims filed more than thirty days after an occurrence.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0360, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0365 Which office within the department determines damage reimbursement? The department's office of risk management determines whether a claim will be paid.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0365, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-25-0370 How are exception requests made? Written requests for exceptions to the terms, limitations, and exclusions specified in the foster parent reimbursement plan must be made to the ORM, Risk Management Administrator, P.O. Box 45844, Mailstop 45844, Olympia, WA 98504-5844. The request must include the justification for the request and alternatives explored. ORM staff will discuss and review requests for exceptions with the CA foster care program manager. Staff in the CA division of program and policy development make final decisions on exceptions.

WAC 388-25-0375 What claims may the department deny? The department must deny any claim in which any material fact or circumstance of a property damage, loss, or personal bodily injury is misrepresented or willfully concealed by the foster parent. The department is entitled to recover any payments made in these cases. Claims found to be fraudulent involving theft or collusion are subject to criminal investigation.

WAC 388-25-0380 What must a foster parent do to have a denied claim reconsidered? The foster parent must submit a request for reconsideration in writing within thirty days of the previous decision to the claims program manager, DSHS Office of Risk Management (ORM), P.O. Box 45844, Mailstop 45844, Olympia, WA 98504-5844. The request must include information or documentation not previously provided. All determinations made by the risk management administrator are final and do not constitute a basis for requesting or obtaining an administrative fair hearing.

WAC 388-25-0385 Will the department investigate claims? The foster parent must permit the department, upon request, to inspect the damaged property. The department retains the authority to have an inspector of its choice make a damage estimate when, and as often, as the department may require.

PART H: FOSTER PARENT TRAINING

WAC 388-25-0390 What are the training requirements for licensed foster parents? See chapter 388-148 WAC for required training for licensed foster parents.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0390, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

PART I: JUVENILE RECORDS

WAC 388-25-0395 What are the department's responsibilities for management of juvenile records? The department must comply with the requirements of chapter 13.50 RCW for management of juvenile records. The department's responsibilities for management of those records are:

- (1) To maintain accurate information and remove or correct false or inaccurate information;
- (2) To take reasonable steps to ensure the security of records and to prevent tampering;
- (3) To make every effort to ensure the completeness of records, including action taken by other agencies with respect to matters in its files; and
- (4) To facilitate inquiries concerning access to records.

WAC 388-25-0400 To whom may the department release records? Subject to review the department may release records to the following persons:

- (1) Other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile is being pursued by the other participants or when that participant is assigned the responsibility of supervising the juvenile. "Juvenile justice or care agency" means any of the following: Police, diversion units, court, prosecuting attorney, defense attorney, detention center, attorney general, the legislative children's oversight committee, the office of family and children's ombudsman, the department and its contracting agencies, schools; persons or public or private agencies having children committed to their custody; and any placement oversight committee created under RCW 72.05.415;

(2) A contracting agency or service provider of the department that provides counseling, psychological, psychiatric, or medical services may release to the office of the family and children's ombudsman information or records relating to the provision of services to a juvenile who is dependent under chapter 13.34 RCW. The department may provide these records without the consent of the parent or guardian of the juvenile, or of the juvenile if the juvenile is under the age of thirteen, unless otherwise prohibited by law;

(3) A juvenile, a juvenile's parents, the juvenile's attorney, and the juvenile's parent's attorney;

(4) Any person who has reasonable cause to believe information concerning that person is included in the record;

(5) A clinic, hospital, or agency which has the subject person under care or treatment;

(6) Individuals or agencies engaged in legitimate research for educational, scientific, or public purposes when permission is granted by the court.

WAC 388-25-0405 Under what circumstances may the department exclude or deny information from release unless authorized by law or court order? The department may withhold the following information unless authorized or ordered by the court:

(1) Information determined by the department to likely cause severe psychological or physical harm to the juvenile or the juvenile's parents;

(2) Information obtained in connection with provision of counseling, psychological, psychiatric, or medical services to the juvenile, when the services have been sought voluntarily by the juvenile, and the juvenile has a legal right to receive those services without the consent of any person or agency. Such information may not be disclosed to the juvenile's parents without the informed consent of the juvenile.

WAC 388-25-0410 What may a juvenile or the juvenile's parent do if the department denies access to information? (1) A juvenile or the juvenile's parent may file a motion in juvenile court requesting access to the records.

(2) The person making the motion must give reasonable notice of the motion to all parties.

PART J: CHILD PLACING AGENCIES

WAC 388-25-0415 What are the department's expectations for child placing agencies (CPA) to which the department makes reimbursement for services or administrative costs? (1) The department requires that the child placing agency (CPA) be licensed or certified under chapter 74.15 RCW and have a contract with the department for the provision of child placement and related services.

(2) The CPA must document the services provided in a format described by the department in the contract.

(3) When the department agrees to place a child with a CPA, the licensed or certified agency must maintain the license of the foster family home and provide support services to the foster parents. The department will only place and pay for services with an agency with which the department has a contract. The agency must provide payment to the foster family in accordance with this chapter.

(4) The department requires that private agencies bringing children from other countries for adoption remain financially responsible for the child's placement costs if the adoption is not finalized, disrupts prior to finalization, or until the child reaches age eighteen.

WAC 388-25-0420 What steps must the department take when a child whose case management responsibility remains with the department is placed in a home certified by a CPA? (1) The DCFS social worker follows regionally-designated procedures for accessing services and sharing responsibility for utilizing child placing agency foster homes.

(2) The CPA and the DCFS social worker must sign a DSHS Private Child Placing Agency Agreement/Child in Foster Care, DSHS 15-190(X). The agreement designates which agency is responsible for case management services, support activities, and specific parts of the service plan while the child is placed in the CPA foster home. The agency representative and the department social worker must review and revise the agreement by mutual agreement at the request of either party.

(3) The CPA must provide the assigned DCFS social worker with quarterly progress reports for each child placed in homes certified by the CPA.

WAC 388-25-0425 What activities must a child placing agency provide in order to receive payment from the department? The CPA must undertake the following activities to receive payment from the department:

(1) Accept referrals of children and families from the department and negotiate a child-specific written service agreement with the department;

(2) Provide child and family case management and support activities as agreed;

(3) Document the case management and support activities as described in the contract between the department and the CPA;

(4) Provide adequate quarterly progress reports to the assigned social worker for each child whose placement or other services the department financially supports.

WAC 388-25-0430 Under what conditions and how much will the department reimburse to child placing agencies licensed or certified under chapter 74.15 RCW to provide care to children? (1) The CPA representative must discuss with the department social worker for the child the roles of the agency and the department in the placement, permanency planning, and supervision of the child. The agency representative and the department social worker must also discuss services the department or the agency will provide to the child's parents and extended family.

(2) The CPA must maintain the documentation required by contract to demonstrate all services provided to children in care and for whom the department makes payment.

(3) The department will pay a monthly administrative fee to a CPA if the agency, in addition to supervision of the child, provides services to the child or the child's family.

(4) If the department wants to borrow a CPA-certified home for placement of a child, the department pays the agency for the use of the CPA's foster home with approval of the agency. The department pays the borrowed home fee described in the contract between the department and the agency.

(5) The department will pay a set monthly fee to a child placing agency for a borrowed home if the agency provides supervision services only to the child and no services to the child's family. The department pays this fee only to enable the agency to maintain the foster care license and to provide any related licensing training and support services. This activity includes maintenance of a foster care license for foster parent dependency guardianships in the agency-certified home. The following conditions also apply:

(a) The department may pay for a maximum of two borrowed beds in one foster home.

(b) If one CPA borrows a bed from another CPA, the department will pay only one service fee to one agency for the child. The two private agencies and the department will mutually identify and agree upon the agency the department will pay.

(6) The department may enter into contracts with CPAs to provide intensive treatment and supervision services to children with behavioral, emotional, medical, or developmental disabilities. The department will assess the needs of the child, assign a service level, and pay the rate provided in the contract.

(7) Before making payment for care of a child, the department must determine initial and ongoing eligibility for financial support, approve the placement, and approve the case plan for care of the child and services to the family. The department will document this approval through written agreements, documentary reports, and supervisory conferences with the CPA.

WAC 388-25-0435 What steps may the department take if a child placing agency does not meet the requirements of this chapter? (1) In addition to any sanctions included in the department's contract with the CPA, the DCFS social worker must stop payment of the agency administrative fees in accordance with department procedures if the department does not receive the child's report in the time frame stipulated in WAC 388-25-0425.

(2) The DCFS social worker must inform the regional licenser and contracts coordinator when there are continuing problems with reports.

PART K: INTERSTATE PLACEMENTS

WAC 388-25-0440 What are the department's obligations regarding children placed by the department between states? The department must comply with the interstate compact on the placement of children (ICPC) in the interstate placement of children (see chapter 26.34 RCW).

PART L: RELATIVE PLACEMENT

WAC 388-25-0445 Under what circumstances does the department choose a relative as the placement for a child in need of out-of-home care? (1) When the department determines that a child needs to be placed outside the home, the department must search for appropriate relatives to care for the child before considering nonrelative placements. See RCW 74.15.020 for the definition of "relative."

(2) The department reviews and determines the following when selecting a relative placement:

(a) The child would be comfortable living with the relative;

(b) The relative has a potential relationship with the child;

(c) The relative is capable of caring for the child and is willing to cooperate with the permanency plan for the child;

(d) The relative is able to provide a safe home for the child;

(e) Each child has his or her own bed or crib if the child remains in the home beyond thirty days.

(3) The department may consider nonrelated family members as potential resources, if these family members become licensed to provide foster care (see RCW 74.15.030).

WAC 388-25-0450 Under what circumstances may a relative not be considered as a placement option for a child? The department may exclude relatives who have criminal histories as included in the Adoption and Safe Families Act (ASFA) regulations.

(1) If the department finds that, based on a criminal records check, a court of competent jurisdiction has determined that the relative or a member of the household has been convicted of a felony involving:

(a) Child abuse or neglect;

(b) Spousal abuse;

(c) A crime against a child or children (including child pornography); or

(d) Crimes involving violence, including rape, sexual assault, or homicide, but not including other physical assault or battery.

(2) The department may not approve a relative placement if the department finds the relative, or a member of the household, has, within the last five years, been convicted of a felony involving:

- (a) Physical assault;
- (b) Battery; or
- (c) A drug related offense.

WAC 388-25-0455 What sources of financial support are available to a relative caring for a child that the department has placed in the relative's home? (1) For relatives needing financial support to care for the child, the social worker may assist the family to apply for temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) through the department's local community services office (CSO).

(2) Relatives who are licensed as foster parents may choose to receive foster care payments. The relative must not receive TANF benefits in behalf of the child in care while at the same time receiving foster care payments (see RCW 74.15.030).

(3) A relative who is not a licensed foster parent at the time of placement may apply to become a foster parent as described in chapter 388-148 WAC.

(4) The relative caring for the child in out-of-home placement may apply to be the representative payee for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Social Security Administration benefits for the related child living with the relative. However, if the child is a dependent of the state of Washington with custody assigned to the department by the court, the department will usually remain the payee in behalf of the child until the dependency is dismissed.

FAMILY SUPPORTS AND RELATIONSHIPS

WAC 388-25-0460 How does the department treat relatives of specified degree with legally free children? (1) The department acknowledges a continuing relationship between relatives of specified degree and children who are legally free where the relatives choose to continue a relationship with the child and the continuing relationship is in the best interest of the child (see RCW 74.15.020 for the definition of relative of specified degree).

(2) Relatives of specified degree remain legal relatives when a child becomes legally free if those relatives wish to maintain a relationship with the child and the assigned social worker determines the continuing relationship is in the best interest of the child.

(3) Department staff must treat relatives of specified degree as the department treats all relatives under the rules of ICPC and the foster care and foster family home licensing programs.

The rights of the affected relatives of specified degree do not extend beyond adoption of the child except through an open adoption agreement (see RCW 26.33.295).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-25-0460, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 304]

STATE SUPPLEMENTARY PAYMENT PROGRAM

WAC 388-25-1000 What is the state supplementary payment (SSP) that is administered by the children's administration (CA)? The state supplementary payment (SSP) is a state-paid cash assistance program for specific eligible foster children with the children's administration.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031. 05-11-016, § 388-25-1000, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

WAC 388-25-1010 What are the eligibility requirements for the CA/SSP program? To be eligible to receive CA/SSP, you must be a child who has entered foster care (Title 45 CFR 1355.20) and is eligible for and receiving Supplemental Security Income (SSI), receiving behavior rehabilitation services (BRS) for out-of-home placement services for all or part of a month, and not be eligible for foster care reimbursement under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 670).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031. 05-11-016, § 388-25-1010, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

WAC 388-25-1020 When will my eligibility for CA/SSP be determined? The SSP eligibility verification and payment process is usually done two months following the month of your potential eligibility for an SSP payment. You will receive an SSP payment when all of the eligibility criteria (WAC 388-25-1010) have been verified.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031. 05-11-016, § 388-25-1020, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

WAC 388-25-1030 How will I know if I am eligible to receive a CA/SSP payment? Once you have been identified as eligible for a CA/SSP payment, CA will send out written notification to representative payees, legal guardians, and children age eighteen and above.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031. 05-11-016, § 388-25-1030, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

WAC 388-25-1040 Can I apply for the CA/SSP program if I am not identified by CA as eligible for the CA/SSP program? You can apply through children's administration to determine your eligibility for CA/SSP, but eligibility is limited to those meeting the eligibility requirements in WAC 388-25-1010.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031. 05-11-016, § 388-25-1040, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

WAC 388-25-1050 What are my appeal rights if CA determines that I am not eligible for CA/SSP? You have the right to appeal children's administration's denial, termination, or reduction of eligibility for the CA/SSP under RCW 74.13.045 and chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 2002 c 371, RCW 74.04.600 and 74.13.031. 05-11-016, § 388-25-1050, filed 5/9/05, effective 6/9/05.]

"Adoption" means the legal granting of the adoption decree consistent with chapter 26.33 RCW.

"Adoptive parent" refers to a person or persons who seeks to adopt or who has adopted.

"Alleged father" refers to a person whose parent-child relationship has not been terminated, who is not a presumed father under chapter 26.26 RCW, and who alleges himself or whom a party alleges to be the father of the child. It includes a person whose marriage to the mother was terminated more than three hundred days before the birth of the child or who was separated from the mother more than three hundred days before the birth of the child.

"Approved adoptive home" refers to any person or persons who has been approved for adoption in a preplacement report completed pursuant to RCW 26.33.190.

"Birth parent" means the biological mother or biological or alleged father of a child, including a presumed father under chapter 26.26 RCW, whether or not a court of competent jurisdiction has terminated the person's parent-child relationship.

"Child placing agency" means an agency licensed by the department to place children for temporary care, continued care, or adoption.

"Children's administration" (CA) means the cluster of programs within the department of social and health services responsible for the provision of child welfare, adoption, child protective, child care licensing, and other services to children and their families.

"Department" means the department of social and health services (DSHS).

"Department placement" refers to the placement of a child for whom the department has placement authority in an approved adoptive home.

"Division of children and family services" (DCFS) is the division of children's administration that provides child welfare, child protective, family reconciliation, and support services to children in need of protection and their families.

"Division of licensed resources" (DLR) is the division of children's administration responsible for licensing or certifying child care homes and facilities under the authority of chapter 74.15 RCW.

"Foster-adopt" refers to families that are interested in adoption who have an approved adoptive home study and who have also been granted a foster home license in accordance with chapter 388-148 WAC.

"Independent placement" refers to the placement of a child in an adoptive home by a doctor, attorney, or other individual acting as a facilitator.

"Inter-country placement" refers to the placement of a child for adoption who is not a resident and/or citizen of the United States.

"Relative" means a person related by blood, marriage, or legal adoption, as defined in RCW 74.15.020.

"Voluntary adoption plan" means an agreement by the birth parent(s) to the termination of parental rights with a specific proposal for adoptive placement for the child.

WAC 388-27-0015 What are the eligibility criteria for the department's adoption program? (1) The department provides adoption services to any child in the department's care and custody:

- (a) With an identified permanent plan of adoption; or
- (b) When the department considers adoption as an alternate permanent plan; and
- (i) The child is in supervised out-of-home care; or
- (ii) The child's birth parent(s) requests adoption as a permanent plan prior to the child's placement in out-of-home care.

(2) The department considers families who apply for adoption services to be resources for children in the department's care and custody if the potential parent(s) is:

- (a) Legally competent;
- (b) Eighteen years of age or older; and
- (c) Has an approved adoptive home study.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0015, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0020 When does the department provide general adoption services? The department provides general adoption services throughout the case planning of any child with an identified primary or alternate permanent plan of adoption until:

- (1) Finalization of the adoption; or
- (2) Adoption is no longer the identified permanent plan.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0020, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0025 What general adoption services does the department provide? (1) The department provides the following general adoption services prior to the finalization of an adoption:

- (a) Social work services to birth parents and children to achieve a permanent family for each child;

(b) Use of the courts, legal counsel, and juvenile court specialists for termination of parental rights and granting of adoption petitions;

(c) Obtaining available child and family medical and social background information for disclosure to adoptive families;

(d) Recruitment, study, and approval of adoptive and foster-adopt families;

(e) Assessment of the child and the current caretaker to determine if the placement is an appropriate adoptive placement;

(f) Placement of children with waiting adoptive or foster-adopt family;

(g) Social work services and/or referral of children and families to services after placement to facilitate the adoption;

(h) Development of alternate plans when the planned adoptive placement is not in the best interest of the child and/or the adoptive family; and

(i) Location and exchange, on a state and national basis, of information about children and adoptive families.

(2) The department administers the state's adoption support program on behalf of eligible children adopted through the department or a private child-placing agency (see WAC 388-25-0120 and following).

(3) The department administers the interstate compact on the placement of children (ICPC) and the interstate compact on adoption and medical assistance (ICAMA) and cooperates, upon request, with other state and tribal child welfare agencies in adoptive planning for children.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0025, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0030 What procedures must the department follow for the interstate placement of children? (1) Washington state is a member of Interstate Compact on Placement of Children (ICPC) and Interstate Compact on Adoption and Medical Assistance (ICAMA) and must meet all compact requirements (see chapter 26.34 RCW).

(2) The rules of this chapter apply to accepted ICPC cases.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0030, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0035 What adoption services does the department provide for children in the department's care and custody? (1) The department's adoption services for children include:

(a) Social work services with birth parents focused on locating a permanent home for the children.

(b) Social work services with children focusing on the child's educational, medical, psychological, and developmental needs;

(c) Petitioning the court for termination of parental rights;

WAC 388-27-0045 When may the department place a dependent child (not legally free) into an adoptive home? The department may place a child into a foster-adopt home under the following conditions:

- (1) When the identified family has been granted a foster home license in accordance with chapter 388-148 WAC; and
- (2) When the identified family has an approved adoptive home study that has been filed with the court in compliance with RCW 26.33.190.

WAC 388-27-0050 When may a legally free child be placed into an adoptive home? The department may place a child into an adoptive home under the following conditions:

- (1) When the identified prospective adoptive family has an approved adoptive home study; and
- (2) The adoptive home study has been filed with the court in compliance with RCW 26.33.190.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0050, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0055 What is a voluntary adoption plan? A voluntary adoption plan (VAP) occurs when a parent(s) has agreed to the termination of parental rights and has proposed a specific adoptive placement for the child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0055, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0060 When must the department follow a voluntary adoption plan? The department must follow the voluntary plan for adoption if:

(1) The prospective adoptive parents chosen by the parent are properly qualified to adopt in compliance with chapter 26.33 RCW or WAC 388-25-0025; and

(2) The court determines that this adoption is in the best interest of the child; and

(3) The VAP is proposed to the department before a petition for termination of the parent-child relationship has been filed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0060, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0065 Will the department consider a proposed voluntary adoption plan if a termination petition has already been filed at the request of the department? If the attorney general's office has filed a termination petition at the request of the department, the department must consider, but is not required to support, an adoptive resource proposed by the parent.

WAC 388-27-0070 What will the department do to implement a voluntary adoption plan? The department must take the following actions to implement a VAP:

(1) The assigned CA social worker must work with the parent to determine whether the parent will identify a preferred adoptive placement by name.

(2) If a parent identifies a preferred placement, the assigned social worker must advise the parent and the proposed adoptive parent(s) that an adoption home study must be completed. CA, a private agency, or a qualified individual may complete the adoptive home study (see RCW 26.33.-190).

(3) If the proposed adoptive parent chooses to have an adoptive home study completed by a private agency or qualified individual, CA retains the right to do its own home study if CA has concerns regarding the recommendations contained in the nondepartmental home study.

(4) Using approved procedures for determining suitability to be an adoptive resource, the child's social worker and the social worker for the adoptive family must determine:

(a) That the preplacement investigation and report, as described in RCW 26.33.190, on the proposed family results in approval of the adoptive placement; and

(b) That this placement is in the best interest of the child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0070, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0075 What must the department do to maintain confidentiality of adoption records? (1) In accordance with chapter 26.33 RCW all records and information the department obtains in providing adoption services are confidential.

(2) To ensure that the department case file of an adopted child remains confidential, the CA local office must send the child's case file to CA headquarters for archiving upon the issuance of the decree of adoption.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0075, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0080 Under what conditions may the department reveal identifying information about the birth parent? When providing reports or information on the adoptive child to the prospective or actual adoptive parents, the department must not reveal the identity of the birth parents of the child, unless:

(1) There is a written open communication agreement where the identity of the birth parent(s) is known;

(2) The birth parent is already known to the adoptive family; or

(3) The birth parent has selected the adoptive family, and the birth parent's identity has already been established.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0080, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0085 What must the department, private practitioner, or child placing agency do to locate records and information relating to the birth parents and the child? (1) The social worker, child placing agency, or another assigned worker must make the following efforts to locate records and information relating to the birth parent and the child:

(a) Ask the birth parents, the child, and relatives, when available, for names of all:

(i) Physicians;

(ii) Treatment agencies for medical, psychological, or educational services that have seen the parent or child for examination, evaluation, or treatment; and

(iii) Schools attended by the child and the parent.

(2) The social worker, contractor, or another assigned worker must contact the children's administration Supplemental Security Income (SSI) facilitator to obtain medical, psychological, or social information gathered during any SSI screen or application process.

(3) The social worker, contractor, or another assigned worker must document efforts, including unsuccessful efforts, made to obtain information by:

(a) Placing the gathered records in the child's case file;

(b) Documenting the information on the child's health and education record;

(c) Documenting on the health and education passport in CAMIS;

(d) Maintaining copies of written requests to service providers for records in the child's case file;

(e) Documenting efforts on the Child's Medical and Family Background Report, DSHS 13-041(X), unless the information is already documented on the health and education passport in CAMIS.

WAC 388-27-0090 What information must the department or child placing agency provide to prospective adoptive parents about the child that is being considered for adoption? (1) The department or the child placing agency must provide a medical report containing all known and available information concerning the mental, physical, and sensory handicaps of an adopted child, or a child placed for adoption, to the adoptive or prospective adoptive parents under the authority of RCW 26.33.020, 26.33.340, 26.33.343 and 26.33.350.

(2) The department or the child placing agency worker must provide the Child's Medical and Family Background Report, DSHS 13-041(X), to the prospective adoptive parents. This report must include documentation of efforts made to obtain medical and social information on the child and birth parents.

(3) The department must provide a social history report on the child and birth family that includes, at a minimum in accordance with RCW 26.33.380:

- (a) Circumstances of the child's birth;
- (b) Chronological report of how the child came to be available for adoption;
- (c) The child's placement history;
- (d) All court reports pertaining to the dependency and custody of the child;
- (e) The child's education history, including school reports and records; and
- (f) The child's psychological and psychiatric reports and recommendations.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0090, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0100 What information must the department or child placing agency provide to prospective adoptive parents about the birth parent(s) of a child being considered for adoption? The department or the child placing agency must provide a nonidentifying report on the birth parent(s) that includes any known and available social and medical information on the child's birth parent(s) in accordance with RCW 26.33.380. This information regarding the birth parent(s) must include but is not limited to:

- (1) First names only;
- (2) Current age of parent(s);
- (3) Heritage, including nationality, ethnic background, and race;
- (4) General physical appearance, including height, weight, color of hair, eyes, and skin or other information of a similar nature;
- (5) Education, including the number of years of school completed at the time of the adoption, and school report (if still attending), but not the name or location of the school;
- (6) Religion or religious heritage;
- (7) Occupation, but no specific titles or places of employment;
- (8) Talents, hobbies, and special interests;
- (9) Family history and circumstances leading to the adoption;
- (10) Medical and genetic history including:
 - (a) Available psychiatric, psychological, and substance abuse reports;

[Title 388 WAC—p. 310]

(b) Available medical history including any acute or chronic conditions;

(c) Available medical history of the birth and pregnancy, including any known substance abuse by the birth mother while pregnant.

(11) First names other children of birth parents by age and sex;

(12) Available medical histories of other children;

(13) Extended family of birth parents by age and sex;

(14) Medical histories of extended family members, if known;

(15) The fact of the death, age at death, and cause, if known, of a birth parent;

(16) Photographs of child and birth family, if available; and

(17) Name of agency or individual that facilitated the adoption.

WAC 388-27-0105 When will the department, private practitioner, or child placing agency disclose required information? The department, private practitioner, or child placing agency must disclose available child and birth family medical and social background information prior to the finalization of an adoption. Disclosure may occur:

(1) Prior to the placement of a child into an adoptive home; or

(2) At the time when a placement is identified as an adoptive placement.

WAC 388-27-0110 How does an adoptee, adoptive parent, or birth parent obtain nonidentifying information from an archived adoptive record? (1) Nonidentifying information about the birth parents, adoptee, or adoptive parent may be shared with persons identified in RCW 26.33.020 and 26.33.340.

(2) If the adoption was facilitated through the department, a request for information must be made in writing to the state office of Children's Administration, P.O. Box 45713, Olympia WA 98504-5713. The state office is the sole source for releasing information from an archived record.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0110, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0115 What is the department response to requests for public disclosure of an adoptive record? The department complies with the requirements for disclosure of public records in RCW 26.33.340.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-27-0115, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

Part A: General

WAC 388-27-0120 What is the legal basis of the department's adoption support program? The legal authorities for the program are:

(1) Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 74.13.100 through 74.13.159;

(2) Chapter 42 United States Code (U.S.C.) 671-675; and

(3) The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) policy guidelines for states to use in determining a child's eligibility for Title IV-E adoption assistance (contained in DHHS Policy Manual).

WAC 388-27-0125 What is the purpose of the adoption support program? The adoption support program encourages the adoption of special needs children in the legal custody of public or private nonprofit child care agencies who would not be adopted if support for the child was not available.

WAC 388-27-0130 What definitions apply to the adoption support program? The following definitions apply to this chapter:

"Adoption" means the granting of an adoption decree consistent with chapter 26.33 RCW.

"Adoption support agreement" means a written contract between the adoptive parent(s) and the department that identifies the specific support available to the adoptive parent(s) and other terms and conditions of the agreement.

"Adoption support cash payment" means negotiated monthly cash payments paid pursuant to an agreement between the adoptive parent(s) and the department after the child's adoption.

"Applicant" means a person or couple applying for adoption support on behalf of a child the person or couple plans to adopt.

"Child placing agency" means a private nonprofit agency licensed by the department under chapter 74.15 RCW to place children for adoption or foster care.

"Department" means the department of social and health services.

"Extenuating circumstances" means a finding by an administrative law judge or a review judge that one or more certain qualifying conditions or events prevented an otherwise eligible child from being placed on the adoption support program prior to adoption.

"Medical services" means services covered by Medicaid (and administered by the medical assistance administration) unless defined differently in the adoption support agreement.

"Negotiation" means the process of working toward an agreement between the department and the adoptive parent on the terms of the adoption support agreement, including any amount of monthly cash payment.

"Nonrecurring costs" means reasonable, necessary, and directly related adoption fees, court costs, attorney fees, and other expenses the adoptive parent incurs when finalizing the adoption of a special needs child. Total reimbursement from the department may not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars.

(2007 Ed.)

"Placing agency" means the agency that has the legal authority to place the child for adoption. This may be the department or a private nonprofit child placing agency.

"Program" means the department's adoption support program.

"Reconsideration" means the limited state-funded support available to an eligible child whose adoption was finalized without a valid adoption support agreement in place.

"Resident state" (for purposes of the child's Medicaid eligibility) means the state in which the child physically resides. In some cases this may be different from the state of the parent's legal residence.

"Special needs" means the specific factors or conditions that apply to the child and that may prevent the child from being adopted unless the department provides adoption support services. See WAC 388-27-0140 for a detailed description of the factors or conditions.

Part B: Eligibility

WAC 388-27-0135 What are the eligibility criteria for the adoption support program? For a child to be eligible for participation in the adoption support program, the department must first determine that adoption is the most appropriate plan for the child. If the department determines that adoption is in the child's best interest, the child must:

(1) Be less than eighteen years old when the department and the adoptive parents sign the adoption support agreement;

(2) Be legally free for adoption;

(3) Have a "special needs" factor or condition according to the definition in this rule (see WAC 388-27-0140); and

(4) Meet at least one of the following criteria:

(a) Is in state-funded foster care or child caring institution or was determined by the department to be eligible for and likely to be so placed (For a child to be considered "eligible for and likely to be placed in foster care" the department must have opened a case and determined that removal from the home was in the child's best interest.); or

(b) Is eligible for federally funded adoption assistance as defined in Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, the Code of Federal Regulations, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services establishing guidelines for states to use in determining a child's eligibility for Title IV-E adoption assistance.

WAC 388-27-0140 What constitutes a "special needs"? To be considered a child with special needs the following three statements must be true:

(1) One or more of the following factors or conditions must exist:

(a) The child is of a minority ethnic background;

[Title 388 WAC—p. 311]

(b) The child is six years of age or older at the time of application for adoption support;

(c) The child is a member of a sibling group of three or more or of a sibling group in which one or more siblings meets the definition of special needs;

(d) The child is diagnosed with a physical, mental, developmental, cognitive or emotional disability; or

(e) The child is at risk for a diagnosis of a physical, mental, developmental, cognitive or emotional disability due to prenatal exposure to toxins, a history of serious abuse or neglect, or genetic history.

(2) The state has determined that the child cannot or should not be returned to the home of the biological parent; and

(3) The department or child placing agency that placed the child for adoption must document that except where it would be against the best interests of the child the department or child placing agency had made a reasonable but unsuccessful effort to place the child for adoption without adoption support.

WAC 388-27-0145 What constitutes a reasonable effort to place a child for adoption without adoption support? Reasonable effort to place a child without adoption support includes:

(1) A child registered for three months with the Washington adoption resource exchange (WARE) without finding an adoptive family; or

(2) A child for whom a documented, formal agency search was conducted for three months, without finding a family who would adopt the child without adoption support services; or

(3) A child for whom the placing agency's selected prospective adoptive family is unable to adopt the child without assistance from the adoption support program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0145, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0150 Under what circumstances would it be against the best interest of the child to search for a family that could adopt the child without adoption support? Searching for a family that could adopt the child without adoption support is against the best interest of the child when:

(1) A foster parent desires to adopt a child who:

(a) Has been in the foster parent's home for six months or more before that child becomes legally free for adoption; and

(b) The child has close emotional ties to the current foster parent which, if severed, may cause emotional damage to the child; and

(c) The foster parent is identified as the adoptive parent of choice by the department or agency staff having responsibility for the child (RCW 26.33.190 and 74.13.109(4)); or

(2) The adoptive parent is a relative of specified degree as defined in RCW 74.15.020 (4)(a) and has an approved adoptive home study per RCW 26.33.109 and 74.13.109(4).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0150, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 312]

WAC 388-27-0155 Are there other factors affecting a child's eligibility for adoption support? (1) A child is not eligible for adoption support program services and payments if the adopting parent is the birth parent or stepparent of the child.

(2) The department must not use the adoptive parents' income as a basis for determining the child's eligibility for the adoption support program, however, the department must consider income and other financial circumstances of the adopting family as one factor in determining the amount of any adoption support cash payments to be made. (See WAC 388-27-0230.)

Part C: Application

WAC 388-27-0160 How does a prospective adoptive parent apply for adoption support services? There are two ways a prospective adoptive parent (applicant) may apply for adoption support services:

(1) An applicant may apply through the social worker of the child to be adopted. The social worker must:

(a) Register the child with the adoption support program; and

(b) Submit the applicant's completed program application along with a completed worksheet used to assist the family and the department in determining services and amount of monthly cash payment, if needed, based on the needs of the child and family circumstances.

(2) An applicant may also apply directly to the adoption support program for adoption support services if:

(a) The child does not have an assigned social worker; or

(b) The applicant and the social worker have a dispute regarding the content of the program application.

WAC 388-27-0165 What requirements apply to an application for ongoing adoption support? (1) The application must include a copy of the child's medical and family background report signed by the adoptive parent(s) (DSHS 13-041 minus the attachments). It must also include copies of medical and/or therapist reports that document the child's physical, mental, developmental, cognitive or emotional disability or risk of any such disability.

(2) If the applicant is requesting a cash payment, the applicant and the department must mutually determine both the type and amount according to the requirements of WAC 388-27-0230.

(3) If the applicant is requesting reimbursement of non-recurring costs, the applicant must include this request in the application. (See WAC 388-27-0380 and 388-27-0385 for the type and amount of expenses the department may reimburse.)

(4) The applicant must furnish a copy of the applicant's most recently filed federal income tax return. If the applicant is not required to file a federal income tax return, the applicant must submit a financial statement with the applicant's adoption support application.

Part D: Agreement

WAC 388-27-0170 What is the nature and purpose of an adoption support agreement? The adoption support agreement is a binding contract between the adoptive parent(s) and the department that identifies the terms and conditions that both parties must follow.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 01-08-045, § 388-27-0170, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0175 What must be included in an adoption support agreement? The adoption support agreement must:

(1) State the amount of cash payments (if any) the department must make to the adoptive parent(s) on behalf of the child;

(2) Include an itemized list of the additional services (including Title XIX Medicaid and Title XX social services) for which the child is eligible;

(3) Contain statements that:

(a) Assure that participation in the adoption support program must continue, as long as the child is eligible, regardless of where the adoptive family resides;

(b) Inform the adoptive parent(s) of specific circumstances that may warrant further renegotiation and adjustment of the payment as agreed to by the adoptive parents and the department;

(c) Inform the adoptive parent(s) that the agreement must be reviewed every five years. Terms of the agreement may be modified according to WAC 388-27-0200;

(d) Inform the adoptive parent(s) that the department may suspend a child from the program within thirty days of any changes in circumstances (of the child or family) that affect the child's eligibility for program payments if the adoptive parent has failed to notify the department of the changes; and

(e) Define the circumstances under which the agreement may be terminated.

(4) Be signed by all relevant parties before the final adoption decree is issued (45 C.F.R. Sec. 1356.40).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.109, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371 § 202(8), 42 U.S.C. 671-675, 04-06-024, § 388-27-0175, filed 2/23/04, effective 3/25/04. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 01-08-045, § 388-27-0175, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0180 If the adoptive family resides in or moves to another state, how is the child's participation in the adoption support services affected? If the adoptive family resides in or moves to another state the child's participation in the adoption support program is affected as follows:

(1) Social services (Title XX) become the responsibility of the new state of residence.

(2) Medical benefits (Title XIX Medicaid) remain the responsibility of Washington state if the child is not eligible for federal Title IV-E adoption assistance. However, Washington state is no longer responsible if the child becomes eligible for the resident state's Title XIX program through the Interstate Compact on Adoption and medical assistance or other eligibility factors.

(3) Title XIX Medicaid benefits become the responsibility of the resident state if the child receives Title IV-E adoption assistance.

(4) Medicaid benefits included in Washington state's Medicaid plan, but not included in the resident state's plan, must remain the responsibility of Washington state and subject to Washington state plan limits.

(5) Washington state remains responsible for any cash payments made to the adoptive parent(s) on behalf of the child or any non-Medicaid counseling that has been preauthorized by the adoption support program per WAC 388-27-0245.

WAC 388-27-0185 When does the adoption support agreement become effective? (1) Unless otherwise stated in the adoption support agreement, an adoption support agreement takes effect on the first day of the month following the month in which the court finalizes the adoption.

(2) If the child to be adopted needs support benefits prior to finalization, the assigned regional adoption support program manager may arrange an early effective date. To be eligible for an early effective date, the applicant must:

(a) Have an adoption support agreement signed by all parties;

(b) Sign the child's medical and family background report (DSHS 13-041) and a statement of the applicant's intention to adopt; and

(c) Have the department's designee sign "an exception to policy" statement.

WAC 388-27-0190 If the department implements adoption support services prior to the adoption, may the adoptive parent(s) continue to receive department-funded foster care payments while also receiving adoption support payments? (1) The adoptive parent(s) may not continue to receive department-funded foster care payments for a child while also receiving adoption support payments for the same child.

(2) If the adoptive parent(s) receives department-funded foster care for the child to be adopted, the department's social worker assigned to the child must terminate that coverage on the last day of the month preceding the month in which the adoption support becomes effective.

(3) Foster care payments are paid after the month of service. Adoption Support payments are paid prior to the month.

(4) The adoptive parent(s) may not receive foster care payments and adoption support cash payments for the same child for the same month.

(5) If the adoptive parent is adopting a relative child and has been receiving a nonneedy relative grant the adoptive parent must notify the community services office financial services specialist that the adoption has been finalized. The adoptive parent may not receive both the grant and adoption support payments for the same month for the same child.

WAC 388-27-0195 May the adoptive parent(s) change the benefits contained in the adoption support program? The adoptive parent may submit a written request asking that the department renegotiate the benefits offered in the adoption support agreement whenever either the family's economic circumstances or the condition of the child changes.

WAC 388-27-0200 When may the department modify the terms of the adoption support agreement? The department's adoption support program may modify the terms of an adoption support agreement:

- (1) At the request of the adoptive parent(s);
- (2) When specific circumstances warrant renegotiation and adjustment of monthly cash payment as agreed to by the adoptive parents and the department;
- (3) When the department loses contact with the adoptive parent(s);
- (4) When the child is placed outside of the adoptive parents' home at department expense;
- (5) If the adoptive parent is no longer providing for the child's daily care and living expenses; or
- (6) If the adoptive parent fails to notify the department's adoption support program within thirty days of a change of circumstance which affects the adopted child's continuing eligibility for adoption support program cash payments or services.

WAC 388-27-0205 Does the adoptive parent need to let the department know if the family's circumstances change? The adoptive parent must inform the department's adoption support program of circumstances that might make the parent and the adoptive child either ineligible for adoption assistance payments or benefits or eligible for adoption assistance payments or benefits in different amounts. Such changes include but are not limited to:

- (1) A significant change in the child's condition;
- (2) A change in the marital status of the adoptive parent(s);
- (3) A change in the legal or physical custody of the child; or
- (4) A change in the adoptive family's mailing address.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0205, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 314]

WAC 388-27-0210 Under what circumstances would the adoption support agreement be terminated? The adoption support agreement is terminated according to the terms of the agreement or if any one of the following events occurs:

(1) The child reaches eighteen years of age; (if a child is at least eighteen but less than twenty-one years old and is a full-time high school student or working full time toward the completion of a GED (high school equivalency) certificate and continues to receive financial support from the adoptive parent(s), the department may extend the terms of the adoption support agreement until the child completes high school or achieves a GED. Under no circumstances may the department extend the agreement beyond the child's twenty first birthday.) Adoption support benefits will automatically stop on the child's eighteenth birthday unless the parent(s) requests continuation per this rule and have provided documentation of the child's continuation in school. To prevent disruption in services the parent should contact the adoption support program at least ninety days prior to the child's eighteenth birthday if continued services are to be requested.

(2) The adoptive parents no longer have legal responsibility for the child;

(3) The adoptive parents are no longer providing financial support for the child;

(4) The child dies; or

(5) The adoptive parents die. (A child who met federal Title IV-E eligibility criteria for adoption assistance will be eligible for adoption assistance in a subsequent adoption.)

Part E: Services

WAC 388-27-0215 What benefits may the adoptive parent or child receive from the adoption support program? The adoption support program may provide one or more of the following benefits:

(1) Reimbursement for nonrecurring adoption finalization costs;

(2) Cash payments;

(3) Payment for counseling services as preauthorized (see WAC 388-27-0255 for conditions and terms); or

(4) Medical services through the department's Medicaid program.

WAC 388-27-0220 What factors affect the amount of adoption support benefits a child receives? The department bases the amount of support it provides on the child's needs and the family's circumstances, but limits the cash payment to an amount that does not exceed the foster care maintenance rate the child would receive if the child was in a foster family home. Specific circumstances as agreed to by the adoptive parent and the department in the agreement, may warrant future renegotiation and adjustment of the payment determined in an assessment of the child.

WAC 388-27-0230 How does the department evaluate a request for adoption support monthly cash payments? (1) The amount of the adoption support monthly cash payment is determined through the discussion and negotiation process between the adoptive parents and representatives of the department based upon the needs of the child and the circumstances of the family. The payment that is agreed upon should combine with the parents' resources to cover the ordinary and special needs of the child projected over an extended period of time. Anticipation and discussion of these needs are part of the negotiation of the amount of the adoption assistance payment.

(2) Family circumstances to be considered include:

(a) Size, including the adopted child;

(b) Normal living expenses, including education and childcare expenses;

(c) Exceptional circumstances of any family member;

(d) Income;

(e) Resources and savings plans;

(f) Medical care and hospitalization needs;

(g) Ability to purchase or otherwise obtain medical care; and

(h) Additional miscellaneous expenses related to the adopted child.

(3) The department and the adoptive parents will jointly determine the level of adoption support cash payments needed to meet the basic needs of the child without creating a hardship on the family.

(4) Under no circumstances may the amount of the adoption support monthly cash payment the department pays for the child exceed the amount of foster care maintenance payment that would be paid if the child were in a foster family home.

WAC 388-27-0250 What specific department requirements apply to medical services? (1) While an adoption support agreement remains in effect, the department's medical program rules apply to the adopted child.

(2) The department must make all medical payments according to established department procedures and directly to the child's physician(s) or service provider(s).

WAC 388-27-0255 What specific department requirements apply to outpatient counseling and/or mental health services not covered by Medicaid? When the department's adoption support program directly pays for a child's counseling and/or mental health services, the following conditions apply:

(1) The adoptive parent must obtain written authorization from the department's adoption support program before the service is rendered;

(2) The adoptive parents' primary health care coverage must be billed prior to billing the department's adoption support program;

(3) The department will pay the adoption support program's authorized rate minus any payment made by the primary (and other) insurer;

(4) The department may grant verbal authorization for no more than three counseling sessions prior to providing the required written authorization;

(5) The child's therapist or other treatment provider must submit a written treatment plan prior to authorization for continued treatment;

(6) The department may authorize counseling as follows:

(a) Up to six hours of outpatient counseling per month for up to twelve months; or

(b) Up to a total of twenty hours per quarter when critical need warrants;

(7) The department may extend the authorization for counseling (beyond the initial time period authorized) upon receipt of an updated treatment plan and documentation supporting the need for additional treatment from the treatment provider and a parent's request for continuing counseling (DSHS 10-214);

(8) The department may authorize this service for only one provider at a time unless a second provider is required for a different service.

(9) The department encourages adoptive parents to seek an annual assessment of the functioning of the adoptive child within the family to determine if there are mental health services needed to help maintain and/or strengthen the adoptive placement.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031, 01-08-045, § 388-27-0255, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0260 If the adoptive parent requests residential placement services for the parent's adopted child, what department requirements apply? (1) The adoption support program must not pay for residential treatment placements. See RCW 74.13.080 and WAC 388-25-0025.

(2) If the adoptive parent requests residential treatment services for a child:

(a) For treatment of a mental illness, the department must refer the family to the local regional support network (RSN);

(b) If a diagnosis of physical, mental, developmental, cognitive or emotional disability is present, department staff must refer the child to the division of developmental disabilities (DDD) to determine eligibility of services for which the child might be eligible; or

(c) For reasons other than treatment of mental illness or developmental disabilities, department staff must refer the adoptive parent to the child welfare services intake at the local office of the division of children and family services (DCFS).

(3) The adoption support program manager may assist the adoptive parent in arranging residential service for the child but must not be responsible for the child's placement or for the payment of the residential service.

WAC 388-27-0265 What are the consequences of the department placing the adopted child in foster care, group care, or residential treatment? (1) If a child is on active status with Washington state's adoption support program and the department places the child in foster care, group care, or residential treatment, the department may report to the division of child support that good cause exists for not pursuing collection of support payments.

(2) The department must review the adoption support agreement and must discontinue any cash payments to the adoptive parent during the child's out-of-home placement unless the adoptive parent(s) documents continuing expenses directly related to the child's needs.

Part F: Review

WAC 388-27-0275 When does the department review an adoption support agreement? (1) The adoption support program must review an agreement:

- (a) At least once every five years; or
- (b) When the adoptive parents request a change in the terms of the agreement.

(2) The department may review an adoption support agreement:

- (a) Whenever variations in medical opinions, prognosis, or costs warrant a review; or
- (b) At the department's request.

WAC 388-27-0280 What is involved in the review process? (1) The review process provides an opportunity for the adoptive parent to describe any changes in family circumstances or the child's condition and request a change in the terms of the adoption support agreement.

(2) The adoptive parent must provide supporting documentation upon department request.

(3) The department may request a copy of the adoptive parents' most recently filed IRS form 1040. If not required to file a federal tax return the adoptive parent(s) must submit a financial statement upon department request.

(4) The adoptive parent must request that the child's medical provider complete an EPSDT (early periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment) exam and submit a report of the results to the adoption support program.

WAC 388-27-0285 What is the department's responsibility when the adoptive parent(s) requests a review of the adoption support agreement? The adoption support program must initiate a review of the adoption support agreement no later than thirty days after receiving the adoptive parents' request for review of the agreement.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 316]

WAC 388-27-0290 What if the department does not respond to a request for a review of an adoption support agreement within thirty days? If the department does not respond to an adoptive parent's request for a review of an adoption support agreement within thirty days, the adoptive parent has the right to an administrative hearing (see RCW 74.13.127).

WAC 388-27-0295 What requirements apply to the review of a support agreement? (1) The adoptive parent and the department must negotiate any changes in the agreement that result from a review;

(2) Changes in the terms of the agreement may be retroactive to the date the department received the written request; and

(3) If the department modifies the terms of the agreement, the adoptive parent and the department must sign a new agreement.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0295, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0300 After a review, what if the department and the adoptive parent cannot agree on the terms of the adoption support agreement? If the department proposes service changes without the adoptive parent's consent, the department must give written notification of those changes. In that notice, the department must clearly state the department's reasons for the proposed changes and inform the adoptive parent of the adoptive parent's right to an administrative hearing.

Part G: Post-Finalization Requests for Assistance

WAC 388-27-0305 May an adoptive parent apply for adoption support services after the adoption has been finalized? Federal and state laws and rules require that a prospective adoptive parent must apply for adoption assistance prior to adopting a special needs child and that the prospective adoptive parent must have a valid adoption support agreement, signed by all parties, before the adoption is finalized.

However, both state and federal governments have recognized that in some situations there may have been extenuating circumstances that prevented the child from being placed on the adoption support program prior to adoption. For these situations separate remedies have been created depending on which eligibility criteria are met by the child.

WAC 388-27-0310 If a child met federal Title IV-E eligibility for adoption assistance before the adoption, but was not placed on the adoptive support program, what may the adoptive parent do after adoption finalization to obtain adoption support services for the adopted child? For a child who met the Title IV-E eligibility criteria for adoption assistance prior to adoption, federal rules allow for a possible finding of extenuating circumstances through an administrative hearing process. In these situations the adoptive parent must request a review by an administrative law judge or a review judge to obtain an order authorizing the department to enter into a post-adoption agreement to provide adoption support services to a special needs child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0310, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0315 What constitutes "extenuating circumstances"? An administrative law judge or a review judge may make a finding of extenuating circumstances if one or more of the following situations exist:

(1) Relevant facts regarding the child, the biological family or child's background were known by the agency placing the child for adoption and not presented to the adoptive parents prior to the legalization of the adoption;

(2) The department denied adoption assistance based upon a means test of the adoptive family;

(3) Erroneous determination or advice by the department or private child placing agency that a child is ineligible for adoption assistance; or

(4) Failure by the placing agency to advise adoptive parents of the availability of adoption assistance.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0315, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0320 What is the effective date of an adoption support agreement that results from a finding of extenuating circumstances? The effective date of an adoption support agreement the department and the adoptive parent have entered into as a result of a finding of extenuating circumstances may not be before the date the department received the written request from the adoptive parent for participation in the adoption support program. Under no circumstances may the department back date an adoption support agreement more than two years from the date of an order of an administrative law judge or review judge authorizing the department to enter an adoption support agreement after finalization of the adoption.

WAC 388-27-0325 If a child did not meet federal Title IV-E eligibility for adoption assistance before the adoption, what may the adoptive parent do after adoption finalization to obtain adoption support services for the adopted child? For children ineligible for federal Title IV-E Adoption Assistance, the department may provide limited support through the state-funded adoption support reconsideration program.

WAC 388-27-0330 What is the adoption support reconsideration program? (1) The adoption support reconsideration program allows the department to register an eligible adopted child for limited state-funded support (see RCW 74.13.150).

(2007 Ed.)

(2) The reconsideration program provides for payment of medical and counseling services to address the physical, mental, developmental, cognitive, or emotional disability of the child that resulted in the child's eligibility for the program.

(3) There is a twenty thousand dollar per child lifetime cap on this program.

(4) The program requires the adoptive parent and the department to sign an adoption support reconsideration agreement specifying the terms, conditions, and length of time the child will receive limited support.

WAC 388-27-0335 How does a child qualify for the adoption support reconsideration program? To be eligible for the adoption support reconsideration program, a child must:

(1) Have resided, immediately prior to adoption finalization, in a department funded pre-adoptive placement or in department funded foster care;

(2) Have a physical or mental handicap or emotional disturbance that existed and was documented before adoption or was at high risk for future physical or mental handicap or emotional disturbance due to conditions to which the child was exposed before adoption;

(3) Reside in Washington state with an adoptive parent who lacks the financial resources to care for the child's special needs; and

(4) Be covered by a primary basic health insurance program.

WAC 388-27-0340 How does an adoptive parent apply for the adoption support reconsideration program? To apply, the adoptive parent must complete an application for adoption support reconsideration and attach:

(1) A written cost estimate of the child's proposed corrective-rehabilitative services;

(2) A current medical evaluation of the child including the cause(s) of the condition requiring corrective-rehabilitative services;

(3) A written statement explaining the child's current medical and counseling needs;

(4) A written statement giving the department permission to request and review pre-adoption information held by the adoption agency facilitating the child's adoption; and

(5) A copy of the adoptive parents' most recently filed IRS 1040 federal income tax form.

WAC 388-27-0345 What types of services does the department provide through the adoption support reconsideration program? The reconsideration program provides some support for counseling and medical services needed to treat the child's qualifying condition.

WAC 388-27-0350 What department requirements apply to adoption support reconsideration services? (1) The department must authorize, in writing, any services paid by the adoption support reconsideration program before the services are provided.

(2) The department must base the authorized level of service on the child's needs and must limit the level of service to established program rates.

(3) The department must limit medical services to those services that would be available to the child if the child were eligible for Medicaid coverage.

(4) The department must make no cash payments to the family.

(5) The department must make payment directly to the provider of the authorized service.

(6) The adoptive parents' basic health insurance must provide primary coverage and must be used before billing the reconsideration program. The adoption support reconsideration program must be the secondary insurer.

WAC 388-27-0355 Under what conditions or circumstances would a child become ineligible for the adoption support reconsideration program? (1) Eligibility for adoption support reconsideration services ends according to the terms of the adoption support reconsideration agreement or when the child:

(a) Reaches eighteen years of age;

(b) Is eligible for the federal Title IV-E adoption assistance program and has been placed on that program;

(c) Has received twenty thousand dollars in department paid medical, dental, and/or counseling services; or

(d) Is no longer the financial responsibility of the adoptive parent(s).

(2) If the parent dies, the reconsideration agreement becomes invalid. Neither the agreement nor the child's eligibility for the program are transferable to a subsequent adoption.

(3) The department may suspend services when the child:

(a) Resides outside the adoptive parents' home for more than thirty continuous days; or

(b) Is no longer covered by primary basic health insurance.

WAC 388-27-0360 What happens if the state no longer funds the adoption support reconsideration program? If the department no longer has funds available for the program, a child's participation in the program will cease. The department will terminate the adoption support reconsideration agreement.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0360, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

Part H: Appeal Rights

WAC 388-27-0365 Does an adoptive parent have the right to appeal department decisions regarding adoption support issues? (1) An adoptive parent has the right to an administrative hearing to contest the following department actions:

(a) Denial of a child's initial eligibility for the adoption support program or the adoption support reconsideration program;

(b) Failure to respond with reasonable promptness to a written application or request for services;

(c) Denial of a written request to modify the level of payment or service in the agreement;

(d) A decision to increase or decrease the level of the child's adoption support payments without the concurrence of the adoptive parent(s);

(e) Denial of a request for nonrecurring adoption expenses; or

(f) Termination from the program.

(2) The adoptive parent must submit a request for an administrative hearing to the office of administrative hearings within ninety days of receipt of the department's decision to deny a request or failure to respond to a request.

(3) The office of administrative hearings must apply the rules in WAC 388-27-0120 through 388-27-0390 as they pertain to the issues being contested.

WAC 388-27-0370 What information about adoption support agreements may be used in an administrative hearing? Adoption and adoption support files are confidential, and information contained in those files may not be disclosed without the consent of the person who is the subject of the file. By requesting an administrative hearing to challenge a department decision relating to adoption support the adoptive parent is agreeing that the department may release factual information about the case during the course of the proceedings. Actions taken by the department and decisions by administrative law judges or review judges in adoption support cases which do not directly involve the case being heard may not be cited or relied upon in any administrative proceeding (RCW 26.33.340 and 74.04.060).

Part I: Nonrecurring Costs

WAC 388-27-0375 Will the department reimburse an adoptive parent for nonrecurring adoption expenses? The department will agree to reimburse some or all of an adoptive parent's nonrecurring adoption expenses if:

(1) The child has a qualifying factor or condition identified in WAC 388-27-0140(1);

(2) Washington state has determined that the child cannot or should not be returned to the home of the child's biological parent; and

(3) Except where it would be against the best interest of the child, the department or a child placing agency has made a reasonable but unsuccessful effort to place the child with appropriate adoptive parents without the benefit of adoption assistance; and

(4) The child has been placed for adoption according to applicable state and local laws or Tribal laws.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.109, 74.13.112, 74.13.130, and 2002 c 371. 03-02-059, § 388-27-0375, filed 12/27/02, effective 1/27/03. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0375, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0380 What types of nonrecurring adoption expenses will the department reimburse? The department may reimburse:

- (1) Court costs directly related to finalizing an adoption;
- (2) Reasonable and necessary adoption fees;
- (3) Reasonable and necessary attorney fees directly related to finalizing an adoption; and
- (4) Costs associated with an adoption home study, including:
 - (a) Health and psychological examination;
 - (b) Placement supervision before adoption;
 - (c) Transportation, lodging, and food costs incurred by the adoptive parent(s) and child during pre-placement visits; and
 - (d) Other costs directly related to finalizing the legal adoption of the child.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-045, § 388-27-0380, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-27-0385 Is there a limit to the amount of nonrecurring adoption expenses that the department will reimburse? Department reimbursement of nonrecurring adoption expenses must not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars per child.

WAC 388-27-0390 How does an adoptive parent get reimbursed for nonrecurring adoption expenses? (1) Before the adoption is finalized, the adoptive parent must sign an agreement with the department specifying the nature and amount of nonrecurring adoption expenses. This agreement may be part of an adoption support agreement or it may be a separate agreement specific to the reimbursement for nonrecurring adoption finalization costs. The department will make no reimbursement payments unless such an agreement exists.

(2) Upon finalization of the adoption, the adoptive parent may request reimbursement. A copy of the adoption decree and documentation supporting actual costs incurred must accompany the request for reimbursement.

(3) The department must reimburse documented actual costs or the amount specified in the signed agreement, whichever is less.

(4) The department will not reimburse nonrecurring adoption expenses that are reimbursable from other sources (for example: IRS, military, or the adoptive parent's employer).

HOME SUPPORT SERVICES BY CHILDREN'S ADMINISTRATION

WAC 388-32-0005 What are home support services?

The department's children's administration (CA) offers home support services (HSS), within available funds, to provide supportive, culturally appropriate, skill-building services in partnership with CA's client families. Only CA staff may provide the services in the family home or other appropriate setting and must provide the services as part of a comprehensive case plan. The department does not contract for this service.

(1) CA typically offers HSS during the normal work week but may provide HSS on weekends and beyond normal working hours.

(2) Child and family resource specialists (CFRS) have primary responsibility to provide HSS, which may include the following services:

(a) Teach and demonstrate basic physical and emotional care of children, including child development and developmentally appropriate child discipline;

(b) Teach homemaking and other life skills, including housekeeping, nutrition and food preparation, personal hygiene, financial budgeting, time management and home organization, with consideration given to the family's cultural environment;

(c) Help families obtain basic needs by networking families with appropriate supportive community resources; e.g., housing, clothing and food banks, health care services, and educational and employment services;

(d) Provide emotional support to families and build self-esteem in family members; aid family members in developing appropriate interpersonal and social skills;

(e) Provide client transportation/supervision of visits on a nonroutine, short-term basis;

(f) Observe family functioning, assisting the social worker to identify family strengths as well as areas needing intervention or improvement, providing reports and assessments to the assigned social worker on the family's progress in skill-building, family functioning, and other areas defined in the case plan;

(g) Participate in child protection teams, multidisciplinary teams, interagency case staffings, and family intervention meetings;

(h) Provide court testimony when requested by the attorney representing DSHS or when subpoenaed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-32-0005, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-32-0010 What are the eligibility criteria for HSS? Children's administration uses the following criteria to determine eligibility for HSS, within available funding:

(1) The family must be a current recipient of CA services.

(2) The case plan for the family must document the need for teaching, skill-building, community networking, or visitation.

(3) HSS does not provide long-term maintenance for a family, is not a housekeeping service, and is not interchangeable with CHORE services, which are provided by the department's aging and adult services administration.

HOME BASED SERVICES BY COMMUNITY PROVIDERS

WAC 388-32-0015 What are home based services and under what circumstances may the department provide the services to the child's parent or relative caregiver? (1) Home based services (HBS) are designed to prevent or improve conditions that may result in out-of-home placement. Children's administration (CA) provides these services in the context of a comprehensive case plan. CA purchases services from community providers within available funds for this purpose. Services may include:

(a) Basic goods and services; e.g., food, clothing, shelter, furniture, health care, utilities, transportation

(b) Paraprofessional services; e.g., parent aides;

(c) Parent training;

(e) In-home counseling or assistance to prevent out-of-home placement.

(2) For a family or individual to receive HBS, the following conditions must be met:

(a) The client has a case open for child protective services (CPS), child welfare services (CWS), or family reconciliation services (FRS);

(b) The department may provide services to the family of origin, relatives, or foster families when the intent of HBS is to maintain or reunify a permanent or long-term stable home for the child;

(c) The family is willing and able to cooperate with HBS services; and

(d) In the assigned social worker's judgment, the child may be safely maintained in the home or be safely returned to the home within the next three months with provision of HBS.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-32-0015, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 320]

FAMILY RECONCILIATION SERVICES

WAC 388-32-0020 What is the purpose of the family reconciliation services program? (1) The purpose of family reconciliation services (FRS) is to achieve reconciliation between the parent and child, to reunify the family, and to maintain and strengthen the family unit to avoid the necessity of out-of-home placement of children.

(2) The department provides these services, within available funds, to:

(a) Alleviate personal or family situations that present a serious and imminent threat to the health or stability of the child or family and that do not meet the definition of child abuse or neglect; and

(b) Maintain families intact whenever possible.

WAC 388-32-0025 Who may receive FRS services?

(1) CA provides FRS to adolescents, thirteen through seventeen years of age, and their families, in instances where the adolescent has runaway and/or is in conflict with his/her family. These populations are defined as follows:

"Families in conflict" means families in which personal or family situations present a serious and imminent threat to the health or stability of the child, which may include an at-risk youth, or family.

"Runaways" means youths who are absent from home for a period of time without parental permission. Services are to actual runaways and not to threatened runaways, unless the threatened runaways meet the definition of families in conflict.

(2) FRS is not provided for any of the following situations, unless the family is seeking an at-risk youth or a child-in-need-of-services (CHINS) family assessment:

(a) The identified youth has not reached his/her thirteenth birthday, or the youth is eighteen years of age or older;

(b) Chronic or long-term multiproblem situations requiring long-term interventions;

(c) Custody and marital disputes unless the dispute creates a conflict between the child and parent with physical custody;

(d) Families currently receiving counseling services related to the parent-child conflict/relationship from other agencies;

(e) Child abuse and neglect cases, unless those cases meet the definition of family in conflict; or

(f) Youth receiving foster care or group care services or follow up to those services.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 13.32A RCW, RCW 74.08.090, 74.13.031, 2002 c 371. 03-19-051, § 388-32-0025, filed 9/11/03, effective 9/11/03. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.031. 01-08-047, § 388-32-0025, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-32-0030 What FRS services does the department provide? The assigned social worker provides services to develop skills and supports within families to resolve family conflicts, achieve a reconciliation between parent and child, and to avoid out-of-home placement. The services may include, but are not limited to, referral to services for suicide prevention, psychiatric or other medical care, or psychological, financial, legal, educational, or other social services, as appropriate to the needs of the child and family. Typically FRS is limited to a ninety-day period. Children's administration (CA) provides intake/assessment services (IAS).

(1) Youth and/or their families who call or self-present at children's administration central intake or a local office requesting FRS services must be provided assistance in contacting the appropriate children's administration's intake services to make a formal request for FRS services.

(a) The FRS social worker must contact the family within twenty-four hours of their assignment to the case, to schedule an appointment to begin the phase I family interview process. These FRS phase I sessions are intended to defuse the immediate potential for violence, assess problems, and explore options leading to problem resolution.

(b) CA or its contractors may provide FRS phase II crisis counseling services.

(2) Families eligible for FRS phase II crisis counseling are those who, in the opinion of the family and the CA social worker, require more intensive services than those provided through phase I services.

(a) Families must make a commitment to participate in the FRS phase II crisis counseling service and must not concurrently be receiving similar counseling services through other agencies or practitioners. At a minimum, there must be a parent and a child willing to participate. FRS phase II crisis counseling assists the family to develop skills and supports in order to resolve conflicts.

(b) FRS phase II crisis counseling services may not exceed twelve hours within forty-five days unless it is provided using a CA approved model that is based on research demonstrating effectiveness.

(c) The assigned counselor helps the family develop skills and supports to resolve conflicts. The counselor may refer to resources including medical, legal, ongoing counseling and CPS for problem resolution.

(d) FRS phase II crisis counseling services are available a maximum of twice in a lifetime for any one family. The family must include a parent/guardian who has legal custody of the youth.

Do constituent relations staff only handle complaints?

WAC 388-39A-010 What definitions apply to the department's child welfare services complaint resolution process? "Children's administration" (CA) means the cluster of programs within the department of social and health services responsible for the provision of child welfare, child protective, child care licensing, and other services to children and their families.

"Complaints office" or "constituent relations" means the office within the children's administration responsible for handling complaints regarding child welfare services.

"Division of children and family services" (DCFS) means the division within the children's administration responsible for administering child welfare services programs.

"Division of licensed resources" (DLR) means the division within the children's administration responsible for licensing or certifying child care homes and facilities under the authority of chapter 74.15 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.045. 01-06-041, § 388-39A-010, filed 3/5/01, effective 4/5/01.]

WAC 388-39A-030 How does the children's administration resolve complaints? Constituent relations staff assist clients, foster parents, and other affected individuals in resolving complaints and grievances regarding children's administration (CA) policies and procedures, or the application of a policy or procedure related to CA programs. Under RCW 74.13.045, constituent relations staff may inquire into, determine fact, and facilitate the resolution of disputes and complaints.

WAC 388-39A-035 What is the process for resolving complaints? (1) After making a reasonable effort to resolve a complaint with a social worker or licensor, a client, foster parent, or community member may contact the CA constituent relations office to request assistance.

(2) Constituent relations staff will assist the complainant in reviewing the complaint with the assigned social worker or licensor to arrive at a resolution.

(3) If the complaint cannot be resolved with the social worker or licensor, constituent relations staff will assist the complainant in reviewing it with the supervisor of the social worker or licensor for resolution.

(4) If the complaint cannot be resolved with the supervisor, constituent relations staff will assist the complainant in reviewing the complaint with the supervisor's area manager or regional manager for resolution.

(5) If the complaint cannot be resolved with the area manager or regional manager, constituent relations staff will assist the complainant in reviewing it with the area manager's regional administrator or the regional manager's office chief.

(6) If CA constituent relations staff determines at any time during the complaint resolution process that the administration's actions were consistent with agency policy and procedures based on complete and correct information regarding the complainant's situation, the constituent relations staff will terminate the resolution process and will close the complaint.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.045. 01-06-041, § 388-39A-035, filed 3/5/01, effective 4/5/01.]

WAC 388-39A-040 What happens if the complaint is not resolved at the regional level? (1) When constituent relations staff and local CA staff have made a reasonable attempt to resolve the complaint, the regional administrator, the office chief, or the constituent relations supervisor may convene a panel to review the complaint and make recommendations to the CA assistant secretary for resolution.

(2) The regional administrator or office chief and the constituent relations supervisor will determine the membership of the panel.

(3) The panel must consist of the following members:

(a) The regional administrator's or office chief's designee who must not be from the administrative unit where the complaint originated;

(b) A constituent relations staff person;

(c) A person who is not a CA employee; and

(d) If the complainant is a foster parent, a foster parent who is not involved in the complaint.

(4) The panel may examine the complaint, the complainant's file, and any additional relevant information, including information from the complainant, CA staff, or others.

(5) The panel must submit written findings and recommendations to the CA assistant secretary who will issue a final, written decision.

WAC 388-39A-045 Does the complaint resolution process apply to all complaints? (1) The complaint resolution process does not apply to complaints for which the complainant has the right to seek resolution through judicial review or an adjudicative proceeding under Title 13, 26, or 74 RCW.

(2) The process also does not apply to contract rate setting, contested rate payments, exceptional cost rates, disputes or decisions regarding written personal service contracts, or financial agreements.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.045. 01-06-041, § 388-39A-045, filed 3/5/01, effective 4/5/01.]

WAC 388-39A-050 Is the complaint resolution process the only way to resolve a complaint? Participation in the complaint resolution process does not affect the right of any person to seek other remedies.

WAC 388-39A-055 What rights do complainants have under the complaint resolution process? (1) Under RCW 74.13.045, the complaint resolution process does not create substantive or procedural rights for any person.

(2) Participation in the complaint resolution process does not entitle any person to an adjudicative proceeding under chapter 34.05 RCW or to superior court review.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.045. 01-06-041, § 388-39A-055, filed 3/5/01, effective 4/5/01.]

WAC 388-39A-060 Do constituent relations staff only handle complaints? In addition to complaint resolution, CA constituent relations staff also provide information about children's administration programs, policies, and procedures and information about other complaint resolution resources, including the office of the family and children's ombudsman.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.13.045. 01-06-041, § 388-39A-060, filed 3/5/01, effective 4/5/01.]

DEFINITIONS

WAC 388-60-0015 What definitions apply to this chapter? The following definitions are important to understand these rules:

"Corrective action" means the denial or suspension or revocation of certification, or the issuance of a written warning.

"Department" or "DSHS" means the department of social and health services.

"Participant" or "perpetrator" means the client enrolled in the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program. This client may be court-ordered to attend treatment or someone who chooses to voluntarily attend treatment.

"Program" or "treatment program" means a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program.

PURPOSE

WAC 388-60-0025 What is the purpose of this chapter? (1) This chapter establishes minimum standards for programs that treat perpetrators of domestic violence.

(2) These standards apply to any program that:

(a) Advertises that it provides domestic violence perpetrator treatment; or

(b) Defines its services as meeting court orders that require enrollment in and/or completion of domestic violence perpetrator treatment.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 324]

(3) These programs provide treatment only to perpetrators of domestic violence, including clients who are self-referred or those who are court-ordered to attend treatment.

(4) An agency may administer other service programs in addition to domestic violence perpetrator treatment services; however, the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program must be considered a separate and distinct program from all other services the agency provides.

WAC 388-60-0035 Must domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs be certified? All programs providing domestic violence perpetrator treatment services must:

(1) Be certified by the department; and

(2) Comply with the standards outlined in this chapter.

WAC 388-60-0045 What must be the focus of a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program? (1) A domestic violence perpetrator treatment program must focus treatment primarily on ending the participant's physical, sexual, and psychological abuse.

(2) The program must hold the participant accountable for:

(a) The abuse that occurred; and

(b) Changing the participant's violent and abusive behaviors.

(3) The program must base all treatment on strategies and philosophies that do not blame the victim or imply that the victim shares any responsibility for the abuse which occurred.

WAC 388-60-0055 What must be a treatment program's primary goal? The primary goal of a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program must be to increase the victim's safety by:

(1) Facilitating change in the participant's abusive behavior; and

(2) Holding the participant accountable for changing the participant's patterns of behaviors, thinking, and beliefs.

REQUIRED PROGRAM POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

WAC 388-60-0065 What steps must a treatment program take to address victim safety? (1) Each treatment program must have written policies and procedures that adequately assess the safety of the victims of the perpetrators enrolled in the treatment program.

(2) The treatment program must take the following steps to protect victims:

(a) Notify the victim of each program participant within fourteen days of the participant being accepted or denied entrance to the program that the participant has enrolled in or has been rejected for treatment services;

(b) Inform victims of specific outreach, advocacy, emergency and safety planning services offered by a domestic violence victim program in the victim's community;

(c) Encourage victims to make plans to protect themselves and their children;

(d) Give victims a brief description of the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program, including the fact that the victim is not expected to do anything to help the perpetrator complete any treatment program requirements; and

(e) Inform victims of the limitations of perpetrator treatment.

(3) The program must document in writing the program's efforts to notify the victim of the above requirements.

(4) The program cannot invite or require the victims of participants to attend perpetrator treatment program counseling sessions or education groups which the program requires participants to attend as a condition of their contracts.

WAC 388-60-0075 What must a treatment program require of its participants? (1) All participants must attend consecutive, weekly group treatment sessions. A program may develop policies which allow excused absences to be made up with the program director's approval.

Exception: Another type of intervention may be approved for certain documented clinical reasons, such as psychosis or other conditions that make the individual not amenable to treatment in a group setting.

(2) The program must assign each participant to a home group and the participant must be required to attend the same scheduled group each week. The program's director must authorize any exceptions to this requirement and document the reason for the exception.

(3) Each participant must sign all releases of information required by the treatment program, including those specified in WAC 388-60-0145.

(4) Each participant must sign a contract for services with the treatment program.

WAC 388-60-0085 What requirements apply to group treatment sessions? (1) The group sessions must be single gender.

(2) The group size is limited to a maximum of twelve participants, and a minimum of two participants.

(3) Group sessions must be at least ninety minutes in length.

(4) Group sessions must be closed to all persons other than participants, group facilitators, and others specifically invited by the group leaders. Others specifically invited by group leaders may include:

(a) Professionals in related fields;

(b) Persons offering interpretation services for the deaf and/or hearing impaired or language translation/interpretation; and

(c) Others bringing specific information critical to the group.

(2007 Ed.)

WAC 388-60-0095 May a participant be involved in more than one type of treatment while enrolled in a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program? (1) A program may allow a client to participate in other types of therapy during the same period the client is participating in the required weekly group treatment sessions.

(2) Any other type of therapy must support the goal of victim safety by facilitating change in the participant's abusive behavior without blaming the victim for the perpetrator's abuse.

(3) The program must determine that the participant is stable in the participant's other treatments before allowing the participant to participate in treatment for domestic violence.

(4) Other therapies including the following list may not be substituted for the required domestic violence perpetrator treatment sessions:

(a) Individual therapy;

(b) Marital or couples' therapy;

(c) Family therapy;

(d) Substance abuse evaluations or treatment; or

(e) Anger management.

(5) A program may recommend marital or couples' therapy only after:

(a) The participant has completed at least six months of domestic violence perpetrator treatment services; and

(b) The victim has reported that the participant has ceased engaging in violent and/or controlling behaviors. However, this therapy may not take the place of domestic violence perpetrator treatment session.

WAC 388-60-0105 What requirements does the department have for treatment programs regarding non-discrimination? (1) A domestic violence perpetrator treatment program may not discriminate against any participant based on:

(a) Race;

(b) Age;

(c) Gender;

(d) Disability;

(e) Religion;

(f) Marital status or living arrangements;

(g) Political affiliation;

(h) Educational attainment;

(i) Socio-economic status;

(j) Ethnicity;

(k) National origin; or

(l) Sexual orientation.

(2) Program materials, publications, and audio-visual materials must be culturally sensitive and nondiscriminatory.

WAC 388-60-0115 Does a program have the authority to screen referrals? (1) A treatment program has the authority to accept or reject any referral for its program.

(2) The program must base acceptance and rejection of a client on written criteria the program has developed to screen potential participants.

(3) A treatment program may impose any conditions on participants that the program deems appropriate for the success of treatment.

WAC 388-60-0125 What rights do participants in a treatment program have? (1) A treatment program must provide each participant with the highest quality of service.

(2) Treatment program staff must establish a climate where all relationships with colleagues and participants are respectful.

(3) Each participant enrolled in a program must have the assurance that the program staff will conduct themselves professionally, as specified in RCW 18.130.180.

(4) Staff, board members, and volunteers working for a treatment program must not engage in or tolerate sexual harassment or exploitation of an employee, a program participant, or a victim of any program participant.

(5) Each participant must have a written contract signed by the participant and the treatment program staff which specifies the participant's rights and responsibilities while enrolled in the program.

CONFIDENTIALITY

WAC 388-60-0135 What information about the participant must the treatment program keep confidential?

(1) Treatment programs must follow the confidentiality requirements contained in chapter 18.19 RCW for registered counselors and certified professionals.

(2) All program participants and guests must agree in writing not to disclose the identity of group participants or personal information about the participants.

(3) A treatment program must keep all communications between the participant and direct treatment staff confidential unless:

(a) The participant has signed a release of information; or

(b) The program is legally required to release the information.

(4) The treatment program may audio or video tape group sessions only when all participants grant written consent that gives details about the specific uses for the tape. The program must obtain an additional consent statement from each participant to permit use of the tape for any purpose other than the purposes specified in the original consent.

WAC 388-60-0145 What releases must a program require a participant to sign? For a treatment program to conduct case monitoring and periodic safety checks, the program must require all participants to sign the following releases which must remain in effect for the duration of the client's treatment:

(1) A release allowing the treatment program to notify the victim and/or the victim's community and/or legal advocates that the perpetrator has been accepted or rejected for treatment;

(2) A release allowing the program to provide the victim with periodic reports about the perpetrator's participation in the program;

(3) A release allowing the current domestic violence perpetrator treatment program access to information held by all prior and concurrent treatment agencies, including domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs, mental health agencies, and drug and alcohol treatment programs;

(4) A release allowing the treatment program to provide relevant information regarding the participant to each of the following entities:

(a) Lawyers, including prosecutors;

(b) Courts;

(c) Parole officers;

(d) Probation officers;

(e) Child protective services, child welfare services, and other DSHS programs;

(f) Court-appointed guardians ad litem;

(g) DSHS certifying authorities; and

(h) Former treatment programs that the participant has attended.

(5) A release for the program to notify any person whose safety appears to be at risk due to the participant's potential for violence and lethality. This includes, but is not limited to:

(a) The victim;

(b) Any children;

(c) Significant others;

(d) The victim's community and legal advocates; or

(e) Police.

WAC 388-60-0155 Must a treatment program keep information provided by or about the victim confidential?

(1) A treatment program must treat all information the victim provides to the program as confidential unless the victim gives written permission for the program to release the information.

(2) Information must be kept separate from any files for perpetrators.

(3) If a victim tells the treatment program that the participant has committed a new offense, the treatment program must encourage the victim to contact:

(a) Appropriate law enforcement agency; and

(b) The local domestic violence victim's program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0155, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0165 What information must the treatment program collect and discuss with the client during the intake process or assessment interview? (1) Treatment programs must conduct an individual, complete clinical intake and assessment interview with each perpetrator who has been accepted into the treatment program. The program staff must meet face-to-face with the program participant to conduct this intake and interview.

(2) During the intake interview, program staff must obtain the following information, at a minimum:

(a) Current and past violence history;

- (b) A complete diagnostic evaluation;
- (c) A substance abuse screening;
- (d) History of treatment from past domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs;
- (e) History of threats of homicide or suicide;
- (f) History of ideation of homicide or suicide;
- (g) History of stalking;
- (h) Data to develop a lethality risk assessment;
- (i) Possession of, access to, plans to obtain, or a history of use of weapons;
- (j) Degree of obsessiveness and dependency on the perpetrator's victim;
- (k) History of episodes of rage;
- (l) History of depression and other mental health problems;
- (m) History of having sexually abused the battered victim or others;
- (n) History of the perpetrator's domestic violence victimization and/or sexual abuse victimization;
- (o) Access to the battered victim;
- (p) Criminal history and law enforcement incident reports;
- (q) Reports of abuse of children, elderly persons, or animals;
- (r) Assessment of cultural issues;
- (s) Assessment of learning disabilities, literacy, and special language needs; and
- (t) Review of other diagnostic evaluations of the participant.

(3) If the program cannot obtain the above information, the program client file must include documentation of the program's reasonable efforts to obtain the information.

WAC 388-60-0175 Who may complete the intake process or conduct the assessment interview? (1) Only treatment staff who meet the minimum qualifications for direct treatment staff stated in chapter 388-60 WAC may complete the intake process or conduct the assessment interview.

(2) A trainee may not have sole responsibility for conducting an intake or assessment. If the staff conducting the intake/assessment is a trainee, the trainee must work in conjunction with additional staff in their program, and the trainee's program supervisor must review and sign off on the trainee's work.

WAC 388-60-0185 Must the program compile a written document based on information gathered in the intake/assessment process? The program must compile a written document, which includes the information required to be gathered in the intake/assessment process.

WAC 388-60-0195 Must the treatment program develop an individual treatment plan for each participant? (2007 Ed.)

pant? (1) The treatment program must develop a written treatment plan for each participant who is accepted into the domestic perpetrator treatment program.

(2) The treatment program must base the participant's treatment on the clinical intake/assessment which the program completed for the client.

(3) The treatment plan must adequately and appropriately address the needs of the individual participant.

WAC 388-60-0205 What must a treatment program consider when developing an individual treatment plan for a participant? (1) A treatment program must:

(a) Assess whether a participant should be required to engage in drug and alcohol, mental health, or other treatment services while they are participating in the treatment program;

(b) Decide which treatment gets priority for the participant if more than one treatment service is recommended;

(c) Determine the sequence of other services if concurrent treatment is not clinically appropriate; and

(d) Make appropriate referrals to outside agencies.

(2) A treatment program must consider issues relating to a participant's prior victimization when designing each treatment plan.

The program must consider the appropriateness of domestic violence victim services in lieu of perpetrator treatment for a participant who presents an extensive history of prior victimization.

WAC 388-60-0215 Must a program require a participant to sign a contract for services with the treatment program? A treatment program must require each participant to sign a formal contract for services.

WAC 388-60-0225 What must the treatment program include in the contract for each participant's treatment? The contract between each participant and the treatment program must include the following elements:

(1) A statement regarding the treatment program's philosophy that:

(a) The victim may not be blamed for the participant's abuse;

(b) The perpetrator must stop all forms of abuse;

(c) An abuser is to be held accountable for the abusers actions; and

(d) The program's primary concern is for the safety of victims.

(2) A statement requiring the participant to:

(a) Cooperate with all program rules;

(b) Stop violent and threatening behaviors;

(c) Be nonabusive and noncontrolling in relationships;

(d) Develop and adhere to a responsibility plan;

(e) Comply with all court orders;

(f) Cooperate with the rules for group participation; and

- (g) Sign all required releases of information.
- (3) A policy on attendance and consequences for inadequate attendance;
- (4) A requirement that the perpetrator must actively participate in treatment, including sharing personal experiences, values, and attitudes, as well as completing all group activities and assignments;
- (5) A policy regarding other program expectations, such as completion of written exams, concurrent treatment requirements, and possession of weapons as described under chapters 388-861 and 388-875 WAC;
- (6) Written criteria for completion of treatment;
- (7) A statement that group members must honor the confidentiality of all participants;
- (8) A statement that the treatment program has the duty to warn and protect victims, law enforcement, and third parties of any risk of serious harm the program determines the participant poses to them;
- (9) Requirements that the participant must either:
 - (a) Provide the program with the participant's arrest records, criminal history, and any information regarding treatment services previously received; or
 - (b) Identify the existence of and location of all service records, and authorize release of all such records to the domestic violence treatment program.
- (10) The program's policy regarding the use of drugs and alcohol, including a provision that the participant must attend treatment sessions free of drugs and alcohol; and
- (11) Fees and methods of payment for treatment.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0225, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0235 Must a treatment program follow an educational curriculum for each participant? A treatment program must follow a specific educational curriculum for all participants in the program.

WAC 388-60-0245 What topics must the treatment program include in the educational curriculum? The curriculum of the treatment program must include the following topics:

- (1) Belief systems that allow and support violence against women;
- (2) Belief systems that allow and/or support the use or threat of violence to establish power and control over an intimate partner;
- (3) Definitions of abuse, battering, and domestic violence;
- (4) Forms of abuse, including:
 - (a) Physical abuse;
 - (b) Emotional and sexual abuse;
 - (c) Economic manipulation or domination;
 - (d) Physical force against property or pets;
 - (e) Stalking;
 - (f) Terrorizing someone or threatening him or her; and
 - (g) Acts that put the safety of battered partners, children, pets, other family members, or friends at risk.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 328]

(5) The impact of abuse and battering on children and the incompatibility of domestic violence and abuse with responsible parenting;

(6) The fact that a participant is solely responsible for the participant's violent behavior, and must acknowledge this fact;

(7) The need to avoid blaming a victim for the participant's abusive behavior;

(8) Techniques to be nonabusive and noncontrolling;

(9) Negative legal and social consequences for someone who commits domestic violence;

(10) Why it is necessary to meet financial and legal obligations to family members;

(11) Opportunities for a participant to develop a responsibility plan:

(a) The treatment program may assist the participant in developing the plan.

(b) In the plan, the participant must make a commitment to giving up power and control over the victim.

(12) Education regarding individual cultural and family dynamics of domestic violence; and

(13) Washington state laws and practices regarding domestic violence, as described in chapters 10.31, 10.99, and 26.50 RCW.

WAC 388-60-0255 What is the minimum treatment period for program participants? (1) The minimum treatment period is the time required for the participant to fulfill all conditions of treatment set by the treatment program. Satisfactory completion of treatment is not based solely on a perpetrator participating in the treatment program for a certain period of time or attending a certain number of sessions.

(2) The program must require participants to attend treatment and satisfy all treatment program requirements for at least twelve consecutive months.

(3) The program must require the participant to attend:

(a) A minimum of twenty-six consecutive weekly same gender group sessions, followed by:

(b) Monthly sessions with the treatment provider until the twelve-month period is complete. These sessions must be conducted face-to-face with the participant by program staff who meet the minimum qualifications set forth in this chapter.

WAC 388-60-0265 What criteria must be satisfied for completion of treatment? (1) A treatment program must have written criteria for satisfactory completion of treatment.

(2) A program must require a participant to meet all of the following conditions in order for the program to state that the participant has completed treatment:

(a) Attend treatment sessions for the minimum treatment period;

(b) Attend all other sessions required by the program;

(c) Cooperate with all group rules and program requirements throughout the duration of treatment services;

(d) Stop the use of all violent acts or threats of violence;

(e) Stop using abusive and controlling behavior;

(2007 Ed.)

- (f) Adhere to the participant's responsibility plan;
- (g) Comply with court orders; and
- (h) Comply with other conditions of the contract for treatment services, such as chemical dependency treatment.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0265, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0275 What must the treatment program do when a participant satisfactorily completes treatment? (1) A treatment program must notify the following people when a participant satisfactorily completes treatment:

- (a) The court having jurisdiction, if the participant has been court-mandated to attend treatment; and
- (b) The victim, if feasible.
- (2) The program must document in writing its efforts to contact the victim.
- (3) The program may specify only that the perpetrator has completed treatment based on adequate compliance with the participant's contract with the treatment program and any court order.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0275, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0285 Must a treatment program have policies regarding any reoffenses during treatment? A treatment program must establish and implement written policies that include consequences if a perpetrator reoffends during treatment or does not comply with program requirements.

WAC 388-60-0295 Does a program need guidelines for discharging participants who do not complete treatment? (1) A treatment program must have guidelines for discharging participants who do not satisfactorily complete the program.

- (a) Discharge decisions must be uniform and predictable.
- (b) Discrimination may not occur against any participant.
- (2) A program may terminate a participant from treatment prior to completion of the program if the participant has not complied with the requirements set forth in the participant's contract with the program.
- (3) If a program discharges a participant who does not complete treatment, the treatment program must document in writing that the participant has not complied with:
 - (a) The participant's contract with the treatment program;
 - (b) A court order;
 - (c) A probation agreement; or
 - (d) Group rules.
- (4) If a program chooses not to discharge a participant who has reoffended, committed other acts of violence or abuse, or has not complied with any of subsection (3)(a) through (d) of this section, the program must note the reoffense and/or noncompliance in the client's progress notes, reports to the court, and reports to the victim (if feasible).

(2007 Ed.)

(5) The program must state in the client's record the program's rationale for not terminating the participant, and state what corrective action was taken.

(6) A program may discharge a participant if the treatment program cannot provide adequate treatment services to the participant because of the treatment program's current development.

WAC 388-60-0305 Who must the program notify when the program discharges a participant because of failure to complete treatment? A treatment program must notify the following parties in writing when the program discharges a participant from the program because of failure to complete treatment:

- (1) The court having jurisdiction, if the participant has been court-mandated to attend treatment;
- (2) The participant's probation officer, if any;
- (3) The victim of the participant, if feasible; and
- (4) The program must notify the above parties within three days of terminating the client.

TREATMENT STAFF QUALIFICATIONS

WAC 388-60-0315 What are the minimum qualifications for all direct treatment staff? (1) All staff with direct treatment contact with participants must be:

- (a) Registered as counselors or certified as mental health professionals as required under chapter 18.19 RCW; and
- (b) Free of criminal convictions involving moral turpitude.

(2) Each staff person providing direct treatment services to a participant must have a bachelor's degree.

(a) The department will review requests for an exception to this requirement on a case-by-case basis.

(b) In order to qualify for an exception, the employee must possess year-for-year professional level experience equivalent to a bachelor's degree. The department determines this equivalency at the discretion of the DSHS program manager responsible for monitoring domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs.

(3) Prior to providing any direct treatment services to program participants, each direct treatment staff person must have completed:

(a) A minimum of thirty hours of training about domestic violence from an established domestic violence victim program; and

(b) A minimum of thirty hours of training from an established domestic violence perpetrator treatment services program.

(i) If located within Washington state, the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program must be certified and meet the standards as outlined in this chapter.

(ii) If located out-of-state, the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program must meet the standards outlined in this chapter as well as chapter 26.50 RCW.

(4) All employees must complete all sixty hours of required training before the employee may begin to provide any direct services to group participants. Any work experience accrued prior to completion of the sixty hours of training will not count toward any requirement for work experience.

WAC 388-60-0325 Must a program notify the department when new direct treatment staff are added?

(1) At the time that the program adds new direct treatment staff, the program must submit documentation to DSHS which proves that the staff meets the minimum qualifications for all treatment staff stated in WAC 388-60-0315.

(2) Direct treatment staff may not provide services to perpetrators until the treatment staff's qualifications have been reviewed and approved by the DSHS program manager responsible for certification of domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs.

WAC 388-60-0335 Who is considered a trainee for domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs?

A trainee is a direct treatment staff person who has not accrued at least two hundred fifty hours of experience providing services to domestic violence perpetrators and domestic violence victims.

(1) At least one hundred twenty-five hours of this requirement must have been provision of supervised, direct treatment services to domestic violence perpetrators.

(2) The remainder of this requirement must have been provision of domestic violence victim advocacy services.

WAC 388-60-0345 May a trainee provide direct treatment services to participants?

(1) A trainee may serve as a co-facilitator of groups, but may not have sole responsibility for the group at any time.

(2) A trainee may not have sole responsibility for conducting an intake or assessment, or for terminating a participant from treatment.

WAC 388-60-0355 Do treatment programs need a supervisor?

Each treatment program must have at least one person providing supervision to paid and volunteer direct treatment staff.

WAC 388-60-0365 Who may provide supervision of direct treatment staff in a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program?

(1) In addition to possessing the basic qualifications required for all direct treatment staff, a program's supervisor must meet all of the following requirements:

(a) Have a minimum of three years of experience providing direct treatment services to perpetrators of domestic violence;

[Title 388 WAC—p. 330]

(b) Have a minimum of one year of experience providing victim advocacy services to domestic violence victims (this may be concurrent with (a) of this subsection);

(c) Have a minimum of one year of experience in facilitating domestic violence perpetrator treatment groups;

(d) Has completed at least five hundred hours of supervised direct treatment contact with both perpetrators and domestic violence victims:

(i) At least three hundred hours of this requirement must have been the provision of supervised, direct treatment services to domestic violence perpetrators.

(ii) The remainder of this requirement must have been the provision of domestic violence victim advocacy services.

(2) Each staff person providing supervision to direct treatment staff within a program must have a master's degree.

(a) The department's program manger [manager] will review requests for an exception to this requirement on a case-by-case basis.

(b) In order to qualify for an exception, the employee must possess year-for-year professional level experience equivalent to a master's degree. The department determines this equivalency at the discretion of the DSHS program manager responsible for monitoring domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs.

WAC 388-60-0375 Must a supervisor always be on the premises of the treatment program?

A supervisor may be located either on or off-site unless direct treatment services are being provided only by employees who are considered trainees, as defined in these rules. If no other direct treatment staff besides the supervisor possesses at least two hundred fifty hours of experience providing direct treatment services to perpetrators, the supervisor must be present at all times that direct treatment services are being provided.

WAC 388-60-0385 Must the treatment program have staff supervision policies?

A treatment program must develop and follow policies, procedures, and supervision schedules that provide adequate supervision for all treatment staff.

WAC 388-60-0395 What are the requirements for staff orientation?

(1) A treatment program must have an orientation for any new staff, whether the staff are paid or volunteer.

(2) The purpose of the orientation must be to provide the staff with the program's philosophy, organization, curriculum, policies, procedures, and goals.

WAC 388-60-0405 What are the continuing professional education requirements for all direct treatment program staff?

(1) All staff having direct treatment contact with participants must complete a minimum of twenty hours of continuing professional education each year after the program is certified, or each year after the staff person is added to the staff list. No more than five of those hours may be obtained by attending "in-house" training.

(2) Each staff person's continuing professional education must include four or more hours of training per year on issues of sexism, racism, and homophobia and their relationship to domestic violence.

(3) Continuing education training may be in the fields of alcohol/drug abuse, mental health, or other issues but all training must be related to the treatment of domestic violence perpetrators.

(4) The treatment staff may obtain continuing professional education through classes, seminars, workshops, video or audiotapes, or other self-study programs when approved in writing by the program supervisor. No more than five hours of video, audiotapes, or self-study program may be used toward the requirement of twenty hours of continuing education requirement. This includes correspondence courses.

(5) The staff must document all continuing education hours on DSHS approved forms.

(a) The form must be accompanied by completion certificates, course/workshop outline, and supervisor signature.

(b) The program must submit the form and documentation to the department at the time the program applies for recertification.

WAC 388-60-0415 Is a treatment program required to cooperate with local domestic violence victim programs? A treatment program must establish and maintain cooperative relationships with domestic violence victim services programs located in their community.

WAC 388-60-0425 Does a treatment program need knowledge of the domestic violence laws and justice system practices? A treatment program must show evidence of an understanding of the laws pertaining to domestic violence and the operation of the justice system. At a minimum, a program must be familiar with:

(1) State laws regulating the response to domestic violence by the criminal justice system;

(2) Relief available to victims of domestic violence offered by:

(a) Washington domestic violence law and civil protection orders;

(b) Criminal no-contact orders; and

(c) Civil restraining orders.

(3) Local law enforcement, prosecution, and court and probation policies regarding domestic violence cases.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0425, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

CERTIFICATION PROCESS

WAC 388-60-0435 What is the process to apply for certification of a treatment program? (1) Any program wishing to provide treatment to perpetrators of domestic violence must request certification by completing an application available from the department. To request an application by mail, write to:

(2007 Ed.)

Domestic Violence Perpetrator Treatment Program
Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS)
Children's Administration
P.O. Box 45710
Olympia, Washington 98504-5710.

(2) The program must submit the application, application fee, and all documentation needed to prove that the program meets the requirements set forth in these standards.

(3) A program may not provide direct treatment services to domestic violence perpetrators without being certified by the department.

(4) If approved, the department grants certification for a two year period.

(5) The department considers each geographical location of a program an individual program, and must certify each program separately.

WAC 388-60-0445 What is the application fee for certification? (1) Application fee for either initial certification or recertification of a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program is one hundred dollars.

(2) The department publishes the application fee for certification of domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs in the application packet.

(3) If there is any change in the fee, the update will be done in July of each year.

WAC 388-60-0455 What documentation must a program submit before the department may certify the program? The program's director must submit the following documentation with the program's application:

(1) A written statement signed by the director that the program complies with the standards contained in this chapter;

(2) Results of current criminal history background checks conducted by the Washington state patrol for all current direct treatment program staff;

(3) A statement for each current paid or volunteer staff person whether or not the staff person has ever been a party to any civil proceedings involving domestic violence;

(4) Proof that each direct treatment staff is registered as a counselor or certified as a mental health professional with the department of health;

(5) Evidence that the program maintains cooperative relationships with agencies providing services related to domestic violence.

(a) This evidence must include, at a minimum:

(i) Three items of evidence that they have established and continue to maintain cooperative relationships with local domestic violence victim programs and other local agencies involved with domestic violence intervention.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 331]

(ii) Documentation that they have established a referral process between their program and the local domestic violence victim services programs.

(iii) Proof that they participate in a local domestic violence task force, intervention committee or workgroup if one exists in their community.

(b) The program may also submit evidence of the following:

(i) Participation in public awareness activities sponsored by the local domestic violence victim services agency.

(ii) Service agreements between the local domestic violence victim services agency(ies) and the treatment program.

(iii) Letters of support for the program from other agencies or parties involved in domestic violence intervention.

(6) Evidence that the program maintains cooperative relationships with agencies involved in domestic violence intervention.

WAC 388-60-0465 What happens after a program turns in an application to the department? (1) The department will review a certification application within thirty days after the application is received to decide if the domestic violence perpetrator program meets the program standards in this chapter.

(2) The department must notify the applicant whether or not the program meets these standards.

WAC 388-60-0475 Will a certificate be issued if the treatment program meets the standards? If a program meets the standards in this chapter, the department will issue the program a certificate of compliance.

WAC 388-60-0485 What happens if a treatment program does not meet the standards? (1) If a program does not meet the standards for certification or recertification, the department will provide the program with:

(a) A copy of the standards;

(b) A written notice containing the reasons for the determination of noncompliance; and

(c) The program standards relied upon for making the decision.

(2) Treatment programs have the right to a hearing if the program is denied certification under this chapter (chapter 388-02 WAC).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0485, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0495 What records must the department keep regarding certified domestic violence perpetrator programs? The department must maintain the following information:

(1) A current record of all certified domestic violence perpetrator programs.

(2) A current record of programs that:

(a) Are in the process of applying for certification;

(b) Have been denied certification;

(c) Have been notified that the department is revoking or suspending certification;

(d) Have had their certification revoked; and

(e) Are being investigated.

RECERTIFICATION

WAC 388-60-0505 How often must a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program reapply for certification? Each program certified under this chapter must reapply for certification every two years.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0505, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0515 What must a program do to apply for recertification of their domestic violence perpetrator treatment program? In order to be recertified, a program must submit a completed application packet to the department at least forty-five days prior to the expiration date of the previous certification period.

WAC 388-60-0525 What must the application packet for renewal of the certification of a domestic violence perpetrator program include? The packet must include the following:

(1) A completed application form signed by the program director;

(2) Payment of the application fee;

(3) A listing of all direct treatment staff;

(4) A statement of qualifications for any staff added since the last certification period;

(5) Current results of criminal history background checks conducted by the Washington state patrol, and a statement regarding any involvement in civil proceedings involving domestic violence for each employee providing direct treatment services;

(6) An update of continuing professional education hours for each direct treatment staff;

(7) Evidence that the program maintains cooperative relationships with agencies providing services related to domestic violence.

(a) This evidence must include, at a minimum:

(i) Three items of evidence that they have established and continue to maintain cooperative relationships with local domestic violence victim programs and other local agencies involved with domestic violence intervention.

(ii) Documentation that they have established a referral process between their program and the local domestic violence victim services programs.

(iii) Proof that they participate in a local domestic violence task force, intervention committee or workgroup if one exists in their community.

(b) The program may also submit evidence of the following:

(i) Participation in public awareness activities sponsored by the local domestic violence victim services agency.

(ii) Service agreements between the local domestic violence victim services agency(ies) and the treatment program.

(iii) Letters of support for the program from other agencies or parties involved in domestic violence intervention.

(8) Evidence that the program maintains cooperative relationships with agencies involved in domestic violence intervention; and

(9) All documentation needed to prove that the program continues to meet the standards for certification.

WAC 388-60-0535 How does the department decide that a program should continue to be certified? The department will continue to certify a program, or will review its certification, if:

(1) The department determines, based on the completed application, that the program continues to meet the standards and qualifications as outlined in this chapter; and

(2) The department determines that any complaint investigations from the previous certification period have been satisfactorily resolved.

WAC 388-60-0545 Is there a formal process if a treatment program wishes to appeal a denial of certification or recertification? If the department denies certification or recertification, the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program has a right to an administrative hearing under chapter 388-08 WAC.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE

WAC 388-60-0555 Does the department have an advisory committee for domestic violence perpetrator treatment? The department will establish and appoint a volunteer group to serve as the Washington domestic violence perpetrator treatment program standards advisory committee.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0555, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0565 What is the role of the advisory committee? The role of the advisory committee is to:

(1) Advise the department regarding recommended changes to the program standards; and

(2) Provide technical assistance on program standards, implementation, and certification and recertification criteria.

WAC 388-60-0575 Who are the advisory committee members and how are they chosen? The advisory committee must include the following members:

(1) Four persons representing the perspective of victims of domestic violence. They will be chosen with input from the Washington State Coalition Against Domestic Violence (WSCADV);

(2007 Ed.)

(2) Four persons representing the perspective of state-certified domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs. They will be chosen with input from the Washington Association of Domestic Violence Intervention Professionals (WADVIP);

(3) Four persons representing the perspective of adult misdemeanor probation and Washington state courts of limited jurisdiction. They will be chosen with input from the Misdemeanor Corrections Association and the Washington State District and Municipal Court Judges Association;

(4) One person representing the department of corrections; and

(5) One person representing the office of the administrator for the courts.

WAC 388-60-0585 How long is the appointed term for an advisory committee member? Advisory committee members are appointed for two-year terms.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0585, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0595 May advisory committee members be replaced before their term expires? The department may replace committee members if the member misses two consecutive committee meetings.

WAC 388-60-0605 Are expenses for advisory committee members reimbursed? (1) If funds are available, the department will reimburse advisory committee members for travel and meal expenses related to service on the committee.

(2) Advisory committee members may not receive any other compensation for service on the committee.

COMPLAINTS AND THE INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS

WAC 388-60-0615 Does the department investigate complaints about domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs? DSHS investigates complaints regarding domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs.

WAC 388-60-0625 Who may request an investigation of a certified domestic violence perpetrator treatment program? Any person may submit a written complaint to DSHS if the person has the following concerns about a certified program:

(1) The program has acted in a way that places victims at risk; or

(2) The program has failed to follow standards in this chapter.

WAC 388-60-0635 Does the department notify a treatment program that the department has received a complaint? Once it receives a complaint about a certified program, the department will:

- (1) Determine that the complaint includes sufficient information to be deemed valid;
- (2) Notify the program within fourteen days of the complaint being determined valid that the department has received a complaint about the program; and
- (3) Notify the program that an investigation has been initiated.

WAC 388-60-0645 May DSHS begin an investigation of a treatment program without receiving a complaint? DSHS may begin an investigation of a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program without a written complaint if the department believes that the program:

- (1) Has placed victims at risk; or
- (2) Failed to follow the standards outlined in this chapter.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0645, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0655 What is included in an investigation? The investigation of a complaint against a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program may include:

- (1) Contact with:
 - (a) The person making the complaint;
 - (b) Other persons involved in the complaint; or
 - (c) The treatment program.
- (2) A request for written documentation of evidence; and/or
- (3) An on-site visit to the program to interview program staff.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0655, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0665 Is there a time limit for the department to complete its investigation of a complaint? The department must complete its investigation within forty-five days of beginning the investigation, unless circumstances warrant a longer period of time.

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATIONS

WAC 388-60-0675 Does the department put the results of the investigation in writing? (1) The department will prepare written results of the complaint investigation.

(2) If the department decides that the treatment program behaved in a way that placed victims at risk or failed to meet the standards outlined in this chapter, the written results must include a decision regarding the status of the program's certification.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0675, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 334]

WAC 388-60-0685 What action may the department take regarding a program's certification if a complaint is founded? If the department determines that a complaint against a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program is founded, the department may:

- (1) Revoke the treatment program's certification;
- (2) Suspend the treatment program's certification; or
- (3) Send a written warning to the treatment program.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0685, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0695 Does DSHS notify a treatment program of its decision to take corrective action? DSHS must send the written results of its investigation to the program by certified mail, return receipt requested, within twenty days after completing the investigation.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0695, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0705 What information must the department give a program if it takes action that affects the program's certification status? (1) If DSHS revokes a program's certification, the department must provide the program with:

- (a) The specific reasons for the revocation;
- (b) The WAC standards the revocation is based on; and
- (c) The effective date of the revocation.
- (2) If DSHS suspends a treatment program's certification, DSHS must provide the treatment program with:
 - (a) The specific reasons for the corrective action;
 - (b) The WAC standards that the suspension is based on;
 - (c) The effective date of the suspension;
 - (d) Any remedial steps which the program must complete to the satisfaction of the department before the department will reinstate the program's certification and lift the suspension; and
 - (e) The deadline for completion of any remedial steps.
- (3) If DSHS issues a written warning to a program, DSHS must provide the treatment program with:
 - (a) The specific reasons for the written warning;
 - (b) The WAC standards that the written warning is based on; and
 - (c) Any remedial steps which the program must complete to the satisfaction of the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 26.50.150. 01-08-046, § 388-60-0705, filed 3/30/01, effective 4/30/01.]

WAC 388-60-0715 What happens if a treatment program refuses to remedy the problems outlined in the complaint findings? If the treatment program refuses or fails to remedy the problems outlined in the written warning, DSHS may revoke or suspend the certification of the program.

WAC 388-60-0725 What if the director of a domestic violence perpetrator treatment program disagrees with the corrective action decision? (1) When DSHS revokes or suspends a program's certification, issues a written warning, or imposes corrective action, the department will notify the program director in writing of the program's right to request a hearing.

(2) The program director may request an administrative hearing from the office of administrative hearings pursuant to chapter 388-02 WAC.

NOTIFICATION OF RESULTS OF AN INVESTIGATION

WAC 388-60-0735 Does the department notify the person that made the complaint of the results of the investigation? DSHS will mail a copy of the written results of the investigation to the person who made the complaint against the domestic violence perpetrator treatment program.

WAC 388-60-0745 What must the treatment program do after notification that its certification has been suspended or revoked? If DSHS revokes or suspends a program's certification, the program must:

(1) Take immediate steps to notify and refer current clients to other certified domestic violence perpetrator treatment programs;

Note: This must be done prior to the effective date of revocation or suspension.

(2) Cease accepting perpetrators of domestic violence into its treatment program;

(3) Notify victims, current partners of the participants, and any relevant agencies about the client referral; and

(4) Notify, in writing, the presiding judge and chief probation officer of each judicial district from which the treatment program receives court referrals.

WAC 388-60-0755 What happens if the program has other licenses or certificates? If a program also holds a license or certification from the state of Washington for other treatment modalities, DSHS may notify the appropriate licensing or certifying authority that the program's certification has been suspended or revoked.

Chapter 388-61 WAC FAMILY VIOLENCE

WAC

388-61-001 How does the Family Violence Amendment affect me if I am getting TANF/SFA?

WAC 388-61-001 How does the Family Violence Amendment affect me if I am getting TANF/SFA? The Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 (PRWORA), also known as the Welfare Reform Act, allowed every state to create a program addressing family violence for temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) recipients.

(2007 Ed.)

(1) For TANF/state funded assistance (SFA), family violence is when a recipient, or family member or household member has been subjected by another family member or household member as defined in RCW 26.50.010(2) to any of the following:

(a) Physical acts that resulted in, or threatened to result in, physical injury;

(b) Sexual abuse;

(c) Sexual activity involving a dependent child;

(d) Being forced as the caretaker relative of a dependent child to engage in nonconsensual sexual acts or activities;

(e) Threats of or attempts at, physical sexual abuse;

(f) Mental abuse;

(g) Neglect or deprivation of medical care; or

(h) Stalking.

(2) DSHS must:

(a) Screen and identify adults, minor teen parents, or emancipated teens getting TANF/SFA for a history of family violence;

(b) Notify in writing and verbally adults, minor teen parents, or emancipated teens getting TANF/SFA about the Family Violence Amendment;

(c) Maintain confidentiality as stated in RCW 74.04.060;

(d) Refer individuals needing counseling to supportive services;

(e) Waive WorkFirst requirements in cases where the requirements would make it more difficult to escape family violence, unfairly penalize victims of family violence or place victims at further risk of family violence. This may include:

(i) Time limits for TANF/SFA recipients, for as long as necessary (after fifty-two months of receiving TANF/SFA);

(ii) Cooperation with the division of child support.

(f) Develop specialized work activities for family violence clients, as defined in subsection (1) of this section if participation in work activities would place the recipients at further risk of family violence.

PURPOSE

WAC 388-61A-0005 What is the legal basis for the domestic violence shelter program? Chapter 70.123 RCW authorizes us to establish minimum standards for agencies that receive funding from the department of social and health services (DSHS) to provide domestic violence shelter and services.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0005, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 336]

WAC 388-61A-0010 What is the purpose of having minimum standards for domestic violence shelters and services? The purpose of these rules is to have uniform state-wide standards for domestic violence shelters and services funded by us. Minimum standards are necessary to provide rules for agencies that contract with us to provide shelter and services for domestic violence victims. These standards address issues such as adequate food, clothing, housing, safety, security, advocacy, and counseling for victims.

WAC 388-61A-0015 Is DSHS required to provide funding to any domestic violence service that requests funding? We are not obligated to disburse funds to all domestic violence services that may comply with the minimum standards set forth in this chapter. The goal of this program is to provide funding and support for the statewide development, stability, and expansion of shelter and services for victims of domestic violence. In support of that goal, if an agency applies to receive funding we will consider such things as:

- (1) Geographic location;
- (2) Population ratios;
- (3) Population need for services;
- (4) An agency's ability to provide services that comply with these minimum standards;
- (5) The availability of other domestic violence services in a community; and
- (6) The amount of funding we have available to support domestic violence services.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0015, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0020 What are the facility and service requirements for domestic violence services? In order for us to contract with an agency for domestic violence services, the agency must provide shelter and supportive services to victims of domestic violence. The agency must comply with the:

- (1) General facility requirements for shelters; and
- (2) Specific additional requirements for safe homes; or
- (3) Specific additional requirements for shelter homes; and
- (4) Requirements for supportive services and agency administration.

WAC 388-61A-0025 What definitions apply to domestic violence shelters and services? "Advocacy-based counseling" means that the client is involved with an advocate counselor in individual, family, or group sessions with the primary focus on safety planning, empowerment, and education of the client through reinforcing the client's autonomy and self-determination.

"Advocate counselor" means a trained staff person who works in a domestic violence service and provides advocacy-based counseling, counseling, and supportive temporary shelter services to clients.

"Client" means a victim of domestic violence or dependent child of the victim.

"Cohabitant" means a person who is married or is living with a person as a husband or wife at the present time or at some time in the past. Any person who has one or more children in common with another person, regardless of whether they have been married or have lived together at any time, is considered a cohabitant.

"Department" means the department of social and health services (DSHS).

"Domestic violence" includes, but is not limited to, the criminal offenses defined in RCW 10.99.020 when committed by one cohabitant against another.

"Domestic violence service" means an agency that provides shelter, advocacy, and counseling for domestic violence clients in a safe, supportive environment.

"Lodging unit" means one or more rooms used for a victim of domestic violence including rooms used for sleeping or sitting.

"Program" means the DSHS domestic violence program.

"Safe home" means a shelter that has two or less lodging units and has a written working agreement with a domestic violence service.

"Secretary" means the DSHS secretary or the secretary's designee.

"Shelter" means a safe home or shelter home that provides temporary refuge and adequate food and clothing offered on a twenty-four hour, seven-day-per-week basis to victims of domestic violence and their children.

"Shelter home" means a shelter that has three or more lodging units and either is a component of or has a written working agreement with a domestic violence service.

"Staff" means persons who are paid or who volunteer services and are a part of a domestic violence service.

"Victim" means a cohabitant who has been subjected to domestic violence.

"We, us and our" refers to the department of social and health services and its employees.

"You, I and your" refers to the domestic violence service or shelter.

GENERAL FACILITY REQUIREMENTS

WAC 388-61A-0030 What safety requirements is the shelter required to meet? You must keep your equipment and the physical structures in the shelter safe and clean for the clients you serve. You must:

(1) Maintain the shelter, premises, equipment, and supplies in a clean, safe and sanitary condition, free of hazards, and in good repair;

(2) Provide guard or handrails, as necessary, for stairways, porches and balconies used by clients;

(3) Maintain swimming pools, wading pools, bathtubs, hot tubs, spas, and bathing beaches in a safe manner and in such a way that does not present a health hazard, safety problem, or nuisance;

(4) Have a method for securing all windows, doors, and other building accesses to prevent the entry of intruders;

(2007 Ed.)

(5) Provide a way for staff to enter any area occupied by clients should there be an emergency; and

(6) Secure all unused refrigerators and freezers accessible to children in such a way that prevents them from climbing in and becoming trapped.

WAC 388-61A-0035 What are the general requirements for bedrooms? Shelters must meet the following requirements for bedrooms:

(1) You must provide a bed in good condition, with a clean and comfortable mattress to shelter residents.

(2) If the shelter provides cribs or bassinets for infants, the shelter must follow each of these requirements:

(a) Cribs and bassinets must have clean, firm mattresses covered with waterproof material that is easily sanitized;

(b) Crib mattresses must fit snugly to prevent the infant from being caught between the mattress and crib side rails;

(c) Cribs must be made of wood, metal, or approved plastic with secure latching devices;

(d) Cribs must have no more than two and three-eighths inches space between vertical slats when used for infants under six months of age; and

(e) Bumper pad ties must be no longer than twelve inches in length.

WAC 388-61A-0040 What kind of diaper changing area must I provide? You must provide a sanitary diaper changing area. In addition, you must develop and provide to clients, hygiene procedures for handling and storing diapers and sanitizing the changing area.

WAC 388-61A-0045 What are the kitchen requirements? The following are the minimum general requirements for kitchen facilities:

(1) A sink for dishwashing;

(2) A refrigerator or other storage equipment capable of maintaining a temperature of forty-five degrees Fahrenheit or lower;

(3) A range, stove, or hot plate;

(4) Covered garbage container;

(5) Eating and cooking utensils that are clean and in good repair; and

(6) Counter surfaces that are clean and resistant to moisture.

WAC 388-61A-0050 Are there any restrictions on food preparation? Food and beverages prepared by and for clients must be prepared, served and stored safely and in a sanitary manner. You must not serve home-canned, low-acid foods (e.g., meats and vegetables) to clients residing in a shelter.

WAC 388-61A-0055 What are the requirements for providing food and clothing to shelter residents? (1) The domestic violence service must provide appropriate food and beverages for the basic sustenance of shelter residents, unless other resources are immediately available.

(2) You should store appropriate food, including infant formula, at the shelter to provide to residents when other resources are not immediately available.

(3) Whenever possible, the shelter should provide food that is culturally appropriate.

(4) You must provide shelter residents with access to clean, adequate clothing. Clothing that you provide must be clean and have been stored in a sanitary manner.

WAC 388-61A-0060 What are the requirements for toilets, sinks, and bathing facilities? You must meet these requirements for toilets, sinks, and bathing facilities.

(1) You must provide at least one indoor flush-type toilet, one nearby hand-washing sink with hot and cold running water, and a bathtub or shower facility. These facilities must be located within the shelter building premises.

(2) You must comply with all of the following requirements for toilet and bathing facilities:

(a) Toilet and bathing facilities must allow for privacy of shelter residents.

(b) Toilets, urinals, and hand-washing sinks must be the appropriate height for the children served, or have a safe and easily cleaned step stool or platform that is water resistant.

(c) Hand-washing and bathing facilities must be provided with hot and cold running water; the hot water must not exceed one hundred twenty degrees.

(d) Potty chairs and toilet training equipment for toddlers must be regularly maintained and kept in a sanitary condition. You must put potty chairs, when in use, on washable, water resistant surfaces.

(e) You must provide soap and clean washcloths and towels, disposable towels or other approved hand-drying devices to residents.

WAC 388-61A-0065 What types of linen do I need to provide to clients? (1) You must provide the following to clients residing in shelter:

(a) Bed linen, towels and washcloths that are clean and in good repair. After use by a client, bed linen, towels and washcloths must be laundered prior to use by another client.

(b) A clean liner for a sleeping bag unless the bag is cleaned between use by different clients.

(2) Clients residing in shelter must be provided with changes of clean bed linen, towels and washcloths upon their request.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR SAFE HOMES

WAC 388-61A-0130 What are the additional requirements for a safe home? Safe homes must meet the following additional requirements in order for a domestic violence service to contract with us:

(1) A safe home must complete a written application to a domestic violence service. The domestic violence service must approve the application and give training to the safe home staff before the home may receive clients.

(2) The domestic violence service must maintain a written record of all safe homes. The record must include:

(a) The name and address of the person operating the safe home or an identification code for the safe home;

(b) A written safe home application;

(c) Documentation that the safe home complies with the general facility and additional requirements for safe homes; and

(d) Verification that safe home staff received initial basic training as outlined in this WAC by the domestic violence service.

(3) You must have at least one telephone at the safe home for incoming and outgoing calls. You must provide the following information to residents:

(a) Emergency telephone numbers; and

(b) Instructions on how residents can access domestic violence service staff.

(4) When clients are residing in a safe home at least one domestic violence service staff member must be on-call to go to the safe home twenty-four-hours a day, seven-days-per-week.

(5) Safe homes must comply with the following general fire safety requirements:

(a) Every room used by children in the safe home must have easy entry and exit, including one of these features:

(i) Two separate doors;

(ii) One door leading directly to the outside; or

(iii) A window that opens to the outside and is large enough for emergency escape or rescue.

(b) Every occupied area must have access to at least one exit that does not pass through rooms or spaces the can be locked or blocked from the opposite side.

(c) No space may be lived in by a client that is accessible only by a ladder, folding stairs, or a trap door.

(d) Every bathroom door used by clients must be designed to permit the opening of the locked door from the outside.

(e) Every closet door latch must be designed to be opened from the inside.

(f) Stoves or heaters must not block escape or exit routes.

(g) Flammable, combustible, or poisonous material must be stored away from exits and away from areas that are accessible to children.

(h) Open-flame devices and fireplaces, heating and cooking appliances, and products capable of igniting clothing must not be left unattended or used incorrectly.

(i) Fireplaces, wood stoves and other heating systems that have a surface hot enough to cause harm must have gates or protectors around them when in use.

(j) Multilevel dwellings must have a means of escape from an upper floor. If a fire ladder is needed to escape from an upper story window, it must be stored in a location that is easily accessible to the clients who may need it.

(k) You must place a smoke detector in good working condition in each bedroom or in areas close to where children sleep, such as a hallway. If the smoke detector is mounted on the wall, it must be twelve inches from the ceiling and a corner.

(l) If questions arise concerning fire danger, the local fire protection authority must be consulted.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR SHELTER HOMES

WAC 388-61A-0135 What are the additional requirements for a shelter home? Shelter homes must meet the following additional requirements in order for a domestic violence service to contract with us:

(1) When a shelter home is not a component of a domestic violence service, the shelter home and domestic violence service must have a written working agreement before the shelter home receives clients from the domestic violence service. The written working agreement must include:

(a) Confirmation that the domestic violence service has inspected the shelter home and that the shelter home complies with the general facility and additional requirements for shelter homes;

(b) How the domestic violence service will provide supportive services to shelter home residents; and

(c) Verification that shelter home staff received initial basic training as outlined in this rule by the domestic violence service.

(2) Shelter homes must provide at least one toilet, sink, and bathing facility for each fifteen clients or fraction of this number. The floors of all toilet and bathing facilities must be resistant to moisture.

(3) You must have at least one telephone at the shelter for incoming and outgoing calls. Next to the telephone in shelter homes you must post:

(a) Emergency telephone numbers; and

(b) Instructions on how residents can access domestic violence service staff.

(4) In shelter homes all bathrooms, toilet rooms, laundry rooms, and janitor closets containing wet mops and brushes must have natural or mechanical ventilation in order to prevent objectionable odors and condensation.

(5) When staff serve food to clients in shelter homes, the staff must prepare the food in compliance with WAC 246-215-190, Temporary food service establishment.

(6) Shelter homes must develop and post hygiene procedures for handling and storing diapers and sanitizing the changing area.

(7) Shelter homes must comply with the fire and life safety requirements as outlined in chapter 51-40 WAC.

(8) Shelter homes must meet the following requirements for bedrooms:

(a) Bedrooms must have a minimum ceiling height of seven and half feet;

(b) Bedrooms must provide at least fifty square feet of usable floor area per bed; and

(c) Floor area where the ceiling height is less than five feet cannot be considered as usable floor area.

(9) When clients are residing in a shelter home at least one domestic violence service staff member must be present or on-call to go to the shelter home twenty-four-hours a day, seven-days-per-week.

SUPPORTIVE SERVICES

WAC 388-61A-0140 What supportive services are required to provide to clients? You must give clients an opportunity to receive supportive services and assistance during their stay in the shelter. Clients are not required to participate in these services as a condition of residing in the shelter. Supportive services must include:

(1) Twenty-four-hour, seven-day-per-week access to advocacy-based counseling;

(2) A safe, supportive environment that offers clients the opportunity to examine the events that led to the need for domestic violence services;

(3) A private area for counseling;

(4) Advocacy-based counseling with, and on behalf of, the client;

(5) Safety planning, problem solving and crisis intervention;

(6) Assistance with child care during individual and group counseling sessions;

(7) A minimum ratio of one group facilitator to eight group participants;

(8) Planned activities for children who are residents of the shelter;

(9) A day program or drop-in center to assist victims of domestic violence who have found other shelter but who have a need for supportive services; and

(10) Referrals to other appropriate services or domestic violence services when:

(a) Shelter homes or safe homes are full;

(b) A client must be transferred to another domestic violence service for reasons of safety of the client; or

(c) An inappropriate referral has been made to a domestic violence service; or

(d) The client has problems that require services of another agency or agencies before receiving domestic violence services.

WAC 388-61A-0145 What is advocacy-based counseling? Advocacy-based counseling means the involvement of a client with an advocate counselor in an individual, family, or group session with the primary focus on safety planning and on empowerment of the client through reinforcing the client's autonomy and self-determination. Advocacy-based counseling uses nonvictim blaming problem-solving methods that include:

(1) Identifying the barriers to safety;

(2) Developing safety checking and planning skills;

(3) Clarifying issues;

(4) Providing options;

- (5) Solving problems;
- (6) Increasing self-esteem and self-awareness; and
- (7) Improving and implementing skills in decision making, parenting, self-help, and self-care.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0145, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0150 What type of training is required for staff of the domestic violence service? All staff providing direct services to domestic violence clients, and supervisors of direct service staff, must meet the following minimum training requirements.

(1) A minimum of twenty hours of initial basic training that covers at least the following topics:

- (a) Theory and implementation of advocacy-based counseling;
- (b) The history of domestic violence;
- (c) Legal, medical, social service, and systems advocacy;
- (d) Confidentiality and ethics;
- (e) Client safety assessment;
- (f) Planning, problem-solving, and crisis intervention;
- (g) Providing services and advocacy to individuals from diverse communities;
- (h) Policies and procedures of the domestic violence service; and
- (i) Referrals and shelter resident transfers.

(2) In the year following the year in which they received their initial basic training, and every year thereafter, staff providing direct services, and supervisors of direct service staff, must attend a minimum of thirty hours of continuing education as follows:

(a) At least fifteen hours of continuing education must be training on advocacy-based counseling directly related to serving victims of domestic violence and their children.

(b) At least five hours of continuing education must be training on services and advocacy to individuals from diverse communities.

(c) Staff must devote not more than ten hours to video, audiotapes, or self-study as part of the overall thirty-hour continuing education requirement.

WAC 388-61A-0155 Must supervisors of domestic violence service staff have specific experience and training? Supervisors of staff providing direct services to domestic violence clients must meet the following minimum experience and training requirements.

(1) At least two years' counseling experience with a domestic violence service; and

(2) Fifty hours of training on domestic violence issues and advocacy-based counseling within three years prior to providing staff supervision.

WAC 388-61A-0160 What written policies and procedures do you need to have? The domestic violence service must have written policies and procedures that cover the following issues:

- (1) Victims in immediate danger or at risk will receive first priority for shelter;
- (2) Confidentiality of client records and communication;
- (3) Nondiscrimination relating to staff, clients, and provision of services;
- (4) The provision of bilingual and interpreter services to clients;
- (5) Recruitment, hiring, periodic performance evaluation, promotion and termination of staff. Agencies must recruit, to the extent feasible, persons who are former victims of domestic violence to work as paid or volunteer staff;
- (6) Job descriptions for all staff positions including volunteers;
- (7) Reporting of child abuse as legally mandated;
- (8) Clients access to their files;
- (9) Grievance procedures for staff and clients;
- (10) Procedures for making referrals to other community resources such as medical, community service offices, pastoral care, legal representation, and client transfers to another domestic violence service for reasons of safety of the client;
- (11) Emergency procedures for fire, disaster, first aid, medical and police intervention;
- (12) Appropriate documentation of domestic violence services and client files;
- (13) Protection of agency and client records;
- (14) Records retention;
- (15) Appropriate accounting procedures;
- (16) Personnel policies and procedures; and
- (17) Administrative policies and procedures.

COMPLIANCE WITH STANDARDS

WAC 388-61A-0165 Will DSHS do an evaluation of the domestic violence service? (1) To measure compliance with our requirements we will conduct a biennial evaluation of each agency under contract with us to provide domestic violence service.

(2) We will inspect a random number of safe homes during biennial evaluations of domestic violence services to measure compliance with our requirements.

(3) If a lodging unit is occupied at the time of an evaluation, the domestic violence service must give the client an opportunity to leave the unit.

WAC 388-61A-0170 What will happen if I am out of compliance with my contract? (1) If we find that the domestic violence service, safe home, or shelter home is out of compliance with the standards specified in this chapter or the contract, we will give you written notice of the deficiencies. You must correct the deficiencies according to a plan of correction we approve.

(2) We may suspend or revoke the funding of a domestic violence service where a safe home, shelter home, or the domestic violence service itself is out of compliance with this chapter or the DSHS contract.

WAC 388-61A-0175 What will happen if there is a complaint to DSHS about the domestic violence service?

(1) If we receive a complaint that your domestic violence service is out of compliance with this chapter or the DSHS contract, we will notify you and we will initiate an investigation.

(2) If the investigation requires that we be on-site at your domestic violence service, you must give clients residing in lodging units an opportunity to leave the unit during the inspection.

(3) If we find that the domestic violence service, safe home, or shelter home has not complied with the standards specified in this chapter or the terms of the DSHS contract, we will give you written notice of the deficiencies. You must correct the deficiencies according to a plan of correction we approve.

(4) We may suspend or revoke the funding of a domestic violence service where a safe home, shelter home, or the service itself is out of compliance with this chapter or the DSHS contract.

WAC 388-61A-0180 Can DSHS waive any of the minimum standards of this chapter? Under certain conditions we may waive some of the rules contained in this chapter if you submit a written request that satisfactorily demonstrates that:

(1) The waiver will not place the client's safety or health in jeopardy and that:

(a) The domestic violence service is unable to meet the requirements of this chapter without the waiver; or

(b) The absence of the waiver will have a detrimental effect on the provision of services.

(2) Any substitutions of procedures, materials, or equipment from those specified in this chapter are at least equivalent to those required.

APPEAL PROCESS

WAC 388-61A-0185 What are my rights if DSHS suspends, revokes, or denies funding? If we suspend, revoke or deny funding you may request an agency hearing.

WAC 388-61A-0190 Will I be notified if my funding has been suspended, revoked, or denied? We will notify you in writing if:

(1) Your funding has been suspended or revoked and we will state our reasons for making that decision; or

(2) Your request for funding has been denied and we will state our reasons for making that decision.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0190, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-61A-0195 How do I request an agency hearing? In order to request an agency hearing you must:

[Title 388 WAC—p. 342]

(1) Notify the office of administrative hearings within twenty-eight days from the date of the letter that notified you of our decision;

(2) Include in your letter a statement of your reasons why you disagree with our decision; and

(3) Attach a copy of our letter to your request for an agency hearing.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 70.123 RCW. 01-07-053, § 388-61A-0195, filed 3/16/01, effective 4/16/01.]

WAC 388-70-091 Foster care planning for Indian children—Definitions. For the purposes of these rules, the term "Indian" includes the following groups:

- (1) An enrolled Indian:
 - (a) Any person who is enrolled or eligible for enrollment in a recognized tribe.
 - (b) Any person determined, or eligible to be found, to be an Indian by the Secretary of the Interior.
 - (c) An Eskimo, Aleut or other Alaskan native.
- (2) A Canadian Indian: Any person who is a member of a treaty tribe, Metis community or nonstatus Indian community from Canada.
- (3) An unenrolled Indian: A person considered to be an Indian by a federally or nonfederally recognized Indian tribe or urban Indian/Alaskan native community organization.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-091, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-092 Foster care for Indian children—Tribal sovereignty. Neither the licensing of Indian foster homes nor the placement and supervision of Indian children within the exterior boundaries of an Indian reservation, shall in any way abridge the sovereignty of an Indian nation or tribe nor shall compliance with these rules and regulations be deemed a relinquishment of sovereign authority by an Indian nation or tribe or by the state of Washington.

WAC 388-70-093 Foster care for Indian children—Services. Documented efforts shall be made to avoid separating the Indian child from his parents, relatives, tribe or cultural heritage. Consequently:

- (1) In the case of Indian children being placed in foster care by the department or for whom the department has supervisory responsibility, the local Indian child welfare advisory committee, predesignated by a tribal council, or appropriate urban Indian organization shall be contacted. Members of that committee will serve as resource persons for the purposes of cooperative planning and aid in placement.
- (2) The resources of the tribal government, department and the Indian community shall be used to locate the child's parents and relatives to assist in locating possible placement resources, and to assist in the development of a plan to overcome the problem that brought the child to the attention of the authorities and/or the department.

(3) In planning foster care placements for Indian children, demonstrable consideration shall be given to tribal membership, tribal culture and Indian religions. The case record shall document the reasons and circumstances of case-work decisions and consideration in those regards.

(4) The following resources for foster home placement of Indian children will be explored and followed in the following order: Relatives' homes, homes of other Indian families of same tribe, other Indian foster parents and non-Indian foster homes specifically recruited and trained in cooperation with the local Indian child welfare advisory committee to meet the special needs of Indian foster children and in the geographic proximity that will insure continuation of the parent-child relationship. The training of non-Indian foster parents shall be designed and delivered in cooperation with the above committee and/or persons designated by the committee.

(5) For each Indian child who will be in care for more than 30 days, including those for whom adoption is planned, the ESSO shall make documented effort to complete two copies of the "family ancestry chart" (except in those cases where parents specifically indicate in writing they do not want the child enrolled). One copy will be retained in the child's file; the other will be forwarded to the bureau of Indian affairs office or the department of Indian affairs agency in Canada serving that child's tribe or band. The BIA of the department of Indian affairs agency will review the chart for possible enrollment eligibility in conjunction with the enrollment committee of the appropriate tribe or urban Indian community.

(6) The ESSO shall develop its social resources and staff training programs designed to meet the special needs of Indian children through coordination with tribal, Indian health service, bureau of Indian affairs social service staff, appropriate urban Indian and Alaskan native consultants, national, state and local Indian welfare organizations and ESSO child welfare advisory committees.

(7) The ESSO shall make diligent and demonstrable efforts to recruit facilities and/or homes particularly capable of meeting the special needs of Indian children with the assistance of the local Indian child welfare advisory committees.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-093, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-095 Foster care for Indian children—Serious injury, death, abandonment, child abuse, neglect, incarceration. When an Indian child in foster care dies, is seriously injured, abandoned or incarcerated, in addition to other appropriate notifications, the department shall promptly advise the ESSO Indian child welfare advisory committee and appropriate tribal council. WAC 388-15-131(4) provides for notification about child abuse/neglect incidents.

[Order 1255, § 388-70-095, filed 12/1/77; Order 1167, § 388-70-095, filed 10/27/76.]

(iii) An Eskimo, Aleut or other Alaskan native.

(b) Canadian Indian: A person who is a member of a treaty tribe, Metis community or nonstatus Indian community from Canada.

(c) Unenrolled Indian: A person considered to be an Indian by a federally or nonfederally recognized tribe or urban Indian/Alaskan native community organization.

(2) An adoptive family shall be considered Indian if one or both parents are Indian by the above definitions.

(3) In adoptive planning for Indian children, the unique tribal, cultural and religious sovereignty of Indian nations, tribes and communities shall be recognized. When consistent with the wishes of the biological parents and/or the child, the adoption of Indian children by Indian families is the primary goal.

(4) Standards implementing the policy are:

(a) Adoption exchange. In the referrals for an Indian child, adoptive homes having the following characteristics shall be given preference in the following order, each category being allowed 30 days before proceeding to the next.

(i) An Indian family of the same tribe as the child.

(ii) A Washington Indian family considering tribal cultural differences.

(iii) An Indian family from elsewhere in the United States or Canada through the adoption resource exchange of North America. Attention shall be given to matching the child's tribal culture to that of the adoptive family.

(iv) Any other family which can provide a suitable home to an Indian child, as well as instill pride and understanding in the child's tribal and cultural heritage.

(b) Foster parent adoptions: As a part of the total evaluation for approving a foster parent adoption of an Indian child, ESSO service staff shall document the foster family's past performance and future commitment in exposing the child to its Indian tribal and cultural heritage. The child's wish to be involved in his Indian culture shall be considered.

(c) When an Indian child, in the custody of an out-of-state agency, is referred for potential adoptive parents residing in Washington, documentation shall be obtained that assures the department's standards for planning for Indian children have been complied with.

(5) Local staff shall consult with an Indian child welfare committee in planning for placement of Indian children.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-450, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-600 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Purpose. The intent of WAC 388-70-096, 388-70-450, and 388-70-600 through 388-70-640 is to ensure protection of the Indian identity of Indian children, their rights as Indian children, and the maximum utilization of available Indian resources for Indian children. To ensure the realization of this intent, information about each current and future case involving Indian children for whom the department of social and health services has a responsibility shall be referred to a local Indian child welfare advisory committee on an ongoing basis according to procedures which recognize the privacy rights of the families.

The purposes of local Indian child welfare advisory committees are:

(1) To promote relevant social service planning for Indian children.

(2) To encourage the preservation of the Indian family, tribe, heritage, and identity of each Indian child served by the department of social and health services.

(3) To assist in obtaining participation by representatives of tribal governments and Indian organizations in departmental planning for Indian children for whom the department has a responsibility.

WAC 388-70-610 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Membership. Local Indian child welfare committees shall be established within each region. The number and locations of the local committees shall be mutually determined by the Indian tribal governments and urban Indian organizations served by that region and the DSHS regional administrator.

(1) The committee shall consist of representatives designated by tribal government and urban Indian organizations. The regional administrator shall appoint committee members from among those individuals designated by Indian authorities. These members should be familiar with and knowledgeable about the needs of children in general as well as the particular needs of Indian children residing in the service area.

(2) The committee may also include bureau of Indian affairs and/or Indian health service staff if approved by participating tribal councils and urban Indian organizations.

(3) The DSHS regional administrator and/or the ESSO administrator shall appoint a member of his child welfare supervisory staff as a liaison member of the committee.

(4) The local Indian child welfare advisory committee is an ad hoc advisory committee not specifically authorized by statute. As such its members are not entitled to per diem and travel expenses for the performance of advisory committee functions. This rule shall not be construed, however, to prohibit expense payments to members who are otherwise qualified for and perform services compensable under other programs such as the volunteer programs.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-610, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-615 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Subcommittees. Each committee may appoint a subcommittee of permanent members to participate in reviewing the situation of an individual child or children for the purpose of recommending future planning actions.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-615, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-620 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Functions. (1) The functions of the local Indian child welfare advisory committee are:

(a) Assistance to DSHS staff in cooperative planning for Indian children.

(b) Consultation to DSHS staff regarding the provision of adoption, foster care and child protective services on behalf of Indian children.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 347]

(c) Reviewing the situations of Indian children.

(d) Assisting in the implementation of recommended plans.

(e) Assisting in the recruitment of and making recommendations regarding the licensing of foster and adoptive homes for Indian children and providing culturally relevant services to Indian children.

(f) Requests the ESSO administrator to initiate reviews of casework decisions that the committee believes to be detrimental to the best interests of Indian children.

(g) Acts in an advisory capacity to the regional administrator and ESSO administrator regarding the department's implementation and monitoring of the rules related to foster care, child protection, and adoption services to Indian children and their families.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-620, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-630 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Meetings. Each committee and the regional administrator and/or ESSO administrator will mutually agree as to time, place and frequency and conduct of official committee meetings.

[Order 1167, § 388-70-630, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-70-640 Local Indian child welfare advisory committee—Confidentiality. The members of the local child welfare advisory committee shall agree to abide by RCW 74.04.060 and the rules of confidentiality binding the DSHS staff.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.15.030, 89-05-063 (Order 2743), § 388-70-640, filed 2/15/89; Order 1167, § 388-70-640, filed 10/27/76.]

WAC 388-71-0105 What definitions apply to adult protective services? In addition to the definitions found in chapter 74.34 RCW, the following definitions apply:

"ADSA" means DSHS aging and disability services administration.

"ALJ" means an administrative law judge, an impartial decision-maker who is an attorney and presides at an administrative hearing. The office of administrative hearings (OAH), which is a state agency, employs the ALJs. ALJs are not DSHS employees or DSHS representatives.

"APS" means adult protective services.

"Basic necessities of life" means food, water, shelter, clothing, and medically necessary health care, including but not limited to health-related treatment or activities, hygiene, oxygen, and medication.

"BOA" means the DSHS board of appeals. The board of appeals consists of lawyers who are members of the Washington State Bar Association. An ALJ's decision can be appealed to the board of appeals, allowing a level of review before an appeal to the court system may be considered.

"DSHS" means the department of social and health services.

"Entity" means any agency, corporation, partnership, association, limited liability company, sole proprietorship, for-profit or not-for-profit business that provides care and/or services to vulnerable adults under a license, certification or contract issued by DSHS or DSHS' contractor. An entity does not include a boarding home licensed under chapter 18.20 RCW, an adult family home licensed under chapter 70.128 RCW, or a nursing home licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW, but does include such facilities if they are required to be licensed but are not currently licensed.

"Facility" means a residence licensed as a boarding home under chapter 18.20 RCW, an adult family home under chapter 70.128 RCW, a nursing home under chapter 18.51 RCW, a soldier's home under chapter 72.36 RCW, a residential habilitation center under chapter 71A.20 RCW, or any other facility licensed by DSHS.

"Final finding" means the department's substantiated finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect is upheld through the administrative appeal process specified in WAC 388-71-01205 through 388-71-01280, or is not timely appealed to the office of administrative hearings. The alleged perpetrator can appeal a final finding to Superior Court and the Court of Appeals under the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW.

"Initial finding" means a determination made by the department upon investigation of an allegation of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect or self-neglect.

(1) If the department determines it is more likely than not the incident occurred, the department shall document the finding as "substantiated."

(2) If the department determines it is more likely than not the incident did not occur, the department shall document the finding as "unsubstantiated."

(3) If the department cannot make a determination about whether the incident occurred or did not occur on a more probable than not basis, the department shall document the finding as "inconclusive."

"Legal representative" means a guardian appointed under chapter 11.88 RCW.

"Person or entity with a duty of care" includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) A guardian appointed under chapter 11.88 RCW; or

(2) A person named in a durable power of attorney as the attorney-in-fact as defined under chapter 11.94 RCW.

(3) A person or entity providing the basic necessities of life to a vulnerable adult [adults] where:

(a) The person or entity is employed by or on behalf of the vulnerable adult; or

(b) The person or entity voluntarily agrees to provide, or has been providing, the basic necessities of life to the vulnerable adult on a continuing basis.

"Personal aide" as found in RCW 74.39.007.

"Self-directed care" as found in RCW 74.39.007.

"Willful" means the nonaccidental action or inaction by an alleged perpetrator that he/she knew or reasonably should have known could cause harm, injury or a negative outcome.

PART A—PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

WAC 388-71-0110 What is the purpose of an adult protective services investigation? The purpose of an adult protective services investigation is to:

(1) Investigate allegations of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect, or self-neglect.

(2007 Ed.)

(2) Provide protective services with the consent of the vulnerable adult or his or her legal representative when the allegation is substantiated, or prior to substantiation when it appears abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect or self-neglect may be occurring and protective services could assist in ending or preventing harm to the vulnerable adult.

(3) When an allegation is substantiated, APS may investigate whether other vulnerable adults may be at current risk of abuse, neglect, abandonment or financial exploitation by the person or entity.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-0110, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.34.165, and 74.39A.050(9). 00-03-029, § 388-71-0110, filed 1/11/00, effective 2/11/00.]

WAC 388-71-0115 When is an investigation conducted? The department determines when an investigation is conducted [required]. The following criteria must be met:

(1) The reported circumstances fit the definition of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect, or self-neglect as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW; and

(2) The alleged victim is a vulnerable adult as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-0115, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.34.165, and 74.39A.050(9). 00-03-029, § 388-71-0115, filed 1/11/00, effective 2/11/00.]

WAC 388-71-01201 What state-only funded services may be offered to a vulnerable adult victim of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect or self-neglect? (1) Subject to available funding, state-only funded in-home personal care/household services and state-only funded placement in a department licensed and contracted adult family home, boarding home or nursing facility may be offered without regard to the vulnerable adult's functional status or income/resources, if:

(a) The vulnerable adult is the subject of an open APS case involving an allegation of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, neglect, and/or self-neglect;

(b) The services would help protect the vulnerable adult from harm;

(c) APS cannot verify alternative resources or options for payment for services available to the vulnerable adult at the time;

(d) Services are provided in the least restrictive and most cost effective setting available to appropriately meet the needs of the vulnerable adult;

(e) APS is actively pursuing other service alternatives and/or resolution of the issues that resulted in the need for protective services; and

(f) The state-only funded services are temporary and provided with the consent of the vulnerable adult or legal representative only until the situation has stabilized. State-only funded protective services are provided by DSHS on a discretionary basis and are not a benefit and not an entitlement. Termination of state-only funded temporary protective services is exempt from notification and appeal requirements.

(2) State-only funded services to an individual vulnerable adult shall be based on assessed need and limited to:

(a) Up to one hundred forty-three hours of in-home personal care/household services per month; and

(b) A cumulative maximum total of ninety days service in any twelve-month period of time, with nursing facility services not exceeding thirty days of the ninety-day total. An exception to rule cannot be used to grant an extension.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-0121 (codified as WAC 388-71-01201), filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

PART B—NOTIFICATION AND ADMINISTRATIVE APPEAL OF A SUBSTANTIATED FINDING

WAC 388-71-01205 When does APS notify the alleged perpetrator of the results of an APS investigation?

(1) APS will notify the alleged perpetrator in writing within ten working days of making a substantiated initial finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect of a vulnerable adult.

(2) The time frame for notification can be extended beyond ten working days to include the time needed to translate the notification letter or make provisions for the safety of the alleged victim.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01205, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01210 How may APS give the alleged perpetrator notice of the substantiated initial finding?

(1) APS shall notify the alleged perpetrator of a substantiated initial finding by sending a letter certified mail/return receipt requested and regular mail to the alleged perpetrator's last known place of residence. The duty of notification created by this section is subject to the ability of the department to ascertain the location of the alleged perpetrator. APS shall make a reasonable, good faith effort to determine the address of the last known place of residence of the alleged perpetrator; or

(2) APS shall have the written notice delivered or personally served upon the alleged perpetrator.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01210, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01215 When is notice to the alleged perpetrator complete? Notice is complete when:

(1) Personal service is made;

(2) Mail is properly stamped, addressed and deposited in the United States mail;

(3) A parcel is delivered to a commercial delivery service with charges prepaid; or

(4) A parcel is delivered to a legal messenger service with charges prepaid.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01215, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01220 What proves that APS provided notice of the substantiated initial finding to the alleged perpetrator? APS may prove notice was provided to the alleged perpetrator by any of the following:

- (1) A sworn statement or declaration of personal service;
- (2) The certified mail receipt signed by the recipient;
- (3) An affidavit or certificate of mailing; or
- (4) A signed receipt from the person who accepted the commercial delivery service or legal messenger service package.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01220, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01225 What information must not be in the APS finding notice to the alleged perpetrator? The identities of the alleged victim, reporter, and witnesses must not be included in the APS finding notice to the alleged perpetrator.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01225, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01230 Will APS notify anyone other than the alleged perpetrator of the finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect?

(1) In a manner consistent with confidentiality requirements concerning the vulnerable adult, witnesses, and reporter, APS may provide notification of a substantiated initial finding to:

(a) Other divisions within the department;

(b) The agency or program identified under RCW 74.34.068 with which the alleged perpetrator is associated as an employee, volunteer or contractor;

(c) Law enforcement;

(d) Other investigative authority consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW; and

(e) The facility in which the incident occurred.

(2) In the notification APS will identify the finding as an initial finding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01230, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01235 Can an alleged perpetrator challenge an APS finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect?

An alleged perpetrator of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect may request an administrative hearing to challenge a substantiated initial finding made by APS on or after the effective date of this rule.

WAC 388-71-01240 How does an alleged perpetrator request an administrative hearing to challenge an APS finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect?

(1) To request an administrative hearing the alleged perpetrator must send, deliver, or fax a written request to the office of administrative hearings. OAH must receive the written request within thirty calendar days of the date the department's letter of notice is mailed or personally served upon the alleged perpetrator, whichever occurs first. If the alleged perpetrator requests a hearing by fax, the alleged perpetrator must also mail a copy of the request to OAH on the same day.

(2) The alleged perpetrator must complete and submit the form to request an administrative hearing provided by APS or submit a written request for a hearing that includes:

(a) The full legal name, current address and phone number of the alleged perpetrator;

(b) A brief explanation of why the alleged perpetrator disagrees with the substantiated initial finding;

(c) A description of any assistance needed in the administrative appeal process by the alleged perpetrator, including a foreign or sign language interpreter or any accommodation for a disability;

(d) The alleged perpetrator should keep a copy of the request.

WAC 388-71-01245 What laws and rules will control the administrative hearings held regarding substantiated APS findings? Chapters 34.05 and 74.34 RCW, chapter 388-02 WAC, and the provisions of this chapter govern any administrative hearing regarding a substantiated APS finding. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this chapter and chapter 388-02 WAC, the provisions of this chapter shall prevail.

WAC 388-71-01250 How is confidential information protected in the appeal process? (1) All information and documents provided by the department to the alleged perpetrator shall be used by the alleged perpetrator only to challenge the findings in the administrative hearing.

(2) Confidential information such as the name and other personal identifying information of the reporter and the vulnerable adult shall be redacted from documents and the parties shall use means in testimony to protect the identity of such persons, unless otherwise ordered by the ALJ consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW and other applicable state and federal laws.

WAC 388-71-01255 How does the administrative law judge make a decision regarding the substantiated APS finding? (1) The ALJ shall decide if a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record supports a determination that the alleged perpetrator committed an act of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect of a vulnerable adult.

(2) If the ALJ determines that a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record supports the substantiated APS finding, the ALJ shall uphold the finding.

(3) If the ALJ determines that the substantiated APS finding is not supported by a preponderance of the evidence in the hearing record, the ALJ shall remand the matter to the department to modify the finding consistent with the initial decision of the ALJ.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01255, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01260 How is the alleged perpetrator notified of the administrative law judge's decision? After the administrative hearing, the ALJ will send a written decision to the alleged perpetrator and the department within ninety calendar days after the record is closed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01260, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01265 What if the alleged perpetrator or the department disagrees with the decision? If the alleged perpetrator or the department disagrees with the ALJ's decision, either party may challenge this decision by filing a petition for review with the department's board of appeals consistent with the procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW. 04-19-136, § 388-71-01265, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

WAC 388-71-01270 What happens if the administrative law judge rules against the department? If the department appeals the ALJ's decision, the department will not modify the finding in the department's records until a final hearing decision is issued. If the department does not appeal the ALJ's initial decision, the department will modify the finding in the department's records consistent with the ALJ's initial decision and document the ALJ's decision in the record.

WAC 388-71-01275 When does the APS substantiated initial finding become a final finding? A substantiated initial finding becomes a final finding when:

(1) The department gives the alleged perpetrator notice of the substantiated initial finding pursuant to WAC 388-71-01210 and the alleged perpetrator does not request an administrative hearing as set forth in WAC 388-71-01240; or

(2) The ALJ dismisses the hearing following default or withdrawal by the alleged perpetrator, or issues an initial order upholding the substantiated finding and the alleged perpetrator fails to file a request for review of the ALJ's initial decision with the department's board of appeals consistent with the procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC; or

(3) The board of appeals issues a final order upholding the substantiated finding when a request for review to the department's board of appeals is made consistent with the procedures contained in chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC.

(4) The final finding will remain as substantiated in the department's records unless the final finding is reversed after judicial review.

WAC 388-71-01280 Does the department disclose information about final findings of abuse, abandonment, neglect and financial exploitation? The department will maintain a registry of final findings and, upon request of any person, the department may disclose the identity of a person or entity with a final finding of abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation or neglect.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 34.05.020, 74.08.090, 74.39A.050, chapter 74.34 RCW, 04-19-136, § 388-71-01280, filed 9/21/04, effective 10/22/04.]

INDIVIDUAL PROVIDER AND HOME CARE AGENCY PROVIDER QUALIFICATIONS

WAC 388-71-0500 What is the purpose of WAC 388-71-0500 through [388-71-05952] [388-71-05909]? A client/legal representative may choose an individual provider or a home care agency provider. The intent of WAC 388-71-0500 through [388-71-05952] [388-71-05909] is to describe the:

- (1) Qualifications of an individual provider, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010;
- (2) Qualifications of a home care agency provider, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010 and chapter 246-336 WAC;
- (3) Conditions under which the department or the area agency on aging (AAA) will pay for the services of an individual provider or a home care agency provider;
- (4) Training requirements for an individual provider and home care agency provider.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520, 05-11-082, § 388-71-0500, filed 5/17/05, effective 6/17/05. WAC 388-71-0510 How does a person become an individual provider? In order to become an individual provider, a person must:

- (1) Be eighteen years of age or older;
- (2) Provide the social worker/case manager/designee with:
 - (a) Picture identification; and
 - (b) A Social Security card; or
 - (c) Authorization to work in the United States.
- (3) Complete and submit to the social worker/case manager/designee the department's criminal conviction background inquiry application, unless the provider is also the parent of the adult DDD client and exempted, per chapter 74.15 RCW;

(a) Preliminary results may require a thumb print for identification purposes;

(b) An FBI fingerprint-based background check is required if the person has lived in the state of Washington less than three years.

(4) Sign a home and community-based service provider contract/agreement to provide services to a COPES, MNIW, or Medicaid personal care client.

[Statutory Authority: 2004 c 276 § 206 (6)(b) and Townsend vs. DSHS, U.S. District Court, Western District of Washington, No. C 00-0944Z, 04-16-029, § 388-71-0510, filed 7/26/04, effective 8/26/04. WAC 388-71-0515 What are the responsibilities of an individual provider or home care agency provider when employed to provide care to a client? An individual provider or home care agency provider must:

- (1) Understand the client's plan of care that is signed by the client or legal representative and social worker/case manager, and translated or interpreted, as necessary, for the client and the provider;
- (2) Provide the services as outlined on the client's plan of care, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010;
- (3) Accommodate client's individual preferences and differences in providing care;
- (4) Contact the client's representative and case manager when there are changes which affect the personal care and other tasks listed on the plan of care;
- (5) Observe the client for change(s) in health, take appropriate action, and respond to emergencies;
- (6) Notify the case manager immediately when the client enters a hospital, or moves to another setting;
- (7) Notify the case manager immediately if the client dies;
- (8) Notify the department or AAA immediately when unable to staff/serve the client; and
- (9) Notify the department/AAA when the individual provider or home care agency will no longer provide services. Notification to the client/legal guardian must:
 - (a) Give at least two weeks' notice, and
 - (b) Be in writing.
- (10) Complete and keep accurate time sheets that are accessible to the social worker/case manager; and
- (11) Comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

WAC 388-71-0546 When can the department, AAA, or managed care entity reject the client's choice of an individual provider? The department, AAA, or managed care entity may reject a client's request to have a family member or other person serve as his or her individual provider if the case manager has a reasonable, good faith belief that the person will be unable to appropriately meet the client's needs. Examples of circumstances indicating an inability to meet the client's needs could include, without limitation:

(1) Evidence of alcohol or drug abuse;

(2) A reported history of domestic violence, no-contact orders, or criminal conduct (whether or not the conduct is disqualifying under RCW 43.43.830 and 43.43.842;

(3) A report from the client's health care provider or other knowledgeable person that the requested provider lacks the ability or willingness to provide adequate care;

(4) Other employment or responsibilities that prevent or interfere with the provision of required services;

(5) Excessive commuting distance that would make it impractical to provide services as they are needed and outlined in the client's service plan.

WAC 388-71-0551 When can the department, AAA, or managed care entity terminate or summarily suspend an individual provider's contract? The department, AAA, or managed care entity may take action to terminate an individual provider's contract if the provider's inadequate performance or inability to deliver quality care is jeopardizing the client's health, safety, or well-being. The department, AAA, or managed care entity may summarily suspend the contract pending a hearing based on a reasonable, good faith belief that the client's health, safety, or well-being is in imminent jeopardy. Examples of circumstances indicating jeopardy to the client could include, without limitation:

(1) Domestic violence or abuse, neglect, abandonment, or exploitation of a minor or vulnerable adult;

(2) Using or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs during working hours;

(3) Other behavior directed toward the client or other persons involved in the client's life that places the client at risk of harm;

(4) A report from the client's health care provider that the client's health is negatively affected by inadequate care;

(5) A complaint from the client or client's representative that the client is not receiving adequate care;

(6) The absence of essential interventions identified in the service plan, such as medications or medical supplies; and/or

(7) Failure to respond appropriately to emergencies.

WAC 388-71-0560 What are the client's rights if the department denies, terminates, or summarily suspends an individual provider's contract? If the department denies, terminates, or summarily suspends the individual provider's contract, the client has the right to:

(1) A fair hearing to appeal the decision, per chapter 388-02 WAC, and

(2) Receive services from another currently contracted individual provider or home care agency provider, or other options the client is eligible for, if a contract is summarily suspended.

(3) The hearing rights afforded under this section are those of the client, not the individual provider.

WAC 388-71-05665 What definitions apply to WAC 388-71-05670 through 388-71-05909? "Client" means an individual age eighteen or older, receiving in-home services through Medicaid personal care, COPES, MNIW, or Chore programs.

"Competency" means the minimum level of information and skill trainees are required to know and be able to demonstrate.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 362]

"DSHS" refers to the department of social and health services.

"Learning outcomes" means the specific information, skills and behaviors desired of the learner as a result of a specific unit of instruction, such as what they would learn by the end of a single class or an entire course. Learning outcomes are generally identified with a specific lesson plan or curriculum.

"Routine interaction" means contact with clients that happens regularly.

ORIENTATION

WAC 388-71-05670 What is orientation? Orientation provides basic introductory information appropriate to the in-home setting and population served. The department does not approve specific orientation programs, materials, or trainers for home care agencies. Department-developed orientation materials must be used for orientation of individual providers. No test is required for orientation.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.39A.050, 2003 c 140, chapters 18.79, 18.88A RCW, 04-02-001, recodified as § 388-71-05670, filed 12/24/03, effective 1/24/04. Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.39A RCW and 2000 c 121, 02-10-117, § 388-71-05911, filed 4/30/02, effective 5/31/02.]

WAC 388-71-05675 What content must be included in an orientation? Orientation may include the use of videotapes, audiotapes, and other media if the person overseeing the orientation is available to answer questions or concerns for the person(s) receiving the orientation. Orientation must include introductory information in the following areas:

- (1) The care setting;
- (2) The characteristics and special needs of the population served;
- (3) Fire and life safety, including:
 - (a) Emergency communication (including phone system if one exists);
 - (b) Evacuation planning (including fire alarms and fire extinguishers where they exist);
 - (c) Ways to handle client injuries and falls or other accidents;
 - (d) Potential risks to clients or providers (for instance, aggressive client behaviors and how to handle them); and
 - (e) The location of agency policies and procedures, when orientation takes place in a home care agency.
- (4) Communication skills and information, including:
 - (a) Methods for supporting effective communication among the client/guardian, the provider, and family members;
 - (b) Use of verbal and nonverbal communication;
 - (c) Review of written communications and/or documentation required for the job, including the client's service plan; and
 - (d) Whom to contact about problems and concerns.

(2007 Ed.)

(5) Universal precautions and infection control, including:

- (a) Proper hand washing techniques;
 - (b) Protection from exposure to blood and other body fluids;
 - (c) Appropriate disposal of contaminated/hazardous articles;
 - (d) Reporting exposure to contaminated articles, blood, or other body fluids; and
 - (e) What a provider should do if they are ill.
- (6) Client rights, including:
- (a) The client's right to confidentiality of information about the client;
 - (b) The client's right to participate in decisions about the client's care, and to refuse care;
 - (c) The provider's duty to protect and promote the rights of each client, and assist the client to exercise his or her rights;
 - (d) How and to whom providers should report any concerns they may have about a client's decision concerning the client's care, including the client's case manager;
 - (e) Providers' duty to report any suspected abuse, abandonment, neglect, or exploitation of a client;
 - (f) Advocates that are available to help clients (LTC ombudsmen, organizations); and
 - (g) Complaint lines, hot lines, and client grievance procedures.

INSTRUCTOR QUALIFICATIONS

WAC 388-71-05870 What are an instructor's or training entity's responsibilities? The instructor or training entity is responsible for:

- (1) Coordinating and teaching classes;
- (2) Assuring that the curriculum used is taught as designed;
- (3) Selecting qualified guest speakers where applicable;
- (4) Administering or overseeing the administration of DSHS competency and challenge tests;
- (5) Maintaining training records including student tests and attendance records for a minimum of six years;
- (6) Reporting training data to DSHS in DSHS-identified time frames; and
- (7) Issuing or reissuing training certificates to students.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.39A.050, 2003 c 140, chapters 18.79, 18.88A RCW. 04-02-001, recodified as § 388-71-05870, filed 12/24/03, effective 1/24/04. Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.39A RCW and 2000 c 121. 02-10-117, § 388-71-05945, filed 4/30/02, effective 5/31/02.]

WAC 388-71-05875 Must instructors be approved by DSHS or an AAA? (1) DSHS must approve any instructor under contract with DSHS to conduct basic training, modified basic training, or nurse delegation core training classes using the training curricula developed by DSHS. DSHS may select contracted instructors using any applicable contracting procedures. Contractors must meet the minimum qualifications for instructors under this chapter and any additional qualifications established through the contracting procedure.

(2) DSHS contracts with area agencies on aging (AAA) or other entities to conduct orientation, basic, modified basic, nurse delegation core training, and continuing education training programs for individual providers and home care agency providers. The training entity must approve any instructor under contract with the entity to conduct training programs. The entity's contractors must meet the minimum qualifications for instructors under this chapter and any additional qualifications established through the entity's contracting procedures.

WAC 388-71-05880 Can DSHS or the AAA deny or terminate a contract with an instructor or training entity? (1) DSHS or an area agency on aging (AAA), as applicable, may determine not to accept an offer by a person or organization seeking a contract with DSHS or the AAA to conduct training programs. No administrative remedies are available to dispute DSHS' or the AAA's decision not to accept an offer, except as may be provided through the contracting process.

(2) DSHS or the AAA may terminate any training contract in accordance with the terms of the contract. The contractor's administrative remedies shall be limited to those specified in the contract.

WAC 388-71-05885 What is a guest speaker, and what are the minimum qualifications to be a guest speaker for basic training? Guest speakers for basic training programs teach a specific subject in which they have expertise, under the supervision of the instructor. The guest speaker must have, as minimum qualifications, an appropriate background and experience that demonstrates that the guest speaker has expertise on the topic he or she will teach. The instructor must select guest speakers that meet the minimum qualifications, and maintain documentation of this background. DSHS does not approve guest speakers.

WAC 388-71-05890 What are the minimum qualifications for an instructor for basic, modified basic or nurse delegation core training? An instructor for basic, modified basic, or nurse delegation core training must meet the following minimum qualifications:

- (1) General qualifications:
 - (a) Twenty-one years of age;
 - (b) Has not had a professional health care or social services license or certification revoked in Washington state (however, no license or certification is required).
- (2) Education and work experience:
 - (a) Upon initial approval or hire, must have:
 - (i) A high school diploma and one year of professional or caregiving experience within the last five years in an adult family home, boarding home, supported living through DDD per chapter 388-820 WAC, or home care setting; or
 - (ii) An associate degree in a health field and six months of professional or caregiving experience within the last five years in an adult family home, boarding home, supported living through DDD per chapter 388-820 WAC, or home care setting.
 - (b) Teaching experience:
 - (a) Must have one hundred hours of experience teaching adults on topics directly related to the basic training; or
 - (b) Must have forty hours of teaching while being mentored by an instructor who meets these qualifications, and must attend a class on adult education that meets the requirements of WAC 388-71-05899.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 368]

(4) The instructor must be experienced in caregiving practices and capable of demonstrating competency with respect to the course content or units being taught;

(5) Instructors who will administer tests must have experience or training in assessment and competency testing; and

(6) If required under WAC 388-71-05730 or 388-71-05760, instructors must successfully complete basic or modified basic training prior to beginning to train others.

PHYSICAL RESOURCES AND STANDARD PRACTICES FOR TRAINING

WAC 388-71-05899 What must be included in a class on adult education? A class on adult education must include content, student practice, and evaluation of student skills by the instructor in:

- (1) Adult education theory and practice principles;
- (2) Instructor facilitation techniques;
- (3) Facilitating learning activities for adults;
- (4) Administering competency testing; and
- (5) Working with adults with special training needs (for example, English as a second language or learning and literacy issues).

WAC 388-71-05905 What physical resources are required for basic, modified basic, or nurse delegation core classroom training and testing? (1) Classroom facilities used for basic, modified basic, or nurse delegation core classroom training must be accessible to trainees and provide adequate space for learning activities, comfort, lighting, lack of disturbance, and tools for effective teaching and learning such as white boards and flip charts. Appropriate supplies and equipment must be provided for teaching and practice of caregiving skills in the class being taught.

(2) Testing sites must provide adequate space for testing, comfort, lighting, and lack of disturbance appropriate for the written or skills test being conducted. Appropriate supplies and equipment necessary for the particular test must be provided.

ADULT DAY SERVICES

WAC 388-71-0702 Purposes and definitions. (1) WAC 388-71-0702 through 388-71-0776 contain the eligibility requirements for Medicaid-funded adult day care and adult day health services. These rules also contain the requirements that apply to adult day care or day health centers that contract with the department, an area agency on aging, or other department designee to provide Medicaid services to department clients. Nothing in these rules may be construed as requiring the department, area agency on aging, or other designee to contract with an adult day care or day health center.

(2) An adult day services program is a community-based program designed to meet the needs of adults with impairments through individual plans of care. This type of structured, comprehensive, nonresidential program provides a variety of health, social, and related support services in a protective setting. By supporting families and caregivers, an adult day services program enables the person to live in the community. An adult day services program assesses the needs of the persons served and offers services to meet those needs. The persons served attend on a planned basis. Nothing in this generic description of adult day services may be construed to modify the specific services or eligibility requirements referenced in the definition of adult day care and adult day health.

(3) The following definitions apply under WAC 388-71-0702 through 388-71-0774:

(a) "Adult day care" means the services under WAC 388-71-0704 that are provided to clients who meet the eligibility requirement under WAC 388-71-0708.

(b) "Adult day center" means an adult day care or adult day health center. A day care or day health center for purposes of these rules is a center operating in a specific location, whether or not the center's owner also operates adult day centers in other locations.

(c) "Adult day health" means the services under WAC 388-71-0706 that are provided to clients who meet the eligibility requirements under WAC 388-71-0710.

(d) "Adult day services" is a generic term referring to adult day care and adult day health services.

(e) "Client" means an applicant for or recipient of Medicaid-reimbursed adult day services.

(f) "Participant" means clients and other persons receiving adult day services at an adult day center.

WAC 388-71-0704 Adult day care—Services. Adult day care is a supervised daytime program providing core services as defined in WAC 388-106-0800. Core services are appropriate for adults with medical or disabling conditions that do not require the intervention or services of a registered nurse or licensed rehabilitative therapist acting under the supervision of the client's physician. The adult day care center must offer and provide on site the following core services. These core services must meet the level of care needed by the client as assessed by the department case manager for waiver funded clients and do not exceed the scope of services that the adult day care center is able to provide.

- (1) Assistance with activities of daily living:
 - (a) Locomotion outside of room, locomotion in room, walk in room;
 - (b) Body care;
 - (c) Eating;
 - (d) Repositioning;
 - (e) Medication management that does not require a licensed nurse;
 - (f) Transfer;
 - (g) Toileting;
 - (h) Personal hygiene at a level that ensures client safety while in attendance at the program; and
 - (i) Bathing at a level that ensures client safety and comfort while in attendance at the program.
- (2) Social services on a consultation basis, which may include:
 - (a) Referrals to other providers for services not within the scope of Medicaid reimbursed adult day care services;
 - (b) Caregiver support and education; or
 - (c) Assistance with coping skills.
- (3) Routine health monitoring with consultation from a registered nurse that a consulting nurse acting within the scope of practice can provide with or without a physician's order. Examples include:
 - (a) Obtaining baseline and routine monitoring information on client health status, such as vital signs, weight, and dietary needs;
 - (b) General health education such as providing information about nutrition, illnesses, and preventative care;
 - (c) Communicating changes in client health status to the client's caregiver;
 - (d) Annual and as needed updating of the client's medical record; or
 - (e) Assistance as needed with coordination of health services provided outside of the adult day care program.
- (4) General therapeutic activities that an unlicensed person can provide or that a licensed person can provide with or without a physician's order. These services are planned for and provided based on the client's abilities, interests, and goals. Examples include:
 - (a) Recreational activities;
 - (b) Diversionary activities;
 - (c) Relaxation therapy;

- (d) Cognitive stimulation; or
- (e) Group range of motion or conditioning exercises.
- (5) General health education that an unlicensed person can provide or that a licensed person can provide with or without a physician's order, including but not limited to topics such as:
 - (a) Nutrition;
 - (b) Stress management;
 - (c) Disease management skills; or
 - (d) Preventative care.
- (6) A nutritional meal and snacks every four hours, including a modified diet if needed and within the scope of the program, as provided under WAC 388-71-0768;
- (7) Supervision and/or protection if needed for client safety;
- (8) Assistance with arranging transportation to and from the program; and
- (9) First aid and provisions for obtaining or providing care in an emergency. NOTE: If the client requires the intervention or services of a registered nurse or licensed rehabilitative therapist acting under the supervision of a physician, consider adult day health services.

WAC 388-71-0706 Adult day health—Services. Adult day health is a supervised daytime program providing skilled nursing and rehabilitative therapy services in addition to core services. Adult day health services are only appropriate for adults with medical or disabling conditions that require the intervention or services of a registered nurse or licensed rehabilitative therapist acting under the supervision of the client's physician.

The adult day health center must offer and provide on site the following services:

- (1) All core services under WAC 388-71-0704;
- (2) Skilled nursing services other than routine health monitoring with nurse consultation;
- (3) At least one of the following skilled therapy services: physical therapy, occupational therapy, or speech-language pathology or audiology, as defined under chapters 18.74, 18.59 and 18.35 RCW; and
- (4) Psychological or counseling services, including assessing for psycho-social therapy need, dementia, abuse or neglect, and alcohol or drug abuse; making appropriate referrals; and providing brief, intermittent supportive counseling.

WAC 388-71-0712 Adult day health—Skilled nursing. (1) Skilled nursing services are medically necessary services provided directly or indirectly by a registered nurse under physician supervision, or by a licensed practical nurse under physician or registered nurse supervision, that a licensed nurse acting within the scope of practice can provide or supervise. Physician orders must be obtained when required by applicable state practice laws for licensed nurses.

(2) Skilled nursing services must exceed the level of routine health monitoring, general health education, and general therapeutic activities as defined in WAC 388-71-0704, and must be provided with the reasonable expectation that the services will improve, restore, or maintain function as defined in WAC 388-71-0710 (1)(c). Skilled nursing services are:

- (a) Specific to a client diagnosis;
 - (b) Individualized to the client with planned measurable outcomes; and
 - (c) Evaluated every ninety days for effect on improvement of health status or prevention of decline.
- (3) Skilled nursing services, including the initial client nursing assessment and development of the nursing plan of care, must be provided or supervised by a registered nurse in accordance with nursing practice standards under chapter 246-840 WAC.
- (4) A skilled nursing service is not a qualifying adult day health service merely because the service is ordered by a physician or is provided by a nurse. If, by way of example, the service can be performed by the client or at the client's direction by a person other than a licensed nurse, or the client does not meet eligibility criteria, it is not a qualifying adult day health service.

(5) Skilled nursing services must be medically necessary as defined under WAC 388-500-0005. Medically necessary skilled nursing services may, but do not necessarily, include:

(a) Care and assessment of an unstable or unpredictable medical condition, with time limited measurable treatment goals, requiring frequent intervention by a registered nurse or by a licensed practical nurse under the supervision of a registered nurse according to WAC 246-840-705;

(b) Evaluation and management of the care plan when unstable medical conditions or complications require complex nonskilled care and skilled nurse oversight to ensure that the nonskilled care is achieving its purpose;

(c) Time-limited training by licensed nursing staff to teach the client and/or the client's caregiver self-care for newly diagnosed, acute, or episodic medical conditions that require the skills of a licensed nurse to teach, and that will optimize client function, as illustrated by the following examples:

- (i) Self administration of an injection;
- (ii) Prefilling insulin syringes;
- (iii) Irrigating a catheter;
- (iv) Caring for a colostomy or urostomy;
- (v) Wound dressing changes or aseptic technique; or
- (vi) Disease self-management.

(d) Skilled interventions provided directly by a licensed nurse such as:

- (i) Inserting or irrigating a catheter;
- (ii) Administering medications or oxygen;
- (iii) Administering and managing infusion therapy; or
- (iv) Treating decubitus ulcers, or other types of wound care.

(6) Medically necessary skilled nursing services, by way of example, do not include:

- (a) Reminding or coaching the client;

(b) Monitoring of a medical condition that does not require frequent skilled nursing intervention or a change in physician treatment orders, or where there is no reasonable expectation that skilled services will maintain, improve, or slow the effect of a progressive disabling condition on the pain, health or functioning of a client;

(c) Medication assistance when the client is capable of self-administration or is having this need met through paid or unpaid caregivers;

(d) Evaluation and management of the care plan when the complexity of care to be provided by nonskilled persons does not require skilled nurse oversight beyond routine health monitoring;

(e) Continued training by nursing staff to teach self-care for newly diagnosed, acute, or episodic medical conditions when it is apparent that the training should have achieved its purpose or that the client is unwilling or unable to be trained;

(f) Core services that can be provided by an adult day care center, such as routine health monitoring, general health education, or general therapeutic activities; or

(g) Group therapy or training where three or more clients are being simultaneously treated or trained by the nurse.

(7) Skilled nursing services must be documented as provided under WAC 388-71-0746 and chapter 388-502 WAC.

WAC 388-71-0714 Adult day health—Rehabilitative therapy. (1) Skilled rehabilitative therapy services are medically necessary services provided by or under the supervision of a licensed physical, occupational, or speech-language pathology or audiology therapist that the therapist acting within the scope of practice can provide or supervise directly or indirectly. Physician orders must be obtained when required by applicable state practice laws for licensed therapists.

(a) Persons that can provide rehabilitative care under the direction and supervision of a licensed therapist include occupational therapy aides, occupational therapy assistants, physical therapy aides, physical therapy assistants, and nurses within their respective scopes of practice. Adult day health program aides, specifically trained in rehabilitative techniques, may also provide care under the direction and supervision of a licensed therapist.

(b) Services, group or individual, must be related to an active written plan of care with time limited measurable treatment goals approved by the physician;

(c) Services, group or individual, must require the assessment, knowledge and skills of a licensed therapist; and

(d) Services, group or individual, must be provided with the reasonable expectation that the services will improve, restore, or maintain function, or slow decline. Rehabilitative services are:

- (i) Specific to a client diagnosis;

(ii) Individualized to the client with planned, measurable outcomes; and

(iii) Evaluated every ninety days for effect on improvement of health status or prevention of decline.

(2) Skilled rehabilitative therapy is not a qualifying adult day health service merely because the therapy is ordered by a physician or is provided by a therapist or under the supervision of a therapist. If, by way of example, the therapy can be performed independently by the client or at the client's direction by a person other than a licensed therapist, or the client does not meet eligibility criteria, it is not a qualifying adult day health service.

Skilled rehabilitative therapy services must be medically necessary as defined under WAC 388-500-0005.

(3) Medically necessary physical therapy services may, but do not necessarily include:

(a) Assessing baseline mobility level, strength, range of motion, endurance, balance, and ability to transfer;

(b) One to one and group treatment to relieve pain or develop, restore, or maintain functioning, with individualized and measurable client treatment goals;

(c) Establishing a maintenance or restorative program with measurable treatment goals, and providing written and oral instruction to the client, caregivers, or program staff as needed to assist the client in implementing the program;

(d) Training the client or the client's caregivers in the use of supportive, adaptive equipment or assistive devices;

(e) Evaluation and management of the care plan when medical conditions or complications require complex non-skilled care and skilled therapist oversight to ensure that the nonskilled care is achieving its purpose; or

(f) Providing other medically necessary services that can only be provided by or under the direct or indirect supervision of a physical therapist acting within the therapist's scope of practice.

(4) Medically necessary occupational therapy services may, but do not necessarily include:

(a) Administering a basic evaluation to determine baseline level of functioning, ability to transfer, range of motion, balance, strength, coordination, activities of daily living and cognitive-perceptual functioning;

(b) Teaching and training the client, caregivers, or program staff in the use of therapeutic, creative, and self care activities to improve or maintain the client's capacity for self-care and independence, and to increase the range of motion, strength and coordination;

(c) One to one and group treatment to develop, restore, or maintain functioning with individualized and measurable client treatment goals;

(d) Training the client or the client's caregivers in the use of supportive, adaptive equipment or assistive devices;

(e) Evaluation and management of the care plan when medical conditions or complications require complex non-skilled care and skilled therapist oversight to ensure that the non-skilled care is achieving its purpose; or

(f) Providing other medically necessary services that can only be provided by or under the direct or indirect supervision of an occupational therapist acting within the therapist's scope of practice.

(5) Medically necessary speech-language pathology or audiology services may, but do not necessarily include;

(a) Assessing baseline level of speech, swallowing, auditory, or communication disorders;

(b) Establishing a treatment program to improve speech, swallowing, auditory, or communication disorders;

(c) Providing speech therapy procedures that include auditory comprehension tasks, visual and/or reading comprehensive tasks, language intelligibility tasks, training involving the use of alternative communication devices, or swallowing treatment;

(d) Training the client or the client's caregivers in methods to assist the client in improving speech, communication, or swallowing disorders;

(e) Evaluation and management of the care plan when medical conditions or complications require complex non-skilled care and skilled therapist oversight to ensure that non-skilled care is achieving its purpose; or

(f) Providing other medically necessary services that can only be provided by or under the direct or indirect supervision of a speech-language pathology or audiology therapist acting with the therapist's scope of practice.

(6) Medically necessary skilled rehabilitative therapy services, by way of example, do not include:

(a) Reminding or coaching the client in tasks that are not essential to the skilled therapy or intervention in the client's service plan;

(b) Monitoring of a medical condition that does not require frequent skilled therapist intervention or a change in physician treatment orders, or where there is no reasonable expectation that skilled services will maintain, improve, or slow the effect of a progressive disabling condition on the pain, health or functioning of a client;

(c) Massage therapy;

(d) Evaluation and management of the care plan when the complexity of the care to be provided by nonskilled persons does not require the skills of a licensed therapist for oversight;

(e) Continued training by therapy staff to teach self-care for newly diagnosed, acute, or episodic medical conditions when it is apparent that the training should have achieved its purpose or that the client is unwilling or unable to be trained;

(f) Core services that can be provided by an adult day care center, such as routine health monitoring, general health education, or general therapeutic activities; or

(g) Group therapy or training where the ratio of licensed therapists and assisting program staff to clients is inadequate to ensure that:

(i) The group activity contributes to the individual client's planned therapy goals; and

(ii) The complexity of the individual client's need can be met.

(7) Skilled therapy services must be documented as provided under WAC 388-71-0746 and chapter 388-502 WAC.

WAC 388-71-0716 Adult day care—Assessment and service plan.

(1) The department or an authorized case manager must perform a CARE assessment to determine a client's need for adult day care, per WAC 388-106-0065. Based on the assessment, the case manager determines whether the client should be referred for day care services or whether the client's needs can be met in other ways.

(2) If the case manager determines an unmet need for a core service that may be provided at a day care center, the case manager works with the client and/or the client's representative to develop a service plan that documents the needed services and the number of days per week that the services are to be provided. The case manager refers the client to a waiver-contracted day care center that the client and the case manager agree can potentially meet the client's needs.

(3) Clients receiving adult day care services must be reassessed at least annually.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520, 05-11-082, § 388-71-0716, filed 5/17/05, effective 6/17/05. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0716, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0718 Adult day care—Negotiated care plan.

(1) Upon referral of a COPES eligible client by the case manager, the day care center must conduct an intake evaluation based on an interview with the client and/or the client's representative to assess the center's ability to meet the client's needs as identified in the department service plan. The case manager will provide the client's service plan to the adult day care provider within five working days after the client or client's representative has signed it.

(2) Within two working days of the referral, the day care center must respond to the referral and notify the case manager of its ability to process and evaluate the referral.

(3) Within ten working days of the initial date of client attendance at the day care center, the center must determine whether it can meet the client's needs, how those needs will be met, and whether to accept the client to the program. The center must not accept a client whose needs the center cannot meet.

(4) Within thirty days of acceptance into the program, the day care center must develop a negotiated care plan signed by the client or the client's representative and the day care center. The care plan must:

(a) Be consistent with the department-authorized service plan and include all day care services authorized in the service plan;

(b) Document the client's needs as identified in the service plan, the adult day care services that will be provided to meet those needs, and when, how, and by whom the services will be provided;

(c) Document the client's choices and preferences concerning the provision of care and services, and how those preferences will be accommodated;

(d) Document potential behavioral issues identified in the assessment, service plan, or through the intake evaluation, and how those issues will be managed;

(e) Document contingency plans for responding to a client's emergent care needs or other crises; and

(f) Be approved by the client's case manager.

(5) The adult day care center must keep the negotiated care plan in the client's file, must offer a copy of the plan to the client or client representative, and must provide a copy to the client's case manager. The case manager must review the negotiated care plan for inclusion of services that are appropriate and authorized for the client's care needs.

(6) The negotiated care plan must limit the frequency of services to the number of days authorized in the department-authorized service plan.

(7) The day care center must review each service in the negotiated care plan if the client's condition changes, and determine if the care plan continues to meet the client's needs. Changes in the client's condition or unanticipated absences of more than three consecutive days of scheduled service must be reported to the client's case manager within one week. Unanticipated absences by way of example may include absences due to client illness or injury, or a change in transportation access. The case manager may follow-up with the client and determine if any updates to the assessment, service plan, and service authorization are needed.

WAC 388-71-0720 Adult day health—Assessment and service plan. (1) The department or an authorized case manager must perform a CARE assessment to determine a client's need for adult day health, per WAC 388-106-0065. Based on the assessment, the case manager determines whether the client should be referred for day health services or whether the client's needs can be met in other ways.

(2) If the client has a department or area agency on aging case manager, the adult day health center or other referral source must notify the case manager of the client's potential adult day health service need. The case manager must assess the client's need for skilled nursing or skilled rehabilitative therapy within the department's normal time frames for client reassessments.

(3) If the client does not have a department or area agency on aging case manager, the adult day health center or other referral source must notify the department of the referral and the client's potential adult day health service need, or refer the client to the department for intake. The department's assigned case manager must assess the client's need for adult day health services within the department's normal time frames for initial client eligibility assessments.

(4) The case manager may consult with the client's practitioner, department or area agency on aging nursing services staff, or other pertinent collateral contacts, concerning the client's need for skilled nursing or rehabilitative therapy.

(5) If the department or area agency on aging case manager determines and documents a potential unmet need for day health services, the case manager works with the client and/or the client's representative to develop a service plan that documents the potential unmet needs and the anticipated number of days per week that the services are needed. The case manager refers the client to a department contracted day health center for evaluation and the development of a preliminary negotiated plan of care.

(6) The department or area agency on aging case manager must reassess adult day health clients at least annually. Clients must also be reassessed if they have a break in service of more than thirty days. The adult day center must inform the case manager of the break in service so payment authorization can be discontinued.

(7) Recipients of adult day health services must be assessed by the department or an authorized case manager for continued or initial eligibility as follows:

(a) Annual reassessment for department clients;

(b) Adult day health quarterly review for current nondepartmental clients as resources allow; and

(c) New referrals for adult day health services are to be forwarded to local department offices for intake and assessment for eligibility.

(8) The department or area agency on aging case manager must review a client's continued eligibility for adult day health services every ninety days, coinciding with the quarterly review completed by the adult day health program. At the case manager's discretion, additional information will be gathered through face to face, collateral or other contact methods to determine continued eligibility. Services will be continued, adjusted, or terminated based upon the case manager's determination during the eligibility review.

WAC 388-71-0722 Adult day health—Negotiated care plan. (1) Upon referral of a client by the department or an authorized case manager, the day health center must conduct an intake evaluation and multidisciplinary assessment based on an interview with the client or the client's representative to determine the center's ability to meet the client's core service needs and potential adult day health needs as identified in the preliminary department service plan. The case manager will provide the client's service plan to the day health center within five working days after the client or client's representative has signed it. The day health center must evaluate the client's skilled and core service needs, and may provide up to ten days of paid service to complete the evaluation and develop a preliminary or negotiated plan of care to be provided to the client and the case manager.

(2) Within two working days of the referral, the day health center must respond to the referral and notify the case manager of its ability to process and evaluate the referral.

(3) Within ten paid days of service, the day health center must determine whether it can meet the client's needs, how those needs will be met, and whether to accept the client to the program. The center must not accept a client whose needs the center cannot meet. The center will be reimbursed under WAC 388-71-0724 for any service days provided from the start of the evaluation if the case manager has authorized services. The evaluation includes acceptance of the client to the center, the development of the initial assessment, and the preliminary negotiated plan of care.

(4) Upon approval by the case manager of the adult day health preliminary or negotiated care plan, the day health center multidisciplinary team must obtain and provide to the case manager any required practitioner's orders for skilled nursing and rehabilitative therapy along with a copy of the negotiated plan of care, according to department documentation requirements. Orders must indicate how often the client is to be seen by the authorized practitioner. The case manager or nursing services staff may follow up with the practitioner or other pertinent collateral contacts concerning the client's need for skilled services. Services may not be authorized for payment without current practitioner orders and the client's consent to follow up with the practitioner.

(5) Within thirty days of the client's acceptance into the program, the day health multidisciplinary team must work with the client to develop a negotiated care plan signed by the client or the client's representative and the day health center. The care plan must:

(a) Be consistent with the department-authorized service plan and include all day health services authorized in the service plan;

(b) Include an authorized practitioner's order(s) for skilled nursing and/or skilled rehabilitative therapy according to applicable state practice laws for licensed nurses or therapists;

(c) Document that the client or the client's representative has consented to follow up with the primary authorizing practitioner;

(d) Document the client's needs as identified in the service plan, the authorized services that will be provided to meet those needs, and when, how, and by whom the services will be provided;

(e) Establish time-limited, client specific, measurable goals, not to exceed ninety days from the date of signature of the negotiated care plan, for accomplishing the objectives of adult day health skilled services and/or discharging or transitioning the client to other appropriate settings or services;

(f) Document the client's choices and preferences concerning the provision of care and services, and how those preferences will be accommodated;

(g) Document potential behavioral issues identified in the assessment, service plan, or through the intake evaluation, and how those issues will be managed;

(h) Document contingency plans for responding to a client's emergent care needs or other crises; and

(i) Be approved by the case manager.

(6) The adult day health center must keep the negotiated care plan in the client's file, the plan to the client or client representative, and must provide a copy to the client's case manager, including any required authorizing practitioner orders. The department case manager must review the negotiated care plan for inclusion of services that are appropriate and authorized for the client's care needs.

(7) The negotiated care plan must limit the frequency of department-funded services to the number of days in the department-authorized service plan.

(8) The day health center must review each service in the negotiated care plan every ninety days or more often if the client's condition changes, or if the client is reassessed for eligibility after a break in service of more than thirty days. Changes in the client's condition or unanticipated absences of more than three consecutive days of scheduled service must be reported to the client's case manager within one week. Unanticipated absences by way of example may include absences due to client illness or injury. The case manager may follow-up with the client and determine if any updates to the assessment, service plan, and service authorization are needed.

WAC 388-71-0724 Adult day services—Contracting and rates. (1) The department, or an area agency on aging (or other department designee) as authorized by the department, must determine that the adult day care or day health center meets the applicable adult day care or day health requirements and any additional requirements for contracting with the area agency on aging through a COPES contract or with the department through a Medicaid provider contract. If a center is contracting for both day care and day health, requirements of both adult day services must be met.

(a) A prospective provider desiring to provide adult day services shall be provided an application form from the department or the area agency on aging.

(b) The prospective provider will provide the area agency on aging with evidence of compliance with, or administrative procedures to comply with, the adult day service rules under this chapter.

(c) The area agency on aging will conduct a site inspection of the adult day center and review of the requirements for contracting.

(d) Within thirty days of completing the site visit, the area agency on aging will advise the prospective provider in writing of any deficiencies in meeting contracting requirements.

(e) The area agency on aging will verify correction of any deficiencies within thirty days of receiving notice from the prospective provider that deficiencies have been corrected, before contracting can take place.

(f) The area agency on aging will provide the department with a written recommendation as to whether or not the center meets contracting requirements.

(2) Minimum application information required to apply for contract with the department, or an area agency on aging includes:

(a) Mission statement, articles of incorporation, and bylaws, as applicable;

(b) Names and addresses of the center's owners, officers, and directors as applicable;

(c) Organizational chart;

(d) Total program operating budget including all anticipated revenue sources and any fees generated;

(e) Program policies and operating procedure manual;

(f) Personnel policies and job descriptions of each paid staff position and volunteer position functioning as staff;

(g) Policies and procedures meeting the requirements of mandatory reporting procedures as described in chapter

74.34 RCW to adult protective services for vulnerable adults and local law enforcement for other participants;

(h) Audited financial statement;

(i) Floor plan of the facility;

(j) Local building inspection, fire department, and health department reports;

(k) Updated TB test for each staff member according to local public health requirements;

(l) Sample client case file including all forms that will be used; and

(m) Activities calendar for the month prior to application, or a sample calendar if the day service provider is new.

(3) The area agency on aging or other department designee monitors the adult day center at least annually to determine continued compliance with adult day care and/or adult day health requirements and the requirements for contracting with the department or the area agency on aging.

(a) The area agency on aging will send a written notice to the provider indicating either compliance with contracting requirements or any deficiencies based on the annual monitoring visit and request a corrective action plan. The area agency on aging will determine the date by which the corrective action must be completed

(b) The area agency on aging will notify the department of the adult day center's compliance with contracting requirements or corrected deficiencies and approval of the corrective action plan for continued contracting.

(4) Adult day care services are reimbursed on an hourly basis up to four hours per day. Service provided four or more hours per day will be reimbursed at the daily rate.

(5) Payment rates are established on an hourly and daily basis for adult day care centers as may be adopted in rule. Rate adjustments are determined by the state legislature. Providers seeking current reimbursement rates can refer to SSPS billing instructions.

(6) Rates as of July 1, 2002, are as follows:

Counties	COPES Adult Day Care
	Daily Rate	Hourly Rate
King	$36.48	$9.10
Benton, Clark, Franklin, Island, Kitsap, Pierce, Snohomish, Spokane, Thurston, Whatcom, & Yakima	$32.45	$8.11
All other counties	$30.75	$7.69

(7) Payment rates are established on a daily basis for adult day health centers as may be adopted in rule. Rate adjustments are determined by the state legislature. Providers seeking current reimbursement rates can refer to MAA billing instructions or <http://maa.dshs.wa.gov>.

(8) Rates as of July 1, 2002, are as follows:

Counties	Day Health Daily
King	$47.48
Benton, Clark, Franklin, Island, Kitsap, Pierce, Snohomish, Spokane, Thurston, Whatcom, & Yakima	$43.06
All other counties	$40.68

WAC 388-71-0726 Adult day health transportation.

The following rules apply if Medicaid transportation services are requested:

(1) The day health center must refer the client to a local Medicaid transportation broker. The broker may consult with the client, the client's physician, family, case manager, or day health center as needed in making any transportation arrangements.

(2) In referring the client to a day health center, the case manager may consider: The frailty and endurance of the client, the client's skilled nursing or rehabilitative therapy needs, and a reasonable round-trip travel time that may not exceed two hours, unless there is no closer center that can meet the client's skilled care needs. Documentation of language barriers may be considered on an exception to rule basis by the case manager.

(3) All brokered transportation under this subsection is subject to the requirements of chapter 388-546 WAC or its successors. In the case of any conflicts, the provisions of chapter 388-546 WAC take precedence.

WAC 388-71-0728 Coordination of services. (1) A COPES-eligible client may receive adult day care services on some days and adult day health services on different days if the service plan documents which level of service is to be provided on which days. However, core services must be provided on all days that adult day health skilled services are provided, and reimbursement is limited to the day health rate on days that day health services are provided.

(2) Clients receiving services from the department in an adult family home, boarding home, or other licensed community residential facility may not receive COPES-funded adult day care, but may receive Medicaid adult day health services when the skilled nursing or rehabilitative services are approved by the client's case manager as part of the client's service plan.

(3) A licensed boarding home providing department-approved day care under chapter 388-78A WAC is subject to any applicable provisions of that chapter and is also subject to the rules under this chapter if the facility contracts with an area agency on aging or the department to provide COPES or other Medicaid-funded adult day services.

WAC 388-71-0730 Senior Citizens Services Act/Respite care. (1) Except as provided under this section, the adult day services rules under this chapter do not apply to adult day care or day health services funded under chapters 74.38 and 74.41 RCW.

(2) An area agency on aging that elects to provide adult day services using Senior Citizens Services Act funding under chapter 74.38 RCW or respite care funding under chapter 74.41 RCW must contract with an adult day center that meets all administrative and facility requirements under WAC 388-71-0736 through 388-71-0774.

(3) The adult day care or day health services funded under chapters 74.38 or 74.41 RCW must be the same as the day care services required under WAC 388-71-0704 or the day health services required under WAC 388-71-0706. The area agency on aging may require additional services by contract.

(4) The area agency on aging may, by contract, establish eligibility and assessment requirements for day care or day health services in accordance with locally identified needs. However, funding provided under chapters 74.38 or 74.41 RCW may only be used to meet the needs of individuals who are not eligible for adult day care under WAC 388-71-0708 or for adult day health under WAC 388-71-0710, or who are eligible for those services and are not receiving them because of funding limitations.

(5) Nothing in this section or chapter may be construed as requiring an area agency on aging to contract with an adult day center, whether or not the center has a COPES or other Medicaid contract. Nor may anything in this section or chapter be construed as creating an entitlement to state-funded adult day services authorized under chapters 74.38 and 74.41 RCW.

WAC 388-71-0732 Hearing rights. (1) If the department or area agency on aging denies, terminates, or reduces an individual client's adult day care or day health services, the client has the right to a fair hearing as provided under chapter 388-02 WAC.

(2) An adult day care or day health center has those hearing or dispute resolution rights that are afforded under RCW 43.20B.675 and the center's contract with the area agency on aging or the department. An adult day health center has any other applicable hearing or dispute resolution rights under chapter 388-502 WAC.

(3) Adult day health centers are subject to all applicable provisions of chapter 388-502 WAC, and the department's aging and adult services administration may exercise the department's authority under that chapter to the same extent as the medical assistance administration.

WAC 388-71-0734 Limiting expenditures. (1) In order to provide adult day services within the limits of available funding, the department may limit services when program expenditures exceed the budget appropriation or when limiting services is required to prevent expenditures from exceeding the appropriation.

(2) When adult day health program expenditures exceed available funding, the department may limit adult day health services based on the four care level system as determined through the established department assessment and described in chapter 388-105 WAC.

(a) Using the care level determined by the department assessment tool, the department will limit adult day services on a statewide basis to clients whose total scores exceed the assessed need level identified by the department as necessary to provide adult day health services to the extent of available funding.

(b) At least thirty days before implementing the limitation on services under this subsection, the department will notify the area agencies on aging, adult day health centers, and the affected adult day health clients that services are being limited and for what period of time the limitation is estimated to remain in effect.

(c) For purposes of RCW 74.08.080, the reduction in services shall be deemed an assistance adjustment for an entire class of recipients that is required by state laws prohibiting the department from expending funds in excess of appropriations.

(3) The department may adopt additional or alternative rules to control costs, such as, but not limited to, imposing a moratorium on contracting with new adult day centers, limiting services to clients based on level of care need, or reducing the numbers of days per week that clients may receive services.

WAC 388-71-0742 Adult day centers—Client policies and procedures. (1) Center policies must define admission criteria, discharge criteria, Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) policies, medication policy, participant rights and responsibilities, fee schedule, confidentiality, and grievance procedures.

(2) The center must comply with all applicable nondiscrimination laws, including but not limited to age, race, color, gender, religion, national origin, creed, marital status, Vietnam era or disabled veteran's status, or sensory, physical, or mental handicap.

(3) A participant bill of rights describing the client's rights and responsibilities must be developed, posted, distributed to, and explained to participants, families, staff, and volunteers. Participants will be provided the bill of rights in the language understood by the individual upon request.

(4) The center must have an advance directive policy as required by the Patient Self Determination Act of 1990 (see 42 C.F.R. § 489.102 and chapter 70.122 RCW).

(5) Discharge policies must include specific criteria that establish when the participant is no longer eligible for services and under what circumstances the participant may be discharged for other factors, unless the discharge is initiated by the client's department or authorized case manager, the center must notify the client, client representative if applicable, and case manager in writing of the specific reasons for the discharge. The center must also provide the client with adequate information about appeal and hearing rights. Discharge may occur due to client choice, other criteria as defined in the center's policy such as standards of conduct or inappropriate behavior, or changes in circumstances making the client ineligible for services under WAC 388-71-0708 or 388-71-0710.

(6) Incident report policies must include investigation and reporting of any neglect, abuse, exploitation, accident, or incident jeopardizing or affecting a participant's health or safety. The policy must include how the center will determine the circumstances of the event, restrictions on staff or clients during the investigation, how similar future situations will be prevented or decreased, and the location of incident reports. The center must keep a log of all reported incidents, participant grievances, complaints, and outcomes.

WAC 388-71-0744 Adult day center—Client records. (1) The adult day center must have policies and procedures to ensure that the client's record/chart is appropriately organized and that confidentiality of information is maintained.

(2) Client information forms must be standardized, with each page showing the client's name or identification number.

(3) Individual client files must include:

(a) Personal/biographical data, including addresses, phone numbers, emergency contacts, and client representatives, reviewed and updated as needed;

(b) Application, enrollment, and consent to services forms;

(c) Department-authorized service plan and service authorization;

(d) All client information, including but not limited to the intake evaluation, negotiated care plan, attendance and service records, progress notes, and correspondence;

(e) Signed authorizations concerning the release of client information, photographs, and receipt of emergency medical care, as appropriate;

(f) Client photograph, with client or client representative permission, updated as needed;

(g) Transportation plans;

(h) Fee determination forms;

(i) Appropriate medical information, with client consent, including but not limited to significant illnesses, accidents, treatments, medical conditions, immunizations, allergies, medications, tobacco use, and alcohol or substance use;

(j) Advance directives (if any) and a statement signed by the client that he or she has received the center's policies concerning advance directives; and, as applicable,

(k) Physician orders for skilled nursing and/or rehabilitative therapy containing department-required information and in accordance with applicable licensing and practice act regulations.

WAC 388-71-0748 Adult day centers—Record retention.

(1) The adult day center must maintain a secure client record system to ensure confidentiality for all records, whether paper or electronic, in accordance with state and federal laws, including but not limited to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).

(2) The adult day center must maintain a permanent registry of all clients with dates of admission and discharge.

(3) The adult day center must have written policies concerning:

(a) Confidentiality and the protection of records that define procedures governing the use and removal, and conditions for release of information contained in the records;

(b) The release of client information and circumstances under which a signed authorization from the client or client representative is required; and

(c) The retention and storage of records for at least six years from the last date of service to the client, including contingency plans in the event the center discontinues operation.

(4) Client records maintained on the center's premises must be in a secure storage area that includes locking cabinets or storage. Computerized records must be backed up weekly and stored off-site.

WAC 388-71-0750 Adult day centers—Personnel policies and procedures. (1) Personnel policies and procedures must be in place to ensure that staff are trained and knowledgeable to provide quality services in a safe environment. Policies must include at least the following:

(a) The center must have policies concerning the recruitment, orientation, training, evaluation, and professional development of staff and volunteers.

(b) The center must have job descriptions for each paid staff and volunteer position that are in accordance with ADA requirements and that specify qualifications for the job, delineation of tasks, and lines of supervision and authority.

(c) Each employee must receive, review, and sign a copy of the job description at the time of employment and whenever job descriptions are modified. Volunteers who function as staff must receive written descriptions of responsibilities.

(2007 Ed.)

(d) Probationary evaluations and annual performance evaluations, in accordance with job descriptions, must be conducted and must conform to the policy of the funding or parent organization. Both the employee and supervisor will sign the written evaluation. Copies will be kept in locked personnel files.

(e) Each staff person is to have a tuberculin test within thirty days of employment. If a test has been performed within twelve months of employment, the results of that test may be accepted. Tuberculin tests will be repeated according to local public health requirements.

(f) The center must have policies to restrict a staff person or participant's contact with clients when the staff person or participant has a known communicable disease in the infectious stage that is likely to spread in the center.

(g) Policies must also be established concerning hand washing, universal precautions, infection control, infectious waste disposal, bloodborne pathogens, and laundry and handling of soiled and clean items.

(2) The center must have policies and procedures concerning suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation reporting that include provisions preventing access to any participant until the center investigates and takes action to assure the participant's safety.

(3) The center must not interfere with the lawful investigation of a complaint, coerce a participant, or conceal evidence of alleged improprieties occurring within the center.

(4) The center must have policies that meet the requirements of mandatory reporting procedures as described in chapter 74.34 RCW to adult protective services for vulnerable adults and to local law enforcement for other participants.

(5) Each employee must receive or have access to a copy of the program's personnel policies at the time of employment.

(6) Whenever volunteers function in the capacity of staff, all applicable personnel policies must pertain.

(7) The center must conform to federal and state labor laws and be in compliance with equal opportunity guidelines.

WAC 388-71-0752 Adult day center—Staffing requirements. (1) Staff selection is dependent on participant needs, program design, and contracting requirements. The center must have the proper balance of professionals and paraprofessionals or nonprofessionals to adequately meet the needs of participants. Services must be delivered by those with adequate professional training. A staff person can have multiple functions, such as an administrator who is also responsible for providing nursing services or social services.

(2) To ensure continuity of direction and supervision, there must be a clear division of responsibility between the governing body and the adult day center administrator.

(3) The administrator must be given full authority and responsibility to plan, staff, direct, and implement the program. The administrator must also have the responsibility for establishing collaborative relations with other community organizations to ensure necessary support services to participants and their families/caregivers.

(4) The administrator must be on site to manage the center's day-to-day operations during hours of operation. If the administrator is responsible for more than one site, or has duties not related to adult day center administration or provision of services, a program director must be designated for each additional site and must report to the administrator.

(5) The administrator must be responsible for the development of a written plan of operation with approval of the governing body and the development, coordination, supervision, fiscal control, and evaluation of services provided through the adult day center.

(6) A nurse or personnel trained in first aid and CPR must be on hand whenever participants are present.

(7) Background checks pursuant to RCW 43.43.830 and 43.43.832 must be performed for all applicants hired, existing employees, and volunteers. Unsupervised access to participants is prohibited until a background check has been completed and the employee's suitability for employment has been determined.

(8) Required credentials must be verified to ensure that they are current and in good standing for licensed and certified staff.

(9) Adult day centers may utilize a range of staff under contract or consulting from a larger parent organization or from a private entity to provide services.

(10) Staff commonly utilized by both adult day care and adult day health centers must meet the following requirements:

(a) An activity coordinator must have a bachelor's degree in recreational therapy or a related field and one year of experience (full-time equivalent) in social or health services; or an associate degree in recreational therapy or a related field plus two years of appropriate experience; or three years of paid experience in an activity program and expertise with the population served at the center.

(b) The nurse must be a registered nurse (RN) with valid state credentials and have at least one-year applicable experience (full-time equivalent). In addition to a registered nurse, an adult day center can utilize a licensed practical nurse (LPN), but the LPN must be supervised in compliance with all applicable nurse practice acts and standards. The LPN must have valid state credentials and at least one-year applicable experience (full-time equivalent).

(c) The social services professional must have a master's degree in social work, gerontology, or other human services field, or counseling and at least one year of professional work experience (full-time equivalent), or a bachelor's degree in social work, counseling, or a related field and two years of experience in a human services field.

(d) Program assistant/aides or personal care aides must have one or more years of experience (full-time equivalent) in working with adults in a health care or social service setting.

(e) Consultants from a larger parent organization without formal contracts may be utilized whenever the center is part of a larger organization that has the ability to provide professional services within the larger framework.

(f) Consultants, with appropriate, valid state credentials may be utilized as needed to meet the requirements outlined in this chapter.

(g) Secretary/bookkeepers must have at least a high school diploma or equivalent and skills and training to carry out the duties of the position.

(h) If the adult day center provides transportation drivers must have a valid and appropriate state driver's license, a safe driving record, and training in first aid and CPR. The driver must meet all state requirements for licensure or certification.

(i) Volunteers may be individuals or groups who desire to work with adult day center clients and must take part in program orientation and training. Volunteers and staff must mutually determine the duties of volunteers. Duties to be performed under the supervision of a staff member must either supplement staff in established activities or provide additional services for which the volunteer has special talents. Volunteers will be included in the staff ratio only when they conform to the same standards and requirements as paid staff, meet the job qualification standards of the organization, and have designated responsibilities.

(j) Dietitians must be certified with valid state credentials and have a minimum of one year applicable experience (full-time equivalent).

WAC 388-71-0754 Staffing ratios. (1) Staffing levels in adult day centers will vary based upon the number of participants and the care provided.

(2) The staffing level must be sufficient to serve the number and functioning levels of adult day center participants, meet program objectives, and provide access to other community resources.

(3) There must be sufficient maintenance and house-keeping personnel to assure that the facility is clean, sanitary, and safe at all times.

(4) To ensure adequate care and safety of participants, there must be provision for qualified substitute staff.

(5) As the number of participants with functional impairments, skilled nursing or skilled rehabilitative therapy needs increases, the required staff-participant ratio must be adjusted accordingly.

(6) All centers must have written policies regarding staff-participant ratios. The ratio must be a minimum of one staff to six participants. The provider must ensure that appropriate professionals provide needed services to the participants based upon the participants' service and care plans. The center is also required to employ sufficient staff to meet the needs of the participants.

(7) Staff counted in the staff-participant ratio are those who provide direct service to participants. When there is more than one participant present, there must be at least two staff members on the premises, one of whom is directly supervising the participants.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0754, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0756 Adult day care—Staffing requirements. (1) Minimum staffing requirements for adult day care centers include an administrator/program director, activity coordinator, a consulting registered nurse, and a consulting social worker.

(2) The administrator/program director must have a master's degree and one year of supervisory experience in health or social services (full-time equivalent); or a bachelor's degree in health, social services or a related field, with two years of supervisory experience (full-time equivalent) in a social or health service setting; or a high school diploma or equivalent and four years of experience in a health or social services field, of which two years must be in a supervisory position, and have expertise with the populations served at the center.

WAC 388-71-0758 Adult day health—Staffing requirements. (1) Minimum staffing requirements for adult day health centers include an administrator, program director, registered nurse, activity coordinator, a PT/OT or speech therapist, and a social worker. The administrator and program director may be the same person.

(2) The program administrator must have a master's degree and one year of supervisory experience in health or social services (full-time equivalent), or a bachelor's degree and two years of supervisory experience in a social or health service setting. The degree may be in nursing.

(3) The program director must have a bachelor's degree in health, social services or a related field with one year of supervisory experience (full-time equivalent) in a social or health service setting. Upon approval by the department, a day health center may request an exception for an individual with an associate's or vocational degree in health, social services, or a related field with four years of experience in a health or social service setting, of which two years must be in a supervisory position.

(4) Therapists, regardless of specific expertise, such as physical therapists, occupational therapists, speech therapists, recreation therapists, mental health therapists, or any other therapists used, must have valid state credentials and one year of experience in a social or health setting.

(5) Rehabilitative therapeutic assistants must be certified with valid state credentials, have at least one year of applicable experience (full-time equivalent), and meet the requirements of chapter 246-915, 246-847, or 246-828 WAC.

(6) A certified or registered nursing assistant must meet the requirements of RCW 18.88A.020.

WAC 388-71-0760 Adult day centers—Employee records. (1) Each employee must have an individual file containing the employee's application, verification of references, TB status, signed job description, and all performance evaluations. Copies of current license or certificate and verification of current good standing, and certification of CPR and first aid training, if applicable, must also be in the file.

(2) Centers must maintain employee records for the duration of staff employment and at least seven years after termination of employment.

(3) Employee records must contain all records of training, such as staff orientation and training pertinent to duties or regulatory compliance, including CPR, first aid, and universal precautions training.

(4) Employee records must contain criminal history disclosure and background checks.

WAC 388-71-0762 Adult day centers—Education and training. (1) Provision must be made for orientation of new employees, contractors, and volunteers.

(2) All staff, contractors, and volunteers must receive, at a minimum, quarterly in-service training and staff development that meets their individual training needs to support program services. This must be documented and readily accessible in the personnel file and in a general file.

(3) Staff, contractors, and volunteers must receive training about documentation, reporting requirements, and universal precautions.

(4) At a minimum, one staff person per shift must be trained and certified in CPR.

(5) Staff and volunteers must receive training on all applicable policies and procedures.

WAC 388-71-0764 Adult day centers—Medication. (1) The center must develop written medication policies that are explained and accessible to all staff, contractors, volunteers, and participants that have responsibility in this area. At a minimum, policies must meet the following requirements:

(a) Medications must be kept in locked storage. If medications need to be refrigerated, they should be in a locked box, if not in a separate refrigerator dedicated to medication refrigeration.

(b) Medication policies must describe:

(i) Under what conditions licensed program staff will administer medications;

(ii) How medications brought to the program by a client must be labeled;

(iii) How nonprescription medications such as aspirin or laxatives are to be used;

(iv) How the administration of medications will be entered in participant case records as described in WAC 388-71-0744(4); and

(v) Medication policies must be consistent with laws governing medication administration under RCW 69.41.010 and chapter 246-888 WAC.

(2) Participants who need to take medications while at the center, and who are able to self-medicate, must be encouraged and expected to bring and take their own medications as prescribed. Some participants may need assistance with their medications, and a few may need to have their medications administered by qualified program staff.

(3) In order for center staff to administer any prescribed medication, there must be a written authorization from the participant's authorizing practitioner stating that the medication is to be administered at the program site.

(2007 Ed.)

(4) Staff must be trained to observe medication usage and effects, and to document and report any concerns or difficulties with medications.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.04.050, 74.04.057, 74.04.200, 74.08.090, 74.09.520, and 74.39A.030. 03-06-024, § 388-71-0764, filed 2/24/03, effective 7/1/03.]

WAC 388-71-0766 Adult day centers—Facility. (1) Selection of a location for a center must be based on information about potential participants in the service area and be made in consultation with other agencies, organizations, and institutions serving older individuals and those with functional impairments, as well as considering the availability of a suitable location.

(2) Centers must have available a current floor plan of the facility indicating usage of space with interior measurements, building inspection report, fire department inspection report, and the local health department inspection report if operating a kitchen.

(3) The facility must comply with applicable state, county, and local building regulations, zoning, fire, and health codes or ordinances.

(4) When possible, the facility should be located at street level. If the facility is not located at street level, it is essential to have a ramp and/or elevators. An evacuation plan for relocation of participants must also be in place in the event of an emergency.

(5) Each adult day center co-located in a facility housing other services must have its own separate identifiable space for main activity areas during operational hours. Certain space can be shared, such as the kitchen and therapy rooms.

(6) Each center must provide appropriate hardware on doors of storage rooms, closets, bathrooms, and other rooms to prevent participants from being accidentally locked in.

(7) When possible, the location should be within a transit authority's core service area.

WAC 388-71-0768 Adult day centers—Physical environment requirements. (1) The facility must have sufficient space to accommodate the full range of program activities and services. The facility must be adaptable to accommodate variations of activities (group and/or individual) and services. The program must provide and maintain essential space necessary to provide services and to protect the privacy of the participants receiving services. There must be sufficient private space to permit staff to work effectively and without interruption. There must be sufficient space available for private discussions.

(2) The facility must provide at least sixty square feet of program space for multipurpose use for each day center participant. In determining adequate square footage, only those activity areas commonly used by participants are to be included. Dining and kitchen areas are to be included only if these areas are used by clients for activities other than meals. Reception areas, storage areas, offices, restrooms, passageways, treatment rooms, service areas, or specialized spaces used only for therapies are not to be included when calculating square footage.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 381]

(3) Storage space.

(a) There must be adequate storage space for program and operating supplies.

(b) Toxic substances, whether for activities or cleaning, must be stored in an area not accessible to participants. Substances must be clearly marked, the contents identified, and stored in original containers.

(4) Restrooms.

(a) The facility's restrooms must be located as near the activity area as possible, preferably no more than forty feet away. The facility must include at least one toilet for every ten participants.

(b) Programs that have a large number of participants who require more scheduled toileting or assistance with toileting must have at least one toilet for every eight participants.

(c) The toilets shall be equipped for use by mobility-limited persons and easily accessible from all program areas. One toilet area should be designed to allow assistance from one or two staff. More accessible units may be required based upon the needs of the participants.

(d) Each restroom must contain an adequate supply of soap, toilet tissues, and paper towels.

(e) Showers are to be accessible to those who require bathing as a core service.

(5) Rest area.

(a) In addition to space for program activities, the facility must have a rest area and designated areas to permit privacy and to isolate participants who become ill or disruptive, or who may require rest.

(b) The rest area must be located away from activity areas and near a restroom and the nurse's office. There must be at least one bed, couch, or recliner for every ten participants that can be used for resting or the isolation of a participant who is ill or suspected of coming down with a communicable disease.

(c) If beds are used, the mattresses must be protected and linens changed after each use by different participants.

(6) Loading zones/parking/entrances/exits.

(a) A loading zone with sufficient space for getting in and out of a vehicle must be available for the safe arrival and departure of participants and the use of emergency personnel.

(b) There must be sufficient parking available to accommodate family caregivers, visitors, and staff.

(c) When necessary, arrangements must be made with local authorities to provide safety zones for those arriving by motor vehicle and adequate traffic signals for people entering and exiting the facility.

(d) Adequate lighting must be provided in all loading and parking zones, entrances, and exits.

(e) An adult day center must be visible and recognizable as a part of the community. The entrance to the facility must be clearly identified. The center must also be appealing and protective to participants and others.

(f) At least two well-identified exits must be accessible from the building.

(7) Atmosphere and design.

(a) The center's design must facilitate the participants movement throughout the facility and encourage involvement in activities and services.

(b) The environment must reinforce orientation and awareness of the surroundings by providing cues and information about specific rooms, locations, and functions that help the participant to get his/her orientation to time and space.

(c) A facility must be architecturally designed in conformance with the requirements of section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act to accommodate individuals with a disability and meet any state and local barrier-free requirements.

(d) Illumination levels in all areas must be adequate, and careful attention must be given to avoiding glare. Attention must be paid to lighting in transitional areas, such as outside to inside and between different areas of the facility.

(e) Sound transmission must be controlled. Excessive noise, such as fan noise, must be avoided.

(f) Comfortable conditions must be maintained within a comfortable temperature range. Excessive drafts must be avoided uniformly throughout the facility.

(g) Sufficient furniture must be available for the entire population present. Furnishings must accommodate the needs of participants and be attractive, comfortable, sturdy, and safe. Straight-backed chairs with arms must be used during activities and meals.

(h) A telephone must be available for participant use. Local calls are to be available at no cost to the participant.

(8) Safety and sanitation.

(a) The facility and grounds must be safe, clean, and accessible to all participants, and must be designed, constructed, and maintained in compliance with all applicable local, state, and federal health and safety regulations.

(b) Nonslip surfaces or bacteria-resistant carpets must be provided on stairs, ramps, and interior floors.

(c) Alarm/warning systems are necessary to ensure the safety of the participants in the facility in order to alert staff to potentially dangerous situations. It is recommended that call bells be installed or placed in the rest areas, restroom stalls, and showers.

(d) An evacuation plan/disaster plan must be strategically posted in each facility.

(e) The facility must be free of hazards, such as high steps, steep grades, and exposed electrical cords. Steps and curbs must be painted and the edges of stairs marked appropriately to highlight them. All stairs, ramps, and bathrooms accessible to those with disabilities must be equipped with securely anchored handrails.

(f) Emergency first-aid kits must be visible and accessible to staff. Contents of the kits must be replenished after use and reviewed as needed.

(g) Maintenance and housekeeping must be carried out on a regular schedule and in conformity with generally accepted sanitation standards, without interfering with the program.

(h) If smoking is permitted, an adequately ventilated area away from the main program area must be provided and supervised.

WAC 388-71-0770 Adult day center—Food and nutrition services. Centers must provide meal service to all participants as outlined in WAC 388-71-0704 and 388-71-0706

(1) All meals provided are to meet one-third of the minimum required daily allowance or dietary reference intake as determined by the Food and Nutrition Board of the Institute of Medicine.

(2) The center must ensure that food served meets nutritional needs, takes into consideration individual and ethnic preferences to the extent reasonably possible, caloric need, special dietary requirements, and any physical condition making food intake difficult.

(3) The center must provide a variety of foods and not repeat menus for a minimum of three weeks.

(4) Participant input must be gathered when planning meals.

(5) Menus must be posted at least one week in advance; indicate the date, day of the week, month and year; and include all food and snacks served that contribute to nutritional requirements.

(6) Nutrient concentrates, supplements, and dysphagia-modified diets related to a choking or aspiration risk, are to be served only with the written approval of the participant's physician.

(7) Safe and sanitary handling, storage, preparation, and serving of food must be assured. If meals are prepared on the premises, kitchen appliances, food preparation area, and equipment must meet state and local requirements.

(8) All staff and volunteers handling or serving meals must have the appropriate food handler's permits, if applicable.

(9) In the event meals are prepared at a separate kitchen facility, the adult day center must ensure that persons preparing food have a food handler's permit and that the food is transported in airtight containers to prevent contamination.

(10) The center must ensure that the food is transported and served at the appropriate and safe temperature.

WAC 388-71-0772 Adult day centers—Emergency procedures. (1) A written emergency/disaster/earthquake plan must be posted at each program site and in all program owned vehicles. Staff must be trained to ensure smooth implementation of the emergency plan.

(2) All staff and volunteers must be trained in evacuation/fire safety procedures.

(3) A written illness/injury/medical emergency/death procedure must be followed in the event a participant becomes ill, is injured, or dies. The procedures must be posted in at least one visible location at all program sites and must be explained to staff, volunteers, and participants. The procedures must describe arrangements for hospital inpatient and emergency room service and include directions on how to secure ambulance transportation and complete incident reports.

(4) Procedures for fire safety as approved by the local fire authority must be adopted and posted, including provisions for fire drills, inspection and maintenance of fire extinguishers, and periodic inspection and training by fire department personnel. The center must conduct and document quarterly fire drills and document the center's ability to meet procedures. Improvements must be based on the fire drill evaluation. Smoke detectors must also be used.

(5) Each center must provide adequate emergency lighting or flashlights in all areas.

(6) Each center must provide and maintain first aid kits in adequate numbers to meet the needs of the participant and staff.

(7) Each center must ensure, in accordance with local emergency procedures, that supplies, food, water and equipment are available in the event power, heat and/or electricity are not available during an emergency.

WAC 388-76-535 Authority. The following rules are adopted under RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210, 18.88A.230, and 69.41.-085.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 69.41.085. 02-15-081, § 388-76-535, filed 7/15/02, effective 8/15/02. Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.-230. 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-535, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

WAC 388-76-540 Definitions. "Abandonment" means action or inaction by a person or entity with a duty of care for a frail elder or vulnerable adult that leaves the vulnerable person without the means or ability to obtain necessary food, clothing, shelter, or health care.

"Abuse" means a nonaccidental act of physical or mental mistreatment or injury, or sexual mistreatment, which harms a person through action or inaction by another individual.

"Adult family home" means the same as the definition in RCW 70.128.010.

"Applicant" means an individual, partnership, corporation, or other entity seeking a license to operate an adult family home.

"Capacity" means the maximum number of persons in need of personal or special care permitted in an adult family home at a given time. This number shall include related children or adults in the home who receive special care.

"Caregiver" means any person eighteen years of age or older responsible for providing direct personal care to a resident and may include but is not limited to the provider, resident manager, employee, relief caregiver, volunteer, student, entity representative, or household member.

"Case manager" means the department staff person or designee assigned to negotiate, monitor, and facilitate a service plan for residents receiving services fully or partially paid for by the department.

"Chemical restraint" means a psychopharmacologic drug that is used for discipline or convenience and not required to treat the resident's medical symptoms.

"Dementia" is defined as a condition documented through the assessment process required by WAC 388-76-61020.

"Department" means the Washington state department of social and health services.

"Developmental disability" means:

(1) A person who meets the eligibility criteria defined in Washington Administrative Code by the division of developmental disabilities under WAC 388-823-0040; or

(2) A person with a severe, chronic disability which is attributable to cerebral palsy or epilepsy, or any other condition, other than mental illness, found to be closely related to mental retardation which results in impairment of general intellectual functioning or adaptive behavior similar to that of a person with mental retardation, and requires treatment or services similar to those required for these persons (i.e., autism); and

(a) The condition was manifested before the person reached age twenty-two;

(b) The condition is likely to continue indefinitely; and

(c) The condition results in substantial functional limitations in three or more of the following areas of major life activities:

- (i) Self-care;
- (ii) Understanding and use of language;
- (iii) Learning;
- (iv) Mobility;
- (v) Self-direction; and
- (vi) Capacity for independent living.

"Enablers" means a physical device used to facilitate a resident's self-administration of a prescribed or over-the-counter medication. Physical devices include, but are not limited to a medicine cup, glass, cup, spoons, bowl, pre-filled syringes, syringes used to measure oral liquids, specially adapted table surfaces, drinking straw, piece of cloth, and the resident's hand.

"Entity provider" means any corporation, partnership, association, or limited liability company that is licensed under this chapter to operate an adult family home.

"Entity representative" means the individual designated by an entity provider who is responsible for the daily operation of the adult family home.

"Exploitation" means the illegal or improper use of a frail elder or vulnerable adult or that person's income or resources, including trust funds, for another person's profit or advantage.

"Frail elder or vulnerable adult" means the same as the definition in RCW 74.34.020 or 43.43.830.

"Individual provider" means an individual person or a legally married couple who is licensed to operate an adult family home.

"Inspection" means an on-site visit by department personnel to determine the adult family home's compliance with this chapter and chapter 70.128 RCW, Adult family homes.

"Medication organizer" is a container with separate compartments for storing oral medications organized in daily doses.

"Mental illness" is defined as an Axis I or II diagnosed mental illness as outlined in volume IV of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (a copy is available for review through the aging and disability services administration).

"Multiple facility provider" means an individual or entity provider who is licensed to operate more than one adult family home.

"Neglect" means a pattern of conduct or inaction resulting in deprivation of care necessary to maintain a resident's physical or mental health.

"Nursing assistant" means the same as the definition in chapter 18.88A RCW.

"Over-the-counter (OTC) medication" is any medication that can be purchased without a prescriptive order, including but not limited to vitamin, mineral, or herbal preparations.

"Personal care services" means both physical assistance and/or prompting and supervising the performance of direct personal care tasks as determined by the resident's needs. Personal care services do not include assistance with tasks performed by a licensed health professional.

"Physical restraint" means a manual method, obstacle, or physical or mechanical device, material, or equipment attached or adjacent to the resident's body that restricts freedom of movement or access to his or her body, is used for discipline or convenience, and not required to treat the resident's medical symptoms.

"Practitioner" includes a physician, osteopathic physician, podiatric physician, pharmacist, licensed practical nurse, registered nurse, advanced registered nurse practitioner, dentist, and physician assistant. Refer to chapter 69.41 RCW for a complete listing of practitioners.

"Prescribed medication" refers to any medication (legend drug, controlled substance, and over-the-counter) that is prescribed by an authorized practitioner.

"Provider" means any person or entity that is licensed under this chapter to operate an adult family home.

"Resident" means any adult unrelated to the provider who lives in the adult family home and who is in need of care. "Resident" includes former residents when examining complaints about admissions, readmissions, transfers or discharges. For decision-making purposes, the term "resident" includes the resident's surrogate decision maker in accordance with state law or at the resident's request.

"Resident manager" means a person employed or designated by the provider to manage the adult family home.

"Special care" means care beyond personal care services as defined by "personal care services" in this section.

"Unsupervised" means the same as the definition in RCW 43.43.830(9).

PART II ADULT FAMILY HOME LICENSE

WAC 388-76-545 License required. No person or entity shall operate an adult family home without a license under this chapter. An adult family home license is required to provide care to more than one but not more than six adults unrelated to the person(s) providing care in the home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230, 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-545, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

WAC 388-76-550 License application. (1) All applications for adult family home licensure are subject to review under this chapter.

(2) Persons who have not held an adult family home license within the last twelve months must attend department orientation to receive an initial adult family home application.

(3)(a) To apply for an initial adult family home license, an applicant shall complete and submit the department application form.

(b) The applicant must provide all information requested, including information regarding any facilities and homes for the care or provision of services to children or vulnerable adults that the applicant is or has been affiliated with in the last ten years. This information is needed so the department can determine whether the applicant meets all applicable qualifications and requirements.

(c) An entity shall provide the information in (b) of this subsection with regard to any partner, officer, director, managerial employee, or owner of five percent or more of the entity.

(4)(a) An adult family home license is a nonexpiring license which means it does not need to be renewed every year.

(b) The adult family license remains valid unless:

(i) The department takes enforcement action to suspend or revoke the license in accordance with state law;

(ii) The provider voluntarily surrenders the license or closes the home; or

(iii) The provider fails to pay the annual licensing fee.

(5) All entity providers shall include their Unified Business Identifier (UBI) and Federal Employer Identification (FEI) numbers on the application.

(6) Married couples may not apply for separate adult family home licenses for each spouse.

(7)(a) Couples considered legally married under Washington state law are the only individuals who may apply jointly for an individual provider adult family home license.

(b) After the effective date of these rules two (or more) unmarried individuals applying for an initial adult family home license to be held jointly, must become an entity provider by forming a corporation, partnership, association, or limited liability company.

(8) The license applicant/provider shall be the person or entity ultimately responsible for the operation of the adult family home. The license applicant or the applicant's authorized representative shall sign the adult family home license application.

(9)(a) All entity providers shall designate an individual on their adult family home application who is responsible for the daily operation of the adult family home. This person is called the entity representative and is considered the department's primary contact person within the entity organization.

(b) For some entity providers one person may act as both the entity representative and the resident manager.

(c) Entity providers shall immediately notify their licensor when there is a change in the entity representative.

(10) An applicant who enters into a lease or contractual agreement with a landlord who takes an active interest in the operation of the adult family home, shall include the landlord's name and address on the license application. Active interest includes but is not limited to:

(a) The charging of rent as a percentage of the business;

(b) Assistance with start up and operational expenses;

(c) Collection of resident fees;

(d) Recruitment of residents;

(e) Management oversight;

(f) Assessment and negotiated care plan development for residents; or

(g) The provision of personal or special care to residents.

(11) The department shall not commence review of an incomplete license application, and incomplete applications shall become void sixty days following the department's written request for additional documentation or information to complete the application.

WAC 388-76-560 License eligibility. (1) The department shall consider separately and jointly as applicants each person and entity named or affiliated in an application for an adult family home license. A person is considered affiliated with the applicant if the person is listed on the application as a partner, officer, director, resident manager, or majority owner of the applying entity, or is the spouse of the applicant. If the department finds any person or entity unqualified, the department shall deny the license.

(2) In making a determination whether to grant an adult family home license, the department shall review:

(a) The information in the application; and

(b) Other documents and information the department deems relevant, including inspection and complaint investigation findings in each facility or home for the care or provision of services to children or vulnerable adults with which the applicant or any partner, officer, director, managerial employee, or owner of five percent or more of the entity applicant is or has been affiliated.

(3) The applicant and the home for which the license is sought shall comply with all requirements established by chapter 70.128 RCW and this chapter. The department may deny a license for noncompliance with any such requirements.

(4) An individual provider shall be twenty-one years of age or older.

(5) A provider shall have the understanding, ability, emotional stability and physical health suited to meet the emotional and physical care needs of vulnerable adults.

(6) An adult family home shall not simultaneously be licensed as a boarding home.

(7) The department shall deny, suspend or revoke a license if any of the following people have a history of significant noncompliance with federal or state regulations in providing care or services to vulnerable adults or children:

- An applicant/provider,
- A person affiliated with the applicant,
- A resident manager,
- A partner of the entity,
- An officer of the entity,
- A director of the entity,
- A managerial employee of the entity,
- An entity representative,
- Spouse of the provider, or
- An owner of five percent or more of the entity.

The department shall consider, at a minimum, the following as a history of significant noncompliance requiring denial of a license:

(a) Revocation or suspension of a license for the care of children or vulnerable adults;

(b) Enjoined from operating a facility for the care of children or adults;

(c) Revocation, cancellation, suspension, or nonrenewal of a Medicaid or Medicare provider agreement by the contracting agency; or

(d) Revocation, cancellation, suspension, or nonrenewal of any agreement with a public agency for the care or treatment of children or vulnerable adults, when the action is taken by the public agency.

(8) The department may deny, suspend or revoke a license if any of the following people meet any of the criteria under subsection (9) of this section:

- Any person who is a caregiver;

• Any person who has unsupervised access to residents in the adult family home; or

• Any person who lives in the home but who is not a resident.

(9) The department shall deny, suspend or revoke a license if:

- An applicant/provider,
- A person affiliated with the applicant,
- Any person who is a caregiver,
- Any person who has unsupervised access to residents in the adult family home,
- Any person who lives in the home but who is not a resident,

- A resident manager,
 - A partner of the entity,
 - An officer of the entity,
 - A director of the entity,
 - A managerial employee of the entity,
 - An entity representative,
 - A spouse of the provider,
 - An owner of fifty percent or more of the entity, or
 - An owner who exercises control over daily operations,
- has been:

(a) Convicted of a crime against a person as defined under RCW 43.43.830 or 43.43.842;

(b) Convicted of a crime relating to financial exploitation as defined under RCW 43.43.830 or 43.43.842;

(c) Found by a court in a protection proceeding under chapter 74.34 RCW to have abused or financially exploited a vulnerable adult;

(d) Found in any final decision issued by a disciplinary board to have sexually or physically abused or exploited any minor or a person with a developmental disability or to have abused or financially exploited any vulnerable adult;

(e) Found in any dependency action under RCW 13.34.030 (5)(b) to have sexually abused or exploited any minor or to have physically abused any minor; or

(f) Found by a court in a domestic relations proceeding under Title 26 RCW to have sexually abused or exploited any minor or to have physically abused any minor.

(10) The department may deny, suspend or revoke a license, if:

- An applicant/provider,
- A person affiliated with the applicant,
- Any person who is a caregiver,
- Any person who has unsupervised access to residents in the adult family home,
- Any person who lives in the home but who is not a resident,

- A resident manager,
- A partner of the entity,
- An officer of the entity,
- A director of the entity,
- A managerial employee of the entity,
- An entity representative,
- A spouse of the provider,
- An owner of fifty percent or more of the entity, or
- An owner who exercises control over daily operations

has:

(a) Obtained or attempted to obtain a license by fraudulent means or misrepresentation;

(b) Permitted, aided, or abetted the commission of any illegal act on the adult family home premises;

(c) Been convicted of a felony or a crime against a person if the conviction reasonably relates to the competency of the person to own or operate an adult family home;

(d) Had sanction, corrective, or remedial action taken by federal, state, county, or municipal health or safety officials related to the care or treatment of children or vulnerable adults;

(e) Engaged in or been convicted of the illegal use of drugs or the excessive use of alcohol within the past five years without evidence of rehabilitation;

(f) Been convicted of the illegal selling or distribution of drugs;

(g) Been convicted of any crime involving a firearm used in the commission of a felony or in an act of violence against a person;

(h) Operated a facility for the care of children or adults without a license;

(i) Misappropriated property of residents;

(j) Been denied a license or license renewal to operate a facility that was licensed for the care of children or vulnerable adults;

(k) Relinquished or returned a license in connection with the operation of any facility for the care of children or vulnerable adults, or did not seek the renewal of such license, following written notification of the licensing agency's initiation of denial, suspension, cancellation or revocation of the license;

(l) Had resident trust funds or assets of an entity providing care to children or vulnerable adults seized by the IRS or a state entity for failure to pay income or payroll taxes;

(m) Refused to permit authorized department representatives to interview residents or have access to resident records;

(n) Interfered with a long term care ombudsman in the performance of his or her official duties;

(o) Exceeded licensed capacity in the operation of an adult family home; or

(p) Been found by the court in a proceeding under Title 26 RCW to have committed an act of domestic violence toward a family or household member.

(11) The department may deny, suspend or revoke a license if:

- An applicant,
- A provider,
- A resident manager,
- A partner of the entity,
- An officer of the entity,
- A director of the entity,
- A managerial employee of the entity,
- An entity representative,
- An owner of fifty percent or more of the entity, or
- An owner who exercises control over daily operations,

Failed to meet financial obligations as the obligations fell due in the normal course of business, thereby impeding his/her ability to care for residents.

(12) The department shall deny an adult family home license to an applicant who is licensed to care for children in the same home unless:

(a) It is necessary in order to allow a resident's child(ren) to live in the same home as the resident or to allow a resident who turns eighteen to remain in the home;

(b) The applicant provides satisfactory evidence to the department of the home's capability to meet the needs of children and adults residing in the home; and

(c) The total number of persons receiving care in the home does not exceed the number permitted by the licensed capacity of the adult family home.

WAC 388-76-565 Resident manager and live-in requirements. (1) The adult family home provider shall either:

(a) Reside at the adult family home; or

(b) Employ or otherwise contract with a qualified resident manager who resides at the adult family home and who is responsible for the care of residents at all times.

(2) An entity provider must designate a qualified resident manager.

(3) The provider or resident manager shall be exempt from the requirement to live at the adult family home if:

(a) The adult family home has twenty-four hour staffing coverage; and

(b) A qualified staff person or caregiver who can make needed decisions is always present.

(4) Multiple facility providers shall have a qualified resident manager for each adult family home who is responsible for the care of residents at all times. Resident managers may not manage more than one adult family home.

(5) A resident manager shall be twenty-one years of age or older.

WAC 388-76-570 Additional license requirements—Multiple facility providers. (1) The department shall not issue a license to a provider to operate more than one adult family home unless:

(a) The applicant has operated an adult family home for at least one year in this state without any significant violation of the rules of this chapter; or

(b) The applicant has submitted evidence demonstrating that it has the capability to operate multiple adult family homes.

(2) An applicant that is applying to be licensed for more than one adult family home shall submit to the department for each adult family home:

(a) A twenty-four hour per day, seven days per week, staffing plan; and

(b) A plan for covering administrative responsibilities.

(3) Multiple facility providers shall have on-site at each adult family home a plan that addresses visitor parking, deliveries, and staff parking.

(4) The department may consider the applicant's credit history in determining whether to license the applicant for more than two adult family homes, when the department determines the credit history relates to an applicant's ability to provide care and services to vulnerable adults.

(5) Prior to operating two or more adult family homes, the individual provider or entity representative shall successfully complete forty-eight hours of residential care administrator's training, as specified in WAC 388-112-0265 through 388-112-0285.

WAC 388-76-580 License capacity. (1) The department shall license an adult family home for no more than six residents. The license capacity includes:

(a) All unrelated adults who need personal or special care; and

(b) Other household members, including relatives, who receive special care.

(2) The department shall license an adult family home for the care of two to six residents. In determining the appropriate capacity, the department shall consider:

(a) The structural design of the house;

(b) The number and qualifications of staff;

(c) The total household composition, including children and other household members who require personal or special care;

(d) The number of persons for whom the home provides adult day care;

(e) The needs of all persons residing in the home; and

(f) Safe evacuation of all people living in the adult family home.

WAC 388-76-585 Change of provider or provider address. (1) A change of provider occurs when there is a substitution of:

(a) The provider ultimately responsible for the daily operational decisions of the adult family home; or

(b) Control of an entity provider.

(2007 Ed.)

(2) Events which constitute a change of provider include but are not limited to the following:

(a) The form of legal organization of the provider is changed (e.g., an individual provider forms a partnership, corporation, association, or dissolution or merger of a licensed entity with another legal organization);

(b) Operational responsibilities are transferred by the initial provider to another party regardless of whether ownership of some or all of the real property and/or personal property assets of the adult family home is also transferred;

(c) Two individuals are both licensed as a married couple to operate the adult family home and an event, such as divorce, occurs which results in only one of the individuals operating the home;

(d) If the provider is a partnership, any event occurs which dissolves the partnership;

(e) If the provider is a corporation, and the corporation:

(i) Is dissolved;

(ii) Merges with another corporation which is the survivor; or

(iii) Consolidates with one or more corporations to form a new corporation;

(f) If the provider is a corporation and, whether by a single transaction or multiple transactions within any continuous twenty-four month period, fifty percent or more of the stock is transferred to one or more:

(i) New or former stockholders; or

(ii) Present stockholders each having held less than five percent of the stock before the initial transaction; or

(g) Any other event or combination of events which results in a substitution or substitution of control of the provider.

(3) An adult family home license is not transferable and is only valid for the location and provider listed on the license. A change in either the provider or the location requires a new license.

(4) The operation or ownership of an adult family home shall not be transferred until the new provider has been issued a license to operate the home. The new provider shall comply with license application requirements.

(5) The provider shall not commence operation of an adult family home at a new location until the department has approved a license for that location.

(6) The provider shall notify the adult family home's residents, in writing, at least thirty days prior to the effective date of a change of provider or location.

(7) The new provider is subject to the provisions of this chapter, the rules adopted under this chapter, and other applicable law.

(8) In order to ensure that the safety of residents is not compromised by a change in provider, the new provider is responsible for correction of all violations that may exist at the time of the new license.

WAC 388-76-59000 What authority does the department have to adopt rules related to specialty homes? (1) The legislature under RCW 70.128.005 and 70.128.040 authorizes the department to adopt rules to cover the needs of different populations living in adult family homes. This includes, but is not limited to, the developmentally disabled and the elderly.

(2) The department is authorized to adopt rules to cover special care training necessary for adult family home providers or resident managers. The legislature established that, as a minimum qualification, each of the adult family home providers and resident managers must complete special care training before providing special care services. (See RCW 70.128.120.)

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-59000, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-59010 What types of specialty adult family home designations are there? Adult family homes may be designated as a specialty home in one or more of the following three categories:

- (1) Developmental disability,
- (2) Mental illness, and/or
- (3) Dementia.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-59010, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-59050 What is required in order to obtain the specialty designation? The department will grant an adult family home a specialty designation for one or more of the three areas of specialty when:

(1) The individual provider or entity representative, and the resident manager, if there is a resident manager, have successfully completed one or more of the specialty care trainings; and

(2) The provider supplies the department with certification of successful completion of the required specialty care training or the challenge test; and

(3) The provider ensures that the specialty needs of the resident are identified and met, and that all caregivers in the home receive training regarding the specialty needs of the individual residents in the home. This training must cover the routine and changing care needs of the resident. The provider or a person knowledgeable about the specialty area may give this training.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-59050, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-59060 Are adult family home providers required to obtain more than one specialty designation if an individual resident has more than one specialty need? If an individual resident has needs that meet more than one of the definitions for developmental disability, mental illness, and dementia, described in WAC 388-76-59020, the provider must determine which one of the specialty trainings will most appropriately address the overall needs of the resident. The provider must then obtain the specialty training and designation that corresponds with this determination. The provider must ensure additional training of caregivers is obtained if needed to meet all of the resident's needs. This additional training may be the specialty designation training or another training chosen by the provider.

WAC 388-76-59070 Are adult family home providers required to obtain more than one specialty designation if they serve two or more residents with different specialty needs? When adult family home providers serve two or more residents with different specialty needs they must obtain a separate specialty designation for each of the specialty needs. For example, if one resident has needs meeting the definition for dementia, and a second resident has needs meeting the definition for mental illness, the provider must obtain a specialty designation for both dementia and mental illness. In a home where one resident has needs meeting the definition for a developmental disability, a second resident has needs meeting the definition for mental illness, and a third resident has needs meeting the definition for dementia, the provider must obtain a specialty designation for developmental disabilities, mental illness, and dementia.

WAC 388-76-59080 When will providers be required to become specialty adult family homes in order to serve persons with mental illness or dementia? Beginning October 1, 1999:

(1) An adult family home is required to become a specialty adult family home in order to admit and serve residents who have been determined to meet the definitions in this section for a mental illness or dementia; and

(2) Individual providers, entity representatives, and resident managers will have one hundred twenty days to complete specialty care training after a resident already living in the home develops mental illness or dementia as defined in this section.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-59080, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-59090 When will providers be required to become specialty adult family homes in order to serve persons with developmental disabilities? (1) For providers serving persons with developmental disabilities prior to July 1, 1998, the deadline for successfully completing specialty training is July 1, 1999.

(2) All other adult family home providers must obtain a specialty designation before admitting and serving a person with a developmental disability.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-59090, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-595 Inspections and ombudsman visits.

(1) The department shall conduct unannounced inspections and complaint investigations to determine the provider's compliance with this chapter and chapter 70.128 RCW.

(2) The provider shall ensure that department staff have access to the home, residents, and all resident records therein and shall not willfully interfere or fail to cooperate with department staff in the performance of official duties. Examples of willful interference or failure to cooperate include but are not limited to, not allowing department staff to talk to residents in private, not allowing department staff entrance into the home, or not allowing department staff access to resident records.

(3) Department staff shall have access to relevant staff records which must be kept in the adult family home. Relevant staff records include: Criminal history background inquiries; tuberculosis test documentation; CPR-first-aid cards; department of health registration; fundamentals of caregiving, modified fundamentals of caregiving, nurse delegation and continuing education certificates; and any other special certificates.

(4) Within ten working days of the inspection of the adult family home, the department's inspection report will be mailed or hand delivered to the provider.

(5) Within ten calendar days of the completion of complaint investigation data collection, any department inspection report related to a complaint investigation will be mailed or hand delivered to the provider.

(6) A provider shall submit to the department the planned corrective measures for violations and/or deficiencies within ten calendar days of receipt of a statement of deficiencies or an inspection report.

(7) Upon request, the department will supply to the public copies of inspection reports and complaint investigation reports, as soon as they are completed.

(8) The department will include a copy of the provider's planned corrective measures with the inspection and complaint investigation reports, if a copy is available at the time of the request.

(9) Any written decision by the department to take an enforcement action will be immediately available to the public.

(10) Subsections (7) through (9) above are subject to applicable public disclosure and confidentiality requirements.

(11) The adult family home shall not willfully interfere with a representative of the Washington protection and advocacy system as defined under RCW 71A.10.080 or the long term care ombudsman in the performance of official duties, as defined under chapter 43.190 RCW, Long-term care ombudsman program, the state regulations for the long-term care ombudsman program, and under federal law. The department shall impose a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for any such willful interference with a representative from the long-term care ombudsman program.

PART III RIGHTS AND SERVICES

GENERAL RESIDENT RIGHTS

WAC 388-76-600 General resident rights.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-600, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98. Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.-130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230, 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-600, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

WAC 388-76-60000 What are resident rights? (1)

Under RCW 70.129.005 long-term care facility residents should have the opportunity to exercise reasonable control over life decisions.

(2) Long-term care residents should have privacy and choices to engage in religious, political, civic, recreational, and other social activities to foster a sense of self-worth and enhance the quality of life. (See chapter 70.129 RCW.)

(3) Long-term care residents should receive appropriate services, be treated with courtesy, and continue to enjoy their basic civil and legal rights. (See chapter 70.129 RCW.)

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-60000, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-60010 Why do providers need to know resident rights? The legislature determined that residents of long term care facilities are entitled to certain rights. The provider is required to comply with all requirements of chapter 70.129 RCW, Long-term care resident rights. The provider must promote and protect the resident's exercise of all rights granted under that law.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-60010, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-60020 Is the provider required to supply information to potential residents and current residents, or the resident's representative? RCW 70.128.007(3) states that it is the goal of the legislature to "Encourage consumers, families, providers, and the public to become active in assuring their full participation in development of adult family homes that provide high quality and cost-effective care." The information that the provider supplies to potential residents and their families assists them to make informed choices about whether the individual adult family home will be able to provide appropriate high quality services, and what the costs will be for services.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-60020, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-60030 When must this information be supplied? Before admitting any resident, the provider must supply information about the adult family home to the potential resident. This information must also be supplied to current residents at least every twenty four months. The information must be presented orally and in writing in a language understandable to the potential resident or resident, or the resident's representative, and acknowledged in writing.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-60030, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 395]

WAC 388-76-60040 Must the information be updated and supplied again in advance of changes? The provider must inform each resident or the resident's representative in writing thirty days in advance of changes in the availability or the charges for services, items, or activities, or of changes in the adult family home's rules. Except in emergencies, thirty days' advance notice must be given prior to the change. When there are substantial and continuing changes in the resident's condition necessitating substantially greater or lesser services, items or activities, then the related charges may be changed with fourteen days' advance written notice.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-60040, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-60050 What information is the provider required to supply to potential residents and current residents? At a minimum, information supplied to the resident prior to admission must include:

- (1) House rules and policies, including:
 - (a) A description of services, items, and activities regularly available in the home or arranged for by the home;
 - (b) House rules and policies governing resident conduct and responsibilities;
 - (c) A statement describing charges for all services, items and activities provided in the home. This must include a description of added charges for items, services or activities that are not covered by the home's per diem rate or applicable public benefit programs;
 - (d) The schedule for payment of fees expected of residents by the provider;
 - (e) The home's policy on refunds and deposits, which must be consistent with RCW 70.129.150;
 - (f) House policies governing resident conduct and responsibilities during the resident's stay in the adult family home;
 - (g) A statement indicating whether the provider will accept Medicaid or other public funds as a source of payment for services.
- (2) Information about caregivers, including:
 - (a) The following information describing the licensed provider and the resident manager if there is a resident manager:
 - (i) Availability in the home, including a general statement about how often he or she is in the home;
 - (ii) Education and training relevant to resident caregiving;
 - (iii) Caregiving experience;
 - (iv) His or her primary responsibilities, including whether he or she makes daily general care management decisions;
 - (v) How to contact the provider or resident manager when he or she is not in the home.
 - (b) The following information describing a licensed practical nurse or registered nurse, if there is one who is in any way involved in the care of residents:
 - (i) Whom the LPN or RN is employed by, including the adult family home or another agency;
 - (ii) The specific routine hours that the LPN or RN is on site, if they are on-site routinely;

[Title 388 WAC—p. 396]

(iii) His or her primary responsibilities, including whether he or she makes daily general care management decisions;

(iv) The nonroutine times when the LPN or RN will be available, such as on-call; and

(vi) A description of what the provider will do to make available the services of an RN or LPN in the event of an emergency or a change in the resident's condition.

(3) A statement indicating whether the provider or staff are qualified or willing to become qualified to perform nurse delegation as allowed under state law;

(4) Types of care that can and cannot be offered:

(a) A description of what the adult family home will try to do to make adjustments to accommodate a resident's foreseeable or likely increasing care needs for the kinds of residents served by the home;

(b) A list of the types of predictable resident needs and conditions for which the adult family home cannot or will not provide care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-60050, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-60060 Do residents have rights that are not listed here? Residents have many rights that are listed in detail in chapter 70.129 RCW. The provider must promote and protect all of these rights, in addition to those listed in this section.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-60060, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-60070 What are some of the other resident rights that must be considered? (1) House policies implemented by the provider are required to be reasonable and must not conflict with rights granted to the resident under chapter 70.129 RCW, Long-term care resident rights or this chapter.

(2) The resident has the right to be fully informed in a language that he or she can understand of his or her total health status, including, but not limited to, his or her medical condition. This right is described in detail in chapter 7.70 RCW. The provider must not interfere with the resident's access to information from health care providers.

(3) The resident has the right to be fully informed in advance about recommended care and treatment and of any recommended changes in that care or treatment.

(4) The provider must not require or ask the resident or the resident's representative to sign any contract or agreement that waives any rights of the resident or waives potential liability for losses of personal property or injury.

(5) The resident shall be free from abuse, neglect, abandonment, or financial exploitation.

(6) The provider must comply with all applicable federal and state statutory requirements regarding nondiscrimination.

(7) The provider must post in a place and manner clearly visible and readable to residents and visitors the department's toll-free complaint telephone number, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the state licensure office, the state ombudsman program, and the protection and advocacy systems. This posting shall include at a minimum all of the information listed on the NOTICE supplied by the department containing the toll free complaint hot line and the toll free ombudsman number, and a brief description of ombudsman services.

(8) The provider must post in a place and manner clearly visible and readable to residents and visitors a statement that copies of the results of the most recent licensing inspection, and, if there has been a complaint investigation, the results of the investigation, are available to be read in the adult family home.

(9) The provider is required to maintain a safe, clean, comfortable, and home-like environment, that supports residents in their activities of daily living and promotes their quality of life.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-60070, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-605 Restraints. (1) The resident has the right to be free from physical and chemical restraint and involuntary seclusion.

(2) Adult family homes are prohibited from using any and all forms of physical restraint that are used for the purposes of discipline or convenience and are not required to treat the resident's medical symptoms. Treatment of such medical symptoms must be applied and immediately supervised on-site by a licensed registered nurse (RN), licensed practical nurse (LPN) or a licensed physician. Immediate supervision means the licensed registered nurse, the licensed practical nurse, or the licensed physician is in the home and quickly and easily available.

(3) The provider shall ensure that the resident is free from chemical restraints which are:

- (a) Used for discipline or convenience; and
- (b) Not required to treat the resident's medical symptoms.

(4) In any situation where a psychopharmacological drug is used for the resident, the provider shall ensure:

- (a) That it is not used for the purpose of discipline or convenience;
- (b) That it has been prescribed by a physician or health care professional with prescriptive authority;
- (c) The resident's negotiated care plan includes other environmental and behavioral strategies/modifications to address the symptoms for which the psychopharmacological medication has been prescribed, where possible. An actual change in medication will only occur when the prescriber determines it is medically warranted for the resident; and
- (d) The resident or surrogate decision maker has given informed consent for its use.

(2007 Ed.)

WAC 388-76-61000 Is an assessment needed before a person can be admitted to an adult family home? Before a person can be admitted, the provider must obtain a written assessment that contains current information. The contents of this assessment must at a minimum include the list in WAC 388-76-61020.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-61000, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61010 Under what circumstances can a provider admit or continue services for a person? A provider must be knowledgeable about the needs of a resident, based on the needs documented in the resident assessment. The provider may only admit or continue services for a person when:

(1) The adult family home can meet the person's assessed needs with current staff or through reasonable accommodations.

(2) The person's admission will not adversely affect the provider's ability to meet the needs of other residents in the home or endanger the safety of other residents; and

(3) All residents and household members can be safely evacuated in an emergency.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-61010, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61020 What must be included in the resident assessment? The current written assessment must contain specific information regarding the resident applicant. If, despite the best efforts of the person conducting the assessment, an element of the required assessment information is not available, the effort to obtain the information must be documented with the assessment. At a minimum, the assessment must include:

- (1) Recent medical history;
- (2) Current prescribed medications, and contraindicated medications (including, but not limited to, medications that are known to cause adverse reactions or allergies);
- (3) Medical diagnosis by a licensed medical professional;
- (4) Significant known behaviors or symptoms that may cause concern or require special care;
- (5) Evaluation of cognitive status in order to determine the individual's current level of functioning. This must include an evaluation of disorientation, memory impairment, and impaired judgment;
- (6) History of depression and anxiety;
- (7) History of mental illness, if applicable;
- (8) Social, physical, and emotional strengths and needs;
- (9) Functional abilities in relationship to activities of daily living including: Eating, toileting, ambulating, transferring, positioning, specialized body care, personal hygiene, dressing, bathing, and management of own medication;
- (10) Preferences and choices regarding daily life that are important to the person (including, but not limited to, such preferences as the type of food that the person enjoys, what time he or she likes to eat, and when he or she likes to sleep);
- (11) Preferences for activities; and
- (12) A preliminary service plan.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272. 98-12-054, § 388-76-61020, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 397]

WAC 388-76-61030 How does the preliminary service plan fit within the resident assessment? The preliminary service plan is part of the resident assessment, and is completed by the person conducting the assessment. The assessment and preliminary service plan create the foundation for the negotiated care plan, which is described in WAC 388-76-61500. The preliminary service plan describes needs for services and an initial plan for how to meet the needs that are identified at the time of the assessment. This plan should be developed by the provider and made more specific when the negotiated care plan is developed and reviewed. At a minimum, the preliminary service plan must contain:

- (1) A complete description of the client's specific problems and needs;
- (2) A description of needs for which the client chooses not to accept services;
- (3) Identification of client goals and preferences; and
- (4) A description of how the client's needs can be met.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61030, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61040 Is the use of an approved form required for the assessment? Beginning July 1, 1999 the assessment must be completed on a form that is approved by the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61040, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61050 Who can do the assessment? (1) Effective July 1, 1999, a qualified assessor is a person who:

- (a) Has a master's degree in social services, human services, behavioral sciences or an allied field and two years social service experience working with adults who have functional or cognitive disabilities; or
- (b) A bachelor's degree in social services, human services, behavioral sciences, or an allied field and three years social service experience working with adults who have functional or cognitive disabilities; or
- (c) Has a valid Washington state license to practice as a registered nurse and three years of clinical nursing experience; or
- (d) Is a physician with a valid Washington state license to practice medicine. This includes licensed osteopathic physicians.

(2) For individuals who will receive services paid for fully or partially by the department, the assessment must be completed by the authorized department case manager.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61050, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61060 In emergency situations, can a provider admit a resident without an assessment? In circumstances of genuine emergency, the provider may admit an individual without the required assessment and service plan. It is expected these situations will occur very infrequently. These circumstances are:

- (1) For individuals who use private funds to pay for care, the provider must determine that the individual's life, health or safety are at serious risk due to circumstances in the individual's current place of residence, or, if due to such circumstances, harm to an individual has occurred. Under these circumstances the required assessment must be completed within five working days of the resident's admission.

(2) For individuals whose care is paid for fully or partially by the department, the provider must obtain the approval of the authorized department case manager prior to admission. If this approval is obtained verbally, the provider must document the time, the date, and the name of the case manager.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61060, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61070 Does the assessment have to be updated? The provider must ensure that the assessment is reviewed and updated to document the resident's ongoing needs and preferences according to the following criteria:

- (1) At least every twelve months;
- (2) When there is a significant change in the resident's physical or mental condition; and
- (3) At the resident's request or at the request of the resident's legal representative.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61070, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61080 Who is qualified to update the assessment? Effective July 1, 1999, persons meeting the qualifications of an assessor are also qualified to update the assessment for an individual who will use private funds to pay for the adult family home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61080, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

NEGOTIATED CARE PLAN

WAC 388-76-615 Negotiated care plan.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-615, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98. Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.-130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230. 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-615, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

WAC 388-76-61500 What is a negotiated care plan? A negotiated care plan is a written plan developed between the provider and the resident, or the resident's representative, if the resident has a representative. The provider is responsible to make sure that it is written and signed. This plan identifies:

- (1) The care and services to be provided;
- (2) Who will provide the care and services;
- (3) When and how the care and services will be provided;
- (4) The resident's activities preferences and how those preferences will be accommodated; and
- (5) Other preferences and choices regarding issues important to the resident (including, but not limited to, food, daily routine, grooming), and what efforts will be made to accommodate those preferences and choices;
- (6) If needed, a plan to follow in case of a foreseeable crisis due to a resident's assessed need, such as, but not limited to, how to access emergency mental health services;
- (7) If needed, a plan to reduce tension, agitation and problem behaviors;

(8) If needed, a plan to respond to residents' special needs, including, but not limited to, the availability of staff when resident needs change;

(9) If needed, the identification of any communication barriers of the resident, including, but not limited to, how behaviors and nonverbal gestures may be used as a means for communication.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61500, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61510 When must the negotiated care plan be developed? The plan must be developed within thirty days of the resident's admission.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 69.41.085, 02-15-081, § 388-76-61510, filed 7/15/02, effective 8/15/02. Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61510, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61520 How does the negotiated care plan fit in with the assessment and preliminary service plan? The assessment and preliminary service plan, which are done by the person conducting the assessment, create the foundation for the negotiated care plan. The preliminary service plan describes needs for services and an initial plan for how to meet the needs. This plan is limited to needs that are identified at the time of the assessment. It is expected that, over time, the provider will learn more about the resident's needs and how to make sure they are met. The provider is responsible to work with the preliminary service plan and update it and make it more specific. As it is updated and made more specific, and as the resident or the resident's representative becomes involved in its development, it becomes the negotiated care plan. The negotiated care plan provides specific details about how the resident's needs and preferences will be addressed within the individual adult family home.

The provider must implement the negotiated care plan after it has been agreed to and signed by the resident or the resident's representative, if the resident has a representative.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61520, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61530 Who must be involved in the development of the negotiated care plan? The provider must involve the following people in developing the plan:

- (1) The resident, to the greatest extent he or she is able to participate;
- (2) The resident's family, if approved by the resident;
- (3) The resident's representative, if the resident has a representative;
- (4) Professionals involved in the care of the resident;
- (5) Other individuals the resident wants included; and
- (6) The authorized department case manager, if the resident is receiving services paid for fully or partially by the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61530, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61540 Who must sign the negotiated care plan? The provider must ensure that the negotiated care plan is agreed to and signed by the resident, or the resident's representative, if the resident has a representative.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61540, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61550 How often must the negotiated care plan be reviewed and revised? The provider must ensure that the plan is reviewed and revised according to the following schedule:

- (1) At least every twelve months;
- (2) When there is a significant change in the resident's physical or mental condition;
- (3) At the resident's request; and
- (4) If changes or additions to assessment information result in significant changes to the resident's identified needs or preferences and choices.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61550, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61560 When does the department's case manager get a copy of the negotiated care plan? The copy of the plan must be given to the authorized department case manager each time it is completed or updated, and after it has been signed by the resident, if the resident's services are being paid fully or partially by the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61560, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-61570 How are payment rate changes authorized for residents receiving services paid for fully or partially by the department? If there is improvement or decline causing significant changes in a resident's identified needs, and the resident is receiving services paid for fully or partially by the department, the provider must notify the authorized department case manager. No payment rate change will be approved without an assessment and authorization by the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, chapter 70.129 RCW and 1998 c 272, 98-12-054, § 388-76-61570, filed 5/29/98, effective 7/1/98.]

WAC 388-76-620 Provision of services and care. (1) The provider shall ensure that the resident receives necessary services and care to promote the most appropriate level of physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being consistent with resident choice.

(2) The provider shall encourage and promote resident participation in service planning and delivery.

(3) The provider shall respect the resident's right to decide negotiated care plan goals and treatment choices, including acceptance or refusal of care plan recommendations.

(4) The provider shall ensure that resident services are delivered in a manner and in an environment that:

(a) Promotes maintenance or enhancement of each resident's quality of life;

(b) Promotes the safety of all residents; and

(c) Reasonably accommodates the resident's individual needs and preferences, except when the health or safety of the resident or other residents would be endangered.

(5) The provider shall ensure that appropriate professionals provide needed services to the resident based upon the resident's assessment and negotiated care plan.

WAC 388-76-625 Nurse delegation—Training and registration. Before performing any delegated nursing task, adult family home staff must:

- (1) Be a nursing assistant certified or registered under chapter 18.88A RCW; and
- (2) Attend and successfully complete department designated core delegation training.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230. 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-625, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

WAC 388-76-630 Performance of delegated nursing care tasks. (1) Adult family home staff who have been delegated a nursing care task in compliance with requirements established by the nursing care quality assurance commission shall perform the task:

- (a) In compliance with all requirements and protocols established by the commission in WAC 246-840-910 through 246-840-980;
 - (b) Only for the specific resident who was the subject of the delegation; and
 - (c) Only with the resident's consent.
- (2) The delegated authority to perform the nursing care task is not transferable to another nurse assistant.

(3) The adult family home staff may consent to perform a delegated nursing care task, and shall be responsible for their own actions with regard to the decision to consent to the performance of the delegated task.

RESIDENT MEDICATIONS

WAC 388-76-64010 What are the rules the provider must follow in all situations involving resident medications? (1) The provider must ensure that all prescribed and OTC medications are kept in locked storage.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 400]

(2) The provider must ensure that all prescribed and OTC medications are stored in the original containers with legible and original labels. When medication organizers are used, refer to WAC 388-76-64050.

(3) The resident always has the right to refuse any medications.

(4) When a resident who is receiving medication assistance or administration refuses or does not receive a prescribed medication, the provider must notify the prescribing practitioner unless the provider, acting within their scope of practice, is able to make a judgment about the significance of the resident's refusal.

(5) If a provider becomes aware that a resident who self-administers is refusing a prescribed medication, the provider must notify the prescribing practitioner unless the provider, acting within their scope of practice, is able to make a judgment about the significance of the resident's refusal.

(6) The provider must ensure that the negotiated care plan addresses how residents will get their medications when they are absent from the adult family home or when a family member assisting with medications is not available.

(7) The provider must have a policy addressing the disposition of resident prescribed medications that are unused, leftover, or remaining after the resident leaves the adult family home.

WAC 388-76-64015 What defines the type of help a resident may need when taking their medication? (1) The resident assessment must identify the individual's functional level related to the management of medications as referenced in WAC 388-76-61020(9).

(2) Independent with self-administration is when the resident is able to directly apply prescribed and OTC medications by ingestion, inhalation, injection or other means and no assistance is required.

(3) Self-administration with assistance (as described in chapter 246-888 WAC, Medication assistance) is when a resident is independent with self-administration but requires assistance from a non-practitioner when taking prescribed or OTC medications. This assistance does not include injectable or intravenous medications as defined in WAC 246-888-020.

(4) Medication administration is required when a resident cannot safely perform independent self-administration or self-administration with assistance. Medication administration must be performed by a practitioner as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW or by nurse delegation (WAC 246-840-910 through 246-840-970), unless performed by a family member or surrogate decision maker as defined in RCW 7.70.065.

(5) If a resident's circumstances require a combination of independent with self-administration, self-administration with assistance, or medication administration, the reason(s) for this combination must be explained in the resident's negotiated care plan.

WAC 388-76-64020 What must the provider include in the negotiated care plan for residents who are independent with self-administration? (1) Residents who are independent with self-administration:

(a) May administer their own prescribed and OTC medications unless otherwise stipulated in their negotiated care plan.

(b) May keep their prescribed and OTC medications securely locked in either their room or in a different area otherwise agreed upon and documented in their negotiated care plan.

(2) Residents who are independent with self-administration are not required to keep a daily medication log unless otherwise stipulated in their negotiated care plan.

(3) For purposes of emergency situations, the provider must maintain a current list of prescribed and OTC medications including name, dosage, frequency, and the name and phone number of the prescribing practitioner as needed. The provider must coordinate with the resident when there is a medication change or new order(s) and must document the changes in the resident's negotiated care plan.

WAC 388-76-64025 How do a resident and provider initiate self-administration with assistance? (1) A resident or their representative and the provider consult with a practitioner to determine the appropriateness for self-administration with assistance.

(2) The practitioner, in consultation with the resident or their representative and the provider, considers such factors as the physical and mental limitations of the resident and the setting or environment where the resident lives.

(3) While no additional separate assessment or documentation of the resident's needs is required for initiating self-administration with assistance, the provider must amend the resident's negotiated care plan to reflect this service.

(4) The provider must contact the practitioner who will determine if a reassessment is required when the resident has a change in the health status, medications, physical or mental limitations, or environment.

WAC 388-76-64030 What must the provider monitor when implementing self-administration with assistance?

(1) The provider must ensure that self-administration with assistance is occurring when a resident needs assistance from a nonpractitioner to safely facilitate self-administration of a medication.

(2) The resident must be able to put the prescribed or OTC medication into their own mouth or apply or instill the medications.

(3) The resident must be aware that they are receiving a prescribed or OTC medication, but does not necessarily need to be able to state the name of the medication, intended effects or side effects.

(4) Self-administration with assistance must occur immediately prior to the ingestion or application of a prescribed or OTC medication.

(5) Self-administration with assistance may include steadying or guiding a resident's hand while applying or instilling prescribed or OTC medications such as ointments, eye, ear and nasal preparations, but does not include the practice of "hand-over-hand" (total physical assistance) administration.

(6) Self-administration with assistance does not include direct assistance with intravenous and injectable medications, however, delivering a prefilled syringe to the resident is allowed providing that the resident independently self-administers the injection per WAC 246-888-020.

WAC 388-76-64035 What other situations must the provider monitor when self-administration with assistance occurs for a resident? A nonpractitioner may assist the resident to self-administer a prescribed or OTC medication through a gastrostomy or "g-tube" provided that:

(1) The prescription is written as an oral medication via "g-tube"; and

(2) The resident meets the criteria for self-administration with assistance referenced in WAC 388-76-64015(3).

WAC 388-76-64040 What must the provider do when there is a need to alter medications during self-administration with assistance? (1) If the prescribed or OTC medication is altered, the provider must have documentation for the appropriateness of the alteration by the approving practitioner or pharmacist including date, time, and name of who provided the consultation.

(2) Alteration of a prescribed or OTC medication for self-administration with assistance includes, but is not limited to, crushing tablets, cutting tablets in half, opening capsules, mixing powdered medications with food or liquids.

(3) Residents must be aware that the prescribed or OTC medication is being altered and/or added to their food.

WAC 388-76-64045 What other types of assistance can a nonpractitioner provide? Prescribed or OTC medication can be transferred from one container to another for the purpose of an individual dose such as pouring a liquid medication from the medication container to a calibrated spoon or medication cup.

WAC 388-76-64050 Who can fill medication organizers and what is required? (1) A registered nurse (RN), licensed practical nurse (LPN), the resident, or the resident's family members may fill medication organizers.

(2) Prescribed medications being placed into an organizer for the resident must have already been dispensed by a pharmacist and are being removed from an original container that has been labeled for the resident by a pharmacist or pharmacy service.

(3) The medication organizer must allow prescribed and OTC medications to be readily identifiable by residents, caregivers, and the RN and LPN.

(4) Medication organizers must carry a label that clearly identifies the following information:

- (a) Name of the resident;
- (b) Name of the medication(s);
- (c) Dosage and dosage frequency.

(5) The name and phone number of the prescribing practitioner must be available when the resident takes a medication organizer out of the adult family home.

(6) When a resident has a change in medications by the prescribing practitioner, the person filling the medication organizers must replace labels with required updated information immediately.

WAC 388-76-64055 What documentation is the provider required to include in the resident's daily medication log? (1) The provider must ensure that every resident (unless WAC 388-76-64015(2) applies) has a daily medication log that includes the following information:

(a) A listing of all prescribed and OTC medications, the frequency, and the dosage; and

(b) The time the medication is scheduled to be taken by the resident.

(2) The provider must ensure that the person who assisted or administered prescribed or OTC medication to the resident initials the daily medication log within one hour after the medication was taken or refused.

(3) The provider must ensure that if the prescribed or OTC medication is taken outside the scheduled time, the time the medication was taken must be recorded on the medication log.

(4) If a resident refuses to take prescribed medications, the requirements in subsection (2) of this section apply including a note indicating the resident's refusal.

(5) When the prescribing practitioner makes a change to any current medications, the provider must:

(a) Ensure that the change and the date of the change are immediately documented on the daily medication log;

(b) Request from the prescribing practitioner written verification of the change by mail, facsimile, other electronic means, or a new original labeled container from the pharmacy;

(c) The provider must ensure that the changed medication is received from the pharmacy to begin the change consistent with the new order.

WAC 388-76-645 Resident activities. (1) The resident has the right to participate in social, religious, and community activities that do not interfere with the rights of other residents in the adult family home.

(2) The provider shall provide and promote opportunities for the resident to participate in activities of the resident's choice which are consistent with identified resident needs and functional capacity.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.-130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230. 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-645, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 402]

WAC 388-76-650 Food services. The provider shall:

(1) Ensure that food served to the resident meets the nutritional needs of the resident, and takes into consideration the resident's:

- (a) Preferences;
- (b) Caloric need;
- (c) Cultural and ethnic background; and
- (d) Any physical condition making food intake difficult;

(2) Provide a minimum of three nutritious meals in each twenty-four hour period, at regular times comparable to normal meal times in the community;

(3) Make nutritious snacks available to residents between meals and in the evening;

(4) Obtain input from residents in meal planning and scheduling;

(5) Serve nutrient concentrates, supplements, and modified diets only on the written approval of the resident's physician;

(6) Use only pasteurized milk;

(7) Ensure any home-canned foods are processed according to the latest guidelines of the county cooperative extension service;

(8) Serve meals in the home where the residents live; and

(9) When meals are prepared at a separate kitchen facility, ensure that persons preparing food have a food handler's permit and that the food is transported in airtight containers to prevent contamination. The provider or resident manager shall ensure that the food is transported and served at the appropriate and safe temperature.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.-130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230. 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-650, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

PART IV ADMINISTRATION

WAC 388-76-655 General management and administration. (1) The provider shall not admit or retain any resident whose needs the provider cannot meet.

(2) The provider shall ensure all of the following:

(a) That staff are competent and receive necessary training, including but not limited to any training required under chapter 388-112 WAC to perform assigned tasks;

(b) The adult family home is in compliance with the requirements of this chapter and other applicable state laws;

(c) The home employs sufficient staff to meet the needs of the residents; and

(d) That he/she is available to respond to resident needs and caregiver inquiries within a reasonable time frame. In the event a provider is unavailable (including but not limited to being on vacation), a person must be designated to respond on behalf of the provider.

(3) The provider shall ensure that all caregivers are at least eighteen years of age or older.

(4) The provider shall ensure that the provider, entity representative, resident manager and all caregivers:

(a) Are able to communicate or make provisions for communicating with the resident in his or her primary language;

(2007 Ed.)

(b) Have a clear understanding of job responsibilities and knowledge of residents' negotiated care plans in order to be able to provide care specific to each resident's needs; and

(c) Not engage in the illegal use of drugs or the excessive use of alcohol when providing care to residents; and

(d) Possess a valid first-aid and CPR card prior to providing care for residents unless such care is directly supervised by a fully qualified caregiver who has a valid first-aid and CPR card.

(5) The provider shall ensure that:

(a) There is at least one caregiver present in the home whenever one or more residents are on the premises;

(b) The caregiver referred to in (a) of this subsection is capable of understanding and speaking English well enough to be able to respond appropriately to emergency situations; and

(c) At least one caregiver is accessible by phone or beeper for emergencies when there are no residents on the home's premises.

(6) An adult family home shall be exempt from subsection (5)(a) of this section if:

(a) The home provides care to residents whose primary disabilities are developmental disabilities as defined by WAC 388-76-540; and

(b) It is determined and documented in a resident's current negotiated care plan that the resident is capable and willing to be left alone unsupervised in the adult family home during normal awake hours. The maximum period of time a resident can be left alone must be documented in the negotiated care plan.

WAC 388-76-665 Resident records. (1) The provider or resident manager shall:

(a) Keep confidential all information contained in the resident's records, regardless of the form or storage method of the records (e.g., computer files); and

(b) Protect information in the resident's record against alteration, loss, destruction, and unauthorized use.

(2) The provider or resident manager shall release information from the resident's record when required by:

(a) The resident's transfer to a health care institution;

(b) Law;

(c) Representatives of the department when acting in accordance with state law; or

(d) The resident.

(3) The provider shall ensure that caregivers in the home have access to resident records when information in those records is needed to provide care.

(4) The provider shall retain the resident's record for three years following the resident's discharge or death.

(5) The adult family home shall ensure that the resident's record includes at least the following:

(a) Resident identification including the name, address, and telephone number of the person or persons the resident designates as significant;

(b) The name, address, and telephone numbers for the resident's:

(i) Surrogate decision maker, if any; and

(ii) Health care providers;

(c) A current medical history;

(d) An inventory of personal belongings which is:

(i) Updated as additional belongings accrue; and

(ii) Dated and signed by the resident and the provider or resident manager;

(e) The resident's assessment;

(f) The current negotiated care plan;

(g) Legal documents, including but not limited to:

(i) Power of attorney (POA) if the resident has appointed a POA;

(ii) Advance health care directives if the resident has executed such directives; and

(iii) A court order, if any, appointing a legal guardian and detailing the guardian's responsibility;

(h) Financial records;

(i) Medication records;

(j) The resident's social security number; and

(k) Admission, discharge, and absences information.

(6) The provider or resident manager shall keep the resident's record at the adult family home in which the resident lives.

WAC 388-76-670 Disaster and emergency preparedness. (1) The provider shall develop written plans and procedures to meet potential emergencies and disasters, such as fires, earthquakes, and floods.

(2) The provider shall ensure that all staff are trained in those emergency procedures when they begin to work at the home.

(3) The provider shall periodically review disaster and emergency procedures with staff, caregivers, and residents.

(4) In the plans (described in subsection (1) of this section), the provider shall describe how they will supply residents and household members with a seventy-two hour supply of food, accommodating any specific resident needs or food restrictions, in order to meet resident and household member needs in an emergency. In addition to this plan, the provider must also have on-site three gallons of drinking water per person to meet resident and household member needs in an emergency.

(5) The provider shall ensure the adult family home has readily available first-aid supplies and a first-aid manual.

WAC 388-76-675 Reporting requirements. (1) The provider and all caregivers shall immediately notify the department's toll-free complaint telephone number of any incidents involving allegations of resident abuse, neglect, exploitation or abandonment in accordance with the provisions of chapter 74.34 RCW.

(2) The provider shall keep a log of injuries and accidents to residents.

(3) When there is a significant change in a resident's condition, or a serious injury, trauma, or death of a resident, the provider shall immediately notify:

(a) The resident's family, surrogate decision maker, physician and other appropriate professionals, and other persons identified in the negotiated care plan; and

(b) The case manager, if the resident is receiving services paid for fully or partially by the department.

(4) The adult family home shall immediately report to the department's aging and disability services administration:

(a) Any event, actual or potential, requiring the evacuation or relocation of all or part of the home's residents to another address;

(b) Circumstances which threaten the home's ability to ensure continuation of services to residents; and

(c) Instances when a resident is determined to be missing.

(5) The provider shall notify local law enforcement in accordance with the provisions of RCW 74.34.035.

(6) The provider shall notify the local public health officer and the department of any occurrence of food poisoning or communicable disease as required by the state board of health.

WAC 388-76-680 Infection control and communicable disease. (1) The provider or resident manager shall institute appropriate infection control measures when the resident or any household member or caregiver has, or is suspected of having, a communicable disease.

(2) The provider shall follow chapter 49.17 RCW, Washington Industrial Safety and Health Act (WISHA) requirements to protect the health and safety of residents and employees.

(3) The provider must ensure that tuberculosis screening is carried out as outlined below.

(a) Skin testing whether documented historically or performed currently, must be by intradermal (Mantoux) administration of PPD, and test results read in forty-eight to seventy-two hours by trained personnel. A positive reaction is ten or more millimeters of induration.

(b) The individual provider, entity representative, resident manager and caregiver must have, upon employment, tuberculosis skin testing to establish tuberculosis status.

(c) Baseline skin testing upon employment must be in two steps performed one to three weeks apart unless a person meets the requirements in (d) or (e) of this section.

(d) A person does not need to be skin tested for tuberculosis if he/she has:

(i) A documented history of a previous positive skin test; or

(ii) Documented evidence of adequate therapy for active disease; or

(iii) Documented evidence of adequate preventive therapy for infection.

(e) Exceptions to two-step testing. A person needs to have only a one-step skin test upon employment if he/she has any one of the following:

(i) A positive result from his/her initial first step skin test (a person who has a positive result from an initial first step skin test should not have any more skin testing); or

(ii) A documented history of a negative result from previous two-step baseline testing; or

(iii) A documented negative result from one step skin testing in the previous twelve months.

(f) A person with a positive reaction to skin testing must have a chest X ray within seven days.

(g) Persons with negative test results may be required by the public health or licensing authority to have follow-up skin testing in certain circumstances such as after exposure to active tuberculosis; when tuberculosis symptoms are present; or for periodic screening.

(h) A person who has reason to decline skin testing may submit a signed statement to the employer giving the reason for declining and evidence to support the reason.

(4) The provider or resident manager shall:

(a) Report any employee's or provider's positive chest X ray to the appropriate public health authority; and

(b) Follow precautions ordered by the public health authority, the employee's personal physician, or other licensed health care professional.

(5) The provider shall retain records of tuberculin test results, reports of X-ray findings, physician or public health official orders, and waivers in the adult family home.

(6) The provider or resident manager shall:

(a) Use infection control standards and educational material consistent with the current curriculum for infection control as defined in the department's fundamentals of caregiving training;

(b) Dispose of used syringes, razor blades, and other sharp items in a manner that will not jeopardize the health and safety of residents, staff, and the public;

(c) Ensure disposals are placed in rigid containers, impervious to liquids and penetration by puncture. These containers shall be such that they cannot be opened either intentionally or accidentally; and

(d) Use all disposable and single-service supplies and equipment as specified by the manufacturer.

WAC 388-76-685 Criminal history disclosure and background inquiries. (1) Before the adult family home employs, directly or by contract, a resident manager, entity representative or caregiver, or accepts as a caregiver any volunteer or student, or allows a household member unsupervised access to residents, the home shall:

(a) Require the person to complete the residential care services background inquiry form which includes:

(i) A disclosure statement; and

(ii) A statement authorizing the adult family home, the department, and the Washington state patrol to conduct a background inquiry;

(b) Verbally inform the person:

(i) That he or she may request a copy of the background inquiry result; and

(ii) Of the inquiry result within ten days of receipt; and

(c) Notify the appropriate licensing or certification agency of any person resigning or terminated as a result of having a conviction record.

(2) The adult family home provider shall not employ any person, directly or by contract, or accept as a volunteer or student any person who may have unsupervised access to residents, or allow a household member unsupervised access to residents if the person or background inquiry discloses that the person was:

(a) Convicted of a crime against persons as defined under RCW 43.43.830;

(b) Convicted of a crime related to financial exploitation as defined under RCW 43.43.830;

(c) Found by a court in a domestic relations proceeding under Title 26 RCW to have sexually abused or exploited any minor or to have physically abused any minor;

(d) Subject to an order of protection under chapter 74.34 RCW for abuse, neglect, abandonment or financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult;

(e) Found in a final decision issued by a disciplinary board to have:

(i) Sexually or physically abused or exploited any minor or developmentally disabled person; or

(ii) Abused, neglected, abandoned or financially exploited any vulnerable adult; or

(f) Found in any dependency action under RCW 13.34-.050(1) to have engaged in circumstances of sexual abuse or exploited any minor or to have physically abused any minor.

(3) The adult family home may choose to employ a person with a conviction of a crime only if the conviction is one of the crimes listed in RCW 43.43.842 and the required number of years has passed.

(4) An adult family home may conditionally employ a person pending the result of a background inquiry, provided the home requests the inquiry within seventy-two hours of the conditional employment.

(5) A background inquiry result is valid for two years from the date it is conducted, at which point a new background inquiry application must be submitted.

(6) The adult family home shall establish procedures ensuring:

(a) All disclosure statements and background inquiry applications and responses and all copies are maintained in a confidential and secure manner;

(b) All background inquiry results and disclosure statements are used for employment purposes only;

(c) Background inquiry results and disclosure statements are not disclosed to any person except:

(i) The person about whom the adult family home made the disclosure or background inquiry;

(ii) Authorized state and federal employees; and

(iii) The Washington state patrol auditor.

(7) A record of inquiry results shall be retained by the adult family home for eighteen months beyond the date of employment termination.

(8) The provider shall secure and submit any additional documentation and information as requested by the department to satisfy the requirements of this section.

WAC 388-76-690 Advance directives, guardianship, and decision making. (1) The provider or resident manager shall provide or ensure that the resident, at the time of admission, has received the department's current booklet on health care rights, in the language appropriate for the resident, if available from the department.

(2) The provider or resident manager shall:

(a) Immediately contact the local emergency medical services in the event of a resident medical emergency regardless of any order, directive, or other expression of resident wishes involving the provision of medical services;

(b) Have readily available for emergency medical services personnel the resident's advance directives if the resident has executed an advance directive;

(c) Inform the resident of the action required by subsection (2)(a) of this section; and

(d) Include the action required by subsection (2)(a) of this section in the home's operational policies.

(3) A licensed physician or registered nurse acting within his or her scope of practice shall be exempt from the provisions of subsection (2) of this section.

(4) A provider may become a guardian for a resident if two criteria are met:

(a) The court authorizes you under Washington state's guardianship law (chapter 11.88 RCW) to be a resident's guardian; and

(b) You inform the court in writing, through a petition, that you care for the resident in your adult family home, and you request the court to direct payment from the funds of the resident for care, maintenance, and education to you. This is required by RCW 11.92.040(6), a section in Washington state's guardianship law.

(5) A provider can not act as power of attorney for health care for a resident. Washington state's power of attorney law (chapter 11.94 RCW) says that owners, administrators, or employees of the adult family home where the resident resides or receives care can not act as power of attorney for health care for a resident, unless they are also the spouse, adult child, brother or sister of the resident.

(6) The adult family home shall provide care and services in compliance with the federal patient self determination act and with applicable state statutes related to surrogate and health care decision making, including chapters 7.70, 70.122, 11.88, 11.92, and 11.94 RCW.

WAC 388-76-695 Protection of resident funds—Liquidation or transfer. (1) Upon the death of a resident, the adult family home shall promptly convey the resident's personal funds held by the adult family home with a final accounting of such funds to the department or to the individual or probate jurisdiction administering the resident's estate no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of the resident's death.

(2) If the deceased resident was a recipient of long-term care services paid for in whole or part by the state of Washington, then the personal funds held by the adult family home and the final accounting should be paid to the secretary, department of social and health services and mailed to the office of financial recovery, estate recovery unit, P.O. Box 9501, Olympia, WA 98507-9501 or such address as may be directed by the department in the future:

(a) The check and final accounting accompanying the payment shall contain the name and social security number of the deceased individual from whose personal funds account the monies are being paid; and

(b) The department of social and health services shall establish a release procedure for use of funds necessary for burial expenses.

(3) In situations where the resident is absent from the adult family home for an extended time without notifying the home, and the resident's whereabouts is unknown:

(a) The adult family home shall make a reasonable effort to find the missing resident; and

(b) If the resident cannot be located after ninety days, the home shall notify the department of revenue of the existence of "abandoned property," outlined in chapter 63.29 RCW. The home shall deliver to the department of revenue the balance of the resident's personal funds within twenty days following such notification.

(4) Prior to the sale or other transfer of ownership of the adult family home the provider shall:

(a) Provide each resident with a written accounting of any personal funds held by the home;

(b) Provide the new provider with a written accounting of all resident funds being transferred; and

(c) Obtain a written receipt for those funds from the new provider.

WAC 388-76-700 Resident relocation due to closure.

(1) When the department revokes, suspends, or does not renew the license for an adult family home, the department shall:

(a) Notify residents and, when appropriate, residents' surrogate decision makers of the action; and

(b) Assist with residents' relocation and specify the location of possible residential alternatives.

(2) When the resident's relocation occurs due to the adult family home's voluntary license relinquishment:

(a) The provider shall send written notification, thirty days before ceasing operation, to the appropriate adult family home area manager and to all residents except when shorter notice is required due to emergency circumstances;

(b) The provider shall provide appropriate discharge planning and coordination for all residents;

(c) The department shall provide relocation assistance to department clients; and

(d) The department may provide relocation assistance to residents whose cost of care is not fully or partially paid for by the department.

PART V

REMEDIES AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

WAC 388-76-705 Remedies. (1) The department may take one or more of the actions listed in subsection (3)(a) of this section in any case in which the department finds that an adult family home provider has:

(a) Failed or refused to comply with the applicable requirements of chapters 70.128 and 70.129 RCW or of this chapter;

(b) Operated without a license or under a revoked license;

(c) Knowingly, or with reason to know, made a false statement of material fact on his or her application for a license or any data attached thereto, or in any matter under investigation by the department;

(d) Willfully prevented, interfered with, or failed to cooperate with any inspection or investigation by the department; or

(e) Failed to comply with:

(i) A condition imposed on a license; or

(ii) A stop placement order.

(2)(a) For failure or refusal to comply with any applicable requirements of chapters 70.128 and 70.129 RCW or of this chapter, the department may provide consultation and shall allow the provider a reasonable opportunity to correct before imposing remedies under subsection (3)(a) unless the violations pose a serious risk to residents, are recurring or have been uncorrected.

(b) When violations of this chapter pose a serious risk to a resident, are recurring or have been uncorrected, the department shall impose a remedy or remedies listed under subsection (3)(a). In determining which remedy or remedies to impose, the department shall take into account the severity of the potential or actual impact of the violations on residents and which remedy or remedies are likely to improve resident outcomes and satisfaction in a timely manner.

(3)(a) Actions and remedies the department may impose include:

- (i) Denial of an application for a license;
- (ii) Imposition of reasonable conditions on a license, such as correction within a specified time, training, and limits on the type of residents the provider may admit or serve;
- (iii) Imposition of civil penalties of not more than one hundred dollars per day per violation except that:
 - (A) Fines of up to one thousand dollars can be issued for willful interference with a representative of the long-term care ombudsman per RCW 70.128.150; and
 - (B) Fines of up to three thousand dollars can be issued for retaliation against a resident, employee, or any other person for making a complaint, providing information to, or cooperating with, the ombudsman, the department, the attorney's general office, or a law enforcement agency per RCW 74.39A.060(7).
- (iv) Suspension or revocation of a license; or
- (v) Order stop placement.
- (b) When the department orders stop placement, the adult family home shall not admit any person until the stop placement order is terminated. The department may approve readmission of a resident to the adult family home from a hospital or nursing home during the stop placement. The department shall terminate the stop placement when the department determines that:
 - (i) The violations necessitating the stop placement have been corrected; and
 - (ii) The provider exhibits the capacity to maintain adequate care and service.
- (c) Conditions the department may impose on a license include, but are not limited to the following:
 - (i) Correction within a specified time;
 - (ii) Training related to the violations;
 - (iii) Limits on the type of residents the provider may admit or serve;
 - (iv) Discharge of any resident when the department determines discharge is needed to meet that resident's needs or for the protection of other residents;
 - (v) Change in the license capacity;
 - (vi) Removal of the adult family home's designation as a specialized home;
 - (vii) Prohibition of access to residents by a specified person; and
 - (viii) Demonstration of ability to meet financial obligations necessary to continue operation.
- (d) When a provider fails to pay a fine when due under this chapter, the department may, in addition to other remedies, withhold an amount equal to the fine plus interest, if any, from any contract payment due to the provider from the department.
- (e) When the department finds that a licensed provider also operates an unlicensed adult family home, the department may impose a remedy listed under subsection (3)(a) of this section on the provider and the provider's licensed adult family home or homes.
- (f) When the department determines that violations existing in an adult family home are of such a nature as to present a serious risk of harm to residents of other homes operated by the same provider, the department may impose remedies on those other homes.

WAC 388-76-710 Notice, hearing rights, and effective dates relating to imposition of remedies. (1) Chapter 34.05 RCW applies to department actions under this chapter and chapter 70.128 RCW, except that orders of the department imposing license suspension, stop placement, or conditions on a license are effective immediately upon notice and shall continue pending a final administrative decision on the merits.

(2) Civil monetary penalties shall become due twenty-eight days after the provider or the owner or operator of an unlicensed adult family home is served with a notice of the penalty unless the provider requests a hearing in compliance with chapter 34.05 RCW and RCW 43.20A.215. If a hearing is requested, the penalty becomes due ten days after a final decision in the department's favor is issued. Interest shall accrue beginning thirty days after the department serves the provider with notice of the penalty at a rate of one percent per month in accordance with RCW 43.20B.695.

(3) A person contesting any decision by the department to impose a remedy shall within twenty-eight days of receipt of the decision:

(a) File a written application for an adjudicative proceeding by a method showing proof of receipt with the board of appeals at the mailing address contained in WAC 388-02-0030; and

(b) Include in or with the application:

(i) The grounds for contesting the department decision; and

(ii) A copy of the contested department decision.

(4) Administrative proceedings shall be governed by chapter 34.05 RCW, RCW 43.20A.215, where applicable, this section, and chapter 388-02 WAC. If any provision in this section conflicts with chapter 388-02 WAC, the provision in this section governs.

WAC 388-76-715 Dispute resolution. (1) When a provider disagrees with the department's finding of a violation under this chapter, the provider shall have the right to have the violation reviewed by the department under the department's dispute resolution process. The purpose of the review is to give the provider an opportunity to present information which might warrant modification or deletion of a finding of a violation. The provider may submit a written statement for review. In addition to a written statement, the provider may request to present the information in person to a department designee. Requests for review shall be made to the department at the address provided in the department's certified letter within ten days of receipt of the written finding of a violation.

(2) When requested by a provider, the department shall expedite the dispute resolution process to review violations upon which a department order imposing license suspension, stop placement, or a condition on a license is based.

(3) Orders of the department imposing license suspension, stop placement, or conditions on a license are effective immediately upon notice and shall continue pending dispute resolution.

WAC 388-76-725 Bedrooms. (1) Every resident bedroom shall be an outside room permitting entrance of natural light.

(2) Window screens shall be:

(a) Of such design that emergency escape is not hindered; and

(b) Adequate to prevent entrance of flies and other insects.

(3) The provider shall ensure that residents' bedrooms have direct access to hallways and corridors, and unrestricted access to living rooms, day rooms, and common use areas.

(4) The provider shall make separate sleeping quarters available for each sex and shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate residents wanting to share the same room.

(5) Single occupancy bedrooms shall be at least eighty square feet or more of floor space.

(6) Double occupancy bedrooms shall be at least one-hundred twenty square feet or more of floor space exclusive of closets.

(7) There shall not be more than two residents to a bedroom.

(8) Unless the resident chooses to provide his or her own furniture and bedding, the provider shall provide each resident a bed thirty-six inches or more wide with:

(a) A clean, comfortable mattress with waterproof cover for use when needed or requested by the resident;

(b) Clean sheets and pillow cases;

(c) Adequate blankets; and

(d) Clean pillows.

(9) The provider shall not use the upper bunk of double-deck beds for a resident's bed.

(10) If the provider's bedroom is not within hearing distance of resident bedrooms, the department may require the provider provide a call bell or intercom system.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 408]

(11) The provider, resident manager, or family members shall not use as bedrooms those areas of the home designated as common use areas, or share bedrooms with residents.

(12) A resident may not share a bedroom with a person under eighteen years of age, unless it is the resident's own child.

EMERGENCY EVACUATION AND SAFETY REQUIREMENTS

WAC 388-76-76505 What physical structure requirements must the provider ensure that the home meets? (1) Each adult family home must meet applicable local licensing, zoning, building, and housing codes, and state and local fire safety regulations as they pertain to a single-family dwelling.

(2) It is the responsibility of the provider to check with local authorities to ensure all local codes are met.

(3) Effective July 1, 2004, the following adult family homes must meet requirements in WAC 51-51-0324 Section R324, Adult family homes as established by the Washington state building code council:

(a) Any single-family dwelling that has been newly constructed meeting all current applicable building codes, that has never been occupied, and that has a pending adult family home license application with the department;

(b) Any single-family dwelling being converted for use as an adult family home.

(4) WAC 51-51-0324 Section R324 - Adult family homes does not apply to adult family homes licensed before July 1, 2004, that are being sold or transferred for the purpose continuing the operation of a licensed adult family home under new ownership.

(5) Windows in every room used by residents must be free of obstructions.

(6) When resident bedroom windows are fitted with storm windows, the provider must equip the storm windows with release mechanisms that are easily opened from the inside without the use of a key or special knowledge or effort.

(7) The provider must ensure that every occupied area used by residents receiving care and services has access to one or more exit and must not pass through a room, garage, or other space subject to being locked or blocked from the opposite side.

(8) Every occupied area used by residents must not be accessible only by ladder, folding stairs, or trap door.

(9) The provider must ensure that every bathroom door lock opens from the outside in an emergency.

(10) The provider must ensure that every closet door opens from the inside and outside.

(2007 Ed.)

(11) The provider must ensure that exit doors leading to the outside will open from the inside without the use of a key or any special knowledge or effort.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040 and chapter 70.128 RCW. 05-07-137, § 388-76-76505, filed 3/22/05, effective 4/22/05. Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.130, and 70.128.140. 02-20-004, § 388-76-76505, filed 9/18/02, effective 10/19/02.]

WAC 388-76-76510 What are the resident emergency evacuation requirements that providers must address? (1) Before a resident is admitted, the provider must disclose in writing and in a language understood by the prospective resident and/or their representative the following information:

(a) Whether or not the resident bedrooms in the home comply with current building code including evacuation standards;

(b) The source of and plan for on-site fire protection if the home is located outside a public fire district;

(c) All residents must participate in at least one household emergency evacuation drill per year involving a full evacuation from the home to a safe location.

(2) The resident's preliminary service plan (WAC 388-76-61030) and negotiated care plan (WAC 388-76-61500) must identify the resident's level of evacuation capability as defined by the following:

(a) Level 1: The resident is physically and mentally capable of self-preservation and walking or traversing a normal path to safety, including the ascent and descent of stairs, without the physical assistance of another person.

(b) Level 2: The resident is physically and mentally capable of traversing a normal path to safety with the use of mobility aids, but unable to ascend or descend stairs without the physical assistance of another person.

(c) Level 3: The resident physically or mentally is unable to walk or traverse a normal path to safety without the physical assistance of another person.

(3) The provider must ensure that residents who have an evacuation capability of Level 2 or Level 3 have their bedroom located on a grade level floor of the home. This grade level floor must have no less than two means of egress that do not require the use of stairs, elevator, or platform lift to exit.

(4) The provider must not admit or retain any residents who cannot be safely evacuated according to the provider's evacuation plan required under WAC 388-76-76520.

(5) For residents who are hearing and/or visually impaired, the provider must ensure that alternative emergency evacuation protections appropriate for hearing and/or visually impaired are installed as needed.

WAC 388-76-76515 What fire safety and emergency requirements must the provider have in the home? (1) The provider must provide and have readily available an approved 2-A:10-B:C rated (five pound) fire extinguisher in proper operating condition on each floor of living space of the adult family home. Where local fire authorities require installation of a different type or size of fire extinguisher, the requirement of the local authority shall prevail.

(2) The provider must ensure that each required fire extinguisher is inspected and serviced annually by a qualified inspector.

(3) If the home is not located in a public fire district, the provider must have written verification of adequate fire protection from the county fire authority.

(4) Every adult family home must have an approved automatic smoke detector in the following locations of the home:

(a) Every bedroom used by a resident;

(b) In proximity to the area where any resident or caregiver sleeps; and

(c) On every level of a home that is multilevel.

(5) Smoke detectors must be installed in such a manner so that the fire warning may be audible in all parts of the home upon activation of a single detector.

(6) The provider must ensure that all smoke detectors are maintained and in working condition at all times.

(7) The provider must not locate a stove or heater where the stove or heater blocks a resident's escape.

(8) Portable oil, gas, kerosene, and electric space heaters must not be used in the home except in the case of a power outage and the portable space heater is the home's only safe source of heat.

(9) The location of the adult family home must be accessible at all times for emergency vehicles.

(10) The provider must report to the department any fire and/or emergency evacuation in the adult family home in accordance with WAC 388-76-675 (4)(a).

WAC 388-76-76520 What is required of the provider for emergency evacuation drills? (1) The provider must develop a plan for emergency evacuation that reasonably ensures safe evacuation of all residents. The provider will determine the length of time necessary to safely evacuate all residents; however, the length of time shall not exceed five minutes. This emergency plan shall be written and posted and be operational at all times.

(2) All staff, caregivers and residents must be instructed in emergency evacuation procedures at the time of hire or admission.

(3) The provider must ensure that all residents participate in at least one household emergency evacuation drill every calendar year involving full evacuation from the home to a safe location.

(4) The provider must ensure that emergency evacuation drills are conducted at least every two months.

(5) The provider must document emergency evacuation drills recording the following information:

(a) Names of residents and staff involved including the person conducting the drill;

(b) Date and time of the drill; and

(c) The length of time required for evacuating all residents.

WAC 388-76-770 Safety and maintenance. The provider shall ensure:

[Title 388 WAC—p. 410]

(1) The adult family home is maintained to provide a safe, clean, comfortable, and homelike environment;

(2) The adult family home is maintained internally and externally in good repair and condition, and free of hazards;

(3) The home has clean, functioning, safe, adequate household items and furnishings to provide for the needs of the residents;

(4) The home has safe and functioning systems for heating, cooling, hot and cold water, electricity, plumbing, garbage disposal, sewage, cooking, laundry, artificial and natural light, ventilation and any other feature of the home;

(5) Water temperature does not exceed one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit at fixtures used by residents, such as tub, shower, and lavatory facilities;

(6) Toxic substances, poisons, and other hazardous materials are stored in a place not accessible to residents except under supervision;

(7) Emergency lighting devices, such as flashlights are in working order and are available and easily accessible to caregivers and residents;

(8) Steps are provided with handrails;

(9) The provider is able to gain rapid access to any bedroom, toilet room, shower room, bathroom, or other room occupied by residents should emergency need arise;

(10) Residents do not use or have access to swimming or other pools, hot tubs, saunas, spas, or any outdoor body of water either on or off the premises without supervision;

(11) That any firearms are kept in locked storage and accessible only to authorized persons; and

(12) The adult family premises are kept free from rodents, flies, cockroaches, and other vermin.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.-130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230. 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-770, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

WAC 388-76-775 Pets. The provider shall ensure:

(1) Any animal visiting or living on the premises has a suitable temperament, is clean and healthy, and otherwise poses no significant health or safety risks to residents, staff, or visitors; and

(2) Pets residing on the premises have up-to-date rabies vaccinations.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.-130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230. 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-775, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

WAC 388-76-780 Lighting. The provider shall:

(1) Ensure lighting is adequate and comfortable for the functions being conducted in each area of the home; and

(2) Locate light fixtures to provide for the comfort and safety of the residents.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.-130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230. 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-780, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

WAC 388-76-785 Temperature and ventilation. The adult family home shall:

(1) Maintain room temperature within the home at sixty-eight degrees Fahrenheit or more during waking hours and sixty degrees Fahrenheit or more during sleeping hours; and

(2007 Ed.)

(2) Be adequately ventilated to ensure the health and comfort of residents.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230. 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-785, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

WAC 388-76-790 Water supply. (1) If an adult family home has a private water supply, the provider shall have it approved by the local health authority; and

(2) The provider shall label nonpotable water on the premises to avoid use.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230. 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-790, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

WAC 388-76-795 Sewage and liquid wastes. The provider shall ensure sewage and liquid wastes are discharged into a public sewer system or into an independent sewage system approved by the local health authority or department of health.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 70.128.040, 70.128.060, 70.128.120, 70.128.130, 43.43.842, 18.88A.210 and 18.88A.230. 96-14-003 (Order 3984), § 388-76-795, filed 6/19/96, effective 7/20/96.]

GENERAL

WAC 388-78A-2010 Purpose. This chapter is written to implement chapter 18.20 RCW, to promote the safety and well-being of boarding home residents, to specify standards for boarding home operators, and to further establish requirements for the operation of boarding homes.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2010, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2020 Definitions. "Abandonment" means action or inaction by a person with a duty of care for a vulnerable adult that leaves the vulnerable person without the means or ability to obtain necessary food, clothing, shelter, or health care.

"Abuse" means the willful action or inaction that inflicts injury, unreasonable confinement, intimidation, or punishment on a resident. In instances of abuse of a resident who is unable to express or demonstrate physical harm, pain, or mental anguish, the abuse is presumed to cause physical harm, pain, or mental anguish. Abuse includes sexual abuse, mental abuse, physical abuse, and exploitation of a resident, which have the following meanings:

(1) "Mental abuse" means any willful action or inaction of mental or verbal abuse. Mental abuse includes, but is not limited to, coercion, harassment, inappropriately isolating a resident from family, friends, or regular activity, and verbal assault that includes ridiculing, intimidating, yelling, or swearing;

(2) "Physical abuse" means the willful action of inflicting bodily injury or physical mistreatment. Physical abuse includes, but is not limited to, striking with or without an object, slapping, pinching, choking, kicking, shoving, prodding, or the use of chemical restraints or physical restraints;

(3) "Sexual abuse" means any form of nonconsensual sexual contact, including, but not limited to, unwanted or inappropriate touching, rape, sodomy, sexual coercion, sexually explicit photographing, and sexual harassment. Sexual abuse includes any sexual contact between a staff person and a resident, whether or not it is consensual;

(4) "Exploitation" means an act of forcing, compelling, or exerting undue influence over a resident causing the resident to act in a way that is inconsistent with relevant past behavior, or causing the resident to perform services for the benefit of another;

(5) "Financial exploitation" means the illegal or improper use of the property, income, resources, or trust funds of the vulnerable adult by any person for any person's profit or advantage.

"Activities of daily living" means the following tasks related to basic personal care: Bathing; toileting; dressing; personal hygiene; mobility; transferring; and eating.

"Adult day services" means care and services provided to a nonresident individual by the boarding home on the boarding home premises, for a period of time not to exceed ten continuous hours, and does not involve an overnight stay.

"Ambulatory" means capable of walking or traversing a normal path to safety without the physical assistance of another individual:

(1) "Nonambulatory" means unable to walk or traverse a normal path to safety without the physical assistance of another individual;

(2) "Semiambulatory" means physically and mentally capable of traversing a normal path to safety with the use of mobility aids, but unable to ascend or descend stairs without the physical assistance of another individual.

"Applicant" means the person, as defined in this section, that has submitted, or is in the process of submitting, an application for a boarding home license.

"Basic services" means housekeeping services, meals, nutritious snacks, laundry, and activities.

"Bathing fixture" means a bathtub, shower or sit-down shower.

"Bathroom" means a room containing at least one bathing fixture.

"Boarding home" means any home or other institution, however named, which is advertised, announced, or maintained for the express or implied purpose of providing housing, basic services, and assuming general responsibility for the safety and well-being of the residents, and may also provide domiciliary care, consistent with this chapter to seven or more residents after July 1, 2000. However, a boarding home that is licensed for three to six residents prior to or on July 1, 2000, may maintain its boarding home license as long as it is continually licensed as a boarding home. "Boarding home" does not include facilities certified as group training homes pursuant to RCW 71A.22.040, nor any home, institution or section thereof which is otherwise licensed and regulated under the provisions of state law providing specifically for the licensing and regulation of such home, institution or section thereof. Nor shall it include any independent senior housing, independent living units in continuing care retirement communities, or other similar living situations including those subsidized by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. "Boarding home" may also include persons associated with the boarding home to carry out its duties under this chapter.

"Building code" means the building codes and standards adopted by the Washington state building code council.

"Caregiver" means anyone providing hands-on personal care to another person including, but not limited to: Cuing, reminding or supervision of residents, on behalf of a boarding home, except volunteers who are directly supervised. Direct supervision means oversight by a person who has demonstrated competency in the basic training (and specialty training if required), or who has been exempted from the basic training requirements, is on the premises, and is quickly and easily available to the caregiver.

"Construction review services" means the office of construction review services within the Washington state department of health.

"Continuing care contract" means, as stated in RCW 70.38.025, a contract providing a person, for the duration of that person's life or for a term in excess of one year, shelter along with nursing, medical, health-related, or personal care services, which is conditioned upon the transfer of property, the payment of an entrance fee to the provider of such services, or the payment of periodic charges for the care and services involved. A continuing care contract is not excluded from this definition because the contract is mutually terminable or because shelter and services are not provided at the same location.

"Continuing care retirement community" means, as stated in RCW 70.38.025, an entity which provides shelter and services under continuing care contracts with its members and which sponsors or includes a health care facility or a health service.

"Contractor" means an agency or person who contracts with a licensee to provide resident care, services or equipment.

"Crimes relating to financial exploitation" means the same as "crimes relating to financial exploitation" as defined in RCW 43.43.830 or 43.43.842.

"Department" means the Washington state department of social and health services.

"Dietitian" means an individual certified under chapter 18.138 RCW.

"Document" means to record, with signature, title, date and time:

(1) Information about medication administration, medication assistance or disposal, a nursing care procedure, accident, occurrence or change in resident condition that may affect the care or needs of a resident; and

(2) Processes, events or activities that are required by law, rule or policy.

"Domiciliary care" means:

(1) Assistance with activities of daily living provided by the boarding home either directly or indirectly; or

(2) Health support services, if provided directly or indirectly by the boarding home; or

(3) Intermittent nursing services, if provided directly or indirectly by the boarding home.

"Enforcement remedy" means one or more of the department's responses to a boarding home's noncompliance with chapter 18.20 RCW and this chapter, as authorized by RCW 18.20.190.

"Food service worker" means according to chapter 246-217 WAC an individual who works (or intends to work) with or without pay in a food service establishment and handles unwrapped or unpackaged food or who may contribute to the transmission of infectious diseases through the nature of his/her contact with food products and/or equipment and facilities. This does not include persons who simply assist residents with meals.

"General responsibility for the safety and well-being of the resident" means the provision of the following:

(1) Prescribed general low sodium diets;

(2) Prescribed general diabetic diets;

(3) Prescribed mechanical soft foods;

(4) Emergency assistance;

(5) Monitoring of the resident;

(6) Arranging health care appointments with outside health care providers and reminding residents of such appointments as necessary;

"Licensed resident bed capacity" means the resident occupancy level requested by the licensee and approved by the department. All residents receiving domiciliary care or the items or services listed under general responsibility for the safety and well-being of the resident as defined in this section count towards the licensed resident bed capacity. Adult day services clients do not count towards the licensed resident bed capacity.

"Majority owner" means any person that owns:

(1) More than fifty percent interest; or

(2) If no one person owns more than fifty percent interest, the largest interest portion; or

(3) If more than one person owns equal largest interest portions, then all persons owning those equal largest interest portions.

"Manager" means the person defined in this chapter, providing management services on behalf of the licensee.

"Management agreement" means a written, executed agreement between the licensee and the manager regarding the provision of certain services on behalf of the licensee.

"Maximum facility capacity" means the maximum number of individuals that the boarding home may serve at any one time, as determined by the department.

(1) The maximum facility capacity includes all residents and respite care residents and adult day services clients.

(2) The maximum facility capacity is equal to the lesser of:

(a) The sum of the number of approved bed spaces for all resident rooms (total number of approved bed spaces), except as specified in subsection (3); or

(b) Twice the seating capacity of the dining area(s) consistent with WAC 388-78A-2300 (1)(h); or

(c) The number of residents permitted by calculating the ratios of toilets, sinks, and bathing fixtures to residents consistent with WAC 388-78A-3030; or

(d) For boarding homes licensed on or before December 31, 1988, the total day room area in square feet divided by ten square feet, consistent with WAC 388-78A-3050; or

(e) For boarding homes licensed after December 31, 1988, the total day room area in square feet divided by twenty square feet, consistent with WAC 388-78A-3050.

(3) For the purposes of providing adult day services consistent with WAC 388-78A-2360, one additional adult day services client may be served, beyond the total number of approved bed spaces, for each additional sixty square feet of day room area greater than the area produced by multiplying the total number of approved bed spaces by twenty square feet, provided that:

(a) There is a least one toilet and one hand washing sink accessible to adult day services clients for every eight adult day services clients or fraction thereof;

(b) The total number of residents and adult day services clients does not exceed twice the seating capacity of the dining area(s) consistent with WAC 388-78A-2300 (1)(h); and

(c) The adult day services program area(s) and building do not exceed the occupancy load as determined by the local building official or state fire marshal.

"Medication administration" means the direct application of a prescribed medication whether by injection, inhalation, ingestion, or other means, to the body of the resident by an individual legally authorized to do so.

"Medication assistance" means assistance with self-administration of medication rendered by a nonpractitioner to a resident of a boarding home in accordance with chapter 246-888 WAC.

"Medication organizer" means a container with separate compartments for storing oral medications organized in daily doses.

"Medication service" means any service provided either directly or indirectly by a boarding home related to medication administration, medication administration provided through nurse delegation, medication assistance, or resident self-administration of medication.

"Neglect" means:

(1) A pattern of conduct or inaction resulting in the failure to provide the goods and services that maintain physical or mental health of a resident, or that fails to avoid or prevent physical or mental harm or pain to a resident; or

(2) An act or omission that demonstrates a serious disregard of consequences of such a magnitude as to constitute a clear and present danger to the resident's health, welfare, or safety.

"Nonresident individual" means an individual who resides in independent senior housing, independent living units in continuing care retirement communities, or in other similar living environments or in a boarding home and may receive one or more of the services listed in WAC 388-78A-2030 (2)(a) through (g). A nonresident individual may not receive domiciliary care as defined in this section, directly or indirectly by the boarding home, and may not receive the items or services listed under general responsibility for the safety and well-being of the resident as defined in this section, except during the time the person is receiving adult day services as defined in this section.

tion, except during the time the person is receiving adult day services as defined in this section.

"Prescriber" means a health care practitioner authorized by Washington state law to prescribe drugs.

"Problem" means a violation of any WAC or RCW applicable to the operation of a boarding home:

(1) "Recurring problem" means, for all purposes other than those described in RCW 18.20.400, that the department has cited the boarding home for a violation of WAC or RCW and the circumstances of (a) or (b) of this subsection are present:

(a) The department previously imposed an enforcement remedy for a violation of the same section of WAC or RCW for substantially the same problem following any type of inspection within the preceding thirty-six months; or

(b) The department previously cited a violation under the same section of WAC or RCW for substantially the same problem following any type of inspection on two occasions within the preceding thirty-six months.

(c) If the previous violation in (a) or (b) of this subsection was pursuant to WAC or RCW that has changed at the time of the new violation, citation to the equivalent current WAC or RCW section is sufficient.

(d) When there is a change in licensees between the first and the second or third citations, the new licensee must accept, and the department will consider, the prior licensee's compliance and enforcement record as part of the new licensee's compliance record at that boarding home if any person affiliated with the new licensee was affiliated with the prior licensee at the same boarding home. A person is considered affiliated with the licensee if the person is an applicant for the boarding home license, or is listed on the license application as a partner, officer, director, or majority owner of the applicant.

(2) "Serious problem" means:

(a) There has been a violation of a WAC or RCW; and

(b) Significant harm has actually occurred to a resident;
or

(c) It is likely that significant harm or death will occur to a resident.

(3) "Uncorrected problem" means the department has cited a violation of WAC or RCW following any type of inspection and the violation remains uncorrected at the time the department makes a subsequent inspection for the specific purpose of verifying whether such violation has been corrected. When a change in licensees occurs, the new licensee is responsible for correcting any remaining violations that may exist, including complying with any plan of correction in effect immediately prior to the change in licensees.

"Prospective resident" means an individual who is seeking admission to a licensed boarding home and who has completed and signed an application for admission, or such application for admission has been completed and signed in their behalf by their legal representative if any, and if not, then the designated representative if any.

"Reasonable accommodation" and "reasonably accommodate" have the meaning given in federal and state antidiscrimination laws and regulations which include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Reasonable accommodation means that the boarding home must:

(a) Not impose admission criteria that excludes individuals unless the criteria is necessary for the provision of boarding home services;

(b) Make reasonable modification to its policies, practices or procedures if the modifications are necessary to accommodate the needs of the resident;

WAC 388-78A-2030 Applicability. (1) A person must have a boarding home license issued by the department under chapter 18.20 RCW and this chapter, except as otherwise exempted by RCW 18.20.170 and subsection (2) of this section, if the person advertises as, or operates, or maintains a facility that meets the definition of a "boarding home" in this chapter, within Washington state and provides housing, one or more basic services, and one or more of the following:

- (a) Assumes general responsibility for the safety and well-being of the residents;
- (b) Provides assistance with activities of daily living, either directly or indirectly;
- (c) Provides health support services, either directly or indirectly; or
- (d) Provides intermittent nursing services, either directly or indirectly.

(2) A boarding home license is not required for one or more of the following services that may be provided to a nonresident individual. These services may not include continual care or supervision of a nonresident individual without a boarding home license:

- (a) Emergency assistance provided on an intermittent or nonroutine basis to any nonresident individual; or
- (b) Systems employed by independent senior housing, or independent living units in continuing care retirement communities, to respond to the potential need for emergency services for nonresident individuals; or
- (c) Infrequent, voluntary, and nonscheduled blood pressure checks for nonresident individuals; or
- (d) Nurse referral services provided at the request of a nonresident individual to determine whether referral to an outside health care provider is recommended; or
- (e) Making health care appointments at the request of nonresident individuals; or
- (f) Preadmission assessment, at the request of the nonresident individual; or
- (g) Services customarily provided under landlord tenant agreements governed by the Residential Landlord-Tenant Act, chapter 59.18 RCW; or
- (h) Housing nonresident individuals who, without ongoing assistance from the boarding home, initiate and arrange for services with a practitioner licensed under Title 18 RCW or a home health, hospice, or home care agency licensed under chapter 70.127 RCW, or other persons as permitted by the boarding home.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 424]

(3) This section does not prohibit a boarding home from furnishing written information concerning available community resources to nonresident individuals or the individual's family members or legal representatives. However, the boarding home may not require the use of any particular service provider.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2030, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2040 Other requirements. (1) The boarding home must comply with all other applicable federal, state, county and municipal statutes, rules, codes and ordinances, including without limitations those that prohibit discrimination.

(2) The boarding home must have its building approved by the Washington state fire marshal in order to be licensed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2040, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2050 Resident characteristics. The boarding home may admit and retain an individual as a resident in a boarding home only if:

(1) The boarding home can safely and appropriately serve the individual with appropriate available staff providing:

(a) The scope of care and services described in the boarding home's disclosure information, except if the boarding home chooses to provide additional services consistent with RCW 18.20.300(4); and

(b) The reasonable accommodations required by state or federal law, including providing any specialized training to caregivers that may be required according to WAC 388-78A-2490 through 388-78A-2510;

(2) The individual does not require the frequent presence and frequent evaluation of a registered nurse, excluding those individuals who are receiving hospice care or individuals who have a short-term illness that is expected to be resolved within fourteen days as long as the boarding home has the capacity to meet the individual's identified needs; and

(3) The individual is ambulatory, unless the boarding home is approved by the Washington state director of fire protection to care for semiambulatory or nonambulatory residents.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090, 06-01-047, § 388-78A-2050, filed 12/15/05, effective 1/15/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2050, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

ASSESSMENT AND MONITORING

WAC 388-78A-2060 Preadmission assessment. The boarding home must conduct a preadmission assessment for each prospective resident that includes the following information, unless unavailable despite the best efforts of the boarding home:

- (1) Medical history;
- (2) Necessary and contraindicated medications;
- (3) A licensed medical or health professional's diagnosis, unless the individual objects for religious reasons;
- (4) Significant known behaviors or symptoms that may cause concern or require special care;

- (5) Mental illness diagnosis, except where protected by confidentiality laws;
- (6) Level of personal care needs;
- (7) Activities and service preferences; and
- (8) Preferences regarding other issues important to the applicant, such as food and daily routine.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2060, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2070 Timing of preadmission assessment. (1) Unless there is an emergency, the boarding home must complete the preadmission assessment of the prospective resident before each prospective resident moves into the boarding home.

(2) The boarding home must ensure the preadmission assessment is completed within five calendar days of the resident moving into the boarding home when the resident moves in under emergency conditions.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "emergency" means any circumstances when the prospective resident would otherwise need to remain in an unsafe setting or be without adequate and safe housing.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2070, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2080 Qualified assessor. The boarding home must ensure the person responsible for completing a preadmission assessment of a prospective resident:

(1) Has a master's degree in social services, human services, behavioral sciences or an allied field and two years social service experience working with adults who have functional or cognitive disabilities; or

(2) Has a bachelor's degree in social services, human services, behavioral sciences, or an allied field and three years social service experience working with adults who have functional or cognitive disabilities; or

(3) Has a valid Washington state license to practice nursing, in accordance with chapters 18.79 RCW and 246-840 WAC; or

(4) Is a physician with a valid state license to practice medicine; or

(5) Has three years of successful experience acquired prior to September 1, 2004, assessing prospective and current boarding home residents in a setting licensed by a state agency for the care of vulnerable adults, such as a nursing home, boarding home, or adult family home, or a setting having a contract with a recognized social service agency for the provision of care to vulnerable adults, such as supported living.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2080, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2090 Full assessment topics. The boarding home must obtain sufficient information to be able to assess the capabilities, needs, and preferences for each resident, and must complete a full assessment addressing the following, within fourteen days of the resident's move-in date, unless extended by the department for good cause:

(1) Individual's recent medical history, including, but not limited to:

- (a) A licensed medical or health professional's diagnosis, unless the resident objects for religious reasons;
- (b) Chronic, current, and potential skin conditions; or
- (c) Known allergies to foods or medications, or other considerations for providing care or services.

(2) Currently necessary and contraindicated medications and treatments for the individual, including:

(a) Any prescribed medications, and over-the-counter medications commonly taken by the individual, that the individual is able to independently self-administer, or safely and accurately direct others to administer to him/her;

(b) Any prescribed medications, and over-the-counter medications commonly taken by the individual, that the individual is able to self-administer when he/she has the assistance of a caregiver; and

(c) Any prescribed medications, and over-the-counter medications commonly taken by the individual, that the individual is not able to self-administer, and needs to have administered to him or her.

(3) The individual's nursing needs when the individual requires the services of a nurse on the boarding home premises.

(4) Individual's sensory abilities, including:

(a) Vision; and

(b) Hearing.

(5) Individual's communication abilities, including:

(a) Modes of expression;

(b) Ability to make self understood; and

(c) Ability to understand others.

(6) Significant known behaviors or symptoms of the individual causing concern or requiring special care, including:

(a) History of substance abuse;

(b) History of harming self, others, or property; or

(c) Other conditions that may require behavioral intervention strategies;

(d) Individual's ability to leave the boarding home unsupervised; and

(e) Other safety considerations that may pose a danger to the individual or others, such as use of medical devices or the individual's ability to smoke unsupervised, if smoking is permitted in the boarding home.

(7) Individual's special needs, by evaluating available information, or if available information does not indicate the presence of special needs, selecting and using an appropriate tool, to determine the presence of symptoms consistent with, and implications for care and services of:

(a) Mental illness, or needs for psychological or mental health services, except where protected by confidentiality laws;

(b) Developmental disability;

(c) Dementia. While screening a resident for dementia, the boarding home must:

(i) Base any determination that the resident has short-term memory loss upon objective evidence; and

(ii) Document the evidence in the resident's record.

(d) Other conditions affecting cognition, such as traumatic brain injury.

(8) Individual's level of personal care needs, including:

(a) Ability to perform activities of daily living;

(b) Medication management ability, including:

(i) The individual's ability to obtain and appropriately use over-the-counter medications; and

(ii) How the individual will obtain prescribed medications for use in the boarding home.

(9) Individual's activities, typical daily routines, habits and service preferences.

(10) Individual's personal identity and lifestyle, to the extent the individual is willing to share the information, and the manner in which they are expressed, including preferences regarding food, community contacts, hobbies, spiritual preferences, or other sources of pleasure and comfort.

(11) Who has decision-making authority for the individual, including:

(a) The presence of any advance directive, or other legal document that will establish a substitute decision maker in the future;

(b) The presence of any legal document that establishes a current substitute decision maker; and

(c) The scope of decision-making authority of any substitute decision maker.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2090, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2100 On-going assessments. The boarding home must:

(1) Complete a full assessment addressing the elements set forth in WAC 388-78A-2090 for each resident at least annually;

(2) Complete an assessment specifically focused on a resident's identified problems and related issues:

(a) Consistent with the resident's change of condition as specified in WAC 388-78A-2120;

(b) When the resident's negotiated service agreement no longer addresses the resident's current needs and preferences;

(c) When the resident has an injury requiring the intervention of a practitioner.

(3) Ensure the staff person performing the on-going assessments is qualified to perform them.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090. 06-01-047, § 388-78A-2100, filed 12/15/05, effective 1/15/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2100, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2110 Resident participation in assessments. The boarding home must directly involve each resident or prospective resident, to the extent possible, along with any appropriate resident representative to the extent he or she is willing and capable, in the preadmission assessment and on-going assessment process.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2110, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2120 Monitoring residents' well-being. The boarding home must:

(1) Observe each resident consistent with his or her assessed needs and negotiated service agreement;

(2) Identify any changes in the resident's physical, emotional, and mental functioning that are a:

(a) Departure from the resident's customary range of functioning; or

[Title 388 WAC—p. 426]

(b) Recurring condition in a resident's physical, emotional, or mental functioning that has previously required intervention by others.

(3) Evaluate, in order to determine if there is a need for further action:

(a) The changes identified in the resident per subsection (2) of this section; and

(b) Each resident when an accident or incident that is likely to adversely affect the resident's well-being, is observed by or reported to staff persons.

(4) Take appropriate action in response to each resident's changing needs.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090. 06-01-047, § 388-78A-2120, filed 12/15/05, effective 1/15/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2120, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

NEGOTIATED SERVICE AGREEMENT

WAC 388-78A-2130 Service agreement planning.

The boarding home must:

(1) Develop an initial resident service plan, based upon discussions with the resident and the resident's representative if the resident has one, and the preadmission assessment of a qualified assessor, upon admitting a resident into a boarding home. The boarding home must ensure the initial resident service plan:

(a) Integrates the assessment information provided by the department's case manager for each resident whose care is partially or wholly funded by the department;

(b) Identifies the resident's immediate needs; and

(c) Provides direction to staff and caregivers relating to the resident's immediate needs, capabilities, and preferences.

(2) Complete the negotiated service agreement for each resident using the resident's preadmission assessment, initial resident service plan, and full assessment information, within thirty days of the resident moving in;

(3) Review and update each resident's negotiated service agreement consistent with WAC 388-78A-2120:

(a) Within a reasonable time consistent with the needs of the resident following any change in the resident's physical, mental, or emotional functioning; and

(b) Whenever the negotiated service agreement no longer adequately addresses the resident's current assessed needs and preferences.

(4) Review and update each resident's negotiated service agreement as necessary following an annual full assessment;

(5) Involve the following persons in the process of developing and updating a negotiated service agreement:

(a) The resident;

(b) The resident's representative to the extent he or she is willing and capable, if the resident has one;

(c) Other individuals the resident wants included;

(d) The department's case manager, if the resident is a recipient of Medicaid assistance, or any private case manager, if available; and

(e) Staff designated by the boarding home.

(6) Ensure:

(a) Individuals participating in developing the resident's negotiated service agreement:

(2007 Ed.)

(i) Discuss the resident's assessed needs, capabilities, and preferences; and

(ii) Negotiate and agree upon the care and services to be provided to support the resident; and

(b) Staff persons document in the resident's record the agreed upon plan for services.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2130, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2140 Negotiated service agreement contents. The boarding home must develop, and document in the resident's record, the agreed upon plan to address and support each resident's assessed capabilities, needs and preferences, including the following:

(1) The care and services necessary to meet the resident's needs, including:

(a) The plan to monitor the resident and address interventions for current risks to the resident's health and safety that were identified in one or more of the following:

(i) The resident's preadmission assessment;

(ii) The resident's full assessments;

(iii) On-going assessments of the resident;

(b) The plan to provide assistance with activities of daily living, if provided by the boarding home;

(c) The plan to provide necessary intermittent nursing services, if provided by the boarding home;

(d) The plan to provide necessary health support services, if provided by the boarding home;

(e) The resident's preferences for how services will be provided, supported and accommodated by the boarding home.

(2) Clearly defined respective roles and responsibilities of the resident, the boarding home staff, and resident's family or other significant persons in meeting the resident's needs and preferences. Except as specified in WAC 388-78A-2290 and 388-78A-2340(5), if a person other than a caregiver is to be responsible for providing care or services to the resident in the boarding home, the boarding home must specify in the negotiated service agreement an alternate plan for providing care or service to the resident in the event the necessary services are not provided. The boarding home may develop an alternate plan:

(a) Exclusively for the individual resident; or

(b) Based on standard policies and procedures in the boarding home provided that they are consistent with the reasonable accommodation requirements of state and federal law.

(3) The times services will be delivered, including frequency and approximate time of day, as appropriate;

(4) The resident's preferences for activities and how those preferences will be supported;

(5) Appropriate behavioral interventions, if needed;

(6) A communication plan, if special communication needs are present;

(7) The resident's ability to leave the boarding home premises unsupervised; and

(8) The boarding home must not require or ask the resident or the resident's representative to sign any negotiated service or risk agreement, that purports to waive any rights of the resident or that purports to place responsibility or liability for losses of personal property or injury on the resident.

WAC 388-78A-2160 Implementation of negotiated service agreement. The boarding home must provide the care and services as agreed upon in the negotiated service agreement to each resident unless a deviation from the negotiated service agreement is mutually agreed upon between the boarding home and the resident or the resident's representative at the time the care or services are scheduled.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2160, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

BOARDING HOME SERVICES

WAC 388-78A-2170 Required boarding home services. (1) The boarding home must provide housing and assume general responsibility for the safety and well-being of each resident, as defined in this chapter, consistent with the resident's assessed needs and negotiated service agreement.

(2) The boarding homes must provide each resident with the following basic services, consistent with the resident's assessed needs and negotiated service agreement:

(a) Activities - Arranging for activities in accordance with WAC 388-78A-2180;

(b) Housekeeping - Providing a safe, clean and comfortable environment for each resident, including personal living quarters and all other resident accessible areas of the building;

(c) Laundry - Keeping the resident's clothing clean and in good repair, and laundering towels, washcloths, bed linens on a weekly basis or more often as necessary to maintain cleanliness;

(d) Meals - Providing meals in accordance with WAC 388-78A-2300; and

(e) Nutritious snacks - Providing nutritious snack items on a scheduled and nonscheduled basis, and providing nutritious snacks in accordance with WAC 388-78A-2300.

(3) The boarding home must:

(a) Provide care and services to each resident by staff persons who are able to communicate with the resident in a language the resident understands; or

(b) Make provisions for communications between staff persons and residents to ensure an accurate exchange of information.

(4) The boarding home must ensure each resident is able to obtain individually preferred personal care items when:

(a) The preferred personal care items are reasonably available; and

(b) The resident is willing and able to pay for obtaining the preferred items.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2170, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2180 Activities. The boarding home must:

(1) Provide space and staff support necessary for:

(a) Each resident to engage in independent or self-directed activities that are appropriate to the setting, consistent with the resident's assessed interests, functional abilities, preferences, and negotiated service agreement; and

(b) Group activities at least three times per week that may be planned and facilitated by caregivers consistent with the collective interests of a group of residents.

(2) Make available routine supplies and equipment necessary for activities described in subsection (1) of this section.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2180, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2190 Activities of daily living. Assistance with activities of daily living is an optional service that the boarding home may provide.

(1) If a boarding home chooses not to provide assistance with activities of daily living:

(a) The boarding home must admit or retain only those residents who are independent in activities of daily living; except that

(b) A resident, or the resident's representative, may independently arrange for outside services to assist with activities of daily living.

(2) When a boarding home chooses to provide, either directly or indirectly, assistance with activities of daily living, the boarding home must provide that assistance consistent with the reasonable accommodation requirements in state and federal laws.

(3) When a boarding home chooses to provide, either directly or indirectly, assistance with activities of daily living, the boarding home must provide to each resident, consistent with the resident's assessed needs, minimal assistance with the following activities of daily living:

(a) Bathing: Minimal assistance with bathing means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminding or cuing to wash and dry all areas of the body as needed;

(ii) Stand-by assistance getting into and out of the tub or shower; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during the activity.

(b) Dressing: Minimal assistance with dressing means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminding or cuing to put on, take off, or lay out clothing, including prostheses when the assistance of a licensed nurse is not required;

(ii) Stand-by assistance during the activity; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during the activity.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 428]

(c) Eating: Minimal assistance with eating means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminding or cuing to eat and drink; and

(ii) Physical assistance limited to cutting food up, preparing food and beverages, and bringing food and fluids to the resident.

(d) Personal hygiene: Minimal assistance with personal hygiene means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminding and cuing to comb hair, perform oral care and brush teeth, shave, apply makeup, and wash and dry face, hands and other areas of the body;

(ii) Stand-by assistance during the activity; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during the activity.

(e) Transferring: Minimal assistance in transferring means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminders or cuing to move between surfaces, for example to and from the bed, chair and standing;

(ii) Stand-by assistance during the activity; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during self-transfers.

(f) Toileting: Minimal assistance in toileting means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminders and cuing to toilet, including resident self-care of ostomy or catheter, to wipe and cleanse, and to change and adjust clothing, protective garments and pads;

(ii) Stand-by assistance during the activity; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during the activity.

(g) Mobility: Minimal assistance in mobility means the boarding home must provide the resident with occasional:

(i) Reminding or cuing to move between locations on the boarding home premises;

(ii) Stand-by assistance during the activity; and

(iii) Physical assistance limited to steadying the resident during the activity.

(4) The boarding home may choose to provide more than minimal assistance with activities of daily living consistent with state and federal law.

WAC 388-78A-2200 Health support services. Health support services are an optional service that the boarding home may provide. The boarding home may choose to provide any of the following health support services; however, a boarding home may or may not need to provide additional health support services to comply with the reasonable accommodation requirements in federal and state law. The boarding home may provide:

(1) Blood glucose testing;

(2) Puree diets;

(3) Calorie controlled diabetic diets;

(4) Dementia care;

(5) Mental health care; and

(6) Developmental disabilities care.

Medications

WAC 388-78A-2210 Medication services. (1) A boarding home providing medication service, either directly or indirectly, must:

(a) Meet the requirements of chapter 69.41 RCW Legend drugs—Prescription drugs, and other applicable statutes and administrative rules; and

(b) Develop and implement systems that support and promote safe medication service for each resident.

(2) The boarding home must ensure the following residents receive their medications as prescribed, except as provided for in WAC 388-78A-2230 and 388-78A-2250:

(a) Each resident who requires medication assistance and his or her negotiated service agreement indicates the boarding home will provide medication assistance; and

(b) If the boarding home provides medication administration services, each resident who requires medication administration and his or her negotiated service agreement indicates the boarding home will provide medication administration.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2210, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2220 Prescribed medication authorizations. (1) Before the boarding home may provide medication assistance or medication administration to a resident for prescribed medications, the boarding home must have one of the following:

(a) A prescription label completed by a licensed pharmacy;

(b) A written order from the prescriber;

(c) A facsimile or other electronic transmission of the order from the prescriber; or

(d) Written documentation by a nurse of a telephone order from the prescriber.

(2) The documentation required above in subsection (1) of this section must include the following information:

(a) The name of the resident;

(b) The name of the medication;

(c) The dosage and dosage frequency of the medication; and

(d) The name of the prescriber.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2220, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2230 Medication refusal. (1) When a resident who is receiving medication assistance or medication administration services from the boarding home chooses to not take his or her medications, the boarding home must:

(a) Respect the resident's right to choose not to take medication;

(b) Document the time, date and medication the resident did not take;

(c) Notify the physician of the refusal and follow any instructions provided, unless there is a staff person available who, acting within his or her scope of practice, is able to evaluate the significance of the resident not getting his or her medication, and such staff person;

(i) Conducts an evaluation; and

(2007 Ed.)

(ii) Takes the appropriate action, including notifying the prescriber or primary care practitioner when there is a consistent pattern of the resident choosing to not take his or her medications.

(2) The boarding home must comply with subsection (1) of this section, unless the prescriber or primary care practitioner has provided the boarding home with:

(a) Specific directions for addressing the refusal of the identified medication;

(b) The boarding home documents such directions; and

(c) The boarding home is able to fully comply with such directions.

WAC 388-78A-2240 Nonavailability of medications.

When the boarding home has assumed responsibility for obtaining a resident's prescribed medications, the boarding home must obtain them in a correct and timely manner.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2240, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2250 Alteration of medications. The boarding home must generally provide medications in the form they are prescribed when administering medications or providing medication assistance to a resident. The boarding home may provide medications in an altered form consistent with the following:

(1) Alteration includes, but is not limited to, crushing tablets, cutting tablets in half, opening capsules, mixing powdered medications with foods or liquids, or mixing tablets or capsules with foods or liquids.

(2) Residents must be aware that the medication is being altered or added to their food.

(3) A pharmacist or other practitioner practicing within their scope of practice must determine that it is safe to alter a medication.

(4) If the medication is altered, documentation of the appropriateness of the alteration must be on the prescription container, or in the resident's record.

(5) Alteration of medications for self-administration with assistance is provided in accordance with chapter 246-888 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2250, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2260 Storing, securing, and accounting for medications. (1) The boarding home must secure medications for residents who are not capable of safely storing their own medications.

(2) The boarding home must ensure all medications under the boarding home's control are properly stored:

(a) In containers with pharmacist-prepared label or original manufacturer's label;

(b) Together for each resident and physically separated from other residents' medications;

(c) Separate from food or toxic chemicals;

(d) In a locked compartment that is accessible only to designated responsible staff persons; and

(e) In environments recommended on the medication label.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2260, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2270 Resident controlled medications. (1) The boarding home must ensure all medications are stored in a manner that prevents each resident from gaining access to another resident's medications.

(2) The boarding home must allow a resident to control and secure the medications that he or she self-administers or self-administers with assistance if the boarding home assesses the resident to be capable of safely and appropriately storing his or her own medications and the resident desires to do so.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090. 06-01-047, § 388-78A-2270, filed 12/15/05, effective 1/15/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2270, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2280 Medication organizers. (1) The boarding home must ensure no staff person other than a nurse or licensed pharmacist fills medication organizers for residents.

(2) The boarding home must ensure that any nurse who fills a medication organizer for a resident labels the medication organizer with:

- (a) The name of the resident;
- (b) The name of the medications in the organizer; and
- (c) The frequency of the dosage.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090. 06-01-047, § 388-78A-2280, filed 12/15/05, effective 1/15/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2280, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2290 Family assistance with medications and treatments. (1) A boarding home may permit a resident's family member to administer medications or treatments or to provide medication or treatment assistance, including obtaining medications or treatment supplies, to the resident.

(2) The boarding home must disclose to the department, residents, the residents' legal representatives, if any, and if not the residents' representative if any, and to interested consumers upon request, information describing whether the boarding home permits such family administration or assistance and, if so, the extent of any limitations or conditions.

(3) If the boarding home allows family assistance with or administration of medications and treatments, and the resident and a family member(s) agree a family member will provide medication or treatment assistance, or medication or treatment administration to the resident, the boarding home must request that the family member submit to the boarding home a written plan for such assistance or administration that includes at a minimum:

- (a) By name, the family member who will provide the medication or treatment assistance or administration;
- (b) A description of the medication or treatment assistance or administration that the family member will provide, to be referred to as the primary plan;

(c) An alternate plan if the family member is unable to fulfill his or her duties as specified in the primary plan;

(d) An emergency contact person and telephone number if the boarding home observes changes in the resident's overall functioning or condition that may relate to the medication or treatment plan; and

(e) Other information determined necessary by the boarding home.

(4) The plan for family assistance with medications or treatments must be signed and dated by:

- (a) The resident, if able;
- (b) The resident's representative, if any;
- (c) The resident's family member responsible for implementing the plan; and

(d) A representative of the boarding home authorized by the boarding home to sign on its behalf.

(5) The boarding home may, through policy or procedure, require the resident's family member to immediately notify the boarding home of any changes in the medication or treatment plans for family assistance or administration.

(6) The boarding home must require that whenever a resident's family provides medication assistance or medication administration services, the resident's significant medications remain on the boarding home premises whenever the resident is on the boarding home premises.

(7) The boarding home's duty of care shall be limited to: Observation of the resident for changes in overall functioning consistent with RCW 18.20.280; notification to the person or persons identified in RCW 70.129.030 when there are observed changes in the resident's overall functioning or condition, or when the boarding home is aware that both the primary and alternate plan are not implemented; and appropriately responding to obtain needed assistance when there are observable or reported changes in the resident's physical or mental functioning.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2290, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

Food

WAC 388-78A-2300 Food and nutrition services. (1) The boarding home must:

- (a) Provide a minimum of three meals a day:
 - (i) At regular intervals;
 - (ii) With no more than fourteen hours between the evening meal and breakfast, unless the boarding home provides a nutritious snack after the evening meal and before breakfast.
- (b) Provide sufficient time and staff support for residents to consume meals;
- (c) Ensure all menus:
 - (i) Are written at least one week in advance and delivered to residents' rooms or posted where residents can see them, except as specified in (f) of this subsection;
 - (ii) Indicate the date, day of week, month and year;
 - (iii) Include all food and snacks served that contribute to nutritional requirements;
 - (iv) Are kept at least six months;
 - (v) Provide a variety of foods; and
 - (vi) Are not repeated for at least three weeks, except that breakfast menus in boarding homes that provide a variety of daily choices of hot and cold foods are not required to have a minimum three-week cycle.

(d) Prepare on-site, or provide through a contract with a food service establishment located in the vicinity and that meets the requirements of chapter 246-215 WAC, palatable, attractively served meals and nourishments that meet the current recommended dietary allowances established by the Food and Nutrition Board, National Research Council, adjusted for:

- (i) Age, gender and activities, unless medically contraindicated; and
- (ii) Individual preferences to the extent reasonably possible.

(e) Substitute foods, when changes in the current day's menu are necessary, of equal nutrient value and record changes on the original menu;

(f) Make available and known to residents alternate choices in entrees for midday and evening meals that are of comparable quality and nutritional value. The boarding home is not required to post alternate choices in entrees on the menu one week in advance, but must record on the menus the alternate choices in entrees that are served;

(g) Develop, make known to residents, and implement a process for residents to express their views and comment on the food services; and

(h) Maintain a dining area or areas approved by the department with a seating capacity for fifty percent or more of the residents per meal setting, or ten square feet times the licensed resident bed capacity, whichever is greater.

(2) The boarding home must plan in writing, prepare on-site or provide through a contract with a food service establishment located in the vicinity that meets the requirements of chapter 246-215 WAC, and serve to each resident as ordered:

(a) Prescribed general low sodium, general diabetic, and mechanical soft food diets according to a diet manual. The boarding home must ensure the diet manual is:

- (i) Available to and used by staff persons responsible for food preparation;
- (ii) Approved by a dietitian; and
- (iii) Reviewed and updated as necessary or at least every five years.

(b) Prescribed nutrient concentrates and supplements when prescribed in writing by a health care practitioner.

(3) The boarding home may provide to a resident at his or her request and as agreed upon in the resident's negotiated service agreement, nonprescribed:

- (a) Modified or therapeutic diets;
- (b) Nutritional concentrates or supplements.

Intermittent Nursing Services and Resident-Arranged Services

WAC 388-78A-2310 Intermittent nursing services.

(1) Intermittent nursing services are an optional service that the boarding home may provide.

(2) The boarding home may choose to provide any of the following intermittent nursing services through appropriately licensed and credentialed staff; however, the facility may or may not need to provide additional intermittent nursing services to comply with the reasonable accommodation requirements in federal or state law:

- (a) Medication administration;
- (b) Administration of health treatments;
- (c) Diabetic management;
- (d) Nonroutine ostomy care;
- (e) Tube feeding; and
- (f) Nurse delegation consistent with chapter 18.79 RCW.

(3) The boarding home must clarify on the disclosure form any limitations, additional services, or conditions that may apply under this section.

(4) In providing intermittent nursing services, the boarding home must observe the resident for changes in overall functioning and respond appropriately when there are observable or reported changes in the resident's physical, mental or emotional functioning.

(5) The boarding home may provide intermittent nursing services to the extent permitted by RCW 18.20.160.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2310, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2320 Intermittent nursing services systems. (1) When a boarding home provides intermittent nursing services to any resident, either directly or indirectly, the boarding home must:

- (a) Develop and implement systems that support and promote the safe practice of nursing for each resident; and
- (b) Ensure the requirements of chapters 18.79 RCW and 246-840 WAC are met.

(2) The boarding home providing nursing services, either directly or indirectly, must ensure that the nursing services systems include:

- (a) Nursing services supervision;
- (b) Nurse delegation, if provided;
- (c) Initial and on-going assessments of the nursing needs of each resident;

(d) Development of, and necessary amendments to, the nursing component of the negotiated service agreement for each resident;

(e) Implementation of the nursing component of each resident's negotiated service agreement; and

(f) Availability of the supervisor, in person, by pager, or by telephone, to respond to residents' needs on the boarding home premises as necessary.

(3) The boarding home must ensure that all nursing services, including nursing supervision, assessments, and delegation, are provided in accordance with applicable statutes and rules, including, but not limited to:

- (a) Chapter 18.79 RCW, Nursing care;
- (b) Chapter 18.88A RCW, Nursing assistants;

WAC 388-78A-2330 Tube feeding. (1) Tube feeding services are an optional service that a boarding home may provide.

(2) The boarding home must provide intermittent nursing services to develop and implement the nursing component of the negotiated service agreement, administer feedings and necessary medications, and provide routine care of the tube insertion site whenever any resident requiring tube feeding is not able to:

- (a) Independently and safely manage:
 - (i) Maintenance of the tube insertion site;
 - (ii) Necessary medication administration through the tube; and
 - (iii) Feeding administration through the tube.
- (b) Arrange for an outside resource to provide:
 - (i) Maintenance of the tube insertion site;
 - (ii) Necessary medication administration through the tube; and
 - (iii) Feeding administration through the tube.

(3) The boarding home is not required to provide nursing services to a resident simply because the resident requires tube feeding if the resident can either independently manage or arrange for an outside resource to perform the tasks specified in subsection (2)(a) and (b) of this section.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2330, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2340 Resident-arranged services. (1) The boarding home must allow a resident to arrange to receive on-site care and services from:

- (a) A practitioner, licensed under Title 18 RCW regulating health care professions; and
- (b) A home health, hospice, or home care agency licensed under chapter 70.127 RCW.

(2) The boarding home may permit the resident or the resident's legal representative, if any, to independently arrange for other persons to provide on-site care and services to the resident.

(3) The boarding home is not required to supervise the activities of a person providing care or services to a resident when the resident or resident's representative has independently arranged for or contracted with the person.

(4) The boarding home may establish policies and procedures that describe reasonable limitations, conditions, or requirements that must be met prior to an outside service provider being allowed on-site.

(5) When the resident or the resident's representative, if any, independently arranges for outside services under subsection (1) of this section, the boarding home's duty of care, and any negligence that may be attributed thereto, shall be limited to: The responsibilities described under subsection (3) of this section; observation of the resident for changes in overall functioning, consistent with RCW 18.20.280; notification to the person or persons identified in RCW 70.129.030 when there are observed changes in the resident's overall functioning or condition; and appropriately responding to obtain needed assistance when there are observable or reported changes in the resident's physical or mental functioning.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2340, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2350 Coordination of health care services. (1) The boarding home must coordinate services with external health care providers to meet the residents' needs, consistent with the resident's negotiated service agreement.

(2) The boarding home must develop, implement and inform residents of the boarding home's policies regarding how the boarding home interacts with external health care providers, including:

- (a) The conditions under which health care information regarding a resident will be shared with external health care providers, consistent with chapter 70.02 RCW; and
- (b) How residents' rights to privacy will be protected, including provisions for residents to authorize the release of health care information.

(3) The boarding home may disclose health care information about a resident to external health care providers without the resident's authorization if the conditions in RCW 70.02.050 are met.

(4) If the conditions in RCW 70.02.050 are not met, the boarding home must request, but may not require, a resident to authorize the boarding home and the external health care provider to share the resident's health care information when:

- (a) The boarding home becomes aware that a resident is receiving health care services from a source other than the boarding home; and
- (b) The resident has not previously authorized the boarding home to release health care information to an external health care provider.

(5) When a resident authorizes the release of health care information or resident authorization is not required under RCW 70.02.050, the boarding home must contact the external health care provider and coordinate services.

(6) When authorizations to release health care information are not obtained, or when an external health care provider is unresponsive to the boarding home's efforts to coordinate services, the boarding home must:

- (a) Document the boarding home's actions to coordinate services;
- (b) Provide notice to the resident of the risks of not allowing the boarding home to coordinate care with the external provider; and
- (c) Address known associated risks in the resident's negotiated service agreement.

(7) When coordinating care or services, the boarding home must:

(a) Integrate relevant information from the external provider into the resident's preadmission assessment and reassessment, and when appropriate, negotiated service agreement; and

(b) Respond appropriately when there are observable or reported changes in the resident's physical, mental, or emotional functioning.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2350, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

Service Delivery and Monitoring

Adult Day Services

WAC 388-78A-2360 Adult day services. (1) The boarding home may, but is not required to, provide an adult day services program for nonresidents.

(2) If adult day services are provided, the boarding home must:

(a) Ensure each adult day services client receives appropriate supervision and agreed upon care and services during the time spent in the day services program;

(b) Ensure the care and services provided to adult day services clients do not compromise the care and services provided to boarding home residents;

(c) Ensure the total number of residents plus adult day services clients does not exceed the boarding home's maximum facility capacity;

(d) Only accept adult day services clients who are appropriate for boarding home care and services, consistent with WAC 388-78A-2050;

(e) Provide sufficient furniture for the comfort of day services clients, in addition to furniture provided for residents;

(f) Notify appropriate individuals specified in the client's record and consistent with WAC 388-78A-2640 when there is a significant change in the condition of an adult day services client;

(g) Investigate and document incidents and accidents involving adult day services clients consistent with WAC 388-78A-2700;

(h) Maintain a separate register of adult day services clients; and

(i) Maintain a record for each adult day services client.

Dementia Care

WAC 388-78A-2370 Dementia care. (1) The boarding home must, to the fullest extent reasonably possible, obtain for each resident who has symptoms consistent with dementia as assessed per WAC 388-78A-2090(7):

(a) Information regarding the resident's significant life experiences, including:

(i) Family members or other significant relationships;

(ii) Education and training;

(iii) Employment and career experiences;

(iv) Religious or spiritual preferences;

(v) Familiar roles or sources of pride and pleasure.

(b) Information regarding the resident's ability or inability to:

(i) Articulate his or her personal needs; and

(ii) Initiate activity.

(c) Information regarding any patterns of resident behavior that express the resident's needs or concerns that the resident is not able to verbalize. Examples of such behaviors include, but are not limited to:

(i) Agitation;

(ii) Wandering;

(iii) Resistance to care;

(iv) Social isolation; and

(v) Aggression.

(2) The boarding home, in consultation with the resident's family or others familiar with the resident, must evaluate the significance and implications of the information obtained per subsection (1) of this section and integrate appropriate aspects into an individualized negotiated service agreement for the resident.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2370, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2380 Restricted egress. A boarding home must ensure all of the following conditions are present before moving residents into units or buildings with exits that may restrict a resident's egress:

(1) Each resident, or a person authorized under RCW 7.70.065 to provide consent on behalf of the resident, consents to living in such unit or building.

(2) Each resident assessed as being cognitively and physically able to safely leave the boarding home is able to do so independently without restriction.

(3) Each resident, assessed as being cognitively able to safely leave the boarding home and who has physical challenges that make exiting difficult, is able to leave the boarding home when the resident desires and in a manner consistent with the resident's negotiated service agreement.

(4) Each resident who is assessed as being unsafe to leave the boarding home unescorted is able to leave the boarding home consistent with his or her negotiated service agreement.

(5) Areas from which egress is restricted are equipped throughout with an approved automatic fire detection system and automatic fire sprinkler system electrically interconnected with a fire alarm system that transmits an alarm off site to a twenty-four hour monitoring station.

(6) Installation of special egress control devices in all proposed construction issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, must conform to standards adopted by the state building code council.

(7) Installation of special egress control devices in all construction issued a project number by construction review services before September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, must conform to the following:

(a) The egress control device must automatically deactivate upon activation of either the sprinkler system or the smoke detection system.

(b) The egress control device must automatically deactivate upon loss of electrical power to any one of the following:

- (i) The egress control device itself;
- (ii) The smoke detection system; or
- (iii) The means of egress illumination.

(c) The egress control device must be capable of being deactivated by a signal from a switch located in an approved location.

(d) An irreversible process which will deactivate the egress control device must be initiated whenever a manual force of not more than fifteen pounds is applied for two seconds to the panic bar or other door-latching hardware. The egress control device must deactivate within an approved time period not to exceed a total of fifteen seconds. The time delay must not be field adjustable.

(e) Actuation of the panic bar or other door-latching hardware must activate an audible signal at the door.

(f) The unlatching must not require more than one operation.

(g) A sign must be provided on the door located above and within twelve inches of the panic bar or other door-latching hardware reading:

"Keep pushing. The door will open in fifteen seconds. Alarm will sound."

The sign lettering must be at least one inch in height and must have a stroke of not less than one-eighth inch.

(h) Regardless of the means of deactivation, relocking of the egress control device must be by manual means only at the door.

(8) The boarding home must have a system in place to inform and permit visitors, staff persons and appropriate residents how they can exit without sounding the alarm.

(9) Units or buildings from which egress is restricted are equipped with a secured outdoor space for walking which:

- (a) Is accessible to residents without staff assistance;
- (b) Is surrounded by walls or fences at least seventy-two inches high;
- (c) Has areas protected from direct sunshine and rain throughout the day;
- (d) Has walking surfaces that are firm, stable, slip-resistant and free from abrupt changes and are suitable for individuals using wheelchairs and walkers; and
- (e) Has suitable outdoor furniture.

Resident Records

WAC 388-78A-2390 Resident records. The boarding home must maintain adequate records concerning residents to enable the boarding home:

- (1) To effectively provide the care and services agreed upon with the resident; and
- (2) To respond appropriately in emergency situations.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2390, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 434]

WAC 388-78A-2400 Protection of resident records.

The boarding home must:

(1) Maintain a systematic and secure method of identifying and filing resident records for easy access;

(2) Maintain resident records and preserve their confidentiality in accordance with applicable state and federal statutes and rules, including chapters 70.02 and 70.129 RCW;

(3) Allow authorized representatives of the department and other authorized regulatory agencies access to resident records;

(4) Provide any resident or other individual or organization access to resident records upon written consent of the resident or the resident's representative, unless state or federal law provide for broader access;

(5) Allow authorized agents, such as a management company, to use resident records solely for the purpose of providing care and services to residents and ensure that agents do not disclose such records except in a manner consistent with law; and

(6) Maintain ownership and control of resident records, except that resident records may be transferred to a subsequent person licensed by the department to operate the boarding home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW, 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2400, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2410 Content of resident records. The boarding home must organize and maintain resident records in a format that the boarding home determines to be useful and functional to enable the effective provision of care and services to each resident. Active resident records must include the following:

(1) Resident identifying information, including resident's:

- (a) Name;
- (b) Birth date;
- (c) Move-in date; and
- (d) Sleeping room identification.

(2) Current name, address, and telephone number of:

- (a) Resident's primary health care provider;
- (b) Resident's representative, if the resident has one;
- (c) Individual(s) to contact in case of emergency, illness or death; and

(d) Family members or others, if any, the resident requests to be involved in the development or delivery of services for the resident.

(3) Resident's written acknowledgment of receipt of:

- (a) Required disclosure information prior to moving into the boarding home; and
- (b) Information required by long-term care resident rights per RCW 70.129.030.

(4) The resident's assessment and reassessment information.

(5) Clinical information such as admission weight, height, blood pressure, temperature, blood sugar and other laboratory tests required by the negotiated service agreement.

(6) The resident's negotiated service agreement consistent with WAC 388-78A-2140.

(7) Any orders for medications, treatments, and modified or therapeutic diets, including any directions for addressing a resident's refusal of medications, treatments, and prescribed diets.

(8) Medical and nursing services provided by the boarding home for a resident, including:

(a) A record of providing medication assistance and medication administration, which contains:

(i) The medication name, dose, and route of administration;

(ii) The time and date of any medication assistance or administration;

(iii) The signature or initials of the person providing any medication assistance or administration; and

(iv) Documentation of a resident choosing to not take his or her medications.

(b) A record of any nursing treatments, including the signature or initials of the person providing them.

(9) Documentation consistent with WAC 388-78A-2120 Monitoring resident well-being.

(10) Staff interventions or responses to subsection (9) of this section, including any modifications made to the resident's negotiated service agreement.

(11) Notices of and reasons for relocation as specified in RCW 70.129.110.

(12) The individuals who were notified of a significant change in the resident's condition and the time and date of the notification.

(13) When available, a copy of any legal documents in which:

(a) The resident has appointed another individual to make his or her health care, financial, or other decisions;

(b) The resident has created an advance directive or other legal document that establishes a surrogate decision maker in the future and/or provides directions to health care providers; and

(c) A court has established guardianship on behalf of the resident.

WAC 388-78A-2420 Record retention. (1) The boarding home must maintain on the boarding home premises in a resident's active record(s) all relevant information and documentation necessary for meeting a resident's current assessed needs.

(2) The boarding home may remove outdated information from the resident's active records that is no longer significant or relevant to the resident's current assessed service and care needs, and maintain it in an inactive record that must remain on the boarding home premises as long as the resident remains in the boarding home.

(3) The boarding home must maintain all documentation filed in a closed resident record, on the boarding home premises for six months after the date the resident leaves the boarding home and on the boarding home premises or another location for five years after the date the resident leaves the boarding home.

(4) All active, inactive, and closed resident records must be available for review by department staff and other authorized persons.

(5) If a boarding home ceases to operate as a licensed boarding home, the most recent licensee must make arrangements to ensure that the former residents' records are retained according to the times specified in this section and are available for review by department staff and other authorized individuals.

WAC 388-78A-2430 Resident review of records. (1)

The boarding home must assemble all records pertaining to a resident and make them available to a resident within twenty-four hours of the resident's or the resident's representative's request to review the resident's records per RCW 70.129.030.

(2) The boarding home must provide to the resident or the resident's representative, photocopies of the records or any portions of the records pertaining to the resident, within two working days of the resident's or resident's representative's request for the records.

(a) For the purposes of this section, "working days" means Monday through Friday, except for legal holidays.

(b) The boarding home may charge the resident or the resident's representative a fee not to exceed twenty-five cents per page for the cost of photocopying the resident's record.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2430, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2440 Resident register. (1)

The boarding home must maintain in the boarding home a single current roster of all boarding home residents, their roommates and identification of the rooms in which such persons reside or sleep.

(2) The boarding home must make this roster immediately available to:

(a) Authorized department staff;

(b) Representatives of the long-term care ombudsman's office; and

(c) Representatives of the Washington state fire protection bureau when conducting fire safety inspections.

(3) The boarding home must maintain a readily available permanent, current book, computer file, or register with entries in ink or typewritten, of all former boarding home residents within the past five years, including:

(a) Date of moving in;

(b) Full name;

(c) Date of birth;

(d) Date of moving out;

(e) Reason for moving out; and

(f) New address if known.

ADMINISTRATION

Staff

WAC 388-78A-2450 Staff. (1) Each boarding home must provide sufficient, trained staff persons to:

(a) Furnish the services and care needed by each resident consistent with his or her negotiated service agreement;

(b) Maintain the boarding home free of safety hazards; and

(c) Implement fire and disaster plans.

(2) The boarding home must:

(a) Develop and maintain written job descriptions for the administrator and each staff position and provide each staff person with a copy of his or her job description before or upon the start of employment;

(b) Verify staff persons' work references prior to hiring;

(c) Verify prior to hiring that staff persons have the required licenses, certification, registrations, or other credentials for the position, and that such licenses, certifications, registrations, and credentials are current and in good standing;

(d) Document and retain for twelve weeks, weekly staffing schedules, as planned and worked;

(e) Ensure all resident care and services are provided only by staff persons who have the training, credentials, experience and other qualifications necessary to provide the care and services;

(f) Ensure at least one caregiver, who is eighteen years of age or older and has current cardiopulmonary resuscitation and first-aid cards, is present and available to assist residents at all times;

(i) When one or more residents are present on the boarding home premises; and

(ii) During boarding home activities off of the boarding home premises.

(g) Ensure caregiver provides on-site supervision of any resident voluntarily providing services for the boarding home;

(h) Provide staff orientation and appropriate training for expected duties, including:

(i) Organization of boarding home;

(ii) Physical boarding home layout;

(iii) Specific duties and responsibilities;

(iv) How to report resident abuse and neglect consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW and boarding home policies and procedures;

(v) Policies, procedures, and equipment necessary to perform duties;

(vi) Needs and service preferences identified in the negotiated service agreements of residents with whom the staff persons will be working; and

(vii) Resident rights, including without limitation, those specified in chapter 70.129 RCW.

(i) Develop and implement a process to ensure caregivers:

(i) Acquire the necessary information from the preadmission assessment, on-going assessment and negotiated service agreement relevant to providing services to each resident with whom the caregiver works;

(ii) Are informed of changes in the negotiated service agreement of each resident with whom the caregiver works; and

(iii) Are given an opportunity to provide information to responsible staff regarding the resident when assessments and negotiated service agreements are updated for each resident with whom the caregiver works.

(j) Ensure all caregivers have access to resident records relevant to effectively providing care and services to the resident.

(3) The boarding home must:

(a) Ensure that staff persons meet the training requirements specified in chapter 388-112 WAC;

(b) Protect all residents by ensuring any staff person suspected or accused of abuse does not have access to any resident until the boarding home investigates and takes action to ensure resident safety;

(c) Not interfere with the investigation of a complaint, coerce a resident or staff person regarding cooperating with a complaint investigation, or conceal or destroy evidence of alleged improprieties occurring within the boarding home;

(d) Prohibit staff persons from being directly employed by a resident or a resident's family during the hours the staff person is working for the boarding home;

(e) Maintain the following documentation on the boarding home premises, during employment, and at least two years following termination of employment:

(i) Staff orientation and training pertinent to duties, including, but not limited to:

(A) Training required by chapter 388-112 WAC, including as appropriate for each staff person, orientation, basic training or modified basic training, specialty training, nurse delegation core training, and continuing education;

(B) Cardiopulmonary resuscitation;

(C) First aid; and

(D) HIV/AIDS training.

(ii) Criminal history disclosure and background checks as required in WAC 388-78A-2470; and

(iii) Documentation of contacting work references and professional licensing and certification boards as required by subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The boarding home is not required to keep on the boarding home premises, staff records that are unrelated to staff performance of duties. Such records include, but are not limited to, pay records, and health and insurance benefits for staff.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2450, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2460 Quality assurance committee.

(1) To ensure the proper delivery of services and the maintenance and improvement in quality of care through self-review, any boarding home licensed under this chapter may maintain a quality assurance committee that, at a minimum, includes:

(a) A licensed registered nurse under chapter 18.79 RCW;

(b) The administrator; and

(c) Three other members from the staff of the boarding home.

(2) When established, the quality assurance committee shall meet at least quarterly to identify issues that may adversely affect quality of care and services to residents and to develop and implement plans of action to correct identified quality concerns or deficiencies in the quality of care provided to residents.

(3) To promote quality of care through self-review without the fear of reprisal, and to enhance the objectivity of the review process, the department shall not require, and the long-term care ombudsman program shall not request, disclosure of any quality assurance committee records or reports, unless the disclosure is related to the committee's compliance with this section, if:

(a) The records or reports are not maintained pursuant to statutory or regulatory mandate; and

(b) The records or reports are created for and collected and maintained by the committee.

(4) If the boarding home refuses to release records or reports that would otherwise be protected under this section, the department may then request only that information that is necessary to determine whether the boarding home has a quality assurance committee and to determine that it is operating in compliance with this section. However, if the boarding home offers the department documents generated by, or for, the quality assurance committee as evidence of compliance with boarding home requirements, the documents are not protected as quality assurance committee documents when in the possession of the department.

(5) Good faith attempts by the committee to identify and correct quality deficiencies shall not be used as a basis for sanctions.

(6) Any records that are created for and collected and maintained by the quality assurance committee shall not be discoverable or admitted into evidence in a civil action brought against a boarding home.

(7) Notwithstanding any records created for the quality assurance committee, the facility shall fully set forth in the resident's records, available to the resident, the department, and others as permitted by law, the facts concerning any incident of injury or loss to the resident, the steps taken by the facility to address the resident's needs, and the resident outcome.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2460, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2470 Criminal history background checks. (1) This section applies to any individual associated with the licensee or boarding home who may have unsupervised access to residents, including but not limited to:

- (a) Employees;
- (b) Managers;
- (c) Volunteers who are not residents;
- (d) Contractors; and
- (e) Students.

(2) The boarding home must:

(a) Ensure any individual associated with the licensee or boarding home who may have unsupervised access to residents has had a background check of conviction records, pending charges and disciplinary board decisions completed within the past two years, and is repeated every two years thereafter, and that individual has not been:

- (i) Convicted of a crime against children or other persons as defined in RCW 43.43.830 or 43.43.842;
- (ii) Convicted of crimes relating to financial exploitation as defined in RCW 43.43.830 or 43.43.842;
- (iii) Found in any disciplinary board final decision to have abused a vulnerable adult as defined in RCW 43.43.830;
- (iv) The subject in a protective proceeding under chapter 74.34 RCW;
- (v) Convicted of criminal mistreatment; or
- (vi) Found by the department to have abused, neglected, or exploited a minor or vulnerable person, provided the individual was offered an administrative hearing to contest the finding, and the finding was upheld, or the individual failed to timely appeal the finding.

(b) Not hire or retain, directly or by contract, or accept as a volunteer, any individual prohibited from having unsupervised access to residents under (a) of this subsection, except as provided in subsection (6) of this section and RCW 43.43.842.

(3) Prior to first starting his or her duties, the boarding home must:

(a) Require each prospective employee, manager, volunteer, contractor and student associated with the licensee or boarding home who may have unsupervised access to residents to disclose, consistent with RCW 43.43.834(2), whether he or she:

(i) Has been convicted of a crime, including any of the following as defined in RCW 43.43.830:

- (A) All crimes against children or their persons;
- (B) All crimes relating to financial exploitation; and
- (C) All crimes relating to drugs;

(ii) Has had findings made against him or her in any civil adjudicative proceeding as defined in RCW 43.43.830; or

(iii) Has both convictions for (i) and findings made against him or her under (ii).

(b) Require each individual making the disclosures required in subsection (3)(a) of this section:

- (i) To make the disclosures in writing;
- (ii) To swear under penalty of perjury that the contents of the disclosure are accurate; and
- (iii) To sign the disclosure statement.

(4) Prior to first starting his or her duties, the boarding home must take one or more of the following three actions for each prospective employee, manager, volunteer, contractor and student associated with the licensee or boarding home who may have unsupervised access to residents:

(a) Initiate a background check on the individual through the department, which includes taking the following actions:

(i) Informing the individual that a background check is required.

(ii) Requiring the individual to complete and sign a DSHS background authorization form prior to the individual having unsupervised access to residents;

(iii) Submitting all background check authorization forms to the department's:

(A) Aging and disability services administration with the initial application for licensure; and

(B) Background check central unit for currently licensed boarding homes.

(iv) Verbally informing the named individual of his/her individual background check results and offering to provide him or her a copy of the background check results within ten days of receipt.

(b) Obtain from the individual's prior employer a copy of the completed criminal background inquiry information for the individual, subject to the following conditions:

(i) The prior employer was a nursing home licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW, a boarding home licensed under chapter 18.20 RCW, or an adult family home licensed under chapter 70.128 RCW;

(ii) The nursing home, boarding home or adult family home providing completed criminal background inquiry information for the individual is reasonably known to be the individual's most recent employer;

(iii) No more than twelve months has elapsed from the date the individual was employed by the nursing home, boarding home or adult family home and the date of the individual's current application;

(iv) The background inquiry for the individual is no more than two years old; and

(v) The boarding home has no reason to believe the individual has or may have a disqualifying conviction or finding as described in RCW 43.43.842.

(c) When using staff persons from a home health, hospice, or home care agency licensed under chapter 70.127 RCW, or a nursing pool registered under chapter 18.52C RCW, the boarding home must establish, maintain and follow a written agreement with the agency or pool to ensure the requirements of subsection (2) of this section are met for the agency or pool staff who may work in the boarding home.

(5) The boarding home must ensure that all disclosure statements, and background check results obtained by the boarding home, are:

(a) Maintained on-site in a confidential and secure manner;

(b) Used for employment purposes only;

(c) Not disclosed to any individual except:

(i) The individual named on the background check result;

(ii) Authorized state and federal employees;

(iii) The Washington state patrol auditor; and

(iv) As otherwise authorized in chapter 43.43 RCW.

(d) Retained and available for department review:

(i) During the individual's employment or association with a facility; and

(ii) At least two years following termination of employment or association with a facility.

(6) The boarding home may conditionally hire, directly or by contract, an individual having unsupervised access to residents pending a background inquiry, provided the boarding home:

(a) Obtains a criminal history background check authorization form from the individual prior to the individual beginning work;

(b) Submits the criminal history background check authorization form to the department no later than one business day after the individual started working; and

(c) Has received three positive references for the individual.

(7) The department may require the boarding home or any other individual associated with the boarding home who has unsupervised access to residents to complete additional disclosure statements or background inquiries if the department has reason to believe that offenses specified under RCW 43.43.830 have occurred since completion of the previous disclosure statement or background inquiry.

WAC 388-78A-2480 TB tests. (1) The boarding home must ensure each staff person, except for volunteers and contractors, is screened for tuberculosis, as follows:

(a) Except when a staff person provided the boarding home with documentation of a previous positive Mantoux skin test, a staff person hired before September 1, 2004 must have had:

(i) A tuberculin skin test by the Mantoux method within six months preceding the date of employment in the boarding home; and

(ii) A second tuberculin skin test within one to three weeks after a negative Mantoux test if the staff person was thirty-five years of age or older at the time of hiring.

(b) A staff person hired on or after September 1, 2004 must have a baseline two-step skin test initiated within three days of being hired unless the staff person meets the requirements in (c) or (d) of this subsection. The skin tests must be:

(i) Given no less than one and no more than three weeks apart;

(ii) By intradermal (Mantoux) administration of purified protein derivative (PPD);

(iii) Read between forty-eight and seventy-two hours following administration, by trained personnel; and

(iv) Recorded in millimeters of induration.

(c) A staff person needs to have only a one-step skin test within three days of being hired if:

(i) There is documented history of a negative result from previous two-step testing; or

(ii) There was a documented negative result from one-step skin testing in the previous twelve months.

(d) A staff person does not need to be skin tested for tuberculosis if he/she has:

(i) Documented history of a previous positive skin test consisting of ten or more millimeters of induration; or

(ii) Documented evidence of adequate therapy for active disease; or

(iii) Documented evidence of adequate preventive therapy for infection.

(e) If a skin test results in a positive reaction, the boarding home must:

(i) Ensure that the staff person has a chest X ray within seven days;

(ii) Report positive chest X rays to the appropriate public health authority; and

(iii) Follow precautions ordered by a physician or public health authority.

(2) The boarding home must:

(a) Keep in the boarding home for the duration of the staff person's employment, and at least two years following termination of employment, records of:

(i) Tuberculin test results;

(ii) Reports of X-ray findings; and

(iii) Physician or public health official orders.

(b) Provide staff persons with a copy of the records specified in (a) of this subsection:

(i) During the time the staff person is employed in the boarding home, limited to one copy per report; and

(ii) When requested by the staff person.

(3) The boarding home must ensure that caregivers caring for a resident with suspected tuberculosis comply with the WISHA standard for respiratory protection.

Management Agreements

WAC 388-78A-2590 Management agreements. (1) If the licensee uses a manager, the licensee must have a written management agreement approved by the department that is consistent with this section.

(2) The licensee may enter into a management agreement only if the management agreement creates a principal/agent relationship between the licensee and the manager.

(3) The licensee must ensure the manager acts in conformance with a department-approved management agreement with the boarding home licensee.

(4) A licensee must not delegate the following to a manager:

- (a) The licensee's responsibility to ensure that the boarding home is operated in a manner consistent with all laws and rules applicable to boarding homes;
- (b) The licensee's responsibility to review, acknowledge and sign all boarding home initial and renewal license applications.

(5) The licensee must ensure that its manager does not represent itself as, or give the appearance that it is the licensee.

(6) A duly authorized manager may execute resident leases or agreements on behalf of the licensee, but all such resident leases or agreements must be between the licensee and the resident.

(7) The licensee must notify the department of its use of a manager and provide a copy of any written management agreement to the department upon the following:

- (a) Initial application for a license;
- (b) Retention of a manager following initial application;
- (c) Change of managers; or
- (d) Modification of existing management agreement.

Policies and Procedures

WAC 388-78A-2600 Policies and procedures. (1) The boarding home must develop and implement policies and procedures in support of services that are provided and are necessary to:

(a) Maintain or enhance the quality of life for residents including resident decision-making rights;

(b) Provide the necessary care and services for residents, including those with special needs;

(c) Safely operate the boarding home; and

(d) Operate in compliance with state and federal law, including, but not limited to, chapters 7.70, 11.88, 11.92, 11.94, 69.41, 70.122, 70.129, and 74.34 RCW, and any rules promulgated under these statutes.

(2) The boarding home must develop, implement and train staff persons on policies and procedures to address what staff persons must do:

(a) Related to suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation of any resident;

(b) When there is reason to believe a resident is not capable of making necessary decisions and no substitute decision maker is available;

(c) When a substitute decision maker is no longer appropriate;

(d) When a resident stops breathing or a resident's heart appears to stop beating, including, but not limited to, any action staff persons must take related to advance directives and emergency care;

(e) When a resident does not have a personal physician or health care provider;

(f) In response to medical emergencies;

(g) When there are urgent situations in the boarding home requiring additional staff support;

(h) In the event of an internal or external disaster, consistent with WAC 388-78A-2700;

(i) To supervise and monitor residents, including accounting for residents who leave the premises;

(j) To appropriately respond to aggressive or assaultive residents, including, but not limited to:

(i) Actions to take if a resident becomes violent;

(ii) Actions to take to protect other residents; and

(iii) When and how to seek outside intervention.

(k) To prevent and limit the spread of infections consistent with WAC 388-78A-2610;

(l) To manage residents' medications, consistent with WAC 388-78A-2210 through 388-78A-2290; sending medications with a resident when the resident leaves the premises;

(m) When services related to medications and treatments are provided under the delegation of a registered nurse consistent with chapter 246-840 WAC;

(n) Related to food services consistent with chapter 246-215 WAC and WAC 388-78A-2300;

(o) Regarding the safe operation of any boarding home vehicles used to transport residents, and the qualifications of the drivers;

(p) To coordinate services and share resident information with outside resources, consistent with WAC 388-78A-2350;

(q) Regarding the management of pets in the boarding home, if permitted, consistent with WAC 388-78A-2620; and

(r) When receiving and responding to resident grievances consistent with RCW 70.129.060.

(3) The boarding home must make the policies and procedures specified in subsection (2) of this section available to staff persons at all times and must inform residents and residents' representatives of their availability and make them available upon request.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2600, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

Infection Control

WAC 388-78A-2610 Infection control. (1) The boarding home must institute appropriate infection control practices in the boarding home to prevent and limit the spread of infections.

(2) The boarding home must:

(a) Develop and implement a system to identify and manage infections;

(b) Restrict a staff person's contact with residents when the staff person has a known communicable disease in the infectious stage that is likely to be spread in the boarding home setting or by casual contact;

(c) Provide staff persons with the necessary supplies, equipment and protective clothing for preventing and controlling the spread of infections;

(d) Provide all resident care and services according to current acceptable standards for infection control;

(e) Perform all housekeeping, cleaning, laundry, and management of infectious waste according to current acceptable standards for infection control;

(f) Report communicable diseases in accordance with the requirements in chapter 246-100 WAC.

Reporting RequirementsWAC 388-78A-2630 Reporting abuse and neglect. (1)

The boarding home must ensure that each staff person:

(a) Makes a report to the department's Aging and Disability Services Administration Complaint Resolution Unit hotline consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW in all cases where the staff person has reasonable cause to believe that abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect of a vulnerable adult has occurred; and

(b) Makes an immediate report to the appropriate law enforcement agency and the department consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW of all incidents of suspected sexual abuse or physical abuse of a resident.

(2) The boarding home must prominently post so it is readily visible to staff, residents and visitors, the department's toll-free telephone number for reporting resident abuse and neglect.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2630, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2640 Reporting significant change in a resident's condition. (1) The boarding home must consult with the resident's representative, the resident's physician, and other individual(s) designated by the resident as soon as possible whenever:

(a) There is a significant change in the resident's condition;

(b) The resident is relocated to a hospital or other health care facility; or

(c) The resident dies.

(2) The boarding home must notify any agency responsible for paying for the resident's care and services as soon as possible whenever:

(a) The resident is relocated to a hospital or other health care facility; or

(b) The resident dies.

(3) Whenever the conditions in subsection (1) or (2) of this section occur, the boarding home must document in the resident's records:

(a) The date and time each individual was contacted; and

(b) The individual's relationship to the resident.

(4) In case of a resident's death, the boarding home must notify the coroner if required by RCW 68.50.010.

WAC 388-78A-2670 Services by resident for boarding home. If a resident performs services for the boarding home, the boarding home must ensure:

(1) The resident freely volunteers to perform the services without coercion or pressure from staff persons;

(2) The resident performing services does not supervise, or is not placed in charge of, other residents; and

(3) If the resident regularly performs voluntary services for the benefit of the boarding home, the volunteer activity is addressed in the resident's negotiated service agreement.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2670, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2680 Boarding home use of audio and video monitoring. (1) Except as provided for in WAC 388-78A-2690, the boarding home must not use:

(a) Any audio monitoring on the boarding home premises; or

(b) Any audio monitoring used in combination with video monitoring.

(2) The boarding home may video monitor and/or video record activity on the boarding home premises, without an audio component, only in the following areas:

(a) Boarding home entrances and exits if the camera(s) is:

(i) Focused only on the entrance/exit doorways; and

(ii) Not focused on areas where residents may congregate.

(b) Areas used exclusively by staff persons such as, but not limited to, medication storage areas or food preparation areas, if residents do not go into these areas;

(c) Outdoor areas not commonly used by residents, such as, but not limited to, delivery areas; and

(d) Designated smoking areas excluding resident rooms, subject to the following conditions:

(i) When the area is being used by residents assessed as needing supervision for smoking, a staff person must watch the video monitor at any time the area is being used by such residents for smoking;

(ii) The video camera must be placed in a clearly visible area;

(iii) The video monitor must be placed where it cannot be viewed by the general public; and

(iv) All residents in the facility must be notified of the use of the video monitoring.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2680, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2690 Resident use of electronic monitoring. (1) The boarding home must limit the use of resident-initiated video or audio monitoring to the sleeping room or apartment of the resident who requested the monitoring.

(2) If a resident requests video or audio monitoring in his/her sleeping room or apartment, before any monitoring occurs the boarding home must ensure:

(a) Appropriate actions are taken to ensure monitoring is consistent with and does not violate chapter 9.73 RCW;

(b) The resident has identified a threat to his or her safety or health, or the safety of his or her possessions, and has requested electronic monitoring;

(c) The resident's roommate has provided written consent to the monitoring, if the resident has a roommate; and

(d) The resident and the boarding home have agreed upon a specific duration for the use of the monitoring, and the boarding home has documented the agreement.

(3) The boarding home must reevaluate the need for resident-initiated electronic monitoring with the resident at least quarterly or more often as appropriate.

(4) The boarding home must discontinue the use of resident-initiated electronic monitoring immediately if:

(a) The resident no longer desires it;

(b) The roommate objects to the use; or

(c) The resident becomes unable to give consent.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2690, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

Safety and Disaster Preparedness

WAC 388-78A-2700 Safety measures and disaster preparedness. (1) The boarding home must take necessary action to promote the safety of each resident whenever the resident is on the boarding home premises or under the supervision of staff persons, consistent with the resident's negotiated service agreement.

(2) The boarding home must:

(a) Maintain the premises free of hazards;

(b) Maintain any vehicles used for transporting residents in a safe condition;

(c) Investigate and document investigative actions and findings for any alleged or suspected neglect or abuse or exploitation, accident or incident jeopardizing or affecting a resident's health or life. The boarding home must:

(i) Determine the circumstances of the event;

(ii) When necessary, institute and document appropriate measures to prevent similar future situations if the alleged incident is substantiated; and

(iii) Protect other residents during the course of the investigation.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 444]

(d) Provide appropriate hardware on doors of storage rooms, closets and other rooms to prevent residents from being accidentally locked in;

(e) Provide, and tell staff persons of, a means of emergency access to resident-occupied bedrooms, toilet rooms, bathing rooms, and other rooms;

(f) Provide emergency lighting or flashlights in all areas of the boarding home. For all boarding homes first issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, the boarding home must provide emergency lighting in all areas of the boarding home;

(g) Make sure first-aid supplies are:

(i) Readily available and not locked;

(ii) Clearly marked;

(iii) Able to be moved to the location where needed; and

(iv) Stored in containers that protect them from damage, deterioration, or contamination.

(h) Make sure first-aid supplies are appropriate for:

(i) The size of the boarding home;

(ii) The services provided;

(iii) The residents served; and

(iv) The response time of emergency medical services.

(i) Develop and maintain a current disaster plan describing measures to take in the event of internal or external disasters, including, but not limited to:

(i) On-duty staff persons' responsibilities;

(ii) Provisions for summoning emergency assistance;

(iii) Plans for evacuating residents from area or building;

(iv) Alternative resident accommodations;

(v) Provisions for essential resident needs, supplies and equipment including water, food, and medications; and

(vi) Emergency communication plan.

Disclosure

WAC 388-78A-2710 Disclosure of services. (1) The boarding home must disclose to residents, the resident's representative, if any, and interested consumers upon request, the scope of care and services it offers, on the department's approved disclosure forms. The disclosure form shall not be construed as an implied or express contract between the boarding home and the resident, but is intended to assist consumers in selecting boarding home services.

(2) The boarding home must provide the services disclosed.

(3) The boarding home must provide a minimum of thirty days written notice to the residents and the residents' representatives, if any:

(a) Before the effective date of any decrease in the scope of care or services provided by the boarding home, due to circumstances beyond the boarding home's control; and

(b) Before the effective date of any voluntary decrease in the scope of care or services provided by the boarding home, and any such decrease in the scope of services provided will not result in the discharge of one or more residents.

(2007 Ed.)

(4) The boarding home must provide a minimum of ninety days written notice to the residents and the residents' representative, if any, before the effective date of any voluntary decrease in the scope of care or services provided by the boarding home, and any such decrease in the scope of services provided will result in the discharge of one or more residents.

(5) If the boarding home increases the scope of services that it chooses to provide, the boarding home must promptly provide written notice to the residents and residents' representative, if any, and must indicate the date on which the increase in the scope of care or services is effective.

(6) When the care needs of a resident exceed the disclosed scope of care or services that a boarding home provides, the boarding home may exceed the care or services disclosed consistent with RCW 70.129.030(3) and 70.129.110(3)(a).

(7) Even though the boarding home may disclose that it can provide certain care or services to residents or prospective residents or residents' representative, if any, the boarding home may deny admission to a prospective resident when the boarding home determines that the needs of the prospective resident cannot be met, as long as the boarding home operates in compliance with state and federal law, including reasonable accommodation requirements and RCW 70.129.030(3).

(8) The boarding home must notify prospective residents of their rights regarding health care decision making consistent with applicable state and federal laws and rules, before or at the time the individual moves into the boarding home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2710, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2720 Timing of disclosure. (1) The boarding home must provide the disclosure form completed by the boarding home:

(a) In response to a request by a prospective resident or his or her representative, if any, for written information about the boarding home's services and capabilities; or

(b) At the time the boarding home provides an application for residency, an admission agreement or contract, if not previously received by the prospective resident or his or her representative, if any.

(2) The boarding home is not required to provide the disclosure of care and services contained on the department's approved disclosure forms:

(a) In advertisements;

(b) In general marketing information to the public; or

(c) To persons seeking general information regarding residential care resources in the community.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2720, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

Licensing

WAC 388-78A-2730 Licensee's responsibilities. (1) The boarding home licensee is responsible for:

(a) The operation of the boarding home;

(b) Complying with the requirements of this chapter, chapter 18.20 RCW, and other applicable laws and rules; and

(c) The care and services provided to the boarding home residents.

(2007 Ed.)

(2) The licensee must:

(a) Maintain the occupancy level at or below the licensed resident bed capacity of the boarding home;

(b) Maintain and post in a size and format that is easily read, in a conspicuous place on the boarding home premises:

(i) A current boarding home license, including any related conditions on the license;

(ii) The name, address and telephone number of:

(A) The department;

(B) Appropriate resident advocacy groups; and

(C) The state and local long-term care ombudsman with a brief description of ombudsman services.

(iii) A copy of the report, including the cover letter, and plan of correction of the most recent full inspection conducted by the department.

(c) Ensure any party responsible for holding or managing residents' personal funds is bonded or obtains insurance in sufficient amounts to specifically cover losses of resident funds; and provides proof of bond or insurance to the department.

(3) The licensee must not delegate to any person responsibilities that are so extensive that the licensee is relieved of responsibility for the daily operations and provisions of services in the boarding home.

(4) The licensee must act in accord with any department-approved management agreement, if the licensee has entered into a management agreement.

(5) The licensee must appoint the boarding home administrator consistent with WAC 388-78A-2520.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2730, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2740 Licensee qualifications. The department must consider separately and jointly as applicants each person named in the application for a boarding home license.

(1) If the department finds any person unqualified as specified in WAC 388-78A-3190, the department must deny, terminate, or not renew the license.

(2) If the department finds any person unqualified as specified in WAC 388-78A-3170, the department may deny, terminate, or not renew the license.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2740, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2750 Application process. To apply for a boarding home license, a person must:

(1) Submit to the department a complete license application on forms designated by the department at least ninety days prior to the proposed effective date of the license;

(2) Submit all relevant attachments specified in the application;

(3) Submit criminal history background requests as required in WAC 388-78A-2470;

(4) Sign the application;

(5) Submit the license fee as specified in WAC 388-78A-3230;

(6) Submit verification that construction plans have been approved by construction review services;

(7) Submit a revised application before the license is issued if any information has changed since the initial license application was submitted;

(8) Submit a revised application containing current information about the proposed licensee or any other persons named in the application, if a license application is pending for more than one year; and

(9) If the licensee's agent prepares an application on the licensee's behalf, the licensee must review, sign and attest to the accuracy of the information contained in the application.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2750, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2760 Necessary information. In making a determination whether to issue a boarding home license, in addition to the information for each person named in the application, the department may review other documents and information the department deems relevant, including inspection and complaint investigation findings for each facility with which the applicant or any partner, officer, director, managerial employee, or owner of five percent or more of the applicant has been affiliated.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2760, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2770 Change in licensee. (1) The licensee of a boarding home must change whenever the following events occur, including, but not limited to:

(a) The licensee's form of legal organization is changed (e.g., a sole proprietor forms a partnership or corporation);

(b) The licensee transfers ownership of the boarding home business enterprise to another party regardless of whether ownership of some or all of the real property and/or personal property assets of the boarding home is also transferred;

(c) The licensee dissolves, or consolidates or merges with another legal organization and the licensee's legal organization does not survive;

(d) If, during any continuous twenty-four-month period, fifty percent or more of the "licensed entity" is transferred, whether by a single transaction or multiple transactions, to:

(i) A different person (e.g., new or former shareholders or partners); or

(ii) A person that had less than a five percent ownership interest in the boarding home at the time of the first transaction.

(e) Any other event or combination of events that results in a substitution, elimination, or withdrawal of the licensee's control of the boarding home. As used in this section, "control" means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct the management, operation and/or policies of the licensee or boarding home, whether through ownership, voting control, by agreement, by contract or otherwise.

(2) The licensee is not required to change when the following, without more, occur:

(a) The licensee contracts with a party to manage the boarding home enterprise for the licensee pursuant to an agreement as specified in WAC 388-78A-2590; or

(b) The real property or personal property assets of the boarding home are sold or leased, or a lease of the real property or personal property assets is terminated, as long as there is not a substitution or substitution of control of the licensee or boarding home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2770, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2780 Requirements to change boarding home licensee. (1) In order to change the licensee of a boarding home, the current licensee must notify the department and all residents of the proposed change in licensee at least ninety days prior to the proposed date of change, including the following information:

(a) Name of the present licensee and prospective licensee;

(b) Name and address of the boarding home for which the licensee is being changed;

(c) Date of proposed change; and

(d) If the boarding home contracts with the department or other public agencies that may make payments for residential care on behalf of residents, the anticipated effect the change of licensee will have on residents whose care and services are supported through these contracts.

(2) The prospective licensee must, at least ninety days prior to the proposed date of change:

(a) Sign the application;

(b) Submit the annual license fee, if a license fee is due;

(c) Submit evidence of control of the real estate on which the boarding home is located, such as a purchase and sales agreement, lease contract, or other appropriate document;

(d) Submit a revised application if any information included on the original application is no longer accurate; and

(e) Complete and submit a revised application if requested by the department.

(3) Send a letter to the department stating the licensee's intent to relinquish the boarding home license on the effective date of change in licensee.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2780, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2790 Annual renewal. To renew a boarding home license, the boarding home must:

(1) Submit a completed license renewal application on forms designated by the department, at least thirty days prior to the license expiration date;

(2) Sign the application;

(3) Submit the annual license fee as specified in WAC 388-78A-3230; and

(4) If the licensee's agent prepares a renewal application on the licensee's behalf, the licensee must review, sign and attest to the accuracy of the information contained on the renewal application.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2790, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2800 Changes in licensed bed capacity. To change the licensed bed capacity in a boarding home, the boarding home must:

(1) Submit a completed request for approval to the department at least one day before the intended change;

(2) Submit the prorated fee required according to WAC 388-78A-3230; and

(3) Post an amended license obtained from the department, indicating the new bed capacity.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2800, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2810 Criteria for increasing licensed bed capacity. Before the licensed bed capacity in a boarding home may be increased, the boarding home must:

(1) Obtain construction review services' review and approval of the additional rooms or beds, and related auxiliary spaces, if not previously reviewed and approved; and

(2) Ensure the increased licensed bed capacity does not exceed the maximum facility capacity as determined by the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2810, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2820 Building requirements and exemptions. (1) To get a building approved for licensing, a person must:

(a) Design plans according to the building code, local codes and ordinances, and this chapter;

(b) Submit construction documents, including any change orders and addenda to:

(i) Construction review services per WAC 388-78A-2850 and include:

(A) A minimum of two sets of final construction drawings complying with the requirements of this chapter, stamped by a Washington state licensed architect or engineer; and

(B) A functional program description; and

(ii) Local county or municipal building departments per local codes to obtain necessary building permits.

(c) Conform to the approved construction documents during construction in accordance with chapter 18.20 RCW;

(d) Obtain written approval from construction review services prior to deviating from approved construction documents;

(e) Provide construction review services with a:

(i) Written notice of completion date;

(ii) Copy of reduced floor plan(s); and

(iii) Copy of certificate of occupancy issued by the local building department; and

(f) Obtain authorization from the department prior to providing boarding home services in the new construction area.

(2) The department may exempt the boarding home from meeting a specific requirement related to the physical environment if the department determines the exemption will not:

(a) Jeopardize the health or safety of residents;

(b) Adversely affect the residents' quality of life; or

(c) Change the fundamental nature of the boarding home operation into something other than a boarding home.

(3) A boarding home wishing to request an exemption must submit a written request to the department, including:

(a) A description of the requested exemption; and

(b) The specific WAC requirement for which the exemption is sought.

(4) The boarding home may not appeal the department's denial of a request for an exemption.

(2007 Ed.)

(5) The boarding home must retain a copy of each approved exemption in the boarding home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2820, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2830 Conversion of licensed nursing homes. (1) If a person intends to convert a licensed nursing home building into a licensed boarding home, the building must meet all boarding home licensing requirements specified in this chapter and chapter 18.20 RCW unless the licensee has a contract with the department to provide enhanced adult residential care services in the boarding home per RCW 18.20.220.

(2) If the licensee provides contracted enhanced adult residential care services in the building converted from a licensed nursing home into a licensed boarding home, the boarding home licensing requirements for the physical structure are considered to be met if the most recent nursing home inspection report for the nursing home building demonstrates compliance, and compliance is maintained, with safety standards and fire regulations:

(a) As required by RCW 18.51.140; and

(b) Specified in the applicable building code, as required by RCW 18.51.145, including any waivers that may have been granted, except that the licensee must ensure the building meets the licensed boarding home standards, or their functional equivalency, for:

(i) Resident to bathing fixture ratio required per WAC 388-78A-3030;

(ii) Resident to toilet ratio required per WAC 388-78A-3030;

(iii) Corridor call system required per WAC 388-78A-2930;

(iv) Resident room door closures; and

(v) Resident room windows required per WAC 388-78A-3010.

(3) If the licensee does not continue to provide contracted enhanced adult residential care services in the boarding home converted from a licensed nursing home, the licensee must meet all boarding home licensing requirements specified in this chapter and chapter 18.20 RCW.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-2830, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-2840 Licenses for multiple buildings.

(1) The licensee may have multiple buildings operating under a single boarding home license if:

(a) All of the buildings are located on the same property with the same legal description; or

(b) All of the buildings are located on contiguous properties undivided by:

(i) Public streets, not including alleyways used primarily for delivery services or parking; or

(ii) Other land that is not owned and maintained by the owners of the property on which the boarding home is located.

(2) The licensee must have separate boarding homes licenses for buildings that are not located on the same or contiguous properties.

(3) Buildings that construction review services reviewed only as an addition to, or a remodel of, an existing boarding home must not have separate boarding home licenses.

WAC 388-78A-2850 Required reviews of building plans. (1) A person or boarding home must notify construction review services of all planned construction regarding boarding homes prior to beginning work on any of the following:

(a) A new building or portion thereof to be used as a boarding home;

(b) An addition of, or modification or alteration to an existing boarding home, including, but not limited to, the boarding home's:

(i) Physical structure;

(ii) Electrical fixtures or systems;

(iii) Mechanical equipment or systems;

(iv) Fire alarm fixtures or systems;

(v) Fire sprinkler fixtures or systems;

(vi) Carpeting;

(vii) Wall coverings 1/28 inch thick or thicker; or

(viii) Kitchen or laundry equipment.

(c) A change in the department-approved use of an existing boarding home or portion of a boarding home; and

(d) An existing building or portion thereof to be converted for use as a boarding home.

(2) A person or boarding home does not need to notify construction review services of the following:

(a) Repair or maintenance of equipment, furnishings or fixtures;

(b) Replacement of equipment, furnishings or fixtures with equivalent equipment, furnishings or fixtures;

(c) Repair or replacement of damaged construction if the repair or replacement is performed according to construction documents approved by construction review services within eight years preceding the current repair or replacement;

(d) Painting; or

(e) Cosmetic changes that do not affect resident activities, services, or care and are performed in accordance with the current edition of the building code.

(3) The boarding home must submit plans to construction review services as directed by construction review services and consistent with WAC 388-78A-2820 for approval prior to beginning any construction. The plans must provide an analysis of likely adverse impacts on current boarding home residents and plans to eliminate or mitigate such adverse impacts.

WAC 388-78A-2930 Communication system. (1) The boarding home must:

(a) Provide residents and staff persons with the means to summon on-duty staff assistance:

- (i) From resident units;
- (ii) From common areas accessible to residents;
- (iii) From corridors accessible to residents; and
- (iv) For boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, all bathrooms, all toilet rooms, resident living rooms and sleeping rooms.

(b) Provide residents, families, and other visitors with a means to contact a staff person inside the building from outside the building after hours.

(2) The boarding home must provide one or more non-pay telephones:

- (a) In each building located for ready access by staff persons; and
- (b) On the premises with reasonable access and privacy by residents.

(3) In boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, the boarding home must equip each resident room with two telephone lines.

(4) If a boarding home that is issued a project number by construction services on or after September 1, 2004 chooses to install an intercom system, the intercom system must be equipped with a mechanism that allows a resident to control:

- (a) Whether or not announcements are broadcast into the resident's room; and
- (b) Whether or not voices or conversations within the resident's room can be monitored or listened to by persons outside the resident's room.

WAC 388-78A-2990 Heating-cooling—Temperature. The boarding home must:

(1) Equip each resident-occupied building with an approved heating system capable of maintaining a minimum temperature of 70°F per the building code. The boarding home must:

(a) Maintain the boarding home at a minimum temperature of 60°F during sleeping hours; and

(b) Maintain the boarding home at a minimum of 68°F during waking hours, except in rooms:

(i) Designated for activities requiring physical exertion; or

(ii) Where residents can individually control the temperature in their own living units, independent from other areas.

(2) Equip each resident-occupied building with a mechanical air cooling system or equivalent capable of maintaining a temperature of 75°F in communities where the design dry bulb temperature exceeds 85°F for one hundred seventy-five hours per year or two percent of the time, as specified in the latest edition of Recommended Outdoor Design Temperatures—Washington State, published by the Puget Sound chapter of the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration, and Air-Conditioning Engineers;

(3) Equip each boarding home issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, with a backup source of heat in enough common areas to keep all residents adequately warm during interruptions of normal heating operations;

(4) Prohibit the use of portable space heaters unless approved in writing by the Washington state director of fire protection; and

(2007 Ed.)

(5) Equip each resident sleeping room and resident living room in boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, with individual temperature controls located between thirty and forty-eight inches above the floor capable of maintaining room temperature plus or minus 3°F from setting, within a range of minimum 60°F to maximum 85°F.

WAC 388-78A-3000 Ventilation. The boarding home must:

- (1) Ventilate rooms to:
 - (a) Prevent excessive odors or moisture; and
 - (b) Remove smoke.
- (2) Designate and ventilate smoking areas, if smoking is permitted in the boarding home, to prevent air contamination throughout the boarding home;
- (3) Provide intact sixteen mesh screens on operable windows and openings used for ventilation; and
- (4) Prohibit screens that may restrict or hinder escape or rescue through emergency exit openings.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-3000, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-3010 Resident room—Room furnishings-storage. (1) The boarding home must ensure each resident has a sleeping room that has:

- (a) Eighty or more square feet of usable floor space in a one-person sleeping room;
- (b) Seventy or more square feet of usable floor space per individual in a sleeping room occupied by two or more individuals, except:
 - (i) When a resident sleeping room is located within a private apartment; and
 - (ii) The private apartment includes a resident sleeping room, a resident living room, and a private bathroom; and
 - (iii) The total square footage in the private apartment equals or exceeds two hundred twenty square feet excluding the bathroom; and
 - (iv) There are no more than two residents living in the apartment; and
 - (v) Both residents mutually agree to share the resident sleeping room; and
 - (vi) All other requirements of this section are met, then the two residents may share a sleeping room with less than one hundred forty square feet.
- (c) A maximum sleeping room occupancy of:
 - (i) Four individuals if the boarding home was licensed before July 1, 1989, and licensed continuously thereafter; and
 - (ii) Two individuals if the boarding home, after June 30, 1989:
 - (A) Applied for initial licensure; or
 - (B) Applied to increase the number of resident sleeping rooms; or
 - (C) Applied to change the use of rooms into sleeping rooms.

(2007 Ed.)

(d) Unrestricted direct access to a hallway, living room, outside, or other common-use area;

(e) One or more outside windows with:

(i) Window sills at or above grade, with grade extending horizontally ten or more feet from the building; and

(ii) Adjustable curtains, shades, blinds, or equivalent for visual privacy.

(f) One or more duplex electrical outlets per bed if the boarding home was initially licensed after July 1, 1983;

(g) A light control switch located by the entrance for a light fixture in the room;

(h) An individual towel and washcloth rack or equivalent, except when there is a private bathroom attached to the resident sleeping or living room, the individual towel and washcloth rack may be located in the attached private bathroom;

(i) In all boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, and when requested by a resident in a boarding home licensed on or before September 1, 2004, provide a lockable drawer, cupboard or other secure space measuring at least one-half cubic foot with a minimum dimension of four inches;

(j) Separate storage facilities for each resident in or immediately adjacent to the resident's sleeping room to adequately store a reasonable quantity of clothing and personal possessions;

(k) A configuration to permit all beds in the resident sleeping room to be spaced at least three feet from other beds unless otherwise requested by all affected residents.

(2) The boarding home must ensure each resident sleeping room contains:

(a) A comfortable bed for each resident, except when two residents mutually agree to share a bed. The bed must be thirty-six or more inches wide for a single resident and fifty-four or more inches wide for two residents, appropriate for size, age and physical condition of the resident and room dimensions, including, but not limited to:

(i) Standard household bed;

(ii) Studio couch;

(iii) Hide-a-bed;

(iv) Day bed; or

(v) Water bed, if structurally and electrically safe.

(b) A mattress for each bed which:

(i) Fits the bed frame;

(ii) Is in good condition; and

(iii) Is at least four inches thick unless otherwise requested or necessary for resident health or safety.

(c) One or more comfortable pillows for each resident;

(d) Bedding for each bed, in good repair; and

(e) Lighting at the resident's bedside when requested by the resident.

(3) The boarding home must not allow a resident sleeping room to be used as a passageway or corridor.

(4) The boarding home may use or allow use of carpets and other floor coverings only when the carpet is:

(a) Securely fastened to the floor or provided with non-skid backing; and

(b) Kept clean and free of hazards, such as curling edges or tattered sections.

(5) The boarding home must ensure each resident has either a sleeping room or resident living room that contains a sturdy, comfortable chair appropriate for the age and physical condition of the resident. This requirement does not mean a boarding home is responsible for supplying specially designed orthotic or therapeutic chairs, including those with mechanical lifts or adjustments.

WAC 388-78A-3020 Calculating floor space. Usable floor space in a resident's sleeping room is calculated by measuring from interior wall surface to interior wall surface:

- (1) Including:
 - (a) Areas under moveable furniture; and
 - (b) Areas of door swings and entryways into the sleeping room.
- (2) Excluding:
 - (a) Areas under ceilings less than seven feet six inches high;
 - (b) Closet space and built-in storage;
 - (c) Areas under counters, sinks, or appliances; and
 - (d) Bathrooms and toilet rooms.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-3020, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-3030 Toilet rooms and bathrooms. (1) The boarding home must provide private or common-use toilet rooms and bathrooms to meet the needs of each resident.

(2) The boarding home must provide each toilet room and bathroom with:

- (a) Water resistant, smooth, low gloss, nonslip and easily cleanable materials;
- (b) Washable walls to the height of splash or spray;
- (c) Grab bars installed and located to minimize accidental falls including one or more grab bars at each:
 - (i) Bathing fixture; and
 - (ii) Toilet.
- (d) Plumbing fixtures designed for easy use and cleaning and kept in good repair; and
- (e) Adequate ventilation to the outside of the boarding home. For boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, must provide mechanical ventilation to the outside.

(3) The boarding home must provide each toilet room with a:

- (a) Toilet with a clean, nonabsorbent seat free of cracks;
- (b) Handwashing sink in or adjacent to the toilet room. For boarding homes issued a project number by construction review services on or after September 1, 2004 for construction related to this section, the handwashing sink must be in the toilet room or in an adjacent private area that is not part of a common use area of the boarding home; and
- (c) Suitable mirror with adequate lighting for general illumination.

(4) For boarding homes approved for construction or initially licensed after August 1, 1994, the boarding home must provide a toilet and handwashing sink in, or adjoining, each bathroom.

(5) When providing common-use toilet rooms and bathrooms, the boarding home must provide toilets and handwashing sinks for residents in the ratios of one toilet and one handwashing sink for every eight residents or fraction as listed in the following table:

Number of Residents	Number of Toilets*	Number of Handwashing Sinks

WAC 388-78A-3170 Circumstances resulting in enforcement remedies. (1) The department is authorized to impose enforcement remedies described in WAC 388-78A-3160 if any person described in subsection (2) of this section is found by the department to have:

- (a) A history of significant noncompliance with federal or state laws or regulations in providing care or services to frail elders, vulnerable adults or children, whether as a licensee, contractor, managerial employee or otherwise. Evidence of significant noncompliance may include, without limitation:
 - (i) Citations for violation of laws or regulations imposed by regulating entities;
 - (ii) Sanctions for violation of laws or regulations imposed by regulating entities;
 - (iii) Involuntary termination, cancellation, suspension, or nonrenewal of a Medicaid contract or Medicare provider agreement, or any other agreement with a public agency for the care or treatment of children, frail elders or vulnerable adults;
 - (iv) Been denied a license relating to the care of frail elders, vulnerable adults or children; or
 - (v) Relinquished or failed to renew a license relating to care of frail elders, vulnerable adults or children following written notification of the licensing agency's initiation of denial, suspension, cancellation or revocation of a license.

(b) Failed to provide appropriate care to frail elders, vulnerable adults or children under a contract, or having such contract terminated or not renewed by the contracting agency due to such failure;

(c) Been convicted of a felony, or a crime against a person, if the conviction reasonably relates to the competency of the person to operate a boarding home;

(d) Failed or refused to comply with the requirements of chapter 18.20 RCW, applicable provisions of chapter 70.129 RCW or this chapter;

(e) Retaliated against a staff person, resident or other individual for:

(i) Reporting suspected abuse or other alleged improprieties;

(ii) Providing information to the department during the course of the department conducting an inspection of the boarding home; or

(iii) Providing information to the department during the course of the department conducting a complaint investigation in the boarding home.

(f) Operated a facility for the care of children or adults without a current, valid license or under a defunct or revoked license;

(g) Been convicted of a crime committed on a boarding home premises; knowingly permitted, aided or abetted an illegal act on a boarding home premises; or engaged in the illegal use of drugs or the excessive use of alcohol;

(h) Abused, neglected or exploited a vulnerable adult or knowingly failed to report alleged abuse, neglect or exploitation of a vulnerable adult as required by chapter 74.34 RCW;

(i) Failed to exercise fiscal accountability and responsibility involving a resident, the department, public agencies, or the business community; or to have insufficient financial resources or unencumbered income to sustain the operation of the boarding home;

(j) Knowingly or with reason to know, made false statements of material fact in the application for the license or the renewal of the license or any data attached thereto, or in any matter under investigation by the department;

(k) Willfully prevented or interfered with or attempted to impede in any way any inspection or investigation by the department, or the work of any authorized representative of the department or the lawful enforcement of any provision of this chapter;

(l) Refused to allow department representatives or agents to examine any part of the licensed premises including the books, records and files required under this chapter;

(m) Moved all residents out of the boarding home without the department's approval and to be no longer operating as a boarding home; or

(n) Demonstrated any other factors that give evidence the applicant lacks the appropriate character, suitability and competence to provide care or services to vulnerable adults.

(2) This section applies to any boarding home:

(a) Applicant;

(b) Partner, officer or director;

(c) Manager or managerial employee; or

(d) Majority owner of the applicant or licensee:

(i) Who is involved in the management or operation of the boarding home;

(ii) Who may have direct access to boarding home residents;

(iii) Who controls or supervises the provision of care or services to boarding home residents; or

(iv) Who exercises control over daily operations of the boarding home.

(3) For other circumstances resulting in discretionary enforcement remedies, see WAC 388-78A-3200.

WAC 388-78A-3180 Required enforcement remedies. The department must impose an appropriate remedy consistent with RCW 18.20.125 and as otherwise authorized by RCW 18.20.185 or 18.20.190 whenever the department finds a boarding home has:

(1) A serious problem, a recurring problem, or an uncorrected problem;

(2) Created a hazard that causes or is likely to cause death or serious harm to one or more residents;

(3) Discriminated or retaliated in any manner against a resident, employee, or any other person because that person or any other person made a complaint or provided information to the department, the attorney general, a law enforcement agency, or the long-term care ombudsman; or

(4) Willfully interfered with the performance of official duties by a long-term care ombudsman.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.20.090 (2004 c 142 § 19) and chapter 18.20 RCW. 04-16-065, § 388-78A-3180, filed 7/30/04, effective 9/1/04.]

WAC 388-78A-3190 Denial, suspension, revocation, or nonrenewal of license statutorily required. (1) The department must deny, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew a boarding home license if any person described in subsection (2) of this section who has unsupervised access to residents, is:

(a) Convicted of a crime against children or other persons or crimes relating to financial exploitation as defined under RCW 43.43.830 or 43.43.842; or

(b) Found by a court in a protection proceeding or in a civil damages lawsuit under chapter 74.34 RCW to have abused, neglected, abandoned or exploited a vulnerable adult; or

(c) Found in any dependency action under chapter 13.34 RCW to have sexually assaulted, neglected, exploited, or physically abused any minor; or

(d) Found by a court in a domestic relations proceeding under Title 26 RCW to have sexually abused, exploited, or physically abused any minor; or

(e) Found in any final decision issued by a disciplinary board to have sexually or physically abused or neglected or exploited any minor or any vulnerable adult, or has a stipulated finding of fact, conclusion of law, an agreed order, or finding of fact, conclusion of law, or final order issued by a disciplining authority, a court of law, or entered into a state registry finding him or her guilty of abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment of a minor or a vulnerable adult as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW.

- (2) This section applies to any boarding home:
- (a) Applicant;
 - (b) Partner, officer or director;
 - (c) Manager or managerial employee; or
 - (d) Owner of five percent or more of the applicant;
 - (i) Who is involved in the operation of the boarding home; or
 - (ii) Who may have direct access to the boarding home residents; or
 - (iii) Who controls or supervises the provision of care or services to the boarding home residents; or
 - (iv) Who exercises control over daily operations.

WAC 388-78A-3200 Progression of enforcement remedies. (1) When the department cites a boarding home for an initial problem that does not represent a recurring problem, serious problem or uncorrected problem, and that results in minimal or moderate harm that is limited in scope, the department may:

- (a) Require a plan of correction from the boarding home;
- (b) Impose conditions on the boarding home license; and/or

(c) Impose a civil penalty.

(2) The department may take any of the actions specified in subsection (1) of this section and/or impose a stop-placement or limited stop-placement on a boarding home when:

(a) There is a reasonable probability, at the time the stop-placement or limited stop-placement is imposed, at least a moderate degree of harm will occur or recur as a result of a single problem or by a combination of problems; and

(b) The threatening problem is more than an isolated event or occurrence.

(3) The department may take any of the actions specified in subsections (1) and (2) of this section and/or summarily suspend a boarding home's license when:

(a) There is an imminent threat that a serious degree of harm may occur to residents as a result of a single problem or a combination of problems; and

(b) The threatening problem is more than an isolated event or occurrence.

(4) The department may take any of the actions specified in subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section and/or revoke a boarding home's license when:

(a) The department has cause to summarily suspend the boarding home's license;

(b) There is a current problem with the boarding home and the boarding home has a history of having enforcement remedies imposed by the department;

(c) There is a current problem with the boarding home and the boarding home has a history of noncompliance representing problems that were at least moderate in nature and moderate in scope;

(d) The boarding home has moved all residents out of the boarding home without the department's approval and is no longer operating as a boarding home; or

(e) There is a serious current problem, which may not warrant a summary suspension, with the boarding home that does not have a history of noncompliance. Examples of the types of serious current problems that may warrant license revocation include, but are not limited to:

(i) The licensee has been found or convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction to have engaged in fraudulent activity; or

(ii) The licensee is experiencing significant financial problems resulting in poor care or jeopardizing the care and services that can be provided to residents, and possible business failure; or

(f) The boarding home fails to cooperate with the department during any inspection or complaint investigation.

388-79-020	Definitions.
388-79-030	Maximum fees and costs.
388-79-040	Procedure to revise award letter after June 15, 1998, but before September 1, 2003.
388-79-050	Procedure for allowing fees and costs from client participation after September 1, 2003.

WAC 388-79-010 Purpose. These rules implement RCW 11.92.180 and 43.20B.460 to the extent that those statutes require the department to establish by rule the maximum amount of guardianship fees and additional compensation for administrative costs that may be allowed by the court for a guardian or limited guardian of an incapacitated person who is a Medicaid client of the department and is thus required by federal law to contribute to the cost of the client's long-term care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 11.92.180, 43.20B.460, 03-16-022, § 388-79-010, filed 7/28/03, effective 8/28/03; 98-10-055, § 388-79-010, filed 4/30/98, effective 5/31/98.]

WAC 388-79-020 Definitions. "Administrative costs" or "costs" means necessary costs paid by the guardian including attorney fees.

"Client" means a person who is eligible for and is receiving Medicaid-funded long-term care.

"Guardianship fees" or "fees" means necessary fees charged by a guardian for services rendered on behalf of a client.

"Participation" means the amount the client pays from current monthly income toward the cost of the client's long-term care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 11.92.180, 43.20B.460, 03-16-022, § 388-79-020, filed 7/28/03, effective 8/28/03; 98-10-055, § 388-79-020, filed 4/30/98, effective 5/31/98.]

WAC 388-79-030 Maximum fees and costs. The superior court may allow guardianship fees and administrative costs in an amount set out in an order. For orders entered after June 15, 1998, where the order establishes or continues a legal guardianship for a department client, and requires a future review or accounting; then unless otherwise modified by the process described in WAC 388-79-040:

(1) The amount of guardianship fees shall not exceed one hundred seventy-five dollars per month;

(2) The amount of administrative costs directly related to establishing a guardianship for a department client shall not exceed seven hundred dollars; and

(3) The amount of administrative costs shall not exceed a total of six hundred dollars during any three-year period.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 458]

[Statutory Authority: RCW 11.92.180, 43.20B.460, 03-16-022, § 388-79-030, filed 7/28/03, effective 8/28/03; 98-10-055, § 388-79-030, filed 4/30/98, effective 5/31/98.]

WAC 388-79-040 Procedure to revise award letter after June 15, 1998, but before September 1, 2003. After June 15, 1998, but before September 1, 2003, where a department client is subject to a guardianship then the department shall be entitled to notice of proceedings as described in RCW 11.92.150.

(1) The notice shall be given to the appropriate regional administrator of the program serving the department client. A list of the regional administrators will be available upon request.

(2) If the fees and costs requested and established by the order are equal to or lower than the maximum amount set by this rule then the award letter or document setting the department's client's participation shall be adjusted to reflect that amount upon receipt by the department of the court order setting a monthly amount.

(3) Should fees and costs above those requested in WAC 388-79-030 be requested:

(a) The appropriate regional administrator will be given notice of the hearing as described in RCW 11.92.150, and provided with copies of all supporting documents filed with the court.

(b) Should the court determine after consideration of the facts, law and evidence of the case, that fees and costs higher than normally allowed in WAC 388-79-030 are just and reasonable and should be allowed then the award letter or document setting the department client's participation shall be adjusted to reflect that amount upon receipt by the department of the court order setting a monthly amount.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 11.92.180, 43.20B.460, 03-16-022, § 388-79-040, filed 7/28/03, effective 8/28/03; 98-10-055, § 388-79-040, filed 4/30/98, effective 5/31/98.]

WAC 388-79-050 Procedure for allowing fees and costs from client participation after September 1, 2003.

(1) After September 1, 2003, where a client is subject to a guardianship the department shall be entitled to notice of proceedings as described in RCW 11.92.150.

(2) The notice must be served to the department's regional administrator of the program that is providing services to the client. A list of the regional administrators will be furnished upon request.

(3) If the fees and costs requested and established by the order are equal to or less than the maximum amounts allowed under WAC 388-79-030, then the department will adjust the client's current participation to reflect the amounts allowed upon receipt by the department of the court order setting the monthly amounts.

(4) Should fees and costs in excess of the amounts allowed in WAC 388-79-030 be requested:

(a) At least ten days before filing the request with the court, the guardian must present the request in writing to the appropriate regional administrator to allow the department an opportunity to consider whether the request should be granted on an exceptional basis.

(b) In considering a request for extraordinary fees or costs, the department must consider the following factors:

Chapter 388-96 WAC

NURSING FACILITY MEDICAID PAYMENT SYSTEM

(i) The department's obligation under federal and state law to ensure that federal Medicaid funding is not jeopardized by noncompliance with federal regulations limiting deductions from the client's participation amount;

(ii) The usual and customary guardianship services for which the maximum fees and costs under WAC 388-79-030 must be deemed adequate for a Medicaid client, including but not limited to:

- (A) Acting as a representative payee;
- (B) Managing the client's financial affairs;
- (C) Preserving and/or disposing of property;
- (D) Making health care decisions;
- (E) Visiting and/or maintaining contact with the client;
- (F) Accessing public assistance programs on behalf of the client;

(G) Communicating with the client's service providers; and

(H) Preparing any reports or accountings required by the court.

(iii) Extraordinary services provided by the guardian, such as:

- (A) Unusually complicated property transactions;
- (B) Substantial interactions with adult protective services or criminal justice agencies;
- (C) Extensive medical services setup needs and/or emergency hospitalizations; and
- (D) Litigation other than litigating an award of guardianship fees or costs.

(c) Should the court determine after consideration of the facts and law that fees and costs in excess of the amounts allowed in WAC 388-79-030 are just and reasonable and should be allowed, then the department will adjust the client's current participation to reflect the amounts allowed upon receipt by the department of the court order setting the monthly amounts.

(5) In no event may a client's participation be prospectively or retrospectively reduced to pay fees and costs incurred before the effective date of the client's Medicaid eligibility; or during any subsequent time period when the client was not eligible for, or did not receive long-term care services; or after the client has died. There is no client participation towards DDD certified and contracted supported living services under chapter 388-820 WAC, so the department has no responsibility to reimburse the client for guardianship fees when those fees result in the client having insufficient income to pay their living expenses.

(6) If the court at a prior accounting has allowed the guardian to receive fees and costs from the client's monthly income in advance of services rendered by the guardian, and the client dies before the next accounting, the fees and costs allowed by the court at the final accounting may be less than, but may not exceed, the amounts advanced and paid to the guardian from the client's income.

(7) Guardians must furnish the regional administrator with complete packets to include all documents filed with the court and with formal notice clearly identifying the amount requested.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 11.92.180, 43.20B.460, 03-16-022, § 388-79-050, filed 7/28/03, effective 8/28/03.]

WAC 388-96-010 Definitions. Unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply in this chapter.

"Accounting" means activities providing information, usually quantitative and often expressed in monetary units, for:

- (1) Decision making;
- (2) Planning;
- (3) Evaluating performance;
- (4) Controlling resources and operations; and

(5) External financial reporting to investors, creditors, regulatory authorities, and the public.

"Administration and management" means activities used to maintain, control, and evaluate the efforts and resources of an organization for the accomplishment of the objectives and policies of that organization.

"Allowable costs" means documented costs that are necessary, ordinary, and related to the care of Medicaid recipients, and are not expressly declared nonallowable by this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW. Costs are ordinary if they are of the nature and magnitude that prudent and cost conscious management would pay.

"Allowable depreciation costs" means depreciation costs of tangible assets, whether owned or leased by the contractor, meeting the criteria specified in RCW 74.46.330.

"Assignment of contract" means:

(1) A new nursing facility licensee has elected to care for Medicaid residents;

(2) The department finds no good cause to object to continuing the Medicaid contract at the facility; and

(3) The new licensee accepts assignment of the immediately preceding contractor's contract at the facility.

"Capitalized lease" means a lease required to be recorded as an asset and associated liability in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

"Cash method of accounting" means a method of accounting in which revenues are recorded when cash is received, and expenditures for expense and asset items are not recorded until cash is disbursed for those expenditures and assets.

"Change of ownership" means a substitution, elimination, or withdrawal of the individual operator or operating entity contracting with the department to deliver care services to medical care recipients in a nursing facility and ultimately responsible for the daily operational decisions of the nursing facility.

(1) Events which constitute a change of ownership include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Changing the form of legal organization of the contractor, e.g., a sole proprietor forms a partnership or corporation;

(b) Transferring ownership of the nursing facility business enterprise to another party, regardless of whether ownership of some or all of the real property and/or personal property assets of the facility are also transferred;

(c) Dissolving of a partnership;

(d) Dissolving the corporation, merging the corporation with another corporation, which is the survivor, or consolidating with one or more other corporations to form a new corporation;

(e) Transferring, whether by a single transaction or multiple transactions within any continuous twenty-four-month period, fifty percent or more of the stock to one or more:

(i) New or former stockholders; or

(ii) Present stockholders each having held less than five percent of the stock before the initial transaction;

(f) Substituting of the individual operator or the operating entity by any other event or combination of events that results in a substitution or substitution of control of the individual operator or the operating entity contracting with the department to deliver care services; or

(g) A nursing facility ceases to operate.

(2) Ownership does not change when the following, without more, occurs:

(a) A party contracts with the contractor to manage the nursing facility enterprise as the contractor's agent, i.e., subject to the contractor's general approval of daily operating and management decisions; or

(b) The real property or personal property assets of the nursing facility change ownership or are leased, or a lease of them is terminated, without a substitution of individual operator or operating entity and without a substitution of control of the operating entity contracting with the department to deliver care services.

"Charity allowance" means a reduction in charges made by the contractor because of the indigence or medical indigence of a patient.

"Component rate allocation(s)" means the initial component rate allocation(s) of the rebased rate for a rebase period effective July 1. If a month and a day, other than July 1, with a year precedes "component rate allocation(s)," it means the initial component rate allocation(s) of the rebased rate of the rebase period has been amended or updated effective the date that precedes it, e.g., October 1, 1999 direct care component rate allocation.

"Contract" means an agreement between the department and a contractor for the delivery of nursing facility services to medical care recipients.

"Cost report" means all schedules of a nursing facility's cost report submitted according to the department's instructions.

"Courtesy allowances" means reductions in charges in the form of an allowance to physicians, clergy, and others, for services received from the contractor. Employee fringe benefits are not considered courtesy allowances.

"Donated asset" means an asset the contractor acquired without making any payment for the asset either in cash, property, or services. An asset is not a donated asset if the contractor:

(1) Made even a nominal payment in acquiring the asset; or

(2) Used donated funds to purchase the asset.

"Equity capital" means total tangible and other assets which are necessary, ordinary, and related to patient care from the most recent provider cost report minus related total long-term debt from the most recent provider cost report plus working capital as defined in this section.

"Fiscal year" means the operating or business year of a contractor. All contractors report on the basis of a twelve-month fiscal year, but provision is made in this chapter for reports covering abbreviated fiscal periods. As determined by context or otherwise, "fiscal year" may also refer to a state fiscal year extending from July 1 through June 30 of the following year and comprising the first or second half of a state fiscal biennium.

"Gain on sale" means the actual total sales price of all tangible and intangible nursing facility assets including, but not limited to, land, building, equipment, supplies, goodwill, and beds authorized by certificate of need, minus the net book value of such assets immediately prior to the time of sale.

"Intangible asset" is an asset that lacks physical substance but possesses economic value.

"Interest" means the cost incurred for the use of borrowed funds, generally paid at fixed intervals by the user.

"Multiservice facility" means a facility at which two or more types of health or related care are delivered, e.g., a hospital and nursing facility, or a boarding home and nursing facility.

"Nonadministrative wages and benefits" means wages, benefits, and corresponding payroll taxes paid for nonadministrative personnel, not to include administrator, assistant administrator, or administrator-in-training.

"Nonallowable costs" means the same as "unallowable costs."

"Nonrestricted funds" means funds which are not restricted to a specific use by the donor, e.g., general operating funds.

"Nursing facility occupancy percentage" is determined by multiplying the number of calendar days for the cost report period by the number of licensed beds for the same cost report period. Then, the nursing facility's actual resident days for the same cost report period is divided by the product. When the nursing facility under chapter 70.38 RCW reinstates or reduces the number of licensed beds, then under WAC 388-96-708 or 388-96-709 the number of licensed beds after reinstatement or reduction will be used. In all determinations that require a nursing facility occupancy percentage, the department will use the greater of either a nursing facility's occupancy percentage or eighty-five percent.

"Per diem (per patient day or per resident day) costs" means total allowable costs for a fiscal period divided by total patient or resident days for the same period.

"Prospective daily payment rate" means the rate assigned by the department to a contractor for providing service to medical care recipients prior to the application of settlement principles.

"Recipient" means a Medicaid recipient.

"Related care" includes:

- (1) The director of nursing services;
- (2) Activities and social services programs;
- (3) Medical and medical records specialists; and
- (4) Consultation provided by:
 - (a) Medical directors; and
 - (b) Pharmacists.

"Relative" includes:

- (1) Spouse;
- (2) Natural parent, child, or sibling;
- (3) Adopted child or adoptive parent;
- (4) Stepparent, stepchild, stepbrother, stepsister;
- (5) Father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law;
- (6) Grandparent or grandchild; and
- (7) Uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, or cousin.

"Start up costs" means the one-time preopening costs incurred from the time preparation begins on a newly constructed or purchased building until the first patient is admitted. Start up costs include:

- (1) Administrative and nursing salaries;
- (2) Utility costs;
- (3) Taxes;
- (4) Insurance;

- (5) Repairs and maintenance; and
- (6) Training costs.

Start up costs do not include expenditures for capital assets.

"Total rate allocation" means the initial rebased rate for a rebase period effective July 1. If a month and a day, other than July 1, with a year precedes "total rate allocation," it means the initial rebased rate of the rebase period has been amended or updated effective the date that precedes it, e.g., October 1, 1999 direct care component rate allocation.

"Unallowable costs" means costs which do not meet every test of an allowable cost.

"Uniform chart of accounts" means a list of account titles identified by code numbers established by the department for contractors to use in reporting costs.

"Vendor number" means a number assigned to each contractor delivering care services to medical care recipients.

WAC 388-96-020 Prospective cost-related payment.

The nursing facility Medicaid payment system is the system used by the department to pay for nursing facility services provided to medical care recipients. Payment for nursing facility care shall be determined in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW. The provisions of chapter 74.46 RCW are incorporated by reference in this chapter as if fully set forth.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.46.800. 98-20-023, § 388-96-020, filed 9/25/98, effective 10/1/98. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.09.120 and 74.46.800. 85-13-065 (Order 2245), § 388-96-020, filed 6/18/85. WAC 388-96-026 New contractors. (1) For purposes of administering the payment system, the department shall consider a "new contractor" as one who receives a new vendor number and:

(a) Builds from the ground-up a new facility; and operates the new facility with completely new staff, administration and residents. If the "new contractor" operated a nursing facility immediately before the opening of the new facility, then the "new contractor" must operate the new facility with:

(i) Staff and administration that are substantially to completely different than the previous operation of the "new contractor"; and

(ii) A resident population that is substantially to completely different than the residents residing in the previous nursing facility; or

(b) Currently operates, acquires, or assumes responsibility for operating an existing nursing facility that was not operated under a Medicaid contract immediately prior to the effective date of the new Medicaid contract; or

(c) Purchases or leases a nursing facility that, at the time of the purchase or lease, was operated under a Medicaid contract.

(2) A new contractor shall submit:

(a) At least sixty days before the effective date of the contract or assignment, a statement disclosing the identity of individuals or organizations who:

(i) Have a beneficial ownership interest in the current operating entity or the land, building, or equipment of the facility; or

(ii) Have a beneficial ownership interest in the purchasing or leasing entity.

(b) By March 31st of the following year, a cost report for the period from the effective date of the contract or assignment through December 31st of year the contract or assignment was effective.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.46 RCW as amended by 1998 c 322 § 19(11) and RCW 74.46.800. 98-20-023, § 388-96-026, filed 9/25/98, effective 10/1/98. WAC 388-96-107 Requests for extensions. (1) A contractor may request in writing an extension for submitting cost reports. Contractor requests shall:

(a) Be addressed to the manager, residential rates program;

(b) State the circumstances prohibiting compliance with the report due date; and

(c) Be received by the department at least ten days prior to the due date of the report.

(2) The department may grant two extensions of up to thirty days each, only if the circumstances, stated clearly, indicate the due date cannot be met and the following conditions are present:

(a) The circumstances were not foreseeable by the provider; and

(b) The circumstances were not avoidable by advance planning.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.09.180 and 74.46.800. 89-01-095 (Order 2742), § 388-96-107, filed 12/21/88. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.09.120. 83-19-047 (Order 2025), § 388-96-107, filed 9/16/83; Order 1262, § 388-96-107, filed 12/30/77.]

WAC 388-96-108 Failure to submit final reports. (1)

If a nursing facility's contract is terminated or assigned, and the nursing facility does not submit a final cost report as required by RCW 74.46.040, the nursing facility shall return to the department all payments made to the terminating or assigning contractor relating to the period for which a report has not been received within sixty days after the terminating or assigning contractor receives a written demand from the department.

(2) Effective sixty days after the terminating or assigning contractor receives a written demand for payment, interest will begin to accrue payable to the department on any unpaid balance at the rate of one percent per month.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.46.040 and 74.46.050 as amended by 1998 c 322 §§ 3 and 4, 98-20-023, § 388-96-108, filed 9/25/98, effective 10/1/98. WAC 388-96-117 Certification requirement. The contractor as defined in RCW 74.46.020(13) must certify under penalty of perjury that the cost report or an amendment to it is a true, correct, and complete representation of actual costs related to patient care prepared in accordance with applicable instructions provided by the department, chapter 388-96 WAC, and chapter 74.46 RCW. Further, where other costs not related to patient care are shown, they are classified as unallowable.

WAC 388-96-119 Reports—False information. (1) If a contractor knowingly or with reason to know files a report containing false information, such action constitutes good cause for termination of its contract with the department.

(2) In accordance with RCW 74.46.531, the department will make adjustments to payment rates because a false report was filed.

(3) Contractors filing false reports may be referred for prosecution under applicable statutes.

WAC 388-96-122 Amendments to reports. (1) For the purpose of determining allowable costs, the department shall consider an amendment to an annual report only if filed by the provider before the receipt by the provider of the notification scheduling the department's audit. The contractor may file an amendment subsequent to such notification and pursuant to the provisions of RCW 74.46.531 to adjust a payment rate allocation because of an error or omission. When the provider files an amendment, the department shall consider it only if significant errors or omissions are discovered. The department shall deem errors or omissions "significant" when the errors or omissions would mean a net difference of two cents or more per patient day or one thousand dollars or more in reported costs, whichever is higher, in any component rate allocation. To file an amendment, only those cost report pages where changes appear need to be filed, together with the certification required by WAC 388-96-117.

(2) If an amendment is filed, a contractor shall also submit with the amendment an account of the circumstances relating to and the reasons for the amendment, along with supporting documentation. The department shall refuse to consider an amendment resulting in a more favorable settlement or payment rate allocation to a contractor if the amendment is not the result of circumstances beyond the control of the contractor or the result of good-faith error under the system of cost allocation and accounting in effect during the reporting period in question.

(3) Acceptance or use by the department of an amendment to a cost report shall in no way be construed as a release of applicable civil or criminal liability.

WAC 388-96-202 Scope of audit or department audit. (1) The department will review the contractor's record-keeping and accounting practices and, where appropriate, make written recommendations for improvements.

(2) The department's audit will result in a schedule of summarizing adjustments to the contractor's cost report. The schedule will show whether such adjustments eliminate costs reported or include costs not reported. Each adjustment listed will include an explanation for the adjustment, the cost report account, and the dollar amount. In accordance with chapter 74.46 RCW, the department will comply with the purpose of department audits by verifying that:

(a) Supporting records are in agreement with reported data;

(b) Only those assets, liabilities, and revenue and expense items the department has specified as allowable have been included by the contractor in computing the costs of services provided under its contract;

(c) Allowable costs have been accurately determined and are necessary, ordinary, and related to resident care;

(d) Related organizations and beneficial ownerships or interests have been correctly disclosed;

(e) Home office or central office costs have been reported and allocated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW;

(f) Recipient and non-Medicaid resident trust funds have been properly maintained and disbursed;

(g) Facility receivables do not include benefits or payments to which the provider is not entitled; and

(h) The contractor is otherwise in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(3) In complying with the purpose of department audits in chapter 74.46 RCW, the department may select any or all schedules of a facility's cost report. The department will audit cost reports, resident trust fund accounts, and facility receivables of each nursing facility participating in the Medicaid payment system as determined necessary by the department.

(4) When determining the contractor's final settlement, the department will apply to reported costs adjustments written under subsection (2), whether used for the purpose of establishing component rate allocations as described in chapter 74.46 RCW or to ascertain contractor compliance with subsection (2).

WAC 388-96-217 Civil fines. (1) When the department finds that a current or former contractor, or any partner, officer, director, owner of five percent or more of the stock of a current or former corporate contractor, or managing agent has failed or refused to comply with any requirement of chapters 74.46 RCW or 388-96 WAC, the department may assess monetary penalties of a civil nature not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation. Every day of noncompliance with any requirement of chapters 74.46 RCW or 388-96 WAC is a separate violation.

(2) The department may fine a contractor or former contractor or any partner, officer, director, owner of five percent or more of the stock of a current or former corporate contractor, or managing agent for the following but is not limited to the following in its fine assessments:

(a) Failure to file a mathematically accurate and complete cost report, including a final cost report, on or prior to the applicable due date established by this chapter or authorized by extension granted in writing by the department; or

(b) Failure to permit an audit authorized by this chapter or to grant access to all records and documents deemed necessary by the department to complete such an audit.

(3) The department shall send notice of a fine assessed under subsection (2) of this section by certified mail return receipt requested to the current contractor, administrator, or former contractor informing the addressee of the following:

(a) The fine shall become effective the date of receipt of the notice by the addressee; and

(b) If within two weeks of the date of receipt of the notice by the addressee, an acceptable cost report is received by the department; an audit is allowed; or access to documentation is allowed, as applicable, the department may waive the fine.

(4)(a) The department may fine a current or former contractor, or any partner, officer, director, owner of a current or former corporate contractor, or managing agent for failure to comply with RCW 74.46.630.

(b) The department shall send notice of a fine assessed under (a) of this subsection by certified mail, to the current contractor, administrator, or former contractor informing the addressee that the fine shall become effective upon receipt of notice by the addressee.

WAC 388-96-218 Proposed, preliminary, and final settlements. (1) For each component rate, the department shall calculate a proposed, preliminary or final settlement at (2007 Ed.)

the lower of prospective payment rate or audited allowable costs, except as otherwise provided in this chapter [and chapter 74.46 RCW].

(2) As part of the cost report, the proposed settlement report is due in accordance with RCW 74.46.040. In the proposed preliminary settlement report, a contractor shall compare the contractor's payment rates during a cost report period, weighted by the number of resident days reported for the same cost report period to the contractor's allowable costs for the cost report period. [In accordance with RCW 74.46.-100, 74.46.155 and 74.46.165] the contractor shall take into account all authorized shifting, retained savings, and upper limits to rates on a cost center basis.

(a) The department will:

(i) Review the proposed preliminary settlement report for accuracy; and

(ii) Accept or reject the proposal of the contractor. If accepted, the proposed preliminary settlement report shall become the preliminary settlement report. If rejected, the department shall issue, by component payment rate allocation, a preliminary settlement report fully substantiating disallowed costs, refunds, or underpayments due and adjustments to the proposed preliminary settlement.

(b) When the department receives the proposed preliminary settlement report:

(i) By the cost report due date specified in RCW 74.46.040, it will issue the preliminary settlement report within one hundred twenty days of the cost report due date; or

(ii) After the cost report due date specified in RCW 74.46.040, it will issue the preliminary settlement report within one hundred twenty days of the date the cost report was received.

(c) In its discretion, the department may designate a date later than the dates specified in subsection (2)(b)(i) and (ii) of this section to issue preliminary settlements.

(d) A contractor shall have twenty-eight days after receipt of a preliminary settlement report to contest such report under WAC 388-96-901 and 388-96-904. Upon expiration of the twenty-eight day period, the department shall not review or adjust a preliminary settlement report. Any administrative review of a preliminary settlement shall be limited to calculation of the settlement, to the application of settlement principles and rules, or both, and shall not encompass rate or audit issues.

(3) The department shall issue a final settlement report to the contractor after the completion of the department audit process, including exhaustion or termination of any administrative review and appeal of audit findings or determinations requested by the contractor, but not including judicial review as may be available to and commenced by the contractor.

(a) The department shall prepare a final settlement by component payment rate allocation and shall fully substantiate disallowed costs, refunds, underpayments, or adjustments to the cost report and financial statements, reports, and schedules submitted by the contractor. The department shall take into account all authorized shifting, savings, and upper limits to rates on a component payment rate allocation basis. For the final settlement report, the department shall compare:

(i) The payment rates it paid the contractor for the facility in question during the report period, weighted by the number of allowable resident days reported for the period each rate was in effect to the contractor's;

- (ii) Audited allowable costs for the reporting period; or
- (iii) Reported costs for the nonaudited reporting period.

(b) A contractor shall have twenty-eight days after the receipt of a final settlement report to contest such report pursuant to WAC 388-96-901 and 388-96-904. Upon expiration of the twenty-eight day period, the department shall not review a final settlement report. Any administrative review of a final settlement shall be limited to calculation of the settlement, the application of settlement principles and rules, or both, and shall not encompass rate or audit issues.

(c) The department shall reopen a final settlement if it is necessary to make adjustments based upon findings resulting from a department audit performed pursuant to RCW 74.46-100. The department may also reopen a final settlement to recover an industrial insurance dividend or premium discount under RCW 51.16.035 in proportion to a contractor's Medicaid recipient days.

(4)(a) In computing a preliminary or final settlement, a contractor must comply with the requirements of RCW 74.46.165 (2), (3), and (4) for retaining or refunding to the department payments made in excess of the adjusted costs of providing services corresponding to each component rate allocation.

(b) The facility shall refund all amounts due the department within sixty days after the date of decision or termination plus interest on any unpaid balance after sixty days will accrue at one percent per month. Repayment will be without prejudice to obtain review of the settlement determination pursuant to WAC 388-96-901 and 388-96-904. After an administrative hearing and/or judicial review, if the payment obligation is reduced, then the department will rescind the difference between the accrued interest on the payment obligation and the interest that would have accrued on the reduced payment obligation from the date interest began to accrue on the original payment obligation.

(5) In determining whether a facility has forfeited unused rate funds in its direct care, therapy care and support services component rates under authority of RCW 74.46.165, the following rules shall apply:

(a) Federal or state survey officials shall determine when a facility is not in substantial compliance or is providing substandard care, according to federal and state nursing facility survey regulations;

(b) Correspondence from state or federal survey officials notifying a facility of its compliance status shall be used to determine the beginning and ending dates of any period(s) of noncompliance; and

(c) Forfeiture shall occur if the facility was out of substantial compliance more than ninety days during the settlement period. The ninety-day period need not be continuous if the number of days of noncompliance exceed ninety days during the settlement period regardless of the length of the settlement period. Also, forfeiture shall occur if the nursing facility was determined to have provided substandard quality of care at any time during the settlement period.

(6)(a) For calendar year 1998, the department will calculate two settlements covering the following periods:

- (i) January 1, 1998 through September 30, 1998; and
- (ii) October 1, 1998 through December 31, 1998.

(b) The department will use Medicaid rates weighted by total patient days (i.e., Medicaid and non-Medicaid days) to divide 1998 costs between the two settlement periods identified in subsection (6)(a) of this section.

(c) The department will net the two settlements for 1998 to determine a nursing facility's 1998 settlement.

WAC 388-96-310 Interest on other excess payments.

(1) Any contractor obtaining benefits or payments under the medical assistance program to which such contractor is not entitled or in an amount to which such contractor is not entitled, shall be liable for such benefits or payments received and for interest on the amount of benefits or payments from the date of receipt until repayment is made to the department at the rate of one percent per month, unless the contractor establishes the overpayment was the result of errors made by the department.

(2) Interest charged by the department or interest expense incurred by the contractor, from whatever source, in making refund to the department shall not be reimbursable by the department as an allowable cost. The contractor may, by payment of a disputed settlement in whole or in part, stop accrual of interest on the amount paid. Such payment will be without prejudice to obtain review of a settlement determination.

WAC 388-96-366 Facility records and handling of resident moneys. (1) A nursing facility may not require residents to deposit personal funds with the facility. A facility may hold a resident's personal funds only if the resident or resident's guardian provides written authorization.

(2) Once a nursing facility accepts the written authorization of the resident or resident's guardian, the facility shall hold, safeguard, and account for such personal funds under an established system in accordance with this chapter. The nursing facility shall establish and maintain as a service to the residents a bookkeeping system, incorporated in the business records and adequate for audit, for all resident moneys received by the facility.

(3) The nursing facility shall maintain the resident's or guardian's written authorization in the resident's file. The facility shall deposit any resident's personal funds in excess of fifty dollars in an interest-bearing resident personal fund account or accounts, separate from any of the facility's operating accounts, and credit all interest earned on an account to the account. With respect to any other personal funds, the facility shall keep such funds in a noninterest-bearing account or petty cash fund maintained for residents.

(4) The facility shall give the resident at least a quarterly reporting of all financial transactions involving personal funds held for the resident by the facility. The facility shall send the representative payee, the guardian, or other designated agents of the resident a copy of the quarterly accounting report.

(5) The nursing facility shall further maintain a written record of all personal property deposited with the facility for safekeeping by or for the resident. The facility shall issue or obtain written receipts upon taking possession or disposing of such property and retain copies and/or originals of such receipts. The facility shall maintain records adequate for audit.

(6) The facility shall purchase a surety bond, or otherwise provide assurances or security satisfactory to the department, to assure the security of all personal funds of residents deposited with the facility.

WAC 388-96-369 The nursing facility shall maintain a subsidiary ledger with an account for each resident for whom the facility holds money. (1) The facility shall assure a full and complete separate accounting of each resident's personal funds. Each account record and related supporting information and documentation shall:

- (a) Be maintained at the facility;
- (b) Be kept current;
- (c) Be balanced each month; and
- (d) Show in writing and in detail, with supporting verification, all moneys received on behalf of the individual resident and the disposition of all moneys so received.

(2) Each account shall be reasonably accessible to the resident or the resident's guardian or legal representative and shall be available for audit and inspection by a department representative. Each account shall be maintained for a minimum of four years. A Medicaid provider shall notify each Title XIX Medicaid recipient or guardian and the home and community services office of the department that serves the area when the amount in the account of any Title XIX Medicaid recipient reaches two hundred dollars less than the applicable dollar resource limit for supplemental security income (SSI) eligibility set forth in Title XVI of the Social Security Act.

(3) When notice is given under subsection (2) of this section, the facility shall notify the recipient or guardian that if the amount in the account, in addition to the value of the recipient's other nonexempt resources, reaches the dollar resource limit determined under Title XVI, the recipient may lose eligibility for SSI medical assistance or benefits under Title XVI.

(4) After the recipient's admission to the facility, accumulation toward the Title XVI limit is permitted only from the clothing and personal incidentals allowance and other income that the department specifically designates as exempt income.

(5) No resident funds may be overdrawn (show a debit balance). If a resident wants to spend an amount greater than the facility is holding for the resident, the home may provide money from its own funds and collect the debt by installments from that portion of the resident's allowance remaining at the end of each month. No interest may be charged to residents for such loans.

(6) The facility may not impose a charge against the personal funds of a Medicare or Medicaid recipient for any item or service for which payment is made under the Title XVIII Medicare program or the Title XIX Medicaid program. In order to ensure that Medicaid recipients are not charged for services provided under the Title XIX program, any charge for medical services otherwise properly made to a recipient's personal funds shall be supported by a written denial from the department.

(a) Mobility aids including walkers, wheelchairs, or crutches requested for the exclusive use by a Medicaid recipient shall have a written denial from the department of social and health services before a recipient's personal funds may be charged.

(b) Requests for medically necessary services and supplies not funded under the provisions of chapter 388-96 WAC or chapter 388-86 WAC (reimbursement rate or coupon system) shall have a written denial from the department before a Medicaid recipient's personal funds may be charged.

(c) A written denial from the department is not required when the pharmacist verifies that a drug is not covered by the program, e.g., items on the FDA list of ineffective or possible effective drugs, nonformulary over-the-counter (OTC) medications. The pharmacist's notation to this effect is sufficient.

WAC 388-96-372 The nursing facility may maintain a petty cash fund originating from resident personal funds of an amount reasonable and necessary for the size of the facility and the needs of the residents. (1) This petty cash fund shall be an imprest fund limited to one thousand dollars unless the facility demonstrates good cause for the department to grant a higher limit. All moneys over and above the petty cash limit shall be deposited intact in an interest bearing account or accounts maintained for resident personal funds, separate and apart from any other bank account of the facility or other facilities. All interest earned on an account containing resident personal funds shall be credited to such account.

(2) Cash deposits of recipient allowances must be made intact to the resident personal fund account within one week from the time that payment is received from the department, Social Security Administration, or other payer.

(3) Any related bankbooks, bank statements, checkbook, check register, and all voided and cancelled checks, shall be made available for audit and inspection by a department rep-representative, and shall be maintained by the home for not less than four years.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 473]

(4) No service charges for such checking account shall be paid by residents or deducted from resident personal funds.

(5) The resident personal fund account or accounts per bank shall be reconciled monthly to the resident personal funds per resident ledgers.

WAC 388-96-375 Resident personal funds control/disbursement. Personal funds shall be held and used for the benefit of the resident and are not to be turned over to anyone other than the resident or the resident's guardian without the written consent of the resident, the resident's designated agent as appointed by power of attorney, or appropriate department of social and health services personnel as designated by the CSO administrator.

(1) When money is received, a receipt shall be filled out in duplicate:

(a) One copy shall be given to the person making payment or deposit; and

(b) The other copy shall be retained in the receipt book for easy reference.

(2) Checks received by residents shall be endorsed by the resident. Schedule I-A(6e) of the agreement states in part: "Each patient receiving a check or state warrant is responsible for endorsement by his own signature. Only when the patient is incapable of signing his name may the Provider assume the responsibility of securing the patient's mark "X" followed by the name of the patient and the signature of two witnesses."

(3) If both a facility operating account and a resident personal fund account are at the same bank, the resident portion of checks which include care payments can be deposited directly to the resident account by including a resident account deposit slip for the correct amount with the checks and the operating account deposit slip.

(4) The resident's ledger sheet shall be credited with the allowance received. This shall be referenced with the receipt number and shall be supported by a copy of the deposit slip (one copy for all deposits made).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.46.800, 74.42.620 and 74.09.120. 90-20-075 (Order 3070), § 388-96-378, filed 9/28/90, effective 10/1/90; Order 1114, § 388-96-378, filed 4/21/76.]

[Title 388 WAC—p. 474]

WAC 388-96-381 Procedure for refunding resident personal funds. (1) When a resident is discharged or transferred, the balance of the resident's personal funds shall be returned to the individual designated in WAC 388-96-375 within one week and a receipt obtained. In some cases it may be advisable to mail the refund to the resident's new residence.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.46.800, 74.42.620 and 74.09.120. 90-20-075 (Order 3070), § 388-96-381, filed 9/28/90, effective 10/1/90; Order 1114, § 388-96-381, filed 4/21/76.]

WAC 388-96-384 Liquidation or transfer of resident personal funds. (1) Upon the death of a resident, the facility shall promptly convey the resident's personal funds held by the facility with a final accounting of such funds to the department or to the individual or probate jurisdiction administering the resident's estate.

(a) If the deceased resident was a recipient of long-term care services paid for in whole or in part by the state of Washington then the personal funds held by the facility and the final accounting shall be sent to the state of Washington, department of social and health services, office of financial recovery (or successor office).

(b) The personal funds of the deceased resident and final accounting must be conveyed to the individual or probate jurisdiction administering the resident's estate or to the state of Washington, department of social and health services, office of financial recovery (or successor office) no later than the thirtieth day after the date of the resident's death.

(i) When the personal funds of the deceased resident are to be paid to the state of Washington, those funds shall be paid by the facility with a check, money order, certified check or cashier's check made payable to the secretary, department of social and health services, and mailed to the Office of Financial Recovery, Estate Recovery Unit, P.O. Box 9501, Olympia, Washington 98507-9501, or such address as may be directed by the department in the future.

(ii) The check, money order, certified check or cashier's check or the statement accompanying the payment shall contain the name and social security number of the deceased individual from whose personal funds account the monies are being paid.

(c) The department of social and health services shall establish a release procedure for use of funds necessary for burial expenses.

(2) In situations where the resident leaves the nursing home without authorization and the resident's whereabouts is unknown:

(a) The nursing facility shall make a reasonable attempt to locate the missing resident. This includes contacting:

- (i) Friends,
- (ii) Relatives,
- (iii) Police,
- (iv) The guardian, and

(v) The home and community services office in the area.

(b) If the resident cannot be located after ninety days, the nursing facility shall notify the department of revenue of the existence of "abandoned property," outlined in chapter 63.29 RCW. The nursing facility shall deliver to the department of revenue the balance of the resident's personal funds within twenty days following such notification.

(2007 Ed.)

(3) Prior to the sale or other transfer of ownership of the nursing facility business, the facility operator shall:

(a) Provide each resident or resident representative with a written accounting of any personal funds held by the facility;

(b) Provide the new operator with a written accounting of all resident funds being transferred; and

(c) Obtain a written receipt for those funds from the new operator.

WAC 388-96-505 Offset of miscellaneous revenues.

(1) The contractor shall reduce allowable costs whenever the item, service, or activity covered by such costs generates revenue or financial benefits (e.g., purchase discounts, refunds of allowable costs or rebates) other than through the contractor's normal billing for care services; except, the department shall not deduct from the allowable costs of a nonprofit facility unrestricted grants, gifts, and endowments, and interest therefrom.

(2) The contractor shall reduce allowable costs for hold-bed revenue in the support services, operations and property rate components only. In the support services rate component, the amount of reduction shall be determined by dividing a facility's allowable housekeeping costs by total adjusted patient days and multiplying the result by total hold-room days. In the operations rate component, the amount of the reduction shall be determined by dividing a facility's allowable operation costs by total adjusted patient days and multiplying the result by total hold-room days. In the property rate component, the amount of reduction shall be determined by dividing allowable property costs by the total adjusted patient days and multiplying the result by total hold-room days.

(3) Where goods or services are sold, the amount of the reduction shall be the actual cost relating to the item, service, or activity. In the absence of adequate documentation of cost, it shall be the full amount of the revenue received. Where financial benefits such as purchase discounts, refunds of allowable costs or rebates are received, the amount of the reduction shall be the amount of the discount or rebate.

Financial benefits such as purchase discounts, refunds of allowable costs and rebates, including industrial insurance rebates, shall be offset against allowable costs in the year the contractor actually receives the benefits.

(4) Only allowable costs shall be recovered under this section. Costs allocable to activities or services not included in nursing facility services, e.g., costs of vending machines and services specified in chapter 388-86 WAC not included in nursing facility services, are nonallowable costs.

WAC 388-96-525 Education and training. (1) Necessary and ordinary expenses of on-the-job training and in-service training required for employee orientation and certification training directly related to the performance of duties assigned will be allowable costs. Cost of training for which the nursing facility is reimbursed outside the payment rate is an unallowable cost.

(2) Necessary and ordinary expenses of recreational and social activity training conducted by the contractor for volunteers will be allowable costs. Expenses of training programs for other nonemployees will not be allowable costs.

(3) Expenses for travel, lodging, and meals associated with education and training in the states of Idaho, Oregon, and Washington and the province of British Columbia are allowable if the expenses meet the requirements of this chapter.

(4) Except travel, lodging, and meal expenses, education and training expenses at sites outside of the states of Idaho, Oregon, and Washington and the province of British Columbia are allowable costs if the expenses meet the requirements of this chapter.

(5) Costs designated by this section as allowable shall be subject to any applicable cost center limit established by this chapter.

WAC 388-96-530 What will be allowable compensation for owners, relatives, licensed administrator, assistant administrator, and/or administrator-in-training? Subject to any applicable cost center limit established by chapter 74.46 RCW, total allowable compensation shall be:

[Title 388 WAC—p. 475]

(1) As provided in the employment contract, including benefits, whether such contract is written, verbal, or inferred from the acts of the parties; or

(2) In the absence of a contract, gross salary or wages excluding payroll taxes and benefits made available to all employees, e.g., health insurance.

WAC 388-96-532 Does the contractor have to maintain time records? (1) The contractor shall maintain time records that are adequate for audit for owners, relatives, the licensed administrator, assistant administrator, and/or administrator-in-training. The contractor shall include in such records verification of the actual hours of service performed for the nursing home and shall document compensated time was spent in provision of necessary services actually performed.

(2) If the contractor has no or inadequate time records, the undocumented cost of compensation shall be unallowable.

WAC 388-96-534 Joint cost allocation disclosure (JCAD). (1) The contractor shall disclose to the department:

(a) The nature and purpose of all costs representing allocations of joint facility costs; and

(b) The methodology of the allocation utilized.

(2) The contractor shall demonstrate in such disclosure:

(a) The services involved are necessary and nonduplicative; and

(b) Costs are allocated in accordance with benefits received from the resources represented by those costs.

(3) The contractor shall make such disclosure not later than September 30th for the following year; except, a new contractor shall submit the first year's disclosure together with the submissions required by WAC 388-96-026. Within this section, the meaning of the:

(a) "Effective date" is the date the department will recognize allocation per an approved JCAD; and

(b) "Implementation date" is the date the facility will begin or began incurring joint facility costs.

(4) The department shall determine the acceptability of the JCAD methodology not later than December 31 of each year for all JCADs received by September 30th.

(a) The effective date of an acceptable JCAD that was received by September 30th is January 1st.

(b) The effective date of an acceptable JCAD that was received after September 30th shall be ninety days from the date the JCAD was received by the department.

(5) The contractor shall submit to the department for approval an amendment or revision to an approved JCAD methodology at least thirty days prior to the implementation date of the amendment or revision. For amendments or revisions received less than thirty days before the implementation date, the effective date of approval will be thirty days from the date the JCAD is received by the department.

(6) When a contractor, who is not currently incurring joint facility costs, begins to incur joint facility costs during the calendar year, the contractor shall provide the information required in subsections (1) and (2) of this section at least ninety days prior to the implementation date. If the JCAD is not received ninety days before the implementation date, the effective date of the approval will be ninety days from the date the JCAD is received by the department.

(7) Joint facility costs not disclosed, allocated, and reported in conformity with this section are nonallowable costs. Joint facility costs incurred before the effective dates of subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this section are unallowable. Costs disclosed, allocated, and reported in conformity with a department-approved JCAD methodology must undergo review and be determined allowable costs for the purposes of rate setting and audit.

WAC 388-96-535 Management agreements, management fees, and central office services. (1) The contractor shall disclose to the department the nature and purpose of the management agreement, including an organizational chart showing the relationship between the contractor, management company and all related organizations. The department may request additional information or clarification.

(2) Acceptance of a management agreement may not be construed as a determination that all management fees or costs are allowable in whole or in part. Management fees or costs not disclosed or approved in conformity with chapter 74.46 RCW and this section are unallowable. When necessary for the health and safety of medical care recipients, the department may waive the sixty-day or thirty-day advance notice requirement of RCW 74.46.280 in writing.

(3) Management fees are allowable only for necessary, nonduplicative services that are of the nature and magnitude that prudent and cost-conscious management would pay. Costs of services, facilities, supplies and employees furnished by the management company are subject to RCW 74.46.220.

(4) Allowable fees for all general management services of any kind referenced in this section, including corporate or business entity management and management fees not allocated to specific services, are subject to any applicable cost center limit established in chapter 74.46 RCW.

(5) Central office costs, owner's compensation, and other fees or compensation, including joint facility costs, for general administrative and management services, including management expense not allocated to specific services, shall be subject to any cost center limit established by chapter 74.46 RCW.

(6) Necessary travel and housing expenses of nonresident staff working at a contractor's nursing facility shall be considered allowable costs if the visit does not exceed three weeks.

(7) Bonuses paid to employees at a contractor's nursing facility or management company shall be considered compensation.

WAC 388-96-536 Does the department limit the allowable compensation for an owner or relative of an owner? (1) The department shall limit total compensation of an owner or relative of an owner to ordinary compensation for necessary services actually performed.

(a) Compensation is ordinary if it is the amount usually paid for comparable services in a comparable facility to an unrelated employee, and does not exceed any applicable limit set out in chapter 74.46 RCW.

(b) A service is necessary if it is related to patient care and would have had to be performed by another person if the owner or relative had not done it.

(2) If the service provided would require licensed staff, e.g., RN, then the same license standard must be met when performed by an owner, relative or other administrative personnel.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.46.800. 98-20-023, § 388-96-536, filed 9/25/98, effective 10/1/98.]

WAC 388-96-540 Will the department allow the cost of an administrator-in-training? (1) The department shall not allow costs of an administrator-in-training for the purpose of setting the operations component prospective payment rate allocation.

(2) The department shall pay the costs of an approved administrator-in-training program by an add-on to the current prospective payment rate, unless the operations cost center is at or above the median cost limit for the facility's peer group reduced or increased under chapter 74.46 RCW.

(3) To obtain a rate add-on, the contractor shall submit a request for an add-on to its current prospective rate together with necessary documentation which shall include:

(a) A copy of the department of licensing approval of the administrator-in-training program, and

(b) A schedule indicating the commencement date, expected termination date, salary or wage, hours, and costs of benefits. The contractor shall notify the department, at least thirty days in advance, of the actual termination date of the administrator-in-training program. Upon termination of the program, the department shall reduce the current prospective rate by an amount corresponding to the rate add-on.

(4) If the contractor does not use the administrator-in-training funds for the purpose for which they were granted, the department shall immediately recoup the misspent or unused funds.

WAC 388-96-542 Home office or central office. (1) The department shall audit the home office or central office whenever a nursing facility receiving such services is audited.

(2)(a) Assets used in the provision of services by or to a nursing facility, but not located on the premises of the nursing facility, shall not be included in net invested funds or in the calculation of property payment for the nursing facility.

(b) The nursing facility may allocate depreciation, interest expense, and operating lease expense for the home office, central office, and other off-premises assets to the cost of the services provided to or by the nursing facility on a reasonable statistical basis approved by the department.

(c) The allocated costs of (b) of this subsection may be included in the cost of services in such cost centers where such services and related costs are appropriately reported.

(3) Home office or central office costs must be allocated and reported in conformity with the department-approved JCAD methodology as required by WAC 388-96-534.

(4) Home office or central office costs are subject to the limitation specified in RCW 74.46.410.

WAC 388-96-553 Capitalization. The following costs shall be capitalized:

(1) Expenditures for depreciable assets with historical cost in excess of seven hundred fifty dollars per unit and a useful life of more than one year from the date of purchase;

(2) Expenditures and costs for depreciable assets with historical cost of seven hundred fifty dollars or less per unit if either:

(a) The depreciable asset was acquired in a group purchase where the total cost exceeded seven hundred fifty dollars; or

(b) The depreciable asset was part of the initial equipment or stock of the nursing home; and

(3) Expenditures for any change, including repairs with a cost in excess of seven hundred fifty dollars that increases the useful life of the depreciable asset by two years or more.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.46.310, [74.46.]320 and [74.46.]330. 97-17-040, § 388-96-553, filed 8/14/97, effective 9/14/97. WAC 388-96-554 Expensing. The following costs shall be expensed:

(1) Expenditures for depreciable assets with historical cost of seven hundred fifty dollars or less per unit or a useful life of one year or less from the date of purchase.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply if:

(a) The depreciable asset was acquired in a group purchase where the total cost exceeded seven hundred fifty dollars; or

(b) The depreciable asset was part of the initial equipment or stock of the nursing home.

(3) Expenditures for and costs of building and other real property items, components and improvements, whether for leased or owner-operated facilities, of seven hundred and fifty dollars or less.

(4) Expenditures for and costs of repairs necessary to maintain the useful life of equipment, including furniture and furnishings, and real property items, components or improvements which do not increase the useful life of the asset by two years or more. If a repair is to the interior or exterior of the structure, the term "asset" shall refer to the structure.

(5) Remaining undepreciated cost of equipment, including furniture or furnishings or real property items, components, or improvements which are retired and not replaced, provided such cost shall be offset by any proceeds or compensations received for such assets, and such cost shall be expensed only if the contractor has made a reasonable effort to recover at least the outstanding book value of such assets. If a retired asset is replaced, WAC 388-96-572(3) shall apply and the replacement or renewal shall be capitalized if required by WAC 388-96-553.

WAC 388-96-559 Cost basis of land and depreciation base. (1) For all partial or whole rate periods after December 31, 1984 unless otherwise provided or limited by this chapter or by this section, chapter 388-96 WAC or chapter 74.46 RCW, the total depreciation base of depreciable assets and the cost basis of land shall be the lowest of:

- (a) The contractor's appraisal, if any;
- (b) The department's appraisal obtained through the department of general administration of the state of Washington, if any; or
- (c) The historical purchase cost of the contractor, or lessor if the assets are leased by the contractor, in acquiring ownership of the asset in an arm's-length transaction, and preparing the asset for use, less goodwill, and less accumulated depreciation, if applicable, incurred during periods the assets have been used in or as a facility by any and all contractors. Such accumulated depreciation is to be measured in accordance with WAC 388-96-561, 388-96-565, chapter 388-96 WAC, and chapter 74.46 RCW. Where the straight-line or sum-of-the-years digits method of depreciation is used the contractor:

- (i) May deduct salvage values from historical costs for each cloth based item, e.g., mattresses, linen, and draperies; and
- (ii) Shall deduct salvage values from historical costs of at least:
 - (A) Five percent of the historical value for each noncloth item included in moveable equipment; and
 - (B) Twenty-five percent of the historical value for each vehicle.

(2) Unless otherwise provided or limited by this chapter or by chapter 74.46 RCW, the department shall, in determining the total depreciation base of a depreciable real or personal asset owned or leased by the contractor, deduct depreciation relating to all periods subsequent to the more recent of:

- (a) The date such asset was first used in the medical care program; or
- (b) The most recent date such asset was acquired in an arm's-length purchase transaction which the department is required to recognize for Medicaid cost reimbursement purposes.

No depreciation shall be deducted for periods such asset was not used in the medical care program or was not used to provide nursing care.

(3) The department may have the fair market value of the asset at the time of purchase established by appraisal through the department of general administration of the state of Washington if:

- (a) The department challenges the historical cost of an asset; or
- (b) The contractor cannot or will not provide the historical cost of a leased asset and the department is unable to determine such historical cost from its own records or from any other source.

The contractor may allocate or reallocate values among land, building, improvements, and equipment in accordance with the department's appraisal.

If an appraisal is conducted, the depreciation base of the asset and cost basis of land will not exceed the fair market value of the asset. An appraisal conducted by or through the department of general administration shall be final unless the appraisal is shown to be arbitrary and capricious.

(4) If the land and depreciable assets of a newly constructed nursing facility were never used in or as a nursing facility before being purchased from the builder, the cost basis and the depreciation base shall be the lesser of:

- (a) Documented actual cost of the builder; or
- (b) The approved amount of the certificate of need issued to the builder.

When the builder is unable or unwilling to document its costs, the cost basis and the depreciation base shall be the approved amount of the certificate of need.

(5) For leased assets, the department may examine documentation in its files or otherwise obtainable from any source to determine:

- (a) The lessor's purchase acquisition date; or
- (b) The lessor's historical cost at the time of the last arm's-length purchase transaction.

If the department is unable to determine the lessor's acquisition date by review of its records or other records, the department, in determining fair market value as of such date, may use the construction date of the facility, as found in the state fire marshal's records or other records, as the lessor's purchase acquisition date of leased assets.

(6) For all rate periods past or future, where depreciable assets or land are acquired from a related organization, the contractor's depreciation base and land cost basis shall not exceed the base and basis the related organization had or would have had under a contract with the department.

(7) If a contractor cannot or will not provide the lessor's purchase acquisition cost of assets leased by the contractor and the department is unable to determine historical purchase cost from another source, the appraised asset value of land, building, or equipment, determined by or through the department of general administration shall be adjusted, if necessary, by the department using the Marshall and Swift Valuation Guide to reflect the value at the lessor's acquisition date. If an appraisal has been prepared for leased assets and the assets subsequently sell in the first arm's-length transaction since January 1, 1980, under subsection (9) of this section, the Marshall and Swift Valuation Guide will be used to adjust, if necessary, the asset value determined by the appraisal to the sale date. If the assets are located in a city for which the Marshall and Swift Valuation Guide publishes a specific index, or if the assets are located in a county containing that city, the city-specific index shall be used to adjust the appraised value of the asset. If the assets are located in a city or county for which a specific index is not calculated, the Western District Index calculated by Marshall and Swift shall be used.

(8) For new or replacement building construction or for substantial building additions requiring the acquisition of land and which commenced to operate on or after July 1, 1997, the department shall determine allowable land costs of the additional land acquired for the new or replacement construction or for substantial building additions to be the lesser of:

(a) The contractor's or lessor's actual cost per square foot; or

(b) The square foot land value as established by an appraisal that meets the latest publication of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) and the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 (FIRREA). The department shall obtain a USPAP appraisal that meets FIRREA first from:

(i) An arms'-length lender that has accepted the ordered appraisal; or

(ii) If the department is unable to obtain from the arms'-length lender a lender-approved appraisal meeting USPAP and FIRREA standards or if the contractor or lessor is unable or unwilling to provide or cause to be provided a lender-approved appraisal meeting USPAP and FIRREA standards, then:

(A) The department shall order such an appraisal; and

(B) The contractor shall immediately reimburse the department for the costs incurred in obtaining the USPAP and FIRREA appraisal.

(9) Except as provided for in subsection (8) of this section, for all rates effective on or after January 1, 1985, if depreciable assets or land are acquired by purchase which were used in the medical care program on or after January 1, 1980, the depreciation base or cost basis of such assets shall not exceed the net book value existing at the time of such acquisition or which would have existed had the assets continued in use under the previous Medicaid contract with the department; except that depreciation shall not be accumulated for periods during which such assets were not used in the medical care program or were not in use in or as a nursing care facility.

(10)(a) Subsection (9) of this section shall not apply to the most recent arm's-length purchase acquisition if it occurs ten years or more after the previous arm's-length transfer of ownership nor shall subsection (9) of this section apply to the first arm's-length purchase acquisition of assets occurring on or after January 1, 1980, for facilities participating in the Medicaid program before January 1, 1980. The depreciation base or cost basis for such acquisitions shall not exceed the lesser of the fair market value as of the date of purchase of the assets determined by an appraisal conducted by or through the department of general administration or the owner's acquisition cost of each asset, land, building, or equipment. An appraisal conducted by or through the department of general administration shall be final unless the appraisal is shown to be arbitrary and capricious. Should a contractor request a revaluation of an asset, the contractor must document ten years have passed since the most recent arm's-length transfer of ownership. As mandated by Section 2314 of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 (P.L. 98-369) and state statutory amendments, and under RCW 74.46.840, for all partial or whole rate periods after July 17, 1984, this subsection is inoperative for any transfer of ownership of any asset, including land and all depreciable or nondepreciable assets, occurring on or after July 18, 1984, leaving subsection (9) of this section to apply without exception to acquisitions occurring on or after July 18, 1984, except as provided in subsections (10)(b) and (11) of this section.

(b) For all rates after July 17, 1984, subsection (8)(a) shall apply, however, to transfers of ownership of assets:

(i) Occurring before January 1, 1985, if the costs of such assets have never been reimbursed under Medicaid cost reimbursement on an owner-operated basis or as a related party lease; or

(ii) Under written and enforceable purchase and sale agreements dated before July 18, 1984, which are documented and submitted to the department before January 1, 1988.

(c) For purposes of Medicaid cost reimbursement under this chapter, an otherwise enforceable agreement to purchase a nursing home dated before July 18, 1984, shall be considered enforceable even though the agreement contains:

(i) No legal description of the real property involved; or

(ii) An inaccurate legal description, notwithstanding the statute of frauds or any other provision of law.

(11)(a) In the case of land or depreciable assets leased by the same contractor since January 1, 1980, in an arm's-length lease, and purchased by the lessee/contractor, the lessee/contractor shall have the option to have the:

(i) Provisions of subsection (10) of this section apply to the purchase; or

(ii) Component rate allocations for property and financing allowance calculated under the provisions of chapter 74.46 RCW. Component rate allocations will be based upon provisions of the lease in existence on the date of the purchase, but only if the purchase date meets the criteria of RCW 74.46.360 (6)(c)(ii)(A) through (D).

(b) The lessee/contractor may select the option in subsection (11)(a)(ii) of this section only when the purchase date meets one of the following criteria. The purchase date is:

(i) After the lessor has declared bankruptcy or has defaulted in any loan or mortgage held against the leased property;

(ii) Within one year of the lease expiration or renewal date contained in the lease;

(iii) After a rate setting for the facility in which the reimbursement rate set, under this chapter and under chapter 74.46 RCW, no longer is equal to or greater than the actual cost of the lease; or

(iv) Within one year of any purchase option in existence on January 1, 1988.

(12) For purposes of establishing the property and financing allowance component rate allocations, the value of leased equipment, if unknown by the contractor, may be estimated by the department using previous department of general administration appraisals as a data base. The estimated value may be adjusted using the Marshall and Swift Valuation Guide to reflect the value of the asset at the lessor's purchase acquisition date.

WAC 388-96-561 Cost basis of land and depreciation base—Donated or inherited assets. (1) The cost basis or depreciation base of land or depreciable assets, either donated[,] or received through testate or intestate distribution, will be the lesser of:

(a) Fair market value at the date of donation or death, less goodwill, provided the estimated salvage value shall be deducted from fair market value where the straight-line or sum-of-the-years digits method of depreciation is used; or

(b) The historical cost of the owner last contracting with the department, if any.

(2) When the donation or distribution is between related organizations, the base shall be the lesser of:

(a) Fair market value, less goodwill and, where appropriate, salvage value; or

(b) The depreciation base or cost basis the related organization had or would have had for the asset under a contract with the department.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, for all rates after July 17, 1984, neither the depreciation base of depreciable assets nor the cost basis of land shall increase for reimbursement purposes if the asset is donated or acquired through testate or intestate distribution on or after July 18, 1984, the enactment date of the Deficit Reduction Act of 1984.

WAC 388-96-565 Lives. (1) Except for new buildings replacement buildings, major remodels and major repair projects as defined in subsection (5) of this section, to compute allowable depreciation, the contractor must use lives reflecting the estimated actual useful life of the assets (e.g., land improvements, buildings, including major remodels and major repair projects, equipment, leasehold improvements, etc.). However the lives used must not be shorter than guidelines lives in the most current edition of Estimated Useful

Lives of Depreciable Hospital Assets published by American Hospital Publishing, Inc.

(2) To compute allowable depreciation for major remodels and major repair projects as defined in subsection (5) of this section that began operating:

(a) Before July 1, 1997, the contractor must use the shortest lives in the most recently published lives for construction classes as defined and described in the Marshall Valuation Service published by the Marshall Swift Publication Company; or

(b) After July 1, 1997, the contractor must use the shortest lives of the guideline lives in the most current edition of Estimated Useful Lives of Depreciable Hospital Assets published by American Hospital Publishing, Inc.

(3) To compute allowable depreciation for new buildings and replacement buildings as defined in subsection (5) of this section that:

(a) Began operating before July 1, 1997, the contractor must use the construction classes as defined and described in Marshall Valuation Service published by the Marshall Swift Publication Company; provided that, thirty years is the shortest life that may be used;

(b) Began operating on or after July 1, 1997, the contractor must use the most current edition of Estimated Useful Lives of Depreciable Hospital Assets published by American Hospital Publishing, Inc.; provided that, thirty years is shortest life that may be used; and

(c) Received certificate of need approval or certificate of need exemptions under chapter 70.38 RCW on or after July 1, 1999, the contractor must use the most current edition of Estimated Useful Lives of Depreciable Assets published by American Hospital Publishing, Inc.; provided that, forty years is the shortest life that may be used.

(4) To compute allowable depreciation, the contractor must:

(a) Measure lives from the most recent of either the date on which the assets were first used in the medical care program or the last date of purchase of the asset through an arm's-length acquisition; and

(b) Extend lives to reflect periods, if any, during which assets were not used in a nursing facility or as a nursing facility.

(5) New buildings, replacement buildings, major remodels, and major repair projects are those projects that meet or exceed the expenditure minimum established by the department of health pursuant to chapter 70.38 RCW.

(6) Contractors shall depreciate building improvements other than major remodels and major repairs defined in subsection (5) of this section over the remaining useful life of the building, as modified by the improvement, but not less than fifteen years.

(7) Improvements to leased property which are the responsibility of the contractor under the terms of the lease shall be depreciated over the useful life of the improvement in accordance with American Hospital Association guidelines.

(8) A contractor may change the estimate of an asset's useful life to a longer life for purposes of depreciation.

(9) For new or replacement building construction or for major renovations receiving certificate of need approval or exemption under chapter 70.38 RCW on or after July 1, 1999, the department will depreciate fixed equipment the same number of years as the life of the building to which it is affixed.

WAC 388-96-572 Handling of gains and losses upon retirement of depreciable assets—Other periods. (1) This section shall apply in the place of WAC 388-96-571 effective January 1, 1981, for purposes of settlement for settlement periods subsequent to that date, and for purposes of setting rates for rate periods beginning July 1, 1982, and subsequently.

(2) A gain or loss on the retirement of an asset shall be the difference between the remaining undepreciated base and any proceeds received for, or to compensate for loss of, the asset.

(3) If the retired asset is replaced, the gain or loss shall be applied against or added to the cost of the replacement asset, provided that a loss will only be so applied if the contractor has made a reasonable effort to recover at least the outstanding book value of the asset.

(4) If the retired asset is not replaced, any gain shall be offset against property expense for the period during which it is retired and any loss shall be expensed subject to the provisions of WAC 388-96-554.

WAC 388-96-585 Unallowable costs. (1) The department shall not allow costs if not documented, necessary, ordinary, and related to the provision of care services to authorized patients. Unallowable costs listed in subsection (2) of this section represent a partial summary of such costs, in addition to those unallowable under chapter 74.46 RCW and this chapter.

(2) The department shall include, but not limit, unallowable costs to the following:

(a) Costs in excess of limits or violating principles set forth in this chapter;

(b) Costs resulting from transactions or the application of accounting methods circumventing principles set forth in this chapter;

(c) Bad debts. Beginning July 1, 1983, the department shall allow bad debts of Title XIX recipients only if:

(i) The debt is related to covered services;

(ii) It arises from the recipient's required contribution toward the cost of care;

(iii) The provider can establish reasonable collection efforts were made;

(iv) The debt was actually uncollectible when claimed as worthless; and

(v) Sound business judgment established there was no likelihood of recovery at any time in the future.

Reasonable collection efforts shall consist of at least three documented attempts by the contractor to obtain payment demonstrating that the effort devoted to collecting the bad debts of Title XIX recipients is the same devoted by the contractor to collect the bad debts of non-Title XIX recipients;

(d) Any portion of trade association dues attributable to legal and consultant fees and costs in connection with lawsuits or other legal action against the department shall be unallowable;

(e) Legal and consultant fees in connection with a fair hearing against the department relating to those issues where:

(i) A final administrative decision is rendered in favor of the department or where otherwise the determination of the department stands at the termination of administrative review; or

(ii) In connection with a fair hearing, a final administrative decision has not been rendered; or

(iii) In connection with a fair hearing, related costs are not reported as unallowable and identified by fair hearing docket number in the period they are incurred if no final administrative decision has been rendered at the end of the report period; or

(iv) In connection with a fair hearing, related costs are not reported as allowable, identified by docket number, and prorated by the number of issues decided favorably to a contractor in the period a final administrative decision is rendered;

(f) All interest costs not specifically allowed in this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW; and

(g) Increased costs resulting from a series of transactions between the same parties and involving the same assets, e.g., sale and lease back, successive sales or leases of a single facility or piece of equipment.

WAC 388-96-704 Prospective payment rates. The department, as provided in chapter 74.46 RCW and this chapter, shall determine, adjust, or update prospective Medicaid payment rates for nursing facility services provided to medical care recipients. Each rate, subject to the principles of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW, represents a nursing facility's maximum compensation for one resident day of care provided a medical care recipient determined by the department to both require and be eligible to receive nursing facility care.

WAC 388-96-708 Reinstatement of beds previously removed from service under chapter 70.38 RCW—Effect on prospective payment rate. (1) After removing beds from service (banked) under the provisions of chapter 70.38 RCW, the contractor may bring back into service beds that were previously banked.

(2) When the contractor returns to service beds banked under the provisions of chapter 70.38 RCW, the department will recalculate the contractor's prospective Medicaid payment rate allocations using the greater of actual days from the cost report period on which the rate is based or days calculated by multiplying the new number of licensed beds times the appropriate minimum occupancy pursuant to chapter 74.46 RCW times the number of calendar days in the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based.

(3) The effective date of the recalculated prospective rate for beds returned to service shall be the first of the month:

(a) In which the banked beds returned to service when the beds are returned to service on the first of the month; or

(b) Following the month in which the banked beds returned to service when the beds are returned to service after the first of the month.

(4) The recalculated prospective payment rate shall comply with all the provisions of rate setting contained in chapter 74.46 RCW or in this chapter, including all lids and maximums unless otherwise specified in this section.

(5) The recalculated prospective Medicaid payment rate shall be subject to adjustment if required by RCW 74.46.421.

(6) After the department recalculates the contractor's prospective Medicaid component rate allocations using the increased number of licensed beds, the department will use the increased number of licensed beds in all post unbanking rate settings, until under chapter 74.46 RCW and/or this chapter, the post unbanking number of licensed beds changes.

WAC 388-96-709 Prospective rate revisions—Reduction in licensed beds. (1) The department will recalculate a contractor's prospective Medicaid payment rate when the contractor reduces the number of its licensed beds and:

(a) Provides a copy of the new bed license and documentation of the number of beds sold, exchanged or otherwise placed out of service, along with the name of the contractor that received the beds, if any; and

(b) Requests a rate revision.

(2) For facilities other than essential community providers which bank beds under chapter 70.38 RCW, after May 25, 2001, Medicaid rates shall be revised upward, in accordance with department rules, in direct care, therapy care, support services, and variable return components only, by using the facility's decreased licensed bed capacity to recalculate minimum occupancy for rate setting. No rate upward revision shall be made to operations, property, or financing allowance.

(3) The requested revised prospective Medicaid payment rate will be effective the first of the month:

(a) The new license is effective when the new license is effective the first day of the month; or

(b) Following the month the new license is effective when the new license is effective after the first day of the month it is issued.

(4) The department will recalculate a nursing facility's prospective Medicaid payment rate allocations using the greater of actual days from the cost report period on which the rate is based or days calculated by multiplying the new number of licensed beds times the appropriate minimum occupancy pursuant to chapter 74.46 RCW times the number of calendar days in the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based.

(5) The revised prospective Medicaid payment rate will comply with all the provisions of rate setting contained in chapter 74.46 RCW and in this chapter, including all lids and maximums, unless otherwise specified in this section.

(6) After the department recalculates the contractor's prospective Medicaid component rate allocations using the decreased number of licensed beds, the department will use the decreased number of licensed beds in all post banking rate settings, until under chapter 74.46 RCW and/or this chapter, the post banking number of licensed beds changes.

WAC 388-96-710 Prospective payment rate for new contractors. (1) The department will establish an initial prospective Medicaid payment rate for a new contractor as defined under WAC 388-96-026 within sixty days following the new contractor's application and approval for a license to operate the facility under chapter 18.51 RCW. The rate will take effect as of the effective date of the contract, except as provided in this section, and will comply with all the provisions of rate setting contained in chapter 74.46 RCW and in this chapter, including all lids and maximums set forth.

(2) Except for quarterly updates per RCW 74.46.501 (7)(c), the rate established for a new contractor as defined in WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a) or (b) will remain in effect for the nursing facility until the rate can be reset effective July 1 using the first cost report for that facility under the new contractor's operation containing at least six months' data from the prior calendar year, regardless of whether reported costs for facilities operated by other contractors for the prior calendar year in question will be used to cost rebase their July 1 rates. The new contractor's rate thereafter will be cost rebased only as provided in this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(3) To set the initial prospective Medicaid payment rate for a new contractor as defined in WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a) and (b), the department will:

(a) Determine whether the new contractor nursing facility belongs to the metropolitan statistical area (MSA) peer group or the non-MSA peer group using the latest information received from the office of management and budget or the appropriate federal agency;

(b) Select all nursing facilities from the department's records of all the current Medicaid nursing facilities in the new contractor's peer group with the same bed capacity plus or minus ten beds. If the selection does not result in at least seven facilities, then the department will increase the bed capacity by plus or minus five bed increments until a sample of at least seven nursing facilities is obtained;

(c) Based on the information for the nursing facilities selected under subsection (3)(b) of this section and available to the department on the day the new contractor began participating in the Medicaid payment rate system at the facility, rank from the highest to the lowest the component rate allocation in direct care, therapy care, support services, and operations cost centers and based on this ranking:

(i) Determine the middle of the ranking and then identify the rate immediately above the median for each cost center identified in subsection (3)(c) of this section. The rate immediately above the median will be known as the "selected rate" for each cost center;

(ii) Set the new contractor's nursing facility component rate allocation for therapy care, support services, and operations at the "selected rate";

(iii) Set the direct care rate using data from the direct care "selected" rate facility identified in (c) of this subsection as follows:

(A) The cost per case mix unit will be the rate base allowable case mixed direct care cost per patient day for the direct care "selected" rate facility, whether or not that facility is held harmless under WAC 388-96-728 and 388-96-729, divided by the facility average case mix index per WAC 388-96-741;

(B) The cost per case mix unit determined under (c)(iii)(A) of this subsection will be multiplied by the Medicaid average case mix index per WAC 388-96-740. The product will be the new contractor's direct care rate under case mix; and

(C) The department will not apply RCW 74.46.506 (5)(k) to any direct care rate established under subsection (5)(e) or (f) of this section. When the department establishes a new contractor's direct care rate under subsection (5)(e) or (f) of this section, the new contractor is not eligible to be paid by a "hold harmless" rate as determined under RCW 74.46.506 (5)(k);

(iv) Set the property rate in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW; and

(v) Set the financing allowance and variable return component rate allocations in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW. In computing the variable return component rate allocation, the department will use for direct care, therapy care, support services and operations rate allocations those set pursuant to subsection (3)(c)(i), (ii) and (iii) of this section.

(d) Any subsequent revisions to the rate component allocations of the sample members will not impact a "selected rate" component allocation of the initial prospective rate established for the new contractor under this subsection.

(4) For the WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a) or (b) new contractor, the department will establish rate component allocations for:

(a) Direct care, therapy care, support services and operations based on the "selected rates" as determined under subsection (3)(c) of this section that are in effect on the date the new contractor began participating in the program;

(b) Property in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW using for the new contractor as defined under:

(i) WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a), information from the certificate of need; or

(ii) WAC 388-96-026 (1)(b), information provided by the new contractor within ten days of the date the department requests the information in writing. If the contractor as defined under WAC 388-96-026 (1)(b), has not provided the requested information within ten days of the date requested, then the property rate will be zero. The property rate will remain zero until the information is received;

(c) Variable return in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW using the "selected rates" established under subsection (3)(c) of this section that are in effect on the date the new contractor began participating in the program; and

(d) Financing allowance using for the new contractor as defined under:

(i) WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a), information from the certificate of need; or

(ii) WAC 388-96-026 (1)(b), information provided by the new contractor within ten days of the date the department requests the information in writing. If the contractor as defined under WAC 388-96-026 (1)(b), has not provided the requested information within ten days of the date requested, then the net book value of allowable assets will be zero. The financing allowance rate component allocation will remain zero until the information is received.

(5) The initial prospective payment rate for a new contractor as defined under WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a) or (b) will be established under subsections (3) and (4) of this section. If the WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a) or (b) contractor's initial rate is set:

(a) Between July 1, 2000 and June 30, 2001, the department will set the new contractor's rates for:

(i) July 1, 2001 using the July 1, 2001 rates for direct care, therapy care, support services, and operations of the sample facilities used to set the initial rate under subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

(A) Property and financing allowance component rates will remain the same as set for the initial rate.

(B) Variable return component rate using the rates determined under subsection (5)(a)(i) of this section;

(ii) July 1, 2002 rate using 2001 cost report data; and

(iii) All July 1 rates following July 1, 2002 in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW;

(b) Between July 1, 2001, and June 30, 2002, the department will set the new contractor's rates for:

(i) July 1, 2002 using July 1, 2002 rates for direct care, therapy care, support services, and operation of the sample facilities used to set the initial rate under subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

(A) Property and financing allowance component rates will remain the same as set for the initial rate.

(B) Variable return component rate using the rates determined under subsection (5)(b)(i) of this section;

(ii) July 1, 2003 rate by rebasing using 2002 cost report data in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW; and

(iii) All July 1 rates following July 1, 2003 in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW; or

(c) Between July 1, 2002, and June 30, 2003, the department will set the contractor's rates for:

(i) July 1, 2003 using July 1, 2003 rates for direct care, therapy care, support services, and operation of the sample facilities used to set the initial rate under subsection (3) and (4) of this section.

(A) Property and financing allowance component rates will remain the same as set for the initial rate.

(B) Variable return component rate using the rates determined under subsection (5)(c)(i) of this section;

(ii) July 1, 2004 by rebasing using 2003 cost report data; and

(iii) All July 1 rates following July 1, 2004 in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(6) For the WAC 388-96-026 (1)(c) new contractor, the initial prospective payment rate will be the last prospective payment rate the department paid to the Medicaid contractor operating the nursing facility immediately prior to the effective date of the new Medicaid contract or assignment. If the WAC 388-96-026 (1)(c) contractor's initial rate is set:

(a) Between October 1, 1998 and June 30, 1999, the department will not rebase the contractor's rate for:

(i) July 1, 1999; and

(ii) July 1, 2000;

(b) Between July 1, 1999 and June 30, 2000, the department will for:

(i) July 1, 2000 not rebase the new contractor's rate;

(ii) July 1, 2001 rebase the new contractor's rate using twelve months of cost report data derived from the old contractor's and the new contractor's 1999 cost reports; and

(iii) July 1, 2002 not rebase the new contractor's rate; and

(iv) July 1, 2003 not rebase the new contractor's rate;

(c) Between July 1, 2000 and June 30, 2001, the department will for:

(i) July 1, 2001 rebase the new contractor's rate using the old contractor's 1999 twelve month cost report;

(ii) July 1, 2002 not rebase the new contractor's rate;

(iii) July 1, 2003 not rebase the new contractor's rate; or

(d) Between July 1, 2001 and June 30, 2002, the department will for:

(i) July 1, 2002 not rebase the new contractor's rate;

(ii) July 1, 2003 not rebase the new contractor's rate; and

(iii) July 1, 2004 rebase the new contractor's rate using the new contractor's 2002 cost report containing at least six month's data.

(7) A prospective payment rate set for all new contractors will be subject to adjustments for economic trends and conditions as authorized and provided in this chapter and in chapter 74.46 RCW.

(8) For a WAC 388-96-026 (1)(a), (b) or (c) new contractor, the Medicaid case mix index and facility average case mix index will be determined in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

WAC 388-96-713 Rate determination. (1) Each nursing facility's Medicaid payment rate for services provided to medical care recipients will be determined, adjusted and updated prospectively as provided in this chapter and in chapter 74.46 RCW. The department will calculate any limit, lid, and/or median only when it rebases each nursing facility's July 1 Medicaid payment rate in accordance with chapter 74.46 RCW and this chapter.

(2) If the contractor participated in the program for less than six months of the prior calendar year, its rates will be determined by procedures set forth in WAC 388-96-710.

(3) Contractors submitting correct and complete cost reports by March 31st, shall be notified of their rates by July 1st, unless circumstances beyond the control of the department interfere.

(4) In setting rates, the department will use the greater of actual days from the cost report period on which the rate is based or days calculated at minimum occupancy pursuant to chapter 74.46 RCW.

(5) Adjusted cost report data from 1999 shall be used for July 1, 2001 through June 30, 2005 direct care, therapy care, support services, and operations component rate allocations.

WAC 388-96-718 Public process for determination of rates. (1) The purpose of this section is to describe the manner in which the department will comply with the federal Balanced Budget Act of 1997, Section 4711 (a)(1), codified at 42 U.S.C. 1396a (a)(13)(A).

(2) For all material changes to the methodology for determining nursing facility Medicaid payment rates occurring after October 1, 1997, and requiring a Title XIX state plan amendment to be submitted to and approved by the Health Care Financing Administration under applicable federal laws, the department shall follow the following public process:

(a) The proposed estimated initial payment rates, the proposed new methodologies for determining the payment rates, and the underlying justifications shall be published. Publication shall be:

(i) In the Washington State Register; or

(ii) In the Seattle Times and Spokane Spokesman Review newspapers.

(b) The department shall maintain and update as needed a mailing list of all individuals and organizations wishing to receive notice of changes to the nursing facility Medicaid payment rate methodology, and all materials submitted for publication shall be sent postage prepaid by regular mail to such individuals and organizations. Individuals and organizations wishing to receive notice shall notify the department in writing.

(c) Nursing facility contractors, their associations, nursing facility Medicaid beneficiaries, representatives of contractors or beneficiaries, and other concerned members of the public shall be given a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the proposed estimated rates, methodologies and justifications. The period allowed for review and comment shall not be less than fourteen calendar days after the date of the Washington State Register containing the published material or the date the published material has appeared in both the Seattle Times and the Spokane Spokesman Review.

(d) If, after receiving and considering all comments, the department decides to move ahead with any change to its nursing facility Medicaid payment rate methodology, it shall adopt needed further changes in response to comments, if any, and shall publish the final estimated initial rates, final rate determination methodologies and justifications. Publication shall be:

(i) In the Washington State Register; or

(ii) In the Seattle Times and Spokane Spokesman Review newspapers.

(e) Unless an earlier effective date is required by state or federal law, implementation of final changes in methodologies and commencement of the new rates shall not occur until final publication has occurred in the Register or in both designated newspapers. The department shall not be authorized to delay implementation of, or to alter, ignore or violate requirements of, state or federal laws in response to public process comments.

(f) Publication of proposed estimated initial payment rates and final estimated initial payment rates shall be deemed complete once the department has published:

(i) The statewide average proposed estimated initial payment rate weighted by adjusted Medicaid resident days for all Medicaid facilities from the most recent cost report year, including the change from the existing statewide average payment rate weighted by adjusted Medicaid resident days for all Medicaid facilities from the most recent cost report year; and

(ii) The statewide average final estimated initial payment rate weighted by adjusted Medicaid resident days for all Medicaid facilities from the most recent cost report year, including the change from the existing statewide average payment rate weighted by adjusted Medicaid resident days for all Medicaid facilities from the most recent cost report year.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the department from commencing or completing the public process authorized by this section even though the proposed changes to the methodology for determining nursing facility Medicaid payment rates are awaiting federal approval, or are the subject of pending legislative, gubernatorial or rule-making.

ing action and are yet to be finalized in statute and/or regulation.

(4)(a) Neither a contractor nor any other interested person or organization shall challenge, in any administrative appeals or exception procedure established in rule by the department under the provisions of chapter 74.46 RCW, the adequacy or validity of the public process followed by the department in proposing or implementing a change to the payment rate methodology, regardless of whether the challenge is brought to obtain a ruling on the merits or simply to make a record for subsequent judicial or other review. Such challenges shall be pursued only in courts of proper jurisdiction as may be provided by law.

(b) Any challenge to the public process followed by the department that is brought in the course of an administrative appeals or exception procedure shall be dismissed by the department or presiding officer, with prejudice to further administrative review and record-making, but without prejudice to judicial or other review as may be provided by law.

(5) The public process required and authorized by this section shall not apply to any change in the payment rate methodology that does not require a Title XIX state plan amendment under applicable federal laws, including but not limited to:

(a) Prospective or retrospective changes to nursing facility payment rates or to methodologies for establishing such rates ordered by a court or administrative tribunal, after exhaustion of all appeals by either party as may be authorized by law, or the expiration of time to appeal; or

(b) Changes to nursing facility payment rates for one or more facilities resulting from the application of authorized payment rate methodologies, principles or adjustments, including but not limited to: Partial or phased-in termination or implementation of rate methodologies; scheduled cost rebasing; quarterly or other updates to reflect changes in case mix or other private or public source data used to establish rates; adjustments for inflation or economic trends and conditions; rate funding for capital improvements or new requirements imposed by the department; changes to resident-specific or exceptional care rates; and changes to correct errors or omissions by the contractor or the department.

WAC 388-96-723 Comparison of the statewide weighted average payment rate for all nursing facilities with the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act. (1) On a quarterly basis, the department will compare the statewide weighted average payment rate for all nursing facilities with the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act.

(2) To determine the statewide weighted average payment rate, the department will use total billed Medicaid days incurred in the calendar year immediately preceding the current fiscal year for the purpose of weighting the July 1 nursing facilities' rates that have been adjusted, or updated pursuant to chapter 74.46 RCW and this chapter.

WAC 388-96-724 Advance notice—Nursing facility component rate reduction taken under RCW 74.46.421.

(1) The department will notify the nursing facility at least twenty-eight calendar days in advance of the effective date of a reduction taken under RCW 74.46.421.

(2) A rate reduction taken under RCW 74.46.421 will be effective the first day of the month following the twenty-eight calendar day advance notice.

WAC 388-96-725 RCW 74.46.421 rate reduction—A nursing facility's rates. (1) The department will not reverse any rate reductions taken in accordance with RCW 74.46.-421.

(2) If after a reduction a nursing facility is eligible to receive an increase in a component rate for some unrelated change (e.g., a change in the Medicaid case mix index causes the direct care rate to increase), the department will apply the increase to the rate reduced by application of RCW 74.46.-421.

(3) Reductions made under RCW 74.46.421 are cumulative. The department will reduce the component rates for all nursing facilities without reversing any previous reductions.

WAC 388-96-726 RCW 74.46.421 nursing facility component rates below the statewide weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act. (1) Even if an individual nursing facility's component rates are below the statewide weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act, the department will reduce the nursing facility's rates as required under RCW 74.46.421.

(2) The department will not exempt any nursing facility from a component rates reduction required by RCW 74.46.-421 for any circumstance, e.g., billed Medicaid days, under-spending of the biennial appropriation for nursing facility rates, etc.

WAC 388-96-730 Methodology for reducing a nursing facility's Medicaid payment rate in order to reduce the statewide weighted average nursing facility Medicaid payment rate to equal or be less than the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act. (1) The department will determine a percentage reduction factor (PRF) that, when applied to all nursing facilities' rates will result in a statewide weighted average payment rate that is equal to or less than the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act.

(2) By applying various percentages to the rates for all nursing facilities, the department will identify a percentage that reduces the statewide weighted average payment rate equal to or less than the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act.

(3) The percentage identified in subsection (2) of this section will be the PRF. To reduce the statewide average payment rate to less than or equal to the weighted average payment rate identified in the Biennial Appropriations Act, the department will apply the PRF equally to all rate component allocations of each nursing facility's rate.

WAC 388-96-731 Nursing facilities' rate reductions pursuant to RCW 74.46.421. WAC 388-96-738 What default case mix group and weight must the department use for case mix grouping when there is no minimum data set resident assessment for a nursing facility resident? (1) When a resident:

(a) Dies before the facility completes the resident's initial assessment, the department must assign the assessment to the special care case mix group - SSB. The department must use the case mix weight assigned to the special care case mix group - SSB;

(b) Is discharged to an acute care facility before the nursing facility completes the resident's initial assessment, the department must assign the assessment to the special care case mix group - SSB. The department must use the case mix weight assigned to the special care case mix group - SSB; or

(c) Is discharged for a reason other than those noted above before the facility completes the resident's initial assessment, the department must assign the assessment to the case mix group BC1 with a case mix weight of 1.000.

(2) If the resident assessment is untimely as defined in RCW 74.46.501 and as defined by federal regulations, then the department must assign the case to the default case mix group of BC1 which has a case mix weight of 1.000.

WAC 388-96-739 How will the department determine which resident assessments are Medicaid resident assessments? The department must identify a Medicaid resident assessment through the review of the minimum data set (MDS) payer source code. If the nursing facility codes the payer source as "Medicaid per diem," regardless of whether any other payer source codes are checked, then the department will count the case as a Medicaid resident assessment.

WAC 388-96-740 Medicaid case mix index—When a facility does not meet the ninety percent minimum data set (MDS) threshold as identified in RCW 74.46.501. (1) When the department certifies a nursing facility as Medicaid, which was not previously certified as Medicaid in or after the quarter that will serve as the basis for the facility's Medicaid case mix index, then the department will use the industry average Medicaid case mix index for the quarter specified in RCW 74.46.501 (7)(c) as the facility's Medicaid average case mix index.

(2) If the nursing facility does not meet the ninety percent MDS threshold for any other reason, then the department will use one as the Medicaid case mix index.

WAC 388-96-741 When the nursing facility does not have facility average case mix indexes for the four quarters specified in RCW 74.46.501 (7)(b) for determining the cost per case mix unit, what will the department use to determine the nursing facility's cost per case mix unit? If the nursing facility:

(1) Is newly Medicaid certified after the four quarters specified in RCW 74.46.501 (7)(b), then the department must use the industry average case mix index for those four quarters as the facility's average case mix index.

(2) Existed during at least one of the four quarters and met the ninety percent threshold for at least one of the four quarters specified in RCW 74.46.501 (7)(b), then the department must use the facility's average case mix index for the quarter(s) that the facility met the ninety percent threshold.

(3) Existed during at least one of the four quarters and did not meet the ninety percent threshold for any of the four quarters, then the department must use the industry average case mix index as the facility's average case mix index.

department will use the number of licensed beds to compute the ninety percent threshold of MDS data when:

- (1) The reported census as a result of errors exceeds the number of current licensed beds; or
- (2) There is a significant discrepancy between the reported census and the number of current licensed beds. A significant discrepancy exists when the census is fifty percent or less of the number of licensed beds.

WAC 388-96-744 How will the department set the therapy care rate and determine the median cost limit per unit of therapy? (1) For a nursing facility that does not report units of therapy for the applicable cost report year, the department will set its nursing facility therapy care rate at $0.00 until units of therapy are submitted.

(2) After the nursing facility reports its units of therapy, the department will pay the nursing facility a rate beginning the effective date of the rate year, e.g., July 1.

(3) In a rebase year the nursing facility's units of therapy must be reported in the cost report used to rebase the rate. If reported later than the cost report due date, the department shall exclude the nursing facility's therapy costs from the array of costs use to set the median cost limit per unit of therapy.

[Statutory Authority: Chapter 74.46 RCW as amended by 1998 c 322 § 26 and RCW 74.46.800. 98-20-023, § 388-96-744, filed 9/25/98, effective 10/1/98.]

WAC 388-96-746 How much therapy consultant expense for each therapy type will the department allow to be added to the total allowable one-on-one therapy expense? (1) The department will multiply the actual patient days when greater than eighty-five percent or patient days at eighty-five percent occupancy by both:

- (a) A nursing facility's adjusted therapy consulting costs per patient day; and
- (b) The median adjusted therapy consulting cost plus ten percent.

The lesser of (a) or (b) of this subsection will be reasonable therapy consulting costs that the department shall add to the total allowable one-on-one therapy expense used to calculate the therapy care rate.

(2) To determine the median adjusted therapy consulting cost per type of therapy, the department shall:

- (a) Divide Medicaid nursing facilities in the state into two peer groups:
 - (i) Those facilities located within a metropolitan statistical area; and
 - (ii) Those not located in a metropolitan statistical area. Metropolitan statistical areas and nonmetropolitan statistical areas shall be as determined by the United States Office of Management and Budget or other applicable federal office.

(b) Array the facilities in each peer group from highest to lowest based on their therapy consulting cost per patient day for each type of therapy.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 488]

(c) Determine the median total cost for therapy consulting per patient day costs by MSA and non-MSA peer group and add ten percent to that median cost.

WAC 388-96-747 Constructed, remodeled or expanded facilities. (1) When a facility is constructed, remodeled, or expanded after obtaining a certificate of need or exemption from the requirements for certificate of need for the replacement of existing nursing home beds pursuant to RCW 70.38.115 (13)(a), the department shall determine actual and allocated allowable land cost and building construction cost. Payment for such allowable costs, determined pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, shall not exceed the maximums set forth in this subsection and in subsections (2) and (7) of this section. The department shall determine construction class and types through examination of building plans submitted to the department and/or on-site inspections. The department shall use definitions and criteria contained in the Marshall and Swift Valuation Service published by the Marshall and Swift Publication Company. Buildings of excellent quality construction shall be considered to be of good quality, without adjustment, for the purpose of applying these maximums.

(2) Construction costs shall be final labor, material, and service costs to the owner or owners and shall include:

- (a) Architect's fees;
- (b) Engineers' fees (including plans, plan check and building permit, and survey to establish building lines and grades);
- (c) Interest on building funds during period of construction and processing fee or service charge;
- (d) Sales tax on labor and materials;
- (e) Site preparation (including excavation for foundation and backfill);
- (f) Utilities from structure to lot line;
- (g) Contractors' overhead and profit (including job supervision, workmen's compensation, fire and liability insurance, unemployment insurance, etc.);
- (h) Allocations of costs which increase the net book value of the project for purposes of Medicaid payment;
- (i) Other items included by the Marshall and Swift Valuation Service when deriving the calculator method costs.

(3) The department shall allow such construction costs, at the lower of actual costs or the maximums derived from the sum of the basic construction cost limit plus the common use area limit which corresponds to the type, class and number of total nursing home beds for the new construction, remodel or expansion. The maximum limits shall be calculated using the most current cost criteria contained in the Marshall and Swift Valuation Service and shall be adjusted forward to the mid-point date between award of the construction contract and completion of construction.

(4) When some or all of a nursing facility's common-use areas are situated in a basement, the department shall exclude some or all of the per-bed allowance for common-use areas to derive the construction cost lid for the facility. The amount excluded will be equal to the ratio of basement common-use areas to all common-use areas in the facility times the common-use area limits determined in accordance with subsection (3) of this section. In lieu of the excluded amount, the department shall add an amount calculated using the calculator method guidelines for basements in nursing homes published in the Marshall and Swift Valuation Service.

(5) Subject to provisions regarding allowable land contained in this chapter, allowable costs for land shall be the lesser of:

(a) Actual cost per square foot, including allocations;

(b) The average per square foot land value of the ten nearest urban or rural nursing facilities at the time of purchase of the land in question. The average land value sample shall reflect either all urban or all rural facilities depending upon the classification of urban or rural for the facility in question. The values used to derive the average shall be the assessed land values which have been calculated for the purpose of county tax assessments; or

(c) Land value for new or replacement building construction or substantial building additions requiring the acquisition of land that commenced to operate on or after July 1, 1997, determined in accordance with RCW 74.46.360 (2) and (3).

(6) If allowable costs for construction or land are determined to be less than actual costs pursuant to subsections (1) and (7) of this section, the department may increase the amount if the owner or contractor is able to show unusual or unique circumstances having substantially impacted the costs of construction or land. Actual costs shall be allowed to the extent they resulted from such circumstances up to a maximum of ten percent above levels determined under subsections (3), (4), and (5) of this section for construction or land. An adjustment under this subsection shall be granted only if requested by the contractor. The contractor shall submit documentation of the unusual circumstances and an analysis of its financial impact with the request.

(7) If a capitalized addition or retirement of an asset will result in an increased licensed bed capacity during the calendar year following the capitalized addition or replacement, the department shall use the facility's anticipated resident occupancy level subsequent to the increase in licensed bed capacity as long as the occupancy for the increased number of beds is at or above eighty-five percent. Subject to the provisions of this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW, in no case shall the department use less than eighty-five percent occupancy of the facility's increased licensed bed capacity. If a capitalized addition, replacement, or retirement results in a decreased licensed bed capacity, WAC 388-96-709 will apply.

WAC 388-96-748 Financing allowance component rate allocation. (1) Beginning July 1, 1999, for each Medicaid nursing facility, the department will establish a financing allowance component rate allocation. The financing allowance component rate allocation will be rebased annually, effective July 1st, in accordance with this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(2) The department will determine the financing allowance component rate allocation by:

(2007 Ed.)

(a) Multiplying the net invested funds of each nursing facility by the applicable factor identified in subsection (3) of this section; and

(b) Dividing the sum of the products by the greater of:

(i) A nursing facility's total resident days from the most recent cost report period; or

(ii) Resident days calculated on eighty-five percent facility occupancy.

(3)(a) The multiplication factor required by subsection (2) (a) of this section is determined by the acquisition date of the tangible fixed asset(s). For each nursing facility, the department will multiply the net invested funds for assets acquired:

(i) Before May 17, 1999 by a factor of .10; and/or

(ii) On or after May 17, 1999 by a factor of .085.

(b) The department will apply the factor of .10 to the net invested funds pertaining to new construction or major renovations:

(i) That received certificate of need approval before May 17, 1999;

(ii) That received an exemption from certificate of need requirements under chapter 70.38 RCW before May 17, 1999; or

(iii) for which the nursing facility submitted working drawings to the department of health for construction review before May 17, 1999.

(c) For a new contractor as defined under WAC 388-96-026 (1)(c), assets acquired from the former contractor will retain their initial acquisition dates when determining the new contractor's financing allowance under this section.

WAC 388-96-749 Variable return—Quartiles and percentages. (1) When the department rebases each nursing facility's July 1 Medicaid payment rate in accordance with chapter 74.46 RCW and this chapter, it applies RCW 74.46.-433 to set the variable return (VR) quartiles and assigns the designated percentage to the quartile.

(2) Following a July 1 rebasing of all component rates, the department will not adjust the quartiles or the percentages assigned to them for any reason, including but not limited to reversal of cost report adjustments by administrative review conferences, fair hearings, and/or judicial reviews until the next July 1 rebasing of all component rates.

The department will pay public facilities rendering such services free of charge or at a nominal charge according to the methods and standards set out in this chapter. The contractor shall provide as part of the annual cost report a statement of the average charges for the cost report year for services covered by the payment rate and supporting computations and documentation. The contractor shall immediately inform the department if its payment rate does exceed customary charges for comparable services. If necessary, the department will adjust the payment rate in accordance with RCW 74.46.531.

WAC 388-96-762 Allowable land. (1) Beginning January 1, 1985, land associated with a nursing facility which is eligible for inclusion in net invested funds shall not exceed two acres for facilities located in a Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA), as defined and determined by the United States Office of Management and Budget or other applicable federal office, and three acres for nursing facilities located outside such an area.

(2) The department may grant an exception to these limits if a contractor presents documentation deemed adequate by the department establishing a larger area of land is directly related to patient care. Requests for exceptions and any exceptions granted must be in writing.

(3) Requests for exceptions may be granted in the following cases:

(a) The area occupied by the nursing home building exceeds the allowable land area specified in subsection (1) of this section;

(b) The land is used directly in the provision of patient care;

(c) The land is maintained;

(d) The land is not subdivided or eligible for subdivision;

(e) The land is zoned for nursing home or similar use; and

(f) Other reasons exist which are deemed sufficient by the department.

WAC 388-96-766 Notification. (1) The department will notify each contractor in writing of its prospective Medicaid payment rate allocation. Unless otherwise specified at the time it is issued, the Medicaid payment rate allocation and/or component rate allocation(s) will be effective from the first day of the month in which it (they) is (are) issued. When the department amends a Medicaid payment rate allocation and/or component rate allocation(s) as the result of an appeal in accordance with WAC 388-96-904, the amended rate will have the same effective date as the appealed rate.

(2) If a total Medicaid component payment rate allocation and/or rate allocation(s) is (are) adjusted, updated or amended after the calendar year in which the adjustment or update was effective, then the department will account for any amounts owed through the settlement process.

(3)(a) The department shall deem the contractor to have received the department's notice five calendar days after the date of the notification letter, unless proof of the date of receipt of the department's notification letter exists, in which case the actual date of receipt shall be used. Proof of date of receipt of department's notification must be from an independent source that has no stake in the outcome.

(b) When the department has sent notice by certified letter, the department shall deem the contractor to have received the department's notice five calendar days after the date the U.S. Post Office first attempts to deliver the certified letter containing the notice of the department's action(s).

WAC 388-96-767 Appraisal values. If a contractor is unwilling or unable to provide and document the lessor's historical cost of leased assets, the department shall arrange for an appraisal of such assets to be conducted by the state of Washington department of general administration. If such an appraisal is conducted, it shall be the basis for all property and financing allowance component rate allocations, except that: If documentation subsequently becomes available to the department establishing the lessor's historical cost is less than the appraisal value, the historical cost shall be the basis for all property and financing allowance component rate allocations.

WAC 388-96-771 Receivership. (1) If the nursing home is providing care to recipients of state medical assistance, the receiver shall:

(a) Become the Medicaid contractor for the duration of the receivership period;

(b) Assume all reporting responsibilities for new contractors;

(c) Assume all other responsibilities for new contractors set forth in this chapter; and

(d) Be responsible for the refund of Medicaid rate payments in excess of costs during the period of receivership.

(2) In establishing the prospective rate during receivership the department shall consider:

(a) Compensation, if any, ordered by the court for the receiver. Such compensation may already be available to the receiver through the rate as follows:

(i) Financing allowance and variable return component rate allocations, or

(ii) The administrator's salary in the case of facilities where the receiver is also the administrator.

If these existing sources of compensation are less than what was ordered by the court, additional costs may be allowed in the rate up to the compensation amount ordered by the court.

(b) Start up costs and costs of repairs, replacements, and additional staff needed for patient health, security, and welfare. To the extent such costs can be covered through the financing allowance and the variable return component rate allocations, no additional monies will be added to the rate;

(c) Any other allowable costs as set forth in this chapter.

(3)(a) Upon order of the court, the department shall provide emergency or transitional financial assistance to a receiver not to exceed thirty thousand dollars.

(b) The department shall recover any emergency or transitional expenditure made by the department on behalf of a nursing home not certified to participate in the Medicaid Title XIX program from revenue generated by the facility which is not obligated to the operation of the facility.

(c) In order to help recover an emergency or transitional expenditure, regardless of whether the facility is certified to participate in the Medicaid Title XIX program or not, the department may:

(i) File an action against the former licensee or owner at the time the expenditure is made to recover such expenditure; or

(ii) File a lien on the facility or on the proceeds of the sale of the facility.

(4) If recommendations on receiver's compensation are solicited from the department by the court, the department shall consider the following:

(a) The range of compensation for nursing home managers;

(b) Experience and training of the receiver;

(c) The size, location, and current condition of the facility;

(d) Any additional factors deemed appropriate by the department.

(5) When the receivership terminates, the department may revise the nursing home's Medicaid reimbursement. The Medicaid reimbursement rate for:

(a) The former owner or licensee shall be what it was before receivership, unless the former owner or licensee requests prospective rate revisions from the department as set forth in this chapter; and

(b) Licensed replacement operators shall be determined consistent with rules governing prospective reimbursement rates for new contractors as set forth in this chapter.

WAC 388-96-776 Add-ons to the property and financing allowance payment rate—Capital improvements. (1) For new or replacement building construction or major renovation projects begun after July 1, 2001, the contractor must have a certificate of capital authorization (CCA) issued pursuant to WAC 388-96-783 and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(2)(a) Beginning July 1, 2001, the department shall grant an add-on to a prospective payment rate for capitalized improvements done under RCW 74.46.431(12) for all new or replacement building construction or major renovation projects; provided, the department granted the contractor a certificate of capital authorization (CCA) pursuant to WAC 388-96-783 for the fiscal year in which the contractor will complete the project and the net rate effect is ten cents per patient day or greater.

(b) Rate add-on requests filed with the department or approved by the certificate of need unit of the department of health for projects commencing before July 1, 2001 and finishing after July 1, 2001, are not subject to CCA requirements set forth in this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(3) The department may grant a rate add-on to a payment rate for capital improvements not requiring a CON and a CCA per subsections (1) and (2) of this section. However, the capital improvement must have a net rate effect of ten cents per patient day or greater.

(4) Rate add-ons for all construction and renovation projects granted pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall be limited to the total legislative authorization for capital construction and renovation projects for the fiscal year (FY) of the biennium in which the construction or renovation project will be completed. Rate add-ons are subject to the provisions of RCW 74.46.421.

(5) When physical plant improvements made under subsection (1) or (2) of this section are completed in phases, the department shall:

(a) Grant a rate add-on in accordance with subsection (6) of this section for any addition, replacement or improvement when each phase is completed and certified for occupancy for the purpose for which it was intended;

(b) Limit the rate add-on to the actual cost of the depreciable tangible assets meeting the criteria of RCW 74.46.330;

(c) Add-on construction fees as defined in WAC 388-96-747 and other capitalized allowable fees and costs for the completed phase of the project; and

(d) Make the effective date for the rate add-on for the completed phase the quarterly rate change immediately following the completion and certification for occupancy of the phase. When the date of the written request for a phase add-on rate falls after the first quarter immediately following the completion and certification for occupancy of the phase, the department will issue the rate add-on retroactive to the first of the quarter in which the department received a complete written request.

(6) When the construction class of any portion of a newly constructed building will improve as the result of any addition, replacement or improvement occurring in a later, but not yet completed and fully utilized phase of the project, the most appropriate construction class, as applicable to that completed and fully utilized phase, will be assigned for purposes of calculating the rate add-on. The department shall not revise the rate add-on retroactively after completion of the portion of the project that provides the improved construction class. Rather, the department shall calculate a new rate add-on when the improved construction class phase is completed and fully utilized and the rate add-on will be effective in accordance with subsection (7) of this section using the date the class was improved.

(7) The contractor requesting a rate add-on under subsection (1), (2) or (3) of this section shall submit a written request to the department separate from all other requests and inquiries of the department, e.g., WAC 388-96-904 (1) and (5). A complete written request shall include the following:

(a) A copy of documentation requiring completion of the addition or replacements to maintain licensure or certification for adjustments requested under subsection (1) of this section;

(b) A copy of the new bed license, whether the number of licensed beds increases or decreases, if applicable;

(c) All documentation, e.g., copies of paid invoices showing actual final cost of assets and/or service, e.g., labor purchased as part of the capitalized addition or replacements;

(d) Certification showing the completion date of the capitalized additions or replacements and the date the assets were placed in service per RCW 74.46.360;

(e) A properly completed depreciation schedule for the capitalized additions or replacement as provided in this chapter; and

(f) When the rate increase is requested pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, a written justification for granting the rate increase.

(8) For rate add-on requests for projects not completed in phases that are approved pursuant to subsection (7) of this section and the written request is received:

(a) Within sixty calendar days following the completion and certification of occupancy of the new or replacement construction, major renovation, or the acquisition and installation (if applicable) of a capital improvement made under subsection (3) of this section, the effective date of the rate add-on will be the first of the month following the month in which the project was completed and certified for occupancy or acquired and installed; or

(b) More than sixty days following the completion and certification for occupancy of the new or replacement construction, major renovation project, or the acquisition and installation (if applicable) of a capital improvement made under subsection (3) of this section, the effective date of the rate add-on will be the first of the month following the month in which the written request was received.

(9) If the initial written request is incomplete, the department will notify the contractor of the documentation and information required. The contractor shall submit the requested information within fifteen calendar days from the date the contractor receives the notice to provide the information. If the contractor fails to complete the add-on request by providing all the requested documentation and information within the fifteen calendar days from the date of receipt of notification, the department shall deny the request for failure to complete.

(10) If, after the denial for failure to complete, the contractor submits another written request for a rate add-on for the same project the date of receipt for the purpose of applying subsection (8) of this section will depend upon whether the subsequent request for the same project is complete, i.e., the department does not have to request additional documentation and information in order to make a determination. If a subsequent request for funding of the same project is:

(a) Complete, then the date of the first request may be used when applying subsection (8) of this section; or

(b) Incomplete, then the date of the subsequent request must be used when applying subsection (8) of this section even though the physical plant improvements may be completed and fully utilized prior to that date.

(11) The department shall respond, in writing, not later than sixty calendar days after receipt of a complete request.

(12) If the contractor does not use the funds for the purpose for which they were granted, the department immediately shall have the right to recoup the misspent or unused funds.

(13) When any physical plant improvements made under subsection (1) or (2) of this section result in a change in licensed beds, any rate add-on granted will be subject to the provisions regarding the number of licensed beds, patient days, occupancy, etc., included in this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(14) Effective July 1, 2002, except for essential community providers, the Medicaid share of nursing facility new construction or refurbishing projects shall be based upon a minimum facility occupancy of ninety percent for the operations, property, and financing allowance component rate allocations. For essential community providers, the Medicaid share of nursing facility new construction or refurbishing project will be based upon a minimum facility occupancy of eighty-five percent for operations, property, and financing allowance component rate allocations.

(15) When a capitalized addition or replacement results in an increased licensed bed capacity during the calendar year following the capitalized addition or replacement:

(a) The department shall determine a nursing facility's prospective Medicaid:

(i) Property payment rate allocation by dividing the property costs using the greater of actual days from the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based or days calculated by multiplying the new number of licensed beds times ninety percent times the number of calendar days in the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based. For essential community providers, the department shall use eighty-five percent to calculate days to compare with actual days; and

(ii) Financing allowance payment rate allocation by multiplying the net invested funds by the applicable factor in WAC 388-96-748(3) and dividing by the greater of the facility's actual days from the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based or on days calculated by multiplying the new number of licensed beds times ninety percent occupancy times the calendar days in the cost report period on which the rate being recalculated is based. For essential community providers, the department shall use eighty-five percent occupancy to calculate days to compare to actual days.

WAC 388-96-777 Add-ons to the prospective rate—Initiated by the department. (1) The department shall initiate all rate add-ons granted under this section. Contractors may not request and be approved a rate add-on under this section.

(2) Rate add-ons the department grants under the authority of this section shall be for costs to implement:

(a) Program changes that the director of residential care services, aging and adult services administration determines a rate add-on is necessary to accomplish the purpose of the change and announces same in a written directive to the chief of the office of rates management; or

(b) Changes in either the state or federal statutes or regulations or directives that the director of management services, aging and adult services administration determines requires a rate add-on to implement and directs in writing the chief of the office of rates management to implement.

(3) Changes made under this section are subject to review under WAC 388-96-901 and 388-96-904; provided, the issue is not whether a rate add-on should have been granted.

(4) If the contractor does not use the funds for the purpose for which they were granted, the department shall immediately recoup the misspent or unused funds.

biennial capital financing authorization for a nursing facility's new or replacement building construction, or major renovation project, receiving a certificate of need (CON) or a CON exemption from the department of health under chapter 70.38 RCW and chapter 246-310 WAC after July 1, 2001.

(b) Issuance of a CCA as required by this regulation and by chapter 74.46 RCW is necessary before:

(i) Any depreciation resulting from the capitalized addition is included in a facility's property component rate allocation, including both determinations under RCW 74.46.435 and property rate add-ons done pursuant to WAC 388-96-776; and/or

(ii) Any net invested funds associated with the capitalized addition are included in the calculation of the facility's financing allowance rate allocation, including both determinations under RCW 74.46.437 and financing allowance rate add-ons done pursuant to WAC 388-96-776.

(2) To apply for a CCA, a contractor must submit a written application to the nursing home rates section of the office of rates management (ORM) within the department. The application must be entirely separate from, and not included with, any other request or communication. The application must include:

(a) A description of the proposed new or replacement construction or major renovation;

(b) A copy of the CON approval, or the determination of CON exception issued by the department of health for the construction or renovation;

(c) The amount of money for which the CCA is being requested; this will presumably be the same amount as included in the CON approval or exception, but may be different where good cause is shown;

(d) The name of the general contractor who will build the construction or renovation; and

(e) The anticipated starting and completion dates of the construction or renovation.

(3) Completed applications for CCAs will be reviewed in the order received. An application will be deemed completed as of the date when all required information has been received by ORM. Within ninety days of the receipt of an application, ORM will either reject it as incomplete, or act upon it. If more than one CCA application is received on the same date, priority will first be given to an application from an essential community provider and then to an application in relation to the facility which has gone the longest from its last major renovation or building project.

(4) ORM will accept applications and issue CCAs for each state fiscal year for which the legislature has enacted authorization in the biennial appropriations act as provided by RCW 74.46.807, subject to the limits of such authorization. CCAs for a fiscal year will be issued until the remaining capital authorization for that year is insufficient to cover any more applications made for that year. An application denied because that year's authorization has been depleted may be resubmitted for a later year, and will be given priority for the remaining amounts of capital authorization in the later year, after CCAs already issued for that year. The state fiscal year runs from July 1 of one calendar year to June 30 of the following calendar year, and is designated by the second calendar year. For example, state fiscal year 2004 (SFY04) runs from July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004.

(5)(a) When a CCA has been issued, the contractor must act to complete the construction or renovation in a timely manner, consistent with the estimates included in the application. The construction or renovation must be completed and ready for occupancy no later than the last day of the state fiscal year for which the CCA is issued. "Ready for occupancy" means that all federal, state, and local permits for occupancy of the buildings by residents have been issued.

(b) The contractor must send the department ORM a copy of each progress report submitted to the certificate of need section of the department of health under WAC 246-310-590, or a regulation adopted as a successor thereto, at the same time the progress report is filed with the department of health.

(c) Based upon the application for the CCA and the progress reports filed with the department of health by the contractor, ORM will set deadlines for progress of the project toward completion. ORM may withdraw a CCA if its holder does not comply with those deadlines in a good faith manner. A contractor that fails to meet a progress deadline due to its own action or inaction shall be considered not to have acted in a good faith manner.

(d) If a CCA is withdrawn by ORM, or if the construction or renovation is not ready for occupancy by the last day of the fiscal year for which the CCA was issued, the value of the construction or renovation will not be included in the facility's property component or financing allowance rate allocations, as provided in subsection (1)(b) of this section. To include the value of the construction or renovation in the facility's property component or financing allowance rate allocations, the contractor must seek and obtain another CCA.

(6)(a) Although they are related, the CON and CCA processes are separate. When a CON requires amendment under department of health requirements, the contractor must notify ORM. The previously issued CCA will stay in effect. When the amended CON is issued in an amount greater than the original CON, the contractor must submit a new CCA application to ORM covering only the difference between the original and amended CONs. This supplemental CCA application may reference the original CCA application to the greatest extent possible, to expedite its filing and review.

(b) The department of health allows the dollar amount of a CON to be exceeded by the greater of twelve percent or fifty thousand dollars without requiring an amendment to the CON. This excess is not automatically reflected in the corresponding CCA. Any increase in the amount requires an application for a new CCA.

(c) ORM will review the new CCA application based on the estimated date of occupancy and the authorization remaining for the relevant state fiscal year. If there is insufficient authorization remaining in that fiscal year to fund the project, ORM will deny the application in whole or in part.

(d) If a contractor's application for a CCA is denied pursuant to subsection (c) above, the contractor may resubmit it for a later state fiscal year and the application will be given priority as described in subsection (4) of this section.

(7) If ORM withdraws a CCA previously issued, the amount of that authorization shall be restored to the total capital authorization available for the state fiscal year against which the CCA was issued.

(8) An application for a CCA may be considered on an emergency basis. If the application is approved and a sufficient amount of authorization remains for the relevant fiscal year, the CCA may be issued without regard to the priority of the application. Only an application made in relation to a major renovation project may be considered on an emergency basis, and then only if it must be completed as soon as possible to:

(a) Retain a facility's license or certification provided the net rate effect is ten cents per patient day or greater;

(b) Protect the health or safety of the facility's residents; or

(c) Avoid closure if the facility is an essential community provider.

WAC 388-96-803 When a nursing facility (NF) contractor becomes aware of a change in the Medicaid resident's income and/or resources, must he or she report it? Yes, within seventy-two hours of becoming aware of a change in the Medicaid resident's income and/or resources, the NF contractor will report the change in writing to the home and community services office serving the area in which the NF is located. When reporting the change, the NF contractor will include copies of any available documentation of the change in the Medicaid resident's income and/or resources.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.46.800. 01-12-037, § 388-96-803, filed 5/29/01, effective 6/29/01.]

WAC 388-96-901 Disputes. (1) If a contractor wishes to contest the way in which the department applied a statute or department rule to the contractor's circumstances, the contractor shall pursue the administrative review process prescribed in WAC 388-96-904.

(a) Adverse actions taken under the authority of this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW subject to administrative review under WAC 388-96-904 include but are not limited to:

- (i) Determining a nursing facility payment rate;
- (ii) Calculating a nursing facility settlement;
- (iii) Imposing a civil fine on the nursing facility;
- (iv) Suspending payment to a nursing facility; or
- (v) Refusing to contract with a nursing facility.

(b) Adverse actions taken under the authority of this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW not subject to administrative review under WAC 388-96-904 include but are not limited to:

(i) Actions taken under the authority of RCW 74.46.421 and sections of this chapter implementing RCW 74.46.421;

(ii) Case mix accuracy review of minimum data set (MDS) nursing facility resident assessments, which shall be limited to separate administrative review under the provisions of WAC 388-96-905;

(iii) Quarterly rate updates to reflect changes in a facility's resident case mix including contractor errors made in the MDSs used to update the facility's resident case mix;

(iv) Exceptional direct care program codified at WAC 388-96-781; and

(v) Actions taken under WAC 388-96-218 (2)(c).

(2) The administrative review process prescribed in WAC 388-96-904 shall not be used to contest or review unrelated or ancillary department actions, whether review is sought to obtain a ruling on the merits of a claim or to make a record for subsequent judicial review or other purpose. If an issue is raised that is not subject to review under WAC 388-96-904, the presiding officer shall dismiss such issue with prejudice to further review under the provisions of WAC 388-96-904, but without prejudice to other administrative or judicial review as may be provided by law. Unrelated or ancillary actions not eligible for administrative review under WAC 388-96-904 include but are not limited to:

(a) Challenges to the adequacy or validity of the public process followed by department in proposing or making a change to the nursing facility Medicaid payment rate methodology, as required by 42 U.S.C. 1396a (a)(13)(A) and WAC 388-96-718;

(b) Challenges to the nursing facility Medicaid payment system that are based in whole or in part on federal laws, regulations, or policies;

(c) Challenges to a contractor's rate that are based in whole or in part on federal laws, regulations, or policies;

(d) Challenges to the legal validity of a statute or regulation; and

(e) Actions of the department affecting a Medicaid beneficiary or provider that were not commenced by the office of rates management, aging and disability services administration, for example, entitlement to or payment for durable medical equipment or other services.

(3) If a contractor wishes to challenge the legal validity of a statute or regulation relating to the nursing facility Medicaid payment system, or wishes to bring a challenge based in whole or in part on federal law, it must bring such action de novo in a court of proper jurisdiction as may be provided by law.

WAC 388-96-904 Administrative review—Adjudicative proceeding. (1) Contractors seeking to appeal or take exception to an action or determination of the department, under authority of this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW, relating to the contractor's payment rate, audit or settlement, or otherwise affecting the level of payment to the contractor, or seeking to appeal or take exception to any other adverse action taken under authority of this chapter or chapter 74.46 RCW eligible for administrative review under this section, shall request an administrative review conference in writing within twenty-eight calendar days after receiving notice of the department's action or determination. The department shall deem the contractor to have received the department's notice five calendar days after the date of the notification letter, unless proof of the date of receipt of the department's notification letter exists, in which case the actual date of receipt shall be used to determine timeliness of the contractor's request for an administrative review conference. The contractor's request for administrative review shall:

(a) Be signed by the contractor or by a partner, officer, or authorized employee of the contractor;

(b) State the particular issues raised; and

(c) Include all necessary supporting documentation or other information.

(2) After receiving a request for administrative review conference that meets the criteria in subsection (1) of this section, the department shall schedule an administrative review conference. The conference may be conducted by telephone.

(3) At least fourteen calendar days prior to the scheduled date of the administrative review conference, the contractor must supply any additional or supporting documentation or information upon which the contractor intends to rely in presenting its case. In addition, the department may request at any time prior to issuing a determination any documentation or information needed to decide the issues raised, and the contractor must comply with such a request within fourteen calendar days after it is received. The department may extend this period up to fourteen additional calendar days for good cause shown if the contractor requests an extension in writing received by the department before expiration of the initial fourteen-day period. The department shall dismiss issues that cannot be decided or resolved due to a contractor's failure to provide requested documentation or information within the required period.

(4) The department shall, within sixty calendar days after conclusion of the conference, render a determination in writing addressing the issues raised. If the department is waiting for additional documentation or information promised by or requested from the contractor pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, the sixty-day period shall not commence until the department's receipt of such documentation or information or until expiration of the time allowed to provide it. The determination letter shall include a notice of dismissal of all issues which cannot be decided due to a contractor's failure to provide documentation or information promised or requested.

(5) A contractor seeking further review of a determination issued pursuant to subsection (4) of this section shall apply for an adjudicative proceeding, in writing, signed by one of the individuals authorized by subsection (1) of this section, within twenty-eight calendar days after receiving the department's administrative review conference determination letter. A review judge or other presiding officer employed by the department's board of appeals shall conduct the adjudicative proceeding.

The department shall deem the contractor to have received the department's determination five calendar days after the date of the administrative review determination letter, unless proof of the date of receipt of the letter exists, in which case the actual date of receipt shall be used to determine timeliness of the contractor's application for an adjudicative proceeding. The contractor shall attach to its application for an adjudicative proceeding the department's administrative review conference determination letter. A contractor's application for an adjudicative proceeding shall be addressed to the department's board of appeals.

(6) Except as authorized by subsection (7) of this section, the scope of an adjudicative proceeding shall be limited to the issues specifically raised by the contractor at the administrative review conference and addressed on the merits in the department's administrative review conference determination letter. The contractor shall be deemed to have waived all issues or claims that could have been raised by the contractor relating to the challenged determination or action, but which were not pursued at the conference and not addressed in the department's administrative review conference determination letter. In its request for an adjudicative proceeding or as soon as practicable, the contractor must specify its issues.

(7) If the contractor wishes to have further review of any issue not addressed on its merits, but instead dismissed in the department's administrative review conference determination letter, for failure to supply needed, promised, or requested additional information or documentation, or because the department has concluded the request was untimely or otherwise procedurally defective, the issue shall be considered by the presiding officer for the purpose of upholding the department's dismissal, reinstating the issue and remanding for further agency staff action, or reinstating the issue and rendering a decision on the merits.

(8) An adjudicative proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with this chapter, chapter 388-02 WAC and chapter 34.05 RCW. In the event of a conflict between hearing requirements in chapter 74.46 RCW and chapter 388-96 WAC specific to the nursing facility Medicaid payment system and general hearing requirements in chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC, the specific requirements of chapter 74.46 RCW and chapter 388-96 WAC shall prevail. The presiding officer assigned by the department's board of appeals to conduct an adjudicative proceeding and who conducts the proceeding shall render the final agency decision.

(9) At the time an adjudicative proceeding is being scheduled for a future time and date certain, or at any appropriate stage of the prehearing process, the presiding officer shall have authority, upon the motion of either party or the presiding officer's own motion, to compel either party to identify specific issues remaining to be litigated.

(10) If the presiding officer determines there is no material issue(s) of fact to be resolved in a case, the presiding officer shall have authority, upon the motion of either party or the presiding officer's own motion, to decide the issue(s) presented without convening or conducting an in-person evidentiary hearing. In such a case, the decision may be reached on documentation admitted to the record, party admissions, written or oral stipulation(s) of facts, and written or oral argument.

(11) The board of appeals shall issue an order dismissing an adjudicative proceeding requested under subsection (5) of this section, unless within two hundred seventy calendar days after the board of appeals receives the application for an adjudicative proceeding:

(a) All issues have been resolved by a written settlement agreement between the contractor and the department signed by both and filed with the board of appeals; or

(b) An adjudicative proceeding has been held for all issues not resolved and the evidentiary record, including all rebuttal evidence and post-hearing or other briefing, is closed.

This time limit may be extended one time thirty additional calendar days for good cause shown upon the motion of either party made prior to the expiration of the initial two hundred seventy day period. It shall be the responsibility of the contractor to request that hearings be scheduled and ensure that settlement agreements are signed and filed with the board of appeals in order to comply with the time limit set forth in this subsection.

(12) Any party dissatisfied with a decision or an order of dismissal of the board of appeals may file a petition for reconsideration within ten calendar days after the decision or order of dismissal is served on such party. The petition shall state the specific grounds upon which relief is sought. The time for seeking reconsideration may be extended by the presiding officer for good cause upon motion of either party. The presiding officer shall rule on a petition for reconsideration and may seek additional argument, briefing, testimony, or other evidence if deemed necessary. Filing a petition for reconsideration shall not be a requisite for seeking judicial review; however, if a petition is filed by either party, the agency decision shall not be deemed final until a ruling is made by the presiding officer.

(13) A contractor dissatisfied with a decision or an order of dismissal of the board of appeals may file a petition for judicial review pursuant to RCW 34.05.570(3) or other applicable authority.

WAC 388-96-905 Case mix accuracy review of MDS nursing facility resident assessments. (1) The department shall perform periodic nursing facility on-site accuracy reviews of minimum data set (MDS) assessments of nursing facility residents, for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of facility case mix data used to establish and update Medicaid payment rates, and for other purposes the department may deem appropriate.

(2) Contractors, their representatives, and authorized nursing facility personnel may ask questions and raise concerns with the quality assurance nurse (QAN) or other designated department representative at the time a case mix accuracy review is conducted. Contractors, their representatives and authorized nursing facility personnel should attempt to resolve any differences and provide additional documentation, information or clarification prior to the case mix accuracy review exit conference.

(3) Upon completing a case mix accuracy review, the QAN shall hold an exit conference to inform the facility of the QAN's observations and preliminary findings. MDS inaccuracies, if any, will be identified and the findings that substantiate these inaccuracies shall be described.

(4) Within five working days after the case mix accuracy review exit conference is held, the nursing facility district manager (DM) for the facility's district shall send the case mix accuracy review decision letter to the nursing facility administrator at the facility address. The case mix accuracy review decision letter shall be sent certified mail, return receipt requested, shall describe in detail the QAN's findings, and shall identify the:

- (a) Resident assessments that were reviewed;
- (b) RUG-III or other applicable case mix grouping that was determined for the resident assessments reviewed;
- (c) Changes in assigned classification, if any, that were made for residents whose assessments were reviewed;
- (d) Right of the contractor to appeal any disagreement with the case mix accuracy review decision to the department's case mix accuracy review administrator or his or her delegate:

- (i) Where to send an appeal request; and
- (ii) The time limit for requesting an appeal.

(5) If the contractor intends to appeal the DM's case mix accuracy review decision letter, the appeal request must be in writing and mailed to the department's case mix accuracy administrator within ten calendar days after receipt of the case mix accuracy review decision letter. The appeal request letter shall:

- (a) Be signed by the contractor or by a partner, officer, or authorized employee of the contractor;
- (b) State the particular issue(s) raised, including any explanation or basis for disagreeing with the department's findings or actions.

(6) Prior to the informal administrative hearing, the case mix accuracy review administrator shall have no involvement in the case mix accuracy review decision.

(7) Upon receiving a timely appeal request, the administrator shall review any documentation and information submitted with the request, and contact the contractor by telephone to schedule an informal administrative hearing. The purpose of this informal hearing is to give the contractor one opportunity to present information which might warrant modification or deletion of resident-specific accuracy findings resulting from the case mix accuracy review. The scope of the informal administrative hearing shall be limited to clinical issues of resident need and assessment. Nonclinical issues beyond the scope of appeal include, but are not limited to:

- (a) Any remedies or negative actions imposed by the department to rectify practices or inaccuracies;
- (b) Alleged inconsistencies in the accuracy review process;
- (c) Challenges to the authority or adequacy of the case mix accuracy review process; and
- (d) Payment rate issues or other adverse actions subject to review under WAC 388-96-904.

(8) On or before the informal hearing date, the contractor must submit all necessary supporting documentation or other information to the case mix accuracy review administrator. The administrator may request additional information or documentation from the contractor at any time before issuing the final, informal hearing decision. The contractor shall provide all information or documentation within the time limits established by this section, or by the administrator. In the event that the contractor fails to submit the required documentation for a claim or issue within the specified time limits, the accuracy review administrator shall dismiss the claim or issue with prejudice.

(9) The informal case mix accuracy review administrative hearing shall be conducted in person, unless both the contractor and the department agree that it can be conducted by telephone.

(10) Within ten days after the informal administrative hearing or within ten days after receipt of any additional information or documentation requested, whichever is later, the case mix accuracy review administrator shall send the appeal decision in writing to the nursing facility administrator at the facility address. The appeal decision letter shall be sent regular mail and shall:

- (a) Be the final agency decision of the department;
- (b) Be based on the independent judgment of the case mix accuracy review administrator who conducted the informal administrative hearing and reviewed all information and documentation; and
- (c) Recite the right of the contractor to seek judicial review under the state's Administrative Procedure Act (chapter 34.05 RCW).

(11) A contractor dissatisfied with the final agency decision issued by the case mix accuracy review administrator may file a petition for judicial review pursuant to RCW 34.05.570(3) or other applicable authority.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.46.780 as amended by 1998 c 322 § 41 and RCW 74.46.800. 98-20-023, § 388-96-905, filed 9/25/98, effective 10/1/98.]

SUBCHAPTER I RESIDENT RIGHTS, CARE AND RELATED SERVICES

Definitions

WAC 388-97-005 Definitions. "Abandonment" means action or inaction by an individual or entity with a duty of care for a vulnerable adult that leaves the vulnerable individual without the means or ability to obtain necessary food, clothing, shelter, or health care.

(2007 Ed.)

"Abuse" means the willful action or inaction that inflicts injury, unreasonable confinement, intimidation, or punishment with resulting physical harm, pain or mental anguish. Further clarification of the definition of abuse, and examples of types of behavior that constitute abuse are described in RCW 74.34.020(2).

"Administrative hearing" is a formal hearing proceeding before a state administrative law judge that gives a licensee an opportunity to be heard in disputes about licensing actions, including the imposition of remedies, taken by the department.

"Administrative law judge (ALJ)" means an impartial decision-maker who presides over an administrative hearing. ALJs are employed by the office of administrative hearings (OAH), which is a separate state agency. ALJs are not DSHS employees or DSHS representatives.

"Administrator" means a nursing home administrator, licensed under chapter 18.52 RCW, must be in active administrative charge of the nursing home, as that term is defined in the board of nursing home administrator's regulations.

"Advanced registered nurse practitioner (ARNP)" means a registered nurse currently licensed in Washington under RCW 18.79.050 or successor laws.

"Applicant" means an individual, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity seeking a license to operate a nursing home.

Admission, Transfer and Discharge

WAC 388-97-012 Nursing facility care. The nursing facility must provide items, care, and services in accordance with this chapter and with federal regulations under 42 C.F.R. § 483.1 through 483.206, or successor laws, and other applicable federal requirements.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-012, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-017 Discrimination prohibited. (1) A nursing facility must establish and maintain identical policies and practices regarding transfer, discharge, and the provision of services covered under the state Medicaid plan for all individuals regardless of source of payment.

(2) A nursing facility must not require or request:

(a) Residents or potential residents to waive their rights to Medicare or Medicaid;

(b) Oral or written assurance that residents or potential residents are not eligible for, or will not apply for Medicare or Medicaid benefits; and

(c) A third party guarantee of payment to the facility as a condition of admission or expedited admission, or continued stay in the facility. However, the facility may require an individual who has legal access to a resident's income or resources available to pay for facility care to sign a contract, without incurring personal financial liability, to provide facility payment from the resident's income or resources.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 504]

(3) A nursing facility must inform, in writing, a prospective resident, and where applicable, the resident's representative, before or at the time of admission, that a third party may not be required or requested to personally guarantee payment to the nursing home, as specified in subsection (2)(c) of this section.

(4) A nursing facility must readmit a resident, who has been hospitalized or on therapeutic leave, immediately to the first available bed in a semiprivate room if the resident:

(a) Requires the services provided by the facility; and

(b) Is eligible for Medicaid nursing facility services.

(5) A nursing facility must not:

(a) Deny or delay admission or readmission of an individual to the facility because of the individual's status as a Medicaid recipient;

(b) Transfer a resident, except from a single room to another room within the facility, because of the resident's status as a Medicaid recipient;

(c) Discharge a resident from a facility because of the resident's status as a Medicaid recipient; or

(d) Charge Medicaid recipients any amounts in excess of the Medicaid rate from the date of eligibility, except for any supplementation that may be permitted by department regulation.

(6) A nursing facility must maintain only one list of names of individuals seeking admission to the facility, which is ordered by the date of request for admission, and must:

(a) Offer admission to individuals in the order they appear on the list, except as provided in subsection (7), as long as the facility can meet the needs of the individual with available staff or through the provision of reasonable accommodations required by state or federal laws;

(b) Retain the list of individuals seeking admission for one year from the month admission was requested; and

(c) Offer admission to the portions of the facility certified under Medicare and Medicaid without discrimination against persons eligible for Medicaid, except as provided in subsection (7).

(7) A nursing facility is permitted to give preferential admission to individuals who seek admission from a boarding home, licensed under chapter 18.20 RCW, or from independent retirement housing, if:

(a) The nursing facility is owned by the same entity that owns the boarding home or independent housing; and

(b) They are located within the same proximate geographic area; and

(c) The purpose of the preferential admission is to allow continued provision of culturally or faith-based services, or services provided by a continuing care retirement community as defined in RCW 74.38.025.

(8) A nursing facility must develop and implement written policies and procedures to ensure nondiscrimination in accordance with this section and RCW 74.42.055.

WAC 388-97-032 Discharge planning. (1) A resident has the right to attain or maintain the highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being, and to reside in the most independent setting. Therefore, the nursing home must:

(a) Utilize a formal resident discharge planning system with identical policies and practices for all residents regardless of source of payment;

(b) Inform the resident or resident's representative in writing of the nursing home's discharge planning system when the resident is admitted or as soon as practical after the resident's admission, including:

(i) Specific resources available to assist the resident in locating a lesser care setting;

(ii) The name of the nursing home's discharge coordinator(s);

(iii) In the case of a Medicaid certified nursing facility, the address and telephone number for the department's local home and community services office; and

(iv) In the case of a resident identified through pre-admission screening and resident review (PASRR) as having a developmental disability or mental illness, the address and telephone number for the division of developmental disabilities or the mental health PASRR contractor.

(2) The nursing home must prepare a detailed, written transfer or discharge plan for each resident determined to have potential for transfer or discharge within the next three months. The nursing home must:

(a) Develop and implement the plan with the active participation of the resident and, where appropriate, the resident's representative;

(b) In the case of a Medicaid resident, coordinate the plan with the department's home and community services staff;

(c) In the case of a resident identified through PASRR as having a developmental disability or mental illness, coordinate the plan with the division of developmental disabilities or the mental health PASRR contractor;

(d) Ensure the plan is an integral part of the resident's comprehensive plan of care and, as such, includes measurable objectives and timetables for completion;

(e) Incorporate in the plan relevant factors to include, but not be limited to the:

(i) Resident's preferences;

(ii) Support system;

(iii) Assessments and plan of care; and

(iv) Availability of appropriate resources to match the resident's preferences and needs.

(f) Identify in the plan specific options for more independent placement; and

(g) Provide in the plan for the resident's continuity of care, and to reduce potential transfer trauma, including, but not limited to, pretransfer visit to the new location whenever possible.

(3) For a resident whose transfer or discharge is not anticipated in the next three months, the nursing home must:

(a) Document the specific reasons transfer or discharge is not anticipated in that time frame;

(b) Review the resident's potential for transfer or discharge at the time of the quarterly comprehensive plan of care review. If the reasons documented under subsection (3)(a) of this section are unchanged, no additional documentation of reasons is necessary at the time of plan of care review.

(4) The nursing home must initiate discharge planning on residents described in subsection (3) of this section:

(a) At the request of the resident or the resident's representative; and

(b) When there is a change in the resident's situation or status which indicates a potential for transfer or discharge within the next three months.

(5) Each resident has the right to request transfer or discharge and to choose a new location. If the resident chooses to leave, the nursing home must assist with and coordinate the resident's transfer or discharge. The Medicaid resident, resident's representative, or nursing facility may request assistance from the department's home and community services or, where applicable, the division of developmental disabilities or mental health in the transfer or discharge planning and implementation process.

(6) The nursing home must coordinate all resident transfers and discharges with the resident, the resident's representative and any other involved individual or entity.

(7) When a nursing home anticipates discharge, a resident must have a discharge summary that includes:

(a) A recapitulation of the resident's stay;

(b) A final summary of the resident's status to include items in WAC 388-97-085(1), at the time of discharge that is available for release to authorized individuals and agencies, with the consent of the resident or and surrogate decision maker; and

(c) A postdischarge plan of care that is developed with the participation of the resident and his or her family, which will assist the resident to adjust to his or her new living environment.

WAC 388-97-037 Utilization review. (1) To assure appropriate use of Medicaid services, the nursing facility must determine whether each Medicaid resident's health has improved sufficiently so the resident no longer needs nursing facility care.

(a) The nursing facility must base its determination on:

(i) An accurate, comprehensive assessment process; and

(ii) Documentation by the resident's physician.

(b) The nursing facility must not make this determination for residents the department is responsible to assess under WAC 388-97-251.

(2) When the nursing facility determines a resident no longer needs nursing facility care under subsection (1) of this section, the nursing facility must initiate transfer or discharge in accordance with WAC 388-97-042, 388-97-043, and 42 C.F.R. § 483.12, or successor laws, unless the resident voluntarily chooses to transfer or discharge.

(3) When a nursing facility initiates a transfer or discharge of a Medicaid recipient under subsection (2) of this section:

(a) The resident will be ineligible for Medicaid nursing facility payment:

(i) Thirty days after the receipt of written notice of transfer or discharge; or

(ii) If the resident appeals the facility determination, thirty days after the final order is entered upholding the nursing home's decision to transfer or discharge a resident.

(b) The department's home and community services may grant extension of a resident's Medicaid nursing facility payment after the time specified in subsection (3)(a) of this section, when the department's home and community services staff determine:

(i) The nursing facility is making a good faith effort to relocate the resident; and

(ii) A location appropriate to the resident's medical and other needs is not available.

(4) Department designees may review any assessment or determination made by a nursing facility of a resident's need for nursing facility care.

WAC 388-97-042 Individual transfer and discharge rights and procedures. (1) The skilled nursing facility and nursing facility must comply with all of the requirements of 42 C.F.R. § 483.10 and § 483.12, and RCW 74.42.450, or successor laws, and the nursing home must comply with all of the requirements of RCW 74.42.450 (1) through (4) and (7), or successor laws, including the following provisions and must not transfer or discharge any resident unless:

(a) At the resident's request;

(b) The transfer or discharge is necessary for the resident's welfare and the resident's needs cannot be met in the facility;

(c) The transfer or discharge is appropriate because the resident's health has improved enough so the resident no longer needs the services provided by the facility;

(d) The safety of individuals in the facility is endangered;

(e) The health of individuals in the facility would otherwise be endangered; or

(f) The resident has failed, after reasonable and appropriate notice, to pay for a stay at the facility.

(2) The following notice requirements apply if a nursing home/facility initiates the transfer or discharge of a resident. The notice must:

(a) Include all information required by 42 C.F.R. § 483.12 when given in a nursing facility;

(b) Be in writing, in language the resident understands;

(c) Be given to the resident, the resident's surrogate decision maker, if any, the resident's family and to the department;

(d) Be provided thirty days in advance of a transfer or discharge initiated by the nursing facility, except that the notice may be given as soon as practicable when the facility cannot meet the resident's urgent medical needs, or under the conditions described in (1)(c), (d), and (e) of this section; and

(e) Be provided fifteen days in advance of a transfer or discharge initiated by the nursing home, unless the transfer is an emergency.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 506]

(3) The nursing home must:

(a) Provide sufficient preparation and orientation to the resident to ensure safe and orderly transfer or discharge from the nursing home;

(b) Attempt to avoid the transfer or discharge of a resident from the nursing home through the use of reasonable accommodations unless agreed to by the resident and the requirements of WAC 388-97-032 are met; and

(c) Develop and implement a bed-hold policy. This policy must be consistent with any bed-hold policy that the department develops.

(4) The nursing home must provide the bed-hold policy, in written format, to the resident, and a family member, before the resident is transferred or goes on therapeutic leave. At a minimum the policy must state:

(a) The number of days, if any, the nursing home will hold a resident's bed pending return from hospitalization or social/therapeutic leave;

(b) That a Medicaid eligible resident, whose hospitalization or social/therapeutic leave exceeds the maximum number of bed-hold days will be readmitted to the first available semi-private bed, provided the resident needs nursing facility services. Social/therapeutic leave is defined under WAC 388-97-005. The number of days of social/therapeutic leave allowed for Medicaid residents and the authorization process is found under WAC 388-97-047; and

(c) That a Medicaid eligible resident may be charged if he or she requests that a specific bed be held, but may not be charged a bed-hold fee for the right to return to the first available bed in a semi-private room.

(5) The nursing facility must send a copy of the federally required transfer or discharge notice to:

(a) The department's home and community services when the nursing home has determined under WAC 388-97-037, that the Medicaid resident's health has improved sufficiently so that the resident no longer needs the services provided by the facility; and

(b) The department's designated local office when the transfer or discharge is for any of the following reasons:

(i) The resident's needs cannot be met in the facility;

(ii) The health or safety of individuals in the facility is endangered; or

(iii) The resident has failed to pay for, or to have paid under Medicare or Medicaid, a stay at the facility.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-042, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-043 Transfer and discharge appeals for residents in Medicare or Medicaid certified facilities. (1) A skilled nursing facility and a nursing facility that initiates transfer or discharge of any resident, regardless of payor status, must:

(a) Provide the required written notice of transfer or discharge to the resident and, if known or appropriate, to a family member or the resident's representative;

(b) Attach a department-designated hearing request form to the transfer or discharge notice;

(c) Inform the resident in writing, in a language and manner the resident can understand, that:

(2007 Ed.)

(i) An appeal request may be made any time up to ninety days from the date the resident receives the notice of transfer or discharge; and

(ii) Transfer or discharge will be suspended when an appeal request is received by the office of administrative hearings on or before the date the resident actually transfers or discharges; and

(iii) The nursing home will assist the resident in requesting a hearing to appeal the transfer or discharge decision.

(2) A skilled nursing facility or nursing facility must suspend transfer or discharge pending the outcome of the hearing when the resident's appeal is received by the office of administrative hearings on or before the date of the transfer or discharge set forth in the written transfer or discharge notice, or before the resident is actually transferred or discharged.

(3) The resident is entitled to appeal the skilled nursing facility or nursing facility's transfer or discharge decision. The appeals process is set forth in chapter 388-02 WAC and this chapter. In such appeals, the following will apply:

(a) In the event of a conflict between a provision in this chapter and a provision in chapter 388-02 WAC, the provision in this chapter will prevail;

(b) The resident must be the appellant and the skilled nursing facility or the nursing facility will be the respondent;

(c) The department must be notified of the appeal and may choose whether to participate in the proceedings. If the department chooses to participate, its role is to represent the state's interest in assuring that skilled nursing facility and nursing facility transfer and discharge actions comply substantively and procedurally with the law and with federal requirements necessary for federal funds;

(d) If a Medicare certified or Medicaid certified facility's decision to transfer or discharge a resident is not upheld, and the resident has been relocated, the resident has the right to readmission immediately upon the first available bed in a semi-private room if the resident requires and is eligible for the services provided by a nursing facility or skilled nursing facility.

(e) Any review of the administrative law judge's initial decision shall be conducted under WAC 388-02-0600(1).

WAC 388-97-047 Discharge or leave of a nursing facility resident. (1) A nursing facility or hospital must send immediate written notification of the date of discharge or death of a Medicaid resident to the department's local home and community service office.

(2) The nursing facility must:

(a) Notify the department of nursing facility discharge and readmission for all Medicaid recipients admitted as hospital inpatients; and

(b) Document in the resident's clinical record all social/therapeutic leave exceeding twenty-four hours.

(3) The department will pay the nursing facility for a Medicaid resident's social/therapeutic leave not to exceed a total of eighteen days per calendar year per resident.

(4) The department's home and community services may authorize social/therapeutic leave exceeding eighteen days per calendar year per resident when requested by the nursing facility or by the resident. In the absence of prior authorization from the department's home and community services, the department will not make payment to a nursing facility for leave days exceeding eighteen per calendar year per resident.

(5) An individual who is on social/therapeutic leave retains the status of a nursing facility resident.

Resident Rights

WAC sections 388-97-055, 388-97-060, and 388-97-065 implement the federal Patient Self-Determination Act and clarify requirements under chapter 11.94 RCW, Power of attorney; chapter 7.70 RCW, Actions for injuries resulting from health care; and chapter 70.122 RCW, Natural Death Act; chapter 11.88 RCW, Guardianship-appointment, qualification, removal of guardians and limited guardians; chapter 11.92 RCW, Guardianship-powers and duties of guardian or limited guardian.

WAC 388-97-051 Resident rights. (1) The nursing home must meet the resident rights requirements of this section and those in the rest of the chapter.

(2) The resident has a right to a dignified existence, self-determination, and communication with, and access to individuals and services inside and outside the nursing home.

(3) A nursing home must promote and protect the rights of each resident, including those with limited cognition or other barriers that limit the exercise of rights.

(4) The resident has the right to:

(a) Exercise his or her rights as a resident of the nursing home and as a citizen or resident of the United States. Refer to WAC 388-97-055;

(b) Be free of interference, coercion, discrimination, and reprisal from the nursing home in exercising his or her rights; and

(c) Not be asked or required to sign any contract or agreement that includes provisions to waive:

(i) Any resident right set forth in this chapter or in the applicable licensing or certification laws; or

(ii) Any potential liability for personal injury or losses of personal property.

(5) The nursing home must take steps to safeguard residents and their personal property from foreseeable risks of injury or loss.

WAC 388-97-052 Free choice. The resident has the right to:

(1) Choose a personal attending physician.

(2) Be fully informed in advance about care and treatment and of any changes in that care or treatment that may affect the resident's well-being.

(3) Participate in planning care and treatment or changes in care and treatment.

WAC 388-97-053 Statutes implemented in resident decision making, informed consent and advance directives. WAC 388-97-055, 388-97-060, and 388-97-065 implement the federal Patient Self-Determination Act and clarify requirements under chapters 11.94; 7.70; 70.122; 11.88; and 11.92 RCW.

WAC 388-97-055 Resident decision making. (1) At the time of admission, or not later than the completion of the initial comprehensive resident assessment, the nursing home must determine if the resident:

(a) Has appointed another individual to make his or her health care, financial, or other decisions;

(b) Has created any advance directive or other legal documents that will establish a surrogate decision maker in the future; and

(c) Is not making his or her own decisions, and identify who has the authority for surrogate decision making, and the scope of the surrogate decision maker's authority.

(2) The nursing home must review the requirements of (1) of this section when the resident's condition warrants the review or when there is a significant change in the resident's condition.

(3) In fulfilling its duty to determine who, if anyone, is authorized to make decisions for the resident, the nursing home must:

(a) Obtain copies of the legal documents that establish the surrogate decision maker's authority to act; and

(b) Document in the resident's clinical record:

(i) The name, address, and telephone number of the individual who has legal authority for substitute decision making;

(ii) The type of decision making authority such individual has; and

(iii) Where copies of the legal documents are located at the facility.

(4) In accordance with state law or at the request of the resident, the resident's surrogate decision maker is, in the case of:

(a) A capacitated resident, the individual authorized by the resident to make decisions on the resident's behalf;

(b) A resident adjudicated by a court of law to be incapacitated, the court appointed guardian; and

(c) A resident who has been determined to be incapacitated, but is not adjudicated incapacitated established through:

(i) A legal document, such as a durable power of attorney for health care; or

(ii) Authority for substitute decision making granted by state law, including RCW 7.70.065.

(5) Determination of an individual's incapacity must be a process according to state law not a medical diagnosis only and be based on:

(a) Demonstrated inability in decision making over time that creates a significant risk of personal harm;

(b) A court order; or

(c) The criteria contained in a legal document, such as durable power of attorney for health care.

(6) The nursing home must promote the resident's right to exercise decision making and self-determination to the fullest extent possible, taking into consideration his or her ability to understand and respond. Therefore, the nursing home must presume that the resident is the resident's own decision maker unless:

(a) A court has established a full guardianship of the individual;

(b) The capacitated resident has clearly and voluntarily appointed a surrogate decision maker;

(c) A surrogate is established by a legal document such as a durable power of attorney for health care; or

(d) The facility determines that the resident is an incapacitated individual according to RCW 11.88.010 and (5)(a) of this section.

(7) The nursing home must honor the exercise of the resident's rights by the surrogate decision maker as long as the surrogate acts in accordance with this section and with state and federal law which govern his or her appointment.

(8) If a surrogate decision maker exercises a resident's rights, the nursing home must take into consideration the resident's ability to understand and respond and must:

(a) Inform the resident that a surrogate decision maker has been consulted;

(b) Provide the resident with the information and opportunity to participate in all decision making to the maximum extent possible; and

(c) Recognize that involvement of a surrogate decision maker does not lessen the nursing home's duty to:

(i) Protect the resident's rights; and

(ii) Comply with state and federal laws.

(9) The nursing home must:

(a) Regularly review any determination of incapacity based on (4)(b) and (c) of this section;

(b) Except for residents with a guardian, cease to rely upon the surrogate decision maker to exercise the resident's rights, if the resident regains capacity, unless so designated by the resident or by court order; and

(c) In the case of a guardian notify the court of jurisdiction in writing if:

(i) The resident regains capacity;

(ii) The guardian is not respecting or promoting the resident's rights;

(iii) The guardianship should be modified; or

(iv) A different guardian needs to be appointed.

WAC 388-97-060 Informed consent. (1) The nursing home must ensure that the informed consent process is followed with:

(a) The resident to the maximum extent possible, taking into consideration his or her ability to understand and respond; and

(b) The surrogate decision maker when the resident is determined to be incapacitated as established through the provision of a legal document such as durable power of attorney for health care, a court proceeding, or as authorized by state law, including RCW 7.70.065. The surrogate decision maker must:

(i) First determine if the resident would consent or refuse the proposed or alternative treatment;

(ii) Discuss determination of consent or refusal with the resident whenever possible; and

(iii) When a determination of the resident's consent or refusal of treatment cannot be made, make the decision in the best interest of the resident.

(2) The informed consent process must include, in words and language that the resident, or if applicable the resident's surrogate decision maker, understands, a description of:

(a) The nature and character of the proposed treatment;

(b) The anticipated results of the proposed treatment;

(c) The recognized possible alternative forms of treatment;

(d) The recognized serious possible risks, complications, and anticipated benefits involved in the treatment and in the recognized possible alternative forms of treatment including nontreatment; and

(e) The right of the resident to choose not to be informed.

(3) To ensure informed consent or refusal by a resident, or if applicable the resident's surrogate decision maker, regarding plan or care options, the nursing home must:

(a) Provide the informed consent process to the resident in a neutral manner and in a language, words, and manner the resident can understand;

(b) Inform the resident of the right to consent to or refuse care and service options at the time of resident assessment and plan of care development (see WAC 388-97-085 and 388-97-090) and with condition changes, as necessary to ensure that the resident's wishes are known;

(c) Inform the resident at the time of initial plan of care decisions and periodically of the right to change his or her mind about an earlier consent or refusal decision;

(d) Ensure that evidence of informed consent or refusal is consistent with WAC 388-97-085 and 388-97-090; and

(e) Where appropriate, include evidence of resident's choice not to be informed as required in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-060, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-060, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-065 Advance directives. (1) "Advance directive" as used in this chapter means any document indicating a resident's choice with regard to a specific service, treatment, medication or medical procedure option that may be implemented in the future such as power of attorney, health care directive, limited or restricted treatment cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), do not resuscitate (DNR), and organ tissue donation.

(2) The nursing home must carry out the provisions of this section in accordance with the applicable provisions of WAC 388-97-055 and 388-97-060, and with state law.

(3) The nursing home must:

(a) Document in the clinical record whether or not the resident has an advance directive;

(b) Not request or require the resident to have any advance directives and not condition the provision of care or otherwise discriminate against a resident on the basis of whether or not the resident has executed an advance directive;

(c) In a language and words the resident understands, inform the resident in writing and orally at the time of admission, and thereafter as necessary to ensure the resident's right to make informed choices, about:

(i) The right to make health care decisions, including the right to change his or her mind regarding previous decisions;

(ii) Nursing home policies and procedures concerning implementation of advance directives, including how the nursing home implements emergency responses; and

(d) Review and update as needed the resident advance directive information:

(i) At the resident's request;

(ii) When the resident's condition warrants review; and

(iii) When there is a significant change in the resident's condition.

(4) When the nursing home becomes aware that a resident's health care directive is in conflict with facility practices and policies which are consistent with state and federal law, the nursing home must:

(a) Inform the resident of the existence of any nursing home practice or policy which would preclude implementing the health care directive;

(b) Provide the resident with written policies and procedures that explain under what circumstances a resident's health care directive will or will not be implemented by the nursing home;

(c) Meet with the resident to discuss the conflict; and

(d) Determine, in light of the conflicting practice or policy, whether the resident chooses to remain at the nursing home:

(i) If the resident chooses to remain in the nursing home, develop with the resident a plan in accordance with chapter 70.122 RCW to implement the resident's wishes. The nursing home may need to actively participate in ensuring the execution of the plan, including moving the resident at the time of implementation to a care setting that will implement the resident's wishes. Attach the plan to the resident's directive in the resident's clinical record; or

(ii) If, after recognizing the conflict between the resident's wishes and nursing home practice or policy the resident chooses to seek other long-term care services, or another physician who will implement the directive, the nursing home must assist the resident in locating other appropriate services.

(5) If a terminally ill resident, in accordance with state law, wishes to die at home, the nursing home must:

(a) Use the informed consent process as described in WAC 388-97-060, and explain to the resident the risks associated with discharge; and

(b) Discharge the resident as soon as reasonably possible.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-065, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-065, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-07005 Notice of rights and services. (1)

The nursing home must provide the resident, before admission, or at the time of admission in the case of an emergency, and as changes occur during the resident's stay, both orally and in writing and in language and words that the resident understands, with the following information:

(a) All rules and regulations governing resident conduct, resident's rights and responsibilities during the stay in the nursing home;

(b) Advanced directives, and of any nursing home policy or practice that might conflict with the resident's advance directive if made;

(c) Advance notice of transfer requirements, consistent with RCW 70.129.110;

(d) Advance notice of deposits and refunds, consistent with RCW 70.129.150; and

(e) Items, services and activities available in the nursing home and of charges for those services, including any charges for services not covered under Medicare or Medicaid or by the home's per diem rate.

(2) The resident has the right to:

(a) Upon an oral or written request, to access all records pertaining to the resident including clinical records within twenty-four hours; and

(b) After receipt of his or her records for inspection, to purchase at a cost not to exceed twenty-five cents a page, photocopies of the records or any portions of them upon request and two working days advance notice to the nursing home. For the purposes of this chapter, "working days" means Monday through Friday, except for legal holidays.

(3) The resident has the right to:

(a) Be fully informed in words and language that he or she can understand of his or her total health status, including, but not limited to, his or her medical condition;

(b) Accept or refuse treatment; and

(c) Refuse to participate in experimental research.

(4) The nursing home must inform each resident:

(a) Who is entitled to Medicaid benefits, in writing, prior to the time of admission to the nursing facility or, when the resident becomes eligible for Medicaid of the items, services and activities:

(i) That are included in nursing facility services under the Medicaid state plan and for which the resident may not be charged; and

(ii) That the nursing home offers and for which the resident may be charged, and the amount of charges for those services;

(b) That deposits, admission fees and prepayment of charges cannot be solicited or accepted from Medicare or Medicaid eligible residents; and

(c) That minimum stay requirements cannot be imposed on Medicare or Medicaid eligible residents.

(5) The nursing home must, except for emergencies, inform each resident in writing, thirty days in advance before changes are made to the availability or charges for items, services or activities specified in section (4)(a)(i) and (ii), or before changes to the nursing home rules.

(6) The private pay resident has the right to the following, regarding fee disclosure-deposits:

(a) Prior to admission, a nursing home that requires payment of an admission fee, deposit, or a minimum stay fee, by or on behalf of an individual seeking admission to the nursing home, must provide the individual:

(i) Full disclosure in writing in a language the potential resident or his representative understands:

(A) Of the nursing home's schedule of charges for items, services, and activities provided by the nursing home; and

(B) Of what portion of the deposits, admissions fees, pre-paid charges or minimum stay fee will be refunded to the resident if the resident leaves the nursing home.

(ii) The amount of any admission fees, deposits, or minimum stay fees.

(iii) If the nursing home does not provide these disclosures, the nursing home must not keep deposits, admission fees, prepaid charges or minimum stay fees.

(b) If a resident dies or is hospitalized or is transferred and does not return to the nursing home, the nursing home:

(i) Must refund any deposit or charges already paid, less the home's per diem rate, for the days the resident actually resided or reserved or retained a bed in the nursing home, regardless of any minimum stay or discharge notice requirements; except that

(ii) The nursing home may retain an additional amount to cover its reasonable, actual expenses incurred as a result of a private pay resident's move, not to exceed five days per diem charges, unless the resident has given advance notice in compliance with the admission agreement.

(c) The nursing home must refund any and all refunds due the resident within thirty days from the resident's date of discharge from the nursing home; and

(d) Where the nursing home requires the execution of an admission contract by or on behalf of an individual seeking admission to the nursing home, the terms of the contract must be consistent with the requirements of this section.

(7) The nursing home must furnish a written description of legal rights which includes:

(a) A description of the manner of protecting personal funds, under WAC 388-97-07015.

(b) In the case of a nursing facility only, a description of the requirements and procedures for establishing eligibility for Medicaid, including the right to request an assessment which determines the extent of a couple's nonexempt resources at the time of institutionalization and attributes to the community spouse an equitable share of resources which cannot be considered available for payment toward the cost of the institutionalized spouse's medical care in his or her process of spending down to Medicaid eligibility levels;

(c) A posting of names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all relevant state client advocacy groups such as the state survey and certification agency, the state licensure office, the state ombudsman program, the protection and advocacy network, and the Medicaid fraud control unit; and

(d) A statement that the resident may file a complaint with the state survey and certification agency concerning resident abandonment, abuse, neglect, financial exploitation, and misappropriation of resident property in the nursing home.

(8) The nursing home must:

(a) Inform each resident of the name, and specialty of the physician responsible for his or her care; and

(b) Provide a way for each resident to contact his or her physician.

(9) The skilled nursing facility and nursing facility must prominently display in the facility written information, and provide to residents and individuals applying for admission oral and written information, about how to apply for and use Medicare and Medicaid benefits, and how to receive refunds for previous payments covered by such benefits.

(10) The written information provided by the nursing home pursuant to this section, and the terms of any admission contract executed between the nursing home and an individual seeking admission to the nursing home, must be consistent with the requirements of chapters 74.42 and 18.51 RCW and, in addition, for facilities certified under Medicare or Medicaid, with the applicable federal requirements.

WAC 388-97-07010 Notification of changes. (1) A nursing home must immediately inform the resident, consult with the resident's physician, and if known, notify the resident's surrogate decision maker, and when appropriate, with resident consent, interested family member(s) when there is:

(a) An accident involving the resident which results in injury and has the potential for requiring physician intervention;

(b) A significant change in the resident's physical, mental, or psychosocial status (i.e., a deterioration in health, mental, or psychological status in either life-threatening conditions or clinical complications); refer to WAC 388-97-055;

(c) A need to alter treatment significantly (i.e., a need to discontinue an existing form of treatment due to adverse consequences, or to commence a new form of treatment); or

(d) A decision to transfer or discharge the resident from the facility.

(2) The nursing home must also promptly notify the resident and, if known, the resident's surrogate decision maker, and when appropriate, with the resident's consent, interested family member(s) when there is:

(a) A change in room or roommate assignment, refer to the timing requirements in WAC 388-97-07065; or

(b) A change in resident rights under federal or state law or regulations as specified in WAC 388-97-07005.

(3) The nursing home must record and periodically update the address and phone number of the resident's legal surrogate decision maker and interested family member(s).

WAC 388-97-07015 Protection of resident funds. (1) The resident has the right to manage his or her financial affairs and the nursing home may not require residents to deposit their personal funds with the nursing home.

(2) Upon written authorization of a resident, the nursing home must hold, safeguard, manage and account for the personal funds of the resident deposited with the nursing home.

(3) The nursing home must establish and maintain a system that assures a full, complete and separate accounting, according to generally accepted accounting principles, of each resident's personal funds entrusted to the nursing home on the resident's behalf and must:

(a) Deposit any resident's personal funds in excess of fifty dollars, one hundred dollars for Medicare residents, in an interest-bearing resident personal fund account or accounts, separate from any nursing home operating accounts, and credit all interest earned to the account;

(2007 Ed.)

(b) Keep personal funds under fifty dollars, one hundred dollars for Medicare residents, in a noninterest-bearing account or petty cash fund maintained for residents; and

(c) Make the individual financial record available to the resident or his or her surrogate decision maker through quarterly statements and on request.

(4) The nursing facility must notify each resident that receives Medicaid benefits:

(a) When the amount in the resident's account reaches two hundred dollars less than the SSI resource limit for one individual; and

(b) That if the amount in the account, in addition to the value of the resident's other nonexempt resources, reaches the SSI resource limit for one individual, the resident may lose eligibility for Medicaid or SSI.

(5) The nursing home must convey the resident's funds, and a final accounting of those funds, to the individual or jurisdiction administering the resident's estate, within thirty days of the death of any resident with a personal fund deposited with the nursing home. For a Medicaid resident, the funds must be sent to the state of Washington, department of social and health services, office of financial recovery.

(6) The nursing facility must purchase a surety bond, or an approved alternative, to assure security of personal funds of residents deposited with the facility.

(7) Medicare certified and Medicaid certified facilities may not impose a charge against a resident's personal funds for any item or service for which payment is made under Medicaid or Medicare as described in 42 C.F.R. § 483.10 (c)(8).

(8) Medicare certified and Medicaid certified nursing facilities must:

(a) Not charge a resident (or the resident's representative) for any item or service not requested by the resident;

(b) Not require a resident, or the resident's representative, to request any item or service as a condition of admission or continued stay; and

(c) Inform the resident, or the resident's representative, requesting an item or services for which a charge will be made that there will be a charge for the item or service and what the charge will be.

WAC 388-97-07020 Privacy and confidentiality. (1) The resident has the right to personal privacy and confidentiality of his or her personal and clinical records. Personal privacy includes:

(a) Accommodations;

(b) Medical treatment;

(c) Written and telephone communications

(d) Personal care;

(e) Visits; and

(f) Meetings with family and resident groups.

(2) The resident may approve or refuse the release of personal and clinical records to any individual outside the nursing home, unless the resident has been adjudged incapacitated according to state law.

(3) The resident's right to refuse release of personal and clinical records does not apply when:

[Title 388 WAC—p. 511]

- (a) The resident is transferred to another health care institution; or
- (b) Record release is required by law.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-07020, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-07025 Work. The resident has the right to:

- (1) Refuse to perform services for the nursing home; and
- (2) Perform services for the nursing home, if he or she chooses, when:
 - (a) The facility has documented the need or desire for work in the plan of care;
 - (b) The plan specifies the nature of the services performed and whether the services are voluntary or paid;
 - (c) Compensation for paid services is at or above prevailing rates; and
 - (d) The resident agrees to the work arrangement described in the plan of care.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-07025, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-07030 Self-administration of drugs. A resident may self-administer drugs if the interdisciplinary team has determined that this practice is safe.

WAC 388-97-07035 Grievance rights. A resident has the right to:

- (1) Voice grievances without discrimination or reprisal. Grievances include those with respect to treatment which has been furnished as well as that which has not been furnished.
- (2) Prompt efforts by the nursing home to resolve voiced grievances, including those with respect to the behavior of other residents.
- (3) File a complaint, contact, or provide information to the department, the long-term care ombudsman, the attorney general's office, and law enforcement agencies without interference, discrimination, or reprisal. All forms of retaliatory treatment are prohibited, including those listed in chapter 74.39A RCW.
- (4) Receive information from agencies acting as client advocates, and be afforded the opportunity to contact these agencies.

WAC 388-97-07040 Examination of survey results. (1) The resident has the right to examine the results of:

- (a) The most recent survey of the nursing home conducted by federal and state surveyors;
 - (b) Surveys related to any current or subsequent complaint investigation; and
 - (c) Any required accompanying plan of correction, completed or not.
- (2) Upon receipt of any deficiency citation report, the nursing home must publicly post a notice:

(a) That the results of the survey or complaint investigation, or both, are available regardless of whether the plan of correction is completed or not;

(b) Of the location of the deficiency citation reports.

(3) For a report posted prior to the plan of correction being completed, the nursing home may attach an accompanying notice that explains the purpose and status of the plan of correction, informal dispute review, administrative hearing and other relevant information.

(4) Upon receipt of any citation report, the nursing home must publicly post a copy of the most recent full survey and all subsequent complaint investigation deficiency citation reports, including the completed plans of correction, when one is required.

(5) The notices and any survey reports must be available for viewing or examination in a place or places:

(a) Readily accessible to residents, which does not require staff interventions to access; and

(b) In plain view of the nursing home residents, including individuals visiting those residents, and individuals who inquire about placement in the nursing home.

WAC 388-97-07045 Resident mail. The resident has the right to privacy in written communications, including the right to:

- (1) Send and promptly receive mail that is unopened; and
- (2) Have access to stationery, postage and writing implements at the resident's own expense.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-07045, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-07050 Access and visitation rights. (1) The resident has the right and the nursing home must provide immediate access to any resident by the following:

(a) For Medicare and Medicaid residents any representative of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS);

(b) Any representative of the state;

(c) The resident's personal physician;

(d) Any representative of the state long term care ombudsman program (established under section 307 (a)(12) of the Older American's Act of 1965);

(e) Any representative of the Washington protection and advocacy system, or any other agency (established under part c of the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act);

(f) Any representative of the Washington protection and advocacy system, or any agency (established under the Protection and Advocacy for Mentally Ill Individuals Act);

(g) Subject to the resident's right to deny or withdraw consent at any time, immediate family or other relatives of the resident; and

(h) Subject to reasonable restrictions and the resident's right to deny or withdraw consent at any time, others who are visiting with the consent of the resident.

(2) The nursing home must provide reasonable access to any resident by any entity or individual that provides health, social, legal, or other services to the resident, subject to the resident's right to deny or withdraw consent at any time.

(3) The nursing home must allow representatives of the state ombudsman, described in subsection (1)(d) of this section, to examine a resident's clinical records with the permission of the resident or the resident's surrogate decision maker, and consistent with state law. The ombudsman may also, under federal and state law, access resident's records when the resident is incapacitated and has no surrogate decision maker, and may access records over the objection of a surrogate decision maker if access is authorized by the state ombudsman pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 3058g(b) and RCW 43.190.065.

WAC 388-97-07055 Telephone. The resident has the right to have twenty-four hour access to a telephone which:

- (1) Provides auditory privacy;
- (2) Is accessible to an individual with a disability and accommodates an individual with sensory impairment; and
- (3) Does not include the use of telephones in staff offices and at the nurses station(s).

WAC 388-97-07060 Personal property. (1) The resident has the right, unless to do so would infringe upon the rights or health and safety of other residents, to:

- (a) Retain and use personal possessions, including some furnishings, and appropriate clothing, as space permits; and
- (b) Provide his or her own bed and other furniture, if desired and space permits; and
- (c) Not be required to keep personal property locked in the facility office, safe, or similar arrangement.

(2) The nursing home must:

- (a) Not request or require residents to sign waivers of potential liability for losses of personal property; and
- (b) Have a system in place to safeguard personal property within the nursing home that protects the personal property and yet allows the resident to use his or her property.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620, 00-06-028, § 388-97-07060, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-07065 Roommates/rooms. (1) A resident has the right to:

- (a) Share a room with his or her spouse when married residents live in the same facility and both spouses consent to the arrangement; and
- (b) Receive three days notice of change in room or roommate except:

(i) For room changes: The move is at the resident's request; and

(ii) For room or roommate changes: A longer or shorter notice is required to protect the health or safety of the resident or another resident; or an admission to the facility is necessary, and the resident is informed in advance. The nursing home must recognize that the change may be traumatic for the resident and take steps to lessen the trauma.

(2007 Ed.)

(2) The nursing home must make reasonable efforts to accommodate residents wanting to share the same room.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620, 00-06-028, § 388-97-07065, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-07070 Refusal of certain transfers. In dually certified facilities all beds are Medicaid certified. Therefore the beds in a certified distinct part for Medicare are also nursing facility beds for Medicaid.

(1) Each resident has the right to refuse a transfer to another room within the facility, if the purpose of the transfer is to relocate:

(a) A resident from the Medicare distinct part of the facility to a part of the facility that is not a Medicare distinct part; or

(b) A resident from the part of the facility that is not a Medicare distinct part to the Medicare distinct part of the facility.

(2) A resident's exercise of the right to refuse transfer under subsection (1)(a) of this section does not affect the individual's eligibility or entitlement to Medicare or Medicaid benefits.

(3) The skilled nursing facility or nursing facility must inform residents of their rights under subsection (1) and (2) of this section at the time of the proposed transfer or relocation.

WAC 388-97-075 Chemical and physical restraints.

(1) The resident has the right to be free from any physical or chemical restraint imposed for purposes of:

(a) Discipline or convenience, and not required to treat the resident's medical symptoms; or

(b) Preventing or limiting independent mobility or activity.

(2) The nursing home must develop and implement written policies and procedures governing:

(a) The emergency use of restraints;

(b) The use of chemical and physical restraints, required for the treatment of the resident's medical symptoms, not for discipline or convenience;

(c) The personnel authorized to administer restraints in an emergency; and

(d) Monitoring and controlling the use of restraints.

(3) Physical restraints may be used in an emergency only when:

(a) It has been assessed as necessary to prevent a resident from inflicting injury to self or to others;

(b) The restraint is the least restrictive form of restraint possible;

(c) A physician's order is obtained:

(i) Within twenty-four hours; and

(ii) The order includes treatments to assist in resolving the emergency situation and eliminating the need for the restraint; and

(b) The resident is released from the restraint as soon as the emergency no longer exists.

(4) In certain situations, chemical or physical restraints may be necessary for residents with acute or chronic mental or physical impairments. When chemical or physical restraints are used the nursing home must ensure that:

[Title 388 WAC—p. 513]

(a) The use of the restraint is related to a specific medical need or problem identified through a multidisciplinary assessment;

(b) The informed consent process is followed as described under WAC 388-97-060; and

(c) The resident's plan of care provides approaches to reduce or eliminate the use of the restraint, where possible.

(5) The nursing home must ensure that any resident physically restrained is released:

(a) At intervals not to exceed two hours; and

(b) For periods long enough to provide for ambulation, exercise, elimination, food and fluid intake, and socialization as independently as possible.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-075, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-075, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-076 Prevention of abuse. (1) Each resident has the right to be free from verbal, sexual, physical and mental abuse, corporal punishment, and involuntary seclusion.

(2) The nursing home must develop and implement written policies and procedures that:

(a) Prohibit abandonment, abuse, and neglect of residents, financial exploitation, and misappropriation of resident property; and

(b) Require staff to report possible abuse, and other related incidents, as required by chapter 74.34 RCW, and for skilled nursing facilities and nursing facilities as required by 42 C.F.R. § 483.13.

(3) The nursing home must not allow staff to:

(a) Engage in verbal, mental, sexual, or physical abuse;

(b) Use corporal punishment;

(c) Involuntarily seclude, abandon, neglect, or financially exploit residents; or

(d) Misappropriate resident property.

(4) The nursing home must report any information it has about an action taken by a court of law against an employee to the department's complaint resolution unit and the appropriate department of health licensing authority, if that action would disqualify the individual from employment as described in RCW 43.43.842.

(5) The nursing home must ensure that all allegations involving abandonment, abuse, neglect, financial exploitation, or misappropriation of resident property, including injuries of unknown origin, are reported immediately to the department, other applicable officials, and the administrator of the facility. The nursing home must:

(a) Ensure that the reports are made through established procedures in accordance with state law including chapter 74.34 RCW, and guidelines developed by the department; and

(b) Not have any policy or procedure that interferes with the requirement of chapter 74.34 RCW that employees and other mandatory reporters file reports directly with the department, and also with law enforcement, if they suspect sexual or physical assault has occurred.

(6) The nursing home must:

(a) Have evidence that all alleged violations are thoroughly investigated;

(b) Prevent further potential abandonment, abuse, neglect, financial exploitation, or misappropriation of resident property while the investigation is in progress; and

(c) Report the results of all investigations to the administrator or his designated representative and to other officials in accordance with state law and established procedures (including the state survey and certification agency) within five working days of the incident, and if the alleged violation is verified appropriate action must be taken.

(7) When a mandated reporter has:

(a) Reasonable cause to believe that a vulnerable adult has been abandoned, abused, neglected, financially exploited, or a resident's property has been misappropriated, the individual mandatory reporter must immediately report the incident to the department's aging and disability services administration ADSA;

(b) Reason to suspect that a vulnerable adult has been sexually or physically assaulted, the individual mandatory reporter must:

(i) Immediately report the incident to the department's aging and disability services administration (ADSA);

(ii) Notify local law enforcement in accordance with the provisions of chapter 74.34 RCW.

(8) Under RCW 74.34.053, it is:

(a) A gross misdemeanor for a mandated reporter knowingly to fail to report as required under this section; and

(b) A misdemeanor for a person to intentionally, maliciously, or in bad faith make a false report of alleged abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect of a vulnerable adult.

(9) The nursing home must not employ individuals who are disqualified under the requirements of WAC 388-97-203.

WAC 388-97-077 Resident protection program. (1)

As used in this section, the term "individual," means any individual, including a volunteer, used by the facility to provide services to residents.

(2) The department will review all allegations of resident abandonment, abuse, neglect, financial exploitation, or misappropriation of resident property, as defined in this chapter and RCW 74.34.020.

(3) If, after the review of an allegation, the department concludes that there is reason to believe that an individual has abused or neglected a resident, or has misappropriated a resident's property, then the department will initiate an investigation.

(4) The department's investigation may include, but is not limited to:

(a) The review of facility and state agency records;

(b) Interviews with any individuals who may have relevant information about the allegation; and

(c) The collection of any evidence deemed necessary by the investigator.

(5) If, after review of the results of the investigation, the department makes a preliminary determination that the resident abuse, neglect, or misappropriation of resident funds has occurred, the department will make a preliminary finding to that effect; except that a preliminary finding of neglect will not be made if the individual is able to demonstrate, that the neglect was caused by factors beyond the control of the individual.

(6) Within ten days of making its preliminary determination, the department must send notice of a preliminary finding:

(a) To the individual by first class and certified mail, return receipt requested. The department may choose to substitute personal service for certified mail;

(b) To the current administrator of the facility where the incident occurred; and

(c) To the appropriate licensing agency.

(7) The notice will include the following information:

(a) A description of the allegation;

(b) The date and time of the incident, if known;

(c) That the individual may appeal the preliminary finding; and

(d) That the preliminary finding will become final unless the individual makes a written request for a hearing within thirty days of the date of the notice.

(8) The individual may appeal the department's preliminary finding of abuse, neglect or misappropriation of resident property by notifying the office of administrative hearings in writing within thirty days of the date of the notice.

(9) If, within one hundred eighty days of the date of the notice of the preliminary finding, an individual requests a hearing and can demonstrate good cause for failing to request a hearing within thirty days, the office of administrative hearing may grant the request. The individual's name will remain on the nursing assistant registry pending the outcome of the hearing.

(10) Upon receipt of a written request for a hearing from an individual, the office of administrative hearings will schedule a hearing, taking into account the following requirements:

(a) The hearing decision must be issued within one hundred twenty days of the date the office of administrative hearings receives a hearing request;

(b) The hearing will be conducted at a reasonable time and at a place that is convenient for the individual;

(c) The hearing, and any subsequent appeals, shall be governed by this chapter, chapter 34.05 RCW, and chapter 388-08 WAC, or its successor regulations;

(d) A continuance may be granted upon the request of any party for good cause, as long as the hearing decision can still be issued within one hundred twenty days of the date of the receipt of the appeal. Neither the department nor the individual can waive the one hundred twenty-day requirement. If, however, the administrative law judge finds that extenuating circumstances exist that will make it impossible to complete the record within one hundred twenty days, the administrative law judge may extend the one hundred twenty-day requirement a maximum of sixty days; and

(e) If the administrative law judge upholds the department's preliminary finding, it becomes final.

(11) The department will report a final finding of abuse, neglect and misappropriation of resident property within ten working days to the following:

(a) The individual;

(b) The current administrator of the facility in which the incident occurred;

(c) The administrator of the facility that currently employs the individual;

(d) The department's nursing assistant registry; and

(e) The appropriate licensing authority.

(12) The individual against whom a finding is made is entitled to submit a statement disputing the allegations. Information about the finding, including the individual's statement, must be made available to all requesters.

(13) The findings will remain on the department's nursing assistant registry permanently unless:

(a) The finding is set aside by further administrative or judicial review as provided for in chapter 34.05 RCW;

(b) The department determines that the finding was made in error;

(c) The department removed a single finding of neglect from the nursing assistant registry based upon a petition by the individual as provided in 42 U.S.C. 1396r (g)(1)(C); or

(d) The department is notified of the individual's death.

(14) Information obtained during the investigation into allegations of abuse, neglect and misappropriation of property, and any documents generated by the department will be maintained and disseminated with regard for the privacy of the resident and any reporting individuals and in accordance with laws and regulations regarding confidentiality and privacy.

Quality of Life

WAC 388-97-08010 Resident dignity and accommodation of needs. (1) Dignity. The nursing home must ensure that:

(a) Resident care is provided in a manner to enhance each resident's dignity, and to respect and recognize his or her individuality; and

(b) Each resident's personal care needs are provided in a private area free from exposure to individuals not involved in providing the care.

(2) Accommodation of needs. Each resident has the right to reasonable accommodation of personal needs and preferences, except when the health or safety of the individual or other residents would be endangered.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-08010, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-08020 Environment. The nursing home must provide and maintain:

(1) A safe, clean, comfortable, and homelike environment, allowing the resident to use his or her personal belongings to the extent possible;

(2) Housekeeping and maintenance services necessary to maintain a sanitary, orderly, and comfortable interior;

(3) Comfortable and safe temperature levels:

(a) Facilities licensed after October 1, 1990 must maintain a temperature range of seventy-one to eighty-one degrees Fahrenheit; and

(b) Regardless of external weather conditions, all nursing homes must develop and implement procedures and processes to maintain a temperature level that is comfortable and safe for residents;

(4) Comfortable sound levels, to include:

Resident Assessment and Plan of Care

WAC 388-97-085 Resident assessment. (1) The nursing home must:

(a) Provide resident care based on a systematic, comprehensive, interdisciplinary assessment, and care planning process in which the resident participates, to the fullest extent possible.

(b) Conduct initially and periodically a comprehensive, accurate, standardized, reproducible assessment of each resident's functional capacity;

(c) At the time each resident is admitted:

(i) Have physician's orders for the resident's immediate care; and

(ii) Ensure that the resident's immediate care needs are identified in an admission assessment; and

(d) Ensure that the comprehensive assessment of a resident's needs describes the resident's capability to perform daily life functions and significant impairments in functional capacity.

(2) The comprehensive assessment must include at least the following information:

(a) Identification and demographic information;

(b) Customary routine;

(c) Cognitive patterns;

(d) Communication;

(e) Vision;

(f) Mood and behavior patterns;

(g) Psychosocial well-being;

(h) Physical functioning and structural problems;

(i) Continence;

(j) Disease diagnosis and health conditions;

(k) Dental and nutritional status;

(l) Skin conditions;

(m) Activity pursuit;

(n) Medications;

(o) Special treatments and procedures;

(p) Discharge potential;

(q) Documentation of summary information regarding the assessment performed; and

(r) Documentation of participation in assessment.

(3) The nursing home must conduct comprehensive assessments:

(a) No later than fourteen days after the date of admission;

(b) Promptly after a significant change in the resident's physical or mental condition; and

(c) In no case less often than once every twelve months.

(4) The nursing home must ensure that:

(a) Each resident is assessed no less than once every three months, and as appropriate, the resident's assessment is revised to assure the continued accuracy of the assessment; and

(b) The results of the assessment are used to develop, review and revise the resident's comprehensive plan of care under WAC 388-97-090.

(5) The skilled nursing facility and nursing facility must:

(a) For the required assessment, complete the state approved resident assessment instrument (RAI) for each resident in accordance with federal requirements;

(b) Place copies of the completed state approved RAI in each resident's clinical record, unless all charting is computerized;

(c) Maintain all copies of resident assessments completed within the resident's active clinical record for fifteen months;

(d) Assess each resident not less than every three months, using the state approved assessment instrument; and

(e) Transmit all state and federally required RAI information for each resident to the department:

(i) In a manner approved by the department;

(ii) Within ten days of completion of any RAI required under this subsection; and

(iii) Within ten days of discharging or readmitting a resident.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-085, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-085, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-090 Comprehensive plan of care. (1)

The nursing home must develop a comprehensive plan of care for each resident that includes measurable objectives and timetables to meet a resident's medical, nursing and mental and psychosocial needs that are identified in the comprehensive assessment.

(2) The comprehensive plan of care must:

(a) Describe the services that are to be furnished to attain or maintain the resident's highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being as required under WAC 388-97-110;

(b) Describe any services that would otherwise be required, but are not provided due to the resident's exercise of rights, including the right to refuse treatment (refer to WAC 388-97-07005 and 388-97-060);

(c) Be developed within seven days after completion of the comprehensive assessment;

(d) Be prepared by an interdisciplinary team that includes the attending physician, a registered nurse with responsibility for the resident, and other appropriate staff in disciplines as determined by the residents needs;

(e) Consist of an ongoing process which includes a meeting if desired by the resident or the resident's representative; and

(f) Include the ongoing participation of the resident to the fullest extent possible, the resident's family or the resident's surrogate decision maker.

(3) The nursing home must implement a plan of care to meet the immediate needs of newly admitted residents, prior to the completion of the comprehensive assessment and plan of care.

(4) The nursing home must:

(a) Follow the informed consent process with the resident as specified in WAC 388-97-060, regarding the interdisciplinary team's plan of care recommendations;

(b) Respect the resident's right to decide plan of care goals and treatment choices, including acceptance or refusal of plan of care recommendations;

(c) Include in the interdisciplinary plan of care process:

(i) Staff members requested by the resident; and

(ii) Direct care staff who work most closely with the resident;

(d) Respect the resident's wishes regarding which individuals, if any, the resident wants to take part in resident plan of care functions;

(e) Provide reasonable advance notice to and reasonably accommodate the resident family members or other individuals the resident wishes to have attend, when scheduling plan of care meeting times; and

(f) Where for practical reasons any individuals significant to the plan of care process, including the resident, are unable to attend plan of care meetings, provide a method for such individuals to give timely input and recommendations.

(5) The nursing home must ensure that each comprehensive plan of care:

(a) Designates the discipline of the individuals responsible for carrying out the program; and

(b) Is reviewed at least quarterly by qualified staff, as part of the ongoing process of monitoring the resident's needs and preferences.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-090, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-090, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-097 Dementia care. (1) A nursing home must ensure that it provides residents with dementia with an environment designed to attain or maintain the highest level of functioning and well-being possible, taking into consideration the resident's medical condition and functional status. Therefore, the nursing home must:

(a) Have a program designed to meet the identified needs of the residents;

(b) Develop and implement program policies and procedures.

(c) Train all staff, who have resident contact, in the special needs and care approaches applicable to residents with dementia. This training must be ongoing and consistent with requirements under WAC 388-97-170 (2)(b).

(2) A nursing home that has a locked or secured dementia unit must:

(a) Always have staff present in the unit, available to meet the needs of the residents and to protect them in the event of an emergency;

(b) Have staff available to assist residents, as needed, in accessing outdoor areas;

(c) Have admission, transfer, and discharge criteria which ensures that:

(i) The process of informed consent is followed before admission to or transfer/discharge from the unit;

(ii) The resident is provided with unit specific admission or transfer/discharge criteria, prior to admission to the unit;

(iii) The resident's need for admission to the unit from another part of the nursing home, or transfer/discharge from the unit, is based on the comprehensive assessment and plan of care;

(iv) Through an evaluation prior to admission, a resident admitted directly from outside the nursing home meets the cognitive and functional criteria of the unit;

(v) In the case of an individual admitted directly to the unit from outside the nursing home, as specified in subsection (2)(b)(iv) above, the nursing home may complete the comprehensive assessment after the individual's admission to the unit, provided that the nursing home complies with required time frames for completion of the resident assessment under WAC 388-97-085.

(d) Provide private pay residents, or their surrogate decision maker written notification:

(i) If admitted from outside the nursing home, of additional charges, if any, for services, items, and activities in the unit, prior to admission; and

(ii) If admitted from another part of the nursing home, thirty days in advance of changes to those charges.

(e) Comply with physical plant requirements in WAC 388-97-350 through 388-97-35060, for existing facilities and for new construction.

Quality of Care

WAC 388-97-110 Quality of care. (1) Consistent with resident rights, the nursing home must provide each resident with the necessary care and services to attain or maintain the highest practicable physical, mental and psychosocial well-being, self-care and independence in accordance with his or her comprehensive assessment and plan of care.

(2) Based on the comprehensive assessment of a resident, the nursing home must ensure that:

(a) A resident's abilities in activities of daily living do not decline unless circumstances of the resident's clinical condition demonstrate that the decline was unavoidable. This includes the resident's ability to:

(i) Bathe, dress, and groom;

(ii) Transfer and ambulate;

(iii) Toilet;

(iv) Eat; and

(v) Use speech, language, or other functional communication systems.

(b) A resident is given the appropriate treatment and services to maintain or improve the resident's abilities in activities of daily living specified in subsection (2)(a) of this section; and

(c) A resident who is unable to carry out activities of daily living receives the necessary services to maintain good nutrition, grooming, and personal and oral hygiene.

(3) The nursing home must ensure that the appropriate care and services are provided to the resident in the following areas, as applicable in accordance with the resident's individualized assessments and plan of care:

(a) Vision and hearing;

(b) Skin;

(c) Continence;

(d) Range of motion;

(e) Mental and psychosocial functioning and adjustment;

(f) Nasogastric and gastrostomy tubes;

Nursing Services

WAC 388-97-115 Nursing services. (1) The nursing home must ensure that a sufficient number of qualified nursing personnel are available on a twenty-four hour basis seven days per week to provide nursing and related services to attain or maintain the highest practicable physical, mental and psychosocial well-being of each resident as determined by resident assessments and individual plans of care.

(2) The nursing home must:

(a) Designate a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse to serve as charge nurse, who is accountable for nursing services on each tour of duty; and

(b) Have a full time director of nursing service who is a registered nurse.

(3) The nursing home must have:

(a) A registered nurse on duty directly supervising resident care a minimum of sixteen hours per day, seven days per week; and

(b) A registered nurse or licensed practical nurse on duty directly supervising resident care the remaining eight hours per day, seven days per week. "Directly supervising" means the supervising individual is on the premises and is quickly and easily available to provide necessary assessments and other direct care of residents; and oversight of supervised staff.

(4) The nursing home must ensure that staff respond to each resident's requests for assistance in a manner which promptly meets the quality of life and quality of care needs of all the residents.

(5) The director of nursing services is responsible for:

(a) Coordinating the plan of care for each resident;

(b) Ensuring that registered nurses and licensed practical nurses comply with chapter 18.79 RCW; and

(c) Ensuring that the nursing care provided is based on the nursing process in accordance with nationally recognized and accepted standards of professional nursing practice.

Physician Services

WAC 388-97-125 Physician services. (1) The nursing home must ensure that the resident is seen by the physician whenever necessary.

(2) Except as specified in RCW 74.42.200, a physician must personally approve in writing a recommendation that an individual be admitted to a nursing home.

(3) The nursing home must ensure that:

(a) Except as specified in RCW 74.42.200, the medical care of each resident is supervised by a physician;

(b) Another physician supervises the medical care of residents when their attending physician is unavailable; and

(c) Physician services are provided twenty-four hours per day, in case of emergency.

(4) The physician must:

(a) Write, sign and date progress notes at each visit;

(b) Sign and date all orders; and

(c) In Medicare and Medicare/Medicaid certified facilities, review the resident's total program of care, including medications and treatments, at each federally required visit.

(5) Except as specified in subsections (6), (7), and (9) of this section, a physician may delegate tasks to a physician's assistant or advanced registered nurse practitioner who is:

(a) Licensed by the state;

(b) Acting within the scope of practice as defined by state law; and

(c) Under the supervision of the physician.

(6) The physician may not delegate a task when the delegation is prohibited under state law or by the facility's own policies.

(7) If the resident's primary payor source is Medicare, the physician may:

(a) Alternate federally required physician visits between personal visits by:

(i) The physician; and

(ii) An advanced registered nurse practitioner or physician's assistant; and

(b) Not delegate responsibility for the initial required physician visit. This initial visit must occur within the first thirty days of admission to the facility.

(8) If the resident's payor source is Medicaid, the physician may delegate any federally required physician task, including tasks which the regulations specify must be performed personally by the physician, to a physician's assistant or advanced registered nurse practitioner who is not an employee of the facility but who is working in collaboration with a physician.

(9) If the resident's payor source is not Medicare or Medicaid:

(a) In the Medicare only certified facility or in the Medicare certified area of a Medicare/Medicaid facility, the physician may alternate federally required physician visits between personal visits by the physician and an advanced registered nurse practitioner or physician's assistant. The physician may not delegate responsibility for the initial required physician visit.

(b) In the Medicaid only certified facility or in the Medicaid certified area of a Medicare/Medicaid facility, the physician may delegate any federally required physician task, including tasks which the regulations specify must be performed personally by the physician, to a physician's assistant or advanced registered nurse practitioner who is not an employee of the facility but who is working in collaboration with a physician.

(10) The following table describes the physician visit requirements related to Medicare or Medicaid certified area and payor type.

	Beds in Medicare only certified area	Beds in Medicare/Medicaid certified area	Beds in Medicaid only certified area
Payor source: Medicare	Initial by physician; Physician may delegate alternate visits	Initial by physician; Physician may delegate alternate visits	N/A

(1) If specialized habilitative and rehabilitative services such as, but not limited to, physical therapy, speech-language pathology, occupational therapy, and mental health rehabilitative services for mental illness and mental retardation, are required in the resident's comprehensive plan of care, the facility must:

(a) Provide the required services; or

(b) Obtain the required services from an outside provider of specialized rehabilitative services.

(2) As determined by the resident's individualized comprehensive plan of care, qualified therapists, as defined in RCW 74.46.020(40), will provide specialized habilitative or rehabilitative services under the written order of the physician. According to state law and at the qualified therapist's discretion, certain services may be delegated to and provided by support personnel under appropriate supervision.

(3) The nursing facility must:

(a) Ensure that residents who display mental or psychosocial adjustment difficulties receive appropriate treatment and services to correct the assessed problem; and

(b) Provide or arrange for the mental health or mental retardation services needed by residents that are of a lesser intensity than the specialized services defined at WAC 388-97-251.

(4) The nursing home may provide specialized rehabilitative and habilitative services to outpatients on the facility premises, only if the nursing home continues to also meet the needs of current residents.

Pharmacy Services

WAC 388-97-135 Pharmacy services. (1) The nursing home must:

(a) Obtain routine and emergency drugs and biologicals for its residents under an agreement with a licensed pharmacy;

(b) Ensure that pharmaceutical services:

(i) Meet the needs of each resident;

(ii) Establish and monitor systems for the accurate acquiring, receiving, dispensing, and administering of all drugs and biologicals; and

(c) Employ or obtain the services of a licensed pharmacist who must:

(i) Provide consultation on all aspects of the provision of pharmacy services in the nursing home;

(ii) Determine that nursing home drug records are in order;

(iii) Perform regular reviews at least once each month of each resident's drug therapy; and

(iv) Document and report drug irregularities to the attending physician and the director of nursing.

(2) Drugs and biologicals used in the nursing home must be labeled and stored in accordance with applicable state and federal laws.

(3) The nursing home must provide pharmaceutical services that:

(a) Meet recognized and accepted standards of pharmacy practice; and

(b) Comply with chapter 246-865 WAC, except nursing home staff administering drugs to residents may document administration at the time of pouring the drug or immediately after administration.

(4) The nursing home must ensure:

(a) Education and training for nursing home staff by the licensed pharmacist on drug-related subjects including, but not limited to:

(i) Recognized and accepted standards of pharmacy practice and applicable pharmacy laws and rules;

(ii) Appropriate monitoring of residents to determine desired effect and undesirable side effects of drug regimens; and

(iii) Use of psychotropic drugs.

(b) Reference materials regarding medication administration, adverse reactions, toxicology, and poison center information are readily available;

(c) Pharmacist monthly drug review reports are acted on in a timely and effective manner;

(d) Accurate detection, documentation, reporting and resolution of drug errors and adverse drug reactions; and

(e) Only individuals authorized by state law to do so will receive drug orders and administer drugs;

(5) The resident has the right to a choice of pharmacies when purchasing prescription and nonprescription drugs as long as the following conditions are met to ensure the resident is protected from medication errors:

(a) The medications are delivered in a unit of use compatible with the established system of the facility for dispensing drugs; and

(b) The medications are delivered in a timely manner to prevent interruption of dose schedule.

Infection Control

WAC 388-97-140 Infection control. (1) The nursing home must:

(a) Establish and maintain an effective infection control program designed to provide a safe, sanitary, and comfortable environment and to help prevent the development and transmission of disease and infection;

(b) Prohibit any employee with a communicable disease or infected skin lesion from direct contact with residents or their food, if direct contact could transmit the disease; and

(c) Require staff to wash their hands after each direct resident contact for which handwashing is indicated by accepted professional practice.

(2) Under the infection control program, the nursing home must:

(a) Investigate, control and prevent infections in the facility;

(b) Decide what procedures should be applied in individual circumstances; and

(c) Maintain a record of incidence of infection and corrective action taken.

(3) Nursing home personnel must handle, store, process, and transport linens so as to prevent the spread of infection.

(4) The nursing home must develop and implement effective methods for the safe storage, transport and disposal of garbage, refuse and infectious waste, consistent with all applicable local, state, and federal requirements for such disposal.

(5) The nursing home must provide areas, equipment, and supplies to implement an effective infection control program and ensure:

(a) Ready availability of hand cleaning supplies and appropriate drying equipment or material at each sink;

(b) Safe use of disposable and single service supplies and equipment;

(c) Effective procedures for cleaning, disinfecting or sterilizing according to equipment use;

(d) Chemicals and equipment used for cleaning, disinfecting, and sterilizing, including chemicals used to launder personal clothing, are used in accordance with manufacturer's directions and recommendations; and

(e) Safe and effective procedures for disinfecting:

(i) All bathing and therapy tubs between each resident use; and

(ii) Swimming pools, spas and hot tubs.

WAC 388-97-143 Influenza and pneumococcal immunizations. (1) The nursing home shall provide residents access on-site or make available elsewhere, the ability to obtain the influenza virus immunization on an annual basis.

(2) Upon admission, the nursing home shall inform residents or the resident's representative, verbally and in writing, of the benefits of receiving the influenza virus immunization and the pneumococcal disease immunization.

(3) Nursing homes who rely exclusively upon treatment by nonmedical religious healing methods, including prayer, are exempt from the above rules.

WAC 388-97-147 Surveillance, management and early identification of individuals with active tuberculosis. (1) The nursing home must develop and implement policies and procedures that comply with nationally recognized tuberculosis standards set by the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), and applicable state law. Such policies and procedures include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Evaluation of any resident or employee with symptoms suggestive of tuberculosis whether tuberculin skin test results were positive or negative;

(b) Identifying and following up residents and personnel with suspected or actual tuberculosis, in a timely manner; and

(c) Identifying and following up visitors and volunteers with symptoms suggestive of tuberculosis.

(2) The nursing home must comply with chapter 49.17 RCW, Washington Industrial Safety and Health Act (WISHA) requirements to protect the health and safety of employees.

(3) The nursing home must ensure that tuberculosis screening is carried out as follows:

(a) Skin testing, whether documented historically or performed currently, must be by intradermal (Mantoux) administration of purified protein derivative (PPD) and read in forty-eight to seventy-two hours of administration, by trained personnel, and with results recorded in millimeters of induration;

(b) The nursing home must conduct tuberculin skin testing of residents and personnel, within three days of admission or hire, to establish tuberculosis status.

(c) The skin test must consist of a baseline two step test, given no more than one to three weeks apart, unless the individual meets the requirements in (d) or (e) of this subsection.

(d) An individual does not need to be skin tested for tuberculosis if he/she has:

(i) A documented history of a previous positive skin test results;

(ii) Documented evidence of adequate therapy for active disease; or

(iii) Documented evidence of adequate preventive therapy for infection.

(e) An individual needs to have only a one-step skin test upon admission or employment if:

(i) There was documented history of a negative result from previous two step testing; or

(ii) There was a documented negative result from one step skin testing in the previous twelve months.

(f) Annual one step skin testing for personnel, thereafter.

(4) If the skin test results in a positive reaction the nursing home must:

(a) Ensure that the individual has a chest X ray within seven days; and

(b) Evaluate each resident or employee, with a positive test result, for signs and symptoms of tuberculosis.

(5) Where tuberculosis is suspected, by presenting symptoms, or diagnosed, for a resident or an employee, the nursing home must:

(a) Notify the local public health officer so that appropriate contact investigation can be performed;

(b) Institute appropriate measures for the control of the transmission of droplet nuclei;

(c) Apply living or work restrictions where residents or personnel are, or may be, infectious and pose a risk to other residents and personnel; and

(d) Ensure that personnel caring for a resident with suspected tuberculosis comply with the WISHA standard for respiratory protection found in WAC 296-62-071.

(6) The nursing home must:

(a) Retain records of the tuberculin test results, reports of X-ray findings, physician or public health official orders, and declaration in the nursing home; and

(b) Retain employee tuberculin testing results for the duration of employment; and

(2007 Ed.)

(c) Provide the employee a copy of his/her testing results.

(7) The local health department may require additional tuberculin testing of residents or personnel as necessary for contact investigation.

(8) A resident or employee who has reason to decline skin testing may submit a signed statement to the nursing home giving the reason for declining and evidence to support the reason.

WAC 388-97-155 Care of residents with active tuberculosis. (1) When the nursing home accepts the care of a resident with suspected or confirmed tuberculosis, the nursing home must:

(a) Coordinate the resident's admission, nursing home care, discharge planning, and discharge with the local health officer or officer designee;

(b) Provide necessary education about tuberculosis for staff, visitors, and residents; and

(c) Ensure that personnel caring for a resident with active tuberculosis comply with the WISHA standards for respiratory protection, WAC 246-62-071.

(2) For a resident who requires respiratory isolation for tuberculosis, the nursing home must:

(a) Provide a private or semiprivate isolation room:

(i) In accordance with WAC 388-97-33040;

(ii) In which, construction review of the department of health determines that room air is maintained under negative pressure; and appropriately exhausted, either directly to the outside away from intake vents or through properly designed, installed, and maintained high efficiency particulate air (HEPA) filters, or other measures deemed appropriate to protect others in the facility;

(iii) However, when a semiprivate isolation room is used, only residents requiring respiratory isolation for confirmed or suspected tuberculosis are placed together.

(b) Provide supplemental environment approaches, such as ultraviolet lights, where deemed to be necessary;

(c) Provide appropriate protective equipment for staff and visitors; and

(d) Have measures in place for the decontamination of equipment and other items used by the resident.

Administration

WAC 388-97-160 General administration. (1) The nursing home must be administered in a manner that enables it to use its resources effectively and efficiently to attain or maintain the highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being of each resident.

(2) The nursing home must:

(a) Be licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW;

(b) Operate and provide services in compliance with:

(i) All applicable federal, state and local laws, regulations, and codes;

(ii) Accepted professional standards and principles that apply to professionals providing services in nursing homes; and

(c) Have a governing body or designated individuals functioning as a governing body, that is legally responsible for establishing and implementing policies regarding the management and operation of the nursing home.

(3) The governing body of the nursing home must appoint the administrator who:

(a) Is licensed by the state;

(b) Is responsible for management of the nursing home;

(c) Keeps the licensee informed of all surveys and notices of noncompliance;

(d) Complies with all requirements of chapter 18.52 RCW, and all regulations adopted under that chapter;

(e) Is an on-site, full-time individual in active administrative charge at the premises of only one nursing home, a minimum of four days and an average of forty hours per week. Exception: On-site, full-time administrator with small resident populations or in rural areas will be defined as an individual in active administrative charge at the premises of only one nursing home:

(i) A minimum of four days and an average of twenty hours per week at facilities with one to thirty beds; or

(ii) A minimum of four days and an average of thirty hours per week at facilities with thirty-one to forty-nine beds.

(4) Nursing homes temporarily without an administrator may operate up to four continuous weeks under a responsible individual authorized to act as nursing home administrator designee.

(a) The designee must be qualified by experience to assume designated duties; and

(b) The nursing home must have a written agreement with a nursing home administrator, licensed in the state of Washington, who must be readily available to consult with the designee.

(c) The nursing home may request from the department's designated local aging and adult services administration (AASA) field office in writing, an extension of the four weeks by stating why an extension is needed, how a resident's safety or well-being is maintained during an extension and giving the estimated date by which a full-time, qualified nursing home administrator will be on-site.

(5) The nursing home must employ on a full-time, part time or consultant basis those professionals necessary to carry out the requirements of this chapter.

(6) If the nursing home does not employ a qualified professional individual to furnish a specific service to be provided by the nursing home, the nursing home must:

(a) Have that service furnished to residents by an individual or agency outside the nursing home under a written arrangement or agreement; and

(b) Ensure the arrangement or agreement referred to in (a) of this subsection specifies in writing that the nursing home assumes responsibility for:

(i) Obtaining services that meet professional standards and principles that apply to professionals providing services in nursing homes; and

(ii) The timeliness of services.

(7) The nursing home must:

(a) Report to the local law enforcement agency and the department any individual threatening bodily harm or causing a disturbance which threatens any individual's welfare and safety;

(b) Identify, investigate, and report incidents involving residents, according to department established nursing home guidelines; and

(c) Comply with "whistle blower" rules as defined in chapter 74.34 RCW.

(8) The department will:

(a) Investigate complaints, made to the department according to established protocols including protocols described in RCW 74.39A.060;

(b) Take action against a nursing home that is found to have used retaliatory treatment toward a resident or employee who has voiced grievances to nursing home staff or administration, or lodged a good faith complaint with the department;

(c) Report to local law enforcement:

(i) Any mandated reporter that knowingly fails to report in accordance with WAC 388-97-076; and

(ii) Any person that intentionally, maliciously or in bad faith makes a false report of alleged abandonment, abuse, financial exploitation, or neglect of a vulnerable adult.

(9) Refer also to WAC 388-97-204, Retaliation.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620, 02-14-063, § 388-97-160, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02; 00-06-028, § 388-97-160, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-160, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-162 Required notification and reporting. (1) The nursing home must immediately notify the department's aging and adult services administration (AASA) of:

(a) Any allegations of resident abandonment, abuse, or neglect, including substantial injuries of an unknown source, financial exploitation and misappropriation of a resident's property;

(b) Any unusual event, having an actual or potential negative impact on residents, requiring the actual or potential implementation of the nursing home's disaster plan. These unusual events include but are not limited to those listed under WAC 388-97-185 (1)(a) through (k), and could include the evacuation of all or part of the residents to another area of the nursing home or to another address; and

(c) Circumstances which threaten the nursing home's ability to ensure continuation of services to residents.

(2) Mandated reporters must notify the department and law enforcement as directed in WAC 388-97-076, and according to department established nursing home guidelines.

(3) The nursing home must notify the department's AASA of:

(a) Physical plant changes, including but not limited to:

(i) New construction;

(ii) Proposed resident area or room use change;

(iii) Resident room number changes; and

(iv) Proposed bed banking;

(b) Mechanical failure of equipment important to the everyday functioning of the nursing home, which cannot be repaired within a reasonable time frame, such as an elevator; and

(c) An actual or proposed change of ownership (CHOW).

(4) The nursing home must notify, in writing, the department's AASA and each resident, of a loss of, or change in, the nursing home's administrator or director of nursing services at the time the loss or change occurs.

(5) The nursing home licensee must notify the department's AASA in writing of any change in the name of the licensee, or of the nursing home, at the time the change occurs.

(6) If a licensee operates in a building it does not own, the licensee must immediately notify the department of the occurrence of any event of default under the terms of the lease, or if it receives verbal or written notice that the lease agreement will be terminated, or that the lease agreement will not be renewed.

(7) The nursing home must report any case or suspected case of a reportable disease to the appropriate department of health officer and must also notify the appropriate department(s) of other health and safety issues, according to state and local laws.

(8) The nursing home licensee must notify the department in writing of a nursing home's voluntary closure.

(a) The licensee must send this written notification sixty days before closure to the department's designated local aging and adult administration office and to all residents and resident representatives.

(b) Relocation of residents must be in accordance with WAC 388-97-595(2).

(9) The nursing home licensee must notify the department in writing of voluntary termination of its Medicare or Medicaid contract.

(a) The license must send this written notification sixty days before contract termination, to the department's designated local aging and adult services administration office and to all residents and resident representatives.

(b) If the contractor continues to provide nursing facility services, the contract termination will be subject to federal law prohibiting the discharge of residents who are residing in the facility on the day before the effective date of the contract termination.

WAC 388-97-165 Staff and equipment. (1) The nursing home must ensure that:

(a) Sufficient numbers of appropriately qualified and trained staff are available to provide necessary care and services safely under routine conditions, as well as fire, emergency, and disaster situations;

(b) Adequate equipment, supplies and space are available to carry out all functions and responsibilities of the nursing home;

(c) All staff, including management, provide care and services consistent with:

(i) Empowering each resident to attain or maintain the highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being, self-care and independence;

(ii) Respecting resident rights; and

(iii) Enhancing each resident's quality of life.

(2007 Ed.)

(2) The nursing home must ensure that any employee giving direct resident care, excluding professionally licensed nursing staff:

(a) Has successfully completed or is a student in a DSHS-approved nursing assistant training program; and

(b) Meets other requirements applicable to individuals performing nursing related duties in a nursing home, including those which apply to minors.

(3) The nursing home must ensure:

(a) Students in an DSHS-approved nursing assistant training program:

(i) Complete training and competency evaluation within four months of beginning work as a nursing assistant;

(ii) Complete at least sixteen hours of training in communication and interpersonal skills, infection control, safety/emergency procedures including the Heimlich maneuver, promoting residents' independence, and respecting residents' rights before any direct contact with a resident; and

(iii) Wear name tags which clearly identify student or trainee status at all times in all interactions with residents and visitors in all nursing homes, including the nursing homes in which the student completes clinical training requirements and in which the student is employed;

(b) Residents and visitors have sufficient information to distinguish between the varying qualifications of nursing assistants; and

(c) Each employee hired as a nursing assistant applies for registration with the department of health within three days of employment in accordance with chapter 18.88A RCW.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-165, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-165, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-170 Staff development. (1) The nursing home must have a staff development program that is under the direction of a designated registered nurse or licensed practical nurse.

(2) The nursing home must:

(a) Ensure each employee receives initial orientation to the facility and its policies and is initially assigned only to duties for which the employee has demonstrated competence;

(b) Ensure all employees receive appropriate inservice education to maintain a level of knowledge appropriate to, and demonstrated competence in, the performance of ongoing job duties consistent with the principle of assisting the resident to attain or maintain the highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being. To this end, the nursing home must:

(i) Assess the specific training needs of each employee and address those needs; and

(ii) Determine the special needs of the nursing home's resident population which may require training emphasis.

(c) Comply with other applicable training requirements, such as, but not limited to, the bloodborne pathogen standard.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-170, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-170, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-175 Medical director. (1) The nursing home must designate a physician to serve as medical director.

(2) The medical director is responsible for:

[Title 388 WAC—p. 525]

- (a) Implementation of resident care policies; and
- (b) The coordination of medical care in the facility.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-175, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-175, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-180 Clinical records. (1) The nursing home must:

(a) Maintain clinical records on each resident in accordance with accepted professional standards and practices that are:

- (i) Complete;
- (ii) Accurately documented;
- (iii) Readily accessible; and
- (iv) Systematically organized.

(b) Safeguard clinical record information against alteration, loss, destruction, and unauthorized use; and

(c) Keep confidential all information contained in the resident's records, regardless of the form or storage method of the records, except when release is required by:

- (i) Transfer to another health care institution;
- (ii) Law;
- (iii) Third party payment contract; or
- (iv) The resident.

(2) The nursing home must ensure the clinical record of each resident includes at least the following:

(a) Resident identification and sociological data, including the name and address of the individual or individuals the resident designates as significant;

(b) Medical information required under WAC 388-97-125;

- (c) Physician's orders;
- (d) Assessments;
- (e) Plans of care;
- (f) Services provided;

(g) In the case of the Medicaid-certified nursing facility, records related to preadmission screening and resident review;

- (h) Progress notes;
- (i) Medications administered;
- (j) Consents, authorizations, releases;
- (k) Allergic responses;
- (l) Laboratory, X ray, and other findings; and
- (m) Other records as appropriate.

(3) The nursing home must:

(a) Designate an individual responsible for the record system who:

(i) Has appropriate training and experience in clinical record management; or

(ii) Receives consultation from a qualified clinical record practitioner, such as a registered health information administrator or registered health information technician.

(b) Make all records available to authorized representatives of the department for review and duplication as necessary; and

(c) Maintain the following:

(i) A master resident index having a reference for each resident including the health record number, if applicable; full name; date of birth; admission dates; and discharge dates; and

(ii) A chronological census register, including all admissions, discharge, deaths and transfers, and noting the receiving facility. The nursing home must ensure the register includes discharges for social leave and transfers to other treatment facilities in excess of twenty-four hours.

(4) The nursing home must ensure the clinical record of each resident:

(a) Is documented and authenticated accurately, promptly and legibly by individuals giving the order, making the observation, performing the examination, assessment, treatment or providing the care and services. "Authenticated" means the authorization of a written entry in a record by signature, including the first initial and last name and title, or a unique identifier allowing identification of the responsible individual; and:

(i) Documents from other health care facilities that are clearly identified as being authenticated at that facility will be considered authenticated at the receiving facility; and

(ii) The original or a durable, legible, direct copy of each document will be accepted.

(b) Contains appropriate information for a deceased resident including:

- (i) The time and date of death;
- (ii) Apparent cause of death;
- (iii) Notification of the physician and appropriate resident representative; and
- (iv) The disposition of the body and personal effects.

(5) In cases where the nursing home maintains records by computer rather than hard copy, the nursing home must:

(a) Have in place safeguards to prevent unauthorized access; and

(b) Provide for reconstruction of information.

(6) The nursing home licensee must:

(a) Retain health records for the time period required in RCW 18.51.300:

(i) For a period of no less than eight years following the most recent discharge of the resident; except

(ii) That the records of minors must be retained for no less than three years following the attainment of age eighteen years, or ten years following their most recent discharge, whichever is longer.

(b) In the event of a change of ownership, provide for the orderly transfer of clinical records to the new licensee; and

(c) In the event a nursing home ceases operation, make arrangements prior to cessation, as approved by the department, for preservation of the clinical records. The nursing home licensee must provide a plan for preservation of clinical records to the department's designated local aging and adult administration (AASA) office no later than seven days after the date of notice of nursing home closure as required by WAC 388-97-162 (8) and (9) unless an alternate date has been approved by the department.

(d) Provide a resident access to all records pertaining to the resident as required under WAC 388-97-07005(2).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620. 02-14-063, § 388-97-180, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02; 00-06-028, § 388-97-180, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-180, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-185 Disaster and emergency preparedness. (1) The nursing home must develop and implement detailed written plans and procedures to meet potential emergencies and disasters. At a minimum the nursing home must ensure these plans provide for:

- (a) Fire or smoke;
- (b) Severe weather;
- (c) Loss of power;
- (d) Earthquake;
- (e) Explosion;
- (f) Missing resident, elopement;
- (g) Loss of normal water supply;
- (h) Bomb threats;
- (i) Armed individuals;
- (j) Gas leak, or loss of service; and
- (k) Loss of heat supply.

(2) The nursing home must train all employees in emergency procedures when they begin work in the nursing home, periodically review emergency procedures with existing staff, and carry out unannounced staff drills using those procedures.

(3) The nursing home must ensure emergency plans:

- (a) Are developed and maintained with the assistance of qualified fire, safety, and other appropriate experts as necessary;
- (b) Are reviewed annually; and
- (c) Include evacuation routes prominently posted on each unit.

WAC 388-97-190 Quality assessment and assurance.

(1) The nursing home must maintain a process for quality assessment and assurance. The department may not require disclosure of the records of the quality assessment and assurance committee except in so far as such disclosure is related to ensuring compliance with the requirements of this section.

(2) The nursing home must ensure the quality assessment and assurance process:

- (a) Seeks out and incorporates input from the resident and family councils, if any, or individual residents and support groups; and
- (b) Reviews expressed concerns and grievances.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-190, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-190, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-195 Policies and procedures. (1) The nursing home must develop and implement written policies and procedures, including those specified in RCW 74.42.430, for all services provided in the facility.

(2) The nursing home must ensure the written policies and procedures:

- (a) Promote and protect each resident's:
 - (i) Rights, including health care decision making;
 - (ii) Personal interests; and
 - (iii) Financial and property interests;
- (b) Are readily available to staff, residents, members of residents' families, the public, and representatives of the department;
- (c) Are current, and continued without interruption in the event of staff changes; and

(2007 Ed.)

(d) Are consistent with other state and federal laws applicable to nursing home operations.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-195, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-195, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-202 Criminal history disclosure and background inquiries. (1) A nursing home licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW must make a background inquiry request to one of the following:

- (a) The Washington state patrol;
- (b) The department;
- (c) The most recent employer licensed under chapters 18.51, 18.20, and 70.128 RCW provided termination of that employment was within twelve months of the current employment application and provided the inquiry was completed by the department or the Washington state patrol within the two years of the current date of application; or

(d) A nurse pool agency licensed under chapter 18.52C RCW, or hereafter renamed, provided the background inquiry was completed by the Washington state patrol within two years before the current date of employment in the nursing home; and

(e) A nursing home may not rely on a criminal background inquiry from a former employer, including a nursing pool, if the nursing home knows or has reason to know that the individual applying for the job has, or may have, a disqualifying conviction or finding.

(2) Nursing homes must:

(a) Request a background inquiry of any individual employed, directly or by agreement or contract, or accepted as a volunteer or student; and

(b) Notify appropriate licensing or certification agency of any individual resigning or terminated as a result of having a conviction record.

(3) Before a nursing home employs any individual, directly or by contract, or accepts any individual as a volunteer or student, a nursing home must:

(a) Inform the individual that the nursing home must make a background inquiry and require the individual to sign a disclosure statement, under penalty or perjury and in accordance with RCW 43.43.834;

(b) Inform the individual that he or she may make a request for a copy of a completed background inquiry of this section; and

(c) Require the individual to sign a statement authorizing the nursing home, the department, and the Washington state patrol to make a background inquiry; and

(d) Verbally inform the individual of the background inquiry results within seventy-two hours of receipt.

(4) The nursing home must establish procedures ensuring that:

(a) The individual is verbally informed of the background inquiry results within seventy-two hours of receipt;

(b) All disclosure statements and background inquiry responses and all copies are maintained in a confidential and secure manner;

(c) Disclosure statements and background inquiry responses are used for employment purposes only;

(d) Disclosure statements and background inquiry responses are not disclosed to any individual except:

[Title 388 WAC—p. 527]

(i) The individual about whom the nursing home made the disclosure or background inquiry;

(ii) Authorized state employees including the department's licensure and certification staff, resident protection program staff and background inquiry unit staff;

(iii) Authorized federal employees including those from the Department of Health and Human Services, Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services;

(iv) The Washington state patrol auditor; and

(v) Potential employers licensed under chapters 18.51, 18.20, and 70.128 RCW who are making a request as provided for under subsection (1) of this section; and

(e) A record of findings be retained by the nursing home for twelve months beyond the date of employment termination.

(5) The nursing home must not employ individuals who are disqualified under the requirements of WAC 388-97-203.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620, 02-14-063, § 388-97-202, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02; 00-06-028, § 388-97-202, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-203 Disqualification from nursing home employment. (1) The nursing home must not employ directly or by contract, or accept as a volunteer or student, any individual:

(a) Who has been found to have abused, neglected, exploited or abandoned a minor or vulnerable adult by a court of law, by a disciplining authority, including the state department of health, or by the department's resident protection program;

(b) Against whom a finding of abuse, neglect, exploitation, misappropriation of property or abandonment has been entered on any state registry, including the nursing assistant registry; or

(c) Who has been subject to an order of protection under chapter 74.34 RCW for abandonment, abuse, neglect, or financial exploitation of a vulnerable adult, or misappropriation of resident property.

(2) Except as provided in this section, the nursing home must not employ directly or by contract, or accept as a volunteer or student, any individual who may have unsupervised access to residents if the individual:

(a) Has been convicted of a "crime against children and other persons" as defined in RCW 43.43.830, unless the individual has been convicted of one of the five crimes listed below and the required number of years has passed between the most recent conviction and the date of the application for employment:

(i) Simple assault, assault in the fourth degree, or the same offense as it may hereafter be renamed, and three or more years have passed;

(ii) Prostitution, or the same offense as it may hereafter be renamed, and three or more years have passed;

(iii) Theft in the second degree, or the same offense as it may hereafter be renamed, and five or more years have passed;

(iv) Theft in the third degree, or the same offense as it may hereafter be renamed, and three or more years have passed; or

(v) Forgery, or the same offense as forgery may hereafter be renamed, and five or more years have passed.

(b) Has been convicted of crimes relating to financial exploitation as defined under RCW 43.43.830.

(3) The term "vulnerable adult" is defined in RCW 74.34.020; the term "unsupervised access" is defined in RCW 43.43.830.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620, 02-14-063, § 388-97-203, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02.]

WAC 388-97-204 Retaliation or discrimination prohibited. (1) The licensee or the nursing home must not discriminate or retaliate in any manner against a resident or employee in its nursing home who has initiated or participated in any action or proceeding authorized under nursing home licensing law. Examples of such participation include, but are not limited to the following:

(a) The resident, or someone acting on behalf of the resident, or the employee:

(i) Made a complaint, including a whistle blower complaint, to the department, the department of health, the long-term care ombudsman, attorney general's office, the courts or law enforcement;

(ii) Provided information to the department, the department of health, the long-term care ombudsman, attorney general's office, the courts or law enforcement; or

(iii) Testified in a proceeding related to the nursing home or its staff.

(2) For purposes of this chapter, "retaliation" or "discrimination" against a resident means an act including, but not limited to:

(a) Verbal or physical harassment or abuse;

(b) Any attempt to expel the resident from the facility;

(c) Nonmedically indicated social, dietary, or mobility restriction(s);

(d) Lessening of the level of care when not medically appropriate; or

(e) Nonvoluntary relocation within a nursing home without appropriate medical, psychosocial, or nursing justification;

(f) Neglect or negligent treatment;

(g) Withholding privileges;

(h) Monitoring resident's phone, mail or visits without resident's permission;

(i) Withholding or threatening to withhold food or treatment unless authorized by terminally ill resident or the resident's representative;

(j) Persistently delaying responses to resident's request for services of assistance; or

(k) Infringement on a resident's rights described in chapter 74.42 RCW, RCW 74.39A.060(7), WAC 388-97-051, and also, for Medicaid and Medicare certified nursing facilities, in federal laws and regulations.

(3) For purposes of this chapter, "retaliation" or "discrimination" against an employee means an act including, but not limited to:

(a) Harassment;

(b) Unwarranted firing;

(c) Unwarranted demotion;

(d) Unjustified disciplinary action;

(e) Denial of adequate staff to perform duties;

(f) Frequent staff changes;

(g) Frequent and undesirable office changes;

- (h) Refusal to assign meaningful work;
 - (i) Unwarranted and unsubstantiated report of misconduct under Title 18 RCW;
 - (j) Unsubstantiated letters of reprimand;
 - (k) Unsubstantiated unsatisfactory performance evaluations;
 - (l) Denial of employment;
 - (m) A supervisor or superior encouraging coworkers to behave in a hostile manner toward the whistle blower; or
 - (n) Workplace reprisal or retaliatory action as defined in RCW 74.34.180 (3)(b).
- (4) For purposes of this chapter, a "whistle blower" is defined in WAC 388-97-005.

(5) If, within one year of the complaint by or on behalf of a resident, the resident is involuntarily discharged from the nursing home, or is subjected to any type of discriminatory treatment, there will be a presumption that the action was in retaliation for the filing of the complaint. Under these circumstances, the nursing home will have the burden of establishing that the action was not retaliatory, in accordance with RCW 18.51.220 and 74.34.180(2).

Miscellaneous Services

WAC 388-97-205 Laundry services. (1) The nursing home must meet the requirements of WAC 388-97-347, and:

- (a) Launder nursing home linens on the premises; or
 - (b) Contract with a laundry capable of meeting quality standards, infection control, and turn-around time requirements; and
 - (c) Make provision for laundering of residents' personal clothing.
- (2) For residents' personal clothing, the nursing home:
- (a) Must have a system in place to ensure that personal clothing is not damaged or lost during handling and laundering; and
 - (b) May use a chemical disinfectant in lieu of hot water disinfection provided that the nursing home:
 - (i) Uses the product according to the manufacturer's instructions; and
 - (ii) Has readily available, current documentation from the manufacturer that supports the claim that the product is effective as a laundry disinfectant and such documentation is based on scientific studies or other rational data. "Disinfectant" means a germicide that inactivates virtually all recognized pathogenic microorganisms (but not necessarily all microbial forms, such as bacterial spores) on inanimate objects.

WAC 388-97-212 Short-term care, including respite services and adult day or night care. (1) The nursing home may provide short-term care to individuals which include:

- (a) Respite services to provide relief care for families or other caregivers of individuals with disabilities which must:

- (i) Provide short-term care and supervision in substitution for the caregiver;
 - (ii) Be for short-term stays up to a maximum of thirty-one days; and
 - (iii) Not be used as a short-term placement pending the individual's admission to the nursing home; and
 - (b) Adult day or night care to provide short-term nursing home care:
 - (i) Not to exceed sixteen hours each day; and
 - (ii) May be on a regular or intermittent basis.
- (2) The nursing home providing respite services, and adult day or night care must:

- (a) Develop and implement policies and procedures consistent with this section;
- (b) Ensure that individuals receiving short-term services under respite or adult day or night care are treated and cared for in accordance with the rights and choices of long-term residents, except for transfer and discharge rights which are provided under the program for short-term services which covers the individual in the nursing home;
- (c) Have appropriate and adequate staff, space, and equipment to meet the individual's needs without jeopardy to the care of regular residents;
- (d) Before or at the time of admission, obtain sufficient information to meet the individual's anticipated needs. At a minimum, such information must include:

- (i) The name, address, and telephone number of the individual's attending physician, and alternate physician if any;
 - (ii) Medical and social history, which may be obtained from a respite care assessment and service plan performed by a case manager designated by an area agency on aging under contract with the department, and mental and physical assessment data; and
 - (iii) Physician's orders for diet, medication and routine care consistent with the individual's status on admission.
- (e) Ensure the individuals have assessments performed, where needed, and where the assessment of the individual reveals symptoms of tuberculosis, follow tuberculosis testing requirements under WAC 388-97-147;
- (f) With the participation of the individual and, where appropriate, their representative, develop a plan of care to maintain or improve their health and functional status during their stay or care in the nursing home;

- (g) Provide for the individual to:
 - (i) Bring medications from home in accordance with nursing home policy; and
 - (ii) Self-medicate where determined safe.
- (h) Promptly report injury, illness, or other adverse change in health condition to the attending physician; and
- (i) Inquire as to the need for and comply with any request of the individual, or where appropriate, the individual's representative, to secure cash and other valuables brought to the nursing home during the stay/care.

(3) The nursing home may, in lieu of opening a new record, reopen the individual's clinical record with each period of stay or care up to one year from the previous stay or care, provided the nursing home reviews and updates the recorded information.

- (4) Medicaid certified nursing facilities must complete the state-approved resident assessment instrument, within fourteen days, for any individual whose respite stay exceeds fourteen days.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-212, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-220 Dialysis services. (1) The nursing home must ensure that appropriate care, treatment, and services are provided to each nursing home resident receiving dialysis. "Dialysis" means the process of separating crystalloids and colloids in solution by means of the crystalloids and colloids unequal diffusion through a natural or artificial semi-permeable membrane.

(2) Dialysis for acute renal failure must not be administered in a nursing home.

(3) A nursing home may only administer maintenance dialysis in the nursing home after the:

(a) Analysis of other options and elimination of these options based on the resident's best interest; and

(b) Decision is made jointly by a team of individuals representing the kidney center, the resident, the resident's nephrologist, and the nursing home. A "kidney center" means those facilities as defined and certified by the federal government to provide end stage renal (ESRD) services.

(4) The nursing home must ensure that:

(a) A current written agreement is in effect with each kidney center responsible for the management and care of each nursing home resident undergoing dialysis; and

(b) Such agreement delineates the functions, responsibilities, and services of both the kidney center and the nursing home.

(5) The kidney center must assist the nursing home in ensuring appropriate care, treatment, and services related to dialysis. Responsibilities of the kidney center must include, but not be limited to:

(a) The provision of clinical and chemical laboratory services;

(b) The services of a qualified dietitian;

(c) Social services;

(d) Preventative maintenance and emergency servicing of dialysis and water purification equipment;

(e) The certification and continuing education of dialysis helpers and periodic review and updating of dialysis helpers' competencies. A "dialysis helper" means an individual who has completed an inservice class approved by the kidney center and has been hired by the resident to provide to the resident care related only to the dialysis treatment;

(f) An in-hospital dialysis program for the care and treatment of a dialysis resident with a complication or acute condition necessitating hospital care;

(g) A continuing in-service education program for nursing home staff working with a dialysis resident;

(h) A program for periodic, on-site review of the nursing home's dialysis rooms;

(i) Selection, procurement, and installation of dialysis equipment;

(j) Selection and procurement of dialysis supplies;

(k) Proper storage of dialysis supplies; and

(l) Specification, procurement, and installation of the purification process for treatment of water used as a diluent in the dialyzing fluid.

(6) Only a registered nurse from the kidney center or a dialysis helper may administer dialysis in the nursing home.

(a) A dialysis helper may be a registered nurse; and

(b) When a dialysis helper is not a registered nurse, the nursing home must have a registered nurse who has completed an in-service class approved by the kidney center, on the premises during dialysis.

(7) A physician, designated or approved by the kidney center, must be on call at all times dialysis is being administered in the nursing home.

(8) The resident's attending physician and the kidney center must provide, or direct and supervise, the continuing medical management and surveillance of the care of each nursing home resident receiving dialysis.

(9) The nursing home must:

(a) Ensure the kidney center develops a dialysis treatment plan; and

(b) Incorporate this treatment plan into the resident's comprehensive plan of care and include specific medical orders for medications, treatment, and diet.

(10) The dialysis room in the nursing home must be in compliance with federal standards established for ESRD facilities. This includes:

(a) Storage space available for equipment and supplies;

(b) A telephone at the bedside of each dialysis resident; and

(c) A mechanical means of summoning additional staff to the dialysis area in the event of a dialysis emergency.

Preadmission Screening and Resident Review (Pasrr) in Medicaid Certified Facilities

WAC 388-97-247 Preadmission screening—Level I.

(1) Preadmission screening (PAS) is a process by which individuals are evaluated:

(a) For the presence of a serious mental illness or a developmental disability, before admission to the nursing facility;

(b) For nursing facility level of care; and

(c) If the individual does have either a serious mental illness or a developmental disability, to determine whether there is a need for specialized services, or services of a lesser intensity.

(2) The referring hospital, physician, or other referral source must:

(a) Perform the identification screen using a standardized department-specified Level I screening form for all individuals seeking admission to a nursing facility unless they:

(i) Are being readmitted to the nursing facility from the hospital; or

(ii) Are being transferred from one nursing facility to another, with or without an intervening hospital stay.

(b) Identify whether the individual may have a serious mental illness or a developmental disability as defined under 42 C.F.R. § 483.102, or successor laws; and

(c) Refer all individuals identified as likely to have a serious mental illness or a developmental disability to the department for a nursing facility level of care assessment and a Level II screening.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-247, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-249 Advanced categorical determinations, not subject to preadmission screening—Level II. Individuals identified as having symptoms of mental illness or a developmental disability and meeting any of the advanced categorical determinations do not need to be referred for a Level II screening. The determinations include that the individual:

(1) Is admitted to the nursing facility for respite care as defined under WAC 388-97-212, or convalescent care, following treatment in an acute care hospital, not to exceed thirty days;

(2) Cannot accurately be diagnosed because of delirium. NOTE: The individual would be subject to a Level II screening when the delirium cleared;

(3) Has been certified by a physician to be terminally ill as defined under section 1861 (dd)(3)(A) of the Social Security Act;

(4) Has been diagnosed with a severe physical illness such as coma, ventilator dependence, and is functioning at a brain stem level;

(5) Has a severe level of impairment from diagnoses such as:

(a) Chronic obstructive pulmonary disease;

(b) Parkinson's disease;

(c) Huntington's chorea;

(d) Amyotrophic lateral sclerosis;

(e) Congestive heart failure; or

(6) Has a primary diagnosis of dementia, including Alzheimer's disease or a related disorder. NOTE: There must be evidence to support this determination.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-249, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-251 Preadmission screening—Level II.

(1) For individuals likely to have a serious mental illness or developmental disability, the department must determine their need for nursing facility level of care. If they meet the nursing facility level of care, the department refers them to the department's designee, either the mental health PASRR contractor or the division of developmental disabilities, for a Level II screening.

(2) In the Level II screening, the department's designee will verify the diagnosis and determine whether the referred individuals need specialized services, or services of a lesser intensity:

(a) "Specialized services" for an individual with mental retardation or related conditions is defined under 42 C.F.R. § 483.120 (a)(2), and § 483.440 (a)(1), or successor laws. These specialized services do not include services to maintain a generally independent individual able to function with little supervision or in the absence of a treatment program; and

(b) "Specialized services" for an individual with a serious mental illness is defined under 42 C.F.R. § 483.120 (a)(1), or successor laws. These services are generally considered acute psychiatric inpatient care, emergency respite care, or stabilization and crisis services.

(3) The need for specialized services, for a nursing facility applicant, will be determined as follows:

(a) If the individual is identified as likely to have a serious mental illness, a qualified mental health professional will verify whether the individual has a serious mental illness and, if so, will recommend whether the individual needs specialized services; and

(b) If the individual is identified as likely to have a developmental disability, a licensed psychologist will verify whether the individual has a developmental disability and, if so, staff of the division of developmental disabilities will assess and determine whether the individual requires specialized services.

WAC 388-97-253 Resident review. After a resident's admission the nursing facility must:

(1) Review the Level I screening form for accuracy and make changes as needed if the resident develops a qualifying diagnosis or if the resident's symptoms were undetected or misdiagnosed; and

(2) Refer residents who have qualifying diagnoses and who require further PASRR assessment to the mental health PASRR contractor or division of development disabilities;

(3) Record the identification screen information or subsequent changes on the resident assessment instrument according to the schedule required under 42 C.F.R. § 483.20;

(4) Maintain the identification screen form and PASRR assessment information, including recommendations, in the resident's active clinical record; and

(5) Promptly notify the mental health PASRR contractor or division of developmental disabilities after a significant change in the physical or mental condition of any resident that is mentally ill or mentally retarded.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-253, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-260 Preadmission screening and resident review (PASRR) determination and appeal rights.

(1) The resident has the right to choose to remain in the nursing facility and receive specialized services if:

(a) He or she has continuously resided in a nursing facility since October 1, 1987; and

(b) The department determined, in 1990, that the resident required specialized services for a serious mental illness or developmental disability but did not require nursing facility services.

(2) In the event that residents chose to remain in the nursing facility as outlined in subsection (1) above, the department, or designee, will clarify the effect on eligibility for Medicaid services under the state plan if the resident chooses to leave the facility, including its effect on readmission to the facility.

(3) An individual applying for admission to a nursing facility or a nursing facility resident who has been adversely impacted by a PASRR determination may appeal the department's determination that the individual is:

(a) Not in need of nursing facility care as defined under WAC 388-71-0700;

(b) Not in need of specialized services as defined under WAC 388-97-251; or

(c) Need for specialized services as defined under WAC 388-97-251.

(4) The nursing facility must assist the individual applying for admission or resident, as needed, in requesting a hearing to appeal the department's PASRR determination.

(5) If the department's PASRR determination requires that a resident be transferred or discharged, the department will:

(a) Provide the required notice of transfer or discharge to the resident, the resident's surrogate decision maker, and if appropriate, a family member or the resident's representative thirty days or more before the date of transfer or discharge;

(b) Attach a hearing request form to the transfer or discharge notice;

(c) Inform the resident, in writing in a language and manner the resident can understand, that:

(i) An appeal request may be made any time up to ninety days from the date the resident receives the notice of transfer or discharge;

(ii) Transfer or discharge will be suspended when an appeal request is received by the office of administrative hearings on or before the date of transfer or discharge set forth in the written transfer or discharge notice; and

(iii) The resident will be ineligible for Medicaid nursing facility payment:

(A) Thirty days after the receipt of written notice of transfer or discharge; or

(B) If the resident appeals under subsection (1)(a) of this section, thirty days after the final order is entered upholding the department's decision to transfer or discharge a resident.

(6) The department's home and community services may pay for the resident's nursing facility services after the time specified in subsection (5)(c)(iii) of this section, if the department determines that a location appropriate to the resident's medical and other needs is not available.

(7) The department will:

(a) Send a copy of the transfer/discharge notice to the resident's attending physician, the nursing facility and, where appropriate, a family member or the resident's representative;

(b) Suspend transfer or discharge:

(i) If the office of administrative hearings receives an appeal on or before the date set for transfer or discharge or before the resident is actually transferred or discharged; and

(ii) Until the office of appeals makes a determination; and

(c) Provide assistance to the resident for relocation necessitated by the department's PASRR determination.

(8) Resident appeals of PASRR determinations will be in accordance with 42 C.F.R. § 431 Subpart E, chapter 388-02 WAC, and the procedures defined in this section. In the event of a conflict between a provision in this chapter and a provision in chapter 388-02 WAC, the provision in this chapter will prevail.

SUBCHAPTER II PHYSICAL ENVIRONMENT

General

WAC 388-97-295 Design. The design of a nursing home must facilitate resident-centered care and services in a safe, clean, comfortable and homelike environment that allows the resident to use his or her personal belongings to the greatest extent possible.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-295, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-295, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-29510 New construction compliance. The nursing home must ensure that:

(1) New construction complies with all the requirements of subchapter II;

(2) New construction approved by the department of health, certificate of need and construction review, before the effective date of this chapter complies with the rules in effect at the time of the plan approval;

(3) The department of health, certificate of need and construction review, is contacted for review and issues an applicable determination and approval for all new construction; and

(4) The department has done a pre-occupancy survey and has determined that the new construction is in compliance with these regulations before the area is placed in use.

WAC 388-97-29520 Fire standards and approval, and other standards. The nursing home must:

(1) Conform to at least the minimum standards for the prevention of fire, and for the protection of life and property against fire, according to the Uniform Fire Code, RCW 19.27.031, the federal Life Safety Code, and additional state guidelines in chapter 212-12 WAC; and

(2) Comply with all other applicable requirements of state and federal law.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-29520, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-29530 Maintenance and repair. All nursing homes must:

- (1) Maintain electrical, mechanical, and patient care equipment in safe and operating condition; and
- (2) Ensure floors, walls, ceilings, and equipment surfaces are maintained in clean condition and in good repair.

WAC 388-97-29540 Noise. (1) All nursing homes must maintain comfortable sound levels, to include minimizing the use of the public address system and taking reasonable precautions with noisy services so residents are not disturbed, particularly during their sleeping time; and

(2) In new construction, the nursing home must:

- (a) Have walls, floor/ceiling and roof/ceiling assemblies constructed with materials that provide comfortable sound levels in all resident areas, rated at an STC 50 or greater; and
- (b) Utilize an alternative to the public address system for nonemergency communication that best serves the residents' needs.

WAC 388-97-29550 Accessibility in new construction. The nursing home must be readily accessible to a person with disability and comply with WAC 388-97-410.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-29550, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-29560 Types of new construction. New construction includes, but is not limited to:

- (1) New structures.
 - (a) A new building to be licensed as a nursing home; or
 - (b) An addition to a building currently licensed as a nursing home.
- (2) Existing buildings.
 - (a) Conversion of another building to a nursing home;
 - (b) Change in the use of space for access by residents within an existing nursing home; and
 - (c) Alterations including physical, mechanical, or electrical changes made to an existing nursing home, except for normal routine maintenance and repair.
- (3) See WAC 388-97-400(3) for less extensive alterations.

WAC 388-97-310 ICF/MR exceptions to physical plant requirements. The following regulations do not apply to nursing homes certified exclusively under 42 C.F.R. § 483, Subpart I, or successor laws.

- (1) WAC 388-97-33020, regarding the required number of square feet per bed; and
- (2) WAC 388-97-33570, regarding cubicle curtains.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-310, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-310, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

(2007 Ed.)

WAC 388-97-315 Emergency power. (1) The nursing home must have an alternate source of power and automatic transfer equipment to connect the alternate source within ten seconds of the failure of the normal source.

(2) The nursing home must ensure the alternate source is a generator:

- (a) With on-site fuel supply;
- (b) Permanently fixed in place;
- (c) Approved for emergency service; and
- (d) An on premises emergency generator, as defined in NFPA 99, Health care facilities, when life support systems are used.

(3) The nursing home must ensure the emergency power supply provides a minimum of four hours of effective power for lighting for night lights, exit signs, exit corridors, stairways, dining and recreation areas, work stations, medication preparation areas, boiler rooms, electrical service room and emergency generator locations.

(4) A nursing home first licensed on or after October 1, 1981, must have emergency power supplied to:

- (a) Communication systems, all alarm systems, an elevator that reaches every resident floor including the ground floor, equipment to provide heating for resident rooms or a room to which all residents can be moved; and
- (b) Electrical outlets located in medication preparation areas, pharmacy dispensing areas, staff work stations, dining areas, resident corridors, and resident bed locations designated for use with life support systems.

(5) In new construction the emergency power equipment must meet the:

- (a) Earthquake standards for the facility's geographic locale; and
- (b) Requirements in NFPA 110, Generators.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-315, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-315, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

Resident Care Unit

WAC 388-97-325 Location of the resident care unit. The nursing home must ensure that:

- (1) Each resident care unit is located to minimize through traffic to any general service, diagnostic, treatment, or administrative area; and
- (2) In new construction, the resident care unit, and the services to support resident care and nursing needs, are designed to serve a maximum of sixty beds on the same floor.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-325, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-325, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-32510 Required service areas on resident care units. (1) The nursing home must ensure each resident care unit has at least the following required service areas:

- (a) A staff work station;
- (b) A medicine storage and preparation area;
- (c) A utility room that maintains separated clean and soiled functions;
- (d) Storage space for linen, other supplies, and equipment; and

[Title 388 WAC—p. 533]

(e) Housekeeping services and janitor's closet.

(2) In new construction resident care units may share required services if the units are in close proximity to each other and the combined units serve a total of not more than sixty residents; except the nursing home must have a separate staff work station on a secured dementia care unit.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-32510, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-32520 Staff work stations on resident care units. (1) On each unit, the nursing home must have a staff work station appropriate to the needs of staff using the space. At a minimum, the nursing home must equip the area with:

- (a) A charting surface;
- (b) A rack or other storage for current health records;
- (c) Storage for record and clerical supplies;
- (d) A telephone;
- (e) A resident call system; and
- (f) A clock.

(2) In new construction the work station space must be open to the corridor.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-32520, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-32530 Call systems on resident care units. The nursing home must provide the following, or an equivalent system that meets these standards:

(1) A wired or wireless communication system which registers a call by distinctive light at the room door and by distinctive light and audible tone at the staff work station. The system must be equipped to receive resident calls from:

- (a) The bedside of each resident;
- (b) Every common area, dining and activity areas, common use toilet rooms, and other areas used by residents; and
- (c) Resident toilet, bath and shower rooms.

(2) An emergency signal device activated by a nonconductive pull cord, or adapted to meet the needs of the resident. The nursing home must locate the signal device for easy reach by the resident. A signal device must be adapted to meet resident needs and, in the dementia unit, may be adapted for staff and family use, see WAC 388-97-35050.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-32530, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-32540 Telephones on resident care units. The nursing home must provide twenty-four hour access to a telephone for resident use which:

- (1) Provides auditory privacy;
- (2) Is accessible to a person with a disability and accommodates a person with sensory impairment;
- (3) Is not located in a staff office or at a nurse's station; and
- (4) Does not require payment for local calls.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-32540, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-32550 Utility service rooms on resident care units. (1) All nursing homes must:

[Title 388 WAC—p. 534]

(a) Provide utility rooms designed, equipped, and maintained to ensure separation of clean and sterile supplies and equipment from those that are contaminated;

(b) Ensure that each clean utility room has:

- (i) A work counter;
- (ii) A sink equipped with single use hand drying towels and soap for handwashing; and
- (iii) Closed storage units for supplies and small equipment; and

(c) Ensure that each soiled utility room has:

- (i) A work counter and a sink large enough to totally submerge the items being cleaned and disinfected;
- (ii) Storage for cleaning supplies and other items, including equipment, to meet nursing home needs;
- (iii) Locked storage for cleaning agents, disinfectants and other caustic or toxic agents;
- (iv) Adequate space for waste containers, linen hampers, and other large equipment; and
- (v) Adequate ventilation to remove odors and moisture.

(2) In new construction:

(a) A resident room must not be more than ninety feet from a clean utility room and a soiled utility room;

(b) The clean utility room and the soiled utility room must be separate rooms;

(c) Each soiled utility room must contain:

(i) A double-compartment sink with inside dimensions of each compartment deep enough to totally submerge items being cleaned and disinfected;

(ii) Sufficient, available work surface on each side of the sink to adequately process and dry equipment with a minimum of three feet of work surface on the clean side;

(iii) Drying/draining racks for wet equipment;

(iv) Work counters, sinks, and other fixed equipment arranged to prevent intermingling of clean and contaminated items during the cleaning process; and

(v) A siphon jet type clinic service sink or equivalent installed on the soiled side of the utility room away from the door.

(d) The nursing home's space for waste containers, linen hampers, and other large equipment, must not block work areas; and

(e) The utility rooms must meet the ventilation requirements of Table 5, WAC 388-97-47020.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-32550, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-32560 Drug facilities on resident care units. The nursing home must provide an area designed and equipped for drug preparation and locked storage convenient to each work station. The nursing home must ensure:

(1) The drug facilities are well illuminated, ventilated, and equipped with a work counter, sink with hot and cold running water, and drug storage units;

(2) The drug storage units are one or more of the following:

(a) Locked cabinetry constructed in accordance with board of pharmacy regulations for drug storage which has:

(i) Separately keyed storage for Schedule II and III controlled substances; and

(ii) Segregated storage of different residents' drugs, or

(2007 Ed.)

(b) An automated medication distribution device or storage.

(3) There is a refrigerator for storage of thermolabile drugs in the drug facility;

(4) Locks and keys for drug facilities are different from other locks and keys within the nursing home; and

(5) In new construction, the drug facility must be a separate room.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-32560, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-32570 Linen storage on resident care units. The nursing home must provide:

(1) A clean area for storage of clean linen and other bedding. This may be an area within the clean utility room;

(2) A soiled linen area for the collection and temporary storage of soiled linen. This may be within the soiled utility room; and

(3) In new construction, storage for linen barrels and clean linen carts.

WAC 388-97-32580 Janitors closets on resident care units. (1) The nursing home must have a janitors closet with a service sink and adequate storage space for housekeeping equipment and supplies convenient to each resident unit.

(2) In new construction a janitor's closet must meet the ventilation requirements of Table 5, WAC 388-97-47020.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-32580, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

Resident Rooms

WAC 388-97-330 Resident rooms. (1) The nursing home must ensure that each resident bedroom:

(a) Has direct access to a hall or corridor;

(b) Is located on an exterior wall with a transparent glass window; and

(c) Is located to prevent through traffic.

(2) In a new building or addition, each resident bedroom must:

(a) Have an exterior transparent glass window:

(i) With an area equal to at least one-tenth of the bedroom usable floor area;

(ii) Located twenty-four feet or more from another building or the opposite wall of a court, or ten feet or more away from a property line, except on street sides;

(iii) Located eight feet or more from any exterior walkway, paved surface, or driveway; and

(iv) With a sill three feet or less above the floor.

(b) Be located on a floor level at or above grade level except for earth berms. "Grade" means the level of ground adjacent to the building floor level measured at the required exterior window. The ground must be level or slope downward for a distance of at least ten feet from the wall of the building. From there the ground may slope upward to the maximum sill height of the required window at a rate of one foot vertical for two feet horizontal.

WAC 388-97-33040 Resident isolation rooms. If a nursing home provides an isolation room, the nursing home must ensure the room is uncarpeted and contains:

(1) A handwashing sink with water supplied through a mixing valve;

(2) Its own adjoining toilet room containing a bathing facility; and

(3) In new construction, the handwashing sink must be located between the entry door and the nearest bed.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-33040, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-33050 Resident room size variance. The director of residential care services, aging and adult services administration, or their designee, may permit exceptions to WAC 388-97-33010 (1)(a) and 388-97-33020(1) when the nursing home demonstrates in writing that the exception:

(1) Is in accordance with the special needs of the resident; and

(2) Will not adversely affect any resident's health or safety.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-33050, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

Resident Room Equipment

WAC 388-97-335 Resident room equipment. The nursing home must determine a resident's furniture and equipment needs at the time of admission and routinely thereafter to ensure resident comfort. Except as specified in WAC 388-97-07060, the nursing home must provide each resident with the following items required in WAC 388-97-33510 through 388-97-33580.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-335, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-335, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-33510 Resident bed and bedside equipment. The nursing home must provide:

- (1) A comfortable bed of size and height to maximize a resident's independent functioning. Beds may be arranged to satisfy the needs and desires of the individual resident provided the arrangement does not negatively impact the health or safety of other residents;
- (2) Appropriate bedding; and
- (3) A bedside cabinet that allows for storage of small personal articles and a separate drawer or enclosed compartment for storage of resident care utensils/equipment.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-33510, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-33520 Lockable storage space in a resident room. The nursing home must provide:

- (1) A lockable storage space accessible to each resident for storage of small personal items, upon request; and
- (2) In a new building or addition, a lockable cabinet space or drawer for storage of personal belongings for each resident bed, in addition to the bedside cabinet.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-33520, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-33530 Wardrobes in a resident room. The nursing home must provide:

- (1) A separated, enclosed wardrobe or closet for each resident's clothing and belongings accessible to the resident; and
- (2) In a new building or addition, each bed in each room must have a separate, enclosed wardrobe or closet accessible to the resident with:

(a) Minimum inside dimensions of twenty-two inches deep by a minimum of twenty-six inches wide by sixty inches high; and

(b) Inside space including a rod, at least fifteen inches long, and allowing for fifty-four inches of clear hanging length adjustable to meet the needs of the resident.

WAC 388-97-33540 Seating in a resident room. The nursing home must provide comfortable seating for residents and visitors, not including resident care equipment, that provides proper body alignment and support.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 536]

WAC 388-97-33550 Lighting in resident rooms. The nursing home must provide a permanently mounted or equivalent light suitable for any task the resident chooses to do or any task the staff must do.

WAC 388-97-33560 Call signal device in resident rooms. The nursing home must provide a resident call signal device that complies with WAC 388-97-32530.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-33560, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-33570 Cubicle curtains in resident rooms. The nursing home must provide:

- (1) Flame-retardant cubicle curtains in multibed rooms that ensures full visual privacy for each resident;
- (2) In a new building or addition, the cubicle curtain or enclosed space ensures full visual privacy for each bed in a multibed room with enclosed space containing at least sixty-four square feet of floor area with a minimum dimension of seven feet. "Full visual privacy" in a multibed room prevents staff, visitors and other residents from seeing a resident in bed, while allowing staff, visitors, and other residents access to the toilet room, handwashing sink, exterior window, and the entrance door;
- (3) For exceptions to cubicle curtain requirements refer to WAC 388-97-310.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-33570, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-33580 Miscellaneous equipment in resident rooms in a new building or addition. The nursing home must provide:

- (1) A phone jack for each bed in each room;
- (2) A handwashing sink in each multibed room and a handwashing sink in each single room that does not have an adjoining toilet room containing a handwashing sink. A handwashing sink located in a resident bedroom must be located between the corridor entry door and the nearest resident bed; and
- (3) Storage that meets the requirements of WAC 388-97-357, 388-97-35710, and 388-97-35720.

Resident Toilet and Bathing Facilities

WAC 388-97-340 Resident toilet facilities or rooms. The nursing home must ensure that:

- (1) Each resident room is equipped with or located convenient to toilet facilities.
- (2) For new construction, a toilet room must:
 - (a) Be directly accessible from each resident room and from each bathing facility without going through or entering a general corridor while maintaining resident dignity;
 - (b) Serve two bedrooms or less;

(2007 Ed.)

- (c) Be designed to accommodate a person in a wheelchair;
- (d) Contain at least one handwashing sink; and
- (e) Provide a properly located and securely mounted grab bar at each side and the back of each toilet fixture in each toilet room and stall. Grab bars on the open side must be located twelve to eighteen inches from the center line of the toilet. Grab bars on the open side must be able to swing up.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-340, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-340, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-34010 Resident bathing facilities or rooms. The nursing home must ensure:

- (1) Each resident room is equipped with or located near bathing facilities;
- (2) At least one bathing unit for no more than thirty residents that is not located in a room served by an adjoining bathroom;
- (3) At least one bathing device for immersion per floor;
- (4) At least one roll in shower or equivalent on each resident care unit:
 - (a) Designed and equipped for unobstructed ease of shower chair entry and use; and
 - (b) With a spray attachment equipped with a backflow prevention device.
- (5) Resident bathing equipment is smooth, cleanable, and able to be disinfected after each use.
- (6) For new construction, in each bathing unit containing more than one bathing facility:
 - (a) Each bathtub, shower, or equivalent, is located in a separate room or compartment with three solid walls;
 - (b) The entry wall may be a "shower" type curtain or equivalent;
 - (c) The area for each bathtub and shower is sufficient to accommodate a shower chair, an attendant, and provide visual privacy for bathing, drying, and dressing;
 - (d) Shower and tub surfaces are slip-resistant;
 - (e) Bathing areas are constructed of materials that are impervious to water and cleanable; and
 - (f) Grab bars are installed on all three sides of a shower with the shower head grab bar being "L" shaped.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-34010, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-34020 Locks in toilet and bathing facilities. The nursing home must ensure:

- (1) All lockable toilet facilities and bathrooms have a readily available means of unlocking from the outside; and
- (2) Locks are operable from the inside with a single motion.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-34020, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

Dining, Dayrooms, and Resident Activity Areas

WAC 388-97-345 Dining, dayrooms, and resident activity areas. (1) The nursing home must provide one or more rooms designated for resident dining and activities that are:

- (a) Well lighted;

(2007 Ed.)

- (b) Well ventilated;
- (c) Adequately furnished; and
- (d) Large enough to accommodate all activities.

(2) In a new building or addition, the nursing home must design space for dining rooms, dayrooms, and activity areas for resident convenience and comfort and to provide a homelike environment. These areas must be located on the same floor as the residents who will use the areas. The nursing home must:

- (a) Ensure these rooms or areas are exterior rooms with windows that have a maximum sill height of thirty-six inches;
- (b) Provide space for dining, day use, and activities with a minimum combined total of thirty square feet for each licensed bed;
- (c) Design any multipurpose rooms to prevent program interference with each other;
- (d) Locate a day room on each resident care unit;
- (e) Provide storage spaces for all activity and recreational equipment and supplies, adjoining or adjacent to the facilities provided; and
- (f) Locate a common use toilet facility, with handwashing sink and accessories, providing direct access from the hallway and within a maximum of forty feet from these spaces.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-345, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-345, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

Laundry Services

WAC 388-97-347 Laundry services and storage. The nursing home must comply with WAC 388-97-205 and ensure:

- (1) Sufficient laundry washing and drying facilities to meet the residents' care and comfort needs without delay.
- (2) The temperature and time of the hot water cycle to disinfect nursing home linen is in accordance with the following table:

Water temperature	Cycle length
160 degrees F	At least 5 minutes
140 degrees F	At least 15 minutes

(3) In new construction, soiled linens and soiled clothing are stored and sorted in a room ventilated according to Table 5, WAC 388-97-47020. The room must:

- (a) Have self-closing doors;
- (b) Be separated from the washing and drying facilities;
- (c) Contain a handwashing sink;
- (d) Have a floor drain; and
- (e) Contain a clinic service sink.

(4) In new construction, clean linen is stored in a room ventilated according to Table 5, WAC 388-97-47020. The room must:

- (a) Be separated from the washing and drying facilities; and
- (b) Have self closing doors.

Dementia Care Unit

WAC 388-97-350 Dementia care unit. A nursing home that began operating a dementia care unit at any time after November 13, 1989, must meet all requirements of this section, WAC 388-97-35010 through 388-97-35060, and the resident care unit requirements of WAC 388-97-325 through 388-97-32580. Refer to WAC 388-97-097, for program requirements.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-350, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-350, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-35010 Dining areas on a dementia care unit. (1) The nursing home must provide dining areas in the dementia care unit which may also serve as day areas for the unit.

(2) In a new building or addition, the dining, dayroom, and activity area or areas on the unit must provide a minimum of thirty square feet per resident.

WAC 388-97-35020 Outdoor areas on a dementia care unit. The nursing home must provide the dementia care unit with:

- (1) Secured outdoor space and walkways;
- (2) An ambulation area with accessible walking surfaces that:
 - (a) Are firm, stable, and free from cracks and abrupt changes with a maximum of one inch between sidewalk and adjoining landscape areas;
 - (b) Have slip-resistant surfaces if subject to wet conditions; and
 - (c) Sufficient space and outdoor furniture with flexibility in arrangement of the furniture to accommodate residents who use wheelchairs and mobility aids; and
- (3) Nontoxic outdoor plants in areas accessible to residents.
- (4) In new construction the outdoor areas must also meet the requirements of WAC 388-97-45510.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-35020, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-35030 Indoor areas on a dementia care unit. The nursing home must provide the dementia care unit with:

- (1) Indoor ambulation areas that meet the needs of the residents and are maintained free of equipment; and
- (2) Nontoxic indoor plants in areas accessible to residents.

WAC 388-97-35040 Ambulation route on a dementia care unit in a new building or addition. The nursing home must ensure that the dementia care unit has a continuous ambulation route which may include outdoor ambulation areas and allows the resident to return to the resident's starting point without reversing direction.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620. 02-14-063, § 388-97-35040, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02; 00-06-028, § 388-97-35040, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-35050 Physical plant on a dementia care unit. The nursing home must:

- (1) Provide a staff toilet room with a handwashing sink;
- (2) Ensure that floors, walls, and ceiling surfaces display contrasting color for identification:
 - (a) Surfaces may have a disguise design to obscure or conceal areas that residents should not enter, except for exit doors and doorways; and
 - (b) Exit doors must be marked so that they are readily distinguishable from adjacent construction and the way of exit travel is obvious and direct;
- (3) Ensure that door thresholds are one-half inch high or less;
- (4) Provide a signal device adapted:
 - (a) To meet residents' needs; and
 - (b) For staff and family use, if necessary;
- (5) Ensure that the public address system is used only for emergency use; and
- (6) Refer to WAC 388-97-470(2) for dementia care unit exceptions to individual temperature controls.

WAC 388-97-35060 Special egress control devices on a dementia care unit. In dementia care units the nursing home must:

- (1) Have proof that required approvals for any special egress control devices were obtained from the state fire marshal, department of social and health services, and the local official who enforces the uniform building code and uniform fire code; and
- (2) In a new building or addition, or when adding special egress control devices to be used on doors and gates which are a part of the exit system, the building must:
 - (a) Have obtained approval from department of health construction review and the local official who enforces the Uniform Building Code and Uniform Fire Code;
 - (b) Have an approved automatic fire alarm system;
 - (c) Have an approved supervised automatic fire sprinkler system which is electrically interconnected with the fire alarm system; and
 - (d) Have a system which must:
 - (i) Automatically release if power to the system is lost;
 - (ii) Automatically release with activation of the building's fire alarm system;
 - (iii) Release with an override switch installed at each staff work station or at a constantly staff attended location within the building; and
 - (iv) Have directions for releasing the device at each egress controlled door and gate; and
 - (e) Prohibit the use of keyed locks at all doors and gates in all egress pathways.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-35060, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

Specialized and Outpatient Rehabilitation

WAC 388-97-352 Specialized rehabilitation. (1) If nursing homes initially licensed after October 1, 1981 provide inpatient specialized rehabilitation, they must ensure that those services provide:

- (a) Easy access in general service areas;
- (b) Exercise, treatment, and supportive equipment as required by the narrative program in the construction documents;
- (c) Adequate space for exercise equipment and treatment tables with sufficient work space on each side;
- (d) Privacy cubicle curtains on tracks or the equivalent around treatment areas;
- (e) A sink in the treatment area and a toilet and hand-washing sink in a toilet room nearby;
- (f) Space and a desk or equivalent for administrative, clerical, interviewing, and consultative functions;
- (g) Adequate enclosed storage cabinets for clean linen and supplies and locked storage for cleaning chemicals in the rehabilitation room or nearby janitor's closet;
- (h) Adequate storage space for large equipment;
- (i) A janitor's closet close to the area;
- (j) Soiled linen storage; and
- (k) A separate room or area for hydrotherapy tanks, or the equivalent, if provided.

(2) For any new construction under WAC 388-97-29560, nursing homes licensed before October 1, 1981, must comply with the requirements in subsection (1) of this section.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-352, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-353 Outpatient rehabilitation. The nursing home must ensure that facilities with outpatient programs provide:

- (1) A designated reception and waiting room or area and space for interviewing or counseling individual outpatients and their families;
- (2) Adequate space for the program so that disruption to designated resident care units is minimized;
- (3) Accessible toilet and shower facilities nearby;
- (4) Lockers or a safe place to store outpatient personal belongings;
- (5) A separate room or area for hydrotherapy tanks, or the equivalent, if provided; and
- (6) In new construction, required access must come from the exterior without passing through the interior of the facility.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-353, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

Food Service Areas

WAC 388-97-355 Food service areas. The nursing home must ensure food service areas are in compliance with chapter 246-215 WAC, state board of health rules governing food service sanitation. The nursing home must:

- (1) Ensure food service areas are provided for the purpose of preparing, serving, and storing food and drink unless (2007 Ed.)

food service is provided from another licensed food service facility;

(2) Ensure food service areas are located to facilitate receiving of food supplies, disposal of kitchen waste, and transportation of food to dining and resident care areas;

(3) Locate and arrange the kitchen to avoid contamination of food, to prevent heat and noise entering resident care areas, and to prevent through traffic;

(4) Locate the receiving area for ready access to storage and refrigeration areas;

(5) Conveniently locate a handwashing sink near the food preparation and dishwashing area, and include a waste receptacle and dispensers stocked with soap and paper towels;

(6) Adequately ventilate, light, and equip the dishwashing room or area for sanitary processing of dishes;

(7) Locate the garbage storage area in a well-ventilated room or an outside area;

(8) Provide hot and cold water and a floor drain connected to the sanitary sewage system in a can wash area, unless located in outside covered area;

(9) Provide space for an office or a desk and files for food service management located central to deliveries and kitchen operations; and

(10) Include housekeeping facilities or a janitor's closet for the exclusive use of food service with a service sink and storage of housekeeping equipment and supplies.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-355, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-355, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

Storage

WAC 388-97-357 Storage of equipment. The nursing home must:

(1) Provide adequate storage space for wheelchairs and other ambulation equipment;

(2) Ensure stored equipment does not impinge upon the required corridor space; and

(3) In new construction, provide adequate storage of four square feet or more of storage space per bed which does not impinge upon required corridor space.

WAC 388-97-35710 Storage of resident room equipment in a new building or addition. The nursing home must provide separate storage for extra pillows and blankets for each bed. This may be in a location convenient to the resident room or combined with the wardrobe or closet if it does not impinge upon the required space for clothing.

WAC 388-97-35720 General storage in new construction. A nursing home must have general storage space of not less than five square feet per bed in addition to the closets and storage required in WAC 388-97-33520.

Lighting and Electrical

WAC 388-97-360 Lighting. The nursing home must ensure that lighting and lighting levels:

- (1) Are adequate and comfortable for the functions being conducted in each area of the nursing home;
- (2) Are suitable for any task the resident chooses or any task the staff must do;
- (3) Support the independent functioning of the resident;
- (4) Provide a homelike environment; and
- (5) Minimize glare.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-360, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-360, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-36010 Natural or artificial light. (1) The nursing home must ensure that adequate natural or artificial light for inside illumination is provided in every useable room area, including but not limited to storerooms, attic and basement rooms, hallways, stairways, inclines, and ramps.

(2) In new buildings and additions, the nursing home must utilize:

(a) Windows and skylights to minimize the need for artificial light and to allow a resident to experience the natural daylight cycle; and

(b) Windows and skylights near entrances/exits in order to avoid difficulty in adjusting to light levels when entering or leaving the facility.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-36010, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-36020 Outside lighting. The nursing home must ensure:

(1) Lighting levels in parking lots and approaches to buildings are appropriate for resident and visitor convenience and safety; and

(2) All outside areas where nursing home equipment and machinery are stored have proper lighting.

WAC 388-97-36030 Light shields. The nursing home must ensure that light shields are provided in food preparation and serving areas, utility rooms, medication rooms, exam rooms, pool enclosures, laundry areas, and on ceiling mounted fluorescent lights in resident rooms.

WAC 388-97-36040 Illumination levels in new buildings and additions. The nursing home must ensure:

(1) Lighting fixtures and circuitry provide at least the illumination levels shown within Table B;

(2) Design takes into consideration that lighting systems normally decrease in output with age and dirt accumulation; and

(3) Light fixture locations and switching arrangements are appropriate for the needs of the occupants of the spaces and follow Illuminating Engineering Society (IES) recommendations for health care facilities.

WAC 388-97-36050 Night lights in new construction.

The nursing home must install in each resident room a night light that is:

- (1) Flush mounted on the wall;
- (2) Designed to prevent viewing the light source from thirty inches or more above the floor;
- (3) Designed to provide a maximum illumination level of 10 footcandles;
- (4) Located to provide safe pathway lighting for the staff and residents; and
- (5) Controlled by a switch at each resident room entrance door or by a master switch.

WAC 388-97-36060 Switches in new construction.

The nursing home must install quiet operating switches for general illumination adjacent to doors in all areas and accessible to residents in resident rooms.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-36060, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-36070 Electrical outlets. (1) The nursing home must provide enough electrical outlets to meet the care and personal appliance needs of each resident. An approved power tap may be used only for portable appliances with specific overcurrent protection needs, such as a computer. A "power tap" is a device for indoor use consisting of an attachment plug on the end of a flexible cord and two or more receptacles on the opposite end, with overcurrent protection. A power tap must be:

- (a) Polarized or grounded;
- (b) UL listed; and
- (c) Directly connected to a permanently installed electrical outlet.

(2) In new construction, the nursing home must ensure:

- (a) There are a minimum of seven outlets:
 - (i) Four hospital grade electrical outlets located convenient to each residents' bed and centered at forty to forty-four inches above the floor, with a minimum of:
 - (ii) Two additional electrical outlets at separate, convenient locations in each resident room; and
 - (iii) One duplex electrical outlet located adjacent to each handwashing sink intended for resident use.
- (b) All electrical outlets located within five feet of any sink, toilet, bath, or shower must be protected by a ground fault circuit interrupter.

Safety

WAC 388-97-365 Safety. The nursing home must provide:

- (1) A safe, functional, sanitary, and comfortable environment for the residents, staff, and the public; and
- (2) Signs to designate areas of hazard.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-365, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-365, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-36510 Safety—Poisons and nonmedical chemicals. The nursing home must ensure that poisons and nonmedicinal chemicals are stored in containers identified with warning labels. The containers must be stored:

- (1) In a separate locked storage when not in use by staff; and
- (2) Separate from drugs used for medicinal purposes.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-36510, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-36520 Safety—Storage of equipment and supplies. The nursing home must ensure that the manner in which equipment and supplies are stored does not jeopardize the safety of residents, staff, or the public.

(2007 Ed.)

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-36520, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-36530 Safety—Handrails. The nursing home must:

- (1) Provide handrails on each side of all corridors and stairwells accessible to residents; and
- (2) In new construction ensure that:
 - (a) Ends of handrails are returned to the walls;
 - (b) Handrails are mounted thirty to thirty-four inches above the floor and project not more than three and three-quarters inches from the wall; and
 - (c) Handrails terminate not more than six inches from a door.

New Construction Documents

WAC 388-97-400 General new construction documents. (1) The project sponsor must submit plans for all new construction to the department of health, construction review, for review and approval. Documents must be approved before the work begins. The project sponsor must also submit documents to department of health, certificate of need for review and applicable determination.

(2) The nursing home may request exemptions to new construction requirements as described in WAC 388-97-405.

(3) If the proposed project is not extensive enough to require professional architectural or engineering services, the project sponsor must submit a written description to the department of health, construction review, to determine if WAC 388-97-401 applies.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-400, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-400, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-40010 Preliminary new construction documents. If preliminary documents and specifications are submitted, they must:

(1) Include a narrative program with drawings. Copies of these documents must be sent to the department of health, certificate of need and construction review, and to aging and adult services administration. The narrative program must identify:

- (a) How the design promotes a homelike environment and facilitates resident-centered care and services;
- (b) Functional space requirements;
- (c) Staffing patterns;
- (d) Each function to be performed;

- (e) Types of equipment required; and
- (f) Services that will not be provided directly, but will instead be provided through contract.

(2) Refer to WAC 388-97-400(3), if the proposed project is not extensive enough to require professional architectural or engineering services.

(3) Be drawn to scale and include:

(a) A site plan showing streets, entrance ways, drive-ways, parking, design statements for adequate water supply, sewage and disposal systems, space for the storage of recycled materials, and the arrangement of buildings on the site noting handicapped accessible parking and entrances;

(b) Floor plans showing existing and proposed arrangements within the building, including the fixed and major movable equipment; and

(c) Each room, space, and corridor identified by function and number.

(4) Include a general description of construction and materials, including interior finishes.

WAC 388-97-401 Final new construction documents.

(1) Construction must not start until at least two sets of final construction documents drawn to scale with complete specifications have been submitted to and approved by the department of health, construction review, in coordination with aging and adult services administration and the department of health, certificate of need.

(2) An architect or engineer licensed by the state of Washington must prepare, stamp, sign, and date the final construction documents.

(3) Construction documents that are changed after approval by the department of health, construction review, require resubmission before any construction on the proposed change is started.

(4) The construction of the facility must follow the final approved construction documents.

(5) These drawings and specifications must show complete details to be furnished to contractors for construction of the buildings, including:

- (a) Site plan;
- (b) Drawings of each floor of the building, including fixed equipment;
- (c) Elevations, sections, and construction details;
- (d) Schedule of floor, wall, and ceiling finishes, door and window sizes and types, and door finish hardware;
- (e) Mechanical and electrical systems;
- (f) Provision for noise, dust, smoke, and draft control, fire protection, safety and comfort of the residents if construction work takes place in or near occupied areas; and
- (g) Landscape plans and vegetation planting schedules for dementia care units.

(6) A reduced set of the final construction floor plans on eight and one half by eleven inch or eleven by seventeen inch sheets showing each room function and number must be submitted.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-401, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-402 Preinstallation submissions for new construction. The department of health, construction review, must receive and approve preinstallation submissions prior to installation. Preinstallation submissions may include any or all of the following:

- (1) Stamped shop drawings, hydraulic calculations, and equipment information sheets for fire sprinkler system(s);
- (2) Shop drawings, battery calculations, and equipment information sheets for fire detection and alarm systems;
- (3) Shop drawings and equipment information sheets for a kitchen hood and duct automatic fire extinguishing system;
- (4) Drawings and equipment information sheets for special egress control devices; and
- (5) Drawings and/or a finish schedule denoting areas to be carpeted with:
 - (a) A coding system identifying type of carpet in each area;
 - (b) A copy the manufacturer's specifications for each type of carpet; and
 - (c) A copy of a testing laboratory report of the radiant panel and smoke density tests for each type of carpet.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-402, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-403 New construction timelines. (1) Construction documents must be resubmitted for review as a new project according to current requirements if construction:

- (a) Has not started within one year from the date of approval; or
 - (b) Is not completed within two years from the date of approval.
- (2) To obtain an extension beyond two years, a written request must be submitted and approved thirty days prior to the end of the two-year period.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-403, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-405 Exemptions to new construction requirements. (1) The director of residential care services, aging and adult services administration, may grant exemptions to new construction requirements for:

- (a) Alterations when the applicant demonstrates the proposed alterations will serve to correct deficiencies or will upgrade the nursing home in order to better serve residents; and
- (b) Substitution of procedures, materials, or equipment for requirements specified in this chapter when such procedures, materials, or equipment have been demonstrated to the director's satisfaction to better serve residents.

(2) The nursing home must ensure requests for exemptions are in writing and include any necessary approvals from the local code enforcement authority and the state fire marshal.

(3) The nursing home must ensure all exemptions granted under the foregoing provisions are kept on file at the nursing home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-405, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-405, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

Heating, Ventilation, and Air Conditioning Systems in New Construction

WAC 388-97-470 Heating systems in new construction. The nursing home must ensure:

(1) The heating system is capable of maintaining a temperature of seventy-five degrees Fahrenheit for areas occupied by residents and seventy degrees Fahrenheit for nonresident areas;

(2) Resident rooms have individual temperature control, except in a dementia care unit controls may be covered, locked, or placed in an inconspicuous place;

(3) The following is insulated within the building:

(a) Pipes conducting hot water which are exposed to resident contact; and

(b) Air ducts and casings with outside surface temperatures below ambient dew point.

(4) Insulation on cold surfaces includes an exterior vapor barrier; and

(5) Electric resistant wall heat units are prohibited in new construction.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-470, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00; 94-19-041 (Order 3782), § 388-97-470, filed 9/15/94, effective 10/16/94.]

WAC 388-97-47010 Cooling systems in new construction. The nursing home must have:

(1) A mechanical cooling system capable of maintaining a temperature of seventy-five degrees Fahrenheit for areas occupied by residents; and

(2) A cooling system that has mechanical refrigeration equipment to provide summer air conditioning to resident areas, food preparation areas, laundry, medication rooms, and therapy areas by either a central system with distribution ducts or piping, or packaged room or zonal air conditioners.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-47010, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-47020 Ventilation systems in new construction. The nursing home must ensure:

(1) Ventilation of all rooms is designed to prevent objectionable odors, condensation, and direct drafts on the residents;

(2) All habitable space is mechanically ventilated including:

(a) Air-supply and air-exhaust systems;

(b) Installation of air-handling duct systems according to the requirements of the Uniform Mechanical Code and chapter 51-42 WAC;

(c) Corridors not used to supply air to, or exhaust air from, any room except that infiltration air from corridors may be used to ventilate bathrooms, toilet rooms, janitors' closets, and small electrical or telephone closets opening directly on corridors;

(d) Installation of supply registers and return air grilles at least three inches above the floor;

(e) Installation of exhaust grilles on or near the ceiling; and

(f) Outdoor air intakes located a minimum of twenty-five feet from the exhaust from any ventilating system, combustion equipment, or areas which may collect vehicular exhaust and other noxious fumes, and a minimum of ten feet from plumbing vents. The nursing home must locate the bottom of outdoor air intakes serving central systems a minimum of three feet above adjoining grade level or, if installed through the roof, three feet above the highest adjoining roof level.

^{1/} P=Positive N=Negative ±=Continuous directional control not required.

^{2/} Whether positive or negative, pressure must be a minimum of seventy cubic feet per minute (CFM).

^{3/} The volume of air may be reduced up to fifty percent in these areas during periods of nonuse. The soiled holding area of the general laundry must maintain its full ventilation capacity at all time.

(3) Minimum ventilation requirements. Meet the pressure relationship and ventilation rates per ASHRAE 95 HVAC Applications Chapter 7.11 Table 5 Pressure Relationships and Ventilation of Certain Areas of Nursing Homes. The nursing home must ensure:

(a) Exhaust hoods in food preparation areas comply with the Uniform Mechanical Code;

(b) All hoods over commercial type cooking ranges are equipped with fire extinguishing systems and heat actuated fan controls;

(c) Kitchen ventilation is adequate to provide comfortable working temperatures;

(d) Boiler rooms, elevator equipment rooms, laundry rooms, and any other heat-producing spaces are provided with sufficient outdoor air to maintain combustion rates of equipment and to limit temperatures at the ceiling to ninety-seven degrees Fahrenheit; and

(e) Individual toilet rooms and bathrooms are ventilated either by individual mechanical exhaust systems or by a central mechanical exhaust system.

(4) Individual exhaust systems.

(a) Where individual mechanical exhaust systems are used to exhaust individual toilet rooms or bathrooms, the individual ventilation fans are interconnected with room lighting to ensure ventilation while room is occupied. The ventilation fan must have a time delay shutoff to ensure that the exhaust continues for a minimum of five minutes after the light switch is turned off; and

(b) The volume of air removed from the space by exhaust ventilation is replaced directly or indirectly by an equal amount of tempered/conditioned air.

(5) Central exhaust systems. The nursing home must ensure:

(a) All fans serving central exhaust systems are located to prevent a positive pressure in the duct passing through an occupied area; and

(b) Fire and smoke dampers are located and installed in accordance with the Uniform Building Code chapter 51-40 WAC.

(6) Air filters.

(a) All central ventilation or air-conditioning systems are equipped with filters having efficiencies of at least eighty percent if the system supplies air to resident rooms, therapy areas, food preparation areas, or laundry areas;

(b) Central ventilation or air conditioning systems means any system serving more than a single room used by residents or by any group of rooms serving the same utility function (i.e., the laundry);

(c) Filter efficiency is warranted by the manufacturer and is based on atmospheric dust spot efficiency per ASHRAE Standard 52-76;

(d) The filter bed is located upstream of the air-conditioning equipment, unless a prefilter is employed. In which case, the prefilter is upstream of the equipment and the main filter bed may be located downstream; and

(e) The nursing home must ensure:

(i) Filter frames are durable and provide an airtight fit with the enclosing duct work. All joints between filter segments and enclosing duct work are gasketed or sealed;

(ii) All central air systems have a manometer installed across each filter bed with an alarm to signal high pressure differential; and

(iii) Humidifiers, if provided, are a steam type.

WAC 388-97-48020 Mixing valves or mixing faucets in new construction. The nursing home must provide each fixture, except toilet fixtures and special use fixtures, with hot and cold water through a mixing valve or mixing faucet.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-48020, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-48030 Spouts in new construction. The nursing home must ensure all lavatories and sinks in resident rooms, resident toilet rooms, and utility and medication areas have gooseneck spouts, without aerators in areas requiring infection control.

WAC 388-97-48040 Faucet controls in new construction. The nursing home must provide wrist blade, single-lever controls or their equivalent at all sinks and lavatories. The nursing home must:

(1) Provide at least four inch wrist blades and/or single-levers;

(2) Provide sufficient space for full open and closed operation; and

(3) Color-code and label faucet controls to indicate "hot" and "cold."

SUBCHAPTER III NURSING HOME LICENSE

Initial License Application

WAC 388-97-550 Initial nursing home license. (1) A complete nursing home license application must be:

(a) Submitted at least sixty days prior to the proposed effective date of the license on forms designated by the department;

(b) Signed by the proposed licensee or the proposed licensee's authorized representative;

(c) Notarized; and

(d) Reviewed by the department in accordance with this chapter.

(2) All information requested on the license application must be provided. At minimum, the nursing home license application will require the following information:

(a) The name and address of the proposed licensee, and any partner, officer, director, managerial employee, or owner of five percent or more of the proposed licensee;

(b) The names of the administrator, director of nursing services, and, if applicable, the management company;

(c) The specific location and the mailing address of the facility for which a license is sought;

(d) The number of beds to be licensed; and

(e) The name and address of all nursing homes that the proposed licensee or any partner, officer, director, managerial employee, or owner of five percent or more of the proposed licensee has been affiliated with in the past ten years.

(3) The proposed licensee must be:

(a) The individual or entity responsible for the daily operation of the nursing home;

(b) Denied the license if any individual or entity named in the application is found by the department to be unqualified.

(4) For initial licensure of a new nursing home, the proposed licensee must submit the annual license fee with the initial license application. The nonrefundable nursing home license fee is two hundred seventy-five dollars per bed per year.

(5) If any information submitted in the initial license application changes before the license is issued, the proposed licensee must submit a revised application containing the changed information.

(6) If a license application is pending for more than six months, the proposed licensee must submit a revised application containing current information about the proposed licensee or any other individuals or entities named in the application.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.050. 02-20-058, § 388-97-550, filed 9/27/02, effective 10/28/02. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-550, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

License Renewal

WAC 388-97-555 Nursing home license renewal. (1) All nursing home licenses must be renewed annually.

(2) License renewals must be:

(a) Submitted at least thirty days prior to the license's expiration date on forms designated by the department;

(2007 Ed.)

(b) Signed by the current licensee or the current licensee's authorized representative;

(c) Notarized; and

(d) Reviewed by the department in accordance with this chapter.

(3) The current licensee must provide all information on the license renewal form or other information requested by the department.

(4) The application for a nursing home license renewal must be:

(a) Made by the individual or entity currently licensed and responsible for the daily operation of the nursing home;

(b) Denied if any individual or entity named in the renewal application is found by the department to be unqualified.

(5) The nursing home license renewal fee must be submitted at the time of renewal. The nonrefundable nursing home license renewal fee is two hundred seventy-five dollars per bed per year.

(6) In unusual circumstances, the department may issue an interim nursing home license for a period not to exceed three months. The current licensee must submit the prorated nursing home license fee for the period covered by the interim license. The annual date of license renewal does not change when an interim license is issued.

(7) A change of nursing home ownership does not change the date of license renewal and fee payment.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.050, 02-20-058, § 388-97-555, filed 9/27/02, effective 10/28/02. Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620, 00-06-028, § 388-97-555, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

Department Review of License Applications and Appeals

WAC 388-97-560 Department review of initial nursing home license applications. (1) All initial nursing home license applications must be reviewed by the department under this chapter.

(2) The department will not begin review of an incomplete license application.

(3) The proposed licensee must respond to any department request for additional information within five working days.

(4) When the application is determined to be complete, the department will consider the proposed licensee or any partner, officer, director, managerial employee, or owner of five percent or more of the proposed licensee, separately and jointly, in its review. The department will review:

(a) The information contained in the application;

(b) Survey and complaint investigation findings in every facility each individual and entity named in the application has been affiliated with during the past ten years;

(c) Compliance history;

(d) Financial assessments;

(e) Actions against the proposed licensee (i.e., revocation, suspension, refusal to renew, etc.);

(f) All criminal convictions, and relevant civil or administrative actions or findings including, but not limited to, findings under 42 C.F.R. § 488.335, disciplinary findings, and findings of abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment; and

(g) Other relevant information.

(2007 Ed.)

(5) The department will notify the proposed licensee of the results of the review.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620, 00-06-028, § 388-97-560, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-565 Department review of nursing home license renewals. (1) All renewal license applications must be reviewed by the department under this chapter.

(2) The department will not begin review of an incomplete license renewal application.

(3) The current licensee must respond to any department request for additional information within five working days.

(4) When the application is determined to be complete, the department will review:

(a) The information contained in the application;

(b) Actions against the license (i.e., revocation, suspension, refusal to renew, etc.);

(c) All criminal convictions, and relevant civil or administrative actions or findings including, but not limited to, findings under 42 C.F.R. § 488.335, disciplinary findings, and findings of abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment; and

(d) Other relevant information.

(5) The department will notify the current licensee of the results of the review.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620, 02-14-063, § 388-97-565, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02; 00-06-028, § 388-97-565, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-570 Reasons for denial, suspension, modification, revocation of, or refusal to renew a nursing home license. (1) The department may deny, suspend, modify, revoke, or refuse to renew a nursing home license when the department finds the proposed or current licensee, or any partner, officer, director, managing employee, owner of five percent or more of the proposed or current licensee of the nursing home, owner of five percent or more of the assets of the nursing home, proposed or current administrator, or employee or individual providing nursing home care or services has:

(a) Failed or refused to comply with the:

(i) Requirements established by chapters 18.51, 74.42, or 74.46 RCW and regulations adopted under these chapters; or

(ii) Medicaid requirements of Title XIX of the Social Security Act and Medicaid regulations.

(b) A history of significant noncompliance with federal or state regulations in providing nursing home care;

(c) No credit history or a poor credit history;

(d) Engaged in the illegal use of drugs or the excessive use of alcohol or been convicted of "crimes relating to drugs" as defined in RCW 43.43.830;

(e) Unlawfully operated a nursing home, or long term care facility as defined in RCW 70.129.010, without a license or under a revoked or suspended license;

(f) Previously held a license to operate a hospital or any facility for the care of children or vulnerable adults, and that license has been revoked, or suspended, or the licensee did not seek renewal of the license following written notification of the licensing agency's initiation of revocation or suspension of the license;

(g) Obtained or attempted to obtain a license by fraudulent means or misrepresentation;

(h) Permitted, aided, or abetted the commission of any illegal act on the nursing home premises;

(i) Been convicted of a felony or other crime that would be prohibited under RCW 74.39A.050(8), if it reasonably relates to the competency of the individual to own or operate a nursing home;

(j) Failed to:

(i) Provide any authorization, documentation, or information the department requires in order to verify information contained in the application;

(ii) Meet financial obligations as the obligations fall due in the normal course of business;

(iii) Verify additional information the department determines relevant to the application;

(iv) Report abandonment, abuse, neglect or financial exploitation in violation of chapter 74.34 RCW; or in the case of a skilled nursing facility or nursing facilities, failure to report as required by 42 C.F.R. 483.13; or

(v) Pay a civil fine the department assesses under this chapter within ten days after assessment becomes final.

(k) Been certified pursuant to RCW 74.20A.320 as a person who is not in compliance with a child support order (license suspension only);

(l) Knowingly or with reason to know makes a false statement of a material fact in the application for a license or license renewal, in attached data, or in matters under department investigation;

(m) Refused to allow department representatives or agents to inspect required books, records, and files or portions of the nursing home premises;

(n) Willfully prevented, interfered with, or attempted to impede the work of authorized department representatives in the:

(i) Lawful enforcement of provisions under this chapter or chapters 18.51 or 74.42 RCW; or

(ii) Preservation of evidence of violations of provisions under this chapter or chapters 18.51 or 74.42 RCW.

(o) Retaliated against a resident or employee initiating or participating in proceedings specified under RCW 18.51.220; or

(p) Discriminated against Medicaid recipients as prohibited under RCW 74.42.055.

(2) In determining whether there is a history of significant noncompliance with federal or state regulations under subsection (1)(b), the department may, at a minimum, consider:

(a) Whether the violation resulted in a significant harm or a serious and immediate threat to the health, safety, or welfare of any resident;

(b) Whether the proposed or current licensee promptly investigated the circumstances surrounding any violation and took steps to correct and prevent a recurrence of a violation;

(c) The history of surveys and complaint investigation findings and any resulting enforcement actions;

(d) Repeated failure to comply with regulations;

(e) Inability to attain compliance with cited deficiencies within a reasonable period of time; and

(f) The number of violations relative to the number of facilities the proposed or current licensee, or any partner, officer, director, managing employee, employee or individual providing nursing home care or services has been affiliated within the past ten years, or owner of five percent or more of the proposed or current licensee or of the assets of the nursing home.

(3) The department must deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew a proposed or current licensee's nursing home license if the proposed or current licensee or any partner, officer, director, managing employee, owner of five percent or more of the proposed or current licensee of the nursing home or owner of five percent or more of the assets of the nursing home, proposed or current administrator, or employee or individual providing nursing home care or services has been:

(a) Convicted of a "crime against children or other persons" as defined under RCW 43.43.830;

(b) Convicted of a "crime relating to financial exploitation" as defined under RCW 43.43.830;

(c) Found by a court in a criminal proceeding or a protection proceeding under chapter 74.34 RCW, or any comparable state or federal law, to have abandoned, abused, neglected or financially exploited a vulnerable adult;

(d) Found in any final decision issued by a disciplinary board to have sexually or physically abused or exploited any minor or an individual with a developmental disability or to have abused, neglected, abandoned, or financially exploited any vulnerable adult;

(e) Found in any dependency action to have sexually assaulted or exploited any minor or to have physically abused any minor;

(f) Found by a court in a domestic relations proceeding under Title 26 RCW, or any comparable state or federal law, to have sexually abused or exploited any minor or to have physically abused any minor; or

(g) Found to have abused, neglected, abandoned or financially exploited or mistreated residents or misappropriated their property, and that finding has been entered on a nursing assistant registry.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620, 02-23-030, § 388-97-570, filed 11/12/02, effective 12/13/02; 02-14-063, § 388-97-570, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02; 00-06-028, § 388-97-570, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-575 Appeal of the department's licensing decision. A proposed or current licensee contesting a department licensing decision must file a written request for an administrative hearing within twenty days of receipt of the decision.

The appeals process and requirements are set forth in WAC 388-97-625.

Management Agreements and Changes of Ownership

WAC 388-97-580 Management agreements. (1) The licensee is responsible for the daily operations of the nursing home.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "Management agreement," means a written, executed, agreement between the licensee and another individual or entity regarding the provision of certain services in a nursing home; and

(b) "Manager" refers to the individual or entity providing services under a management agreement.

(3) The licensee may not give the manager responsibilities that are so extensive that the licensee is relieved of responsibility for the daily operations and provisions of services of the facility. If the licensee does so, then the department must determine that a change of ownership has occurred.

(4) The proposed licensee or the current licensee must notify the residents and their representatives sixty days before entering into a management agreement.

(5) The department must receive a written management agreement, including an organizational chart showing the relationship between the proposed or current licensee, management company, and all related organizations:

(a) Sixty days before:

(i) The proposed change of ownership date;

(ii) The initial licensure date; or

(iii) The effective date of the management agreement; or

(b) Thirty days before the effective date of any amendment to an existing management agreement.

(6) Management agreements, at minimum must:

(a) Create a principal/agent relationship between the licensee and the manager;

(b) Describe the responsibilities of the licensee and manager, including items, services, and activities to be provided;

(c) Require the licensee's governing body, board of directors, or similar authority to appoint the facility administrator;

(d) Provide for maintenance and retention of all records as applicable according to rules and regulations;

(e) Allow unlimited access by the department to documentation and records according to applicable laws or regulations;

(f) Require the licensee to participate in monthly oversight meetings and quarterly on-site visits to the facility;

(g) Require the manager to immediately send copies of surveys and notices of noncompliance to the licensee;

(h) State that the licensee is responsible for ensuring all licenses, certifications, and accreditations are obtained and maintained;

(i) State that the manager and licensee will review the management agreement annually and notify the department of changes according to applicable regulations;

(j) Acknowledge that the licensee is the party responsible for meeting state and federal licensing and certification requirements;

(k) Require the licensee to maintain ultimate responsibility over personnel issues relating to the operation of the nursing home and care of the residents, including but not limited to, staffing plans, orientation, and training;

(l) Require that, even if day-to-day management of the trust funds are delegated, the licensee:

(i) Retains all fiduciary and custodial responsibility for funds that have been deposited with the nursing home by the resident; and

(ii) Is directly accountable to the residents for such funds.

(m) Provide that if any responsibilities for the day-to-day management of the resident trust fund are delegated to the manager, then the manager must:

(i) Provide the licensee with a monthly accounting of the resident funds; and

(ii) Meet all legal requirements related to holding, and accounting for, resident trust funds; and

(n) State that the manager will not represent itself or give the appearance it is the licensee.

(7) Upon receipt of a proposed management agreement, the department may require:

(a) The licensee or manager to provide additional information or clarification;

(b) Any changes necessary to:

(i) Bring the management agreement into compliance with this section; and

(ii) Ensure that the licensee has not been relieved of the responsibility for the daily operations of the facility; and

(c) More frequent contact between the licensee and manager under subsection (6)(f).

(8) The licensee and manager must act in accordance with the terms of the management agreements. If the department determines that they are not, then the department may take action deemed appropriate.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620, 02-14-063, § 388-97-580, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02; 00-06-028, § 388-97-580, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-585 Change of ownership. (1) A change of ownership occurs when there is a substitution, elimination, or withdrawal of the licensee or a substitution of control of the licensee. "Control," as used in this section, means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct the management, operation, and policies of the licensee, whether through ownership, voting control, by agreement, by contract or otherwise. Events which constitute a change of ownership include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) The form of legal organization of the licensee is changed (e.g., a sole proprietor forms a partnership or corporation);

(b) The licensee transfers ownership of the nursing home business enterprise to another party regardless of whether ownership of some or all of the real property and/or personal property assets of the facility is also transferred;

(c) Dissolution or consolidation of the entity;

(d) Merger unless the licensee survives the merger and there is not a change in control of the licensee;

(e) If, during any continuous twenty-four month period, fifty percent or more of the entity is transferred, whether by a single transaction or multiple transactions, to:

(i) A different party (e.g., new or former shareholders); or

(ii) An individual or entity that had less than a five percent ownership interest in the nursing home at the time of the first transaction; or

(f) Any other event or combination of events that the department determines results in a:

(i) Substitution, elimination, or withdrawal of the licensee; or

(ii) Substitution of control of the licensee responsible for the daily operational decisions of the nursing home.

(2) Ownership does not change when the following, without more, occur:

(a) A party contracts with the licensee to manage the nursing home enterprise in accordance with the requirements of WAC 388-97-580; or

(b) The real property or personal property assets of the nursing home are sold or leased, or a lease of the real property or personal property assets is terminated, as long as there is not a substitution or substitution of control of the licensee.

(3) When a change of ownership is contemplated, the current licensee must notify the department and all residents and their representatives at least sixty days prior to the proposed date of transfer. The notice must be in writing and contain the following information as specified in RCW 18.51.530:

(a) Name of the proposed licensee;

(b) Name of the managing entity;

(c) Names, addresses, and telephone numbers of department personnel to whom comments regarding the change may be directed;

(d) Names of all officers and the registered agent in the state of Washington if proposed licensee is a corporation; and

(e) Names of all general partners if proposed licensee is a partnership.

(4) The proposed licensee must comply with license application requirements. The operation or ownership of a nursing home must not be transferred until the proposed licensee has been issued a license to operate the nursing home.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620. 02-14-063, § 388-97-585, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02; 00-06-028, § 388-97-585, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

Licensed Bed Capacity, Relocation of Residents and License Relinquishment

WAC 388-97-590 Licensed bed capacity. A nursing home must not be licensed for a capacity that exceeds the number of beds permitted under:

(1) This chapter;

(2) Chapter 70.38 RCW and regulations thereunder; or

(3) Applicable local zoning, building or other such regulations.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070 and 74.42.620. 00-06-028, § 388-97-590, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-595 Relocation of residents. (1) In the event of license revocation or suspension, decertification, or other emergency closures the department must:

(a) Notify residents and, when appropriate, resident representatives of the action;

(b) Assist with residents' relocation and specify possible alternative living choices and locations; and

(c) The nursing home will assist the residents to the extent it is directed to do so by the department.

(2) When a resident's relocation occurs due to a nursing home's voluntary closure, or voluntary termination of its Medicare or Medicaid contract or both, the nursing home must:

(a) Notify the department and all residents and resident representatives in accordance with WAC 388-97-162; and

(b) Provide appropriate discharge planning and coordination for all residents including a plan to the department for safe and orderly transfer or discharge of residents from the nursing home.

(3) The department may provide residents assistance with relocation.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620. 02-14-063, § 388-97-595, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02; 00-06-028, § 388-97-595, filed 2/24/00, effective 3/26/00.]

WAC 388-97-600 License relinquishment. (1) A nursing home licensee must voluntarily relinquish its license when:

(a) The nursing home ceases to do business as a nursing home; and

(b) Within twenty-four hours after the last resident is discharged from the facility.

(2) The license must be returned to the department.

(3) If a nursing home licensee fails to voluntarily relinquish its license, the department will revoke the license.

SUBCHAPTER IV NURSING HOME LICENSURE PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION

WAC 388-97-605 Inspections and deficiency citation report. (1) The department may inspect nursing homes at any time in order to determine compliance with the requirements of chapters 18.51 or 74.42 RCW and this chapter. Types of state inspections in nursing homes include preoccupancy, licensing, revisit, and complaint investigation. In the case of a Medicaid or Medicare contractor, or both, the department may also inspect Medicare and Medicaid certified nursing homes to determine compliance with the requirements of Title XVIII and/or XIX of the Social Security Act and federal Medicare and Medicaid regulations.

(2) The department will provide to the nursing home written documentation (notice) of the nursing home's deficiency(ies), the requirement that the deficiency(ies) violates, and the reasons for the determination of noncompliance with the requirements (RCW 18.51.091).

(3) The department may revisit the nursing home to confirm that corrections of deficiencies has been made. Revisits will be made:

(a) In accordance with RCW 74.39A.060 (5)(e);

(b) In the case of a Medicare or Medicaid contractor, or both, in accordance with the requirements of Title XVIII or XIX, or both of the Social Security Act and federal Medicare and Medicaid regulations; and

(c) At the department's discretion.

(4) The licensee or nursing home must:

(a) Ensure that department staff have access to the nursing home residents, staff and all resident records; and

(b) Not willfully interfere or fail to cooperate with department staff in the performance of official duties. Examples of willful interference or failure to cooperate include, but are not limited to, not allowing department staff to talk to residents or staff in private or not allowing department staff access to resident records.

WAC 388-97-610 Plan of correction. (1) The licensee or nursing home must, within ten calendar days of notification of the cited deficiencies prepare, sign, date and provide to the department a detailed written plan of correction. Such plan of correction will provide notification to the department of the date by which the nursing home will complete the correction of cited deficiencies. The plan of correction must be completed regardless of whether the licensee requests an informal department review in accordance in WAC 388-97-620.

(2) A plan of correction is not required for deficiencies at a severity level 1/isolated scope as described in WAC 388-97-640, unless specifically requested by the department.

(3) In the case of actual or imminent threat to resident health or safety/immediate jeopardy (severity level 4 as described in WAC 388-97-640), the department may require the licensee or nursing home to submit a document alleging that the imminent threat has been removed within a time frame specified by the department. The document must specify the steps the nursing home has taken or will take to correct the imminent harm. An allegation that the imminent harm has been removed does not substitute for the plan of correction as required by subsection (1) of this section but it will become a part of the completed plan of correction.

WAC 388-97-615 Acceptable and unacceptable plans of correction. (1) A plan of correction must:

(a) Address how corrective action will be accomplished for those residents found to have been affected by the deficient practice;

(b) Address how the nursing home will identify other residents having the potential to be affected by the same deficient practice;

(c) Address what measures will be put into place or systemic changes made to ensure that the deficient practice will not recur;

(d) Indicate how the nursing home plans to monitor its performance to make sure that solutions are sustained, including how the plan of correction will be integrated into the nursing home's quality assurance system;

(e) Give the title of the person who is responsible for assuring lasting correction; and

(f) Give the date by which the correction will be made.

(2) The department will review the nursing home's plan of correction to determine whether it is acceptable.

(3) When deficiencies involve nursing home alterations, physical plant plan development, construction review, or other circumstances where extended time to complete correction may be required, the department's designated local aging and adult services administration (AASA) field office or other department designee may accept a plan of correction as evidence of substantial compliance under the following circumstances:

(2007 Ed.)

(a) The plan of correction must include the steps that the nursing home needs to take, the time schedule for completion of the steps, and concrete evidence that the plan will be carried out as scheduled; and

(b) The nursing home must submit progress reports and/or updated plans to the department in accordance with a schedule specified by department.

(c) The department's acceptance of a plan of correction is solely at the department's discretion and does not rule out the imposition of optional remedies.

WAC 388-97-620 Informal department review. (1) For Medicare or Medicaid certified nursing homes, the informal department review process described in this section is the only opportunity for the nursing home to dispute the federal deficiency citation report, unless a federal sanction is imposed.

(2) The nursing home licensee has the right to an informal department review of disputed state or federal citations, or both.

(3) A licensee must make a written request for an informal department review within ten calendar days of receipt of the department's written deficiency citation(s) report. The request must be directed to the department's designated local aging and adult services administration (AASA) office and must identify the deficiencies that are being disputed.

(4) At the informal department review, the licensee or nursing home may provide documentation and verbal explanations related to the disputed federal or state deficiencies, or both.

(5) When modifications or deletions are made to the disputed federal or state deficiency citations, or both, the licensee or nursing home must modify or delete the relevant portions of the plan of correction within five days of receipt of the modified or deleted deficiency(ies). The licensee or nursing home may request from the department a clean copy of the revised deficiency citation report.

(6) If the licensee or nursing home is unwilling to provide the modified plan of correction, the department may impose a per day civil fine for failure to return the modified deficiency citation report to the department in accordance with this subsection.

WAC 388-97-625 Notice and appeal rights. (1) The notification and hearing rights in this section apply to any appealable action taken by the department under chapters 18.51, 74.42 and 74.39A RCW. Notification and appeals requirements for resident protection program findings are described in WAC 388-97-077.

(2) The following actions may be appealed:

(a) Imposition of a penalty under RCW 18.51.060 or 74.42.580;

(b) An action by the department such as a denial of a license under RCW 18.51.054, a license suspension under RCW 18.51.067 or a condition on a license under RCW 74.39A.050; or

(c) Deficiencies cited on the state survey report.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 553]

(3) The appeal process will be governed by the Administrative Procedure Act (chapter 34.05 RCW), RCW 18.51.065 and 74.42.580, chapter 388-02 WAC and this chapter. If any provision in this chapter conflicts with chapter 388-02 WAC, the provision of this chapter will govern.

(4) The purpose of an administrative hearing will be to review actions taken by the department under chapters 18.51, 74.42 or 74.39A RCW, and under this chapter.

(5) The applicant, licensee or nursing home must file a request for an administrative hearing with the office of administrative hearings within twenty days of receipt of written notification of the department's action as defined in subsection (2) of this section. Further information about administrative hearings is available in chapter 388-02 WAC and at the office of administrative hearing (OAH) web site: www.oah.wa.gov.

(6) Orders of the department imposing a stop placement, license suspension, emergency closure emergency transfer of residents, temporary management or conditions on a license are effective immediately upon verbal or written notice and must remain in effect until they are rescinded by the department or through the state administrative appeals process.

(7) Deficiencies cited on the federal survey report may not be appealed. If a federal remedy is imposed, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services will notify the nursing facility of appeal rights under the federal administrative appeals process.

WAC 388-97-630 Remedies. Mandatory Remedies

(1) In accordance with RCW 18.51.060 (5)(a), the department must impose a stop placement order when the department determines that the nursing home is not in substantial compliance with applicable laws or regulations and the cited deficiency(ies):

- (a) Jeopardize the health and safety of the residents; or
- (b) Seriously limit the nursing home's capacity to provide adequate care.

(2) When required by RCW 18.51.060(3), the department must deny payment to a nursing home that is certified to provide Medicaid services for any Medicaid-eligible individual admitted to the nursing home. Nursing homes that are certified to provide Medicare services or both Medicare and Medicaid services may be subject to a federal denial of payment for new admissions, in accordance with federal law.

(3) The department must deny, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew a proposed or current licensee's nursing home license in accordance with WAC 388-97-570(3).

Optional Remedies

(4) When the department determines that a licensee has failed or refused to comply with the requirements under chapter 18.51, 74.39A or 74.42 RCW, or this chapter; or a Medicaid contractor has failed or refused to comply with Medicaid requirements of Title XIX of the Social Security Act or Medicaid regulations, the department may impose any or all of the following optional remedies:

- (a) Stop placement;
- (b) Immediate closure of a nursing home, emergency transfer of residents or both;
- (c) Civil fines;

- (d) Appoint temporary management;
- (e) Petition the court for appointment of a receiver in accordance with RCW 18.51.410;
- (f) License denial, revocation, suspension or nonrenewal;
- (g) Denial of payment for new Medicaid admissions;
- (h) Termination of the Medicaid provider agreement (contract);
- (i) Department on-site monitoring as defined under WAC 388-97-005; and
- (j) Reasonable conditions on a license as authorized by chapter 74.39A RCW. Examples of conditions on a license include but are not limited to training related to the deficiency(ies); consultation in order to write an acceptable plan of correction; demonstration of ability to meet financial obligations necessary to continue operation.

WAC 388-97-635 Criteria for imposing optional remedies. (1) The criteria set forth in this section implement the requirements under RCW 18.51.060(8). The criteria do not replace the standards for imposition of mandatory remedies under RCW 18.51.060 (3) and (5), or for the imposition of mandatory remedies in accordance with WAC 388-97-630 (1), (2) and (3).

(2) The department must consider the imposition of one or more optional remedy(ies) when the nursing home has:

- (a) A history of being unable to sustain compliance;
- (b) One or more deficiencies on one inspection at severity level 2 or higher as described in WAC 388-97-640;
- (c) Been unable to provide an acceptable plan of correction after receiving assistance from the department about necessary revisions;
- (d) One or more deficiencies cited under general administration and/or nursing services;
- (e) One or more deficiencies related to retaliation against a resident or an employee for whistle blower activity under RCW 18.51.220, 74.34.180 or 74.39A.060 and WAC 388-97-203;
- (f) One or more deficiencies related to discrimination against a Medicare or Medicaid client under RCW 74.42.055, and Titles XVIII and XIX of the Social Security Act and Medicare and Medicaid regulations; or
- (g) Willfully interfered with the performance of official duties by a long-term care ombudsman.

(3) The department, in its sole discretion, may consider other relevant factors when determining what optional remedy or remedies to impose in particular circumstances.

(4) When the department imposes an optional remedy or remedies, the department will select more severe penalties for nursing homes that have deficiency(ies) that are:

- (a) Uncorrected upon revisit;
- (b) Recurring (repeated);
- (c) Pervasive; or
- (d) Present a threat to the health, safety, or welfare of the residents.

(5) The department will consider the severity and scope of cited deficiencies in accordance with WAC 388-97-640 when selecting optional remedy(ies). Such consideration will not limit the department's discretion to impose a remedy for a deficiency at a low level severity and scope.

WAC 388-97-640 Severity and scope of deficiencies.

(1) "Severity of a deficiency" means the seriousness of the deficiency. Factors the department will consider when determining the severity of a deficiency may include, but are not limited to:

(a) Whether harm to the resident has occurred, or could occur, including but not limited to a violation of resident's rights;

(b) The impact of the actual or potential harm on the resident; and

(c) The degree to which the nursing home failed to meet the resident's highest practicable physical, mental, and psychosocial well-being as defined in WAC 388-97-005.

(2) Severity levels

(a) Severity level 4—Imminent harm or immediate jeopardy

Level 4 means that a resident(s)' health or safety is imminently threatened or immediately jeopardized as a result of deficient nursing home practice. This level includes actual harm or potential harm, or both, to resident(s)' health or safety that has had or could have a severe negative outcome or critical impact on resident's well-being, including death or severe injury. Severity Level 4 requires immediate corrective action to protect the health and safety of resident(s).

(b) Severity level 3—Actual harm

Level 3 means that actual harm has occurred to resident(s) as the result of deficient nursing home practice.

(i) "Serious harm" is harm that results in a negative outcome that significantly compromises the resident(s)' ability to maintain and/or reach the highest practicable physical, mental and psychosocial well-being. Serious harm does not constitute imminent danger/immediate jeopardy (Severity Level 4).

(ii) "Moderate harm" is harm that results in a negative outcome that more than slightly but less than significantly compromises the resident(s)' ability to maintain and/or reach the highest practicable physical, mental and psychosocial well-being.

(iii) "Minimal harm" is harm that results in a negative outcome that to a small degree compromises the resident(s)' ability to maintain and/or reach the highest practicable physical, mental well-being.

(c) Severity level 2—Potential for harm

Level 2, "potential for harm" means that if the deficient nursing home practice is not corrected, resident(s) may suffer actual harm.

(d) Severity level 1—No harm or minimal impact

Level 1 means a deficient nursing home practice that does not compromise the resident(s)' ability to maintain or reach, or both, the highest practicable physical, mental and psychosocial well-being. Deficiencies at level 1 are those that have no direct or potential for no more than minimal impact on the resident. Examples include certain structure deficiencies, certain physical environment deficiencies and process deficiencies.

(3) "Scope of a deficiency" means the frequency, incidence, or extent of the occurrence of the deficiency.

(4) Scope categories

(a) "Isolated or limited scope" means a relatively few number of residents have been affected or have the potential to be affected, by the deficient nursing home practice.

(b) "Moderate or pattern scope" scope means more than an isolated and less than a widespread number of residents have been affected, or have the potential to be affected by the deficient nursing home practice.

(c) "Widespread" or "systemic scope" means most or all of the residents are affected or have the potential to be affected, by the deficient nursing home practice.

(5) Determination of scope will be made by the department in its sole discretion. Factors the department will consider may include:

(a) Size of the nursing home;

(b) Size of the sample;

(c) Number and location of affected residents;

(d) Whether the deficiency applies to all or a subset of the residents;

(e) Other factors relevant to the particular circumstances.

WAC 388-97-645 Separate deficiencies—Separate remedies. (1) Each deficiency cited by the department for noncompliance with a statute or regulation is a separate deficiency subject to the assessment of a separate remedy.

(2) Each day upon which the same deficiency occurs is a separate deficiency subject to the assessment of a separate remedy.

WAC 388-97-650 Stop placement. (1) The department must impose a stop placement order when required by RCW 18.51.060(5) and WAC 388-97-630(1) and may impose a stop placement order as an optional remedy in accordance with WAC 388-97-635. The department's stop placement order becomes effective upon verbal or written notice.

(2) The nursing home has the right to an informal department review to refute the federal or state deficiencies, or both, cited as the basis for the stop placement and must request such review in accordance with WAC 388-97-620(3).

(3) The department will not delay or suspend a stop placement order because the nursing home requests an administrative hearing or informal department review.

(4) The stop placement order must remain in effect until:

(a) The department terminates the stop placement order;

or

(b) The stop placement order is terminated by a final agency order following appeal conducted in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW.

(5) The department must terminate the stop placement when:

(a) The nursing home states in writing that the deficiencies necessitating the stop placement action have been corrected; and

(b) Within fifteen working days of the nursing home's notification, department staff confirm by on-site revisit of the nursing home that:

(i) The deficiencies that necessitated the stop placement action have been corrected; and

(ii) The nursing home exhibits the capacity to maintain adequate care and services and correction of deficiencies.

(6) After lifting the stop placement, the department may continue to perform on site monitoring to verify that the nursing home has maintained correction of deficiencies.

(7) While a stop placement order is in effect, the department may approve a readmission to the nursing home from the hospital in accordance with RCW 18.51.060 (5)(b) and department guidelines for readmission decisions.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620, 02-23-030, § 388-97-650, filed 11/12/02, effective 12/13/02; 02-14-063, § 388-97-650, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02.]

WAC 388-97-655 Amount of civil fine. (1) Except as otherwise provided in statute, the range for a:

(a) Per day civil fine is fifty dollars to three thousand dollars; and

(b) Per instance civil fine is one thousand to three thousand dollars.

(2) In the event of continued noncompliance, nothing in this section must prevent the department from increasing a civil fine up to the maximum amount allowed by law.

WAC 388-97-660 Civil fine accrual and due dates and interest. (1) Accrual of a per day civil fine begins on the first date the department verifies that the nursing home has or had a specific deficiency. Accrual of the per day civil fine will end on the date the department determines the nursing home corrected the deficiency.

(2) A per instance fine may be assessed for a deficiency, regardless of whether or not the deficiency had been corrected by the time the department first identified it.

(3) Civil fine(s) are due twenty days after the nursing home is notified of the civil fine(s) if the nursing home does not request a hearing.

(4) If the nursing home requests a hearing, the civil fine(s) including interest, if any, is due twenty days after:

(a) A hearing decision ordering payment of the fine(s) becomes final in accordance with chapter 388-02 WAC;

(b) The appeal is withdrawn;

(c) A settlement agreement and order of dismissal is entered, unless otherwise specified in the agreement; or

(d) An order of dismissal is entered.

(5) Interest on the civil fine(s) begins to accrue at a rate of one percent per month, thirty days after the nursing home is notified of the fine, unless a settlement agreement includes other provisions for payment of interest. If the amount of the civil fine is reduced following an appeal, interest on the reduced civil fine(s) accrues from thirty days after the nursing home was notified of the original civil fine(s).

(6) When a nursing home fails to pay a civil fine when due under this chapter, the department may:

(a) Withhold an amount equal to the fine plus interest, if any, from the nursing home's Medicaid payment;

(b) Impose an additional fine; or

(c) Suspend the nursing home license under WAC 388-97-570(1). Such license suspension must continue until the fine is paid.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620, 02-14-063, § 388-97-660, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02.]

WAC 388-97-665 Civil penalty fund. (1) The department must deposit civil penalties collected under chapter 18.51 or 74.42 RCW into a special fund administered by the department to be applied to the protection of the health or property of residents of nursing homes found to be deficient.

(2) The funds must be administered by the department according to department procedures. Uses of the fund include, but are not limited to:

(a) Payment for the costs of relocation of residents to other facilities;

(b) Payment to maintain operation of a nursing home pending correction of deficiencies or closure; and

(c) Reimbursement of residents for personal funds or property lost when the resident's personal funds or property cannot be recovered from the nursing home or third party insurer.

WAC 388-97-670 Temporary management. (1) When the department appoints a temporary manager, the department must order the licensee to:

(a) Cease operating the nursing home; and

(b) Immediately turn over to the temporary manager possession and control of the nursing home including, but not limited to, all patient care records, financial records, and other records necessary for continued operation of the nursing home while temporary management is in effect.

(2) The temporary manager will have authority to temporarily relocate some or all residents if the:

(a) Temporary manager determines the resident's health, security, or welfare is jeopardized; and

(b) Department concurs with the temporary manager's determination that relocation is necessary.

(3) The department's authority to order temporary management is discretionary in all cases.

WAC 388-97-675 Receivership. (1) Receivership is authorized under RCW 18.51.400 through [18.51.]520 and the following regulations.

(2) After receivership is established, the department may recommend to the court that all residents be relocated and the nursing home closed when:

(a) Problems exist in the physical condition of the premises which cannot be corrected in an economically prudent manner; or

(b) The department determines the former licensee or owner:

(i) Is unwilling or unable to manage the nursing home in a manner ensuring residents' health, safety, and welfare; and

(ii) Has not entered into an enforceable agreement to sell the nursing home within three months of the court's decision to grant receivership.

WAC 388-97-680 Temporary managers and receivers—Application. (1) The department may recruit individuals, partnerships, corporations and other entities interested in serving as a temporary manager or receiver of a nursing home.

(2) Individuals, partnerships, corporations, or other entities interested in being appointed as a temporary manager or receiver must complete and submit to the department the required application on department forms.

(3) Individuals, partnerships, corporations, or other entities with experience in providing long-term health care and a history of satisfactory nursing home operation may submit an application to the department at any time. Applicants will be subject to the criteria established for licensees found in WAC 388-97-570, except the department may waive the requirement that it have at least sixty days to review the application.

(4) The department must not appoint or recommend the appointment of a person (including partnership, corporation or other entity) to be a temporary manager or receiver if that person:

(a) Is the licensee, administrator, or partner, officer, director, managing employee, or owner of five percent or more of the licensee of the nursing home subject to temporary management or receivership;

(b) Is affiliated with the nursing home subject to temporary management or receivership; or

(c) Has owned or operated a nursing home ordered into temporary management or receivership in any state.

WAC 388-97-685 Temporary managers and receivers—Considerations before appointment. (1) The department's authority to appoint a temporary manager or to recommend appointment of a specific individual or entity to act as receiver is discretionary in all cases.

(2) The department, in appointing a temporary manager or recommending appointment of a receiver, may consider one or more of the following factors:

(a) Potential temporary manager's or receiver's willingness to serve as a temporary manager or receiver for the nursing home in question;

(b) Amount and quality of the potential temporary manager's or receiver's experience in long-term care;

(c) Quality of care, as determined by prior survey reports, provided under the potential temporary manager's or the potential receiver's supervision, management or operation;

(2007 Ed.)

(d) Potential temporary manager's or receiver's prior performance as a temporary manager or receiver;

(e) How soon the potential temporary manager or receiver is available to act as a temporary manager or receiver;

(f) Potential temporary manager's or receiver's familiarity and past compliance with Washington state and federal regulations applicable to nursing homes.

WAC 388-97-690 Duties and powers of temporary manager and receiver. (1) The temporary manager or receiver must protect the health, security and welfare of the residents for the duration of the temporary management or receivership. The temporary manager or receiver must perform all acts reasonably necessary to ensure residents' needs are met. Such acts may include, but are not limited to:

(a) For receivers, the powers in RCW 18.51.490;

(b) Correcting cited deficiencies;

(c) Hiring, directing, and managing all consultants and employees and discharging them for just cause, discharging the administrator of the nursing home, recognizing collective bargaining agreement, and settling labor disputes;

(d) Receiving and expending in a prudent and business-like manner all current revenues of the home provided priority will be given to debts and expenditures directly related to providing care and meeting residents' needs;

(e) Making necessary purchases, repairs, and replacements, provided such expenditures in excess of five thousand dollars are approved by the department, or in the case of a receiver, approved by court;

(f) Entering into contracts necessary for the operation of the nursing home, provided that, the court must approve contracts extending beyond the period of receivership;

(g) Preparing all department-required reports;

(h) Overseeing facility closure, when appropriate;

(i) Planning required relocation with residents and residents' legal representative, family, or significant others in conjunction with home and community services division field staff;

(j) Meeting regularly with and informing staff, residents, and residents' families or significant others of:

(i) Plans for correcting the cited deficiencies;

(ii) Progress achieved in correction of deficiencies;

(iii) Plans for facility closure and relocation; and

(iv) Plans for continued operation of the nursing home, including training of staff.

(2) The temporary manager or receiver must make a detailed monthly accounting of all expenditures and liabilities to the department and to the owner of the nursing home, and to the court when required.

(3) The receiver must consult the court in cases of extraordinary or questionable debts incurred prior to the receiver's appointment and will not have the power to close the home or sell any of the nursing home's assets without prior court approval.

(4) The temporary manager or receiver must comply with all applicable state and federal laws and regulations. If the nursing home is certified and is providing care to Medicaid clients, the temporary manager or receiver must become the Medicaid contractor for the duration of the temporary management or receivership period.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 557]

[Statutory Authority: RCW 18.51.070, 74.42.620. 02-14-063, § 388-97-690, filed 6/27/02, effective 7/28/02.]

WAC 388-97-695 Termination of temporary management and receivership. (1) The department will terminate temporary management:

(a) After three months unless good cause is shown to continue the temporary management. Good cause for continuing the temporary management exists when returning the nursing home to its former licensee would subject residents to a threat to health, safety, or welfare;

(b) When all residents are transferred and the nursing home is closed;

(c) When deficiencies threatening residents' health, safety, or welfare are eliminated and the former licensee agrees to department-specified conditions regarding the continued facility operation; or

(d) When a new licensee assumes control of the nursing home.

(2) The department may appoint an alternate temporary manager:

(a) When the temporary manager is no longer willing to serve as a temporary manager;

(b) If a temporary manager is not making acceptable progress in correcting the nursing home deficiencies or in closing the nursing home; or

(c) If the department determines the temporary manager is not operating the nursing home in a financially responsible manner.

(3) The receivership will terminate in accordance with RCW 18.51.450 and 18.51.460.

(4) The department may recommend to the court an alternate receiver be appointed:

(a) When the receiver is no longer willing to serve as a receiver; or

(b) If a receiver is not making acceptable progress in correcting the deficiencies in the nursing home.

PURPOSE

WAC 388-101-1010 What is the purpose of this chapter? (1) This chapter establishes standards for the department of social and health services (DSHS) to provide, or contract to provide, individualized community residential services to clients who:

- (a) Are eligible to receive services by the division of developmental disabilities (DDD); and
 - (b) Receive support from certified service providers.
- (2) Service providers support eligible clients to enable them to:
- (a) Enjoy all rights and privileges under the Constitution and laws of the United States and the state of Washington; and
 - (b) Participate in community life and have control of their environment to the greatest extent possible.
- (3) The authority for this chapter is Title 71A RCW.

DEFINITIONS

WAC 388-101-1020 What definitions apply to this chapter? "Agency" refers to an entity interested in becoming a service provider that offers residential instruction and support services to clients.

"ADSA" refers to aging and disability services administration at DSHS. Residential care services and the division of developmental disabilities are divisions under aging and disability services.

"Certification" refers to the determination by RCS that an agency or service provider has satisfactorily complied with the requirements outlined in this chapter and in the department contract.

"Client" refers to a person who has a developmental disability and is eligible under RCW 71A.10.020. (For eligibility criteria, see chapter 388-825 WAC and WAC 388-101-1210.)

"Client services" refers to instruction and support activities that benefit clients, as specified under WAC 388-101-1800 through 388-101-1860.

"Community protection services" (community protection intensive supported living services, or CP-ISLS) refers to intensive supported living services provided to clients who meet the criteria of "Individual with Community Protection Issues."

"Crisis diversion services (CDS)" refers to DDD-authorized crisis residential services and supports offered to clients on a temporary basis. These clients show a serious decline in mental functioning, making the client at risk for psychiatric hospitalization (see WAC 388-101-1200 and 388-101-1250 for details).

"Crisis service plan" refers to a document that identifies needs and services a client will receive while placed in crisis diversion services.

"DDD" refers to the division of developmental disabilities of aging and disability services administration (ADSA).

"DSHS" refers to the department of social and health services of Washington state.

"Exceptions" refers to residential care services' (RCS) approval of a written request for an exception to a rule in this chapter. (There are no exceptions to RCWs.)

"Group home" refers to residential services provided in a dwelling that is:

- (1) Owned, leased, or rented by an entity other than the client;
 - (2) Licensed by the applicable state authority; and
 - (3) Operated by a provider.
- (See WAC 388-101-1260 for further details.)

"Group training home" refers to a certified nonprofit residential facility that provides full-time care, treatment, training, and maintenance for clients, as defined under RCW 71A.22.020(2).

"HCBS" refers to home and community based services waivers. This is a Title XIX Medicaid waiver program that serves a specific number of individuals. This waiver is for particular home and community based services not covered under the Medicaid state plan. (See WAC 388-825-170 for more details.)

"IFP" refers to individual financial plan. (See WAC 388-101-2070.)

"IISP" refers to the individual instruction and support plan for clients. (See WAC 388-101-2010 through 388-101-2030.)

"Individual with community protection issues" refers to a client identified by DDD as needing one or more of the following criteria:

- (1) The person has been convicted of or charged with a crime of sexual violence as defined in chapter 71.09 RCW, including, but not limited to, rape, statutory rape, rape of a child, and child molestation;
- (2) The person has been convicted of or charged with acts directed towards strangers or individuals with whom a relationship has been established or promoted for the primary purpose of victimization;

(3) The person has been convicted of or charged with a sexually violent offense and/or predatory act, and may constitute a future danger;

(4) The person has not been convicted and/or charged, but has a history of stalking, sexually violent, predatory, and/or opportunistic behavior which demonstrates a likelihood to commit a sexually violent and/or predatory act based on current behaviors that may escalate to violence;

(5) The person has committed one or more violent crimes, such as murder, attempted murder, arson, first degree assault, kidnapping, or use of a weapon to commit a crime.

"Initial assessment" refers to a written evaluation that identifies a client's needs upon entry into crisis diversion services.

"Instruction" refers to goal-oriented teaching that is designed for acquiring and enhancing skills.

"ISP" refers to the individual service plan for clients. (See WAC 388-101-1870 through 388-101-1900.)

"Nursing assistant" refers to a person who is registered or certified by department of health under chapter 18.88A RCW. A nursing assistant performs certain nursing care tasks that are delegated by a registered nurse for a specific client in authorized settings. (See chapter 246-841 WAC for more details.)

"POC" refers to the plan of care for clients based on the criteria of the home and community based waivers. (See WAC 388-101-1870 through 388-101-1900.)

"RCS" refers to residential care services of aging and disability services (ADSA).

"Regional support network (RSN)" refers to a county, combination of counties or other member entities under contract with DSHS mental health division (MHD). These RSNs administer all mental health service activities within their jurisdiction, using available resources. (See WAC 388-865-200 for details.)

"Reprisal" refers to any negative action taken as retaliation against an employee.

"Residential service" refers to client services offered by certified service providers.

"Secretary" refers to the secretary of the department of social and health services or the secretary's designee.

"Service provider" refers to an agency RCS has certified and DDD has contracted to provide residential services to clients. Also refers to state operated living alternative (SOLA) program.

"Severity" refers to the seriousness of an incident. This is determined by the extent to which a client's physical, mental, or psychosocial well-being is or may be compromised or threatened.

"SSP" (state supplemental payment) refers to DDD administered state paid cash assistance program for certain clients of DDD. (See chapter 388-827 WAC for details.)

"Support" refers to assistance as requested or needed by a client, based on their abilities, needs, and goals.

"Supported living" refers to residential services provided to clients living in their own homes, which are owned, rented, or leased by the clients or their legal representatives. (See WAC 388-101-1240 for more details.)

"Trust account" refers to a bank account containing two or more clients' funds where the service provider has the authority to make deposits and withdrawals.

ABUSE REPORTING AND NEGLECT

WAC 388-101-1101 Abuse and neglect reporting requirements. (1) All administrators, owners, and staff are mandated reporters and must report instances of suspected abandonment, abuse, neglect, or financial exploitation of vulnerable adults as defined in, and accordance with chapter 74.34 RCW.

(2) Reports must be made to the centralized toll free telephone number for reporting abandonment, abuse, neglect or financial exploitation of vulnerable adults, provided by the department.

(3) Reports must be made to law enforcement agencies, as required under chapter 74.34 RCW.

(4) Service providers must have policies and procedures complying with state law that specify reporting requirements for client abandonment, abuse, neglect, and financial exploitation.

(5) Each administrator, owner, staff person, and volunteer must read and sign the policy about reporting requirements. The service provider must retain the signed policy for staff and volunteers.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 71A.12.030, 71A.12.080, and chapter 71A.12 RCW. 06-18-038, § 388-101-1101, filed 8/29/06, effective 10/1/06.]

WAC 388-101-1106 Investigation of mandated reports. (1) The department will determine whether a report of client abandonment, abuse, neglect, or financial exploitation needs to be investigated, in accordance with established procedures.

(2) The department investigation will include an investigation of allegations about one or more of the following:

- (a) A service provider;
- (b) Anyone associated with a service provider; or
- (c) A client receiving services under this chapter.

(3) If, after completing an investigation under this chapter, the department concludes that it is more likely than not that the alleged perpetrator abandoned, abused, neglected, or financially exploited a client, the department will make an initial finding against the perpetrator.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 71A.12.030, 71A.12.080, and chapter 71A.12 RCW. 06-18-038, § 388-101-1106, filed 8/29/06, effective 10/1/06.]

WAC 388-101-1111 Notice of an initial finding. (1) The department will notify the alleged perpetrator in writing within ten working days of making an initial finding of abandonment, abuse, neglect or financial exploitation of a client. The written notice will not include the identities of the alleged victim, reporter and witnesses.

(2) The department shall make a reasonable, good faith effort to determine the last known address of the alleged perpetrator.

(3) The time frame for notification can be extended beyond ten working days to include the time needed to translate the notification letter or make provisions for the safety of the alleged victim.

(4) Notice of the initial finding will be served as provided in chapter 388-02 WAC.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 71A.12.030, 71A.12.080, and chapter 71A.12 RCW. 06-18-038, § 388-101-1111, filed 8/29/06, effective 10/1/06.]

WAC 388-101-1116 Reporting initial findings. (1) In a manner consistent with confidentiality requirements concerning the client, witnesses, and reporter, the department may provide notification of an initial finding to:

- (a) Other divisions within the department;
 - (b) The agency or program identified under RCW 74.34.068 with which the alleged perpetrator is associated as an employee, volunteer or contractor;
 - (c) Law enforcement; and
 - (d) Other investigative authorities consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW.
- (2) The notification will identify the finding as an initial finding.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 71A.12.030, 71A.12.080, and chapter 71A.12 RCW. 06-18-038, § 388-101-1116, filed 8/29/06, effective 10/1/06.]

WAC 388-101-1121 Disputing an initial finding. (1) An alleged perpetrator of abandonment, abuse, neglect, or financial exploitation of a client may request an administrative hearing to challenge an initial finding made by the department.

(2) The request must be made in writing to the office of administrative hearings.

(3) The office of administrative hearings must receive the alleged perpetrator's written request for a hearing within thirty calendar days of the date the individual was served with notice of the initial finding.

(4) The written request for a hearing must include:

- (a) The full legal name, current address and phone number of the alleged perpetrator;
- (b) A brief explanation of why the alleged perpetrator disagrees with the initial finding;
- (c) A description of any assistance needed in the administrative appeal process by the alleged perpetrator, including a foreign or sign language interpreter or any accommodation for a disability; and
- (d) The alleged perpetrator's signature.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 71A.12.030, 71A.12.080, and chapter 71A.12 RCW. 06-18-038, § 388-101-1121, filed 8/29/06, effective 10/1/06.]

WAC 388-101-1126 Disclosure of investigative and finding information. (1) The alleged perpetrator may only use confidential information provided by the department as needed to challenge initial findings through the appeal process.

(2) Confidential information such as the name and other personal identifying information of the reporter, witnesses, or the client will be redacted from documents unless otherwise ordered by the administrative law judge consistent with chapter 74.34 RCW and other applicable state and federal laws.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 71A.12.030, 71A.12.080, and chapter 71A.12 RCW. 06-18-038, § 388-101-1126, filed 8/29/06, effective 10/1/06.]

WAC 388-101-1131 Hearing procedures to dispute an initial finding. (1) Chapters 34.05 and 74.34 RCW, chapter 388-02 WAC, and the provisions of this chapter govern any appeal regarding an initial finding. In the event of a conflict between the provisions of this chapter and chapter 388-02 WAC, the provisions of this chapter shall prevail.

(2) The administrative law judge shall determine whether a preponderance of the evidence supports the initial finding that the alleged perpetrator abandoned, abused, neglected, or financially exploited a vulnerable adult, and shall issue an initial order.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 71A.12.030, 71A.12.080, and chapter 71A.12 RCW. 06-18-038, § 388-101-1131, filed 8/29/06, effective 10/1/06.]

WAC 388-101-1136 Appeal of the administrative law judge's initial order on a finding. (1) If the alleged perpetrator or the department disagrees with the administrative law judge's decision, either party may challenge this decision by filing a petition for review with the department's board of appeals under chapter 34.05 RCW and chapter 388-02 WAC.

(2) If the department appeals the administrative law judge's decision, the department will not modify the finding in the department's records until a final hearing decision is issued.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 71A.12.030, 71A.12.080, and chapter 71A.12 RCW. 06-18-038, § 388-101-1136, filed 8/29/06, effective 10/1/06.]

WAC 388-101-1141 Finalizing an initial finding. (1) An initial finding becomes a final finding when:

(a) The department gives the alleged perpetrator notice of the initial finding pursuant to WAC 388-101-1110 and the alleged perpetrator does not request an administrative hearing;

(b) The administrative law judge:

(i) Dismisses the hearing following withdrawal of the appeal or default; or

(ii) Issues an initial order upholding the finding and the alleged perpetrator fails to appeal the initial order to the department's board of appeals; or

(c) The board of appeals issues a final order upholding the finding.

(2) The final finding is permanent and will not be removed from the department's records unless:

(a) It is rescinded following judicial review; or

(b) The department decides to remove a single finding of neglect from its records based upon a written petition by the alleged perpetrator provided that at least one calendar year has passed since the finding was finalized and recorded.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 71A.12.030, 71A.12.080, and chapter 71A.12 RCW. 06-18-038, § 388-101-1141, filed 8/29/06, effective 10/1/06.]

WAC 388-101-1146 Reporting final findings. The department will report a final finding of abandonment, abuse, neglect and financial exploitation within ten working days to the following:

- (1) The perpetrator;
- (2) The service provider that was associated with the perpetrator during the time of the incident;
- (3) The service provider that is currently associated with the perpetrator, if known;
- (4) The appropriate licensing authority; and
- (5) The department's registry of findings of abandonment, abuse, neglect and financial exploitation. The findings may be disclosed to the public upon request.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 71A.12.030, 71A.12.080, and chapter 71A.12 RCW. 06-18-038, § 388-101-1146, filed 8/29/06, effective 10/1/06.]

RESIDENTIAL SERVICES: GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

WAC 388-101-1180 What are residential services?

Residential services are instructions and supports provided to eligible clients by service providers to enable clients to live in their community. These may include:

- (1) Supported living services;
- (2) Group home services; or
- (3) Services provided in the group training home.

Residential services must follow the requirements outlined in this chapter. The client rights set forth in this chapter are the minimal rights guaranteed to all clients of certified residential services, and are not intended to diminish rights set forth in other state or federal laws that may contain additional rights.

WAC 388-101-1200 Where are residential services provided? (1) Service providers may offer residential services in:

- (a) The client's own home;
- (b) Group homes; or
- (c) The group training home.

(2) Residential services must be located in a residential neighborhood within reasonable distance of necessary resources, unless a client chooses to live in a remote area. Resources include stores, banks, laundromats, churches, job opportunities, and other public services.

(2007 Ed.)

(a) Exception: Group homes certified prior to 1983 do not need to follow this requirement.

(b) Exception: Clients who receive community protection services may not need to follow this requirement.

WAC 388-101-1220 What physical and safety requirements exist for residential services? (1) Crisis diversion service providers who offer services in a client's own home are exempt from the physical and safety requirements described in this section.

For clients who receive more than forty hours of residential service per month.

(2) When clients receive more than forty hours of residential services per month, the service provider must ensure that the following physical and safety requirements are met for the client:

- (a) A safe and healthy environment;
- (b) Accessible telephone equipment;
- (c) An evacuation plan developed and practiced with the client;
- (d) An entrance and/or exit that does not rely solely upon windows, ladders, folding stairs, or trap doors;
- (e) A safe storage area for flammable and combustible materials;
- (f) Unblocked exits;
- (g) A working smoke detector, with a light-alarm for clients with hearing impairments, located close to sleeping rooms;

(h) A flashlight or a nonelectrical light source in working condition; and

(i) Basic first-aid supplies.

For clients who receive forty hours or less of residential service per month.

(3) When clients receive forty hours or less of residential services per month, at least once every six months, the service provider must ensure the following physical safety requirements are met:

(a) A safe and healthy environment;

(b) An entrance and/or exit that does not rely solely upon windows, ladders, folding stairs, or trap doors;

(c) A safe storage area for flammable and combustible materials;

(d) Unblocked exits; and

(e) A working smoke detector, with a light-alarm for clients with hearing impairments, located close to sleeping rooms.

(4) The following supports are also offered to clients who receive forty hours or less of residential services. These clients may choose not to participate in meeting these requirements. This choice must be documented by the service provider, as per WAC 388-101-1400. The supports offered include:

(a) Accessible telephone equipment;

(b) An evacuation plan developed and practiced with the client;

(c) A flashlight or a nonelectrical light source in working condition; and

(d) Basic first-aid supplies.

For all clients:

(5) The service provider must ensure that documentation is kept, showing that physical safety requirements are met. The client may independently document that these requirements are met as long as the client's IISP shows this involvement.

WAC 388-101-1230 How must service providers assist clients in regulating water temperature? (1) Water temperature must be regulated by service providers for clients who receive services and supports from on-duty staff twenty-four hour a day.

(2) Service providers must assist clients so that the water temperature in their household is maintained below one hundred and twenty degrees Fahrenheit.

(3) Service providers must check the water temperature when the client first moves into the household and at least once every six months from then on. Note: The water temperature is best measured two hours after substantial hot water usage.

(4) The service provider must document compliance with this requirement.

WAC 388-101-1260 What are group homes? (1) Group homes are residences that are licensed as either a boarding home or an adult family home by RCS, under chapters 388-78A and 388-76 WAC, respectively.

(2) Group homes must have a contract with DDD.

(3) The service provider must ensure that group homes comply with all applicable licensing regulations.

(4) Group homes provide residential services to two or more clients who are unrelated to the provider.

(5) Clients who live in group homes pay costs of room and board from their own financial resources. (See WAC 388-101-1420 for additional information.)

WAC 388-101-1400 When must a service provider document a client's refusal to participate in services? (1) A service provider must document a client's refusal to participate in:

(a) Physical and safety requirements, as outlined in WAC 388-101-1220(3); and

(2007 Ed.)

(b) Health services under WAC 388-101-2140.

(2) Documentation must include the following:

(a) A description of events relating to the client's refusal to participate in these services;

(b) A plan to inform the client of the benefits of these services;

(c) A description of the service provider's efforts to give the services to the client; and

(d) Any health or safety concerns that the refusal may pose.

(3) The service provider must review this documentation with the client at least every six months. The client or client's guardian must sign the documentation after reviewing it.

WAC 388-101-1420 Who pays for a client's residential services? (1) DSHS must pay for contracted residential services provided to department-funded clients. Residential services are paid at the contracted rate.

(2) DSHS must require a client to share the cost of services when mandated by federal or state statute or regulation.

(3) Clients funded through SSP may purchase services through a separate agreement with the service provider.

(4) The service provider must inform DSHS when the client requires additional supports.

(a) The service provider must submit a written request with justification for additional service hours.

(b) DSHS may approve and provide payment for additional expenses or services.

(c) The service provider must retain a copy of department response.

(5) For a client who is receiving group home services and support:

(a) The client must pay for cost of care or services from earnings or other financial resources. Clients receiving SSI are responsible only for the cost of room and board.

(b) DSHS may pay for these services only after a client has used his or her own financial resources.

(c) When a client's guardian or legal representative controls the client's income, estate, or trust fund, he or she must reimburse the service provider as described in WAC 388-101-1420.

(2007 Ed.)

(6) Clients receiving supported living services must pay for their own housing, utilities, food, clothing, and other personal and incidental expenses from earnings and other financial resources.

WAC 388-101-1470 How does an agency apply for initial certification? To apply for initial certification, an agency must go through the following application procedures.

- (1) DDD will review:
- (a) Verification of financial stability;

[Title 388 WAC—p. 565]

- (b) A budget forecast; and
- (c) A staff-coverage schedule.
- (2) After reviewing, DDD will send a letter of suggestion to RCS.
- (3) The interested agency will submit to RCS:
 - (a) A letter of intent;
 - (b) Relevant experience and qualifications of the agency;
 - (c) A minimum of two professional references;
 - (d) The administrator's resume;
 - (e) A list of the agency board of directors and affiliations, if applicable;
 - (f) Policies, principles and procedures regarding health and safety and;
 - (g) Methods on the prevention and reporting of abuse, neglect, exploitation and mistreatment to clients according to state law.

RCS may request additional information as needed to complete the application process.

- (4) Before applying to RCS, the interested agency will keep in their records the following:

- (a) A letter of intent;
- (b) A mission statement;
- (c) A statement of assurance stating that the service provider will not discriminate against a client or employee (see WAC 388-101-1630);
- (d) Verification of financial stability;
- (e) A budget forecast;
- (f) A staff coverage;
- (g) A staff in-service training plan;
- (h) The agency's policies and procedures;
- (i) Relevant experience and qualifications of the agency;
- (j) A minimum of two professional references;
- (k) A copy of the license if applying for a group home;
- (l) The administrator's resume; and
- (m) A list of the agency board of directors and affiliations, if applicable.
- (5) RCS must provide the county with a copy of the agency's letter of intent.
- (6) The county may submit written recommendations about the application to RCS within thirty calendar days after receiving the letter of intent. RCS reviews the county's recommendations.

- (7) An agency must comply within one hundred and eighty days of the certification's effective date with:

- (a) Relevant federal, state, and local laws and ordinances; and
- (b) RCS/DDD established requirements.

(8) After receiving all materials requested, a determination will be made on initial certification based on the information received. RCS notifies the agency in writing that all documentation has been received and determines if the agency meets the minimal requirements for initial certification.

WAC 388-101-1480 What happens after an agency receives initial certification? After an agency receives initial certification, DDD decides whether to grant a residential services contract with that agency.

(1) Under initial certification, agencies that receive a contract with DDD become service providers. Once a contract is in place, a service provider is approved for receiving client referrals and serving clients in a particular region for up to one hundred and eighty days. Service providers must have a separate contract for each region where they receive referrals and serve clients.

(2) If DDD does not contract with an agency, initial certification will be valid for up to a year for that agency.

WAC 388-101-1500 How does a service provider receive regular certification? (1) RCS uses a formal review and evaluation process to determine whether a service provider has complied with certification requirements outlined in this chapter and the DSHS/DDD contract.

(2) The county may submit recommendations about a service provider to RCS.

(3) After determining that a service provider has complied with requirements, RCS may approve a service provider for regular certification.

(a) This certification allows a service provider to continue to receive referrals and provide instruction and support to clients.

(b) Regular certification may be granted to service providers for up to two years.

(4) Regular certification may be extended for a period up to one hundred and eighty days.

WAC 388-101-1510 How often are reviews and evaluations done for service providers? (1) RCS must review and/or evaluate each service provider's services at least every two years.

(2) RCS may review a client's records and activities at any time to see if the service provider continues to address the clients' needs for instruction and support activities.

(3) DSHS may conduct additional evaluations or audits of any service provider at its discretion.

WAC 388-101-1520 What occurs during review and evaluation? (1) Service providers are evaluated, using this chapter and the DSHS/DDD contract requirements.

(2) To gather information, evaluators use a sample of clients that the service provider supports. Ways to gather information for evaluation must include:

- (a) Observation of staff and client interactions;
 - (b) Interview of clients, legal representatives, and others with the client's consent; and
 - (c) Review of records.
- (3) Information may also be gathered by conducting:
- (a) Interviews with other entities contracted with DSHS; and

(b) Interviews with DSHS staff.

(4) The state-contracted evaluators discuss with the service provider their preliminary findings and request additional information and clarification.

(5) Evaluators conduct an exit conference to present the draft report to the service providers and DDD. The service provider's administrator or designee must be present at this exit conference. A copy of the draft report with preliminary findings are sent to RCS.

(a) The evaluation report will include the service provider's operation history.

(b) If the service provider has not complied with certification requirements or with its contract with DSHS/DDD, the evaluator will note the findings in the draft report.

(c) The service provider must draft a corrective action plan(s) with specific time frames and submit it to RCS for approval.

(d) At the conclusion of the exit conference, the service provider will receive a draft copy of the report including the corrective action plan(s) and the evaluator(s) will submit the draft copy to RCS.

(e) The final report, including corrective action plan(s), will be finalized by RCS and sent to the service provider.

WAC 388-101-1530 May service providers disagree with evaluation findings? (1) If service providers disagree with evaluation findings, they must submit in writing documentation supporting their position within ten working days after the exit conference.

(2) After receiving the service provider's documentation, RCS must send written notification of its decision to the service provider within ten working days.

(3) The service provider's documentation and RCS' decision must become part of the final evaluation report.

(4) RCS must file a final report of the evaluation results and send a copy to the service provider. At this time, the evaluation report is considered to be a public document.

WAC 388-101-1540 May a service provider receive provisional certification? (1) A service provider that does not comply with requirements of this chapter may receive provisional certification by RCS.

(2) Provisional certification may not exceed one hundred eighty days.

(3) At the end of provisional certification:

(a) If the service provider has complied with certification requirements, RCS may approve the service provider for regular certification.

(b) If the service provider has not complied with all certification requirements, RCS must revoke the service provider's certification and DSHS/DDD must terminate the contract.

ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS: GENERAL

WAC 388-101-1600 What are administrators of service providers required to do? RCS requires administrators of service providers to oversee all aspects of services delivered to clients, consistent with the DSHS/DDD contract. This includes:

(1) Overseeing all aspects of staff development, such as recruitment and staff training;

(2) Preparing and maintaining policies and procedures related to client services, personnel, and financial records; and

(3) Securely storing client, personnel, and financial records.

WAC 388-101-1610 What type of administrative documents are service providers required to have? (1) Service providers must have these written statements:

(a) A mission statement;

(b) Program description;

(c) An organizational chart and description showing all supervisory relationships; and

(d) Definition of staff roles and responsibilities, including the person designated to act in the absence of the administrator.

(2) Service providers must also have these policies and procedures:

- (a) Admission criteria;
- (b) Client rights, including a client's right to file a complaint or suggestion without interference;
- (c) Client grievance procedures; and
- (d) Methods used for soliciting client input and feedback on services and support received.

(3) Service providers must have health and safety policies and procedures including:

- (a) Information on how to report suspected abuse, neglect, exploitation, and mistreatment;
- (b) Plans for responding to missing persons; client emergencies, including access to medical, mental health, and law enforcement resources; and natural or other disasters; and
- (c) Notification of client's guardian and/or relatives in case of emergency.

(4) In addition to other required documents, service providers must keep all documents, policies and procedures as required by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services and any other applicable state or federal laws and have them readily available to DSHS.

WAC 388-101-1630 What nondiscrimination requirements must agencies and service providers meet?

(1) When employing staff or supporting clients, agencies and service providers must not discriminate against any person on the basis of:

- (a) Race;
- (b) Color;
- (c) Creed;
- (d) Religion;
- (e) National origin;
- (f) Age;
- (g) Gender;
- (h) Presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, including HIV/AIDS conditions;
- (i) Use of a trained dog guide or service animal by a person with a disability;
- (j) Marital status;
- (k) Disabled status or Vietnam Era veteran status;
- (l) Sexual orientation; and
- (m) Any other reasons prohibited by law.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 568]

(2) Exception: An employer may deny employment to a person if the decision is based upon a bona fide occupational qualification. (See chapter 49.60 RCW.)

WAC 388-101-1660 Who needs background checks?

(1) Service providers must obtain background checks from DSHS for all administrators, employees, volunteers and sub-contractors showing that there are no disqualifying records to prevent individuals from working with clients.

(2) Before administrators, employees, volunteers or sub-contractors may have unsupervised access to clients, the service provider must have a background check report from DSHS. This report must indicate that the individual has no disqualifying records that prevent him or her from working with clients.

(3) In certain situations, administrators, employees, volunteers, or subcontractors can only work with clients when they are directly observed by staff authorized to have unsupervised access to clients. These situations are:

(a) The service provider has not yet received a DSHS response for a background check request;

(b) DSHS has disqualified the individual based on background check information; or

(2007 Ed.)

(c) The individual is awaiting FBI clearance and does not have provisional clearance from their employer under WAC 388-06-0500 through 388-06-0540.

(4) Background checks must be renewed at least every thirty-six months for each administrator, employee, volunteer or subcontractor of a contracted service provider.

(5) Licensed boarding homes or licensed adult family homes must adhere to the current regulations set forth in this chapter and in the applicable licensing laws.

(6) Service providers must follow the requirements of RCW 43.43.830 and 74.15.030.

WAC 388-101-1680 What staff training is required? The service provider must give specific training to staff. Within the first six months, staff must receive a minimum of thirty-two total hours of training that meet the following requirements.

- (1) Before the employee works alone with clients, the service provider must explain the following to the employee:
 - (a) The current instruction and support plans of the clients with whom the employee works;
 - (b) Emergency procedures for clients;
 - (c) The state law on abuse and neglect; and
 - (d) Client confidentiality.
- (2) Within the first four weeks of employing a staff person, the service provider must provide training that includes:
 - (a) The service provider's mission statement;
 - (b) Policies and procedures; and
 - (c) On-the-job training.
- (3) Additional training within the first six months must include:
 - (a) First aid/CPR;
 - (b) Bloodborne pathogens with HIV/AIDS information; and
 - (c) Client services.

(2007 Ed.)

(4) Each employee must keep first aid/CPR certification and bloodborne pathogens training current.

(5) The service provider must document orientation and training activities.

(6) Group homes must also meet the training requirements mandated by the licensing requirements specified in chapter 388-78A WAC.

CLIENT FUNDS

WAC 388-101-2040 May a service provider manage a client's funds? (1) A service provider may manage a client's funds after either:

(a) Obtaining written consent from the client, the client's guardian or legal representative; or

(b) Becoming the designated payee by the source of the client's unearned income.

Note: An example is a client receiving unearned income from the Social Security Administration.

(2) A client's funds are considered to be managed by a service provider when the service provider:

(a) Has signing authority and may disperse a client's funds; and/or

(b) May limit access to client funds by not allowing funds to be expended.

[05-05-077, recodified as § 388-101-2040, filed 2/15/05, effective 2/15/05. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-590, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2050 May a service provider hold bankbooks and bankcards for a client? Clients may ask a service provider to hold their bankbooks and bankcards while still having access to their own funds. This must be documented in the client's record and updated annually.

Note: In this situation, service providers are not necessarily considered managers of the client's funds.

[05-05-077, recodified as § 388-101-2050, filed 2/15/05, effective 2/15/05. Statutory Authority: RCW 71A.12.030 and chapter 71A.12 RCW. 04-04-043, § 388-820-600, filed 1/29/04, effective 2/29/04. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-600, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2060 May a service provider combine agency and client funds? A service provider may not combine client funds with any agency funds, such as agency operating funds.

[05-05-077, recodified as § 388-101-2060, filed 2/15/05, effective 2/15/05. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-610, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2070 Does the service provider need to develop an individual financial plan (IFP) for clients?

(1) A financial management plan is required only for those clients whose funds are managed by the service provider. The client and service provider must develop this individual financial plan (IFP) together.

(2) The IFP must be reviewed at least every twelve months by the service provider and client.

(3) A copy of the IFP must be sent to:

(a) The guardian and/or legal representative; and

(b) The client's DDD case resource manager upon request.

[05-05-077, recodified as § 388-101-2070, filed 2/15/05, effective 2/15/05. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-620, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2080 What information must the IFP include? This plan must include all of the following items:

(1) The part of the client's funds and income that will be managed by the service provider;

(2) The part of client funds and income that will be managed by the client or legal representative;

(3) The type of accounts used;

(4) A budget process;

(5) Asset management, such as personal property, burial plan, retirement funds, stock, and vehicles;

(6) Cash management;

(7) Money management instruction and/or support;

(8) An explanation of which purchases require receipts;

(9) Contingency plan for expenditures if a client's resources exceed the home and community based services (HCBS) waiver limit; and

(10) A signature of the client and the client's guardian, if any.

WAC 388-101-2090 How does a service provider manage client funds? (1) For client's funds that the service provider manages, the service provider must:

(a) Separately track each client's money even when several clients reside together;

(b) Keep the client's account current by maintaining a running balance;

(c) Reconcile the client's account to the bank statement on a monthly basis;

(d) Make deposits to the client's account within one week of receiving the client's money;

(e) Prevent the client's account from being overdrawn;

(f) Ensure that individual cash funds do not exceed seventy-five dollars per person unless specified differently in the individual's financial plan; and

(g) Retain receipts for purchases of over twenty-five dollars.

(2) When a client's service provider receives a check made out to the client, the service provider assisting the client must either:

(a) Get the client's signature and designation "for deposit only," and deposit the check in the client's account; or

(b) Get the client's "x" mark in the presence of another witness, cosign the check with the designation "for deposit only," and deposit the check in the client's account.

[Title 388 WAC—p. 574]

(3) If the check for a client is made out to a payee other than the client, the payee signs the check.

(4) Clients must never sign a blank check.

(5) When clients use checks for purchases, they must sign checks at the time of purchase unless specified differently in their individual financial plan.

(6) The service provider must document the names of any staff who assist a client with financial transactions.

[05-05-077, recodified as § 388-101-2090, filed 2/15/05, effective 2/15/05. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-640, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2100 What documentation must service providers keep to protect a client's financial interests? Service providers must keep certain documentation for the part of funds they manage for clients. This protects clients' financial interests.

(1) Documentation for bank and cash accounts must include a monthly reconciliation and verification of the reconciliation. The reconciliation and/or verification must be completed by a person who did not make or assist in any financial transaction.

(2) Other documentation that a service provider must keep for client financial transactions include:

(a) Monthly bank statements and reconciliation;

(b) Checkbook registers and bankbooks;

(c) Deposit receipts;

(d) Receipts for purchases over twenty-five dollars;

(e) Any itemized subsidiary ledgers showing deposits, withdrawals, and interest payments to individual clients; and

(f) A control journal for trust accounts.

(3) Other documentation that a service provider must keep for client cash transactions include:

(a) A detailed ledger signed by the person who withdrew any of the client's money;

(b) Monthly reconciliation to the cash amount;

(c) Detailed accounting of the money received on behalf of the client, such as cash received from writing checks over the purchase amount, and a list of where the money was spent; and

(d) Receipts for purchases over twenty-five dollars where service provider staff withdrew the money.

(4) Service providers must notify DSHS when the client:

(a) Receives services under a home and community based services (HCBS) waiver; and

(b) Has an account that reaches three hundred dollars less than the maximum amount allowed by federal or state law.

Note: CAP-waiver is defined under WAC 388-825-170.

WAC 388-101-2110 How are a client's funds transferred when they are managed by a service provider? When a service provider manages a client's funds, transferring those funds must follow specific procedures.

(2007 Ed.)

(1) When a client transfers from one service provider to another, the previous service provider must transfer client funds within thirty days. To transfer funds, the previous service provider must:

(a) Give the client, the client's guardian, and/or the legal representative a written accounting of all known client funds;

(b) When applicable, give the new service provider a written accounting of all transferred client funds;

(c) Obtain a written receipt from the client, client's guardian and/or legal representative for all transferred funds; and

(d) When applicable, obtain the new service provider's written receipt for the transferred funds.

(2) When a client becomes incapacitated or a client's whereabouts are unknown, the client's service provider must transfer the client's funds within one hundred and eighty days to the client's legal guardian, to DSHS, or to the requesting governmental entity.

(3) When a client dies, the service provider must transfer the client's funds within ninety days to:

(a) The client's guardian;

(b) The legal representative;

(c) The requesting governmental entity; or

(d) DSHS if the client does not have a legal heir.

REQUESTS FOR EXCEPTIONS

WAC 388-101-2380 Does RCS make exceptions to the requirements in this chapter? RCS may grant service providers exceptions to the requirements specified in this chapter as long as the following conditions are met:

(1) The service provider must submit a written request for an exception to the DDD regional administrator of the region where the contract is held.

(2) DDD must evaluate requests for exceptions, considering:

- (a) The health and safety of the clients;
- (b) The quality of the services;

- (c) Supervision; and
- (d) The impact on client services.

(3) DDD must send a copy of the requests that have significant impacts on client services to the client(s) involved. DDD must then give the client an opportunity to comment before an exception is granted.

(4) DDD will send their recommendations of the exceptions of the requirements to RCS within twenty working days.

(5) The RCS director or designee will approve or deny the request in writing within ten working days after receiving the recommendation from DDD.

(6) Any exception granted must be in line with the legislative intent of Title 71A RCW.

(7) Service providers must retain a copy of each RCS-approved exception.

(8) Service providers do not have hearing rights when they receive a denial from RCS for an exception to the rules in this chapter.

(2) Under RCW 7.70.065, if a client is unable to give consent or is incapacitated, certain people are authorized to provide consent for a client's receiving health care. These people must be one of the following in this priority order:

- (a) The legal guardian, if any;
 - (b) An individual who holds a durable power of attorney for health care decisions;
 - (c) The client's spouse;
 - (d) The client's children who are at least eighteen years of age;
 - (e) The client's parents; and
 - (f) The client's adult siblings.
- (3) Proof of consent must be kept in the client's files.

WAC 388-101-2440 What rights do nursing assistants have concerning the delegation of nursing care tasks? Nursing assistants have certain rights when nursing care tasks are delegated by the registered nurse.

- (1) The nursing assistant:
 - (a) May consent or refuse to consent to perform a delegated nursing care task; and
 - (b) Must not receive employer reprisal for refusing to accept the delegation of a nursing care task if the refusal is based on client safety issues.

(2) The service provider must post the toll-free telephone number (1-800-562-6078), established by DSHS' aging and adult services administration, for complaints about the delegation of nursing tasks to nursing assistants. This phone number is on DSHS forms: 13-678B, 13-680 and 13-681.

WAC 388-101-2460 What happens if unqualified staff do a nursing task? (1) DSHS must impose a civil fine on any service provider who knowingly performs or permits an employee to perform a nursing task without proper delegation. (See chapter 18.88A RCW and chapter 246-840 WAC.) The minimum amount of this fine is two hundred fifty dollars. The maximum fine allowed is one thousand dollars.

- (2) When assessing civil fines, DSHS must consider:
- (a) Severity of occurrence;
 - (b) Frequency of occurrence; and
 - (c) Other relevant factors relating to the occurrence.

[05-07-138, recodified as § 388-101-2460, filed 3/22/05, effective 3/22/05. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-790, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2470 What technical assistance may service providers get from DSHS for nurse delegation requirements? (1) DSHS must offer technical assistance to service providers for purposes of education and assistance to help service providers comply with nurse delegation requirements and protocols.

(2) The DSHS technical assistance program must include:

- (a) Technical assistance visits where DSHS informs the service provider of violation of law or service provider rules;
- (b) Information about how to get technical assistance;
- (c) Printed information;
- (d) Information and assistance by phone;
- (e) Training meetings;
- (f) Other appropriate methods to provide technical assistance; and
- (g) A list of organizations that provide technical assistance.

WAC 388-101-2480 What happens when DSHS finds a service provider in violation of nurse delegation requirements? (1) Before imposing a civil fine, DSHS may take the following steps after discovering that a service provider is in violation of rules:

- (a) Notify the service provider in writing about the concerns;
- (b) Give the service provider an opportunity to explain circumstances or present additional information that may clarify concerns; and
- (c) Request the service provider to provide additional information, if necessary.

(2) DSHS must inform the service provider in writing about the outcome of findings and any required actions.

[05-07-138, recodified as § 388-101-2480, filed 3/22/05, effective 3/22/05. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-810, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2490 May a service provider have a chance to correct violations before being fined? The service provider must be given a reasonable period of time to correct violations of nurse delegation requirements before any civil penalty is imposed.

[05-07-138, recodified as § 388-101-2490, filed 3/22/05, effective 3/22/05. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-820, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2500 May civil fines be imposed during technical assistance visits? A civil fine may be issued during a technical assistance visit if:

- (1) The service provider has previously been found out of compliance for the same statute or rule; or
- (2) The service provider's violation is likely to place a person in danger of death or bodily harm.

[05-07-138, recodified as § 388-101-2500, filed 3/22/05, effective 3/22/05. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-830, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2510 How does DSHS impose a civil fine? DSHS gives a service provider written notice of any civil fines. This notice must:

- (1) State the amount and reasons for the fine and the applicable law under which the fine is imposed; and
- (2) Inform the service provider of the right to request a hearing.

[05-07-138, recodified as § 388-101-2510, filed 3/22/05, effective 3/22/05. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-840, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2520 When is payment due for a civil fine? (1) A civil fine becomes due twenty-eight days after the receipt of the written notice of the fine.

(2) Exception: If a service provider requests a hearing under chapter 34.05 RCW and RCW 43.20A.215, DSHS must stop the fine while waiting for a final decision on the matter.

[05-07-138, recodified as § 388-101-2520, filed 3/22/05, effective 3/22/05. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-850, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2530 May a service provider disagree with DSHS findings of a violation? (1) When a service provider disagrees with DSHS' finding of a violation under this chapter, the service provider has the right to have the violation reviewed under the department's dispute resolution process.

(2) No service provider may discriminate or retaliate in any manner against a person who makes a complaint or has cooperated in the complaint investigation.

[05-07-138, recodified as § 388-101-2530, filed 3/22/05, effective 3/22/05. Statutory Authority: Title 71A RCW. 01-22-020, § 388-820-860, filed 10/26/01, effective 1/1/02.]

WAC 388-101-2540 May a service provider contest a civil fine? (1) A service provider may contest DSHS' decision to impose a civil fine.

(2) Within twenty-eight days of receiving the decision, the service provider must file a written application for a hearing, showing proof of receipt with the Board of Appeals, P.O. Box 42489, Olympia, WA 98504-2489. The application must include:

- (a) The grounds for contesting the department decision;
and
(b) A copy of the contested department decision.
(3) Hearings are governed by chapter 34.05 RCW and RCW 43.20A.215, and chapter 388-02 WAC. If any provision in this section conflicts with chapter 388-02 WAC, the provision in this section governs.

WAC 388-105-0035 Requirements for a capital add-on rate for licensed boarding homes contracted to provide assisted living (AL) services. (1) To the extent funds are appropriated to pay a capital add-on rate to AL contractors, beginning July 1, 2006 and every July 1 thereafter, the department will pay a capital add-on rate to AL contractors that have a Medicaid occupancy percentage that equals or exceeds sixty percent as determined in accordance with subsection (2) and (3) of this section. The department will pay the capital add-on rate to those AL contractors meeting the sixty percent Medicaid occupancy percentage for a full fiscal year i.e., July 1 through June 30.

(2) The department will determine an AL contractor's Medicaid occupancy percentage by dividing its Medicaid resident days from the last six months of the calendar year preceding the applicable July 1 rate effective date by the product of the weighted average for all its licensed boarding home beds irrespective of use times the calendar days (one hundred eighty-four) for the same six-month period.

(3) For the purposes of this section, Medicaid resident days include those clients enrolled in Medicaid managed long-term care programs, including but not limited to the program for all inclusive care (PACE) and Medicaid/Medicare integration project (MMIP).

WAC 388-105-0045 Bed or unit hold—Medicaid resident discharged for a hospital or nursing home stay from an adult family home (AFH) or a boarding home contracted to provide adult residential care (ARC), enhanced adult residential care (EARC), or assisted living services (AL). (1) When an AFH, ARC, EARC, or AL contracts to provide services under chapter 74.39A RCW, the AFH,

ARC, EARC, and AL contractor must hold a Medicaid eligible resident's bed or unit when:

(a) Short-term care is needed in a nursing home or hospital;

(b) The resident is likely to return to the AFH, ARC, EARC, or AL; and

(c) Payment is made under subsection (3) of this section.

(2)(a) When the department pays the contractor to hold the Medicaid resident's bed or unit during the resident's short-term nursing home or hospital stay, the contractor must hold the bed or unit for up to twenty days. If during the twenty day bed hold period, a department case manager determines that the Medicaid resident's hospital or nursing home stay is not short term and the Medicaid resident is unlikely to return to the AFH, ARC, EARC or AL facility, the department will cease paying for the bed hold the day the case manager notifies the contractor of his/her decision.

(b) A Medicaid resident's discharge from an AFH, ARC, EARC, or an AL facility for a short term stay in a nursing home or hospital must be longer than twenty-four hours before subsection (3) of WAC 388-105-0045 applies.

(3) The department will compensate the contractor for holding the bed or unit for the:

(a) First through seventh day at seventy percent of the Medicaid daily rate paid for care of the resident before the hospital or nursing home stay; and

(b) Eighth through the twentieth day, at eleven dollars a day.

(4) The AFH, ARC, EARC, or AL facility may seek third-party payment to hold a bed or unit for twenty-one days or longer. The third-party payment shall not exceed the Medicaid daily rate paid to the facility for the resident. If third-party payment is not available and the returning Medicaid resident continues to meet the admission criteria under chapter 388-71 and/or 388-106 WAC, then the Medicaid resident may return to the first available and appropriate bed or unit.

(5) The department's social worker or case manager determines whether the:

(a) Stay in a nursing home or hospital will be short-term; and

(b) Resident is likely to return to the AFH, ARC, EARC, or AL facility.

(6) When the resident's stay in the hospital or nursing home exceeds twenty days or the department's social worker or case manager determines that the Medicaid resident's stay in the nursing home or hospital is not short-term and the resident is unlikely to return to the AFH, ARC, EARC, or AL facility, then only subsection (4) of this section applies to any private contractual arrangements that the contractor may make with a third party in regard to the discharged resident's unit or bed.

LONG-TERM CARE SERVICES

SCOPE AND DEFINITIONS

What is the purpose and scope of this chapter?
What definitions apply to this chapter?

APPLYING FOR SERVICES

What long-term care services does the department provide?
Under the MPC, COPES, MNRW, MNIW, and chore programs, what services are not covered?
How do I apply for long-term care services?
Where can I receive services?
May I receive personal care services through any of the long-term care programs when I am out of the state of Washington?
Who can provide long-term care services?
When will the department authorize my long-term care services?
When can the department terminate or deny long-term care services to me?

CARE CLASSIFICATION

How is the amount of long-term care services I can receive in my own home or in a residential facility determined?
What criteria does the CARE tool use to place me in one of the classification groups?
How does the CARE tool measure cognitive performance?
How does the CARE tool measure clinical complexity?
How does the CARE tool measure mood and behaviors?
How does the CARE tool measure activities of daily living (ADLs)?
How does the CARE tool evaluate me for the exceptional care classification of in-home care?
How does CARE use the criteria of cognitive performance as determined under WAC 388-106-0090, clinical complexity as determined under WAC 388-106-0095, mood/behaviors as determined under WAC 388-106-0100, and ADLs as determined under WAC 388-106-0105 to place me in a classification group for residential facilities?
What is the payment rate that the department will pay the provider if I receive personal care services in a residential facility?
How does CARE use the criteria of cognitive performance as determined under WAC 388-106-0090, clinical complexity as determined under WAC 388-106-0095, mood/behaviors as determined under WAC 388-106-0100, ADLs as determined under WAC 388-106-0105, and exceptional care as determined under WAC 388-106-0110, to place me in a classification group for in-home care?
How does the department determine the number of hours I may receive for in-home care?
What are the maximum hours that I can receive for in-home services?
What may change the maximum number of hours that I can receive for in-home personal care services?
What may change the maximum payment rate that will be paid for residential personal care services provided to me?

MEDICAID PERSONAL CARE (MPC)

What services may I receive under Medicaid personal care (MPC)?
Am I eligible for MPC-funded services?
MPC services?

SCOPE AND DEFINITIONS

WAC 388-106-0005 What is the purpose and scope of this chapter? This chapter applies to applicants and recipients of long-term care services.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520, 05-11-082, § 388-106-0005, filed 5/17/05, effective 6/17/05.]

WAC 388-106-0010 What definitions apply to this chapter? "Ability to make self understood" means how you make yourself understood to those closest to you; express or communicate requests, needs, opinions, urgent problems and social conversations, whether in speech, writing, sign language, symbols, or a combination of these including use of a communication board or keyboard:

- (a) Understood: You express ideas clearly;
- (b) Usually understood: You have difficulty finding the right words or finishing thoughts, resulting in delayed responses, or you require some prompting to make self understood;
- (c) Sometimes understood: You have limited ability, but are able to express concrete requests regarding at least basic needs (e.g. food, drink, sleep, toilet);
- (d) Rarely/never understood. At best, understanding is limited to caregiver's interpretation of client specific sounds or body language (e.g. indicated presence of pain or need to toilet.)

"Activities of daily living (ADL)" means the following:

- (a) Bathing: How you take a full-body bath/shower, sponge bath, and transfer in/out of tub/shower.
- (b) Bed mobility: How you move to and from a lying position, turn side to side, and position your body while in bed, in a recliner, or other type of furniture.
- (c) Body care: How you perform with passive range of motion, applications of dressings and ointments or lotions to the body and pedicure to trim toenails and apply lotion to feet. In adult family homes, contracted assisted living, enhanced adult residential care, and enhanced adult residential care-specialized dementia care facilities, dressing changes using clean technique and topical ointments must be performed by a licensed nurse or through nurse delegation in accordance with chapter 246-840 WAC. Body care excludes:

(i) Foot care if you are diabetic or have poor circulation; or

(ii) Changing bandages or dressings when sterile procedures are required.

(d) Dressing: How you put on, fasten, and take off all items of clothing, including donning/removing prosthesis.

(e) Eating: How you eat and drink, regardless of skill. Eating includes any method of receiving nutrition, e.g., by mouth, tube or through a vein.

(f) Locomotion in room and immediate living environment: How you move between locations in your room and immediate living environment. If you are in a wheelchair, locomotion includes how self-sufficient you are once in your wheelchair.

(g) Locomotion outside of immediate living environment including outdoors: How you move to and return from more distant areas. If you are living in a boarding home or nursing facility (NF), this includes areas set aside for dining, activities, etc. If you are living in your own home or in an adult family home, locomotion outside immediate living environment including outdoors, includes how you move to and return from a patio or porch, backyard, to the mailbox, to see the next-door neighbor, etc.

(h) Walk in room, hallway and rest of immediate living environment: How you walk between locations in your room and immediate living environment.

(i) Medication management: Describes the amount of assistance, if any, required to receive medications, over the counter preparations or herbal supplements.

(j) Toilet use: How you use the toilet room, commode, bedpan, or urinal, transfer on/off toilet, cleanse, change pad, manage ostomy or catheter, and adjust clothes.

(k) Transfer: How you move between surfaces, i.e., to/from bed, chair, wheelchair, standing position. Transfer does not include how you move to/from the bath, toilet, or vehicle.

(l) Personal hygiene: How you maintain personal hygiene, including combing hair, brushing teeth, shaving, applying makeup, washing/drying face, hands (including nail care), and perineum (menses care). Personal hygiene does not include hygiene in baths and showers.

"Aged person" means a person sixty-five years of age or older.

"Agency provider" means a licensed home care agency or a licensed home health agency having a contract to provide long-term care personal care services to you in your own home.

"Application" means a written request for medical assistance or long-term care services submitted to the department by the applicant, the applicant's authorized representative, or, if the applicant is incompetent or incapacitated, someone acting responsibly for the applicant. The applicant must submit the request on a form prescribed by the department.

"Assessment details" means a summary of information that the department entered into the CARE assessment describing your needs.

"Assessment or reassessment" means an inventory and evaluation of abilities and needs based on an in-person interview in your own home or your place of residence, using CARE.

"Assistance available" means the amount of informal support available if the need is partially met. The department determines the amount of the assistance available using one of four categories:

- (a) Less than one-fourth of the time;
- (b) One-fourth to one-half of the time;
- (c) Over one-half of the time to three-fourths of the time;

or

- (d) Over three-fourths but not all of the time.

"Assistance with body care" means you need assistance with:

- (a) Application of ointment or lotions;
- (b) Trimming of toenails;
- (c) Dry bandage changes; or
- (d) Passive range of motion treatment.

"Assistance with medication management" means you need assistance managing your medications. You are scored as:

(a) Independent if you remember to take medications as prescribed and manage your medications without assistance.

(b) Assistance required if you need assistance from a nonlicensed provider to facilitate your self-administration of a prescribed, over the counter, or herbal medication, as defined in chapter 246-888 WAC. Assistance required includes reminding or coaching you, handing you the medication container, opening the container, using an enabler to assist you in getting the medication into your mouth, alteration of a medication for self-administration, and placing the medication in your hand. This does not include assistance with intravenous or injectable medications. You must be aware that you are taking medications.

(c) Self-directed medication assistance/administration if you are a person with a functional disability who is capable of and who chooses to self-direct your medication assistance/administration.

(d) Must be administered if you must have medications placed in your mouth or applied or instilled to your skin or mucus membrane. Administration must either be performed by a licensed professional or delegated by a registered nurse to a qualified caregiver (per chapter 246-840 WAC). Intravenous or injectable medications may never be delegated. Administration may also be performed by a family member or unpaid caregiver if facility licensing regulations allow.

"Authorization" means an official approval of a departmental action, for example, a determination of client eligibility for service or payment for a client's long-term care services.

"Blind person" means a person determined blind as described under WAC 388-511-1105 by the division of disability determination services of the medical assistance administration.

"Categorically needy" means the status of a person who is eligible for medical care under Title XIX of the Social Security Act. See WAC 388-475-0100 and chapter 388-513 WAC.

"Client" means an applicant for service or a person currently receiving services from the department.

"Current" means a behavior occurred within seven days of the CARE assessment date, including the day of the assessment. Behaviors that the department designates as current must include information about:

(a) Whether the behavior is easily altered or not easily altered; and

(b) The frequency of the behavior.

"Decision making" means your ability and actual performance in making everyday decisions about tasks or activities of daily living. The department determines whether you are:

(a) Independent: Decisions about your daily routine are consistent and organized; reflecting your lifestyle, choices, culture, and values.

(b) Modified independence/difficulty in new situations: You have an organized daily routine, are able to make decisions in familiar situations, but experience some difficulty in decision making when faced with new tasks or situations.

(c) Moderately impaired/poor decisions; unaware of consequences: Your decisions are poor and you require reminders, cues and supervision in planning, organizing and correcting daily routines. You attempt to make decisions, although poorly.

(d) Severely impaired/no or few decisions: Decision making is severely impaired; you never/rarely make decisions.

"Department" means the state department of social and health services, aging and disability services administration or its designee.

"Designee" means area agency on aging.

"Difficulty" means how difficult it is or would be for you to perform an instrumental activity of daily living (IADL). This is assessed as:

(a) No difficulty in performing the activity;

(b) Some difficulty in performing the activity (e.g., you need some help, are very slow, or fatigue easily); or

(c) Great difficulty in performing the activity (e.g., little or no involvement in the activity is possible).

"Disabling condition" means you have a medical condition which prevents you from self performance of personal care tasks without assistance.

"Estate recovery" means the department's process of recouping the cost of Medicaid and long-term care benefit payments from the estate of the deceased client. See chapter 388-527 WAC.

"Home health agency" means a licensed:

(a) Agency or organization certified under Medicare to provide comprehensive health care on a part-time or intermittent basis to a patient in the patient's place of residence and reimbursed through the use of the client's medical identification card; or

(b) Home health agency, certified or not certified under Medicare, contracted and authorized to provide:

(i) Private duty nursing; or

(ii) Skilled nursing services under an approved Medicaid waiver program.

"Income" means income as defined under WAC 388-500-0005.

"Individual provider" means a person employed by you to provide personal care services in your own home. See WAC 388-71-0500 through 388-71-05909.

"Disability" is described under WAC 388-511-1105.

"Informal support" means a person or resource that is available to provide assistance without home and community program funding. The person or resource providing the informal support must be age 18 or older.

"Institution" means medical facilities, nursing facilities, and institutions for the mentally retarded. It does not include correctional institutions. See medical institutions in WAC 388-500-0005.

"Instrumental activities of daily living (IADL)" means routine activities performed around the home or in the community and includes the following:

(a) Meal preparation: How meals are prepared (e.g., planning meals, cooking, assembling ingredients, setting out food, utensils, and cleaning up after meals). NOTE: The department will not authorize this IADL to plan meals or clean up after meals. You must need assistance with actual meal preparation.

(b) Ordinary housework: How ordinary work around the house is performed (e.g., doing dishes, dusting, making bed, tidying up, laundry).

(c) Essential shopping: How shopping is completed to meet your health and nutritional needs (e.g., selecting items). Shopping is limited to brief, occasional trips in the local area to shop for food, medical necessities and household items required specifically for your health, maintenance or well-being. This includes shopping with or for you.

(d) Wood supply: How wood is supplied (e.g., splitting, stacking, or carrying wood) when you use wood as the sole source of fuel for heating and/or cooking.

(e) Travel to medical services: How you travel by vehicle to a physician's office or clinic in the local area to obtain medical diagnosis or treatment-includes driving vehicle yourself, traveling as a passenger in a car, bus, or taxi.

(f) Managing finances: How bills are paid, checkbook is balanced, household expenses are managed. The department cannot pay for any assistance with managing finances.

(g) Telephone use: How telephone calls are made or received (with assistive devices such as large numbers on telephone, amplification as needed).

"Long-term care services" means the services administered directly or through contract by the aging and disability services administration and identified in WAC 388-106-0015.

"Medicaid" is defined under WAC 388-500-0005.

"Medically necessary" is defined under WAC 388-500-0005.

"Medically needy (MN)" means the status of a person who is eligible for a federally matched medical program under Title XIX of the Social Security Act, who, but for income above the categorically needy level, would be eligible as categorically needy. Effective January 1, 1996, an AFDC-related adult is not eligible for MN.

"New Freedom consumer directed services (NFCDS)" means a mix of services and supports to meet needs identified in the participant's assessment and identified in a New Freedom spending plan, within the limits of the individual budget, that provide participants with flexibility to plan, select, and direct the purchase of goods and services to meet identified needs. Participants have a meaningful leadership role in:

(a) The design, delivery and evaluation of services and supports;

(b) Exercising control of decisions and resources, making their own decisions about health and well being;

(c) Determining how to meet their own needs;

(d) Determining how and by whom these needs should be met; and

(e) Monitoring the quality of services received.

"New Freedom consumer directed services (NFCDS) participant" means a participant who is an applicant for or currently receiving services under the NFCDS waiver.

"New Freedom spending plan (NFSP)" means the plan developed by the participant, within the limits of an individual budget, that details the participant's choices to purchase specific NFCDS and provides required federal Medicaid documentation.

"Own home" means your present or intended place of residence:

(a) In a building that you rent and the rental is not contingent upon the purchase of personal care services as defined in this section;

(b) In a building that you own;

(c) In a relative's established residence; or

(d) In the home of another where rent is not charged and residence is not contingent upon the purchase of personal care services as defined in this section.

"Past" means the behavior occurred from eight days to five years of the assessment date. For behaviors indicated as past, the department determines whether the behavior is addressed with current interventions or whether no interventions are in place.

"Personal aide" is defined in RCW 74.39.007.

"Personal care services" means physical or verbal assistance with activities of daily living (ADL) and instrumental activities of daily living (IADL) due to your functional limitations. Assistance is evaluated with the use of assistive devices.

"Physician" is defined under WAC 388-500-0005.

"Plan of care" means assessment details and service summary generated by CARE.

"Provider or provider of service" means an institution, agency, or person:

(a) Having a signed department contract to provide long-term care client services; and

(b) Qualified and eligible to receive department payment.

"Residential facility" means a licensed adult family home under department contract or licensed boarding home under department contract to provide assisted living, adult residential care or enhanced adult residential care.

"Self performance for ADLs" means what you actually did in the last seven days before the assessment, not what you might be capable of doing. Coding is based on the level of performance that occurred three or more times in the seven-day period and does not include support provided as defined in WAC 388-106-0010. Your self performance level is scored as:

(a) Independent if you received no help or oversight, or if you needed help or oversight only once or twice;

(b) Supervision if you received oversight (monitoring or standby), encouragement, or cueing three or more times;

(c) Limited assistance if you were highly involved in the activity and given physical help in guided maneuvering of limbs or other nonweight bearing assistance on three or more occasions. For bathing, limited assistance means physical help is limited to transfer only;

(d) Extensive assistance if you performed part of the activity, but on three or more occasions, you needed weight bearing support or you received full performance of the activity during part, but not all, of the activity. For bathing, extensive assistance means you needed physical help with part of the activity (other than transfer);

(e) Total dependence if you received full caregiver performance of the activity and all subtasks during the entire seven-day period from others. Total dependence means complete nonparticipation by you in all aspects of the ADL; or

(f) Activity did not occur if you or others did not perform an ADL over the last seven days before your assessment. The activity may not have occurred because:

- (i) You were not able (e.g., walking, if paralyzed);
- (ii) No provider was available to assist; or
- (iii) You declined assistance with the task.

"Self performance for IADLs" means what you actually did in the last thirty days before the assessment, not what you might be capable of doing. Coding is based on the level of performance that occurred three or more times in the thirty-day period. Your self performance is scored as:

(a) Independent if you received no help, set-up help, or supervision;

(b) Set-up help/arrangements only if on some occasions you did your own set-up/arrangement and at other times you received help from another person;

(c) Limited assistance if on some occasions you did not need any assistance but at other times in the last thirty days you required some assistance;

(d) Extensive assistance if you were involved in performing the activity, but required cueing/supervision or partial assistance at all times;

(e) Total dependence if you needed the activity fully performed by others; or

(f) Activity did not occur if you or others did not perform the activity in the last thirty days before the assessment.

"Service summary" is CARE information which includes: Contacts (e.g. emergency contact), services the client is eligible for, number of hours or residential rates, personal care needs, the list of formal and informal providers and what tasks they will provide, a provider schedule, referral needs/information, and dates and agreement to the services.

"SSI-related" is defined under WAC 388-475-0050.

"Status" means the amount of informal support available. The department determines whether the ADL or IADL is:

(a) Met, which means the ADL or IADL will be fully provided by an informal support;

(b) Unmet, which means an informal support will not be available to provide assistance with the identified ADL or IADL;

(c) Partially met, which means an informal support will be available to provide some assistance, but not all, with the identified ADL or IADL; or

(d) Client declines, which means you do not want assistance with the task.

"Supplemental Security Income (SSI)" means the federal program as described under WAC 388-500-0005.

"Support provided" means the highest level of support provided (to you) by others in the last seven days before the assessment, even if that level of support occurred only once.

(a) No set-up or physical help provided by others;

(b) Set-up help only provided, which is the type of help characterized by providing you with articles, devices, or preparation necessary for greater self performance of the activity. (For example, set-up help includes but is not limited to giving or holding out an item or cutting food);

(c) One-person physical assist provided;

(d) Two- or more person physical assist provided; or

(e) Activity did not occur during entire seven-day period.

"You/your" means the client.

APPLYING FOR SERVICES

WAC 388-106-0015 What long-term care services does the department provide? The department provides long-term care services through programs that are designed to help you remain in the community. These programs offer an alternative to nursing home care (which is described in WAC 388-106-0350 through 388-106-0360). You may receive services from any of the following:

(1) Medicaid personal care (MPC) is a Medicaid state plan program authorized under RCW 74.09.520. Clients eligible for this program may receive personal care in their own home or in a residential facility.

(2) Community options program entry system (COPES) is a Medicaid waiver program authorized under RCW 74.39A.030. Clients eligible for this program may receive personal care in their own home or in a residential facility.

(3) Medically needy residential waiver (MNRW) is a Medicaid waiver program authorized under RCW 74.39.041. Clients eligible for this program may receive personal care in a residential facility.

(4) Medically needy in-home waiver (MNIW) is a Medicaid waiver program authorized under RCW 74.09.700. Clients eligible for this program may receive personal care in their own home.

(5) Chore is a state-only funded program authorized under RCW 74.39A.110. Grandfathered clients may receive assistance with personal care in their own home.

(6) Volunteer chore is a state-funded program that provides volunteer assistance with household tasks to eligible clients.

(7) Program of all-inclusive care for the elderly (PACE) is a Medicaid/Medicare managed care program authorized under 42 CFR 460.2. Clients eligible for this program may receive personal care and medical services in their own home, in residential facilities, and in adult day health centers.

(8) Adult day health is a supervised daytime program providing skilled nursing and rehabilitative therapy services in addition to core services outlined in WAC 388-106-0800.

(9) Adult day care is a supervised daytime program providing core services, as defined under WAC 388-106-0800.

(10) GAU-funded residential care is a state-funded program authorized under WAC 388-400-0025. Clients eligible for this program may receive personal care services in an adult family home or an adult residential care facility.

(11) Residential care discharge allowance is a service that helps eligible clients to establish or resume living in their own home.

(12) Private duty nursing is a Medicaid service that provides an alternative to institutionalization in a hospital or nursing facility setting. Clients eligible for this program may receive at least four continuous hours of skilled nursing care on a day to day basis in their own home.

(13) Senior Citizens Services Act (SCSA) is a program authorized under chapter 74.38 RCW. Clients eligible for this program may receive community-based services as defined in RCW 74.38.040.

(14) Respite program is a program authorized under RCW 74.41.040 and WAC 388-106-1200. This program provides relief care for unpaid family or other caregivers of adults with a functional disability.

(15) Programs for persons with developmental disabilities are discussed in chapter 388-823 through 388-853 WAC.

(16) Nursing facility.

(17) Medicare/Medicaid integration project (MMIP) is a DSHS prepaid managed care program, authorized under 42 CFR Part 438, that integrates medical and long-term care services for clients who are sixty-five years of age or older and eligible for Medicare (Parts A and B) and Medicaid.

(18) New Freedom consumer directed services (NFCDS) is a Medicaid waiver program authorized under RCW 74.39A.030.

COMPREHENSIVE ASSESSMENT REPORTING EVALUATION (CARE) ASSESSMENT

WAC 388-106-0050 What is an assessment? (1) An assessment is an in-person interview in your home or your place of residence that is conducted by the department to inventory and evaluate your ability to care for yourself. The department will assess you at least annually or more often when there are significant changes to your ability to care for yourself.

(2) Between assessments, the department may modify your current assessment without an in-person interview in your home or place of residence. The reasons that the department may modify your current assessment without conducting an in-person interview in your home or place of residence include but are not limited to the following:

- (a) Errors made by department staff in coding the information from your in-person interview;
- (b) New information requested by department staff at the time of your assessment and received after completion of the in-person interview (e.g. medical diagnosis);
- (c) Changes in the level of informal support available to you; or
- (d) Clarification of the coding selected.

(3) When the department modifies your current assessment, it will notify you using a Planned Action Notice of the modification regardless of whether the modification results in a change to your benefits. You will also receive a new service summary and assessment details.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520, 74.39A.010 and 74.39A.020. 06-05-022, § 388-106-0050, filed 2/6/06, effective 3/9/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520. 05-11-082, § 388-106-0050, filed 5/17/05, effective 6/17/05.]

WAC 388-106-0055 What is the purpose of an assessment? The purpose of an assessment is to:

- (1) Determine eligibility for long-term care programs;
- (2) Identify your strengths, limitations, and preferences;
- (3) Evaluate your living situation and environment;
- (4) Evaluate your physical health, functional and cognitive abilities;
- (5) Determine availability of informal supports and other nondepartment paid resources;
- (6) Determine need for intervention;
- (7) Determine need for case management activities;
- (8) Determine your classification group that will set your payment rate for residential care or number of hours of in-home care;
- (9) Determine need for referrals; and
- (10) Develop a plan of care, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010.
- (11) In the case of New Freedom consumer directed services, the purpose of an assessment is to determine functional eligibility and for the participant to develop the New Freedom spending plan, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520, 74.39A.030. 06-16-035, § 388-106-0055, filed 7/25/06, effective 8/25/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520. 05-11-082, § 388-106-0055, filed 5/17/05, effective 6/17/05.]

WAC 388-106-0060 Who must perform the assessment? The assessment must be performed by the department.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520. 05-11-082, § 388-106-0060, filed 5/17/05, effective 6/17/05.]

WAC 388-106-0065 What is the process for conducting an assessment? The department:

(1) Will assess you using a department-prescribed assessment tool, titled the comprehensive assessment reporting evaluation (CARE).

(2) May request the assessment be conducted in private. However, you have the right to request that third parties be present.

(3) Has the right to end the assessment if behaviors by any party are impeding the assessment process. If an assessment is terminated, the department will reschedule.

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520, 74.39A.010 and 74.39A.020. 06-05-022, § 388-106-0065, filed 2/6/06, effective 3/9/06. Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520. 05-11-082, § 388-106-0065, filed 5/17/05, effective 6/17/05.]

WAC 388-106-0070 Will I be assessed in CARE? You will be assessed in CARE if you are applying for or receiving COPES, MNIW, MNRW, MPC, chore, respite, adult day health, GAU-funded residential care, PACE, or Private Duty Nursing. You may not be assessed by forms previously used by the department once you have been assessed under CARE.

WAC 388-106-0075 How is my need for personal care services assessed in CARE? To assess your need for personal care services, the department gathers information from you, your caregivers, family members, and other sources. The department will assess your ability to perform:

(1) Activities of daily living (ADL) using self performance, support provided, status and assistance available, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010. Also, the department determines your need for "assistance with body care" and "assistance with medication management," as defined in WAC 388-106-0010; and

(2) Instrumental activities of daily living (IADL) using self performance, difficulty, status and assistance available, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010.

CARE CLASSIFICATION

WAC 388-106-0080 How is the amount of long-term care services I can receive in my own home or in a residential facility determined? The amount of long-term care services you can receive in your own home or in a residential facility is determined through a classification system. Twelve classifications apply to clients served in residential and in-home settings. Two additional exceptional care groups apply to clients served in in-home settings. The department has assigned each classification a residential facility rate or a base number of hours you can receive in your own home.

(2007 Ed.)

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520. 05-11-082, § 388-106-0080, filed 5/17/05, effective 6/17/05.]

WAC 388-106-0085 What criteria does the CARE tool use to place me in one of the classification groups? The department uses CARE to assess your characteristics. Based on this assessment, the CARE tool uses the following criteria to place you in one of the classification groups:

- (1) Cognitive performance.
- (2) Clinical complexity.
- (3) Mood/behaviors symptoms.
- (4) Activities of daily living (ADLs).

[Statutory Authority: RCW 74.08.090, 74.09.520. 05-11-082, § 388-106-0085, filed 5/17/05, effective 6/17/05.]

WAC 388-106-0090 How does the CARE tool measure cognitive performance? (1) The CARE tool uses a tool called the cognitive performance scale (CPS) to evaluate your cognitive impairment. The CPS results in a score that ranges from zero (intact) to six (very severe impairment). Your CPS score is based on:

- (a) Whether you are comatose.
- (b) Your ability to make decisions, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010 "Decision making."
- (c) Your ability to make yourself understood, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010 "Ability to make self understood."
- (d) Whether you have short-term memory problem (e.g. can you remember recent events?) or whether you have delayed recall; and
- (e) Whether you score as total dependence for self performance in eating, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010 "Self performance of ADLs."

(2) You will receive a CPS score of:

(a) Zero when you do not have problems with decision-making ability, making yourself understood, or recent memory.

(b) One when you meet one of the following:

(i) Your decision-making ability is scored as modified independence or moderately impaired;

(ii) Your ability to make yourself understood is usually, sometimes, or rarely/never understood; or

(iii) You have a recent memory problem.

(c) Two when you meet two of the following:

(i) Your decision-making ability is scored as modified independence or moderately impaired;

(ii) Your ability to make yourself understood is usually, sometimes, or rarely/never understood; and/or

(iii) You have a short-term memory problem or delayed recall.

(d) Three when you meet at least two of the criteria listed in subsection (2)(b) of this section and one of the following applies:

(i) Your decision making is moderately impaired; or

(ii) Your ability to make yourself understood is sometimes or rarely/never understood.

(e) Four when both of the following criteria applies:

(i) Your decision making is moderately impaired; and
 (ii) Your ability to make yourself understood is sometimes or rarely/never understood.

(f) Five when your ability to make decisions is scored as severely impaired.

(g) Six when one of the following applies:

(i) Your ability to make decisions is severely impaired and you require total dependence in eating; or

(ii) You are comatose.

WAC 388-106-0095 How does the CARE tool measure clinical complexity? The CARE tool places you in the clinically complex classification group only when you have one or more of the following criteria and corresponding ADL scores:

Condition	AND an ADL Score of
ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease)	>14
Aphasia (expressive and/or receptive)	>=2
Cerebral Palsy	>14
Diabetes Mellitus (insulin dependent)	>14
Diabetes Mellitus (noninsulin dependent)	>14
Emphysema & Shortness of Breath (at rest or exertion) or dizziness/vertigo	>10
COPD & Shortness of Breath (at rest or exertion) or dizziness/vertigo	>10
Explicit terminal prognosis	>14
Hemiplegia	>14
Multiple Sclerosis	>14
Parkinson Disease	>14
Pathological bone fracture	>14
Quadriplegia	>14
Rheumatoid Arthritis	>14
You have one or more of the following skin problems: ■ Pressure ulcers, with areas of persistent skin redness; ■ Pressure ulcers with partial loss of skin layers; ■ Pressure ulcers, with a full thickness lost; ■ Skin desensitized to pain/pressure; ■ Open lesions; and/or ■ Stasis ulcers. WAC 388-106-0100 How does the CARE tool measure mood and behaviors? (1) When you do not meet the criteria for the clinically complex classification group, or the criteria for exceptional care, or for in-home only have a cognitive performance scale score of five or six, the mood and behavior criteria listed in subsection (3) below determines your classification group.

(2) For each behavior that the CARE tool has documented, the department will determine a status as "current" or "past" as defined in WAC 388-106-0010.

(3) CARE places you in the mood and behavior classification group only if you have one or more of the behavior/moods that also meets the listed status, frequency, and alterability as identified in the following chart. No other moods or behaviors documented by CARE will qualify you for the mood and behavior classification.

Behavior/Mood	AND Status, Frequency & Alterability

WAC 388-106-0105 How does the CARE tool measure activities of daily living (ADLs)? (1) CARE determines an ADL score ranging from zero to twenty-eight for each of the following ADLs.

- (a) Personal hygiene;
- (b) Bed mobility;
- (c) Transfers;
- (d) Eating;
- (e) Toilet use;
- (f) Dressing;
- (g) Locomotion in room;
- (h) Locomotion outside room; and
- (i) Walk in room.

(2) The department through the CARE tool determines the ADL score by using the definitions in WAC 388-106-0010 under "Self-performance for ADLs." The CARE tool assigns the following points to the level of self performance for each of the ADLs listed in subsection (1) of this section. For the locomotion in room, locomotion outside of room and walk in room, the department uses the highest score of the three in determining the total ADL score.

ADL Scoring Chart
If Self Performance is:	Score Equals
Independent	0
Supervision	1
Limited assistance	2
Extensive assistance	3
Total dependence	4
Did not occur/no provider	4
Did not occur/client not able	4
Did not occur/client declined	0

(3) Although assessed by CARE, the department does not score bathing and medication management to determine classification groups.

WAC 388-106-0120 What is the payment rate that the department will pay the provider if I receive personal care services in a residential facility? The department publishes rates and/or adopts rules to establish how much the department pays toward the cost of your care in a residential facility. The department assigns payment rates to the CARE classification groups. Payment for care in a residential facility corresponds to the payment rate assigned to the classification group in which the CARE tool has placed you.

WAC 388-106-0130 How does the department determine the number of hours I may receive for in-home care? (1) The department assigns a base number of hours to each classification group as described in WAC 388-106-0125.

(2) The department will deduct from the base hours to account for your informal supports, as defined in WAC 388-106-0010, as follows:

(a) The CARE tool determines the adjustment for informal supports by determining the amount of assistance available to meet your needs, assigns it a numeric percentage, and reduces the base hours assigned to the classification group by the numeric percentage. The department has assigned the following numeric values for the amount of assistance available for each ADL and IADL:

Meds	Self Performance	Status	Assistance Available	Value Percentage
Self administration of medications	Rules for all codes apply except independent is not counted	Unmet	N/A	1
		Met	N/A	0
		Decline	N/A	0
		Partially met	<1/4 time	.9
			1/4 to 1/2 time	.7
			1/2 to 3/4 time	.5
			>3/4 time	.3

Unscheduled ADLs	Self Performance	Status	Assistance Available	Value Percentage
Bed mobility, transfer, walk in room, eating, toilet use	Rules apply for all codes except: Did not occur/client not able and Did not occur/no provider = 1; Did not occur/client declined and independent are not counted.	Unmet	N/A	1
		Met	N/A	0
		Decline	N/A	0
		Partially met	<1/4 time	.9
			1/4 to 1/2 time	.7
			1/2 to 3/4 time	.5
>3/4 time	.3
Scheduled ADLs	Self Performance	Status	Assistance Available	Value Percentage
Dressing, personal hygiene, bathing	Rules apply for all codes except: Did not occur/client not able and Did not occur/no provider = 1; Did not occur/client declined and independent are not counted.	Unmet	N/A	1
		Met	N/A	0
		Decline	N/A	0
		Partially met	<1/4 time	.75
			1/4 to 1/2 time	.55
			1/2 to 3/4 time	.35
>3/4 time	.15
IADLs	Self Performance	Status	Assistance Available	Value Percentage
Meal preparation, Ordinary housework, Essential shopping*	Rules for all codes apply except independent is not counted.	Unmet	N/A	1
		Met	N/A	0
		Decline	N/A	0
		Partially met	<1/4 time	.3
			1/4 to 1/2 time	.2
			1/2 to 3/4 time	.1
>3/4 time	.05
IADLs	Self Performance	Status	Assistance Available	Value Percentage
Travel to medical	Rules for all codes apply except independent is not counted.	Unmet	N/A	1
		Met	N/A	0
		Decline	N/A	0
		Partially met	<1/4 time	.9
			1/4 to 1/2 time	.7
			1/2 to 3/4 time	.5
>3/4 time	.3
Key: > means greater than < means less than *Results in 5% deduction for each IADL from the base hours. Remaining hours may be used for completion of household and personal care tasks.

(b) To determine the amount of reduction for informal support, the value percentage is divided by the number of qualifying ADLs and IADLs needs. The result is value A. Value A is then subtracted from one. This is value B. Value B is divided by three. This is value C. Value A and Value C are summed. This is value D. Value D is multiplied by the "base hours" assigned to your classification group and the result is base in-home care hours reduced for informal supports.

(3) Also, the department will adjust in-home base hours for the following shared living circumstances:

(a) If there is more than one client living in the same household, the status under subsection (2)(a) of this section must be met or partially met for the following IADLs:

- (i) Meal preparation,
- (ii) Housekeeping,
- (iii) Shopping, and
- (iv) Wood supply.

(b) If you and your paid provider live in the same household, the status under subsection (2)(a) of this section must be met for the following IADLs:

- (i) Meal preparation,
- (ii) Housekeeping,
- (iii) Shopping, and
- (iv) Wood supply.

(c) When there is more than one client living in the same household and your paid provider lives in your household, the status under subsection (2)(a) of this section must be met for the following IADLs:

- (i) Meal preparation,
- (ii) Housekeeping,
- (iii) Shopping, and
- (iv) Wood supply.

(4) After deductions are made to your base hours, as described in subsections (2) and (3), the department may add on hours based on your living environment:

Condition	Status	Assistance Available	Add On Hours
Offsite laundry facilities, which means the client does not have facilities in own home and the caregiver is not available to perform any other personal or household tasks while laundry is done.	Unmet	N/A	8
Client is >45 minutes from essential services (which means he/she lives more than 45 minutes one-way from a full-service market).	Unmet	N/A	5
	Met	N/A	0
	Partially met	<1/4 time	5
		between 1/4 to 1/2 time	4
		between 1/2 to 3/4 time	2
		>3/4 time	2
Wood supply used as sole source of heat.	Unmet	N/A	8
	Met	N/A	0
	Declines	N/A	0
	Partially met	<1/4 time	8
		between 1/4 to 1/2 time	6
		between 1/2 to 3/4 time	4
		>3/4 time	2

(5) In the case of New Freedom consumer directed services (NFCDS), the department determines hours as described in WAC 388-106-1450.

(6) The result of actions under subsections (2), (3), and (4) is the maximum number of hours that can be used to develop your plan of care. The department must take into account cost effectiveness, client health and safety, and program limits in determining how hours can be used to meet your identified needs. In the case of New Freedom consumer directed services (NFCDS), a New Freedom spending plan (NFSP) is developed in place of a plan of care.

(7) You and your case manager will work to determine what services you choose to receive if you are eligible. The hours may be used to authorize:

(a) Personal care services from a home care agency provider and/or an individual provider.

(b) Home delivered meals (i.e. a half hour from the available hours for each meal authorized).

(c) Adult day care (i.e. a half hour from the available hours for each hour of day care authorized).

(d) A home health aide if you are eligible per WAC 388-106-0300 or 388-106-0500.

(e) A private duty nurse (PDN) if you are eligible per WAC 388-71-0910 and 388-71-0915 or WAC 388-551-3000 (i.e. one hour from the available hours for each hour of PDN authorized).

(f) The purchase of New Freedom consumer directed services (NFCDS).
